15. Net amount of tax payable and treatment of input tax credit exceeding tax liability.

(1) For any tax period, net amount of tax payable shall be computed using the following equation: Net amount of tax payable for any period = Gross amount of tax payable for such period - Gross amount of admissible input tax credit for the period. Where—(a) gross amount of tax payable for the period is the aggregate of amounts of—(i) tax payable on the turnover of sale of goods made during the tax period; (ii) tax payable on turnover of purchase of goods made during the tax period; (iii) tax on the turnover of sale made during the period or any installment of lump sum falling due during the period, as the case may be, payable under the provisions of section 6; (iv) any other amount of tax payable; and (b) gross amount of admissible input tax credit for the period is the aggregate of amounts of—(i) input tax credit claimed in respect of purchase of goods made during the period less amount of reverse input tax credit, if any; (ii) input tax credit carried forward from the immediately preceding tax period; (iii) any installment of input tax credit in respect of goods held in opening stock on the date from which dealer has become liable to pay tax or in respect of purchase of capital goods; (iv) input tax credit in respect of goods held in opening stock on the date on which, in case of a dealer who has opted for payment of tax or a lump sum under section 6 of this Act, provisions of section 6 cease to apply and the dealer continues his business: Provided that where a dealer has been allowed moratorium for payment of tax under section 42, gross amount of tax payable for the period shall not include amount in respect of which facility of moratorium is applicable. Amount for which facility of moratorium is applicable shall be paid by the dealer separately in accordance with provisions of section 42. (2) If, for any tax period, gross amount of admissible input tax credit under sub-section (1) exceeds the differential amount of gross amount of tax payable under that sub-section and the aggregate of amounts of tax paid by the dealer towards tax for such tax period, the excess amount of admissible input tax credit may be adjusted by the dealer against amount of tax payable in the tax return of the corresponding tax period under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 and where gross amount of such admissible input tax credit is a negative figure, the dealer, while computing net amount of tax payable under sub-section (1), shall add such amount to gross amount of tax payable by the dealer. Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-section, expression "aggregate of amounts of tax paid by the dealer towards tax of such tax period" shall mean the aggregate of amounts of—(a) tax deposited by the dealer towards tax of such tax period; (b) tax deducted at source under provisions of section 34 in respect of any sale of goods where such sale is made during such tax period; and (c) refund adjusted towards tax of such tax period: Provided that amount under clause (a), (b) or (c) shall not be included in the aggregate of amounts of tax paid by the dealer towards tax of such tax period unless the dealer furnishes adequate documentary proof in respect thereof along with tax return of such tax period. (3) Any excess amount of input tax credit left over after adjustment as provided in subsection (2) shall be carried forward and be added to the amount of input tax credit for the next tax period: Provided that in case of a dealer whose main business is to sell goods in the course of the export of the goods out of the territory of India, the assessing authority shall allow provisional refund of excess amount of input tax credit for any tax period in accordance with the provisions of section 41. (4) Where a dealer has submitted returns for all tax periods of an assessment year, and if any amount of excess admissible input tax credit still exists according to the tax return of the last tax period, such excess amount of admissible input tax credit, subject to provisions of sections 40, shall be refunded to the dealer within thirty days after the last date prescribed or allowed for submission of the return of last tax period of such assessment year. Provided that excess amount of admissible input tax credit remaining in balance on the last day of the assessment year in which dealer has become liable for payment of tax, shall, subject to provision of sub-section (3), be carried forward to the first tax return of the next assessment year and any excess amount of input tax credit according to the tax return of the last tax period of later assessment year shall be refunded to the dealer within thirty days after the last date prescribed or allowed for submission of return of the last tax period of the such later assessment year. (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) where a dealer discontinues business, refund of any excess amount of admissible input tax credit relating to last tax period of the assessment year during which business has been discontinued shall be allowed within Ninety days after the date of passing of assessment order for such assessment year. (6) Where tax return for any tax period of any assessment year has not been submitted by the last date prescribed or allowed for submission of tax return of the last tax period of the assessment year, excess amount of admissible input tax credit, if any, for such assessment year, subject to provisions of sections 40 shall be refunded to the dealer within a period of Ninety days after the assessment order in respect of such assessment year has been passed. (7) Notwithstanding anything contained contrary to in sub-section (3) and sub-section (4), any excess amount of admissible input tax credit left over in the tax return of the last tax period of any assessment year, at the option of the dealer, may be carried forward to the tax return of the first tax period of the succeeding assessment year.

16. Burden of proof.

- In any assessment proceedings where any fact is specially within the knowledge of the assessee, the burden of proving that fact shall lie upon him, and in particular, the burden of proving the existence of the circumstances bringing the case within any of the exemptions, exceptions or reliefs under any provisions of this Act including claim of any amount as input tax credit, shall lie upon him and assessing authority shall presume the absence of such circumstances.

Chapter III

Registration, Security and Maintenance of Accounts

17. Registration of dealers.

(1) Every dealer liable to pay tax under this Act shall obtain registration certificate issued by the prescribed registering authority in the prescribed form. (2) Except as provided under sub-sections (3), (4) and (5), every dealer liable to pay tax shall, for issue of registration certificate, apply to the registering authority within a period of thirty days from the date on which such dealer has become so liable, in the prescribed form and manner along with proof of deposit of registration fee of one hundred rupees: Provided that a dealer who fails to apply for issue of registration certificate within the time prescribed, without prejudice to any other liability under this Act, may apply after depositing late fee at the rate of rupees one hundred for every month or part thereof for the period of delay. (3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), every dealer who has held immediately before January 1, 2008 a registration certificate or a provisional registration certificate issued under the erstwhile Act and is liable to pay tax under this Act from January 1, 2008, shall be deemed a registered dealer with effect from January 1, 2008: (The words "Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), every dealer" was inserted w.e.f. 20-08-2010 vide notif. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010) Provided that where a dealer was required to pay any fee for renewal of the registration certificate under the provisions of the erstwhile Act, if the same has not been paid, the registration certificate shall not be deemed valid unless such dealer deposits renewal fee along with late fee of one hundred rupees within a period of thirty days from January 1, 2008. (4) In the case of a dealer, who is liable for payment of tax under this Act from January 1, 2008 and whose application for issue of registration certificate under the erstwhile Act, is pending on January 1, 2008, shall be deemed a registered dealer under this Act with effect from January 1, 2008 if (i) registration certificate is issued to him under the erstwhile Act; and (ii) the dealer deposits renewal fee payable under the erstwhile Act and late fee payable under this Act, if any, within thirty days from the date on which registration certificate is issued to him under the erstwhile Act. (5) (a) Every dealer who holds a valid registration certificate issued under the erstwhile Act and is liable to tax under this Act, shall submit to the registering authority or the assessing authority, as the case may be, an application in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner, for issue of registration certificate by such authority relating to validity of such certificate under this Act, within a period of fifteen months from January 1, 2008: (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) [Provided that if the Additional Commissioner posted in zone is satisfied that circumstances exist preventing the dealer to submit the Application within the stipulated period, he may condone the delay and direct the registering authority or assessing authority, as the case may be, to process the application in accordance with the provisions of this Act and rules framed thereunder: Provided further that no application for condoning the delay shall be entertained unless it is accompanied with the proof of - (i) payment of late fees of rupees five hundred per month or part thereof up to December 31, 2010 and rupees one thousand per month or part thereof after December 31, 2010, for the period of delay; (ii) filing of tax returns of all tax periods upto the date of submitting application; and (iii) payment of net tax along with interest due under the Act in tax return under clause (ii): Provided also that no application under this clause shall be rejected without giving opportunity to the applicant of being heard.] [Substituted w.e.f. 01-01-08 vide not if. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010).] (b) If a dealer who holds the registration certificate issued under erstwhile Act, fails to submit the application to the assessing authority or registering authority for validation and issue of registration certificate under this Act, within the period referred to in clause (a) in prescribed form and manner, the registration certificate shall cease to have effect. (6) (a) No railway container contractor, air cargo operator, courier service provider, or owner or person in-charge of a godown, cold storage or warehouse other than transporter who stores commercial goods, shall operate its business of taxable goods in the State without being registered with the registering authority in such manner as may be prescribed. Any operator of such business shall apply within prescribed period for his registration to the registering authority in the prescribed manner; (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (b) a railway container contractor, an air cargo operator, a courier service provider, an owner or person in-charge of a godown, cold storage or warehouse other than transporter or carrier, who stores commercial goods shall maintain such records as may be prescribed; (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (c) every transporter or carrier who is covered under the Carriage By Road Act, 2007 shall furnish to the assessing authority, such informations and documents as may be prescribed. (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (7) Where the registering authority is satisfied that - (a) the application for issue of registration certificate is in order; (b) the information furnished is correct and complete; and (c) any requisite fee has been deposited and security where needed is furnished, the registering authority may, after making such inquiry as it may deem necessary, cause the dealer to be registered and issue registration certificate in the prescribed form and prescribed time. (8) If the dealer who has applied for issue of registration certificate does not fulfill any of the conditions mentioned in this section, or if any person having interest in the business is a defaulter in payment of any dues, relating to any other business, under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or under the erstwhile Act, the registering authority, shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the applicant, reject the application by an order in writing. (9) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) the registration certificate issued under the erstwhile Act and validly held under this Act shall be valid with effect from the date of commencement of this Act. (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (10) Subject to provisions of sub-section (9), every registration certificate shall remain in force till the date of discontinuance of business: (11) The registering authority, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer, may cancel the registration certificate with effect from the date - (a) on which dealers' liability for payment of tax has ceased; or (b) on which the dealer has discontinued the business; or (c) of order of cancellation where - (i) the dealer has obtained registration certificate by fraud or by misrepresentation of facts; or (ii) the dealer has failed to furnish security or additional security, as the case may be; or (iii) the dealer has transferred any prescribed form of declaration or certificate obtained by him to any person against provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder; or (iv) the dealer has permitted some other person to carry on business in his name; or (v) the dealer has issued any tax invoice to a dealer without making actual sale of goods; or (vi) where a transporter or carrier or transporting agent or railway container contractor fails to file return or otherwise acts in contravention of the provisions of this Act or rules made there under; (vii) a person acts in contravention of provisions of section 43; (viii) where a dealer has failed to pay the tax, penalty or other dues within three months of the date such tax, penalty or other dues become payable. (ix) registration certificate has been cancelled for any other sufficient cause. (12) During cancellation proceedings under sub-section (11), where the registering authority is satisfied that the dealer will succeed in causing revenue loss, pending action for cancellation under sub-section (11), it may, after assigning reasons therefore, suspend the registration certificate by passing an order in writing, for the period during which the proceedings are pending: Provided that if the dealer, by furnishing adequate security to the satisfaction of the registering authority, satisfies that revenue loss, if any, shall be made up by him, the registering authority may revoke the suspension of registration certificate. (13) During the period of suspension of registration certificate under sub-section (12), the dealer shall be treated as unregistered dealer. However if the registering authority himself by an order in writing drops the proceeding of cancellation or the order of suspension passed by the registering authority is set aside by any competent court or authority under this Act, the dealer shall be treated as registered dealer during such period. (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (14) The registering authority, after considering any information furnished or otherwise received and after making such inquiry as it may deem fit, amend from time to time any certificate of registration which shall take effect: (a) in the case of change in the name, ownership or place of business, or opening of a new place of business, from the date of the event necessitating the amendment whether or not information in that behalf is furnished within the time prescribed under section 75. (b) in case of any addition or modification in the description of any goods or class of goods in the certificate of registration, from the date of event necessitating the amendment if information in that behalf is furnished within the time prescribed under section 75 and in any other case, from the date of receipt of request for such addition or modification by the registering authority or the assessing authority, as the case may be; (c) in case of deletion of any goods or class of goods, from the date of order of deletion. Provided that where in consequence of a change in the ownership of a business, liability for payment of tax of any dealer ceases, the amendment of the certificate of registration shall take effect from the date on which information in respect of such change is furnished under section 75. Explanation (I). - Any amendment of a certificate of registration under this sub-section shall be without prejudice to any liability for tax or penalty imposable under this Act (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) Explanation (II). - For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that where a registered dealer- (a) affects a change in the name of his business; or (b) is a firm and there is change in the constitution of the firm without dissolution thereof; or (c) is a trustee of a trust and there is a change in the trustees thereof; or (d) is a guardian of the ward and there is a change in the guardian; or (e) is a "Hindu Undivided Family" and the business of such family is converted into a partnership business with all or any of the coparcener's as partners thereof; (f) is proprietor of a business and such business is succeeded by successor or successors of its proprietor on account of disability or death of such proprietor, [then merely by reason of any of the circumstances aforesaid, it shall not be necessary for the dealer or the firm the constitution whereof is changed, or the new trustees, or the new guardian or the partners of such partnership business or successor or successors, as the case may be,] [Inserted by The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 OF 2014).] to apply for a fresh certificate of registration, and on information being furnished in the manner required by section 75, the certificate of registration shall be amended. (15) The registration certificate shall not be cancelled or amended by the registering authority on its own motion unless the dealer has been given reasonable opportunity of being heard.

