(4) The Lokayukta Aayog shall not inquire into any complaint if the complaint is made after the expiry of five years from the date on which the action mentioned in such complaint is alleged to have been taken or if the complaint is made after a period of one year from the date of the complainant's knowledge of such cause for action.

11. Provisions relating to complaints.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a complaint stating the allegations may be made under this Act to the Lokayukta Aayog by any person other than a public servant, having personal knowledge of such allegation, in his capacity as such : Provided that, where the person aggrieved is dead or is for any reason unable to act for himself, the complaint may be made by any person who in law represents his estate or, as the case may be, by any other person who is authorized by him in this behalf. (2) Every complaint shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by such affidavits as may be prescribed. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, any letter written to the Lokayukta Aayog by a person in a police custody or in a jail or in any asylum or other place for insane persons, shall be forwarded to the addressee unopened and without delay by the police officer or other person in charge of such jail, asylum or other place and the Lokayukta Aayog may, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do, treat such letter as a complaint made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2). (4) The complainant shall deposit in such manner and with such authority or agency as may be prescribed a sum of two thousand rupees to be available for disposal under section 24: Provided that the Lokayukta Aayog may for sufficient cause to be recorded in writing exempt a complainant from the requirement of depositing the sum under this section. (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 12 or any other provision of this Act, every person who willfully or maliciously makes any false allegations in a complaint under this Act shall, on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, and shall also be liable to fine of Rs. 25,000 (twenty-five thousand rupees). (6) The offence punishable under sub-section (5) shall be cognizable.

12. Procedure in respect of investigations.

(1) Where the Lokayukta Aayog proposes, after making such preliminary inquiry as it deems fit to conduct any investigation under this Act, it - (i) shall forward a copy of the complaint or in the case of any investigation which it proposes to conduct on his own motion, a statement setting out the grounds therefor to the public functionary concerned and the competent authority concerned, (ii) shall afford to the public functionary concerned an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint or statement, and (iii) may make such orders as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as it deems fit.(2)Every such investigation shall be conducted in private and, in particular the identity of the complainant and of the public functionary affected by the investigation and the proceedings, including evidence collected, of the Lokayukta Aayog shall not be disclosed to the public or the press or published in any manner whether before, during or after the investigation:Provided that, the Lokayukta Aayog may conduct any investigation relating to a matter of definite public importance in public, if it, for reasons to be recorded in writing, thinks fit to do so.(3)Every investigation or inquiry shall be completed within a period of six months.(4)Save as aforesaid, the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such as the Lokayukta Aayog considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.(5)The Lokayukta Aayog may, in its discretion, refuse to investigate or cease to investigate any complaint, if in its opinion-(a)the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith; or(b)there are no sufficient grounds for investigating or as the case may be, for continuing the investigation; or(c)other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.(6)In any case where the Lokayukta Aayog decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint, it shall record the reasons therefor and communicate the same to the complainant and the public functionary concerned.(7)The conduct of an investigation under this Act in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of any public functionary to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.(8)Whoever discloses to the public or to the press any information or publishes such information in contravention of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine of rupees two lakhs.(9)If, at any stage of the proceeding, the Lokayukta Aayog -(a)considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person other than the prospective accused; or(b)is of opinion that the reputation of any person other than an accused is likely to be prejudicially affected by the inquiry, it shall give to that person a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the inquiry and to produce evidence in his defense, consistent with the principles of natural justice.

