(1) Meetings of the Governing Body may be held as and when required. However, the Governing Body shall meet once every quarter and hold at least four meetings in a financial year. (2) A clear notice of three days of every such meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the Governing Body to the office bearers before the date appointed for the meeting. However, the Governing Body may meet at shorter notice, wherever so required, with the consent of at least fifty percent of its members.

37. Record of proceedings of meetings of General Body or Collegium and the Governing Body.

(1) The Society shall maintain record of the minutes of proceedings of every meeting of the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, and every meeting of its Governing Body in the proceedings books separately maintained for this purpose. Such minutes shall be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the meeting. (2) In case the minutes of the meeting are not signed by the Chairman for any reasons, whatsoever, the Governing Body may authorize any of the officebearer to sign such minutes. (3) The minutes of every meeting of the Governing Body or the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, shall be placed for confirmation in the succeeding meeting of such body. (4) Any resolution passed by the Governing Body or the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, during any of its meetings, which is not consistent with the provisions of the Act or the rules framed thereunder or the Byelaws, shall be invalid. (5) No act or proceedings of a Society or any of its office bearer shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground of any vacancy or defect in the organisation of the Society

38. Notice to accompany copies of balance sheet and auditors report etc.

- Every Society shall supply a copy of the balance-sheet or a statement of accounts together with the auditor's report to every member of the General Body or the Collegium, as the case may be, alongwith the notice of the annual general meeting, unless these documents have been placed on the website of the Society. Chapter-VIII Elections

39. Elections and settlement of disputes.

(1) Elections shall be first held for the constitution of the Collegium from within the electoral colleges determined therefor, wherever applicable, and thereafter for the Governing Body by the Collegium. (2) The process of elections of the Collegium of a Society shall be commenced, in so far as possible, three months prior to the due date so that the newly elected Governing Body is in place on or before the due date.(3)On the day the elections of a Society are notified, the Governing Body or the adhoc body or the Administrator, as the case may be, shall publish the list of members entitled to vote. Such list of members shall be made available to a member on demand, on payment of such fee, as may be prescribed by the Society in its Bye-laws.(4)Any person or group of persons, if aggrieved with the list of members published under sub-section (3) above on account of non-inclusion or wrongful inclusion of any member, may file a petition with the District Registrar stating the specific grounds of challenge within a period of fifteen days of publication of the list of members. The District Registrar may, where the number of members is very large and for reasons to be recorded, accept the petition within an extended period of seven days.(5)The District Registrar may, if he has reasons to suspect the bonafides of any such petition, require the petitioners to deposit such amount, as prescribed, as a surety against any abuse of sub-section (4) above. The amount deposited by the petitioners shall be refunded forthwith if the petition succeeds but shall be liable to be forfeited, if such petition is found to have been made without any merits.(6)Where a petition is filed before the District Registrar under subsection(4)above, the District Registrar shall, after fulfillment of the condition specified under sub-section (5), immediately hold the election process in abeyance and proceed to conduct an inquiry by himself or by an officer appointed by him, in this behalf, for determining the list of eligible members.(7)The District Registrar may, for the purpose of his inquiry, refer to the annual return of members filed by the Governing Body in his office and consult any or all the relevant records of the Society. The District Registrar shall enjoy all the powers vested in him under Chapter XII of the Act for holding the inquiry. Any such inquiry shall be conducted in the open and completed in a summary manner.(8)Upon completion of the inquiry under sub-section (6) above, the District Registrar shall determine the list of members eligible to vote, make it public and set the process of election in motion. Where the initial list of members published under sub-section (3) above is found to be defective during the inquiry, the election of the Collegium or the Governing Body, as the case may be, shall be conducted by the District Registrar under his direct supervision and control after settling the dispute as per the provisions of the Act.(9)Where elections of the Governing Body are held by the members of the General Body, without requirement of a Collegium, any challenge to the list of members of the General Body shall be settled by the District Registrar in the same manner, as specified above.(10)Where the elections of the Governing Body are not held by the due date, for whatsoever reasons, the District Registrar may constitute an adhoc Committee or appoint an Administrator to manage the affairs of the Society, immediately upon the expiry of the due date, for the intervening period and for conducting the elections of the Governing Body.(11)A Society may approach the District Registrar for appointment of the returning officer and/or an observer for conducting the elections of the Collegium or the Governing Body, as the case may be, whereupon the District Registrar shall order the appointment of the returning officer and/or an observer within seven working days of the receipt of such request from the Governing Body or the adhoc Committee or the Administrator, as the case may be.(12)The returning officer appointed by the District Registrar shall ensure a minimum notice of fifteen days to all the members, served individually where possible, or though a public notice, at the expense of the Society, for the information of the members.(13)The returning officer and/or the observer, wherever appointed, shall complete the process of elections, and submit a report thereof to the District Registrar, whereupon the duly elected Governing Body shall be placed in charge of the affairs of the Society and the appointment of any adhoc Committee or the Administrator shall cease to continue forthwith.(14)The District Registrar may fix the remuneration or honorarium for the person appointed as the Administrator, the returning officer, the observer or member of adhoc Committee in the manner and at the rates prescribed from time to time.