18. Voluntary Registration.

(1) On January 1, 2008, a dealer, who is otherwise not liable to pay tax, and if such dealer either carries on business or intends to carry on business, may apply at any time on or after January 1, 2008 for issue of registration certificate in the form and manner prescribed under sub-section (2) of section 17 along with proof of deposit of fee prescribed under that sub-section. (2) Every other dealer who has held immediately before January 1, 2008 a registration certificate under the erstwhile Act but otherwise is not liable to pay tax under this Act, shall be deemed a voluntarily registered dealer under this Act provided he informs the registering authority within a period of thirty days from January 1, 2008 in the form prescribed under sub-section (5) of section 17, of his intention to remain registered dealer under this Act: Provided that where a dealer was required to pay any fee for renewal of the registration certificate under the provisions of the erstwhile Act, if the same has not been paid, the registration certificate shall not be deemed valid unless such dealer deposits renewal fee along with late fee of one hundred rupees within a period of thirty days from the date of the commencement of this Act. (3) A dealer to whom registration certificate is issued under the erstwhile Act after January 1, 2008 and where such dealer is not otherwise liable to pay tax under this Act from January 1, 2008, shall be deemed a registered dealer if such dealer, after depositing renewal fee and late fee, if any, informs the registering authority or the assessing authority, as the case may be, in the prescribed form, within thirty days from the date on which registration certificate is issued to him, of his intention to retain registration certificate voluntarily. (4) Provisions of sub-sections (5) and (7) to (14) of section 17 shall mutatis mutandis apply to every registration certificate issued or held under this section.

19. Security in the interest of revenue.

(1) Where it appears necessary to the registering authority so to do - (a) for the proper realization of any tax, penalty or other sums due or payable under this Act; or (b) for the proper custody or use of forms prescribed under this Act or the rules framed there under; or (c) as a condition for the grant or, as the case may be, the continuance in effect of registration certificate, it may, by an order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein, direct, before the grant or as the case may be, at any time while such certificate is in force, that the dealer or the person concerned shall furnish, in the prescribed manner and within such time as may be specified in the order such security or, if dealer or person concerned has already furnished such security, additional security of any nature, as may be specified, for all or any of the aforesaid purposes: Provided that a valid security or an additional valid security, furnished for any of the aforesaid purposes under the provisions of the erstwhile Act, shall also be deemed valid for such purpose under this Act, if the dealer informs his assessing authority or the registering authority, as the case may be, of his intention to continue in effect such security or additional security along with undertaking from the sureties on the stamp paper of proper face value and denomination. (2) No dealer or the person concerned shall be required to furnish any security or additional security under sub-section (1) by the registering authority unless he has been given an opportunity of being heard, and the amount of such security or additional security that may be required to be furnished by any dealer shall also in no case exceed the tax payable, in accordance with the estimate of such authority on the turnover of the dealer for the assessment year in which such security is required to be furnished. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the Commissioner may, in respect of any goods notified by the Government in this behalf, by a general order in writing, direct that a cash security of such amount as may be specified in such order shall be required to be furnished by a dealer or person requiring any of the forms prescribed under this Act. (4) Where the security furnished by a dealer or person concerned under sub-section (1) is in the form of a surety bond and any surety dies or becomes insolvent, the dealer or the person concerned shall, within thirty days of the occurrence of any of the aforesaid events, inform the authority granting the certificate under section 17 or section 18 or the authority issuing the forms referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1), as the case may be, and shall within sixty days of such occurrence furnish a fresh surety bond or furnish in the prescribed manner other security for the amount of the bond. (5) The assessing authority may, by order and for good and sufficient cause, forfeit the whole or any part of the security furnished by a dealer or the person concerned - (a) for realizing any amount of tax, penalty or other amount payable by the dealer or the person concerned; or (b) if any dealer or person concerned is found to have misused any of the forms referred to in sub-section (1) or to have failed to keep them in proper custody: Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section without giving the dealer or the person concerned an opportunity of being heard. (6) Where by reason of an order under sub-section (5) the security furnished by any dealer or the person concerned is rendered insufficient, he shall make up the deficiency in such manner and within such time as may be directed by the assessing authority. (7) The registering authority may - (a) refuse to grant registration certificate; or (b) suspend any registration certificate already issued; or (c) refuse to issue any of the forms referred to in sub-section (1) or subsection (3), to any dealer or the person concerned, who has failed to comply with an order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), or with the provisions of subsection (4) or sub-section (6), until the dealer or the person concerned has complied with such order or such provisions, as the case may be: Provided that no order, under clause (a) or clause (b) above, shall be passed without giving the dealer or the person concerned an opportunity of being heard. (8) The registering authority may, on application by the dealer or the person concerned, order the discharge of the surety or refund any amount or part thereof deposited by way of security by the dealer or the person concerned under this section or under any other section if it is not required for the purpose of this Act. (9) An appeal under section 55 shall lie against an order passed under this section. (10) Any person aggrieved by an order of the appellate authority may, within ninety days of the service of the order on him but after furnishing the security, file an appeal before the Tribunal under section 57. (11) The provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to security required to be furnished under the order of any authority under this Act or the Court.

20. Quoting of Taxpayers' Identification Number.

(1) Every registered dealer shall quote his Taxpayers Identification number, allotted to him on his registration certificate, on all correspondence made, statement and return submitted, information furnished and documents issued by him and on each copy of treasury challan while depositing amount of tax, fee or any other dues under this Act. (2) While making sale of any taxable goods, if purchaser of such goods demands, the selling dealer shall show his registration certificate. (3) While making purchases of any taxable goods, every purchasing dealer shall give his name, address and Taxpayers Identification number, to the selling dealer and the selling dealer shall mention such particulars on tax invoice, sale invoice, transport memo, challan or transfer invoice, as the case may be, issued by him. (4) Every registered dealer shall present registration certificate issued to him before an officer or official authorized by the State Government whenever required by such officer or official in connection with any proceedings under this Act. (5) Every dealer who possesses Permanent Account Number allotted under the Income-Tax Act, 1961, shall mention such number on every monthly or quarterly return as the case may be, of turnover and tax and shall furnish such number whenever required by any authority under this Act.

21. Accounts and documents to be maintained by dealers.

(1) Every taxable dealer shall keep and maintain a true and correct account showing the value of the goods sold and bought by him, and in case the accounts maintained in the ordinary course do not show the same in an intelligible form, he shall maintain true and correct account in such form, as may be prescribed in this behalf. (2) A manufacturer liable to pay tax under this Act shall, in addition to the accounts referred to in other sub-sections, maintain stock books in respect of goods used or consumed in manufacture as well as the products obtained at every stage of production. Provided that in the case of any class of manufacturers, the aggregate of whose turnover, in an assessment year does not exceed twenty five lakh rupees, the Commissioner, or in any other case the State Government, may relax the requirements of this sub-section subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be deemed fit to be specified. (3) The accounts, documents and the stock books required to be maintained under this section shall be preserved by the dealer for such period as may be prescribed.(4)Every registered dealer who consigns or delivers any goods or class of goods specified in the rules made thereunder or such other goods or class of goods, as the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, specify in this behalf, of such quantity, measure or value as may be notified, to a dealer whether by reason of sale or otherwise, shall issue to the purchaser or consignee person of goods, a transport-memo in prescribed manner and in prescribed form obtained from the assessing authority having jurisdiction over the area in which principal place of business of such dealer is situated.(5)Except as provided in sub-section (4) every dealer liable to pay tax while consigning or delivering any taxable goods to another dealer whether as a result of sale or otherwise, shall issue to the purchaser or consignee of goods, a legible challan or transfer invoice in the prescribed manner containing such particulars, as may be prescribed.(6)Where any goods are transported by road, original copy of transport memo referred to in sub-section (4), challan or transfer invoice referred to in subsection (5), as the case may be, completed in all respects shall accompany the goods during journey of goods.(7)Person transporting the goods for delivery to the consignee shall fill in the particulars in the relevant columns provided on transport memo, challan or transfer invoice, as the case may be, and shall deliver such transport memo, challan or transfer invoice to the consignee dealer along with goods.(7-A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-sections(4), (6) and (7) the Commissioner may notify the website in which the particulars prescribed to be contained in the transport memo referred to in sub-section(4)shall be entered in respect of any specified class of goods or any specified class of dealers or as a result of any specified class of transaction to be notified by him. If the commissioner notifies the website, the registered dealer who consigns or delivers any goods or class of goods as notified by the Commissioner, shall enter the prescribed particulars in the notified website and the proof of entering such particulars in the website shall accompany the goods during journey of goods, in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner.(8)Every dealer who receives any form of declaration or certificate prescribed under this Act or rules made thereunder, from its assessing authority or from any other person, shall use them in the prescribed manner and shall keep an account, in the prescribed manner, of all such used and unused forms of declaration or certificates including forms of declaration or certificates received from other persons.(9)No dealer shall transfer to any person and no person shall receive from any person any certificate or any form of declaration prescribed under the rules made under this Act except as provided under this Act or the rules made thereunder.(10)Where a dealer disposes of taxable goods in more than one of the following ways:(i)makes sale of goods inside the State; or(ii)consigns goods to other dealers for sale inside the State; or(iii)makes sale of goods in the course of inter-state trade or commerce; or(iv)makes sale of goods in the course of the export of the goods out of or in the course of the import of the goods into, the territory of India; or(v)consigns goods outside the State otherwise than as a result of sale, shall, as far as possible, keep separate account of purchase, sale, receipt and dispatch of goods for each such purpose.(11)A dealer who claims input tax credit under section 13 shall maintain a register in respect of tax period wise computations of amount of input tax credit.(12)A dealer who maintains or keeps books, accounts or documents in a computer, shall also maintain day to day print out of all such books, accounts and documents.(13)Every dealer liable to pay tax shall prepare an inventory of all goods held in stock, as mentioned hereunder, along with their purchase value, on following dates:(a)goods held in opening stock on the date on which the dealer becomes liable to pay tax;(b)goods held in closing stock on the last date of each assessment year;(c)goods held in closing stock on the date of discontinuance of business;(d)in the case of a dealer who has opted for payment

However, the dealer referred in sub-section (3) may charge tax separately.(6)Office copy of tax invoice, sale invoice as the case may be, prepared by the selling dealer and copies of tax invoice, sale invoice, as the case may be, received by the purchasing dealer shall be preserved by them for the period provided under sub-section (3) of section 21."(7)Every dealer, while making purchase of any goods from a registered dealer, shall give his name, address and taxpayers identification number, if any, to the selling dealer.(8)The dealer, making sale of goods to any purchaser referred to in sub-section (1), shall not issue tax invoice to such purchaser unless the purchaser has furnished his name, complete address and taxpayer's identification number.(9)Where a dealer liable to pay tax makes purchase of any taxable goods from a person other than a registered dealer and if the person selling such goods does not issue cash memo or bill, the purchasing dealer shall issue to the person selling the goods a purchase invoice in respect of such purchase in the prescribed manner containing such particulars as may be prescribed and shall obtain signature or thumb impression of the person selling the goods.(10)The purchasing dealer referred to in sub-section (9) shall prepare purchase invoice in two copies marked as original copy and office copy. The purchasing dealer shall deliver original copy of such purchase invoice to the person selling the goods and shall preserve office copy of such purchase invoice for the period prescribed under sub-section (3) of section 21.

23. Realization of tax on sale or purchase of goods.

(1)(a)No person who is not a dealer registered under this Act, shall in respect of any sale or purchase made by or through him, realize from any person any amount by way of tax on sale or purchase of goods or any amount in lieu of tax on sale or purchase of goods by giving it different name or colour and no dealer registered under this Act, shall in respect of any sale or purchase made by or through him, realize from any person, other than a person to whom goods are sold by him, any amount by way of tax on sale or purchase of goods, or any amount in lieu of tax on sale or purchase of goods by giving it different name or colour;(b)Where tax is payable on sale or purchase of goods on any turnover by a dealer including a commission agent or any person mentioned in clause (h) of section 2 registered under this Act, such dealer may recover an amount, equivalent to the amount of tax on sale or purchase of goods payable, from the person to whom any such goods is sold by him, whether on his own account or on behalf of his principal.(2)Where (i)the amount of tax charged in tax invoice or sale invoice, as the case may be, exceeds the amount of tax payable; or(ii)the amount of tax payable in respect of a sale exceeds the amount of tax charged in a tax invoice or a sale invoice, as the case may be, or(iii)a tax invoice or sale invoice has been issued by the selling dealer to the purchasing dealer in respect of any goods but such goods or any part of such goods is returned or rejected by such purchasing dealer, debit note and credit note, of the amount of tax involved in each case, shall be issued in accordance with provisions of sub-sections (14), (15) and (16) of section 21.(3)Except as provided in section 34, no person shall deduct any amount as tax from the amount payable to the person selling the goods.(4)No dealer shall include the amount of tax already paid on the purchase of goods in the sale price of such goods resold or goods manufactured by using such goods.

