(1A) The power to make rules or orders under clauses (w), (wa) and (x) of sub-section (1) shall in the first instance have effect only in relation to the Bombay area of the State of Maharashtra; but the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette provide that such power under any or all of those clauses, shall also have effect, from such date as may be specified in the notification, in any other area of the State. (1B) The power to make rules, orders or appointment under clauses (w) and (wa) (x) and (xa) and in so far as it relates to a licence or permission under any of those clauses, under clause (y) of sub-section (1), may, subject to the provision of sub-section (1A), also be exercised by a Revenue Commissioner in the revenue division under this charge. (2)(i) The power of making, altering or rescinding rules under clauses (a) and (c) of sub-section (1) shall be subject to the control of the State Government. (ii) The power of making, altering or rescinding rules under the remaining clauses of sub-section (1) shall be subject to the previous sanction of that Government. (3) Every rule made under clause (v) of sub-section (1) with respect to the use of a place for the disposal of the dead shall be framed with due regard to ordinary and established usages and to the necessities of prompt disposal of the dead in individual cases. (4) Every rule promulgated under the authority of clause (1) of sub-section (1) shall, if made in relation to any area which is not under the charge of a Commissioner, be forth-with reported to the Revenue Commissioner and the State Government. (5) If any rule or order made or promulgated under this section relates to any matter with respect to which there is a provision in any law, rule or by-law of any municipal or local authority in relation to the public health, convenience or safety of the locality, such rule or order shall be subject to such law, rule or by-law of the municipal or local authority, as the case may be. (6) The power of making, altering or rescinding rules under this section shall be subject to the condition of the rules being made, altered or rescinded after previous publication, and every rule made or alteration or rescission of a rule made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazette and in the locality affected thereby affixing copies thereof in conspicuous places near to the building, structure, work or place, as the case may be, to which the same specially relates or by proclaiming the same by the beating of drum or by advertising the same in such local newspapers in English or in the local language, as the authority making, altering or rescinding the rule may deem fit or by any two or more of these means or by any other means it may think suitable: Provided that any such rules may be made, altered or rescinded without previous publication of the Revenue Commissioner, the Commissioner, the District Magistrate or the Superintendent, as the case may be, is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary that such rules or alterations therein or rescission thereof should be brought into force at once. (7) Notwithstanding anything herein before contained in this section or which may be contained in any rule made thereunder, it shall always be lawful for the competent authority to refuse a licence for, or to prohibit the keeping of any place of public amusement or entertainment or any place used for conducting a dancing school or to refuse a certificate of registration for, or to prohibit the keeping of any eating house, as the case may be, by a person of notoriously bad character.(8)It shall be the duty of all persons concerned to conform to any order duly made as aforesaid so long as the same shall be in operation.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made by the Commissioner of Police or the District Magistrate under sub-section (1) of section 33 for the area under their respective charges, on and from the date of commencement of the Maharashtra Police (Second Amendment) Act, 2014 (Mah. XV of 2014),--(a)holding of a performance of dance, of any kind or type, in an eating house, permit room or beer bar is prohibited;(b)performance licences issued, if any, by the Commissioner of Police or the District Magistrate or any other officer, as the case may be, being the Licensing Authority under the aforesaid rules, to hold a dance performance, of any kind or type, in an eating house, permit room or beer bar, shall stand cancelled.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 131, any person who holds or causes or permits to be held a dance performance of any kind or type, in an eating house, permit room or beer bar in contravention of sub-section (i), shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and with fine which may extend to rupees five lakhs.Provided that, in the absence of special and adequate reasons to be mentioned in the Judgment of the Court, such imprisonment shall not be less than three months and fine shall not be less than rupees one lakh.(3)If it is noticed by the Licensing Authority that any person, whose performance licence has been cancelled under sub-section (1), holds or causes to be held or permits to hold a dance performance of any kind or type in his eating house, permit room or beer bar, the Licensing Authority shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the rules framed under section 33, suspend the Certificate of Registration as an eating house and the licence to keep a Place of Public Entertainment (PPEL) issued to a permit room or a beer bar and within a period of thirty days from the date of such suspension of the Certificate of Registration and licence, after giving the licensee a reasonable opportunity of being heard, either withdraw the order of suspending the Certificate of Registration and the licence or cancel the Certificate of Registration and the licence.(4)A person aggrieved by an order of the Licensing Authority cancelling the Certificate of. Registration and the licence under sub-section (3), may, within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the order, appeal to the State Government. The decision of the State Government thereon shall be final.(5)Any person whose performance licence stands cancelled under sub-section (2), may apply to the Licencing Authority, who has granted such licence, for refund of the proportionate licence fee. The licencing Authority, after making due inquiry, shall refund the licence fee on pro-rata basis, within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of such application.(6)The offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

34. Competent authority may authorise erection of barriers on streets.

The Commissioner and the Superintendent in areas under their respective charges may, whenever in his opinion such action is necessary, authorise such Police officer as he thinks fit to erect barriers on any street for the purpose of stopping temporarily vehicles driven on such street and satisfy himself that the provisions of law for the time being in force have not been contravened in respect of any such vehicle or by the driver of or the person in charge of such vehicle. The said authority may also make such orders as it deems fit for regulating the use of such barriers.

35. Power to make rules prohibiting disposal of the dead except at places set apart.

(1)A competent authority may, from time to time, make rules prohibiting the disposal of the dead, whether by cremation, burial or otherwise at places other than those set apart for such purpose:Provided that no such rules shall be made in respect of any such town or place in which places have not been so set apart:Provided further that, the competent authority or any officer authorised by it in this behalf may, in its or his discretion on an application made to it or him by any person, grant to such person permission to dispose of the corpse of any deceased person at any place other than a place so set apart, if in its or his opinion such disposal is not likely to cause obstruction to traffic or disturbance of the public peace or is not objectionable for any other reason.(2)Any rules made under sub-section (1) shall specify the places set apart for the disposal of the dead of different communities or sections of communities.(3)All such rules shall be subject to the condition of previous publication and the date to be specified under clause (c) of section 24 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904, shall not be earlier than two months from the date on which the draft of the proposed rules is published.Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, a place set apart for the disposal of the dead means a place set apart for such purpose under any custom, usage or law for the time being in force.