40. Settlement of disputes arising from election of Collegium or Governing Body and its office-bearers.

(1)The Registrar, on a reference made to him by the District Registrar or by at least one-fourth of the members of the General Body or the Collegium, as the case may be, hear and decide in a summary manner any doubt or dispute in respect of the election or continuance in office of any elected member or office bearer to the Collegium or Governing Body, as the case may be, and may pass such orders in respect thereof, as he deems appropriate:Provided that the election of any or all the members of the Collegium or the office-bearers of the Governing Body shall be set aside where the Registrar is satisfied,(i)that any corrupt practice has been committed by such office-bearer (s); or(ii)that the nomination of any candidate has been improperly rejected; or(iii)that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns such office-bearer, has been materially affected by the improper acceptance of any nomination or by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void or does not comply with the provisions of any Bye-law.Explanation I. - A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice who, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person-(i)induces or attempts to induce, by fraud, intentional misrepresentation, coercion or threat of injury to any elector to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, or any person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at the election;(ii)with a view to inducing any elector to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, or to induce any person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at the election, offers or gives any money, or valuable consideration, or any place or employment, or holds out any promise of individual advantage or profit to any person;(iii)abets the doing of any of the acts specified in clauses (i) and (ii);(iv)induces or attempts to induce a candidate or elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be rendered an object of divine displeasure or spiritual censure;(v)canvasses on grounds of caste, community, sect or religion;(vi)commits such other practice as the Government may prescribe to be a corrupt practice.Explanation II. - A promise of individual advantage or profit to a person includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself, or for anyone in whom he is interested.(2)The Government may, prescribe the procedure for hearing and deciding of doubts or disputes in respect of such elections and make provision in respect of any other matter relating to such elections, for which insufficient provision exists in the Act or in the rules framed thereunder.(3)Where by an order made under sub-section (1), an election to the Collegium or the Governing Body is set aside or an office-bearer is held no longer entitled to continue in office or where the Registrar is satisfied that any election of office-bearer of a Society has not been held within the time and in accordance with the Bye-laws, he may cause a meeting of the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, convened for electing such office-bearer or office-bearers, and such meeting shall be presided over and conducted by the District Registrar or by any officer authorized by the Registrar in this behalf, and the provisions of the Bye-laws relating to meetings and elections shall apply to such meeting and election with necessary modifications.(4)Where a meeting of the General Body or the Collegium, as the case may be, is convened on the orders of the Registrar under sub-section (3), no other meeting shall be called for the purpose of election by any other authority or by any person claiming to be an office-bearer of the Society.

Chapter-XII Inquiry and Supersession of the Governing Body

52. Powers to call for information or explanation.

(1) The Registrar General, Registrar or District Registrar may, by written order, require any Society to furnish in writing such information or document or explanation as prescribed in the order within such time, not being less than two weeks from the date of receipt of such order. (2) On receipt of the order, it shall be the duty of the Society to furnish such information or documents or explanation.

53. Powers to seize records etc.

(1) Where the Registrar General, Registrar or District Registrar is satisfied that, -(i) the records, registers or the books of accounts are likely to be tampered with or destroyed and the funds and the property are likely to be misappropriated or misapplied; or (ii) the Governing Body is reconstituted at a general meeting and the outgoing members of the Governing Body refused, to hand-over charge of the records and property of the Society to those entitled to receive such charge; or (iii) the office bearer, where the elections of the Governing Body have not been held by the due date, are likely to misuse such documents, funds, records or are reluctant to hand over the records to an adhoc Committee or the Administrator appointed for managing the affairs of the Society as an interim measure, he may issue an order directing a person duly authorised by him in writing to seize and take possession of such document, funds, records and property whereupon the office bearer responsible for custody of such documents, record, funds and property shall give delivery thereof to the person so authorised. (2) In order to secure compliance of the order under sub-section (1), the District Registrar may take or cause to be taken such steps and use or cause to be used such minimum force, including police force, as may be considered necessary.

