(1) When a vacancy in the council occurs or at any time before six months of the date, when such a vacancy will occur in the ordinary course of events, the president shall, in the case of a nominated member, inform the Government of the vacancy and in the case of an elected member, issue a precept to the electorate apprising it of the said vacancy and requiring it to elect a substitute within a date mentioned in the precept. Such precept shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, and in any two English daily newspapers of this State.

(2)(i) The Returning Officer shall prepare and publish in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette the preliminary rolls of all electors in Form I for each of the electorates specified in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of section 4 together with a notice stating that any objection relating to the entries in, or omissions from, the said electoral rolls may be preferred on, or before a specified date to him.

(ii) After the said date, the Returning Officer shall consider the objections received, if any, and shall, if necessary, revise the electoral rolls. The electoral rolls as finally published shall be final and conclusive.

(3) On receipt of any precept under sub-rule (1), the Returning Officer shall forthwith display on the notice board in his office a copy of the final electoral rolls referred to in clause (ii) of sub-rule (2) above.

(4) The register of medical practitioners prepared under section 16 as last published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette together with the list published by the Returning Officer in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette of medical practitioners registered under the said Act subsequent to the publication of the said register shall be the final electoral roll for the electorate specified in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of section 4.

(5) Candidates for election shall be nominated by means of nomination papers in Form II.

(6) The Returning Officer shall, on application made to him by an elector, supply free of cost the nomination papers in Form II to the applicant.

(7)(i) Every nomination paper shall be presented by an elector as proposer and by an elector as seconder: Provided that no elector shall subscribe more nomination papers than there are seats to be filled. Provided further that if more than the prescribed number of nomination papers be subscribed by the same elector, the prescribed number of nomination papers first received by the Returning Officer shall, if otherwise in order, be held to be valid and if more than the prescribed number of nominations signed by the same elector be received simultaneously by the Returning Officer, all such nomination papers shall be held to be invalid.

(ii) On receipt of each nomination paper the Returning Officer shall forthwith endorse thereon the date and hour of receipt over his initials.

(8) Nomination papers which are not received by the Returning Officer before the date and the time appointed in that behalf shall be rejected.

(9)(i) On or before the date appointed for the receipt of nomination papers, each candidate intending to contest for election under sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of section 4 shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Returning Officer a sum of fifty rupees in cash, and no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such deposit has been made.

(ii) If a candidate by whom or on whose behalf the deposit referred to in clause (i) has been made withdraws his candidature in the manner and within the time specified in rule 10 or if the nomination of such candidate is rejected, the deposit shall be returned to the person by whom it was made, and if any candidate dies before the commencement of the counting of votes, the deposit, if made by the deceased candidate, shall be returned to his legal representatives or if not made by the deceased candidate shall be returned to the person by whom it was made.