36. Power of Commissioner or the Superintendent and of other officers to give direction to the public.

In areas under their respective charges the Commissioner, and subject to his orders every Police officer not inferior in rank to an Inspector, and the Superintendent and subject to his orders any Police officer of not lower than such rank as may be specified by the State Government in that behalf, may, from time to time as occasion may arise, but not so as to contravene any rule or order under section 33 give all such orders either orally or in writing as may be necessary to—(a)direct the conduct of, and behaviour or action of persons constituting processions or assemblies on or along the streets;(b)prescribe the routes by which and the time at which any such processions may or may not pass;(c)prevent obstructions on the occasion of all processions and assemblies and in the neighbourhood of all places of worship during the time of worship and in all cases when any street or public place or place of public resort may be thronged or liable to be obstructed;(d)keep order on and in all streets, quays, wharves, and at and within public bathing, washing and landing places, fairs, temples and all other places of public resort;(e)regulate and control the playing of music or singing, or the beating of drums, tom-toms and other instruments and the blowing or sounding of horns or other noisy instruments, in or near any street or public place;(ea)regulate and control the use of loud speakers in or near any public place or in any place of public entertainment;(f)make reasonable orders subordinate to and in furtherance of any order made by a competent authority under sections 33, 35, 37 to 40, 42, 43 and 45 of this Act.

37. Power to prohibit certain acts for prevention of disorder.

(1)The Commissioner and the District Magistrate in areas under their respective charges may, whenever and for such time as he shall consider necessary for the preservation of public peace or public safety by a notification publicly promulgated or addressed to individuals, prohibit at any town, village or place or in the vicinity of any such town, village or place—(a)the carrying of arms, cudgels, swords, spears, bludgeons, guns, knives, sticks or lathis, or any other article, which is capable of being used for causing physical violence,(b)the carrying of any corrosive substance or explosives,(c)the carrying, collection and preparation of stones or other missiles or instruments or means of casting or impelling missiles,(d)the exhibition of persons or corpses or figures or effigies thereof,(e)the public utterance of cries, singing of songs, playing of music,(f)delivery of harangues, the use of gestures of mimetic representations, and the preparation, exhibition or dissemination of pictures, symbols, placards or any other object or thing which may in the opinion of such authority offend against decency or morality or undermine the security of or tend to over-throw the State.(2)If any person goes armed with any such article or carries any corrosive substance or explosive or missile in contravention of such prohibition, he shall be liable to be disarmed or the corrosive substance or explosive or missile shall be liable to be seized from him by any Police officer, and the article, corrosive substance, explosive or missile so seized shall be forfeited to the State Government.(3)The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may also by order in writing prohibit any assembly or procession whenever and for so long as it considers such prohibition to be necessary for the preservation of the public order:Provided that no such prohibition shall remain in force for more than fifteen days with-out the sanction of the State Government.(4)The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may also by public notice temporarily reserve for public purpose any street or public place and prohibit persons from entering the area so reserved, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by such authority.

38. Power to prohibit, etc., continuance of music, sound of noise.

(1)If the Commissioner or Superintendent is satisfied from the report of an officer in charge of a Police Station or other information received by him that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent annoyance, disturbance, discomfort or injury or risk of annoyance, disturbance, discomfort or injury to the public or to any persons who dwell or occupy property in the vicinity, he may, by a written order issue such directions as he may consider necessary to any persons for preventing, prohibiting, controlling or regulating—(a)the incidence or continuance in or upon any premises of—(i)any vocal or instrumental music,(ii)sounds caused by the playing, beating, clashing, blowing or use in any manner whatsoever of any instrument, appliance or apparatus or contrivance which is capable of producing or reproducing sound, or(b)the carrying on, in or upon, any premises of any trade, avocation or operation resulting in or attended with noise.(2)The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may, either on its own motion or on the application of any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1), either rescind, modify or alter any such order: Provided that before any such application is disposed of, the said authority shall afford to the applicant an opportunity of appearing before it either in person or by pleader and showing cause against the order and shall, if it rejects any such application either wholly or in part, record its reasons for such rejection.

39. Issue of orders for prevention of riot, etc.

(1) In order to prevent or suppress any riot or grave disturbance of peace, the Commissioner and the Superintendent, in areas under their respective charges, may temporarily close or take possession of any building or place, and may exclude all or any persons therefrom, or may allow access thereto to such persons only and on such terms as he shall deem expedient. All persons concerned shall be bound to conduct themselves in accordance with such orders as the authority making orders may make and notify in exercise of the authority hereby vested in it. (2) Compensation to lawful occupier of building or place closed or taken possession of.- If the lawful occupier of such building or place suffers substantial loss or injury by reason of the action taken under sub-section (1), he shall be entitled, on application made to the authority concerned within one month from the date of such action, to receive reasonable compensation for such loss or injury, unless such action was in the opinion of such authority rendered necessary either by the use to which such building or place was put or intended to be put or by the misconduct of persons having access thereto. (3) Disputes as to compensation to be settled.- In the event of any dispute in any case under sub-section (2) the decision of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate, as the case may be, shall be conclusive as to the amount (if any) to be paid, and as to the person to whom it is to be paid.

40. Issue of orders for maintenance of order at religious ceremonies, etc.

(1) In any case of an actual or intended religious or ceremonial or corporate display or exhibition or organised assemblage in any street or public place, as to which or the conduct of or participation in which it shall appear to a competent authority that a dispute or contention exists which is likely to lead to grave disturbance of the peace, such authority may give such orders as to the conduct of the persons concerned towards each other and towards the public as it shall deem necessary and reasonable under the circumstances, regard being had to the apparent legal rights and to any established practice of the parties and of the persons interested. Every such order shall be published in the town or place wherein it is to operate, and all persons concerned shall be bound to conform to the same. (2) Any order under sub-section (1) shall be subject to a decree, injunction or order made by a Court having jurisdiction, and shall be recalled or altered on its being made to appear to the authority making the order that such order is inconsistent with a judgement, decree, injunction or order of such Court, on the complaint, suit or an application of any person interested, as to the rights and duties of any person affected by the order aforesaid.

