Chapter II

3. Manner of making application for registration of establishment.

(1)The application referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 4 shall be made in triplicate in Form I to the Registering Officer of the area in which the establishment sought to be registered is located.(2)The application referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by a treasury challan showing payment of the fees for the registration of the establishment.(3)Every application referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be either personally delivered to the Registering Officer or sent to him by registered post with A/D.(4)On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1), the Registering Officer shall, after noting thereon the date of receipt by him of the application, grant an acknowledgement to the applicant.

4. Issue of certificate of registration.

(1)Where an application in Form I has been received, the registering officer shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statements made therein, register the establishment and issue to the principal employer a certificate of registration in Form II.(2)The Registering Officer shall maintain a register in Form III showing the particulars of the establishments in relation to which certificates or registration have been issued by him.(3)If, in relation to an establishment, there is any change in the particulars specified in the certificate of registration, the principal employer of the establishment shall intimate to the Registering Officer, within thirty days from the date when such change takes place, the particulars of, and the reasons for such change.

5. Circumstances in which application for registration may be rejected.

(1)If any application for registration is not complete in all respects, the Registering Officer shall require the principal employer to amend the application within fifteen days so as to make it complete in all respects.(2)If, the principal employer, on being required by the Registering Officer to amend his application for registration knowingly and deliberately omits or fails to do so within the time specified in this behalf, the Registering Officer may reject the application for registration.(3)If, in the opinion of the Registering Officer, a principal employer from whom application for registration has been received, on enquiry by a competent officer, has been found to have been involved in activities which are injurious to social harmony or interest or does not have any honourable means of livelihood, or that the interest of migrant workmen would not be safe in the hands of such a person, he may reject the application for registration.

6. Amendment of Certificate of registration.

(1)Every intimation under sub-rule (3) of Rule 4 shall be accompanied by the current certificate of registration and a treasury challan showing the payment of a fee of Rs. 5 (rupees five) only plus an amount, if any, by which the fee that should have been payable if the certificate of registration had originally been issued in the amended Form exceeds the amount of fee originally paid for the certificate of registration.(2)Where on receipt of the intimation under sub-rule (3) of Rule 4, the Registering Officer is satisfied that an amount higher than the amount which has been paid by the principal employer as fees for the registration of the establishment is payable, he shall require such principal employer to deposit a sum which, together with the amount already paid by such principal employer, would be equal to such higher amount of fees payable for the registration of the establishment and to produce the treasury receipt showing such deposit within fifteen days.(3)Where an intimation referred to in sub-rule (3) of Rule 4 has been received and the Registering Officer is satisfied that there has occurred a change in the particulars of the establishment, as entered in the register in Form III, he shall amend the said register and record therein the changes which have occurred:Provided that no such amendment shall affect anything done or any action taken or any right, obligation or liability acquired or incurred before such amendment:Provided further that the Registering Officer shall not carry out any amendment in the register in Form III unless the appropriate fees have been deposited by the principal employer.(4)After the register in Form III has been amended, the Registering Officer shall also make corresponding entries in the certificate of registration in Form II under his own signature and seal of office and return it to the principal employer.

7. Application for Licence.

(1)Every application by a contractor for the grant of a licence for recruiting a person under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 8 shall be made in triplicate in Form IV to the Licensing Officer having jurisdiction in relation to the area wherein recruitment is made.(2)Every application by a contractor for employing a migrant workman under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 8 shall be made in triplicate in Form V to the licensing officer having jurisdiction in relation to the area wherein the establishment is situate.(3)(i)Every application for the grant of a licence under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), shall be accompanied by a certificate of the principal employer in Form VI to the effect that he undertakes to be bound by all the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder so far as they are applicable to him in respect of the recruitment or employment of the migrant workmen, in respect of which the contractor is making the application.(ii)Every such application shall be either personally delivered to the licensing officer concerned or sent to him by registered post with A/D.(4)On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) the licensing officer concerned shall, after noting thereon the date of receipt by him of the application give an acknowledgement to the applicant.(5)Every application referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall also be accompanied by a treasury challan showing payment of the fees as required under Rule 12 as well as of the security deposit as determined under Rule 10.

8. Matters to be taken into consideration in granting or refusing a Licence.

- In granting or refusing to grant a licence, the Licensing Officer shall take the following matters into consideration, namely: -(a)Whether the applicant -(i)is a minor; or(ii)is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or(iii)is an undischarged insolvent; or(iv)has been convicted, at any time during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of application, of an offence which, in the opinion of the State Government, involves moral turpitude; or(v)has, on enquiry by a competent officer, been found to have been involved in activities which are injurious to social harmony or interests, or does not have any honourable means of livelihood, or that the interests of migrant workmen would not be safe in the hands of such a person.(b)Whether any order has been made in respect of the applicant under sub-section (1) of Section 10 and, if so, whether a period of three years elapsed from the date of that order;(c)Whether the fees of the application has been deposited at the rates specified in Rule 12; and(d)Whether security, wherever necessary, has been deposited by the applicant at the rates specified in sub-rule (1) of Rule 10.

9. Refusal to grant licence.

(1)On receipt of the application from the contractor, and as soon as possible thereafter, the licensing officer shall investigate or cause investigation to be made to satisfy himself about the correctness of the facts and particulars furnished in such application and the eligibility of the applicant for a licence.(2)(i)Where the Licensing Officer is of the opinion that the licence should not be granted, he shall, after affording reasonable opportunity to the applicant to be heard make an order rejecting the application.(ii)The order shall record the reasons for the refusal and shall be communicated to the applicant.

10. Security.

(1)Where the Licensing Officer is satisfied in accordance with the procedure laid down in the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 8, that any person who has applied for or who has been issued a licence should furnish security for the due performance of the conditions of the licence, he shall prepare an estimate of the amount needed to provide for recruitment or employment of migrant workmen on the basis of the number of persons proposed to be employed, their period of employment, rates of wages payable to them, places of employment, facilities which shall be afforded to the workmen and other relevant factors as specified in sub-section (3) of the said section and determine the amount of the security to be furnished by such person, which shall not exceed forty per cent of the amount estimated by him:Provided that the amount of security to be furnished by any such person shall not be less than twenty times of the amount payable by him by way of fee for the licence.(2)Where the applicant for the licence was holding a licence in regard to another work and that licence has expired the Licensing Officer, if he is of the opinion, that any amount out of the security, if any, deposited in respect of that licence is to be refunded to the applicant under Rule 17, he may on an application made for that purpose in Form VII by the applicant adjust the amount so to be refunded towards the security, if any, required to be deposited in respect of the application for the new licence and the applicant need deposit, in such a case, only the balance amount, if any, after making such adjustment.