(iii) If a candidate by whom or on whose behalf the deposit referred to in clause (i) has been made is not elected and the number of votes polled in his favour does not exceed one-eighth of the total number of votes polled, the deposit shall be forfeited to the council.(iv)For the purpose of clause (iii), the number of votes polled shall be deemed to be the number of voting papers counted as valid by the Returning Officer.(v)The deposit made in respect of a candidate, whether he is elected or not, shall, if it is not forfeited under clause (iii), be returned to the candidate or to the person who has made the deposit on his behalf, as the case may be, and as soon as may be, after the publication of the result of the election in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.(10)(i)On the date and at the time appointed by the president of the council for the scrutiny of nomination papers, every candidate and his proposer and seconder may attend the office of the Returning Officer, who shall allow them to examine the nomination papers of all the candidates which have been received by him as aforesaid.(11)The Returning Officer shall examine the nomination papers and may, either of his own motion or on objection made, decide all questions which may raise as to the validity of any nomination and his decision thereon shall be final.(11)(i)If the number of candidates who contest for election is equal to the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidates to be duly elected.(ii)(a)If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, all such candidates, if any, shall be declared to be elected, and the president of the council shall, in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1), take steps to fill the remaining vacancy.(b)If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish a list containing the names and addresses of such candidates in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.(iii)Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer or other person authorized by him at or before 3 O'clock in the afternoon within fourteen days from the date of the publication in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette of the list referred to in sub-clause (b) of clause (ii):Provided that if the last of such day is a public holiday within the meaning of section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (Central Act XXVI of 1881), or has been notified by the State Government as a day to be observed as a holiday in Government Offices, the notice shall be considered as having been received in due time if it is presented at or before 3 O' clock on the next succeeding day which is neither such a public holiday nor a day so notified.(iv)On receipt of a notice of withdrawal under clause (iii), the Returning Officer shall cause it to be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.(v)A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be re-nominated as a candidate for the same election.(vi)If the number of candidates who are duly nominated and who have not withdrawn their candidature in the manner and within the time specified in clause (iii) exceeds that of the vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish their names in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette and shall cause their names to be entered in the voting paper in Form IV in alphabetical order. The alphabetical order is to be determined with reference to the order of the surnames of candidates having surnames and the names proper of other candidates.(vii)On or before the date appointed by the president of the council in this behalf, the Returning Officer shall send by post to each elector a letter of intimation in Form V together with a numbered declaration paper in Form III and a voting paper in Form IV which shall bear on it the Returning Officer's initials or facsimile signature. A certificate of posting shall be obtained in respect of each such letter of intimation sent to an elector.(viii)Before the voting paper is issued to an elector, the Returning Officer shall place a mark against the name of the elector concerned in the electoral roll, or a copy of it, used for the purpose of the electoral.(ix)An elector who has not received his voting and other connected papers sent by post or whose papers, before their dispatch back to the Returning Officer have been inadvertently spoilt in such manner that they cannot conveniently be used, or who has lost his papers may apply with a signed declaration to that effect, for new papers in the place of those not received, spoilt or lost. If the papers have been spoilt, they shall be returned to the Returning Officer who shall cancel the same on receipt. On receipt of the application, the Returning Officer shall, if he is satisfied that there is a case for supply of fresh papers, supply such papers to the elector.(x)In every case where new papers are issued under clause (ix), a mark shall be placed against the name of the elector in the copy of the electoral roll referred to in clause (viii) to denote that new papers have been issued in place of those not received, spoilt or lost.(xi)No election shall be invalidated by reason that an elector has not receive his voting paper, provided that a voting paper has been issued in accordance with these rules.(12)Every elector desirous of recording his vote shall, after filling up the declaration paper and the voting paper according to the direction given in the letter of intimation, enclose the voting paper in the voting paper cover, stick it up, enclose this cover and the declaration paper in the outer envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and send it by registered post at his own cost to the Returning Officer so as to reach him not later than the day and the latest hour fixed for the poll. All envelopes received after such day and hour as well as envelopes received by unregistered post shall be rejected:Provided that, at his option, the elector may in person or by messenger deposit the envelope containing the declaration paper and the closed cover containing the voting paper in the ballot box which shall be provided at the office of the Returning Officer on the day and during the hours fixed for the poll.(13)On receipt of the envelopes by registered post containing the declaration paper and the closed cover containing the voting paper, the Returning Officer shall endorse on the outer envelope the date and hour of receipt over his initials or facsimile signature.(14)(1) A voting paper cover shall be rejected by the Returning Officer, if-(a)the outer envelope contains no declaration paper outside the voting paper cover, or(b)the outer envelope, the declaration paper or the voting paper is not the one sent by the Returning Officer, or(c)the declaration is not signed by the elector, or(d)the voting paper is placed outside the voting paper cover, or(e)more than one declaration or voting paper cover have been enclosed in one and the same outer envelope.In each case of rejection, the word "Rejected" shall be endorsed on the voting paper cover or the declaration paper.(2)After satisfying himself that the electors have affixed their signatures to the declarations, the Returning Officer shall keep all the declaration papers in safe custody, pending disposal under sub-rule (16).(15)(i)The Returning Officer shall attend for the purpose of scrutiny and counting of the votes at the date, time and place appointed by the president of the council in this behalf.(ii)All the voting paper covers, other than those rejected under sub-rule (13), shall be opened and the voting papers taken out and mixed together. The voting papers shall, then, be scrutinized and the valid votes counted.A voting paper shall be invalid if-(a)it does not bear the Returning Officer's initials or facsimile signature; or(b)a voter signs his name or writes a word or makes any mark on it by which it becomes recognizable; or(c)no vote is recorded thereon; or(d)the number of votes recorded therein exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled; or(e)It is void for uncertainty of one or more votes exercised:Provided that where more than one vote can be given on the same voting paper, if one of the marks is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate it is intended to apply, the vote concerned, but not the whole voting paper shall be invalid on that account.(iii)Every candidate may be present in person or may send a representative duly authorized by him in writing to watch the process of counting.(iv)The Returning officer shall show the voting papers, if requested to do so, to the candidates or their authorized representatives, at the time of scrutiny and counting of votes.(v)If any objection is made to any voting paper on the ground that it does not comply with the instructions therein or to the rejection by the Retiring Officer of a voting paper, it shall be decided at once by the Returning Officer whose direction shall be final.(16)(i)When the counting of the votes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the candidate or candidates, as the case may be, to whom the largest number of votes has been given to be duly elected.(ii)When an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared duly elected, the determination of the person to whom such one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the Returning Officer and in such manner as he may determine.(17)Upon the completion of the counting and after the result has been declared by him, the Returning Officer shall seal the voting paper and all other documents relating to the election and shall retain the same for a period of six months and, thereafter, cause them to be destroyed.(18)The president of the council shall appoint and notify in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette and in such other manner as he think fit the date, time and place for-(a)the receipt of nomination papers and their scrutiny;(b)the sending of voting papers;(c)the poll; and(d)the scrutiny and counting of votes.(19)The Returning Officer shall inform the president of the council of the result of the election, who shall, then, publish it in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.(20)The council may, of its own motion, or on objection made, declare any election that has been to be void on account of corrupt practice or any other sufficient cause and may call on the electorate to make a fresh election. The decision of the council therefor shall be final.(21)The decision of the council on any question that may arise as to the application of these Rules shall be final.

