Uttar Pradesh.- In its application to the State of Uttar Pradesh, in section 19, (i) for the words "on payment of a fee of one rupee for each inspection" substitute the words "on payment of such fee as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette fix"; and (ii) for the words "on payment of two annas for every hundred words of such copy or extract", substitute the words "on payment of such fee as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix". [U.P. Act 52 of 1975, section 11 (10.10.1975)].

20. To what societies Act applies.

- The following societies may be registered under this Act: Charitable societies, the military orphan funds or societies established at the several presidencies of India, societies established for the promotion of science, literature or the fine arts, for instruction, the diffusion of useful knowledge, [the diffusion of political education] [Inserted by Act 22 of 1927, Section 2.], the foundation or maintenance of libraries or reading-rooms for general use among the members or open to the public, or public museums and galleries of paintings and other works of art, collections of natural history, mechanical and philosophical inventions, instruments, or designs.

UTTAR PRADESH.- In section 20 of the principal Act, after the words "established for the promotion of "and before the word "science", the words, "Khadi and Village Industry, Panchayat Industry, Rural Development," shall be inserted. U.P. Act No. 11 of 1984 For section 21 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely: "21. In this Act, the word 'Registrar' means a person appointed as such by the State Government, and includes an Additional Registrar, a Joint Registrar, Deputy Registrar, or Assistant Registrar, on whom all or any of the powers of the Registrar under this Act are conferred by general or special order of the State Government." [U.P. Act No. 26 of 1979].

Uttar Pradesh.- In its application to the State of Uttar Pradesh, after section 21, insert following sections, namely: -

22. Power of Registrar to call for information.- (1) The Registrar may, by written order, require any society to furnish in writing such information or document within such time, being ordinarily not less than two weeks from the date of receipt of the order by the society, as he may specify in the order in connection with the affairs of the society or any documents filed by the society under this Act. (2) On receipt by the society of an order under sub-section (1), it shall be the duty of the President, Secretary or any other person authorised in this behalf to furnish such information or documents.

23. Audit.- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 4 or of section 22, where the Registrar is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, he may, by written order, require any society to furnish its accounts or a copy of a statement of receipts and expenditure for any particular year duly audited by a Chartered Accountant: Provided that the Registrar may, at the request of society permit it to have such accounts and statement audited by any other person approved by him. (2) If the society fails to furnish the documents referred to in sub-section (1) within the period specified in the order or within such extended period as the Registrar may from time to time allow, the Registrar may cause the accounts of such society audited for the said year and may recover the cost of such audit from that society. (3) If the society neglects or refuses to make its accounts or other documents available for audit under sub-section (2) or, in the opinion of the Registrar, otherwise fails to provide requisite facilities to have the audit made with due expedition, the Registrar may proceed to take action under section 24.