41. Police to provide against disorder, etc., at places of amusement and public meetings.

(1)For the purpose of preventing serious disorder or breach of the law or manifest and imminent danger to the persons assembled at any public place of amusement or at an assembly or meeting to which the public are invited or which is open to the public, the senior Police officer of highest rank superior to that of constable, present at such place of amusement or such assembly or meeting may, subject to such rules and orders as may have been lawfully made, give such reasonable directions as to the mode of admission of the public to, and for securing the peaceful and lawful conduct of the proceedings and the maintenance of the public safety at such place of amusement or such assembly or meeting, as he thinks necessary and all persons shall be bound to conform to every such reasonable direction.(2)Police to have free access thereto.- The Police shall have free access to every such place to amusement assembly or meeting, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions sub-section (1) and to any direction made thereunder.

42. Omitted

43. District Magistrate may take special measures to prevent outbreak of epidemic disease at fair, etc.

(1)Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner or District Magistrate that any place in the areas under their respective charges, at which, on account of a pilgrimage, fair or other such occurrence, large bodies of persons have assembled or are likely to assemble is visited or will probably be visited with an outbreak of any epidemic disease, he may take such special measures and may by public notice prescribe such regulations to be observed by the residents of the said place and by persons present thereat or repairing thereto or returning therefrom as he shall deem necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or the spread thereof.(2)It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate or for the Collector or the Chief Presidency Magistrate on the requisition of the Commissioner or the District Magistrate to assess and levy such reasonable fees on persons falling under the provisions of sub-section (1) as will provide for the expenses of the arrangements for sanitation and the preservation of order at and about the place of assemblage.(3)When the place of assemblage is within the limits of a municipality or corporation such sums as shall be necessary for the purposes aforesaid may be recovered from the municipality or corporation.

44. Destruction of stray dogs.

(1)The Commissioner and the Superintendent in areas under their respective charges may from time to time, by public notice, proclaim that any stray dogs found, during such period as may be specified in the said notice, wandering in the streets or in any public place may be destroyed, and any dog so found within such period may be destroyed accordingly.(2)The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may by public notice require that every dog, while in any street or public place and not led by some person, shall be muzzled in such a manner as effectually to prevent it from biting, while not obstructing its breathing or drinking, and the Police may, so long as such notice remains in force, destroy, or take possession of and detain, any dog found loose without muzzle in any street or place beyond the premises of the owner thereof: Provided that any dog so found, wearing a collar on which an apparently genuine name and address of an owner is inscribed, shall not, unless it is rabid, be forthwith destroyed, but information of the detention thereof shall forthwith be sent by post or otherwise to such owner. (3) Any dog which has been detained under sub-section (2) for a period of three clear days without the owners providing a muzzle and paying all expenses connected with such detention, may be destroyed or sold with the sanction and under the orders of the competent authority. (4) The proceeds of the sale of any dog under sub-section (3) shall be applied, as far as may be, in discharge of the expenses incurred in connection with its detention, and the balance, if any, shall form part of the consolidated fund of the State. (5) Any expenses incurred in connection with the destruction or detention of any dog under this section shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), be recoverable from the owner thereof upon a warrant issued by the competent authority as if it were a warrant under section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

45. Destruction of suffering or unfit animals.

(1) Any Police officer who in any street or public place other than a place of worship finds any animal other than a bull or a cow so diseased, or so severely injured, and in such a physical condition, that in his opinion it cannot without cruelty be removed, shall, if the owner is absent or refuses to consent to the destruction of the animal, at once summon the Veterinary Practitioner in charge of the area in which the animal is found and, if the Veterinary Practitioner certifies that the animal is mortally injured, or so severely injured, or so diseased, or in such a physical condition, that it is cruel to keep it alive, the Police officer may, without the consent of the owner, destroy the animal or cause it to be destroyed: Provided that if in the opinion of the Veterinary Practitioner the animal can be removed from the place where it is found without causing it great suffering, and if the owner or person in charge of the animal or in their absence any other person on the spot is willing and offers to remove the animal to a Veterinary Hospital or Panjrapole within such time as the Veterinary Practitioner considers reasonable, the Veterinary Practitioner shall allow the animal to be removed by such owner, person in charge of the animal or other person. If the owner or person in charge of the animal or such other person is unwilling or fails so to remove the animal, the Veterinary Practitioner may direct the Police officer to remove the animal before it is destroyed from the place where it is found to such other place as he may think fit: Provided further that when the animal is destroyed in any street or public place it shall, as far as possible, be screened from the public gaze while it is being destroyed. (2) The State Government may appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Veterinary Practitioners and may declare the areas of which they shall be in charge for the purposes of this Act.

46. Power under this Chapter to be exercised by Superintendent subject to the control of District Magistrate and Commissioner and by District Magistrate subject to the control of State Government.

Every power conferred by this Chapter on a Superintendent not specially empowered by the State Government to exercise that power or on any officer subordinate to him shall be exercised by him subject to the orders of the District Magistrate and all rules, regulations and orders made under this Chapter shall, if made by the Revenue Commissioner or the Commissioner, be governed by such rules and orders as the State Government may from time to time make in this behalf and, if made by the District Magistrate or the Superintendent specially empowered in that behalf, shall be subject to the provisions of section 17.

Chapter V

Special measures for maintenance of public order and safety of State

I - Employment of Additional Police, recovery of cost thereof and of riots compensation—its assessment and recovery.

47. Employment of additional Police on application of a person.

(1)The Commissioner or Superintendent may, on the application of any person, depute any additional number of Police to keep the peace, to preserve order or to enforce any of the provisions of this or any other Act in respect of any particular class or classes of offences or to perform any other Police duties at any place in the area under his charge.(2)Such additional Police shall be employed at the cost of the person making the application, but shall be subject to the orders of the Police authorities and shall be employed for such period as the appointing authority thinks fit.(3)If the person upon whose application such additional Police are employed shall at any time make a written requisition to the appointing authority to which the application for the employment of additional Police was made, for the withdrawal of the said Police, he shall be relieved from the cost thereof at the expiration of such period not exceeding one month from the date of the delivery of such requisition, as the State Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, shall determine.