7. Election of members of the executive committee.

(1)The election of members of the executive committee of the council shall be conducted by the president of the council or in his absence by the person presiding over the meeting of the council.(2)Every candidate for election shall be duly proposed by a member of the council and seconded by another. Every candidate shall, at the time of his nomination, signify his consent orally or in writing to serve on the executive committee if elected.(3)Every member of the council shall be entitled to propose or second as many candidates as there are seats to be filled.(4)If the number of candidates nominated does not exceed the number of members to be elected, the president of the meeting shall declare all such candidates to have been duly elected.(5)If the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of members to be elected, the president of the meeting shall hold an election in the following manner:-(a)The names of the candidates nominated shall be conspicuously exhibited in writing on a blackboard or in any other convenient manner so as to be visible to the members.(b)Every member wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper initiated by the president of the meeting and containing the names of the candidates whether typewritten or cyclostyled in English, in alphabetical order with some space between one name and another. The members shall, then, proceed to the place set apart for the purpose of voting and there put the mark 'X' against the name of the candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then, fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and, after showing to the president, the president's initials, deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the president and so constructed that the paper may be placed therein, but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened.(6)The President of the meeting shall, immediately after the election, count the number of votes cast by the members present and voting, and declare the candidates, to whom the majority of votes have been given, duly elected as members of the executive committee.(7)If there is an equality of votes between two or more candidates, the choice of the member to be elected shall be determined by the president by lot.(8)Casual vacancies shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of sub-rules (1) to (7).(9)If any dispute arise in connection with any election under these rules, the dispute shall be referred to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

8. Delegation of powers to the executive committee.

- After the members of the executive committee are elected by the council at its first meeting, the council may decide the powers and duties to be delegated to the executive committee and the council may, with the previous sanction of the Government delegate powers and duties to the executive committee.

