The Punjab Rent Act, 1995 Act No. 13 of 2012 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - The National Housing Policy recognises the importance of expanding the availability of rental housing in urban areas. It is recognised that the rent control legislation in different States has resulted in stagnating rents, low returns on investment in rental housing, difficulty for landlords to resume possession in genuine cases, and deteriorating housing stock. In order to solve the above problems and ensure a balance of interests of landlords and tenants, the Government of India, Ministry of Urban Development, have formulated the Model Rent Control Legislation and advised the States to amend their Rent Control Acts or enact new laws on the lines of the above-referred Model Rent Control Legislation. Hence this Bill. An Act to provide for the regulation of rents, repairs and maintenance and eviction relating to premises and matters connected therewith in the State of Punjab. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Punjab in the Forty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

1. Short title, extent, application and commencement.

(1) This Act may be called the Punjab Rent Act, 1995. (2) It extends to all urban areas of Punjab, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the regulation of house accommodation in any cantonment area. (3) It shall be applicable to all the residential and non-residential buildings. (4) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may specify in this behalf in the Official Gazette.

(1)Every tenant shall pay rent and other charges payable to the landlord within the time fixed by contract or in the absence of such stipulation, by the fifteenth day of the month next following the month for which it is payable and where any default occurs in the payment of rent or other charges, the tenant shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum from the date on which such payment of rent and other charges payable is due to the date on which it is paid.(2)Every tenant who makes payment of rent or other charges payable or advance towards such rent or other charges to his landlord in cash shall be entitled, to obtain forthwith from the landlord or his authorised agent a written receipt for the amount paid to him, signed by the landlord or his authorised agent :Provided that it shall be open to the tenant to remit the rent to his landlord by postal money order.(3)If the landlord or his authorised agent refuses or neglects to deliver to the tenant the receipt referred to in sub-section (2), the Rent Authority may, on an application made to him in this behalf by the tenant within two months from the date of payment and after hearing the landlord or his authorised agent, by order direct the landlord or his authorised agent to pay to the tenant, by way of damages, such sum not exceeding double the amount of rent or other charges paid by the tenant and the costs of the application and shall also grant a certificate to the tenant in respect of the rent or other charges paid.(4)If the landlord supplies the particulars of his bank account the tenant shall deposit the rent and other charges payable in such bank account as and when due.

14. Deposit of rent by tenant.

(1)Where the landlord does not accept any rent and other charges payable tendered by the tenant within the time and the manner referred to in section 13 or refuses or neglects to deliver a receipt referred to therein or where there is a bona fide doubt as to the person or persons to whom the rent and other charges are payable, the tenant may deposit such rent and other charges payable with the Rent Authority according to the provisions of sub-section (2) below.(2)The deposit shall be accompanied by an application by the tenant containing the following particulars, namely :-(a)the premises for which the rent and other charges payable are deposited with a description sufficient for identifying the premises;(b)the period for which the rent and other charges payable are deposited;(c)the name and address of the landlord or the person or persons claiming to be entitled to such rent and other charges payable; and(d)the reasons and circumstances for which the application for depositing the rent and other charges payable is made.(3)If an application is made for the withdrawal of any deposit of rent and other charges payable, the Rent Authority shall, if satisfied that the applicant is the person entitled to receive the rent and other charges deposited, order the amount of the rent and other charges to be paid to him :Provided that no order for payment of any deposit of rent and other charges payable shall be made by the Rent Authority under this sub-section without giving all the persons named by the tenant in his application under sub-section (2) as claiming to be entitled to payment of such rent and other charges payable, an opportunity of being heard and such order shall be without prejudice to the rights of such persons to receive such rent and other charges payable being decided by a court of competent jurisdiction.(4)If at the time of filing the application under sub-section (3) but not after the expiry of thirty days from receiving the notice of deposit, the landlord or the person or persons claiming to be entitled to the rent and other charges payable complains or complain to the Rent Authority that the statements in the tenant's application of the reasons and circumstances which led him to deposit the rent and other charges payable are untrue, the Rent Authority, after giving the tenant an opportunity of being heard, may levy, on the tenant a fine which may extend to an amount equal to two months' rent and if the Rent Authority is satisfied that the said statements were materially untrue it may order that a sum out of the fine realised be paid to the landlord as compensation.(5)The Rent Authority may, on the complaint of the tenant and after giving an opportunity to the landlord of being heard, levy on the landlord a fine which may extend to an amount to two months' rent and if the Rent Authority is satisfied that the landlord without any reasonable cause, refused to accept rent and other charges payable though tendered to him within the time referred to in section 13 it may further order that a portion of the fine realised be paid to the tenant as compensation.