48. Employment of additional Police at large works and when apprehension regarding behaviour of employees exists.

(1)Whenever it appears to the State Government or a competent authority that, —(a)any large work which is being carried on or any public amusement which is being conducted is likely to impede the traffic or to attract a large number of people, or(b)that the behaviour or a reasonable apprehension of the behaviour, of the persons employed on any railway, canal or other public work, or in or upon any manufactory or other commercial concern under construction or in operation at any place necessitates the employment of additional Police at such place, the State Government or the competent authority may depute such additional Police to the said place as it shall think fit and keep the said Police employed at such place for so long as such necessity shall appear to it to continue.(2)Such additional Police shall be employed at the cost of the person by whom the work, amusement, manufactory or concern is being constructed, conducted or carried on and the said person shall pay the costs therefor at such rates as the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, shall from time to time require.

49. Recovery of cost of additional Police employed under sections 47 and 48.

In case of any dispute under section 47 or 48 the decision of the Chief Presidency Magistrate, in Greater Bombay, and the District Magistrate, in the district, shall be conclusive as to the amount to be paid and as to the person by whom it is to be paid and the sum so ascertained may, on the requisition of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate be recovered by the Collector as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person found to be answerable therefor.

50. Employment of additional Police in cases of special danger to public peace.

(1) If in the opinion of the State Government any area is in a disturbed or dangerous condition or in which the conduct of the inhabitants or of any particular section of the inhabitants renders it expedient temporarily to employ additional Police, it may by notification in the Official Gazette specify—(a) the area (hereinafter called “the disturbance area”) in which the additional Police is to be employed, (b) the period for which the additional Police is to be employed: Provided that the period fixed under clause (b) may be extended by the State Government from time to time, if in its opinion it is necessary to do so in the general interest of the public. The cost of the additional Police shall be a tax imposed under this section and shall be recovered in the manner prescribed in the succeeding sub-sections. (2) The decision of the State Government under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) shall be final. (3) On the issue of such notification, the State Government may require,—(a) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a Corporation, the Municipal Commissioner, the Collector or any other authority, (b) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of municipality, the municipality, the Collector or any other authority, (c) in any disturbance area which is outside the areas specified in clauses (a) and (b) the Collector or any other authority, to recover, whether in whole or in part, the cost of such additional Police generally from all persons who are inhabitants of the disturbance area or specially from any particular section or sections, or class or classes of such persons, and in such proportion as the State Government may direct: Provided that where the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality is directed to recover such cost, an additional sum not exceeding 3 per cent of the amount of such cost shall also be recoverable. (4) (i) The State Government may require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality to recover such cost and the additional sum by an addition to the general or property tax which shall be imposed and levied in all or such of the municipal wards, sub-wards or sections thereof, as the State Government may direct. Every addition to the general or property tax imposed under this sub-section shall be recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality from each person liable therefor in the same manner as the general or property tax due from him. The provisions of the relevant Municipal Act shall apply to any such addition as if it were part of the general or property tax levied under the said Act. Such addition shall be a charge along with the general or property tax, on the properties, in such municipal wards or sub-wards or sections. (ii) The State Government may also require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality to recover such cost and the additional sum from each person liable therefor under sub-section (3) in such manner as the State Government may direct. (iii) Where the Municipal Commissioner or a Municipality makes default in imposing and levying any such tax or in making such recovery, the State Government may direct the Collector to impose and levy such tax or to make such recovery.(5)Every amount recoverable by the Collector or other authority under this section shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person liable therefor.(6)It shall be lawful for the State Government by order to exempt any person from liability to bear any portion of the cost of such additional Police.(7)Out of the total amount recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or by a Municipality under sub-section (4) or (5) whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act the amount of the cost shall be paid to the State Government and the balance, if any, shall be credited to the Municipal fund constituted under the relevant Municipal Act. Such amount of cost shall be paid to the State Government every three months.Explanation.—In this section the expression “inhabitants “when used with reference to any area includes person who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immovable property within such area and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rent from holders or occupiers of land in such area notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.

51. Compensation for injury caused by unlawful assembly, how recoverable, date to be fixed for liability.

(1)When any loss or damage is caused to any property or when death results or grievous hurt is caused to any person or persons, by anything done in the prosecution of the common object of an unlawful assembly, the District Magistrate may, by order, specify—(a)the area (hereinafter called “the disturbance area ”), in which in his opinion such unlawful assembly was held;(b)the date on which or the period during which such unlawful assembly was held.(2)The decision of the District Magistrate under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) shall be final.(3)On the issue of an order under sub-section (1), the District magistrate, may, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, determine the amount of the compensation which, in his opinion should be paid to any person or persons in respect of the loss or damage or death or grievous hurt aforesaid. The amount of compensation shall be a tax imposed under this section and shall be recovered in the manner prescribed in the succeeding sub-sections.(4)The District Magistrate may require,—(a)in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a Corporation, the Municipal Commissioner, or any other authority authorised by the collector;(b)in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a municipality, the municipality, or any other authority authorised by the collector, and(c)in any disturbance area which is outside the area specified in clauses (a) and (b), or any other authority authorised by the collector;to recover the amount (hereinafter called “the compensation amount ”) as determined under sub-section (3) either in whole or in part and where the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality is required to recover such amount, an additional sum not exceeding three percent. of the compensation amount (hereinafter referred to as “the Municipal recovery costs ”), generally from all persons who were inhabitants of the disturbance area or the members of the unlawful assembly as specified in sub-section (1), or specially from any particular section or sections, or class or classes of such persons and in such proportion as the District Magistrate may direct.(4A)If the District Magistrate observes that the amount of compensation as determined under sub-section (3), either in whole or in part is to be recovered from persons or section or sections or class or classes of such persons are inhabitants of the area, which is beyond the area of his jurisdiction, the District Magistrate, shall send the information, along with his report, to the District Magistrate of the district in whose jurisdiction such persons or section or sections or class or classes of such persons are residing, to recover the amount from them. On receiving such information, the District Magistrate of such area shall recover the amount of compensation in the manner as provided under this section.(5)(i)The District Magistrate, may require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned to recover the compensation amount and the municipal recovery cost by an addition to the general or property tax which shall be imposed and levied in the disturbance area. Every addition to the general or property tax imposed under this sub-section shall be recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned from each person liable therefor in the same manner as the general or property tax due from him. The provisions of the relevant Municipal Act shall apply to any such additions as if it were part of the general or property tax levied under the relevant Municipal Act. Such addition shall be a charge along with the general or property tax on the properties in the area aforesaid.(ii)The District Magistrate, may also require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned to recover the compensation amount and the municipal recovery cost from each person liable therefor under sub-section (4) in such a manner as he may direct.(6)Where a Municipal Commissioner or a Municipality makes a default in imposing and levying any such tax or in making any such recovery, the State Government may direct the Collector to impose and levy such tax or to make such recovery.(7)Every amount recoverable by the Collector or other authority under this section shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person liable therefor.(8)Out of the total amount recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or by a Municipality under sub-section (5) or (7) whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act, the proportionate amount of the municipal recovery cost shall be deducted therefrom and the amount not exceeding the compensation amount determined by the District Magistrate, under sub-section (3) shall be paid to him for the payment of compensation to the persons entitled thereto and the balance, if any, shall be credited to the municipal fund constituted under the relevant Municipal Act, such amount shall be paid to District Magistrate, every three months.(9)It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate, by order to exempt any persons from liability to pay any portion of the compensation amount.(10)The State Government may, (a) on its own motion, or (b) on an application made by a person within a period of thirty days from date of the order of the District Magistrate, granting or refusing to grant an exemption thereunder, set aside or modify such order.Explanation.—In this section the expression “inhabitants” when used with reference to any disturbance area includes persons who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immovable property within such area and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rent from holders or occupiers of land in such area, notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.(11)The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of any other law for the time being in force.

