The Tamil Nadu (Added Territories) Extension of Laws Act, 1962 Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1962 Statement Of Objects And Reasons. - By the Madras (Added Territory) Extension of Laws Act, 1961 (Madras Act 9 of 1961) and by the Madras (Added Territories) Extension of Law (No. 2) Act, 1961 (Madras Act 39 of 1961), certain enactments in force in the State of Madras were extended to the territories specified in the Second Schedule to the Andhra Pradesh and Madras (Alteration of Boundaries) Act, 1959 (Central Act 56 of 1959) which territories have, consequent on the alteration of boundaries of the States of Madras and Andhra Pradesh under the said Central Act, been added on to this State from the State of Andhra Pradesh. Again, some of the enactments in force in the State have also been extended to the said territories by separate enactments. For the sake of securing uniformity in the laws in force in the said territories and the rest of the State of Madras, it is now proposed to extend to those territories certain other enactments in force in the State of Madras and to repeal the corresponding laws in force in those territories.

2. The enactments specified in the First Schedule are proposed to be extended without any modification. It will be seen from that Schedule that is proposed to extend to the said territories, the Madras Civil Courts Act, 1874 (Central Act III of 1873), the Madras Borstal Schools Act, 1925 (Madras Act V of 1926), the Madras Co-operative Land Mortgage Banks Act, 1934 (Madras Act X of 1934) and the Madras Maternity Benefit Act, 1934 (Madras Act VI of 1935), although those Acts were in force in those territories on the 1st October 1953, the date on which the State of Andhra was formed and continue to be in force there. The extension of those Acts is intended to apply to those territories, the amendments made by various Madras Acts subsequent to the 1st October 1958 and to repeal the amendments, if any, made by the Andhra or the Andhra Pradesh Legislature, as the case may be. The enactments specified in the Second Schedule are proposed to be amended in their application to those territories so as to bring the provisions of those Acts into conformity with the provisions of the respective Acts as in force in the rest of the State. The enactments specified in the Third Schedule are proposed to be repealed as they are considered no longer necessary.

3. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above objects. Published in Part-IV-Section 3 of the Port St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 26th August 1961. Received the assent of the President on the 13th December 1962 and published in Paid
