9. Execution of detention orders.

- A detention order may be executed at any place in the manner provided for the execution of warrants of arrest under the Code.

10. Power to regulate place and conditions of detention.

- Any person in respect of whom a detention order has been made under section 8 shall be liable-(a)to be detained in such place and under such conditions including conditions as to the maintenance of discipline and punishment for breaches of discipline as the Government may, by general or special order, specify; and(b)to be removed from one place of detention to another place of detention.[] [Omitted 'Proviso' by Governor's Act No. 3 of 2018, dated 13.7.2018.]

10A. [Grounds of detention severable. [Section 10-A inserted by Act IV of 1985, section 3.]

- Where a person has been detained in pursuance of an order of detention under section 8 which has been made on two or more grounds, such order of detention shall be deemed to have been made separately on each of such grounds and accordingly-(a)such order shall not be deemed to be in valid or inoperative merely because one or some of the grounds is or are-(i)vague,(ii)non-existent,(iii)not relevant,(iv)not connected or not proximately connected with such person, or(v)invalid for any other reasons whatsoever, and it is not therefore, possible to hold that the Government or officer making such order would have been satisfied as provided in section 8 with reference to the remaining ground or grounds and made the order of detention;(b)the Government or officer making the order of detention shall be deemed to have made the order of detention under the said section after being satisfied as provided in that section with reference to the remaining ground or grounds.]

11. Detention orders not to be in valid or inoperative on certain grounds.

- No detention order shall be invalid or inoperative merely on the ground.(a)that the person to be detained thereunder is outside the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the officer making the order; or(b)that the place of detention of such person is outside the said limits.

12. Powers in relation to absconding persons.

- If the Government, or an officer specified in sub-section (2) of section 8, as the case may be, has reason to believe that a person in respect of whom a detention order has been made has absconded or is concealing himself so that the order cannot be executed, the Government or the officer may-(a)make a report in writing of the fact to a Magistrate of the First Class having jurisdiction in the place where the said person ordinarily resides, and thereupon the provisions of sections 87, 88 and 89 of the Code shall apply in respect of the said person and his property as if the order directing that he be detained where a warrant issued by the Magistrate;(b)by notified order direct the said person to appear before such officer, at such place and within such period as may be specified in the order, and if the said person fails to comply with such direction, he shall unless he proves that it was not possible for him to comply therewith and that he had within the period specified in the order, informed the officer mentioned in the order of the reason which rendered compliance therewith impossible and of his whereabouts, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to [one year] [Substituted by Act XII of 1988, Section 3.] or with fine or with both.

13. Grounds of order of detention to be disclosed to persons affected by the order.

(1)When a person is detained in pursuance of a detention order, the authority making the order shall,as soon as may be, [but ordinarily not later than five days and in exceptional circumstances and for reasons to be recorded in writing, not later than ten days from the date of detention] [Substituted by Act XII of 1988, Section 3.] communicate to him grounds on which the order has been made, and shall afford him the earliest opportunity of making a representation against the order to the Government.Nothing in sub-section (1) shall require the authority to disclose facts which it considers to be against the public interest to disclose.

14. Constitution of Advisory Board.

(1)This Government shall, whenever necessary, constitute an advisory Board for the purposes of this Act.(2)Such Board shall consist of a Chairman, who is or has been a Judge of the High Court, and two other members who are, or have been, or are qualified to be appointed as Judges of the High Court.(3)[The Chairman and the other Members of the Board shall be appointed by the Government on the recommendations of the Search-cum-Selection Committee consisting of the following: -

- (a) Chief Secretary Chairman
(b) Administrative Secretary, Home Department..... Member
(c) Administrative Secretary, Department of Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Member:
- Provided that no sitting Judge of the High Court or the sitting District and Sessions Judge shall be appointed as Chairman or Member of the Board except in consultation with the Chief Justice of High Court.] [Substituted by Governor Act No. 33 of 2018, dated 7.12.2018.]

15. Reference to Advisory Board.

- In every case where a detention order has been made under this Act, the Government shall, within four weeks [from the date of detention under the order] [Substituted by Act II of 1982, section 2.] place before the advisory Board constituted by it under section 14, the grounds on which the order has been made, the representation, if any, made by the person affected by the order and in case where the order has been made by an officer, also report by such officer under sub-section (4) of section 8.

