The Tamil Nadu Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Act, 1987Tamil Nadu Act 27 of 1989Statement of Objects and Reasons. - The Tamil Nadu Agricultural Produce Marketing Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 23 of 1959), providing for regulation of buying and selling of agricultural produce and for the establishment and proper administration of markets for such purposes in the State, has been extensively amended. In the light of the experience gained in enforcing the Act, several drawbacks have been noticed in the working of the Act including in the composition and constitution of market committees. It has been decided to remove the drawbacks noticed in the working of the Act.² It has also been decided to give a statutory footing to the Tamil Nadu State Agricultural marketing Board constituted for the purpose of co-ordinating the activities of all the market committees and for making State level market development plans and also to make the employees of the market committees and the Board as Government servants. It has also been decided to extend the scope of the Act to animal husbandry and its products, agriculture, pisciculture, sericulture and forest products.³ Taking all these into consideration and also the salient features of the regulate markets in other States and of the Model Bill sent by the Government of India, it is proposed to bring forward a comprehensive legislation to repeal and re-enact the Tamil Nadu Agricultural Produce Markets Act, 1959, with suitable modifications.⁴ The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.Published in Part IV-Section 2 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 5th July, 1980.
