4. Power of Government to declare ancient monuments etc., to be protected monument and areas.

(1) Where the Government are of opinion that any ancient monument or archaeological site and remains not included in section 3 requires protection under this Act, they may, by notification in the [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.45, Law (F) Department, dated 01.06.2016] Telangana Gazette give two months' notice of their intention to declare such ancient monument or archaeological site and remains, to be a protected monument or a protected area as the case may be and a copy of every such notification shall be affixed in a conspicuous place near the monument or the site and remains, as the case may be. (2) Any person interested in any such ancient monument or archaeological site and remains may, within two months after the issue of the notification, object to the declaration of the monument, or the archaeological site and remains, to be a protected monument or a protected area. (3) On the expiry of the said period of two months, the Government may, after considering the objections, if any, received by them, declare by notification in the 10 Telangana Gazette, the ancient monument or the archaeological site and remains, as the case may be, to be a protected monument or a protected area. (4) A notification published under sub-section (3) shall, unless and until it is withdrawn be conclusive evidence of the fact that the ancient monument or the archaeological site and remains to which it relates, is a protected monument or a protected area for the purposes of this Act. PROTECTED MONUMENTS

5. Acquisition of rights in a protected monument

(1) The Director may, with the sanction of the Government, purchase, or take a lease of, or accept a gift or bequest of, any protected monument. (2) Where a protected monument is without an owner, the Director may, by notification in the [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.45, Law (F) Department, dated 01.06.2016] Telangana Gazette, assume the guardianship of the monument. (3) The owner of any protected monument may, by written instrument, constitute the Director the guardian of the monument, and the Director may, with the sanction of the Government, accept such guardianship. (4) When the Director has accepted the guardianship of a monument under sub-section (3), the owner shall, except as expressly provided in this Act, have the same estate, right, title and interest in and to the monument, as if the Director had not been constituted a guardian thereof; and the provisions of this Act relating to agreements executed under section 6 shall apply to the written instrument executed under sub-section (3). (5) Nothing in this section shall affect the use of any protected monument for customary religious observances.

6. Preservation of protected monument by agreement

(1) The Director, when so directed by the Government, shall propose to the owner of a protected monument to enter into an agreement with the Government within a specified period, for the maintenance of the monument.(2)An agreement under this section may provide for all or any of the following matters namely:—(a)the maintenance of the monument;(b)the custody of the monument and the duties of any person who may be employed to watch it;(c)the restriction of the owner's right(i)to use the monument for any purpose;(ii)to charge any fee for entry into, or inspection of, the monument;(iii)to destroy, remove, alter or deface the monument; or(iv)to build on or near the site of the monument;(d)the facilities of access to be permitted to the public or any section thereof or to archaeological officers or to persons deputed by the owner or any archaeological officer or other officer or authority authorised by the Government to inspect or maintain the monument;(e)the notice to be given to the Government in case the land on which the monument is situated or any adjoining land is offered for sale by the owner, and the right to be reserved to the Government to purchase such land, or any specified portion of such land, at its market value;(f)the payment of any expenses incurred by the owner or by the Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument;(g)the proprietary or other rights which are to vest in the Government in respect of the monument when any expenses are incurred by the Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument;(h)the appointment of an authority to decide any dispute arising out of the agreement; and(i)any matter connected with the maintenance of the monument which is a proper subject of agreement between the owner and the Government.(3)The Government or the owner may, at any time, after the expiration of three years from the date of execution of an agreement under this section, terminate it on giving six months' notice in writing to the other party:Provided that where the agreement is terminated by the owner, he shall pay to the Government the expenses, if any, incurred by them on the maintenance, of the monument during the five years immediately preceding the termination of the agreement or, if the agreement has been in force for a shorter period, during the period the agreement was in force.(4)An agreement under this section shall be binding on any person claiming to be the owner of the monument to which it relates, from, through or under a party by whom or on whose behalf the agreement was executed.

7. Persons competent to exercise powers of owner under section 6, in respect of a protected monument, when owner is under disability or when it is a village property.-

(1)If the owner of a protected monument is unable, by reason of minority or other disability, to act for himself, the person legally competent to act on his behalf may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by section 6.(2)In the case of a protected monument which is a village property, the headman or other village officer exercising powers of management over such property may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by section 6.(3)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to empower any person not being of the same religion as the person on whose behalf he is acting to make or execute an agreement relating to a protected monument which or any part of which is periodically used for the religious worship or observances of that religion.

8. Application of endowment to repair a protected monument.

(1)If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under section 6 for the maintenance of, a protected monument refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement, and if any endowment has been created for the purpose of keeping such monument in repair or for that purpose among others, the Government may institute a suit in the court of the district judge or, if the estimated cost of repairing the monument does not exceed one thousand rupees, may make an application to the district judge, for the proper application of such endowment or part thereof.(2)On the hearing of an application under sub-section (1) , the district judge may, summon and examine the owner and any person whose evidence appears to him necessary and may pass an order for the proper application of the endowment or any part thereof, and any such order may be executed as if it were a decree of a civil court.

9. Failure or refusal to enter into an agreement.

(1)If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under section 6 for the maintenance of a protected monument refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement, the Government may make an order providing for all or any of the matters specified in sub-section (2) of section 6, and such order shall be binding on the owner or such other person and on every person claiming title to the monument from, through or under, the owner or such other person.(2)Where an order made under sub-section (1) provides that the monument shall be maintained by the owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement, all reasonable expenses for the maintenance of the monument shall be payable by the Government.(3)No order under sub-section (1) shall be made unless the owner or other person has been given an opportunity of making a representation in writing against the proposed order.

10. Power to make order prohibiting contravention of agreement under section 6.

(1)If the Director apprehends that the owner or occupier of a protected monument intends to destroy, remove, alter, deface, imperil, or misuse the monument or to build on or near the site thereof in contravention of the terms of an agreement executed under section 6, the Director may, after giving the owner or occupier an opportunity of making a representation in writing, make an order prohibiting any such contravention of the agreement:Provided that no such opportunity need be given in any case where the Director for reasons to be recorded, is satisfied that it is not expedient or practicable to do so.(2)Any person aggrieved by an order made under this section may appeal to the Government within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, and the decision of the Government shall be final.

11. Enforcement of agreements.

(1)If an owner or other person who is bound to maintain a monument by an agreement executed under section 6 refuses or fails within such reasonable time as the Director may fix, to do any act which in the opinion of the Director is necessary for the maintenance of the monument, the Director may authorise any person to do any such act and the owner or other person shall be liable to pay the expenses of doing any such act or such portion of the expenses as the owner may be liable to pay under the agreement.(2)If any dispute arises regarding the amount of expenses payable by the owner or other person under sub-section (1), it shall be referred to the Government whose decision shall be final.

12. Purchasers at certain sales and persons claiming through owner bound by instrument executed by owner.

Every person who purchases, at a sale for arrears of land revenue or any other public demand, any land on which is situated a monument in respect of which any instrument has been executed by the owner for the time being under section 5 or section 6, and every person claiming any title to a monument from, through, or under, an owner who executed any such instrument, shall be bound by such instrument.
