The Institute shall prepare for every year a report of its activities during that year and submit the report to the Central Government in such form and on or before such date as may be prescribed and a copy of this report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month of its receipt.

19. Pension and provident funds.—

(1)The Institute shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be specified by regulations, such pension and provident funds as it may deem fit:Provided that the pension and provident fund constituted by the Antecedent Institutions before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the pension and provident fund under this section.(2)Where any such provident fund has been constituted, the Central Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (19 of 1925) shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

20. Authentication of orders and instruments of Institute.—

All orders and decisions of the Institute shall be authenticated by the Director or any other member authorised by the Institute in this behalf and all other instruments shall be authenticated by the signature of the Director or such other officers as may be authorised by the Institute.

21. Acts and proceedings not to be invalidated by vacancies, etc.—

No act done or proceeding taken by the Institute, Governing Body or any standing or ad hoc committee under this Act shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of the Institute, Governing Body or such standing or ad hoc committee.

22. Grant of degrees, diplomas, etc., by Institute.—

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Institute shall have power to grant medical degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions and titles under this Act.

23. Recognition of medical qualifications granted by Institute.—

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Medicine Central Council Act, 1970 (49 of 1970) and the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (3 of 1956), the medical degrees or diplomas granted by the Institute under this Act shall be recognised medical qualifications for the purposes of the Acts aforesaid and shall be deemed to be included in the Schedule to the respective Acts.

24. Control by Central Government.—

The Institute shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Act.

25. Resolution of differences.—

If in, or in connection with, the exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions by the Institute under this Act, any dispute or difference arises between the Institute and the Central Government, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

26. Returns and information.—

The Institute shall furnish to the Central Government such reports, returns and other information as that Government may require from time to time.

27. Power to make rules.—

(1)The Central Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.(2)In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—(a)the manner of filling vacancies among members of the Institute under sub-section (7) of section 7;(b)the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the President of the Institute under sub-section (2) of section 8;(c)the allowances, if any, to be paid to the President and members of the Institute under sub-section (3) of section 8;(d)the control and restrictions in relation to the constitution of standing committees and ad hoc committees under sub-section (5) of section 10;(e)the form in which and the time at which the budget showing the estimated receipts and expenditure of the Institute shall be prepared by the Institute and the numbers of copies thereof to be forwarded to the Central Government under section 16;(f)the form in which annual report shall be prepared and the date before which such report shall be submitted to the Central Government under section 18;(g)any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.

28. Power to make regulations.—

(1)The Institute, with the previous approval of the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder to carry out the purposes of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of this power, such regulations may provide for:—(a)the summoning and holding of meetings other than the first meeting of the Institute, the time and place where such meetings are to be held, the conduct of business at such meetings and the number of members necessary to form a quorum under section 9;(b)the manner of constituting the Governing Body under sub-section (1) of section 10;(c)the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the Governing Body under sub-section (2) of section 10;(d)the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the President of the Institute under sub-section (3) of section 10;(e)the procedure to be followed by the Governing Body, the term of office of, and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the Governing Body under sub-section (4) of section 10;(f)the manner of constituting standing committees and ad hoc committees under sub-section (5) of section 10;(g)the allowances, if any, to be paid to the Chairperson and the members of the Governing Body and of standing committee and ad hoc committee under sub-section (6) of section 10;(h)the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the Director of the Institute under sub-section (3) of section 11;(i)the designations and grades of other officers and employees under sub-section (4) of section 11;(j)the salaries and allowances and other conditions of services of the Director, Deputy Director Undergraduate) , Deputy Director (Postgraduate) and Deputy Director (Pharmacy) and other officers and employees of the Institute under sub-section (5) of section 11;(k)the examinations which may be held and the degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions and titles which may be granted by the Institute under clause (f) of section 13;(l)the professorships, readerships, lectureships and other posts which may be instituted and persons who may be appointed to such professorships, readerships, lectureships and other posts under clause (g) of section 13;(m)the fees and other charges which may be demanded and received by the Institute under clause (j) of section 13;(n)the construction of quarters for the staff and allotment of such quarters under clause (k) of section 13;(o)the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, pension and provident funds may be constituted for the benefit of officers, teachers and other employees of the Institute under sub-section (1) of section 19;(p)any other matter for which provisions under this Act may be made by regulations.(2)Until the Institute is established under this Act, any regulation which may be made under sub-section (1) may be made by the Central Government; and any regulation so made may be altered or rescinded by the Institute in exercise of its powers under sub-section (1).

29. Rules and regulations to be laid before Parliament.—

Every rule and every regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or regulation or both Houses agree that the rule or regulation should not be made, the rule or regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation.

30. Power to remove difficulties.—

(1)If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.(2)Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

31. Transitional provisions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,—

(a) the Board of Governors or any other governing system of the Antecedent Institutions functioning as such immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to so function until a Governing Body is constituted for the Institute under this Act, but on the constitution of a new Governing Body under this Act, the members of the Board holding office before such constitution shall, unless otherwise provided in this Act, cease to hold office; (b) the committees constituted in relation to the Antecedent Institutions before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be constituted under this Act until new committees are constituted for the Institute.