54. Power to inquire.

(1) Where on the information received or gathered under section 52 or on the application of a majority of the office bearers or on the application of not less than one-third of the members of the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, or, if so moved by the District Collector or the State Government, the Registrar General, Registrar or District registrar is of opinion that there is apprehension that the affairs of a Society are being so conducted as to defeat the aims and objects of the Society or its Governing Body is guilty of mismanaging its affairs or of any breach of fiduciary or other like obligations or to defraud its creditors, he may, either himself or by any person authorized by him in that behalf, hold an inquiry into the affairs of the Society. (2) An application or reference to the Registrar General, Registrar or District Registrar under sub-section (1) shall be supported by such evidence, as he may require for the purpose of showing that the applicant has good reason for applying for an inquiry. (3) The District Registrar may require the applicants to furnish such security as he thinks fit as the cost of the proposed inquiry, before the inquiry is ordered. (4) All expenses incidental or preliminary to the inquiry shall, where such inquiry is held, (a) on application, be defrayed by the applicants thereof or out of the assets of the Society or by the members of the Society, in such proportion as the District Registrar may, by order in writing direct; and (b) on a reference from the District Collector or the Government or the District Registrars, own motion, be defrayed out of the assets of the Society and shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue. (5) A person holding an inquiry shall have, at all reasonable times, free access to all the documents and shall have power to call upon any office bearer or officer to produce any of the document, as he may direct. (6) It shall be the duty of all office bearers or officers, who were or are holding office, to furnish the Inquiry Officer with all the information or document in their possession. (7) A person holding an inquiry may summon and examine any person on oath who, he has reason to believe, has knowledge of any affairs of the Society and may summon any person to produce any books of accounts or documents belonging to him or in his custody, if the person holding the inquiry has reason to believe that such books of accounts or documents contain any entries relating to transactions of the Society. (8) A person holding an inquiry may, if in his opinion it is necessary for the purpose of inquiry, seize any or all the documents: Provided that any person from whose custody such documents are seized shall be entitled to a receipt thereof and make copies thereof. (9) If the inquiry is held by a person other than the District Registrar then he shall send the report to the District Registrar and the District Registrar shall make a report to the Registrar alongwith his recommendations. If the inquiry is held by the District Registrar himself, he shall forward the report to the Registrar alongwith his recommendations. (10) The inquiry report shall be communicated to the Society and the applicants, if any.

55. Action on Inquiry report.

- The Registrar shall consider the inquiry report alongwith the recommendations of the District Registrar, if any, and take any of the following steps, (i) where no irregularities, whatsoever, of procedural or material nature, are found to have been committed by the Governing Body, he shall order closure of the inquiry alongwith information thereof to the Society and complainants, if any; or (ii) where the irregularities or violations committed by the Society are found to be of procedural nature, which are rectifiable, he shall direct the Society to take recourse to such corrective measures within such time, as he may direct: Provided that where a Society fails to carry out the directions, the Registrar shall forward the matter to the Registrar General along with his recommendations for appropriate action against the Society; or (iii) where the irregularities or violations committed by the Society are found to be of a serious or material nature (e.g. relating to memberships, financial mis-management or financial irregularities or fraud or subversion of the objects of the Society), the Registrar shall forward the matter to the Registrar General along with his recommendations for appropriate action against the Society; or (iv) pass any other appropriate order to meet the ends of justice.