52. District Magistrate to award or apportion compensation.

(1)It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate to award or apportion all or any moneys recovered as compensation amount under sub-sections (3) to (8) of section 51 to any person or among all or any persons whom he considers entitled to compensation in respect of the loss or damage or death or grievous hurt aforesaid.(2)No compensation shall be awarded under this section except upon a claim made within 45 days from the date of the order issued by the District Magistrate, under sub-section (1) of section 51 and unless the District Magistrate is satisfied that the person claiming compensation or where such claim is made in respect of the death of any person, that person also has himself been free from blame in connection with the occurrences which led to the loss, damage, death or grievous hurt as aforesaid.(3)The compensation payable to any person under section 51 in respect of death or grievous hurt shall not in any way be capable of being assigned or charged or be liable to attachment or to pass to any person other than the person entitled to it by operation of law, nor shall any claim be set off against the same.(4)Every direction and order made by the District Magistrate under this or the preceding section shall be subject to revision by the State Government but save as aforesaid, shall be final.(5)No Civil suit shall be maintainable in respect of any loss or injury for which compensation has been granted under this section.

53. District Magistrate to discharge function under orders of State Government.

The District Magistrate, shall discharge his functions under sections 51 and 52 subject to any general or special orders of the State Government in this behalf.

54. Proportionate recovery of the cost of additional Police and compensation for

loss caused by unlawful assembly.(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947, or any law corresponding thereto in force in any area of the State of Maharashtra, where under the provisions of section 50 or 51, the Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality or the Collector, as the case may be, is required to recover the cost of the additional police including the additional sum referred to in sub-section (3) of section 50 (hereinafter called "the additional cost ") or the compensation amount and the municipal recovery cost (hereinafter called "the riot tax") by an addition to the general or property tax the landlord from whom any portion of the additional cost or the riot tax is recovered, in respect of any premises shall be entitled to recover 75 percent, of such portion from the tenant in the occupation of the premises during the period fixed under sub-section (1) of section 50 or on the date or during the greater part of the period specified under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 51, as the case may be, in the manner specified in sub-section (2).(2)The amount referred to in sub-section (1) and to be recovered from a tenant referred to therein, shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of the premises in his occupation bears to the total amount of rent recoverable for the whole premises if let, and the same shall be recoverable from the tenant in not less than four equal instalments.(3)The provisions of sub-section (1) in so far as they relate to the recovery of the riot tax from the tenant shall not apply to Greater Bombay during the period during which section 10-B of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947, is in force in the said area.II - Dispersal of Gangs and Removal of Persons convicted of certain offences and of certain beggar.

55. Dispersal of gangs and bodies of persons.

56. Removal of persons about to commit offence.

(1)Whenever it shall appear in Greater Bombay and other areas for which a Commissioner has been appointed under section 7 to the Commissioner and in other area or areas to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend the provisions of this section, to the District Magistrate, or the Sub-Divisional Magistrate specially empowered by the State Government in that behalf(a)that the movements or acts of any person are causing or calculated to cause alarm, danger or harm to person or property or(b)that there are reasonable grounds for believing that such person is engaged or is about to be engaged in the commission of an offence involving force or violence or an offence punishable under Chapter XII, XVI or XVII of the Indian Penal Code, or in the abatement of any such offence and when in the opinion of such officer witnesses are not willing to come forward to give evidence in public against such person by reason of apprehension on their part as regards the safety of their person or property, or(bb)that there are reasonable grounds for believing that such person is acting or is about to act(1)in any manner prejudicial to the maintenance of public order as defined in the Maharashtra Prevention of Communal, Antisocial and other Dangerous Activities Act, 1980 or(2)in any manner prejudicial to the maintenance or supplies of commodities essential to the community as defined in the Explanation to sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980, or(3)that an outbreak of epidemic disease is likely to result from the continued residence of an immigrant, the said officer may, by an order in writing duly served on him or by beat of drum or otherwise as he thinks fit, direct such person or immigrant so to conduct himself as shall seem necessary in order to prevent violence and alarm or such prejudicial act, or the outbreak or spread of such disease or notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to remove himself outside such area or areas in the State of Maharashtra (whether within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the officer or not and whether contiguous or not), by such route, and within such time, as the officer may specify and not to enter or return to the area or areas specified (hereinafter referred to as “the specified area or areas”) from which he was directed to remove himself.(2)An officer directing any person under such-section (1) to remove himself from any specified area or areas in the State may further direct such person that during the period the order made against him is in force, as and when he resides in any other areas in the State, he shall report his place of residence to the officer-in-charge of the nearest police station once in every month, even if there be no change in his address. The said officer may also direct that, during the said period, as and when he goes away from the State, he shall, within ten days from the date of his departure from the State send a report in writing to the said officer, either by post or otherwise, of the date of his departure, and as and when he comes back to the State he shall, within ten days, from the date of his arrival in the State, report the date of his arrival to the officer-in-charge of the police station nearest to the place where he may be staying.