11. Rules for the completion and publication of the Medical Registers and connected matters.

(1)The register of medical practitioners shall be maintained by the Registrar in Form No. VIII.(2)The registers shall be verified and attested by the Registrar.(3)Every year, the Registrar shall in the month of February, cause to be printed and published the registers prescribed above and corrected up to the 31st December, proceeding. The register shall keep an interleaved copy of such printed list wherein he shall make, during the year, any entry, alteration or erasure that may be necessary.(4)(i)Where the address of any practitioner is not known or is found to be incorrect, the Registrar shall write to the practitioner at his last known address and ask him to furnish his correct address. The Registrar may also make other endeavours to ascertain the correct address.(ii)If no information regarding the correct address is received from the practitioner or from any other authentic source, the words "Address unknown" shall be entered in the address column of the registers against the name of the practitioner.(iii)Where authentic information is available that a practitioner is dead, the Registrar strike off his name from the register.(5)At the end of each register printed as laid down in sub-rule (3), there shall be entered a statement showing (1) total number of persons at the beginning of the year, (2) the number of persons added by registration during the year, (3) the number of persons restored to the register, (4) the number of persons erased from the register stating the section of the Act under which the name has been erased, (5) the number of persons removed by death on account of death, (6) the total number remaining at the end of the year.(6)Every person whose name has been entered in the register, shall be entitled to receive from the Registrar a certificate of registration in Forms IX, X and XI, respectively, on payment of the stamp duty leviable under the law for the time being in force relating to the levy of stamp duty. The certificate shall set forth the full name of the person registered, his address, the date and the place of registration and the qualification in respect of which he has been registered.(7)Every person who has obtained a certificate of registration from the Registrar in Form I shall be entitled to receive a duplicate certificate in the same form on payment of a fee of five rupees and the stamp duty. The word "Duplicate" shall be clearly shown in red ink across the duplicate certificate.

12. Qualifications and conditions for performing surgery and post-mortem, etc., in an approved institution.

(1) Every person who possesses any of the qualification specified in the Schedule to the Act and registered as a practitioner and issued a certificate 'A' in Form IX shall perform surgery and post-mortem in any approved institution if such person has undergone a regular course of surgery before obtaining the Degree or Diploma. (2) No person with Certificate 'B' or 'C' shall perform surgery and postmortem in any approved institution.

13. Appeals.

(1) An appeal to the council preferred under section 20 against a refusal of the Registrar to register the name or any title or qualification of any person on the register of registered practitioners, shall be in writing and shall state the grounds on which registration is claimed, the names of the qualifications and the dates on which and the authorities from whom they were received. (2) On receipt of such an appeal it shall be referred to a committee of the council for consideration and report. (3) The committee shall have the power to call for the original diploma or licence, etc., from the appellant for inspecting and also for such other documentary or oral evidence as may be considered necessary by them. (4) At the conclusion of the inspection the Committee shall make a report to the council embodying such recommendations as it may think fit, with the reason therefor. (5) The appeal, the Committee's report on it and all other documents in connection with the case shall be laid before the council at their next session. (6) The date on which the appeal is to be taken up by the council shall be notified to the appellant. The appellant shall also be allowed, if he so chooses, to represent his case before the council either by himself or by his pleader.