24. Investigation of affairs of a society.- (1) Where on information received under section 22 or otherwise, or in circumstances referred to in sub-section (3) of section 23, Registrar is of opinion that there is apprehension that the affairs of a society registered under this Act are being so conducted as to defeat the objects of the society or that the society or its governing body by whatever name called, or any officer thereof in actual effective control of the society is guilty of mismanaging its affairs or of any breach of fiduciary or other like obligations, the Registrar may, either himself or by any person appointed by him in that behalf, inspect or investigate into the affairs of the society or inspect any institution managed by the society. (2) It shall be the duty of every officer of the society when so required by the Registrar or other person appointed under sub-section (1) to produce any books of account and other records of or relating to the society which are in his custody and to give him all assistance in connection with such inspection or investigation.(3) The Registrar or other person appointed under sub-section (1) may call upon and examine on oath any officer, member or employee of the society in relation to the affairs of the society and it shall be the duty of every officer, member or employees, when called upon, to appear before him for such examination.(3A) [The Registrar or other person appointed under sub-section (1) may, if in his opinion it is necessary for the purpose of inspection or investigation, seize any or all the records including account books of the society: [Inserted by U.P. Act 11 of 1984.]Provided that any person from whose custody such records are seized shall be entitled to make copies thereof in the presence of the person having the custody of such records.](4) On the conclusion of the inspection or investigation, as the case may be, the person, if any, appointed by the Registrar to inspect or investigate shall make a report to the Registrar on the result of his inspection or investigation.(5) The Registrar may, after such inspection or investigation, give such directions to the society or to its governing body or any officer thereof, as he may think fit, for the removal of any defects or irregularities, within which as may be specified and in the event of default in taking action according to such directions, the Registrar may proceed to take action under section 12-D or section 13-B, as the case may be.25. Disputes regarding election of office-bearers.- (1) The prescribed authority may, on a reference made to it by the Registrar or by at least one-fourth of the members of a society registered in Uttar Pradesh, hear and decide in a summary manner any doubt or dispute in respect of the election or continuance in office of an office-bearer of such society, and may pass such orders in respect thereof as it deems fit."Provided that the election of an office-bearer shall be set aside where the prescribed authority is satisfied - [Inserted by U.P. Act 13 of 1978, section 4 (w.r.e.f. 27-2-1978). that any corrupt practice has been committed by such office-bearer; or(b) that the nomination of any candidate has been improperly rejected; or(c) that the result of the election insofar it concerns such office-bearer has been materially affected by the improper acceptance of any nomination or by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void or by any non-compliance with the provisions of any rules of the society.Explanation 1.- A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person -(i) induces, or attempts to induce, by fraud, intentional misrepresentation, coercion or threat of injury, any elector to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, or any person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at the election;(ii) with a view to inducing any elector to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, or to inducing any person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at the election, offers or gives any money, or valuable consideration, or any place or employment, or holds out any promise of individual advantage or profit to any person;(iii) abets (within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code) the doing of any of the acts specified in clauses (i) and (ii);(iv) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be rendered an object of divine displeasure or spiritual censure;(v) canvasses on grounds of caste, community, sect or religion;(vi) commits such other practice as the State Government may prescribe to be a corrupt practice.Explanation II.- A promise of individual advantage or profit in a person includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself, or of any one in whom he is interested.Explanation III.- The State Government may prescribe the procedure for hearing and decision of doubts or disputes in respect of such elections and make provision in respect of any other matter relating to such elections for which insufficient provision exists in this Act or in the rules of the society."](2) Where by an order made under sub-section (1), an election is set aside or an office-bearer is held no longer entitled to continue in office or where the Registrar is satisfied that any election of office-bearers of a society has not been held within the time specified in the rules of that society, he may call a meeting of the general body of such society for electing such office-bearer or office-bearers, and such meeting shall be presided over and be conducted by the Registrar or by any officer authorised by him in this behalf, and the provisions of the rules of the society relating to meetings and elections shall apply to such meeting and election with necessary modifications.(3) Where a meeting is called by the Registrar under sub-section (2), no other meeting shall be called for the purpose of election by any other authority or by any person claiming to be an office-bearer of the society.Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, the expression 'prescribed authority' means an officer or court authorised in this behalf by the State Government by notification published in the Official Gazette.26. Terms of gift to be observed.- Where a society accepts a gift or donation of money or property of any other kind from any person for a specific purpose, it shall not use the money or other property gifted or donated or any part thereof for any other purpose without the written consent of the Registrar who shall refuse such consent except when he is satisfied that the purpose for which the gift was made is incapable of execution by the society.27. Penalties.- Any person who -(a) [fails to furnish the list of managing body or other information required to be furnished under section 4 or 4-A or wilfully makes or causes to be made a false entry in, or any omission from, the list or any statement or copy of rules or of alteration in rules or other information sent to the Registrar under the said section 4 or section 4-A.] Substituted by U.P Act 11 of 1984 (30-4-1984). wilfully fails to furnish any account or statement referred to in sub-section (1) of section 23 or furnishes in compliance with the said sub-section particulars which are false and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true;(c) neglects or refuses to make its accounts or other documents available for audit as required by sub-section (3) of section 23;(d) wilfully fails to produce any books of accounts or other records as required by sub-section (2) of section 24;(e) wilfully fails to appear before the Registrar or other person appointed by him or otherwise contravenes the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 24;shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.28. Procedure.- No Court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the first class shall try an offence punishable under this Act nor shall cognizance of any such offence be taken except on a complaint made by the Registrar or any other person authorised in writing by him by general or special order in that behalf.29. Compounding of offences.- (1) The Registrar may accept from any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed any offence punishable under section 27 or against whom a prosecution under that section has been instituted, a sum of money by way of composition fee for the offence which such person is suspected or accused to have committed.(2) On the payment of such composition fee the suspected person if in custody, shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him, and if prosecution of such person had been instituted, the composition shall have the effect of his acquittal.30. Manner of payment of fees.- Fees payable under the provisions of this Act shall be paid in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.31. Indemnity.- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie in any Court against the State Government, the Registrar or against any person appointed for inspection or investigation under section 24, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder.32. Mode of service of notice, etc. by Registrar.- (1) Any notice, order or requisition meant for a society or for the governing body thereof to be issued by the Registrar may be served on the Secretary of the Society, and service on the Secretary be as effectual as if the same had been served on every member of the society or, as the case may be, on every member of the governing body thereof, unless the Registrar otherwise directs.(2) The sending of such notice, order or requisition to the Secretary of the society by registered post at its registered office shall amount to sufficient service thereof on the society.33. Power to make rules.- (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2) All rules made under this Act shall, as soon as may be, after they are made, be laid before each House of the State Legislature while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days extending in its one session or more than one successive sessions and shall unless some later date is appointed, take effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette, subject to such modifications or annulments as the two Houses of the Legislature may, during the said period agree to make, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to validity of anything previously done thereunder. [U.P. Act 52 of 1975, section 12 (10-10-1975)].