16. Procedure of Advisory Board.

(1)The Advisory Board shall, after considering the material placed before it and, after calling for such further information as it may deem necessary from the Government or from the person called for the purpose through the Government or from the person concerned and if in any particular case it considers it essential so to do or, if the person concerned desires to be heard, after hearing him in person, submit its report to the Government within eight weeks from the date of detention.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Board may, if the person detained so demands, at any time before submitting its report, after affording an opportunity to the person detained and the Government or the officer, as the case may be, of being heard, determine whether the disclosure of facts, not disclosed under sub-section (2) of section 13 to the person detained, is or is not against public interest. Such finding of the Board shall be binding on the Government.(3)The report of the Advisory Board shall specify in a separate part thereof the opinion of the Advisory Board as to whether or not there is sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned.(4)When there is a difference of opinion among the members forming the Advisory Board, the opinion of the majority of such members shall be deemed to be the opinion of the Board.(5)Nothing in this section shall entitle any person against whom a detention order has been made to appear by any legal practitioner in any matter connected with the reference to the Advisory Board and the proceedings of the Advisory Board and its report, excepting that part of the report in which the opinion of the Advisory Board is specified, shall be confidential.

17. Action upon report of Advisory Board.

(1)In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is in its opinion sufficient cause for the detention of person, the Government may confirm the detention order and continue the detention of the person concerned for such period as it thinks fit.(2)In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is, in its opinion, no sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned, the Government shall revoke the detention order and cause the person to be released forthwith.

18. [Maximum period of detention. [Substituted by Act XII of 1988, section 2.]

(1)The maximum period for which any person may be detained in pursuance of any detention order which has been confirmed under section 17, shall be -(a)twelve months from the date of detention in the case of person acting in any manner prejudicial to the maintenance of public order or indulging in smuggling of timber; and(b)two years from the date of detention in the case of persons acting in any manner prejudicial to the security of the State.(2)Nothing contained in this section shall affect the powers of the Government to revoke or modify' the detention order at any earlier time, or to extend the period of detention of a foreigner in case his expulsion from the State has not been made possible.]

19. Revocation of detention orders.

(1)Without prejudice to the provisions of section 21 of the General Clauses Act, Samvat 1977, a detention order may at any time be revoked or modified by the Government notwithstanding that the order has been made by any officer mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 8.(2)There shall be no bar to making of a fresh order of detention against a person on the same facts as an earlier order of detention made against such person in any case where-(i)the earlier order of detention or its continuance is not legal on account of any technical defect; or(ii)the earlier order of detention has been revoked by reason of any apprehension, or for avoiding any challenge that such order or its continuance is not legal on account of any technical defect:Provided that in computing the maximum period for which a person against whom such fresh order of detention has been issued may be detained, the period during which such person was under the earlier order of detention shall be excluded.

20. Temporary release of persons detained.

(1)The Government may at any time order that a person detained in pursuance of detention order may be released for any specified period either without conditions or upon such conditions specified in the direction as that person accepts and may at any time cancel his release.(2)In directing the release of any person under sub-section (1), the Government may require him to enter into a bond with or without sureties for the due observance of the conditions specified in the direction.(3)Any person released under sub-section (1) shall surrender himself at the time and place and to the authority, specified in the order directing his release or cancelling his release as the case may be.(4)If any person fails without sufficient cause to surrender himself in the manner specified in sub-section (3) he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to [two years] [Substituted by Act II of 1988, section 6.] or with fine, or with both.(5)If any person released under sub-section (1) fails to fulfil any of the conditions imposed upon him under the said sub-section or in the bond entered into by him, the bond shall be declared to be forfeited and any person bound thereby shall be liable to the penalty thereof.(6)[The period of release shall not count towards the total period of detention undergone by the person released under this section.]

[Substituted by Act II of 1988, section 6.]Chapter-V Miscellaneous

21. Cognizance of offences under this Act.

(1)No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except on a report in writing made by a public servant.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Second Schedule to the Code, offences under this Act shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

22. Protection of action taken under this Act.

- No suit, prosecution or any other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything done or intended to be done in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

23. Power to make rules.

- The Government may, by notification, make such rules consistent with the provisions of this Act, as may be necessary for carrying out the objects of this Act.

24. Repeal and saving.

(1)The Jammu and Kashmir Public Safety Ordinance, 1977 is hereby repealed.(2)Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken (including any rule or order made) under the said Ordinance shall, so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
