- Every application under sub-section (3) of section 36 [for restoration of possession of any land transferred to a person belonging to a schedule Tribes in contravention of sub-section (2) of Section 36] [Inserted the Maharashtra Land Revenue Restoration of Occupancy Unauthorisedly Transferred by Occupants belonging to Scheduled Tribes (Amendment) Rules, 1979, Section 2, dated 21st June, 1979.] shall be accompanied by an extract of the relevant entry from the record of rights, and register of mutation in relation to the occupancy is alleged have been transferred.

3. Service of notice.

- After receipt of the application, and after verifying from his records, if the Collectors thinks there is reasonable ground for believing that the Collector's sanction was not taken for the transfer (which grounds he shall record in writing), the Collector shall cause notice in Form A to be served on the transferor (if he is not applicant) and on the transferee, calling upon them to show cause why the transfer should not be set aside and the notice shall specify the date for hearing the application.

4. Examination of parties.

- On the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which the hearing may be adjourned, the collector may examine the parties, and after recording the statements of any witness whom they produce, and making such Enquiry as he may consider necessary, shall record a finding whether or not the transfer is made with the previous sanction of the collector, as required by sub-section (2) of Section 36, if the finding is that the transfer is made with the previous sanction of the Collector, the application shall be rejected.

5. Power of Collector to enquiry into application of transfer.

(1) If the Collector records a finding that the transfer is made without the previous sanction of the Collector, he shall adjourn the proceeding for less than six weeks, and cause to be server notice in Form B.(a) on all persons who seem to him prima facie to have a right in the occupancy equal or prior to that of the applicant; and (b) on persons to whom the transferor may appear to be indebted for any dues which form a charge on the occupancy. (2) The Collector shall at the same time cause a proclamation to be issued in Form C, and shall cause it to be published in the village I which the occupancy is cultivated. (3) The Collector shall also at the same time direct the Tahsildar concerned to submit a statement of Government claim regarding arrears of land revenue, tagai and other dues which form a charge on the occupancy. (4) No claim for being in possession or an account of any dues which form a charge on the occupancy shall be considered, unless it is put forward on or before the date specified in the notice and the proclamation issued under Rule 5.

6. Power of Collector to record finding and proceeding to followed thereafter.

(1) On the date fixed in the notice and proclamation issued under Rule 5 or any other date to which the proceedings may be adjourned the collector shall consider the objection to the applicant's claims for being placed in possession of the occupancy, and record his findings thereon. (2) If the finding is that the applicant or any other person is entitled to be placed in possession of the occupancy, the collector shall prepare a statement in Form 'D' containing arrears of land revenue or any other dues constituting charge on the occupancy and hand it over to such applicant or person who shall make a statement in a Form 'E' as to his acceptance of the liability for same. (3) If the applicant or such person agrees to pay the arrears of dues mentioned in Form 'D', the collector shall issue an order for giving possession of the occupancy to him. If the applicant or such person does not agree to pay such arrears, the case shall be filed.

7. Copy of order under Rule 6 to be sent to Tahsildar.

- A copy of the issued under Rule 6 shall be sent to the Tahsildar concerned who shall direct the Talathi of the village concerned to take necessary action for correcting entries in the record of rights of the village in accordance with such order.

8. Premium for re-classification of occupancy.

- Subject to the provisions of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 29, the premium to be paid under sub-section (4) of Section 36 for re-classifying the occupant as occupant shares shall be 50 per cent of the difference between the current market value the occupancy and the occupancy price originally paid the value of improvements, if made by the occupant.
