The Bird And Company Limited (Acquisition And Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980 No. 67 of 1980

1438.

Object and Reasons Messrs. Bird and Company Limited was engaged in production of goods vital to the various basic industries like fertilisers, Petroleum products, steel, petro-chemicals and power generation. Production of the Company had been going down in the recent years and the Company started incurring losses since 1973-74. The Company Law Board, who had received complaints regarding mismanagement of the Company, came to the conclusion in 1976 that the affairs of the Company were being conducted in a manner oppressive to the members and prejudicial to the interests of the Company, its employees and the public interest, and appointed under section 408 of the Companies Act, 1956, five Government Directors on the Board of the Company, and subsequently also a Managing Director. The Company Law Board also ordered an investigation in respect of the Company under section 237(b) of the Companies Act, 1956.2. Appointment of Government Directors, however, did not improve the functioning of Bird and Company Limited. The production continued to decline. Turnover of the Company dropped from Rs. 15.38 crores in 1975-76 to Rs. 4.28 crores in 1979-80. The accumulated losses increased to Rs. 5.68 crores and the liabilities went up to Rs. 9.0 crores by March, 1980. The Company could not execute orders in time for want of working capital. The Central Government gave counter-guarantee to the Chartered Bank in 1977 on the basis of which the Bank could issue guarantees to the Company's Customer, up to an amount of Rs. 1.0 crore, and also gave guarantees to the Industrial Reconstruction Corporation of India in 1980 for an aggregate amount of Rs. 1.15 crores for provision of working capital to the Company. However, functioning of the Company continued to be unsatisfactory and it was not able to generate sufficient funds to finance the production. Not only the production suffered and losses increased, but the Company was finding it difficult to obtain fresh orders from the customers who lost faith in the Company's ability to execute orders. 1500 employees of the Company had not received their full wages and salaries. The undertaking of the Company was on the verge of closure; and if it had been allowed to be closed down, it would have adversely affected the production of goods vital to the needs of the country. Industrial Development Bank of India had, therefore, prepared a scheme for rehabilitation of the undertaking. The scheme required an investment of Rs. 140 lakhs to be provided by the Central Government.³ Messrs. Bird and Company Limited is a leading company in a group of 23 other companies engaged in manufacturing, mining, trading and investment activities while two of the companies are subsidiaries of the Company, the other companies in the group are under varying degrees of control of the company through its direct shareholding or by shareholding by the investment companies in the group. The Company provides marketing and management services to some of the group companies. The manufacturing companies in the group are engaged in production of goods which are vital to the needs of the country. There had been several allegations against the management of some of these companies indicating misuse of the companies, mismanagement, misfeasance or malfeasance. The Company Law Board ordered investigations in 1977 under section 237(b) of the Companies Act, 1956, in respect of some of these companies. Four of the companies have already been nationalised. Management of two of the companies has been taken over under the provisions of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951. It was in the public interest to acquire the Company's share in the group companies to secure for the undertakings of the Company the facilities and advantages derived by it by such shareholding and to enable the Central Government to exercise such control on the affairs of the companies as may be necessary to prevent their mismanagement.⁴ In view of the circumstances explained above, the Central Government decided that it would be in the public interest to acquire the undertakings of the Bird and Company Limited, its investments in its two subsidiary companies and shares held by the Company in the other group companies. The Bird and Company Limited (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings and Other Properties) Ordinance, 1980 (No. 18 of 1980) was promulgated by the President on 25th October, 1980 to give effect to this decision.⁵ The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance. - Gazette of India, 25-11-1980, Pt. II, Section 2, Ext., P. 1135.[27th December, 1980.]An Act to provide for the acquisition and transfer, undertakings of the Bird and Company Limited, for the purpose of ensuring the continuity of production of goods which are vital to the needs of the country and for the acquisition of shares held by the Bird and Company Limited in the specified companies for the purpose of securing to those undertakings the facilities and advantage derived by reason of such share holding with respect to the operation and functioning of those undertakings and also to enable the Central Government to exercise such control over the affairs of the specified companies as is necessary to ensure that the affairs of those companies are not mismanaged and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Whereas The Bird and Company Limited were engaged in the manufacture of E.O.T. cranes and other varieties of cranes; polystyrene based cation exchange resin; equipment for fertilizers, oil refineries, steel plants, petro-chemical and other industries; tanks and vessels of various shapes and sizes, water treatment equipment and other types of equipment for the control of water pollution and were also engaged in various other activities; and Whereas the top management of the Bird and Company Limited had so mismanaged the affairs of that Company as to cause heavy losses to the Company and had also managed the affairs of the Company in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Company and the public interest; and Whereas in view of the mismanagement aforesaid, the Central Government had, in pursuance of the provisions of section 408 of the Companies Act, 1956(1 of 1956), appointed six directors on the Board of directors of the Bird and Company Limited;and Whereas investment of a large amount is necessary for the maintenance and development of the production of the undertakings of the Company;and Whereas it is necessary in the public interest to acquire the undertakings of the Bird and Company Limited to enable the Central Government to have such investment made and to ensure that the interests of the general public are served by the continuance, by the undertakings of the Company, of the manufacture, production and distribution of goods or articles which are essential to the needs of the economy of the country;and Whereas the Bird and Company Limited is holding shares in the specified companies which are either engaged in the production, distribution or marketing of goods which are vital to the needs of the country or are engaged in providing finance to other companies which are so engaged and it is expedient in the public interest to acquire the said shares to secure for the undertakings of the Company the facilities and advantages derived by reason of such share holding with respect to the operation and functioning of such undertakings and also to enable the Central Government to exercise, through such shareholdings, such control on the affairs of those companies as may be necessary to prevent their mismanagement.Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