14. Inquiry.

(1) Whenever information is received that a medical practitioner who is an applicant for registration, or whose name has already been registered, has been guilty of conduct which prima facie constitutes infamous conduct in a professional respect, the registrar shall make an abstract of such information. (2) Where the information in question is in the nature of a complaint by a person or body charging a medical practitioner with infamous conduct in a professional respect, such complaint shall be made in writing addressed to the registrar and shall state the grounds of complaint and shall be accompanied by one or more declaration as to the facts of the case. (3) Every declaration must state the description and place of abode of the declarant, and where the facts stated in a declaration are not within the personal knowledge of the declarant, the source of the information and the grounds for it must be accurately and fully stated. (4) (i) The abstract and, where a complaint has been lodged, the complaint, and all other documents which have a bearing on the case, shall be submitted by the registrar to the president who may, if he thinks fit, instruct the registrar to furnish the medical practitioner concerned with a copy of the complaint and other documents and invite him by means of a registered letter to submit any explanation he may have to offer. The documents, including any explanation submitted by the practitioner to the registrar shall, then, be placed before the Council. The council may, then, - (a) order that all further proceedings, be stopped: (b) appoint a committee to consider the matter and submit a report to the council as to whether proceedings should be instituted under section 15 or section 19 or (c) direct that a regular inquiry be held by the council or a committee thereof appointed under section 21(1). A committee appointed to make a preliminary inquiry shall have power to cause further investigation to be made and further evidence to be taken and to take any legal advice or procure any legal assistance it may think necessary. The committee shall submit its report to the council. (ii) If the council consider that the case is one in which an inquiry under section 15 or section 19 ought to be held, the president shall direct the registrar to take steps for the institution of any inquiry and for having the case heard and determined by the council. Explanation. - It is not necessary that declaration under sub-rules (2) and (3) should be attested by a Magistrate. The declaration is only intended to ensure that there shall be bona fide grounds for proceeding against a medical practitioner and that action is not initiated on the allegations which are not capable of being verified. (5) When the charge is brought by a complainant, they shall require the complaint to be reduced to writing and verified by oath or solemn affirmation of the complainant. The articles of charge and a list of documents and witnesses by which each charge is to be sustained shall, then, be prepared and the registrar shall issue a notice in writing on behalf of the council addressed to the medical practitioner concerned. Such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the articles of charge and a list of witnesses and documents referred to above and shall inform the medical practitioner concerned of the day on which and the hour at which the council or committee intend to deal with the case and shall call upon him to attend before the council or committee on that day and hour. The notice shall be in Form XIV with such variations as circumstances may require. It shall be served on the medical practitioner fifteen clear days before the beginning of the inquiry, and shall be accompanied by a copy of sections 15, 19 and 21 and of the rules to regulate the procedure for conducting any inquiry thereon. Service of the notice may be made either by delivery to the medical practitioner in person or by registered letter addressed to his usual residence. (6) In every case in which the council resolve that an inquiry shall be instituted and notice of inquiry is issued accordingly, the complainant (if any) and the medical practitioner concerned shall, upon the request in writing signed by the party or his pleader, be entitled to be supplied by the registrar with a copy of any declaration, explanation, answer or other document given or sent to the council by or on behalf of the other party, which such either party will be entitled on proper proof to use at the hearing as evidence in support of, or in answer to, the charge specified in the notice of inquiry. (7) Any answer, evidence, or statement forwarded, or application made by the medical practitioner between the date of issue of the notice and the day named for the hearing of the charge shall be dealt with by the president in such manner as he may think fit. (8) Copies of all documents which are laid before the council or committee as evidence in regard to the case shall be made and furnished to each member of the council or committee, as the case may be, before the hearing of the case. (9) At the hearing of the case by the council, or committee, the complainant and also the medical practitioner concerned may, if they so desire, be represented or assisted by pleaders. (10) When the complainant appears personally or by pleader, the order of procedure shall be as follows: - (i) The complainant shall exhibit the articles of charge to the council or committee, which shall be openly read. (ii) The medical practitioner concerned shall, then, be called upon to plead "guilty" or "not guilty" to each of them, which plea shall forthwith be recorded with the articles of charge. If the medical practitioner refuses or without reasonable cause neglects to appear to answer the charge either personally or by pleader, he shall be taken to admit the truth of the articles of charge.