57. Removal of persons convicted of certain offences.

(1) If a person has been convicted—(a)(i) of an offence under Chapter XII, XVI or XVII of the Indian Penal Code, or(ii) of any offence under section 65, 66A or 68 of the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949, or(iii) of an offence under section 3, 4, 5, 6 or 9 of the Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act, 1956, or(iv) of an offence under section 135 of the Customs Act, 1962, or(v) of an offence under section 4, or for accepting bet in any public street or thoroughfare or in any place to which the public have or are permitted to have access, or in any race course under clause (a) of section 12 or under section 12A of the Bombay Prevention of Gambling Act, 1887, or(b) twice or more of an offence under the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949 not being an offence under section 65, 66A or 68, or(b-a) twice or more of an offence under section 3 or 4 of the Railway Property (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1966, or(c) thrice or more of an offence under section 122 or 124 of this Act, the Commissioner, the District Magistrate, or the Sub-Divisional Magistrate specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf, if he has reason to believe that such person is likely again to engage himself in the commission of an offence similar to that for which he was convicted, may direct such person notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to remove himself outside such area or areas in the State of Maharashtra (whether within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the officer or not and whether contiguous or not), by such route, and within such time, as the officer may specify and not to enter or return to the area or areas so specified (hereinafter referred to as “the specified area or areas”) from which he was directed to remove himself.(2) An officer directing any person under sub-section (1) to remove himself from any specified area or areas in the State may further direct such person that, during the period the order made against him is in force, as and when he resides in any other areas in the State, he shall report his place of residence to the officer-in-charge of the nearest police station once in every month, even if there be no change in his address. The said officer may also direct that, during the said period, as and when he goes away from the State, he shall, within ten days from the date of his departure from the State, send a report in writing to the said officer either by post or otherwise, of the date of his departure, and as and when he comes back to the State, he shall, within ten days from the date of his arrival in the State report the date of his arrival to the officer-in-charge of the police station nearest to the place where he may be staying. Explanation.—For the purpose of this section “an offence similar to that for which a person was convicted” shall mean—(i) in the case of a person convicted of an offence mentioned in clause (a) (i) an offence falling under any of the Chapters of the Indian Penal Code, and(ii) in the case of a person convicted of an offence mentioned in clause (a) (excluding sub-clause (1) thereof), (b) and (c), an offence falling under the provisions of the Acts mentioned respectively in the said clauses.

57A. Removal of certain persons declared to be beggars.

In area in which the Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959 is in force, the Commissioner or the District Magistrate having jurisdiction in that area, on receipt of a copy of the order of the Court made under clause (b) of sub-section (5) of section 5 of that Act, shall examine the person who has been directed to appear before him, and if the Commissioner or the District Magistrate is satisfied that such person is not likely to engage himself in the said area in any lawful profession, trade, calling or employment, such officer may by order in writing duly served on such person direct such person to remove himself outside the area or areas where the said Act is in force within such time as may be specified in the order and not to enter or return to the area or areas, as the case may be, from which he was directed to remove himself: Provided that, before serving such order on any person, the Commissioner or as the case may be, the District Magistrate shall, in consultation with the State Government or in accordance with any general or special order issued by the State Government for this purpose, offer to such person the option of accepting an employment in any undertaking, public works, or otherwise on such terms and conditions as may be specified by him in this behalf. Where such option is accepted, the fact of such acceptance shall be recorded in the externment order: Provided further that, where the Commissioner or the District Magistrate is satisfied that such person is unfit for any work he shall refer the case of such person to the Court, with a request that the Court may order such person to be detained in a Certified Institution, as provided is clause (c) of sub-section (5) of section 5 of the Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959.

58. Period of operation of orders under sections 55, 56, 57 and 57 A.

A direction made under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A not to enter any particular area or such area and any district or districts, or any part thereof, contiguous thereto, or any specified area or areas as the case may be, shall be for such period as may be specified therein and shall in no case exceed a period of two years from the date on which the person removes himself or is removed from the area, district or districts or part aforesaid or from the specified area or areas, as the case may be

59. Hearing to be given before order under sections 55, 56, 57 or 57A is passed.

(1) Before an order under section 55, [56, 57 or 57A is passed against any person the officer acting under any of the said sections or any officer above the rank of an Inspector authorised by that officer shall inform the person in writing of the general nature of the material allegations against him and give him a reasonable opportunity of tendering an explanation regarding them. If such person makes an application for the examination of any witness produced by him, the authority or officer concerned shall grant such application; and examine such witness, unless for reasons to be recorded in writing, the authority or officer is of opinion that such application is made for the purpose of vexation or delay. Any written statement put in by such person shall be filed with the record of the case. Such person shall be entitled to appear before the officer proceeding under this section by an advocate or attorney for the purpose of tendering his explanation and examining the witness produced by him.(2)The authority or officer proceeding under sub-section (1) may, for the purpose of securing the attendance of any person against whom any order is proposed to be made under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A require such person to appear before him and to pass a security bond with or without sureties for such attendance during the inquiry. If the person fails to pass the security bond as required or fails to appear before the officer or authority during the inquiry, it shall be lawful to the officer or authority to proceed with the inquiry and thereupon such order as was proposed to be passed against him may be passed.

60. Appeal.

(1)Any person aggrieved by an order made under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A may appeal to the State Government or to such other officer as the State Government may by order specify (hereinafter referred to as “the specified officer ”), within thirty days from the date of such order.(2)An appeal under this section shall be preferred in duplicate in the form of a memorandum, setting forth concisely the grounds of objection to the order appealed against, and shall be accompanied by that order of a certified copy thereof.(3)On receipt of such appeal the State Government or the specified order may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant to be heard either personally, or by a pleader, advocate or attorney and after such further inquiry, if any, as it may deem necessary, confirm, vary or cancel, or set aside the order appealed against, or remand the case for disposal with such directions as it or he thinks fit, and make its or his order accordingly:Provided that,the order appealed against shall remain in force pending the disposal of the appeal, unless the State Government or the specified officer otherwise directs.Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section the power to vary the order appealed against shall include, and shall be deemed always to have included, the power to hold such order in abeyance and to make conditional order permitting the person to enter or return to the area or such areas and any contiguous districts or part thereof, or to the specified area or areas, as the case may be, from which he was directed to remove himself.(4)In calculating the period of thirty days provided for an appeal under this section, the time taken for granting a certified copy of the order appealed against shall be excluded.