Chapter IV Assessments, Payment, Recovery and Collection of Tax

24. Submission of tax returns.

(1)Every taxable dealer including a dealer from whom any amount of tax has been deducted at source under section 34, shall, for such tax period and within such time, as may be prescribed, submit tax return of his self assessed turnover and tax, in such form and verified in such manner as may be prescribed, but the assessing authority may in its discretion and for reasons to be recorded, extend the date for submission of the return by any dealer or class of dealers:Provided that every taxable dealer, including a dealer who claims input tax credit, shall also submit along with tax return a list of-(i)purchases of goods made from registered dealer in respect of which the dealer has received tax invoices;(ii)sales of goods made to registered dealers in respect of which the dealer has issued tax invoices; and(iii)sale made to dealers to whom sale invoices have been issued in the names of such dealers, containing such particulars as may be prescribed:(2)Before submitting the tax return under sub-section (1), the dealer shall, in the manner prescribed, deposit the net amount of tax payable shown in such tax return alongwith amount, if any, realized in excess of amount of tax due under this Act from purchasers of goods during the tax period.(3)Every person or dealer to whom provisions of section 34 apply, shall, in respect of dealers from whom any amount of tax has been deducted, submit such statement within such time as may be prescribed.(4)Where as a consequence of the date for the submission of return being extended under sub-section (1) on the application of the dealer, the deposit of tax under sub-section (2) is deferred, there shall be payable simple interest at the rate of one and quarter percent per men sum on such deposit for the period commencing on the last date prescribed for submission of the tax return and ending with the date of deposit of such amount.(5)If any dealer discovers any omission or other error in any tax return submitted by him, he may, at any time before the expiry of the time prescribed for submitting the next tax return, submit a revised tax return. If the revised tax return shows a greater amount of tax to be due than was shown in the original return, the dealer shall also deposit separately the difference of tax due and the interest payable under sub-section (4) as if the time for submitting the original tax return had been extended on the application of the dealer to the date of submission of the revised tax return. If, the revised tax return shows lesser amount of tax to be due than was shown in the original tax return the dealer may adjust the excess amount towards the tax due for the subsequent tax periods.(6)If goods sold by a dealer are returned to him by the purchaser within six months of the date of sale, and assessment of the selling dealer for the year to which such sale relates is as yet to be made, the selling dealer, and where goods purchased by a dealer are returned to the seller within six months of the date of purchase, and assessment of the purchasing dealer for the year to which such purchase relates is as yet to be made, the purchasing dealer, may, within thirty days of the expiry of the month in which such goods are returned, submit for that purpose only a revised return for the tax period during which such sale or purchase, as the case may be, was made.(7)Every taxable dealer, including a dealer who has carried on business during part of an assessment year, shall, for such assessment year or for part thereof as the case may be, submit Annexures of Consolidated Details within such time and in such form and manner as may be prescribed.Explanation. - For the purposes of this Act the words "Annexures of Consolidated Details" shall mean the Annexures containing the details of purchases and sales and computation of liability of tax in respect of such purchases and sales as admitted by the dealer for the related assessment year and shall also embody the details of input tax credit claimed by the dealer and amount deposited as tax by and on behalf of such dealer during the corresponding assessment year and such other particulars as may be prescribed."(8)Every person to whom provisions of section 34 apply, shall, for each assessment year, in respect of a dealer from whom amount of tax has been deducted, submit such details, in such form and manner and within such time as may be prescribed.(9)Every person transporting any goods by any public service motor vehicle or by any vessel and every forwarding agent shall submit to the assessing authority of the area from which the goods are dispatched such information and documents, (w.e.f.01.01.2008)as may be prescribed of all goods transported or forwarded by him. The assessing authority concerned shall have the power to call for and examine the books of account or other documents in the possession of such transporter or agent with a view to verifying the correctness of the information and documents(w.e.f.01.01.2008) submitted and the transporter and agent shall be bound to furnish the books of account or other documents when so called for.

25. Assessment of tax for a tax period.

(1)Where in respect of any tax period of an assessment year-(i)any dealer has not submitted tax return within the time prescribed or within the time extended by the assessing authority, or if tax return has been submitted without payment of tax shown payable in such return; or(ii)preliminary examination of tax return, by the assessing authority, reveals that computations shown in the tax return are wrong or amount of input tax credit claimed or tax payable shown is incorrect; or(iii)on the basis of material available on records with the assessing authority, it appears to the assessing authority that the turnover of sales or purchases or both, disclosed by the dealer is not worthy of credence;the assessing authority may, after making such inquiry as it may deem fit and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer, determine -(i)to the best of its judgment the turnover, amount of tax payable and amount of input tax credit admissible, where the dealer has not submitted tax return or if the tax return has been submitted, the assessing authority is of the opinion that turnover disclosed by the dealer in such return is not worthy of credence; or(ii)the amount of tax payable and amount of input tax credit admissible, in any other case, by passing a provisional order of assessment for such tax period.(2)No provisional order of assessment, under sub-section (1) for any tax period of an assessment year, shall be made after the dealer has submitted Annexures of Consolidated Details, and where such Annexures have not been submitted by the dealer, after expiration of the time prescribed or extended by the assessing authority, for submission of such Annexures .(3)Amount of tax, assessed under sub-section (1) in excess of the amount of tax deposited by the dealer, shall be paid by the dealer in the prescribed manner and within a period of thirty days from the date of service of the order of assessment and prescribed notice of demand on him.

26. Assessment of tax for an assessment.

- Subject to provisions of this Act, in respect of every taxable dealer, for each assessment year, there shall be an assessment of tax payable by him and amount of input tax credit admissible to him:Provided that where the dealer has carried on business during a part of the assessment year, such assessment shall be for such part of the assessment year:Provided further that in case of person who being a dealer other than a registered dealer brings any taxable goods from outside the State,the assessing authority may make separate assessments for each receipt of such goods by the dealer, the assessing authority may make separate assessments for each such authorisation for transit of goods or receipt of goods by the dealer, as the case may be.(The second Proviso substituted w.e.f. 20-08-2010 vide notif. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010)

26A. Special provision relating to casual traders.

shall be nil. Explanation. - In this section casual trader means a person who, whether as principal, agent or in any other capacity undertakes occasional transactions in the nature of business involving buying, selling, supply or distribution of goods or conducting any exhibition-cum-sale in Uttar Pradesh whether for cash, differed payment, commission, remuneration or other valuable consideration.

27. Self assessment.

(1) Subject to provisions of section 28, every dealer, who has submitted the return of last tax period as well as the prescribed Annexures of Consolidated Details in the prescribed form and manner, shall be deemed to have been assessed to an amount of tax admittedly payable on the turnover of purchase or sale or both, as the case may be, disclosed in such Annexures and to an amount of input tax credit shown admissible in such Annexures. (2) For all purposes under this Act and rules made there under (a) Annexures of Consolidated Details submitted by a dealer, shall be deemed to be an assessment order and facts disclosed or figures mentioned in such Annexures shall be deemed part of such assessment order; and (b) last date of the assessment year succeeding the assessment year in which the date prescribed for submission of such Annexures of Consolidated Details falls, shall be deemed to be the date of such assessment order.

28. Assessment of tax after examination of Records.

(1) In following types of cases or dealers, the assessing authority, after detailed examination of books, accounts and documents kept by the dealer in relation to his business and other relevant records, if any, and after making such inquiry as it may deem fit, subject to provision of sub-section (9), shall pass an assessment order for an assessment year in the manner provided in this section: - (a) in cases of such dealers as are specified or selected for tax audit by the Commissioner or any other officer, not below the rank of a Joint Commissioner, authorized by the Commissioner in this behalf; in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed. (b) in case of a dealer falling in any of the categories below, (i) dealer who has not submitted Annexures of Consolidated Details or revised Annexures of Consolidated Details of turnover and tax, within the time prescribed or extended; or such Annexures of Consolidated Details contain wrong or incorrect particulars or do not accompany declaration or certificate for exemption or reduction in the rate of tax, or (ii) dealer by whom tax return for one or more tax periods of the assessment year have not been submitted; or (iii) dealer in whose case assessing authority has passed provisional assessment order under section 25 in respect of one or more tax periods to the best of its judgment; or (iv) dealer in whose case, on the basis of material available on records, if the assessing authority is satisfied that the turnover of sales or purchases or both, as the case may be, and amount of tax shown payable as disclosed by the dealer in Annexures of Consolidated Details are not worthy of credence or tax shown payable in these Annexures has not been deposited by the dealer, or the amount of input tax credit claimed is wrong or the amount of tax payable shown is incorrect; or (v) dealer who has prevented or obstructed an officer empowered to make audit, survey, inspection, search or seizure under the provisions of this Act; or (vi) (omitted w.e.f. 20-08-2010 vide not if. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010) Provided that where the aggregate turnover of any dealer, does not exceed rupees twenty five lakh or such larger amount as may be determined by the State Government from time to time, in any assessment year, the Commissioner shall determine the parameters and modalities to select the dealers for the annual assessment after examining the books of accounts or records of such dealers:[Provided further that notwithstanding anything contained in section 26, the dealer not selected under the first proviso shall be deemed to have been assessed, on the last date of assessment year succeeding the assessment year in which the date of filing of annexures of consolidated details of the assessment year falls] Inserted By The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 Of 2014).Where after examination of books, accounts, documents and other records referred to in sub-section (1), -(i)the assessing authority is satisfied about correctness of turnover of sale or purchase or both, as the case may be, disclosed by the dealer, it may assess the amount of tax payable by the dealer on such turnover and determine the amount of input tax credit admissible to the dealer or amount of reverse input tax credit payable by the dealer; and(ii)where assessing authority is of the opinion that turnover of sale or purchase or both, as the case may be, disclosed by the dealer is not worthy of credence, it may determine to the best of its judgment the turnover of sale or purchase or both, as the case may be, and assess the tax payable on such turnover and determine admissible amount of input tax credit and reverse input tax credit payable by the dealer.(3)Before making an assessment under sub-section (2), dealer shall -(i)be required to furnish Annexures of Consolidated Details if he has not already submitted such Annexures;(ii)be given reasonable opportunity of being heard; and(iii)be served with a notice to show cause, where determination of turnover, input tax credit or reverse input tax credit, or assessment of tax, all or any one of them, as the case may be, are to be made to the best of the judgment of the assessing authority.(4)The show cause notice referred to in sub-section (3) shall contain all such reasons on which the assessing authority has formed its opinion about incorrectness of the turnover of sale or purchase or both, as the case may be, amount of tax, amount of input tax credit or amount of reverse input tax credit:(5)Order of assessment shall be in writing and copy of assessment order along with prescribed notice of demand of the balance amount of tax, if any, to be deposited by the dealer, shall be served on the dealer.(6)Dealer shall deposit amount of tax assessed in excess of amount of tax deposited by him for the assessment year, within a period of thirty days after the date of service of the assessment order and notice of demand.(7)Where the amount of tax deposited by the dealer is found in excess of tax assessed, the same shall be refunded to the dealer according to the provisions of this Act.(8)Assessing authority shall not be precluded from making assessment order under this section on the ground of passing of any provisional assessment order in respect of any tax period under section 25 and such provisional assessment order, if any, shall stand merged in the assessment order passed under this section.(9)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Act, where an unregistered dealer brings any taxable goods from outside the State more than once during an assessment year, separate assessment relating to goods brought on each occasion may be made for the same assessment year. (sub-section (9) was substituted w.e.f. 20-08-2010 vide notif. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010(10)The provisions of this Act shall apply to each assessment order passed under sub-section (9) as they apply to an order passed under sub-section (2).(11)Dealers under sub-section (9) shall not be required to furnish Annexures of Consolidated Details and in cases of such dealers assessment under sub-section (9) may be made even before the expiry of the assessment year.(12)Provisions of sub-sections (5), (6) and (7) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every assessment order passed under any provisions of this Act.

29. Assessment of tax of turnover escaped from assessment.

(1) If the assessing authority has reason to believe that the whole or any part of the turnover of a dealer, for any assessment year or part thereof, has escaped assessment to tax or has been under assessed or has been assessed to tax at a rate lower than that at which it is assessable under this Act, or any deductions or exemptions have been wrongly allowed in respect thereof, the assessing authority may, after issuing notice to the dealer and making such inquiry as it may consider necessary, assess or re-assess the dealer to tax according to law: Provided that the tax shall be charged at the rate at which it would have been charged had the turnover not escaped assessment or full assessment as the case may be.

Explanation I. - Nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent the assessing authority from making an assessment to the best of its judgment.

Explanation II. - For the purpose of this section and of section 31, "assessing authority" means the officer or authority who passed the earlier assessment order, if any, and includes the officer or authority having jurisdiction for the time being to assess the dealer.

Explanation III. - Notwithstanding the issuance of notice under this sub-section, where an order of assessment or re-assessment is in existence from before the issuance of such notice it shall continue to be effective as such, until varied by an order of assessment or re-assessment made under this section in pursuance of such notice.

(2) Assessment order for any tax period of an assessment year may be made within the time prescribed under section 25.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section or elsewhere in this Act, no order of assessment or re-assessment under any provision of this Act for any assessment year shall be made after the expiration of three years from the end of such assessment year.

(4) Where the notice under sub-section (1) for any assessment year has been served within a period of three years after expiry of the assessment year to which assessment or re-assessment relates, the assessment or re-assessment may be made within a period of three years and six months after the expiry of such assessment year.

(5) Where appellate authority, revising authority, Tribunal, High Court, Commissioner or the State Government has - (a) set aside an order of assessment or re-assessment and has remanded the case to the assessing authority; or (b) for want of reasonable opportunity of being heard, set-aside or has directed the assessing authority to set aside an ex parte order of assessment or reassessment; or (c) quashed any order of assessment or re-assessment for want of jurisdiction or for want of notice, the assessing authority may make order of assessment or reassessment before expiry of the assessment year succeeding the assessment year in which such order or direction is received by the assessing authority by due process: Provided that where any assessment or re-assessment order is quashed by any authority or Court, for want of notice or for want of jurisdiction, the order of assessment or re-assessment may be made, within the time mentioned above in this sub-section, by the competent assessing authority after serving notice on the dealer.