16. Claims to be made to the Commissioner.-

Every person having a claim against the Company shall prefer such claim before the Commissioner within thirty days from the specified date:Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that the claimant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the claim within the said period of thirty days, he may entertain the claim within a further period of thirty days and not thereafter.

17. Priority of claims.-

The claims arising out of the matters specified in the Schedule II shall have priorities in accordance with the following principles:-(a)Category I shall have precedence over all other categories and

Category II shall have precedence over Category III, and so on;(b)the claims specified in each of the categories shall rank equally and be paid in full, but, if the amount is insufficient to meet such claims in full, they shall abate in equal proportions and be paid accordingly; and(c)the question of discharging any liability with regard to a matter specified in a lower category shall arise only if a surplus is left after meeting all the liabilities specified in the immediately higher category.

18. Examination of claims.-

(1)On receipt of the claims made under section 16, the Commissioner shall arrange the claims in the order of priorities specified in the Schedule II and examine the same in accordance with such order of priorities.(2)If, on examination of the claims, the Commissioner is of opinion that the amount paid to him under this Act is not sufficient to meet the liabilities specified in any lower category, he shall not be required to examine the claims in respect of such lower category.

19. Admission or rejection of claims.-

(1)After examining the claims with reference to the priorities set out in the Schedule II, the Commissioner shall fix a certain date on or before which every claimant shall file the proof of his claim, or be excluded from the benefit of the disbursements made by the Commissioner.(2)Not less than fourteen days' notice of the date so fixed shall be given by advertisement in one issue of any daily newspaper in the English language and in one issue of such daily newspaper in the regional language as the Commissioner may consider suitable, and every such notice shall call upon the claimant to file the proof of his claim with the Commissioner within the period specified in the advertisement.(3)Every claimant who fails to file the proof of his claim within the period specified by the Commissioner shall be excluded from the disbursement made by the Commissioner.(4)The commissioner shall, after such investigation as may, in his opinion, be necessary and after giving the concerned company an opportunity of refuting the claim and after giving the claimant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing ; admit or reject the claim in whole or in part.(5)The Commissioner shall have the power to regulate his own procedure in all matters arising out of the discharge of his functions including the place or places at which he may hold his sittings and shall, for the purpose of making any investigation under this Act, have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908(5 of 1908), while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely :-(a)the summoning and enforcing the attendance of any witness and examining him on oath;(b)the discovery and production of any document or other material object producible as evidence;(c)the reception of evidence on affidavits;(d)the issuing of any commission for the examination of witnesses.(6)Any investigation before the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code(45 of 1860) and the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of section 195 and CHAPTER XXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).(7)A claimant who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner may prefer an appeal against the decision to the principal civil Court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the registered office of the concerned company is situated:Provided that where a person who is a Judge of a High Court is appointed to be the Commissioner, the appeal, shall lie to the High Court at Calcutta and such appeal shall be heard and disposed of by not less than two Judges of that High Court.

20. Disbursement of money by Commissioner to claimants.-

After admitting a claim under this Act, the amount due in respect of such claim shall be paid by the Commissioner to the person or persons to whom such amount is due, and on such payment, the liability of the Company in respect of such claim shall stand discharged.