61. Finality of orders passed by State Government in certain cases.

Any order passed under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A or by the State Government under section 60 shall be called in question in any Court except on the ground that the authority making the order or any officer authorised by it had not followed the procedure laid down in sub-section (1) of section 59 or that there was no material before the authority concerned upon which it could have based its order or on the ground that the said authority was not of opinion that witnesses were unwilling to come forward to give evidence in public against the person in respect of whom an order was made under section 56.

62. Procedure of failure of person to leave the area and his entry therein after removal.

(1) If a person to whom a direction has been issued under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A to remove himself from any area, district or part thereof or from any specified area—(i) fails to remove himself as directed, or (ii) having so removed himself except with the permission in writing of the authority making the order as provided in sub-section (2), enters the area, district or part thereof or the specified area within the period specified in the order, the authority concerned may cause him to be arrested and removed in police custody to such place outside the area, district or part thereof or outside the specified area, and as the case may be, as the said authority may in each case prescribe. (2) The authority making an order under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A may in writing permit any person in respect of whom such order has been made to enter or return to the area, including any contiguous districts or part thereof or to the specified area or areas, from which he was directed to remove himself for such temporary period and subject to such conditions as may be specified in such permission and may require him to enter into a bond with or without surety for the due observance of the conditions imposed. The authority aforesaid may at any time revoke any such permission. Any person who with such permission enters or returns to such area, district or part thereof or to such specified area shall observe the conditions imposed, and at the expiry of the temporary period for which he was permitted to enter or return, or on the earlier revocation of such permission shall remove himself outside such area, or the area and any contiguous districts or part thereof, or outside such specified area or areas, and shall not enter therein or return thereto within the unexpired residue of the period specified in the original order made under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A without a fresh permission. If such person fails to observe any of the conditions imposed, or to remove himself accordingly, or having so removed himself enters or returns to the area, or the area and any contiguous district or parts thereof or to the specified area or areas, without fresh permission, the authority concerned may cause him to be arrested and removed in police custody to such place outside the area and district or part thereof or outside the specified area or areas, as the case may be, as that authority may in each case prescribe.

63. Temporary permission to enter or return to the area from which a person was directed to remove himself.

(1) The State Government or any officer specially empowered by the State Government in that behalf may, by order, permit any person in respect of whom an order has been made under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A, to enter or return for a temporary period to the area or such areas and any contiguous districts or part thereof, or to the specified area or areas, as the case may be, from which he was directed to remove himself, subject to such conditions as it or he may by general or special order specify and which such person accepts and may, at any time, revoke any such permission. (2) In permitting a person under sub-section (1) to enter or return to the area or such areas and any contiguous districts or part thereof, or to the specific area or areas, as the case may be from which he was directed to remove himself, the State Government or such officer may require him to enter into bond with or without surety for the observance of the conditions imposed. (3) Any person permitted under sub-section (1) to enter or return to [the area or such areas and any contiguous districts or part thereof, or to the specified area or areas, as the case may be, from which he was directed to remove himself shall surrender himself at the time and place and to the authority specified in the order or in the order revoking the said order, as the case may be.

63AA. Powers of externment of State Government and officers specially empowered.

(1)The State Government or any officer specially empowered by the State Government in that behalf, may, in like circumstances and in like manner exercise the powers exercisable, in any areas for which a Commissioner is appointed by the Commissioner, and in a district by the District Magistrate, sub-Divisional Magistrate or Superintendent empowered by the State Government in that behalf, as the case may be, under section 55, 56, 57 and 57A, with this modification that under sections 55 and 57A it shall, be lawful for the State Government or the officer specially empowered to direct the members of the gang or body, or person or persons declared to be beggars, as the case may be, to remove themselves from, and not to enter or return to, any local area, or any such areas and any districts or part thereof, whether contiguous thereto or not.(2)The provisions of sections 58, 59, 60, 61, 62 and 63 shall mutatis mutandis apply to the exercise of any powers under this section as they apply to exercise of any powers under section 55, 56, 57 or 57A.III - Control of camps, etc., and Uniforms.

63A. Control of camps, parades, etc., and banning use of uniforms, etc.

No Revenue Commissioner, Magistrate or Police officer shall be liable to any penalty or to payment of damages on account of an act done in good faith, in pursuance or intended pursuance of any duty imposed or any authority conferred on him by any provision of this Act or any other law for the time being in force or any rule, order or direction made or given therein.

160. No public servant liable as aforesaid for giving effect in good faith to any rule, order or direction issued with apparent authority.

No public servant or person duly appointed or authorised shall be liable to any penalty or to payment of any damages for giving effect in good faith to any such order or direction issued with apparent authority by the State Government or by a person empowered in that behalf under this Act or any rule, order or direction made or given thereunder.

161. Suits or prosecutions in respect of acts done under colour of duty as aforesaid not to be entertained, or to be dismissed, if not instituted within the prescribed period.

(1) In any case of alleged offence by the Revenue Commissioner, the Commissioner, a Magistrate, Police officer or other person, or of a wrong alleged to have been done by such Revenue Commissioner, Commissioner, Magistrate, Police officer or other person, by any act done under colour or in excess of any such duty or authority as aforesaid, or wherein it shall appear to the Court that the offence or wrong if committed or done was of the character aforesaid, the prosecution or suit shall not be entertained, or shall be dismissed, if instituted, more than six months after the date of the act complained of; Provided that, any such prosecution against a Police officer may be entertained by the Court, if instituted with the previous sanction of the State Government within two years from the date of the offence. (2) In suits as aforesaid one month's notice of suit to be given with sufficient description of wrong complained of- In the case of an intended suit on account of such a wrong as aforesaid, the person intending to sue shall be bound to give to the alleged wrong-doer one month's notice at least of the intended suit with sufficient description of the wrong complained of, failing which such suit shall be dismissed. (3) Complaint to set forth service of notice and tender of amends.- The complaint shall set forth that a notice as aforesaid has been served on the defendant and the date of such service, and shall state whether any, and if any, what tender of amends has been made by the defendant. A copy of the said notice shall be annexed to the plaint endorsed or accompanied with a declaration by the plaintiff of the time and manner of service thereof.