(6) Where an order of assessment or re-assessment has been set aside by the assessing authority himself under section 32, a fresh order of assessment or reassessment may be made before expiry of the assessment year in which such order of assessment or re-assessment has been set aside: Provided that if an order of assessment or re-assessment made ex parte is set aside on or after first day of October in any assessment year, fresh order of assessment or re-assessment may be made on or before thirtieth day of September of the assessment year succeeding the assessment year in which such ex parte order of assessment or re-assessment was set aside. Provided further that where second or subsequent time any order of assessment or reassessment is made ex parte and where such second or subsequent ex parte order of assessment or reassessment is to be set aside and a fresh order of assessment or reassessment may be made within the time aforementioned when the first ex parte order is set aside.(7)Where the Commissioner, on his own or on the basis of reasons recorded by the assessing authority, is satisfied that it is just and expedient so to do, authorises the assessing authority in that behalf, such assessment or re-assessment may be made within a period of eight years after expiry of assessment year to which such assessment or re-assessment relates notwithstanding such assessment or re-assessment may involve a change of opinion:Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Commissioner to hear the dealer before authorising the assessing authority.(8)Where the proceedings for assessment or re-assessment for any assessment year remain stayed under the order of any court or authority, the period commencing on the date of stay order and ending with the date of receipt by the assessing authority concerned of the order vacating stay, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided in this section:Provided that if in computing the limitation as aforesaid, the last date for passing an assessment or re-assessment falls on any date before first day of October in any assessment year, assessment or re-assessment may be made before the expiry of such assessment year and in a case in which such date falls after thirtieth day of September of any assessment year, order of assessment or re-assessment may be made before the expiry of the assessment year subsequent to assessment year in which such date falls.(9)Where in the assessment or re-assessment of a dealer for any assessment year, any assessing authority, -(a)has included any turnover and any superior authority or Court has, in exercise of the powers lawfully vested in it, held such turnover to relate to the assessment of-(i)such dealer for any other assessment year, or(ii)such dealer under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, or(iii)any other dealer, whether under this Act, or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956,(b)has not included any turnover on the ground that it relates to assessment under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 and any superior Authority or Court has, in exercise of the powers lawfully vested in it, held such turnover to relate to the assessment of that dealer under this Act, whether for such assessment year or any other assessment year, then nothing contained in this section limiting the time shall apply to assessment or re-assessment whether under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 of such dealer or such other dealer, relating to such assessment year or such other assessment year, as the case may be.(10)Where the assessing authority has reason to believe that any person with a view to evade payment of tax or in order to claim any input tax credit or rebate which he otherwise is not eligible for or was carrying on business in the name of, or in association with any other person either directly or indirectly, whether as an agent, employee, manager, partner or power of attorney holder or guarantor, relative or sister concern or in any other capacity, such person and the person in whose name the registration certificate is taken, shall be liable severally and jointly for payment of tax, interest or penalty which shall be assessed, levied and recovered from all or any such person as if such person or persons are dealers under this Act. However, before taking any action, the person concerned shall be given an opportunity of being heard.(11)Where the State Government is of the opinion that due to any extra-ordinary circumstances prevalent in any assessment year in the State or any part of it, it will be difficult to complete assessment or re-assessment in any case or class of cases in respect of which limitation for passing assessment or re-assessment expires in such assessment year, for the purpose of making assessment or reassessment in such a case or class of cases, it may, by notification in the Gazette, extend the time limit up to one year beyond the time limit prescribed under this section.(12)Where in an agreement between seller and purchaser it is agreed upon that sale price of goods due to price escalation shall be settled on a later date and in the circumstances such date falls in any assessment year subsequent to the assessment year in which such goods were sold, amount receivable due to price settlement, for all purposes under this Act, shall be deemed part of the turnover of the assessment year in which sale was made and where limitation for assessment of tax on such turnover, [as provided in this section] [Substituted By The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 of 2014).] has expired, such part of turnover may be assessed before the expiry of the assessment year succeeding the assessment year in which such settlement is made, but the tax on such turnover of sale shall be charged at the rate prevalent at the time of sale.

30. Rounding off of turnover and tax.

(1)The amount of turnover, determined in the prescribed manner shall if such amount is not in the multiple of ten, be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees, that is to say, a part of ten rupees which is less than five rupees shall be ignored and any other part shall be counted as ten rupees. The amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the turnover of the assessee for the purpose of assessment of tax under this Act.(2)The amount of tax, fee, interest, penalty or any other sum payable or the amount of refund due under the provisions of this Act shall, where such amount contains part of a rupee, be rounded off to the nearest rupees, that is to say, a part of a rupee which is less than fifty paise shall be ignored and any other part shall be counted as one rupee.

31. Rectification of mistakes.

(1)Any officer, authority, the Tribunal or the High Court may on its own motion or on the application of the dealer or any other interested person rectify any mistake apparent on the face of record, in any order passed by him under this Act, within three years from the date of the order sought to be rectified:Provided that where an application under this sub-section has been made within such period of three years, it may be disposed of even beyond such period:Provided further that no rectification which has the effect of enhancing the assessment, penalty, fees or other dues, shall be made unless reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to the dealer or other person likely to be affected by such enhancement.(2)Where such rectification has the effect of enhancing the assessment, the assessing authority shall serve on the dealer a revised notice of demand in the prescribed form and therefrom all the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such notice had been served in the first instance.

32. Power to set aside exparte order of assessment or penalty.

(1)In any case in which an order of assessment or re-assessment or rejection of application for registration or order of penalty is passed exparte, the dealer may apply to the assessing authority within thirty days of the service of the order to set aside such order and re-open the case; and if such authority is satisfied that the applicant did not receive notice or was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed, it may set aside the order and reopen the case for hearing:Provided that no such application for setting aside an exparte assessment order shall be entertained unless it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the amount of tax to be due under this Act on the turnover of sales or purchases, or both, as the case may be, admitted by the dealer in the returns filed by him or at any stage in any proceeding under this Act, whichever is greater.(2)Where an assessment order under sub-section (1) of section 25 is passed, ex parte, the dealer may apply to the Assessing Authority within thirty days of the service of the order, to set aside such order and if such authority is satisfied that the dealer has filed the tax return and deposited the tax due according to the tax return within thirty days from the last day prescribed for filing such tax return, it may modify or set aside such order and also the demand notice, if any, issued thereunder.(3)In any case in which any assessment or re-assessment has been made ex parte and (a)appeal under section 55 against such order has been dismissed as barred by time;(b)in appeal before the Tribunal under section 57, order, passed by the Appellate Authority under section 55, has been confirmed; and(c)Commissioner or Additional Commissioner designated by the Commissioner, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer, is satisfied that-(i)dealer, at any stage during the period of assessment or reassessment proceedings, had no notice of initiation of such proceedings;(ii)as a result of ex parte assessment or reassessment, without proper basis amount of tax has been levied;(iii)undue hardship will be caused to the dealer if such assessed tax is realized from him; and(iv)if, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer, tax is reassessed, demand created by earlier order of assessment or reassessment may stand reduced to a large extent, he may direct the assessing authority to set aside such ex parte order of assessment or reassessment and to make assessment or reassessment after affording reasonable opportunity to the dealer, if the dealer presents an application before the Commissioner within a period of sixty days from the date on which dealer receives the order passed by the Tribunal under section 57.

33. Payment and recovery of tax.

(1)Any amount of tax or fee or penalty or any other amount, which a dealer or other person is liable to pay under this Act, shall be deposited by the dealer or such other person in the prescribed manner.(2)Subject to provisions of section 42, the tax admittedly payable, shall be deposited within the time prescribed, failing which simple interest at the rate of one and quarter percent per mensem shall become due and be payable on unpaid amount with effect from the day immediately following the last date prescribed till the date of payment of such amount and nothing contained in section 24 shall prevent or have the effect of postponing liability to pay such interest:[Explanation.

[Substituted By The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 Of 2014).] - For the purposes of this sub-section ,the tax admittedly payable for a tax period or an assessment year , as the case may be , shall be computed in accordance with provisions of section 15 and shall include the amount payable under section 8-A.](3)Subject to other provisions of this Act, the amount of tax assessed under this Act in excess of amount of tax already deposited, the amount of interest payable thereon, any amount imposed by way of penalty and any other amount determined payable under this Act shall be deposited in the manner specified, within thirty days of the service of the order-(a)of assessment and notice of demand in case of tax assessed and interest payable;(b)imposing penalty or determining any other amount payable, as the case may be.(4)If the tax {other than the tax admittedly payable to which sub-section (2) applies} assessed, re-assessed or enhanced by any authority or court remains unpaid after expiration of the period specified in the notice of assessment and demand, simple interest at the rate of one percent per mensem on the unpaid amount calculated from the date of such expiration shall become due and be payable:(5)The amount of interest payable under this section shall be without prejudice to any other liability or penalty that the dealer may incur under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, and shall be added to the amount of tax and be also deemed for all purposes to be part of the tax.(6)Where realisation of any tax remained stayed by any order of any court or authority and such order of stay is subsequently vacated, the interest shall be payable also for any period during which such order remained in operation.(7)Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or contract to the contrary, the assessing authority may, at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing a copy of which shall be forwarded to the dealer at his last address known to the assessing authority, require -(a)any person from whom any amount is due or may become due to the dealer; or(b)any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the dealer;to pay to the assessing authority -(i)forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held; or(ii)at or within the time specified in the notice not being before the money becomes due or is held, so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the dealer in respect of arrears of tax and other dues under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount:Provided that the assessing authority may at any time or from time to time revoke or amend such notice.Explanation. - For the purposes of this sub-section, the amount due to a dealer or money held for or on account of a dealer by any person shall be computed after taking into account such claim, if any, as may have fallen due for payment by such dealer to such person and as may be legally subsisting.(8)Any person making any payment in compliance with notice under sub-section (7) shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the dealer and the receipt of the assessing authority shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the dealer to the extent the amount referred to in the receipt.(9)Any person discharging any liability to the dealer after receipt of the notice referred to in sub-section (7) shall be personally liable to the assessing authority to the extent of the liability discharged or to the extent of the amount mentioned in such notice, whichever is less.(10)Where a person, to whom a notice under sub-section (7) is sent, proves to the satisfaction of the assessing authority that sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the dealer, or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the dealer, then nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require such person to pay the sum demanded or any part thereof, as the case may be, to the assessing authority.(11)Any tax or other dues payable to the State Government under this Act, any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the assessing authority under sub-section (7) or for which he is personally liable to the assessing authority under sub section (9) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force and subject to any special or general order of the State Government, be recoverable as arrears of Land Revenue, or in the prescribed manner by the assessing authority or any other officer authorised by the State Government in that behalf and such authority or officer shall, for the purposes of such recovery - (a) have all the powers which a Civil Court has under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purpose of recovery of an amount due under a decree;(b)have the power to require the assessing authority or such authorised officer, having jurisdiction in any other area to make such recovery if the defaulter is or has property within the area of such other assessing authority or officer, and thereupon such other assessing authority or officer shall proceed to make recovery in prescribed manner;(12)In respect of any sum recoverable under this Act as arrears of land revenue, the assessing authority may forward to the Collector a certificate under his signature specifying the sum due. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the liability of its amount and of the person who is liable and the Collector on receipt of the certificate shall proceed to recover from such person the amount specified therein as if it were an arrear of land revenue: Provided that without prejudice to the powers conferred by this section the Collector shall, for the purpose of recovering the amount specified in the certificate, have also all the powers which - (a) a Collector has under the Revenue Recovery Act 1890; and (b) a Civil Court has under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purpose of recovery of an amount due under a decree. Explanation. - The expression Collector includes an Additional Collector or any other officer authorised to exercise the powers of a Collector under the law relating to land revenue for the time being in force in the State. (13) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) and notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any Court, Tribunal or other authority, where any notice of assessment and demand in respect of any tax or other dues under this Act, is served upon a dealer by an assessing authority and an appeal, revision or other proceeding is filed in respect of such tax or dues then - (a) where as a result of such appeal, revision or other proceeding the amount of such tax or other dues is enhanced, the assessing authority shall serve upon the dealer a fresh notice only in respect of the amount by which such tax or other dues are enhanced, and any proceeding in relation to the amount specified in the notice already served upon him before the disposal of such appeal, revision or other proceeding may be continued from the stage at which it stood immediately before such disposal; (b) where as result of such appeal, revision or other proceeding the amount of such tax or other dues is reduced - (i) it shall not be necessary to serve upon the dealer a fresh notice but only the reduced amount shall be realized; (ii) if any recovery proceedings are pending before any officer or authority other than the Assessing authority, the Assessing Authority shall intimate such reduction to such officer or authority; (iii) any proceeding initiated on the basis of the notice or notices served upon the dealer before the disposal of such appeal, revision or other proceedings, including any recovery proceeding, may be continued in relation to the amount so reduced from the stage at which it stood immediately before such disposal. (c) No fresh notice shall be necessary in any case where amount of the tax or other dues is not enhanced (with reference to the amount assessed by the Assessing authority) as a result of such appeal, revision or other proceedings. (14) Any amount paid or deposited by, or recovered from, or refundable to a dealer, shall first be adjusted towards the principal amount of tax, fee, penalty or other dues outstanding against him and the excess if any, shall then be adjusted towards the interest, if any, due from him. (15) Where any amount of tax assessed, interest payable or penalty imposed is recoverable from an owner of a vehicle and for realization of such amount of tax, interest or penalty, recovery certificate has been issued by the assessing authority, the officer competent to execute the recovery certificate may take assistance of police and other officer or official of the State Government in locating such vehicle or other vehicles of the same owner. If so required by the officer executing the recovery certificate, such other officer or official shall be empowered to detain such vehicle. Whenever any officer or official detains any such vehicle, he shall give the cause of detention in writing to the person in charge of the vehicle at the time of detention and shall immediately inform the officer executing the recovery certificate. Officer executing the recovery certificate shall proceed in accordance with law to realise such amount of tax or penalty: Provided that if the owner or person in charge of the vehicle proves to the satisfaction of such officer or official that amount shown recoverable has already been paid, the vehicle shall be set free: Provided further that if at the time of detention of vehicle, if some goods are loaded on it and owner of such goods is a person other than the owner of the vehicle, the owner or the person in charge of the goods shall be allowed to remove such goods from such vehicle if he desires so. (16) During the period of detention of vehicle under sub-section (15), the person-in-charge of the vehicle at the time of detention shall take all necessary measures for safety of goods and vehicle and officer or official detaining the vehicle shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to goods or vehicle.(17)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act and the rules made there under, the State Government, may grant moratorium from payment of admitted tax to a power project industrial unit, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. (w.e.f.01.01.2008)Explanation. - For the purposes of this sub-section "admitted tax" shall include the tax liability of other dealers owned by such unit under sub-section (11) of section 3. (w.e.f.01.01.2008) (18) Where any goods has been seized by any competent authority for realization of tax or penalty leviable under this Act and such goods has been given in the custody of any person by such authority. If such person fails to return the goods to the authority in the same form and condition, an amount equal to the value of goods shall be recovered from such person as an arrear of land revenue.