13. Evidence.

(1)Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purpose of investigation (including the preliminary inquiry, before such investigation) under this Act, the Lokayukta Aayog may require any public servant or any other person who in its opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation, to furnish any such information or produce any such document.(2)For the purpose of any such investigation (including the preliminary inquiry), the Lokayukta Aayog shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,(5 of 1908.) in respect of the following matters, namely:-(a)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person by issuing summons or warrants and examining him on oath;(b)requiring the discovery and production of any document;(c)receiving evidence on affidavits;(d)requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;(e)issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;(f)such other matters as may be prescribed:Provided that a warrant issued under sub-section (1) shall for all purposes, be deemed to be a warrant issued by a court under section 93 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973,(2 of 1974.).(3)The Lokayukta Aayog shall have power to require any person subject to the provisions of sub-section (8) to furnish information on such points or matters as in the opinion of the Lokayukta Aayog may be useful for or relevant to, the subject matter of the inquiry and any person so required shall be deemed to be legally bound to furnish such information within the meaning of section 176 and section 177 of the Indian Penal Code.(4)The Lokayukta or the Up-Lokayukta or any Gazetted Officer specially authorized in this behalf by the Lokayukta Aayog may enter any building or place where it has reason to believe that any books of account or other documents relating to the subject matter of the inquiry may be found, and may seize any such books of account or documents or take extracts or copies there from, subject to the provisions of section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 in so far as they may be applicable.(5)The Lokayukta Aayog shall be deemed to be a Civil Court and when any offence as is described in section 175, section 178, section 179 or section 180 of the Indian Penal Code is committed in the view or presence of the Lokayukta Aayog, the Lokayukta may, after recording the facts constituting the offence and the statement of the accused as provided for in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 forward the case to a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the same and the Magistrate to whom any such case is forwarded shall proceed to hear the complaint against the accused as if the case had been forwarded to him under section 346 of the Code of the Criminal Procedure, 1973.(6)Any proceeding before the Lokayukta Aayog shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.(7)Subject to the provisions of sub-section (8), no obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information obtained by or furnished to the State Government or any public servant, whether imposed by any enactment or by any rule under the enactment shall apply to the disclosure of information for the purpose of any investigation under this Act and the State Government or any public servant shall not be entitled in relation to any such investigation to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by any enactment or by any rule under the enactment in legal proceedings.(8)(i)No person shall be required or authorized by virtue of this Act to furnish any such information or answer any such question or produce an document,-(a)as might prejudice the security or defense or international relations of India (including India's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organization), or the investigation or detection of crime; or(b)as might involve the disclosure of proceedings, other than the decision, of the Cabinet or Council of Ministers of the State Government or any committee thereof, if any;and for the purpose of this sub-section, a certificate issued by the Chief Secretary certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document is of the nature specified in clause (a) or clause (b), shall be binding and conclusive.(ii)For the purpose of investigation under this Act, no person shall be compelled to give any evidence or produce any document, which he could not be compelled to give or produce in proceedings before a court.

14. Report of Lokayukta Aayog in case of the Minister.

(1)If after investigation of any action in respect of which a complaint involving an allegation has been made against a Minister or against a Minister in conjunction with any other public functionary, the Lokayukta Aayog is satisfied that such allegation can be substantiated either wholly or partly against the Minister, it shall, by a report in writing, communicate its findings, alongwith the relevant documents, materials and other evidence, to the Chief Minister.(2)On receipt of the report under sub-section (1), the Chief Minister shall, without any delay, cause the same to be placed before the Council of Ministers for its consideration, in its original form. The Council of Ministers shall accept or reject the report or any part thereof as it may decide. As per the decision of the Council of Ministers, the State Government shall take appropriate action.

15. Findings and recommendations to be communicated to competent authority by a report.

(1) If, in any case to which section 14 does not apply, the Lokayukta Aayog, after investigation of any action in respect of which a complaint involving an allegation has been or can be or could have been made, is satisfied that such allegation can be substantiated, either wholly or partly, it shall by a report in writing, communicate its findings alongwith the relevant documents, materials and other evidence, to the competent authority. (2) The competent authority shall examine the report forwarded to it under sub-section (1) and intimate, within seven months of the date of receipt of the report to the Lokayukta Aayog as to the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of the report.