162. Licences and written permission to specify conditions, etc., and to be signed.

(1)Any licence or written permission granted under the provisions of this Act shall specify the period and locality for which, and the conditions and restrictions subject to which, the same is granted, and shall be given under the signature of the competent authority and such fee shall be charged therefor as is prescribed by any rule under this Act in that behalf.(2)Revocation of licences, etc. - Any licence or written permission granted under this Act may at any time be suspended or revoked by the competent authority, if any of its conditions or restrictions is infringed or evaded by the person to whom it has been granted, or if such person is convicted of any offence in any matter to which such licence or permission relates.(3)When licence revoked, etc., grantee to be deemed without licence.-When any such licence or written permission is suspended or revoked, or when the period for which the same was granted has expired, the person to whom the same was granted shall, for all purposes of this Act, deemed to be without a licence or written permission, until the order for suspending or revoking the same is cancelled, or until the same is renewed, as the case may be.(4)Grantee to produce licence, etc., when required.- Every person to whom any such licence or written permission has been granted shall, while the same remains in force, at all reasonable time, produce the same if so required by a Police Officer.Explanation.—For the purpose of this section any such infringement or evasion by, or conviction of, a servant or other agent acting on behalf of the person to whom the licence or written permission has been granted shall be deemed to be the infringement or evasion by, or as the case may be, conviction of, the person to whom such licence or written permission has been granted.

163. Public notices how to be given.

Any public notice required to be given under any of the provisions of this Act shall be in writing under the signature of a competent authority and shall be published in the locality to be affected thereby, by affixing copies thereof in conspicuous public place, or by proclaiming the same with beat of drums, or by advertising the same in such local newspaper,—English or regional language or Hindi,—as the said authority may deem fit, or by any two or more of these means and by any other means it may think suitable.

164. Consent, etc., of a competent authority may be proved by writing under his signature.

Whenever under this Act, the doing or the omitting to do anything or the validity of anything depends upon the consent, approval, declaration, opinion or satisfaction of a competent authority, a written document signed by a competent authority purporting to convey or set forth such consent, approval, declaration, opinion or satisfaction shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

165. Signature on notices, etc., may be stamped.

Every licence, written permission, notice or other document, not being a summons or warrant or search warrant, required by this Act, or by any rule thereunder, to bear the signature of the Commissioner shall be deemed to be properly signed if it bears a facsimile of his signature stamped thereon.

168. Saving of laws relating to Village Police and Reserve Police.

(1) In the case of any rule or order made by the State Government under an authority conferred by this Act and requiring the public or a particular class of persons to perform some duty or act, or to conduct or order themselves or those under their control in a manner therein described, it shall be competent to any person interested to apply to the State Government by a memorial given to a Secretary to the State Government to annul, reverse or alter the rule or order aforesaid on the ground of its being unlawful, oppressive or unreasonable. (2) When a suit shall lie to the District Court to declare rule or order unlawful.- After such an application as aforesaid and the rejection thereof wholly or in part or after the lapse of four months without an answer to such application or a decision thereon published by the State Government, it shall be competent to the person interested and deeming the rule or order contrary to law to institute a suit against the State for a declaration that the rule or order is unlawful either wholly or in part. The decision in such suit shall be subject to appeal; and a rule or order finally adjudged to be unlawful shall by the State Government be annulled or reversed or so altered as to make it conformable to law.

167. Repeal and saving.

(1) The enactments specified in Part I of Schedule are hereby repealed: Provided that--(i) All rules prescribed, appointments made, powers conferred, orders made or passed, directions and certificates issued, consent, permit, permission or licences given, summons or warrants issued or served, persons arrested or detained or discharged on bail or bond, search warrants issued, bond forfeited, penalty incurred under any such enactment shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been respectively prescribed, made, conferred, given, passed, served, arrested, detained, discharged, forfeited and incurred thereunder. (ii) All references made in any Bombay Act to any of the Acts hereby repealed shall be read as if made to the corresponding provision of this Act. (2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to affect--(a) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything done or suffered to be done in an area before the date on which the provisions of this Act come into force in such area; (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred before such date; (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any act before such date; (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment; (e) any legal proceeding pending in any Court or before any officer on the aforesaid date or anything done or suffered to be done in the course of such proceedings; and any such proceeding or any appeal or revisional proceedings arising out of such proceeding shall be instituted, continued or disposed of, as the case may be, as if this Act had not come into force.(2A)On the commencement of this Act in that part of the State to which it is extended by the Bombay Police (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1959, the laws specified in Part II of Schedule I and in Schedule IV, as in force in that part of State, shall stand repealed:Provided that, such repeal shall not affect—(a)the previous operation of any law so repealed, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or(b)the right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; or(c)any penalty incurred in respect of anything done against any law so repealed,and any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability or penalty as aforesaid may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty may be imposed, as if this Act had not come into force in the relevant part of the State:Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any rule prescribed, appointment made, power conferred, order made and passed, direction or certificate issued, consent, permit, permission or licence given, summons or warrant issued or served, person arrested or detained or discharged on bail or bond, search warrant issued or bond forfeited), under any such repealed law shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of this Act, as if the said provisions were in force in the relevant part of the State when such thing was done or such action was taken, and shall continue in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act:Provided also that, any reference to any such repealed law, or to any provision thereof, in any law for the time being in force, shall be construed as a reference to this Act or to the corresponding provision thereof.(3)The enactment specified in Schedule III in its application to the Pre-Reorganisation State of Bombay, excluding the transferred territories, is hereby amended to the extent and in the manner mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

166. Persons interested may apply to State Government to annual, reverse or alter any rule or order.

Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of the Bombay Village Police Act, 1867 that Act as in force in the Kutch area of the State of Bombay or of the Saurashtra Village Police Ordinance, 1949, or any law corresponding thereto in force in any part of the State or any enactment which may be made, and in regard to the Reserve Police.