34. Tax deduction at source.

(1)Without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, payment or collection of tax under this Act, the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, direct that, in a specified case and in the specified circumstances but subject to such conditions as may be specified, every specified person responsible for making payment to the selling dealer, for discharge of liability on account of valuable consideration payable on sale of goods in such cases as may be specified, shall, at the time of making such payment to the seller, either by credit or in cash or in any other manner, towards satisfaction of tax payable by the dealer on account of sale of any taxable goods, deduct an amount determined in the manner specified:Provided that where in case of a works contract, the contractor has awarded a sub-contract and the notification provides for deduction of amount by the contractee from the payments made to contractor, the contractor responsible for making any payment or discharge of any liability to any sub-contractor, in pursuance of a contract with the sub-contractor, shall, while making payment to the sub-contractor, deduct amount of tax referred to above.Provided further that where in case of a works contract, the contractor has already made deduction from the payments made to his sub-contractor, the amount of such payments shall be deducted from the amount on which deduction is to be made by the contractee to the contractor.(2)Upon issue of a notification under sub-section (1), where-(a)a dealer, who makes sale of any taxable goods and in whose case notification referred to in sub-section (1) applies, for any reason claims that he either is not liable to pay tax on such sale or is liable to pay as tax an amount lesser than amount of deduction computed in the manner provided; or(b)the person responsible for making payments to the dealer selling the goods is unable to ascertain the turnover of any goods sold, the person responsible for making payment shall require the selling dealer to produce direction issued in this behalf by the assessing authority of the selling dealer and shall act according to such direction of the assessing authority.(3)Where purchasing dealer himself is liable to pay tax on turnover of purchase of any goods by virtue of any provision of this Act, he shall not deduct any amount in respect of turnover of such goods.(4)In the circumstances under sub-section (2), the dealer selling goods may, for issue of direction to the purchaser to deduct an amount lesser than the proposed amount of tax or not to deduct any amount as tax, apply to the assessing authority having jurisdiction over the principal place of his business or if he has no fixed place of business, to the assessing authority in whose jurisdiction he ordinarily resides.(5)The assessing authority referred to in sub-section (4), after examining the liability of payment of tax of the dealer in respect of sale of goods made and after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer, shall by an order in writing direct the purchaser of the goods accordingly.(6)The amount deducted under sub-section (1) shall be deposited into the Government Treasury by the person making such deduction before the expiry of the 20th day of the month following that in which deduction is made:Provided that where the purchaser of goods referred to in sub-section (1) is a registered dealer, he shall deposit the amount of deduction in the manner and within the time in which amount of tax for the tax period in which purchase has been made, is payable and such dealer shall be entitled to claim input tax credit in accordance with provisions of section 13 in respect of such purchase.(7)The person making deductions under sub-section (1) shall, at the time of payment or discharge, furnish to the selling dealer a certificate of amount deducted in such form and manner and within such period as may be prescribed and shall submit such statement of all such purchases, payments and deductions made and certificates issued by him, in such manner and within such time, as may be prescribed.(8)If any person referred to in sub-section (1) fails to make the deduction or after making deduction fails to deposit the amount so deducted as required by sub-section (6), the assessing authority may, after giving to such person an opportunity of being heard, by order in writing, direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum not exceeding twice the amount deductible under this section but not so deducted and, if deducted, not so deposited into the Government Treasury.(9)Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (8), if any such person, after deducting, fails to deposit the amount so deducted, he shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum on the amount not so deposited from the date on which such amount was deducted to the date on which such amount is actually deposited.(10)Where the amount has not been deposited after deduction, such amount together with interest referred to in sub-section (9) shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue from the person who has deducted and such amount shall be a charge upon all the assets of the person concerned.(11)Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the assessing authority from making an assessment of tax payable by the dealer in accordance with other provisions of this Act and the dealer shall be liable to pay tax in accordance with other provisions of this Act.Provided that any deduction made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be treated as a payment of tax on behalf of the selling dealer, and credit shall be given to him for the amount so deducted on the production of the certificate, referred to in sub-section (9) in the tax return of the relevant period or the assessment made, as the case may be, and any amount found in excess of tax due shall be refunded to the selling dealer.(12)No deduction of any amount shall be made under this section if the person selling the goods is not a dealer, but the onus to prove that goods have been purchased from a person other than a dealer shall lie on the person responsible for making payment, failing which it shall be deemed that goods have been purchased from a dealer.(13)Where the person responsible for making deduction in respect of a sale under a works contract is unable to ascertain the amount of deduction and the contractor or the subcontractor, as the case may be, does not produce direction referred to in sub-section (2) from its assessing authority, the person responsible for making deduction shall deduct an amount which shall be four percent of the gross amount of payment.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, assessing authority in relation to person responsible for making payments to the selling dealer means the officer having jurisdiction over the place where the principal place of business of such person inside the State is located and where such person has no such place, the place where the residence of such person inside the State is located.(14)No deduction under this section shall be made on the turnover of sale where such sale takes place -(w.e.f.01.01.2008)(i)in the course of inter-State trade or commerce; or(ii)outside the State; or(iii)in the course of the export out of, or import into, the territory of India;

35. Allotment of tax deduction number to a person responsible for making tax deduction at source.

(1)Every person responsible for making tax deduction at source in accordance with provisions of section 34, if he is not a registered dealer, shall apply to the assessing authority for allotment of tax deduction number and the application shall be disposed of in such time and manner as may be prescribed.(2)Tax deduction number shall be referred to in all the documents pertaining to deposit of tax and returns filed.(3)No person other than a registered dealer can make tax deduction under sub-section (1) of section 34 unless he has applied for such tax deduction number.(4)If any person referred to in sub-section (1) fails to apply for tax deduction number, the assessing authority may, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing, direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum not exceeding twice the amount deductible under section 34.

36. Recovery or refund of petty amounts to be ignored.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, no tax, fee, interest or penalty under this Act shall be recovered and no refund shall be allowed if the amount involved for any assessment year is less than one hundred rupees.

37. Recovery of tax in case of a company under liquidation.

(1)Every person who -(a)is the liquidator of a company which is being wound up, whether under orders of a Court or otherwise; or(b)has been appointed the receiver of any assets of a company {hereinafter referred to as the liquidator}, shall within thirty days after he has become such liquidator, inform the assessing authority of his appointment as such.(2)The assessing authority shall after making such inquiry or calling for such information as it may deem fit, notify the liquidator within three months from the date on which he receives information of the appointment of the liquidator the amount which in the opinion of the assessing authority would be sufficient to provide for any tax which is then or likely thereafter to become, payable by the company.(3)The liquidator shall not part with any of the assets of the company or the properties in his hands until he has been notified by the assessing authority under sub-section (2) and on being so notified, shall set aside an amount equal to the amount notified and, until he so sets aside such amount, shall not part with any of the assets.Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall debar the liquidator from parting with such assets or properties in compliance with any order of a Court or for the purpose of the payment of tax payable by the company under this Act or for making any payment over debts due to Government on the date of liquidation or for meeting such costs or expenses of the winding up of the company as are in the opinion of the assessing authority reasonable.(4)If the liquidator fails to give the information in accordance with sub-section (1) or fails to set aside the amount as required by, or parts with any of the assets of the company or the properties in his hands in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (3), he shall be personally liable for the payment of the tax which the company would be liable to pay: Provided that if under sub-section (2), the amount of any tax payable by the company is notified personal liability of the liquidator under this sub-section shall be to the extent of such amount. (5) Where there are more than one liquidator, the liquidations and liabilities attached to the liquidator under this section shall attach to all the liquidators jointly and severally. (6) The provision of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force. Explanation. - Company has the meanings assigned to it by clause (i) of subsection (1) of section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956 (Act No. 1 of 1956).

38. Liability of director of limited company in liquidation.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956, when any limited company is wound up and any tax assessed on the company under this Act for any period, whether before or in the course of or after its liquidation, can not be recovered, then every person who was a director of the limited company at any time during the period for which the tax is due shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such tax unless he proves that the non-recovery cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of the company.

39. Liability of Power to grant installment.

(1) Subject to such conditions and restrictions, including the conditions regarding furnishing security to the satisfaction of the assessing authority, as may be deemed fit to be imposed- (a) the State Government may permit any dealer or other person, against whom any amount of tax, penalty or other dues is outstanding, either under this Act or under the erstwhile Act, to pay the amount in such number of monthly installments not exceeding twenty four; and (b) the Commissioner may likewise permit any dealer or other person, against whom any amount of tax, penalty or other dues, payable either under this Act or under the erstwhile Act, aggregating not more than five lakh rupees is outstanding, to pay the amount in such number of monthly installments, not exceeding twelve. (2) Where such dealer or other person fails to furnish, within sixty days of the order referred to in sub-section (1), adequate security to the satisfaction of the assessing authority concerned for payment of the outstanding amount, or fails to comply with the conditions or restrictions imposed in such order, the amount due shall be recoverable at once. Chapter - V

40. Refund and Adjustment.

(1) Subject to other provisions of this Act, the assessing authority shall in the manner prescribed, refund to the dealer an amount of tax, fee, or other dues paid in excess of the amount due from him under this Act. Provided that amount found to be refundable shall first be adjusted towards tax or any other amount outstanding against the dealer under this Act or under The Central Sales Tax Act 1956 or under the erstwhile Act and only the balance if any shall be refunded. Provided further that refund, of excess amount of input tax credit, shall, without prejudice to other conditions, be subject to conditions and restrictions of section 15. (2) Where amount found refundable in accordance with the provisions under subsection (1), is not refunded within thirty days from the date of order of refund passed by the assessing authority or where order giving rise to refund is passed by any other authority or court, from the date of receipt of such order by the assessing authority by due process, the dealer shall be entitled to simple interest on such amount at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date of such order passed by the assessing authority or from the date of receipt of the order giving rise to refund passed by any other authority or Court, till the date refund is made. Provided that where refund relating to excess amount of input tax credit due on the basis of returns filed by the dealer, is not allowed within the time prescribed under section 15, the dealer shall be entitled to simple interest on such amount at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date on which refund becomes due and till the date refund is made. (3) Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any Court or authority, no refund shall be allowed of any tax or fee due under this Act on the turnover of sales or purchases or both, as the case may be, admitted by the dealer in the returns filed by him or at any stage in any proceedings under this Act, whichever is higher. (4) Where a dealer has requested the assessing authority for withholding any amount refundable to him for adjustment towards his future liabilities either under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, the dealer shall not be entitled for interest. (5) Where any amount of tax has been deducted from any dealer under section 34 as tax payable by him for any assessment year, for the purpose of sub-section (3), amount deducted shall be deemed to be tax due under this Act and shall not be refunded to the dealer where the dealer - (a) has neither submitted returns of turnover and tax for all tax periods nor has submitted Annexures of Consolidated Details for the assessment year in which sales are made; and (b) has been assessed ex parte for the assessment year in which sales are made. (6) Where in respect of sale of any goods, any amount of tax has been realized by a registered dealer from - (a) any official or personnel of - (i) any foreign diplomatic mission or consulate in India; or (ii) the United Nations or any other similar International body, entitled to privileges under any convention to which India is a party or any other law for the time being in force; or (b) any consular or diplomatic agent of any mission, the United Nations or any other body referred to in sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii) of clause (a), and where such official, personnel, consulate or agent has purchased goods for himself or for the purpose of such mission, United Nations, or any other body, then if such official, personnel, agent, United Nations or body, after producing tax invoice referred to in sub-section (1) of section 22 or the sale invoice referred to in sub-section (3) of the said section, as may be applicable, in the prescribed manner, claims refund of the amount of tax realised from him, the Commissioner or the officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall refund such amount to such official, personnel, consular or agent of such mission, United Nations or body, as the case may be. (7) Refund, under any provisions of this Act, may be given by refund voucher or cheque: Provided that where a dealer submits e-tax return, refund of any amount found refundable to him may be allowed through e-cheque. Explanation. - For the purposes of this Act, prescribed date shall be deemed to be the date of refund. (8) The amount refundable under the erstwhile Act may be adjusted against the amount of tax or penalty or any other dues under this Act.

