Karnataka Advocates' Welfare Fund Act, 1983(Karnataka Act No. 2 of 1985)Last Updated 14th December, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act 2 of 1985). - Although here and there a few men in the legal profession have been flourishing in their profession , the economic condition of a very large section of the members of the legal profession has been far from satisfactory.

Representation have been received among others, from the Bar Council of India for constituting a Legal Benefit Fund. The twin objects are providing efficient legal service to the people of the State and social security to the legal profession by providing for payment of a lumpsum amount after the cessation of practice by the members and also for payment of certain amount to their dependents if they were to die while still in practice. It is therefore proposed to constitute an Advocates Welfare Fund and a Legal Benefit Fund for the purpose. The Advocates' Welfare Fund is proposed to be constituted out of among other emolument, fees and voluntary contribution and grants from Government, the receipts from Welfare Fund Stamps which the Bar Council is empowered to issue and which are compulsorily to be affixed to the Vakalathnamas.The Legal Benefit Fund is proposed to be constituted by levy of additional court fee on appeals and revisions before Tribunals other than Civil Courts at the rate not exceeding Rs. 100/- per appeal or revision.Hence the Bill.(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary), Part IV 2-A, dated 12th day of August 1983, No.718)Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Amending Act 21 of 1993). - It is considered necessary to make certain amendments to the Karnataka Advocates Welfare Fund Act, 1983, for the following purposes, -(1) to make membership of the Fund compulsory;(2) instead of annual subscription to the fund an amount of rupees one hundred is to be collected, as one time admission fee;(3) provision regarding payment of twenty percent of enrolment fee to the Welfare Fund is being omitted;(4) on account of voluntary retirement due to old age, an advocate would be entitled to receive, from the fund at the rate of rupees one thousand for every year of practice subject to rupees fifty thousand and not in accordance with the Schedule which is being omitted and for permanent disability, an advocate would receive a lumpsum of rupees fifty thousand, irrespective of number of years of practice;(5) certain categories of advocates are excluded from the scheme of the fund; 116 Advocates Welfare Fund.(6) an Advocate's Family Welfare Fund is proposed to be constituted for payment of rupees one lakh on the death of an advocate who is a member of the Fund to his nominee or legal heir. Hence the Bill. (Obtained from L.A. Bill No. 17 of 1993) Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Amending Act 6 of 1996). - It is considered necessary to make the following amendments to the Karnataka Advocates' Welfare Fund Act, 1983 for effective implementation of the provisions of the Act, - (1) Membership fee is being enhanced from rupees one hundred to one thousand. (2) The benefit of payment of rupees fifty thousand to a member on cessation of practice due to permanent disability is proposed to be extended to the nominee or legal heirs in the event of death of a member. (3) Value of Welfare Fund stamps is being enhanced from rupees two to rupees five and it is made mandatory on the part of every Advocate to affix such stamps on every vakalat filed by him. (4) Every designated Senior Advocate will be required to contribute rupees Two Thousand Five hundred per year to the Welfare Fund. (5) It is also proposed to provide that any contributions made by the Government shall be credited to Family Welfare Fund. Hence the Bill. (Obtained from L.A. Bill No. 6 of 1996) Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Amending Act 18 of 2002). - It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Advocates Welfare Fund Act, 1983, - (i) to make the Chairman of the Karnataka State Bar Council as the Chairman of the Trustee Committee in place of the Advocate General and to continue the Advocate General as a member Ex-officio; (ii) to make the Secretary, Department of Law, Government of Karnataka to be a member Ex-officio. (iii) to make the Vice-Chairman of the Bar council to be the Treasurer of the Trustee Committee. (iv) to reduce the time limit from three months to one month in respect of a notice required to be issued by a nominated member of trustee committee who intends to resign his office. (v) to reduce the time limit from the existing five months to three months for disposal of application received by the Trustee Committee for payment of amount out of the fund; (vi) to enable the Chairman of the of the Trustee Committee to act as Treasurer. (vii) to allow membership of the fund to all the Advocates by removing the restriction placed on certain categories of Advocates practice subject to a maximum of rupees one lakh fifty thousand. 1985: KAR. ACT 2] Advocates Welfare Fund 117 (viii) to require every advocate enrolled as such and has become a member after 1997 to make declaration in the fifth year and tenth year of his becoming member.
