83. Encroachments by persons on land or building belonging to charitable or religious institution or endowment and the eviction of encroachers.

(1)Where the Assistant Commissioner having jurisdiction, either suo motu or upon a complaint made by the trustee has reason to believe that any person has encroached upon (hereafter in this Chapter referred to as 'encroacher') any land, building, tank, well, spring or watercourse or any space belonging to the institution or endowment, wherever situated or deemed as an encroacher under any of the provisions of this Act, the Assistant Commissioner shall report the fact together with relevant particulars to the [Endowments Tribunal] [Substituted by Act No.33 of 2007.] having jurisdiction over the division in which the institution or endowment is situated.Explanation. - For the purpose of this Chapter the expression 'encroacher' shall mean any person who unauthorizedly occupy any land or building or space and deemed to include any person who is in occupation of the land or building or space without the approval of the competent authority sanctioning lease or mortgage, or license and also a person who continues to remain in the land or building or space after the expiry or termination or cancellation of the lease, mortgage or license in respect thereof granted to him or it.(2)Where, on a perusal of the report received by him under sub-section (1), the [Endowments Tribunal] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] finds that there is a prima facie case of encroachment, [it] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] shall cause to be served upon the encroacher a notice specifying the particulars of the encroachment and calling on him to show cause before a certain date why an order requiring him to remove the encroachment before the date specified in the notice should not be made. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the trustee of the institution or endowment concerned.(3)The notice referred to in sub-section (2) shall be served in such manner as may be prescribed.(4)Where after considering the objections, if any, of the encroacher received during the period specified in the notice referred to in sub-section (2) and after conducting such enquiry as may be prescribed, the [Endowment Tribunal] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] is satisfied that there has been an encroachment, [it] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] may, by order, require, the encroacher to remove the encroachment and deliver possession of the land or building or space encroached upon to the trustee before the date specified in such order.(5)The order of the [Endowment Tribunal] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] under sub-section (4) shall be in writing and shall contain the grounds on which he has passed the order.(6)During the pendency of the proceedings, the [Endowment Tribunal] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] shall order the encroacher to deposit such amount as may be specified by [it] [Substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.] in consideration of the use and occupation of the properties in question in the manner prescribed.

84. [Mode of eviction on failure of removal of the encroachments as directed by the Endowments Tribunal. [Section 84 substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.]

(1)Where within the period specified in the order under sub-section(4) of section 83, the encroacher has not removed the encroachment and has not vacated the land, building or space, the Assistant Commissioner having jurisdiction over the sub-division may remove the encroachment and obtain possession of the land, building or space, encroached upon, taking such police assistance as may be necessary. Any Police Officer whose help is required for this purpose shall be required to render the necessary help to the Assistant Commissioner.(2)Nothing in sub-section (1) shall prevent any person aggrieved by any order of the Endowments Tribunal under sub-section (4) of section 83 from preferring an appeal before the High Court to establish that the Charitable or Religious Institution or Endowment has no title to the land, building or space:Provided that no appeal shall be preferred after expiry of ninety days from the date of receipt of the order under sub-section (4) of section 83:Provided further that no such appeal shall be preferred by a person who is let in to the possession of land, building or space, or who is a lessee, licensee or mortgagee of institution or endowment.]

85. [Encroachment by group of persons on land belonging to charitable and religious institutions and their eviction. [Section 85 substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.]

(1)Where the Deputy Commissioner knows or has reason to believe that a group or groups of persons, without any entitlement and with the common object of occupying any land, which is the property belonging to charitable or religious institution or endowment, are occupying or have occupied any such land and if such group or groups of persons have not vacated the land on demand by the Deputy Commissioner or any officer authorized by him in this behalf, he shall make an application to the Endowments Tribunal having jurisdiction over the area in which the institution or endowment is situated for eviction of encroachers.(2)Where, in any proceedings taken under this section, or in consequence of anything done under this section, a question arises as whether any land is the property of the charitable or religious institution or endowment, such land shall be presumed to be the property of the charitable or religious institution or endowment until the contrary is proved.(3)Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any order of eviction passed by the Endowments Tribunal under subsection (1) shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.]