40A. Withholding of refund in certain cases.

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act or in any judgment, decree or order of any Court, Tribunal or other authority, where after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to the dealer or the person concerned, the Commissioner is satisfied on the report of the assessing authority that, - (a) the dealer has submitted false return of the turnover or has concealed particulars of his turnover or has deliberately furnished inaccurate particulars of such turnover or has prevented the assessing authority or any other competent authority from making inspection and examination of books, accounts or documents maintained or goods shown to be held in stock by such dealer or obstructed any competent authority in performing his functions under this Act; or (b) any purchase in respect of which input tax credit in any return has been claimed, is not verifiable; or (c) the dealer has obtained tax invoices without making actual purchase of goods; or (d) the dealer has failed to furnish any security demanded from him under any provision of this Act or the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956; or (e) the circumstances exist involving fraud, and where the Commissioner is of the opinion that if refund is allowed, it may not be possible to realize any amount of tax or penalty likely to be levied, he may permit the assessing authority to pass an order for withholding, as a security, such amount of refund as would be sufficient to cover the amount of tax or penalty or both, as the case may be, likely to be levied, for a period as may be determined by the Commissioner. (2) Where the assessing authority finds that the circumstances mentioned in sub-section (1) exist and sufficient material is available on the record, it shall send a report to the Commissioner along with the material for seeking the permission to withhold the amount of refund. (3) The assessing authority shall complete the proceeding for assessment or penalty or both, pending before him within such period as may be determined by the Commissioner. Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that the circumstances exist which would prevent the assessing authority to complete the assessment or penalty proceeding within the determined period, he may extend the period not exceeding 90 days. (4) After the completion of the proceeding withheld amount shall be adjusted against demand created due to assessment or penalty proceeding and the balance if any shall be refunded along with interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date on which refund has become due, in the manner provided under this Act and the rules made there under. Explanation. - For the purposes of this section refund includes the refund of input tax credit.

41. Provisional refund.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 40, in the case of a dealer, whose main business is to sell goods in the course of the export of the goods out of the territory of India, the assessing authority, upon receiving the return for a tax period and application for provisional refund along with the proof of export, pending audit and investigation to establish the correctness of the claim and consequent assessment, shall, allow provisional refund of the excess amount of input tax credit for such tax period on account of sale in the course of the export of the goods out of the territory of India, within thirty days from the date of receipt of such application: Provided that if any amount of tax, fee or penalty or any other amount either under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or under the erstwhile Act is due against such dealer the amount found refundable first shall be adjusted towards such amount of tax or fee or penalty, as the case may be, and excess, if any, shall be refunded to the dealer: Provided further that, before granting refund, the assessing authority may require the dealer to furnish security of amount equivalent to amount of refund to its satisfaction where, - (a) the dealer has been involved in tax evasion under this Act or erstwhile Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act 1956; or (b) the dealer has obstructed or prevented the officers empowered under this Act in performing any of his functions or duties assigned to him under this Act; or (c) the dealer has misused in any way the declaration or the certificate prescribed under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or under the erstwhile Act or under the Uttar Pradesh Tax on the Entry of Goods into Local Areas Act, 2007; or (d) the dealer is defaulter of the payment of tax on the sale or purchase of goods under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or under the erstwhile Act; or (e) the dealer has violated any provision of this Act resulting in the loss of revenue. Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, - (i) 'main business of export' in relation to a dealer shall mean the dealer whose aggregate of turnover of sales in the course of export of goods outside the territory of India under sub-sections (1) and (3) of section 5 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, for any tax period exceeds fifty percent of the aggregate of turnover of sale of all goods - (a) within the State; (b) in the course of export of goods out of the territory of India; and (c) in the course of inter-State trade or commerce. (ii) where any application is incomplete the date of completion of that application shall be deemed to be the date of application. (2) If, on assessment, the provisional refund granted under sub-section (1) is found to be in excess, then the excess amount of refund shall be recovered from the dealer along with interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum and for the period commencing on the date of provisional refund and ending with the date of payment of the amount, as tax due from the dealer. (3) If the application is not in order or contains wrong particulars it shall be rejected by a speaking order in writing and the dealer shall be informed accordingly: Provided that no application shall be rejected without affording the dealer an opportunity of being heard. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the first proviso to sub-section (1) where any industrial unit has been declared sick by any competent court or authority constituted under any law for the time being in force, the provisional refund under this section shall be allowed if such industrial unit satisfied that, - (a) the package for rehabilitation of the sick unit has been approved by a competent court or an authority; (b) the State Government has deferred the arrear against such unit under section 71 and (c) the conditions imposed by the State Government for deferment of the arrear has been complied with."

42. Treatment of industrial units availing exemption or reduction in the rate of tax under erstwhile Act.

(1) No industrial unit, - (w.e.f. 01.01.2008) (a) availing benefit of exemption from or reduction in the rate of tax under the erstwhile Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 on the turnover of sales or purchase or both as the case may be, before the commencement of this Act; or (b) which is granted the benefit of exemption from or reduction in the rate of tax on the turnover of sale or purchase or both as the case may be, under the erstwhile Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956; shall be permitted to avail the benefit of exemption from, or reduction in the rate of, tax on the turnover of sale or purchase or both as the case may be, on or after the commencement of this Act. (2) The industrial unit availing the benefit of tax deferment under the erstwhile Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 before the commencement of this Act or a unit which is granted facility of tax deferment under the erstwhile Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 shall continue to avail the facility of deferment for net tax payable under this Act and the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed. For the purposes of this section -(i) the assessing authority includes an officer not below the rank of an officer appointed and posted by the Commissioner at a check-post or an officer empowered to exercise powers under sections 45, 46, 47, 48, 50, 51 and 52 of this Act; (ii) if the value of goods described or mentioned in tax invoice, sale invoice or any such other document is undervalued to the extent of more than fifty percent of the value of goods prevalent at the relevant time in the local market area where the transaction has taken place, the estimated value prevalent at the relevant time in such local market area shall be deemed to be the value of such goods; (iii) if the value of goods is not described or mentioned in tax invoice, sale invoice or any such other document the estimated value prevalent at the relevant time in the local market area where the transaction has taken place, shall be deemed to be the value of such goods.".(2)A copy of the order passed under sub-section (1) shall be served on the dealer or person concerned and the amount imposed by way of penalty shall be deposited by such dealer or person in such manner as may be prescribed within thirty days of such service, failing which it may be recovered in the manner provided under section 33.(3)Where any penalty order passed by assessing authority either under this section or any other section, is quashed by any authority or court in exercise of powers vested in it on the ground that show cause notice issued to dealer or any other person is not in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the assessing authority may pass fresh order of penalty after issuing proper notice within one year from the date of receipt of such order.(4)where in case of a sick unit as referred to in section 71, any penalty order has been passed ex parte and appeal has not been filed against such order, if the State Government issues direction to the assessing authority to set aside such order and to pass fresh order of penalty, assessing authority shall pass such fresh order of penalty within a period of one year from the date on which it receives the order or direction by due process from the State Government.

Chapter IX

Appeal, Review and Revision

55. Appeal.

(1)Any dealer or other person aggrieved by an order made by the assessing authority, other than an order mentioned in sub-section (7) of section 48 may, within thirty days from the date of service of the copy of the order, after serving a copy of appeal memo on the assessing authority or the Commissioner, appeal to such authority (hereinafter referred to as appellate authority), as may be prescribed:Provided that where due to any reason, any appellant fails to serve a copy of appeal memo on the assessing authority before filing appeal, he may serve copy of such appeal memo within a time of one week from the date on which appeal has been filed or within such further time as the appellate authority may permit.(2)Where an appeal has been filed against an order referred to in sub-section (1), the Commissioner may apply to the appellate authority to examine the legality and propriety of such order on such point as may be mentioned in the application. A copy of such application shall be served on the appellant and shall be decided along with the appeal filed by the appellant:Provided that no application for examination of legality and propriety shall be entertained after the disposal of appeal:Provided further that where the Commissioner has filed an application, the appellant shall not be entitled to withdraw appeal filed by him.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section Commissioner includes an officer authorised to file appeal on behalf of the Commissioner before the Tribunal under section 57.(3)No appeal against an assessment order under this Act shall be entertained unless the appellant has furnished satisfactory proof of the payment of the amount of tax or fee due under this Act on the turnover of sale or purchase, or both, as the case may be, admitted by the appellant in the tax returns filed by him or at any stage in any proceedings under this Act, whichever is greater.(4)The appeal shall be in the prescribed form and shall be verified in the prescribed manner.(5)The appellate authority may, after calling for and examining the relevant records and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Commissioner-(a)in the case of an order of assessment and penalty.-(i)confirm or annul such order ; or(ii)vary such order by reducing or enhancing the amount of assessment or penalty, as the case may be, whether such reduction or enhancement arises from a point raised in the grounds of appeal or otherwise ; or(iii)set aside the order and direct the assessing authority to pass a fresh order after such inquiry as may be specified; or(iv)direct the assessing authority to make such inquiry and to submit its report within such time as may be specified in the direction or within such extended time as it may allow from time to time, and on the expiration of such time the appellate authority may, whether the report has been submitted or not decide the appeal in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sub-clauses; or(b)in the case of any other order-(i)confirm, cancel or vary such order; or(ii)set aside the order and direct the assessing authority to pass a fresh order after such inquiry as may be specified:Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall preclude the appellate authority from dismissing the appeal at any stage with such observations as it deems fit where the appellant applies for withdrawal of the same and no request for examination of legality or propriety of order under appeal has been made by the Commissioner.(6)The appellate authority, may, on the application of the appellant and after giving the Commissioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard stay, except the operation of order appealed against, the realisation of the disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty payable by the appellant till the disposal of the appeal :Provided that (i)where an order under appeal involves dispute about tax, fee or penalty, no stay order shall remain in force after thirty days from the date on which the same has been granted, if the appellant does not furnish security to the satisfaction of the assessing authority for payment of the amount, the realisation whereof has been stayed within the aforesaid period of thirty days;(ii)no such application shall be entertained unless it is filed along with the memorandum of appeal under sub-section (1);(7)Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall apply to appeals or other applications under this section.(8)The appellate authority shall be under the superintendence and control of the Commissioner:Provided that in the exercise of such superintendence and control, no order, instructions or directions shall be given by the Commissioner so as to interfere with the discretion of the Appellate Authority in the exercise of its appellate functions.(9)For the purposes of this section service of an order passed by appellate authority under this section and service of memo of appeal on the State Representative, as defined in the rules framed under this Act, shall be deemed to be service on the Commissioner.(10)All appeals arising out of the same cause of action in respect of an assessment year, as far as possible, shall be heard and decided together.

56. Revision by the Commissioner.

(1)The Commissioner or such other officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, as may be authorised in this behalf by the Commissioner may call for and examine the record relating to any order, passed by any officer subordinate to him, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order and may pass such order with respect thereto as he thinks fit.(2)No order under sub-section (1) affecting the interest of a party adversely shall be passed unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(3)No order under sub-section (1), shall be passed-(a)to revise an order, which is or has been the subject matter of an appeal under section 55, or an order passed by the appellate authority under that section.(b)before the expiration of sixty days from the date of the order in question;(c)after the expiration of four-years from the date of the order in question. Explanation- Where the appeal against any order is withdrawn or is dismissed for non-payment of fee payable under section 72 or for noncompliance of sub-section (3) of section 55, the order shall not be deemed to have been the subject-matter of an appeal under section 55; (4) No dealer or any other person, aggrieved by an order against which appeal lies under section 55, shall be entitled to present an application for review of such order under this section.

