7.3 Consent of the Prospect. - (i) The authorized Verifier shall proceed further only on receiving the consent of the prospect in explicit terms. (ii) The prospect shall be given an option to continue with the subject or exit the page at every stage in case of electronic modes. The hours during which calls are made shall be in accordance with orders issued by TRAI/DoT from time to time. (iii) In case of telephonic solicitation the name of the authorized Verifier along with the certificate number issued by the authority shall be disclosed and the language options available must be indicated. The subsequent communication shall continue only in the language chosen by the Prospect. (iv) The authorized Verifier shall inform Prospects that the call is being recorded and that the Prospect is entitled to a voice copy, if he so desires, at any time during the term of the policy or until a satisfactory settlement of claim, whichever is later. (v) No inconvenience, nuisance or harm shall be caused to the Prospects in the course of solicitation or thereafter. Full disclosures shall be made to the Prospects under all modes of distance marketing and the requirements of confidentiality, privacy and non-disclosure shall be complied with.

7.4 Prospects Information. - All relevant information pertaining to the Prospect as well as the person/asset to be insured shall be obtained, and solicitation shall be strictly on the basis of analysis of the Prospects' needs, as specified by the Authority from time to time.

7.5 Product benefits & Features. - The standardized script shall cover the following items in the course of product presentation: (i) The specific responses of the Prospect in the form of agree/disagree, yes/no, accept/reject, understand/don't understand, as applicable, against each of the items below, should cover under all modes of distance solicitation. (ii) Name of the product suggested and its nature and parameters. (iii) Insurance cover available under the product for a specified amount of annual premium, or, conversely, premium chargeable towards a specified amount of insurance cover.(iv)The scope of cover, perils covered and not covered, exclusions, deductibles or franchise, co-payments, loading/discounts on premiums, add-on covers, conditions, other terms and benefits, mid-term inclusions, short period scales, basis of sum insured, warranties, clauses and endorsements, compliance with Section 64VB of the Insurance Act, 1938 - payment of premium before commencement of risk, etc, as applicable.(v)The contents of the key features document as and when specified by the Authority.(vi)The right to cancel the policy within 30 days of receipt of the policy in case of disagreement with the terms of the policy under all life insurance contracts and covers tied to credit/debit/other cards, and for all personal accident and health insurance policy contracts with a term of 3 years or more offered by insurers over distance mode, provided no claim has already been made on the policy.(vii)Disclosure of rates of commission available on the product solicited upon the request of the Prospect.7.6Premium Ceilings in case of sale of ULIPs and prohibition of sale of Universal Life Products over telephonic mode. - (i) Corporate agents shall not solicit ULIPs of non-single premium type for annualized premiums exceeding Rs 50,000/- over telephonic mode (voice as well as SMS).(ii)Single premium ULIPs shall not be solicited for a premium of more than Rs 1,00,000/- over telephonic mode.(iii)No variable insurance product shall be solicited or sold over distance marketing mode.

8. Post-Solicitation Process. - Once the Prospect agrees to purchase a policy, the proposal form and premium acceptance shall comply with the following requirements:

(i)The premium towards the policy may be debited online or interactive voice response medium or through a manual collection subject to compliance with the procedures and controls prescribed by the RBI.(ii)The norms applicable to insurers and intermediaries as regards AML and PAN need to be complied with in the process of selling a policy over distance marketing mode.(iii)For policies solicited/sold over distance mode, insurers shall issue policies in exactly the same format and medium as in case of sale through physical interface, duly enclosed by the requisite annexures.(iv)The address and toll-free number of the office to be contacted by the policyholder in case of a servicing need or grievance shall be informed to the Prospect.(v)Before conclusion of sale the authorized Verifier shall divulge his name and certificate number to the prospect and this shall form part of the recorded conversation for the sake of future verification.(vi)The records pertaining to every call made and SMS sent by a Telemarketer/Corporate Agent that materializes into a policy shall be transferred to the insurer's location within 30 days of conclusion of sale. In case of telephone calls the records transferred shall be the recordings of the entire conversation.

9. No Unfair Denial of Insurance Cover. - When a Prospect approaches a corporate agent over distance mode proposing for insurance cover, the latter are duty-bound to consider the case on merits and in accordance with regulatory directions and their own norms. In no case shall they resort to an unfair denial of cover to a Prospect who seeks insurance.

10. Preservation of Records. - The corporate agent shall preserve, in an inalterable and easily retrievable form, a voice/electronic/physical record, as applicable, of the entire process beginning with lead generation/solicitation and concluding in sale of insurance, for a period of six months beyond the term of the policy or until satisfactory settlement of claim, whichever is later. Voice and electronic records shall be digitized and encrypted for storage to ensure reliability and security of the data.

11. Verification Process. - (i) Corporate agents shall monitor the calls live by arranging for listening to at least 1% of the calls as they happen.

(ii) Corporate agents shall verify at least 3% of calls leading to sales for compliance with the instructions, by engaging a team of dedicated employees to listen to the call recordings. The observations made in the course of verification shall be preserved in a retrievable form for a period of not less than three years. (iii) Corporate agent shall make verification calls, to monitor the quality of sales, to a minimum of 3% of the policyholders who purchase insurance over distance marketing mode, every month. The purpose of verification calls is to ascertain whether the Prospect has understood the benefits, features and disclosures of the product purchased correctly. Verification calls shall also bear a standardized script and the records of calls shall be preserved for a period (a) not less than 15 months from the date of policy or until satisfactory claim settlement, whichever is later, in case of non-life contracts (b) not less than 3 years in case of life insurance policies. (iv) The policies under (ii) and (iii) above shall be selected according to a random pattern, making sure to cover each product category and mode of sale.

12. Certification of Compliance. - The Principal Officer of each corporate agent shall submit to the Authority, at the end of each financial year, a certificate confirming that the corporate agent has complied with all the provisions of the above instructions (para- 7 to 11) during the financial year.

13. Disputes. - or the purpose of these instructions the contract of insurance shall be deemed to include the contents of Key Features Document (KFD) and the records of calls to the Prospect pertaining to the product. In case of disputes involving specific wordings of the policy, the Prospect shall have the right to give primacy to the wordings of the KFD and the calls over the specific wordings of the policy.
