Supplementary Provisions

29. Council to Furnish information.

- The Council shall furnish to the State Government such reports, returns and statements, as may be prescribed, and such further information on any matter relating to the Council as the State Government may require.

30. Power of the State Government to suspend proceedings.

- If the State Government is of the opinion that any resolution, order or act of the Council is in excess of the power conferred upon the Council or the committee under the Act, it may, by order in writing, specifying the reasons thereof, suspend the execution of such resolution or order of the Council or any committee constituted under this Act and prohibit any act, which purports to be done or is intended to be done under this Act.

31. Certain persons to deem to be public servants.

- The members of the Council and of every committee constituted under this Act, persons in the service of the Council and any person appointed under this Act to audit the accounts of the Council shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

32. Indemnity.

- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

33. Power to make rules.

(1)The State Government shall have the power to make rules under the Act for furtherance of the aims and objectives as enunciated in the Act and as stipulated in the Act.(2)Every rule made under this Act shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the State Legislature.

34. Power to make regulations.

(1)The Council shall have the power to make regulations under the Act as shall be indicated in the rules made under the Act.(2)The first Regulations for the purposes of this Act shall be made under the Rules made under this Act. The first Regulation shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of its commencement or until the Council under the provisions of this Act makes new regulations, whichever is earlier.

35. Council to be guided by direction of State Government.

- The Council shall, in exercising its powers and performing its functions under the Act, be guided by such directions as the State Government may give from time to time. Regarding term and holding of office of all the non ex officio members and all other officers and employees of the Council, the Council will be guided by the Rules made under this Act and, in case of any difficulty in interpretation, by the directive of the Government.

36. Supersession of Council.

(1) If, in the opinion of the State Government, the Council, - (a) has persistently made default in performance of its functions under this Act, or (b) has exceeded or abused its power, the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette and stating the reasons thereof, supersede the Council for such period, not exceeding two years, as may be specified in the order, and take such steps as may be necessary to re-establish the Council immediately on the expiry of the period of supersession. (2) The State Government may, if it considers necessary so to do, by order published in the Official Gazette, extend or modify from time to time the period of supersession which shall in no case in aggregate exceed three years.

37. Consequence of Supersession.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, with effect from the date of the order of supersession under section 36 - (a) all the members of the Council and the committees constituted under the Act shall vacate their offices; (b) all the powers, duties and functions which, under the provisions of this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder or of any other law for the time being in force, may be exercised or performed by the Council or any of the committees or the Chairperson of the Council, shall be exercised or performed by an Administrator to be appointed by the State Government in this behalf: Provided that an Administrator appointed under this clause may delegate any of his power, duties or functions to such person as he may think fit or to such body as may be constituted by him; (c) the representatives of the Council on every body, statutory or otherwise, shall vacate their respective offices as such representatives, and the Administrator may nominate such person or persons to represent the Council on that body as he may think fit. (2) The State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, cancel any order made under section 36 and re-establish the Council. On the reestablishment of the Council under sub-section (1) (b) of section 36, the Administrator shall cease to exercise his powers and perform his duties. (3) The terms and conditions of service of the Administrator shall be such as may be fixed by the State Government by order made in this behalf.

38. Council to continue as body corporate.

- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that an order of supersession made under section 36, shall not imply in any way the dissolution of the Council as a body corporate.

39. Re-establishment of Council.

(1) The State Government shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, specify the date on which the Council is re-established in accordance with the provisions of this Act. (2) The State Government shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, specify the dates by which the authorities (other than the State Government) shall nominate members referred to in section 5: Provided that if any authority fails to nominate a member by the specified dates the State Government shall appoint such member from amongst the persons qualified for such nomination. (3) Until the nomination of members referred to in section 5 is made, the State Government shall appoint such members from amongst the persons qualified for nomination under clause (c) of section 5.(4)The members appointed under sub-section (3) shall hold office until the nomination of members referred to in section 5 is made and the names of the members so nominated are published in the Official Gazette.

40. Power to remove difficulties.

- If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, remove the difficulty:Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.