57. Tribunal.

(1) There shall be a Tribunal to be known as Commercial Taxes Tribunal consisting of such members including a President as the State Government may, from time to time, deem it necessary to appoint from amongst- (a) the persons who are qualified to be the judge of the High Court; (b) the persons belonging to the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Services or the Uttar Pradesh Commercial Tax Services who hold or have held a post not below the rank of Joint Commissioner: Provided that- (i) where the Tribunal consists of one or more persons who is or are member or members of the U.P. Higher Judicial Service, then he or senior most amongst them shall be appointed as the President. (ii) no person shall be appointed from amongst the advocate unless- (A) he has paid Income Tax on his income from his legal profession in each of ten consecutive years preceding such appointment; (B) he has attained the age of fifty years on the date of appointment. (C) such Members from amongst Advocates shall be appointed for a term of three years from the date of appointment or till he attains the age of 60 years which ever is earlier. (2) The State Government may prescribe such other qualification or conditions for the appointment of the President and the other members of the Tribunal as it may deem fit. (3) The provisions of rule 56 of the U.P. Fundamental Rules shall continue to apply to every member of the Tribunal including the President whether appointed under the erstwhile Act or under this Act on or after the date of the commencement of this Act, as they apply to any other Government servant. (4) Any person aggrieved by an order passed under [sub-section (3) and sub-section (15) of section 42] [Substituted by The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 Of 2014).], section 55, section 56, a decision under section 59 or a direction under the proviso of sub-section (7) of section 48 may, within ninety days from the date of service of the copy of such order, decision or direction on him, prefer an appeal to the Tribunal. Provided that where order passed by the appellate authority under section 55 is an order in respect of demand of any security, not being security demanded for release of goods seized under any provisions of this Act, appeal under this section may be filed only after furnishing security, fixed by the appellate authority under section 55. Provided further that where the disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty does not exceed two thousand rupees and no question of law is involved, the appellant may, at his option, request the Tribunal in writing for summary disposal of his appeal, whereupon the Tribunal may decide the appeal accordingly. Explanation. - For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression ' any person' in relation to any order passed by an authority other than the Commissioner includes the Commissioner and, in relation to any order passed by the Commissioner includes the State Government; (5) The manner and procedure of summary disposal of appeal shall be such as may be prescribed. (6) Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963 shall apply to appeals or other applications under this section. (7) The Tribunal may at any stage, after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, dismiss the appeal. (8) The Tribunal may, if it has not already dismissed the appeal under sub-section (7), after calling for and examining the relevant records, and after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard or, as the case may be, after following the procedure prescribed under sub-section (5):(a)confirm, cancel or vary such order, or(b)set aside the order and direct the assessing or appellate or revising authority or the Commissioner as the case may be, to pass a fresh order after such further enquiry, if any, as may be specified , or(c)order such amount of tax, fee or penalty or other money as may have been realized in excess of the due amount to be refunded according to the provisions of this Act.(9)Where an appeal under this section has been filed, the Tribunal may, on the application of the appellant moved along with the memorandum of such appeal after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, stay the operation of the order appealed against or the recovery of the disputed amount of any tax, fee or penalty payable, or refund of the amount due, or proceeding for re-assessment under the order appealed against till the disposal of the appeal:Provided that-(i)where appellate authority under section 55 has set aside an order of assessment or penalty and has remanded the case to the assessing authority, for decision afresh, and the appellant under this section is a person other than the Commissioner or the State Government, for the purpose of this section, disputed amount of tax or penalty shall be deemed to be the same which had been before appellate authority under section 55; and(ii)subject to the provision under sub clause (i) where order appealed against does not involve any dispute about quantum of tax, fee or penalty, on the application of the appellant the Tribunal may stay the operation of such order till the disposal of appeal subject to such conditions including a condition of furnishing of a security in cash within the time allowed;Provided further that-(a)no application for stay of recovery of any disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty shall be entertained unless the applicant has furnished satisfactory proof of the payment of not less than one third of such disputed amount in addition to the amount required to be deposited under sub-section (3) of section 55.(b)the Tribunal may, for special and adequate reasons to be recorded in writing, waive or relax the requirement of clause (a) regarding payment of the one-third of such disputed amount.(10)Where the Tribunal passes an order under this section for the stay of recovery of any tax, fee or penalty or for the stay of the operation of any order appealed against and such order of the Tribunal results in the stay of recovery of any tax, fee or penalty, such stay order of the Tribunal shall not remain in force for more than thirty days unless the appellant furnishes adequate security to the satisfaction of the assessing authority concerned for the payment of the outstanding amount.(11)The members of the Tribunal shall sit in such benches of one, two or more members, as may be constituted from time to time, and do such work of the Tribunal as may, subject to sub-section (12) and the rules framed under this Act, be allotted to them, by order or in accordance with the directions of the President of Tribunal.(12)(a)An appeal against the order of appellate authority under section 55 shall be heard and disposed of-(i)[by a bench of two members, where in such order, not being an order passed on the application of the appellant for stay, the amount of tax, fee or penalty in dispute exceeds two lakh rupees or such amount not exceeding three lakh rupees as may be determined by the State Government from time to time.] Substituted w.e.f. 20-08-2010 vide notif. no 1101(2) dt. 20-08-2010, U.P. Act No 19 of 2010).by a single member bench, in any other case.(b)an appeal against a direction given under the proviso to sub-section (7) of section 48 shall be heard and disposed of by a bench of two members;(c)an appeal against an order under section 56 shall be heard and disposed of by a bench of two members."(d)An appeal against [an order passed by the Commissioner under section 42] [Substituted by The Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax (Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 2014 (U. P. Ordinance No. 6 Of 2014)] or a decision given under section 59, shall be filed before the President and shall be heard and disposed of by a bench of three members.(e)The President may, if he so thinks fit,-(i)direct an appeal to be heard and decided by a larger bench;(ii)transfer an appeal from one bench to another bench.(f)In a case before a bench consisting of two or more members any order other than an order finally disposing of the case may be passed by any one of the members constituting the bench.Provided that an appeal against an order passed on an application for stay, may be disposed of finally by a single member bench.(13)All appeals arising out of the same cause of action in respect of an assessment year shall, as far as possible, be heard and decided together:Provided that where anyone or more of such appeals have been heard and decided earlier, if the bench hearing the remaining appeals considers that such decision may be a legal impediment in giving relief in such remaining appeals, it may, if the earlier decision was given-(a)by a smaller bench or a bench of equal strength, recall such earlier decision and proceed to decide all the appeals together;(b)by a larger bench, refer such remaining appeals to such larger bench having jurisdiction and thereafter such larger bench may recall such earlier decision and proceed to decide all the appeals together.(14)The place of sitting and procedure of, and the manner of presenting appeals and other documents to the Tribunal shall, subject to the rules framed under this Act, be such as the Tribunal may deem fit to adopt.(15)The decision, of case heard by a bench, shall be in accordance with opinion of the majority. Where the members are equally divided the President of the Tribunal may,-(a)if he was not a member of such bench, give his own opinion or refer the case for the opinion of another member, whereupon the case shall be decided in accordance with such opinions; or(b)form a larger bench.

58. Revision by High Court in special cases.

(1)Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (7) or sub-section (8) of section 57, other than an order under sub-section (4) of that section summarily disposing of the appeal, may, within ninety days from the date of service of such order, apply to the High Court for revision of such order on the ground that the case involves any question of law.(2)The application for revision under sub-section (1) shall precisely state the question of law involved in the case, and it shall be competent for the High Court to formulate the question of law or to allow any other question of law to be raised.(3)Where an application under this section is pending, the High Court may, on an application in this behalf, stay recovery of any disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty payable, or refund of any amount due under the order sought to be revised:Provided that no order for stay or recovery of such disputed amount shall remain in force for more than thirty days unless the applicant furnishes adequate security to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority concerned.(4)The High Court shall, after hearing the parties to revision, decide the question, of law involved therein, and where as a result of such decision, the amount of tax, fee or penalty is required to be determined afresh, the High Court may send a copy of the decision to the Tribunal for fresh determination of the amount, and the Tribunal shall thereupon pass such orders as are necessary to dispose of the case in conformity with the said decision.(5)All applications for revision of orders passed under section 57 in appeals arising out of the same cause of action in respect of an assessment year shall be heard and decided together:Provided that where any one or more of such applications have been heard and decided earlier, if the High Court, while hearing the remaining applications, considers that the earlier decision may be a legal impediment in giving relief in such remaining applications, it may recall such earlier decision and may thereafter proceed to hear and decide all the applications together.(6)The provisions of section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall mutatis mutandis, apply to every application, for revision under this section. Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, the expression "any person" includes the Commissioner and the State Government.

58A. Monetary limits for filing of appeal or revision.

(1) The Commissioner with the approval of the State Government may, from time to time, issue orders, instructions or directions to the authorities under this Act fixing the monetary limits for the purpose of regulating the filing of appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 by the commercial tax authority under this Act. (2) Where a commercial tax authority in pursuance of the orders, instructions or directions issued under sub-section (1), has not filed any appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 on any issue in the case of an assessee for any assessment year, it shall not preclude such authority from filing an appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 on the same issue in the case of, - (a) the same assessee for any other assessment year, or (b) any other assessee for the same or any other assessment year, (3) Notwithstanding that no appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 has been filed by a commercial tax authority pursuant to the orders or instructions or directions issued under sub-section (1), it shall not be lawful for an assessee, being a party in any appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 to contend that the Commercial tax authority has acquiesced in the decision on the disputed issue by not filing an appeal under section 57 or a revision under section 58 in any case. (4) The Tribunal or High Court hearing such appeal or revision, shall have regard to the orders, instructions or directions, issued under subsection (1) and the circumstances under which such appeal under section 57 or revision under section 58 has been filed or not filed in respect of any case.

59. Determination of disputed question by the Commissioner.

48. Ammonia, anhydrous or in aqueous solution.
49. Sodium hydroxide (caustic soda); potassium hydroxide (caustic potash); peroxides of sodium or potassium.
50. Hydroxide and peroxide of magnesium; oxides, hydroxides and peroxides of strontium or barium.
51. Zinc oxide, zinc peroxide.
52. Aluminium hydroxide, aluminium calcides.
53. Chromium oxides and hydroxides.
54. Manganese oxides.
55. Iron oxides and hydroxides.
56. Cobalt oxides and hydroxides; commercial cobalt oxides.
57. Titanium oxide.
58. Lead oxides, Red lead and Orange lead.
59. Hydrazine and hydroxylamine and their inorganic salts; other inorganic bases; other metal oxides, hydroxides and peroxides.
60. Fluorides; fluorosilicates, fluoroaluminates and other complex fluorine salts.
61. Chlorides, chloride oxides and chloride hydroxides; bromides and bromide oxides; iodides and iodide oxides.

62. Bleach liquid, Bleaching powder, sodiumhypochlorides, sodium chloride.
63. Chlorates and Perchlorates; Bromates andPerbromates; Iodates and periodates.
64. Sulphides; Polysulphides.
65. Dithionites and sulfoxylates.
66. Sulphites; thiosulphates.
Sodium sulphates, alums, Peroxosulphates(Persulphates), Sodium Hydrogen sulphate,
67. Ferrous sulphate,Copper sulphate, Amonium alum, potash alum and ferric alum,Manganese sulphate, Strontium sulphate.
68. Basic Chromium Sulphate, sodium sulphate,Magnesium sulphate, Ferrous sulphate.
69. Nitrites; nitrates.
70. Phosphinates (hypophosphites), phosphonates(phosphites); phosphates and polyphosphates, SodiumTripoliuphosphate, Trisodium phosphate.
71. Carbonates; peroxocarbonates (percarbonates);commercial ammonium carbonates containing ammonium carbonate;Polycarbonates
72. Cyanides, cyanide oxides and complex cyanides.
73. Fulminates, cyanates and thiocyanates.
74. Silicates, commercial alkali metal, silicates ofsodium, sodium metasilicates, sodium metasilicates of potassium,Magnesium Trisilicate.
75. Borates; peroxoborates (perborates).
76. Sodium bichromate.
77. Sodium dichromate.
78. Potassium dichromate.
79. Radioactive chemical elements and radioactiveisotopes (including the fissile chemical elements and isotopes)and their compounds; mixtures and residues containing theseproducts.
80. Isotopes other than those of heading No. 28.44;compounds, inorganic or organic of such isotopes, whether or notchemically defined.
81. Compounds, inorganic or organic, of rare earthmetals, of yttrium or of scandium or of mixtures of these metals.
82. Hydrogen peroxide, whether or not solidifiedwith urea.
83. Phosphides, whether or not chemically defined,excluding ferrophosphorus.
84. Silicon carbide.
85. Calcium carbides.
86. Hydrides, azides, cilidides and borides.
87. Cyclic Hydrocarbons.
88. Halogenated derivatives of Hydrocarbons.
89. Sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivativesof hydrocarbons, whether or not halogenated.
90. Acyclic alcohols and their halogenated,sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.

91. Cyclic alcohols and their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
92. Phenols; Phenol-Alcohols and their derivatives.
93. Halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives of phenols or phenol-alcohols.
94. Ethers, ether-alcohols, ether-phenols, ether-alcoholphenols, alcohol peroxides, ether peroxides, ketoneperoxides and their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
95. Epoxides, epoxyalcohols, epoxyphenols and epoxyethers, with a three-membered ring and their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
96. Acetals and hemiacetals, whether or not with other oxygen function and their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
97. Aldehydes, whether or not with other oxygen function; cyclic polymers of aldehydes; paraformaldehyde.
98. Halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
99. Acetone, Cyclohexanone, diacetone alcohol and others.
100. Saturated acyclic monocarboxylic acids and their anhydrides, halides, peroxides and peroxyacids; their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
101. Unsaturated acyclic monocarboxylic acids, cyclic monocarboxylic acids, their anhydrides, halides, peroxides and peroxyacids; their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
102. Polycarboxylic acids, their anhydrides, halides, peroxides and peroxyacids; their halogenated sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
103. Carboxylic acids with additional oxygen function and their anhydrides, halides, peroxides and peroxyacids; their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
104. Phosphoric esters and their salts, including lactophosphates; their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
105. Esters of other inorganic acids (excluding esters of hydrogen halides) and their salts; their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated or nitrosated derivatives.
106. Amine-function compounds and derivatives and salts.
107. Oxygen-function amino-compounds.
108. Quaternary ammonium salts and hydroxides; lecithins and other phosphoaminolipids.
109. Carboxamide-function compounds; amide-function compounds of carbonic acid.
110. Carboxamide-function compound (including saccharin and its salts) and imine-function compounds.
111. Nitrile-function compounds.
112. Diazo-, Azo- or azoxy-compounds.
113. Organic derivatives of hydrazine or of hydroxylamine.
114. Compounds with other nitrogen function.
115. Organo-sulphur compounds.
116. Ethylene Diamine Tetra Acetic Acid, Nitrilo Triacetic Acid and their Derivatives.