21. Disbursement of amounts to the Company and possession of certain machinery, equipment, etc.-

(1) If, out of the monies paid to him in relation to the undertakings of the Company, there is a balance left after meeting the liabilities in accordance with the priorities specified in the Schedule, the Commissioner shall disburse such balance to the company. (2) Where any machinery, equipment or other property has vested under this Act in the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, but such machinery, equipment or other property does not belong to the Company, it shall be lawful for the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, to continue to possess such machinery or equipment and other property on the same terms and conditions under which they were possessed by the Company immediately before the appointed day.

22. Undisbursed or unclaimed amount to be deposited to the general revenue account.-

Any money paid to the Commissioner which remains undisbursed or unclaimed on the date immediately preceding the date on which the office of the Commissioner is finally wound up, shall be transferred by the Commissioner, before his office is finally wound up, to the general revenue account of the Central Government; but a claim to any money so transferred may be preferred to the Central Government by the person entitled to such payment and shall be dealt with as if such transfer had not been made, and the order, if any, for the payment of the claim being treated as an order for the refund of the revenue.

Chapter VII

Miscellaneous

23. Act to have overriding effect.-

The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law, other than this Act, or in any decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority.

24. Contracts to cease to have effect unless ratified by the Central Government or Government company.-

Every contract entered into by the Company in relation to the undertaking owned by it, which has vested in the Central Government under section 3, for any service, sale or supply, and in force immediately before the appointed day, shall, on and from the expiry of a period of one hundred and eighty days from the appointed day, cease to have effect unless such contract is, before the expiry of that period, ratified, in writing, by the Central Government or Government company, in which such undertakings have been vested under this Act, and in ratifying such contract, the Central Government or Government company may make such alteration or modification therein as it may think fit: Provided that the Central Government or, the Government company shall not omit to ratify a contract and shall not make any alteration or modification therein-(a) unless it is satisfied that such contract is unduly onerous, or has been entered into in bad faith, or is detrimental to the interest of the Central Government or, such Government company; and (b) except after giving the parties to the contract a reasonable opportunity of being heard and except after recording in writing its reasons for refusal to ratify the contract or for making any alteration or modification therein.

25. Penalties.-

Any person who-(a) having in his possession, custody or control any property forming part of any undertaking of the Company, or any share held by the Company in any specified company, wrongfully withholds, such property or share from the Central Government or Government company (b) wrongfully obtains possession of or retains, any property forming part of any undertaking of the Company; or wilfully withholds or fails to furnish to the Central Government or, Government company or any person specified by that Government or Government company, any document relating to such undertakings or share which may be in his possession, custody or control or fails to deliver to the Central Government or Government company, or any person specified by that Government or Government Company, any assets, books of account, registers or other documents in his possession, custody or control, relating to the undertakings of the Company; or any share held by the Company in any specified company; or (c) wrongfully removes or destroys any property forming part of any undertaking of the Company; or prefers any claims under this Act which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false or grossly inaccurate, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

26. Offences by companies.-

(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly: Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other Officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.Explanation.- For the purpose of this section,-(a)"company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and(b)"director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

27. Protection of action taken in good faith.-

No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or Custodian of the Undertakings of the Company, or the Government Company or any officer or other person authorised by that Government or Government company for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

28. Delegation of powers.-

(1)The Central Government may, by notification direct that all or any of the powers exercisable by it under this Act, other than the powers conferred by this Section and section 29 and section 30, may also be exercised by such person or person as may be specified in the notification.(2)Whenever any delegation of power is made under sub-section (1), the person to whom such power has been delegated shall act under the direction, control and supervision of the Central Government.

29. Power to make rules.-

(1)The Central Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the provisions of his Act.(2)In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely : -(a)the time within which, and the manner in which, an intimation shall be given to the commissioner under sub-section (3) of section 5(b)the form and the manner in which, and the conditions under which, accounts shall be maintained by the Custodian as required by sub-section (3) of section 10;(c)the manner in which monies in any provident fund or other fund referred to in section 12 shall be dealt with;(d)any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed.(3)Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions.and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

30. Power to remove difficulties.-

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act the Central Government may by order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, remove the difficulty: Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the appointed day.

31. Repeal and saving.-

(1) The Bird and Company Limited (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings and Other Properties) Ordinance, 1980 (18 of 1980), is hereby repealed. (2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the Ordinance so repealed shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