(iii)The complainant may, then, address the council or committee in explanation of the articles of charge and of the evidence by which they are proved.(iv)The oral and documentary evidence shall, then, be exhibited. The witnesses shall be examined by, or on behalf of, the complainant and may be cross-examined by, or on behalf of, the medical practitioner concerned. The complainant shall then, be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any point on which they have been cross-examined. No questions should be asked in re-examination on any new matter without the leave of the coimcil. The council or committee may put Such questions as they think fit.(v)If, before the close of the case for the complainant, it shall appear necessary, the council or committee may, in their discretion, allow the complainant to exhibit evidence not included in the list furnished to the medical practitioner concerned or may themselves call for new evidence, and in such case the medical practitioner shall be entitled to have, if he demands an adjournment of the proceedings for three clear days before the exhibition of such new evidence, exclusive of the day of adjournment and of the day to which the proceedings are adjourned.(vi)When the case of the complainant is closed, the medical practitioner concerned shall be required to make his defence, orally or in writing, as he shall prefer. If made in writing, it shall be openly read and a copy shall be given at the same time to the complainant.(vii)The evidence for the defence shall, then, be exhibited and the witnesses examined, who shall be liable to cross-examination and re-examinations and to examination by the council or committee in the same manner as the witnesses for the complainant.(viii)The council or committee or some person appointed by them shall take notes in English of all the oral evidence, which shall be read aloud to each witness by whom the same was given, and if necessary, explained to him in the language in which it was given, and shall be recorded with the proceedings.(ix)If the medical practitioner concerned makes only an oral defence and exhibits no evidence, the inquiry shall end with his defence. If he records a written defence or exhibits evidence, the complainant shall be entitled to a general oral reply on the whole case and may also exhibit evidence to contradict any evidence exhibited for the defence, in which case the medical practitioner concerned shall not be entitled to any adjournment of the proceedings, although such new evidence were not included in the list furnished to him.(x)When the council or committee is of opinion that the articles of charge, or any of them are not drawn with sufficient clearness and precision, the council or committee may, in their discretion, require the same to be amended, and may, thereupon, on the application of the complainant or the medical practitioner concerned, adjourn the inquiry for such time as they may consider reasonable. The council or committee may also, if they think fit adjourn the enquiry, from time to time, on the application of either the complainant or the medical practitioner concerned, on the ground of sickness or unavoidable absence of any witness or such other case as they may consider reasonable. When such application is made and refused, the council or committee shall record the application and their reasons for refusing to comply with it.(11)When there is no complainant, or no complainant appears, the proceedings shall begin by the registrar reading to the council the notice to inquiry addressed to the medical practitioner concerned and the articles of charge and stating the evidence by which the articles of charge are supported.The medical practitioner shall, then, be called upon to plead "guilty" or "not guilty". The further proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure laid down in sub-rule (10) above.(12)The council or committee may, at their discretion, hold the inquiry in camera.(13)(i)Upon the conclusion of the case, the council or committee will deliberate thereon in private, and at the conclusion of the deliberations, the council or the committee shall vote on the question whether the articles of charge are proved or not and whether they show that the medical practitioner concerned has been guilty of infamous conduct in a professional respect, or not. (ii) If the council or committee by a majority find the medical practitioner guilty of infamous conduct in a professional respect, the president shall direct the registrar not to register his name if he be an applicant for registration, or to remove his name altogether or for a specified period from the register of medical practitioners if he is already a registered practitioner except in cases where the council or committee consider that in view of extenuating circumstances, the practitioner may be let off with a warning. (14) When the registration of the name of any medical practitioner is refused or when the name of any registered medical practitioner is removed from the register, the registrar shall forthwith send notice of such refusal or removal to the medical practitioner concerned in Form XII and such notice shall be sent by a registered letter addressed to his last known address.