117. Heterocyclic compounds with oxygen heteroatom(s) only.
118. Heterocyclic compounds with nitrogen heteroatom(s) only.
119. Nucleic acids and their salts; other heterocyclic compounds.
120. Sulphonamides.
121. Glycosides, natural or reproduced by synthesis and their salts, ethers, esters and other derivatives.
122. Vegetable alkaloids, natural or reproduced by synthesis, and their salts, ethers, esters and other derivatives.
123. Ethylene Diamine Tetra Acetic Acid, Nitrilotriacetic Acid and their Derivatives.
124. Tanning extracts of vegetable origin; tannins and their salts, ethers, esters and other derivatives excluding catechu or gambiar.
125. Synthetic organic tanning substances; inorganic tanning substances; tanning preparations, whether or not containing natural tanning substances; enzymatic preparations for pre-tanning excluding catechu or gambiar.
126. Colouring matter of vegetable or animal origin (including dyeing extracts but excluding animal black), preparations based on colouring matter of vegetable or animal origin excluding catechu or gambiar.
127. Synthetic organic colouring matter, whether or not chemically defined; preparations based on synthetic organic colouring matter; synthetic organic products of a kind used as fluorescent brightening agents or as luminophores, whether or not chemically defined.
128. Colour lakes; preparations based on colour lakes.
129. Pigments, Inorganic products of kind used as luminophores, Ultramarine and preparations, Lithophone and other pigments and preparations based on zinc sulphide.
130. Red oxide, Bronze powder.
131. Master Batches, other colouring matter including ultra marine blue.
132. Prepared pigments and all their derivatives.
133. Glass frit and other glass, in the form of powder, granules or flakes.
134. Prepared driers.
135. Pigments (including metallic powders and flakes) dispersed in non-aqueous media, in liquid or paste form, of a kind used in the manufacture of paints (including enamels); stamping foils; dyes and other colouring matter put up in forms (for example bales).
136. Silicon surfacted, Non-ionic, Sulphonated or sulphated oxide, Chlorine castor oil.
137. Artificial waxes and prepared waxes.
138. Casein, caseinates and other Casein derivatives, casein glues.
139. Enzymes; prepared enzymes not elsewhere specified or included.
140. Chemical preparations for photographic uses (other than varnishes, glues, adhesives, and similar preparations).
141. Artificial graphite; colloidal or semi-colloidal graphite; preparations based on graphite or other carbon in the form of pastes, blocks, plates or other semi-manufactures.

142. Activated carbon; activated natural mineral products; animal black, including spent animal black.
143. Residual lyes from the manufacture of wood pulp, whether or not concentrated, desugared, or chemically treated, including lignin sulphonates, but excluding tall oil.
144. Gums and turpentine oil.
145. Resin and resin acids, and derivatives thereof: resin spirit and resin oils; run gums.
146. Wood tar; wood tar oils; wood creosote; wood naphtha; vegetable pitch; brewers' pitch and similar preparations based on resin, resin acids or on vegetable pitch.
147. Insecticides, fungicides, herbicides, weedicides and pesticides of technical grade, excluding Mosquito repellent/destroyer coils, Mats and Liquid. .
148. Sodium penta chlorophenate.
149. Finishing agents, dye carriers to accelerate the dyeing or fixing of dye-stuffs and other products and preparations (for example, dressings and mordants), of a kind used in the textile, paper, leather or like industries, not elsewhere specified or included.
150. Prepared rubber accelerators; compound plasticisers for rubber or plastics, not elsewhere specified or included; anti-oxidising preparations and other compound stabilisers for rubber or plastics, Upper & lower of shoes, sole, eyelet, shoe laces, [shoe welts] [Inserted by notification no.1574 dated 20 11 2014.]
151. Reducers and blanket wash / roller wash used in the printing industry; Rubber blankets
152. Reaction initiators, reaction accelerators and catalytic preparations, not elsewhere specified or included.
153. Mixed alkyl benzenes and mixed alkyl naphthalenes.
154. Chemical elements doped for use in electronics, in the form of discs, wafers or similar forms; chemical compounds doped for use in electronics.
155. Industrial monocarboxylic fatty acids; acid oils from refining; industrial fatty alcohols, soap stock.
156. Retarders used in the printing industry.
157. Polymers of ethylene in primary forms.
158. Polymers of propylene or of other olefins, in primary forms.
159. Polymers of styrene, in primary forms.
160. Polymers of vinyl chloride or of other halogenated olefins, in primary forms.
161. Polymers of vinyl acetate or of other vinyl esters in primary forms; other vinyl polymers in primary forms.
162. Acrylic polymers in primary forms.
163. Polyacetals, other polyethers and epoxide resins, in primary forms, polycarbonates, alkyd resins, polyallyl esters and other polyesters, in primary forms.
164. Polyamides in primary forms.
165. Amino-resins, polyphenylene oxide, phenolic resins and polyurethanes in primary forms.
166. Silicones in primary forms.

167. Petroleum resins, coumarone-indene resins, polyterpenes, polysulphides, polysulphones.
168. Cellulose and its chemical derivatives, and cellulose ethers, not elsewhere specified or included in primary forms.
Natural polymers (for example, alginic acid) and modified natural polymers (for example, hardened proteins, chemical derivatives of natural rubber), not elsewhere specified or included, in primary forms.
169. Ion-exchangers based on polymers.
170. Self adhesive plates, sheets, film foil, tape, strip of plastic whether or not in rolls.
Other plates, sheets, film, foil and strips of plastics, non-cellular, whether lacquered or metallised or laminated, supported or similarly combined with other materials or not; Pre-sensitised aluminium plate, litho film used in printing
171. Thermocol.
Articles for the packing of goods of plastics, namely, crates, containers, carboys, bottles, jars, jerry cans and their stoppers, lids, caps of plastic but not including insulated wares, natural rubber, balata, gutta percha, guayule, chicle and similar natural gums, in primary forms or in plates, sheets or strips, synthetic rubber and factice derived from oils in primary forms or in plates, sheets or strip; mixtures of any product, reclaimed rubber in primary forms or in plates, sheets or strip, compounded rubber unvulcanized in primary forms or in plates, sheets or strip.
172. Mechanical wood pulp, chemical wood pulp, semi-chemical wood pulp and pulps of other fibrous cellulosic materials.
173. Cartons (including flattened or folded cartons), boxes (including flattened or folded boxes), cases, bags and other packing containers, of paper, paperboard.
174. Paper printed labels and paperboard printed labels.
175. Paper self adhesive tape and printed wrappers used for packing.
176. Polyester texturised yarn.
177. Yarn of Polyesters, partially oriented.
178. Sacks and bags of jute or textile.
179. Carboys, bottles, jars, phials of glass, of a kind, used for the packing goods; stoppers, lids and other closures, of glass.
Glass fibers (including glass wool and glass filaments) and articles thereof (for example: yarn, woven fabrics), whether or not impregnated, coated, covered or laminated with plastics or varnish.
180. Ferro alloys.
181. Aseptic packaging aluminium foil of thickness less than 0.2 mm and backed by paper and LDPE.
182. Stoppers, caps and lids (including crown corks, screw caps and pouring stoppers) capsules for bottles, threaded bungs, bung covers, seals and other packing accessories, of base metal.
183. Polymer of Styrene-polystyrene or Expandable Polystyrene.
- 184.
- 185.
- 186.
- 187.
- 188.

Textile Finishing agents, Textile Printing Binder-PVA Copolymer, Textile Non-woven binder-PVA copolymer, Lamination emulsion-PVA copolymer, Packaging emulsion-PVA copolymer, Sticker Emulsion-PVA copolymer, Binder for water based paint-PVA copolymer.

189. Water / Hydraulic / industrial valves.
190. Copper Clad sheets (PCB Sheets) for Printed circuit boards.
191. Strings for Musical Instruments.
192. Purified Terephthalic acid.
193. Expandable Polystyrene or Polystyrene of styrene.
194. Zinc Oxide.
195. Jute Yarn, Jute Cloth, Jute twine and jute sheets.
196. LLDPE/LDPE/HDPE, PP/HDPE Woven sacks, PP/HDPE Fabrics; HDPE mosquito net
197. Refractory monolithic
198. PVA Copolymer.
199. CNSL, cardanol & Alkylid resins.
200. Hessian cloth and sheets.
201. Metal containers.
202. Sodium sulphate.
203. Pine Oil, Terepeneol.
204. Camphor.
205. Micro cellular sheets, Banwar sheets & Hawaistraps.
206. Woven Label Tapes.
207. Wooden Crates, Tea chests.
208. Polymers of Vinyl Acetate and Poly Vinyl acetate Emulsion.
209. Empty cylinders of LPG.
210. Aluminium ingots and aluminium wire, rods.
211. Butadine.
212. Caprolactum, DMT, MEG.
213. Di-ethylene glycol, Mono-ethylene glycol, Tri-ethylene glycol, ethylene glycole, heavy ethylene glycol.
214. Ethylene oxide.
215. Ethylene, propylene.
216. Flexible plain films.
217. Methanol.
218. Polyethylene terephthalate chips.
219. Sheets, circles and ingots of zinc, brass and copper.
220. Buttons, elastic, zip, zip fastners, foams, nylon tape, lace and zipper.
221. Sheets of polyurethane foam.

222. Railway switches, crossings, switch expansion joints, steel turnout sleepers, fish -plate, steel clips, trackbolts and nuts, elastic rail clips and railway signal, signalling equipments and accessories and parts thereof.
223. Glass shell, lead glass tubes, filaments, molywire, lead in wire, caps, dumet wires, solder wire,. Crapping cement.
224. Scrap of plastic, glass and metals, and broken glass.
225. Natural or synthetic flavouring essences, Natural or synthetic essential oil including mixtures thereof, sandal oil and atar.
226. Red lead, litharge and grey oxide.
227. Sodium petroleum sulphonate, calcium petroleum sulphonate.
228. Acids sludge.
229. Silicon steel stamping, hollow porcelain bushings, grinding wheel.
230. Insulating papers and boards, insulating fabric tape and sheets.
231. Petroleum jelly IP.
232. Lay-flat tube.
233. Polythene bags, plastic bags, pouches and closures.
234. Omitted
235. Resins, terpene chemicals like pine oil, deparaffin, DD, Turpentine, terpeneol, Camphor.
236. Raw tobacco including raw tobacco cut in different sizes and tobacco refuse.
237. Purified terephthalic acid.
238. Articles of metals, namely boxes, cases, crates, containers and their stoppers, caps, lids of metal used for packing of goods (but not including insulated wares).
239. Atta chakki patthar.
240. Polyester staple fiber and polyester staple fiber film and polyester fiber waste.
241. China clay.
242. Rubber processed oil.
243. Liquified chlorine.
244. Petroleum coke.
245. Laterite.
246. Silica sand.
247. Red Ocher.
248. Felspar.
249. Hydrated Lime.
250. Quartz powder.
251. Sodium Hypo Chlorite.
252. Carbon tapping electrode.
253. Carbon catalyst.
254. Acetylene Gas.

255. Mentha oil, dementhalised oil and menthol
256. Soapstone powder.
257. Hydro sulphite of soda.
258. Sodium bi-carbonate.
259. Dyes & Dyestuffsexcluding following -paints, enamels, cement based water colours,dry distempers, oil based distempers, emulsion paints includingacrylic and plastic emulsion paints, lacquers including celluloselacquers, varnishes, all types of synthetic adhesive
260. Gwar,gwar refined dal or split, gwar gumpowder, and punwad
261. Threads including fire resistance thread.
262. Wooden Heel.
263. Antisatic Insole.
264. Barley Malt, yeast, gel (cake improver); breadimprover, bakerymix, baking powder.
265. P.U.Foam sheet.
266. Stainless steel ingots, billets, blooms, flats,flat bars, patta and circles, mild Steel Sheets,Stainlesssteelwire,wire rod,round,brightbar,sheet and plate
267. Ketones and Quinones, whether or not with otheroxygen function and their halogenated, sulphonated, nitrated ornitrosated derivatives.
268. Buffing goods and polishing materials.
269. Rubber rolls and polishers.
270. Such other goods as the State Govt. may bynotification specify.
271. Winding wires and strips , ammeter, Kwh meter,voltmeter, Insulating materials, insulator, jointing materials,Circuit breakers, HRC fuse, thermostat, Electrical relays andsingle phasing preventor and timers.