16. Report of Lokayukta Aayog, competent authority to act in a time bound manner.

(1) (i) Where, after conclusion of an investigation or an inquiry, the Lokayukta Aayog is satisfied that the complaint involving an allegation against a public functionary falling under sub-clause (a) of clause (10) of section 2 is substantiated and arrives at a finding that the public functionary concerned should not continue to hold the post held by him, the Lokayukta Aayog shall make a declaration to that effect in its report. Where the competent authority is the Council of Ministers or the Chief Secretary, it / he may either accept or reject the declaration, for reasons to be recorded in writing and communicated to the Lokayukta Aayog, within a period of six months. In other cases, the competent authority shall send a copy of such report to the State Government, which may either accept or reject the declaration within a period of one year from the date of receipt of the report, or the copy of the report, as the case may be. If, on the expiry of specified period in this sub-section, no decision is taken on the declaration then such declaration shall be deemed to have been accepted. (ii) If the declaration so made is accepted or is deemed to have been accepted, the fact of such acceptance or the deemed acceptance shall immediately be intimated by registered post by the State Government or the Chief Minister or the Chief Secretary, if any of them is the competent authority, and by the State Government in other cases then, notwithstanding anything contained in any law, order, notification, rule or contract of appointment, the public functionary concerned shall, with effect from the date of intimation of such acceptance or of the deemed acceptance of the declaration, (a) if he is a Minister, resign from his office of Minister; (b) if he is not a Minister, be deemed to have vacated his office. (2) (i) Where, after conclusion of an investigation or an inquiry, the Lokayukta Aayog is satisfied that the complaint involving an allegation against a public functionary falling under sub-clause (b) of clause (10) of section 2 is substantiated and arrives at a finding that the public functionary concerned should be proceeded against under the relevant Disciplinary and Appeal Rules as may be applicable, the Lokayukta Aayog shall make a declaration to that effect in its report. (ii) The competent authority shall accept or reject the declaration within a period of six months from such receipt. If the competent authority fails to accept or reject the declaration within six months time then departmental proceedings shall be deemed to have been instituted against the concerned public functionary.(3)Every departmental proceeding initiated under a report of the Lokayukta Aayog shall be completed within a period of twelve months from the date of acceptance or deemed acceptance of declaration.

17. Annual report of Lokayukta Aayog.

(1)The Lokayukta Aayog shall present, in such form as may be prescribed by the State Government in consultation with the Lokayukta Aayog, annually a consolidated report of the performance of its functions under this Act to the Governor, and the Governor shall, on receipt of such report, cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before the State Legislature.(2)Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 12, the Lokayukta Aayog may at his discretion make available from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by the Lokayukta Aayog which may appear to him to be of general public, academic or professional interest in such manner and to such persons as he may deem appropriate.(3)The Lokayukta shall prepare a report on utilization of financial resources at its disposal and shall present it to the Governor, who shall cause it to be laid before the legislative assembly of the State. The report shall not be open to any debate within the assembly.

18. Staff of Lokayukta.

(1)There shall be such officers and employees as may be prescribed to assist the Lokayukta and the Up-Lokayukta as in the discharge of their functions under this Act.(2)The categories, recruitment and conditions of service of the officers and employees referred in sub-section (1) including such special conditions as may be necessary for enabling them to act without fear in the discharge of their functions, shall be such as may be prescribed in consultation with the Lokayukta Aayog.(3)Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Lokayukta Aayog may, for the purpose of conducting investigations under this Act, request the services of any officer or investigation agency of the State Government. The State Government may, having regard to administrative exigencies, make available such officer/s or agency as deemed fit for the purpose of that specific investigation :Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to mean a permanent allocation of such officer/s or agency to the Lokayukta Aayog.(4)For the purpose of investigating into any matter, any officer, agency or person whose services are utilised under sub-section (3) may, subject to the direction of the Lokayukta Aayog, -(a)summon and enforce the attendance of any person and examine him;(b)require the discovery and production of any document; and(c)requisition any public record or copy thereof from any office.(5)The provisions of sections 13 and 19 shall apply in relation to any information furnished to any officer, agency or person whose services are utilised under sub-section (3) as they apply in relation to the information furnished to the Lokayukta Aayog during the course of the investigation of any action by him.

19. Secrecy of information.
