5. Appointment of examiner.

- It shall be a condition of appointment that an examiner shall not during his term of appointment coach any candidate who is preparing for the examination for the term of which he is appointed as an examiner.

6.

No examiner shall enter into communication with any candidate or any matter in connection with the examination. Any examinee approaching an examiner directly or indirectly in connection with his examination should be reported to the Faculty. On receipt of such report the Faculty may take actions as deemed proper. [If an examiner fails to report such an occurrence, action, as deemed fit, maybe taken against him.] [Inserted vide Orissa Gazette Part-VII/8.8.1975.]

7.

The Examination Sub-Committee may supervise all the arrangements at the centre for the examination deemed necessary.

8.

In the written portion of the examinations there shall be one examiner in each paper. He shall set question paper on the subject as well as examine and mark all the answer papers on that subject, if separate question setters not appointed by the Examination Sub-Committee.

9.

If an examiner is for any reason not available to conduct an examination, the President shall appoint another examiner as locum tenens to replace the substantive examiner. Similarly the President is empowered to appoint another examiner in case of emergency in order to award marks on answer books. The locum tenens shall vacate the appointment, if any, when the substantive examiner again becomes available and if the substantive examiner does not become available the 'locum tenens' shall vacate the appointment on the date on which the substantive examiner would have vacated it.

10.

An examiner shall in setting a paper and in conducting the oral and practical examination be guided as to the scope of the subject of the examinations by the syllabus provided by the Faculty.

11.

The question paper shall be delivered by the question setter in person to the President or sent to him registered post insured for Rs. 100 in a sealed double, cover on or before the date, prescribed by the Examination Sub-Committee. Question setters-must seal any packet containing draft question, using seat which can be identified and enclose them in a cloth lined envelop. 17.

The oral and practical examinations in a subject shall be jointly conducted by the external examiner and the Lecturer [* * *] [Omitted vide Orissa Gazette Part-VII/8.8.1972.] in the College. The number of marks gained by each candidate shall be determined by mutual consultations. The examination should be aimed at intelligent test of practical knowledge in the subject and its practical applicability.

17A. [[Omitted vide Orissa Gazette Part-VII/8.8.1972.]

In case of refusal by a lecturer teaching a subject to be the internal examiner without any valid grounds, such refusal shall be deemed to be gross misconduct and such lapses to be reported to the Government management of the institution for necessary action.]

18.

The Examination Sub-Committee shall ordinarily appoint the Principal of the institution to be Presiding Officer of the Examination centre and such other staff as may be necessary for the smooth conduct of the examinations. Immediately after the conclusion of the examinations it shall be the duty of the Presiding Officer to ensure that the answer papers are put in secure covers, sealed with his private seal, and forwarded by registered post insured for Rs. 200 each to the examiners concerned. The Principal shall also ensure strict secrecy about the examination papers.

19.

Rolls of candidates appearing in examinations and the dates by which the papers have to be submitted to the Faculty will be intimated by the Secretary to the examiners who are required to keep the results of the examinations and the marks assigned to candidates strictly secret.

20.

On receipt of answer books, the first duty of the examiners shall be to see that the number of candidates on the answer book correspond with the number of candidates on the roll. A list of absentees, if any, will be enclosed with the answer books. In case of any discrepancy the Secretary shall be forthwith informed of the same.

21.

It is essential that total marks even if zero assigned to each answer are entered in the left-hand margin of the answer book against each answer. It is in all cases necessary to write the total marks on the outside of the answer books in right-hand top corner and to enter the same marks on the roll.

22.

An examiner shall, on or before the date fixed in that regard by the Examination Sub-Committee forward to the Secretary the result of examination or examinations in every subject in which he has been an examiner together with the nature of answers given by the examinees in their respective subject. Such report in case of practical examination should specify defects in approach towards the subject and attitude of the students.

23.

As soon as possible after tabulation of the marks by the Secretary, they shall be considered by the Examination Sub-Committee who will place the results before the Faculty for consideration and adoption.