15. Time limit for making deposit and consequences of incorrect particulars in application for deposit.

(1) No rent and other charges deposited under section 14 shall be considered to have been validly deposited under that section, unless the deposit is made within twenty-one days of the time referred to in section 13 for payment of the rent and other charges payable and intimation to that effect with full particulars has been sent to the landlord. Non-intimation to the landlord shall render the deposit 'Invalid'. (2) No such deposit shall be considered to have been validly made, if the tenant wilfully makes any false statement in his application for depositing the rent and other charges payable unless the landlord has withdrawn the amount deposited before the date of filing an application for the recovery of possession of the premises from the tenant. (3) If the rent and other charges payable are deposited within the time specified in sub-section (1) and do not cease to be a valid deposit for the reasons specified in sub-section (2), the deposit shall constitute payment of rent and other charges payable to the landlord, as if the amount deposited has been validly tendered.

16. Saving as to acceptance of rent and other charges payable and forfeiture in deposit.

(1) The withdrawal of rent and other charges payable deposited under section 14 in the manner provided therein shall not operate as an admission against the person withdrawing it of the correctness of the rate of rent and other charges payable for the period of default, the amount due or of any other facts stated in the tenant's application for depositing the rent and other charges payable under the said section. (2) Any rent and other charges payable in deposit which are not withdrawn by the landlord or by the person or persons entitled to receive such rent and other charges payable shall be forfeited to Government by an order made by the Rent Authority, if they are not withdrawn before the expiration of five years from the date of receiving the intimation of deposit. (3) Before passing an order of forfeiture, the Rent Authority shall give notice to the landlord or the person or persons entitled to receive the rent and other charges in deposit by registered post at the last known address of such landlord or person or persons and shall also publish the notice in his office and in any local newspaper.

(2) Where any repairs, in relation to a matter falling under Part B of Schedule II to this Act without which the premises are not habitable or usable except with undue inconvenience, are to be made and the tenant neglects or fails to make them within a period of sixty days after notice in writing, the landlord may apply to the Rent Authority for permission to make such repairs himself and may submit to the Rent Authority an estimate of the cost of such repairs, and, thereupon, the Rent Authority may, after giving the tenant an opportunity of being heard and after considering such estimate of the cost and making such enquiries as he may consider necessary, by an order in writing, permit the landlord to make such repairs at such cost as may be specified in the order, and it shall thereafter be lawful for the landlord to make such repairs himself and to recover the cost of such repairs, which shall in no case exceed the amount so specified, from the tenant. (3) The landlord or a person authorised by him shall have the right to enter and inspect the premises after notice to the tenant in the Form specified in Schedule VI to this Act. (4) The tenant shall make good all damages caused to premises by his negligence within ninety days of being informed in writing to do so by the landlord failing which the landlord may apply to the Rent Authority for permission to make good the said damages and the Rent Authority shall decide the matter in the manner provided in sub-section (2). (5) The tenant shall hand over the possession of the premises on termination of tenancy in the same condition, except for the normal wear and tear, as it was when it was handed over to him at the beginning of such tenancy and in a case where certain damages have been caused, not being damages caused by war, act of God or disturbances, the tenant shall make good the damages caused to the premises failing which the landlord may apply to the Rent Authority for permission to make good the said damages and the Rent Authority shall decide the matter in the manner provided in sub-section (2). (6) The tenant shall not, whether during the subsistence of tenancy or thereafter, demolish any improvement or alteration, carried out by him in the premises or remove any material used in such improvement or alteration, other than any fixture of a removable nature, without the permission of the landlord failing which such demolition or alteration shall be deemed to be a damage caused by such tenant under sub-section (4) and shall be dealt with accordingly.

19. Cutting off or withholding essential supply or service.

(1) No landlord or tenant either by himself or through any person purporting to act on his behalf shall, without just and sufficient cause cut off or withhold any essential supply or service enjoyed by the tenant or landlord, as the case may be, in respect of the premises let to him, or, under his own occupation. (2) If a landlord or a tenant contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), the tenant or the landlord, as the case may be, may make an application to Rent Authority complaining of such contravention. (3) If the Rent Authority is satisfied that the essential supply or service was wilfully cut off or withheld, it may pass an order directing the restoration of the amenities immediately pending the inquiry referred to in sub-section (4): Provided that interim order may be passed under this sub-section without giving notice to the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be. (4) If the Rent Authority on inquiry finds that the essential supply or service enjoyed by the tenant or landlord was cut off or withheld by the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, wilfully and without just and sufficient cause, he shall make an order directing the restoration of such supply or service. (5) The Rent Authority shall complete an enquiry under sub-section (4) within a period of thirty days of filing of an application for enquiry unless the Rent Authority, for reasons to be recorded in writing, decides that it is not possible to complete the enquiry within such period. (6) The Rent Authority may, in his discretion, direct that compensation not exceeding one thousand rupees be paid to, - (a) the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, by the complainant if the application under sub-section (2) was made frivolously or vexatiously; (b) the complainant, if the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, had cut off or withheld the supply or service without just and sufficient cause. Explanation. - In this section the expression "essential supply or service" shall include supply of water, electricity, lights in passages and on staircases, conservancy and sanitary services. Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, withholding any essential supply or service shall include acts or commissions attributable to the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, on account of which the essential supply or service is cut off by a local authority or any other agency.