86. Penalty for offences in connection with encroachment.

(1)Any person who, on or after the commencement of this Act continues to be in occupation otherwise than by lawful possession, of a land belonging to a charitable or religious institution or endowment shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.(2)Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to five years and with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.(3)No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under sub-section (2) except on the complaint in writing of the Commissioner.(4)No offence punishable under sub-section (2), shall be inquired into or tried by any court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the First Class.Chapter-XII. Enquiries.

87. [Power of Endowments Tribunal to decide certain disputes and matters. [Section 87 substituted by Act No.33 of 2007.]

(1)The Endowments Tribunal having jurisdiction shall have the power, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the person concerned, to enquire into and decide any dispute as to the question,-(a)whether an institution or endowment is a charitable institution or endowment;(b)whether an institution or endowment is a religious institution or endowment;(c)whether any property is an endowment, if so whether it is a charitable endowment or a religious endowment;(d)whether any property is a specific endowment;(e)whether any person is entitled by custom or otherwise to any honor, emoluments or perquisites in any charitable or religious institution or endowment and what the established usage of such institution or endowment is in regard to any other matter;(f)whether any institution or endowment is wholly or partly of a secular or religious character and whether any property is given wholly or partly for secular or religious uses; or(g)where any property or money has been given for the support of an institution or endowment which is partly of a secular character and partly of a religious character or the performance of any service or charity connected with such institution or endowment or the performance of a charity which is partly of a secular character and partly of a religious character or where any property or money given is appropriated partly to secular uses and partly to religious uses, as to what portion of such property or money shall be allocated to secular or religious uses;(h)whether a person is a founder or a member from the family of the founder of an institution or endowment.(2)The Endowments Tribunal may, pending its decision under sub-section (1), pass such order as it deems fit for the administration of the property or custody of the money belonging to the institution or endowment.(3)The Endowments Tribunal may while recording its decision under sub-section (1) and pending implementation of such decision, pass such interim order as it may deem fit for safeguarding the interests of the institution or endowment and for preventing damage to or loss or misappropriation or criminal breach of trust in respect of the properties or moneys belonging to or in the possession of the institution or endowment.(4)The presumption in respect of matters covered by clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) in sub-section (1) is that the institution or the endowment is a public one and that the burden of proof in all such cases shall lie on the person claiming the institution or the endowment to be private or the property or money to be other than that of a religious endowment or specific endowment, as the case may be.(5)Notwithstanding anything contained in the above sub-sections the Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction shall continue to enquire into and decide the disputes referred to in sub-section (1) until the constitution of the Endowments Tribunal.]

88. [Right of appeal against the decision of the Endowments Tribunal under section 87. [Section 88 with marginal heading substituted by Act No. 33 of 2007.]

- Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Endowments Tribunal under section 87 [] may, within ninety days from the date of receipt of the decision prefer an appeal to the High Court.]

89. Compromise how to be made.

(1)No suit, application or appeal pending before a court which relates to charitable or religious institution or endowment, shall be withdrawn or compromised by the trustee or other person in charge of the management of such institution or endowment except with the previous sanction of the Commissioner.(2)Where the Commissioner considers that any claim, demand, or cause of action for suing in respect of the affairs, funds, or properties of the charitable or a religious institution or endowment shall, in the interests of the institution or endowment be compromised without instituting or without continuing any suit or other legal proceeding and if the other party to such suit or other legal proceedings is willing to enter into a compromise under the terms and conditions which the Commissioner considers acceptable in the interest of the institution or endowment, the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing pass an order directing the trustee or other person deferred to in sub-section (1) to enter into such compromise:[Provided that the Commissioner shall pass an order after taking into consideration the recommendations of the committee of the three officers drawn from Endowments, Revenue and Law Department to be constituted for this purpose.] [Proviso of sub-section (2) of section 89 added by Act No.33 of 2007.]Chapter - XIII Appeals, Revision, Review, Etc.,