56. Supersession of Governing Body and appointment of Administrator.

(1) On receipt of report or recommendations of the Registrar, if the Registrar General is of the opinion that a case is made out for supersession of the Governing Body, he shall issue a show cause notice of the action proposed to be taken in this regard and consider the response of the Society, and grant an opportunity of hearing, if so requested. (2) The Registrar General, after considering the reply, shall pass an order and may appoint an Administrator to manage the affairs of the Society with such directions as deemed appropriate. The orders passed by the Registrar General in this behalf shall be final and absolute. (3) The Administrator shall be a Class-I officer or of equivalent rank in the Service of the Government or any statutory authority or such person who may have retired from a Class I or equivalent position from the State or the Central Government or a statutory authority. (4) Where a retired person is appointed as the Administrator, the Registrar General may also fix the honorarium or remuneration to be paid to the Administrator during the course of his appointment at the prescribed rates and direct such expenditure to be defrayed out of the funds of the Society. (5) The Administrator may be appointed under sub-section (3) above for a period which shall not exceed one year in the first instance but whose term may be extended for such further period, as considered necessary, subject to the same not exceeding three years in total. (6) On the appointment of the Administrator, the Governing Body shall cease to exercise any powers and perform and discharge any functions or duties conferred or imposed on it under the Act or the Bye-laws. The Administrator shall exercise all the powers of the Governing Body and perform all such functions or duties during the course of his appointment as provided in the Bye-laws, subject to any directions from the Registrar General. (7) The Administrator shall, before the expiry of his term, take necessary action to hold the election of the Collegium or the Governing Body, if so required. (8) If the Administrator is, for reasons beyond his control, not able to hold the election of the Collegium or fails to convene a meeting of the General Body, as the case may be, or in spite of such meeting having been convened, the General Body or Collegium, as the case may be, fails to elect the Governing Body, the Administrator shall forthwith send a report to the Registrar General who may pass such orders, as may be considered expedient, either extending the term of appointment of the Administrator for a further period or, if satisfied that public interest so necessitates, for the dissolution of the Society. (9) The Registrar General may, if he thinks appropriate, appoint a committee to advise and assist the Administrator so appointed for exercise of the powers and discharge of the duties and functions conferred or imposed on him under the Act. The members of the committee shall have such qualifications, as may be prescribed and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Registrar General. (10) Where an order of dissolution is passed, further action shall be taken in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Act.

Suspension, Cancellation and Dissolution

57. Removal of defunct Society and cancellation of their registration.

(1)The District Registrar, in case he has reasonable cause to believe that a Society is defunct and is not carrying on business or operations, shall issue a show cause notice to such Society, at its registered office enquiring as to whether it is carrying on its business or operations and directing them to file such documents or returns, within a period of ninety days, from the date of issue of notice.(2)Where the defunct Society responds to such notice within specified period and submits the requisite documents or informs alongwith evidence that it is carrying on business or operations, the District Registrar shall, after due verification of records, pass an appropriate order.(3)If the District Registrar receives a reply from the defunct Society to the effect that it is not carrying on any business or operations, he may direct the Society to convene a meeting of its General Body and pass a special resolution for its dissolution after settling all its liabilities and thereafter apply for dissolution of the Society, whereupon it shall be incumbent upon such Society to carry out such directions, within specified period.(4)Where the District Registrar does not receive any reply within specified period, he shall cause a public notice to be issued stating that on the expiration of such period, as may be specified in such notice, the registration of such defunct Society shall be suspended.(5)If no response is received from the defunct Society, its member, creditor or claimant within the specified period, the District Registrar shall order suspension of registration of such Society and after passing of such order, the Society shall not be competent to carry on any business.(6)An order under sub-section (5) suspending the registration of the Society shall be notified through a public notice for the information of general public.(7)The Society, member, creditor or claimant aggrieved with the suspension, may, within a period of three months from the date of order of suspension, submit a representation to the District Registrar.(8)The District Registrar, on being satisfied that the Society at the time of its suspension, was carrying on business or operations or otherwise and it is just and equitable that the name of the Society be restored to the register, may revoke the suspension.(9)The Society whose registration is restored shall be deemed to have continued in existence as if its registration had not been suspended.(10)No claims, whatsoever, shall be valid and entertained against a Society whose registration is suspended on expiry of a period of three months from the date of suspension of its registration.(11)If no representation against the suspension order is received within a period of three months from the date of suspension of registration, the District Registrar may, unless contrary is shown, strike off the name of the Society from the register and cancel its registration.

58. Cancellation of Registration of a Society with no assets and liabilities.

- A Society, which has no assets or liabilities to its account and is not desirous of carrying on with its business or operations, may, after passing a special resolution, apply for cancellation of its registration to the District Registrar and the District Registrar shall, after giving a public notice of not less than ninety days inviting objections, strike out its name from the register of Societies, after considering objections, if any.

59. Cancellation of registration upon inquiry.

(1)The Registrar may, if he is satisfied,(i)that the Society has contravened any of the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder; or(ii)that the Society is insolvent, or must necessarily become so; or(iii)that the business of any such Society is conducted fraudulently or not in accordance with its Bye-laws or the aims and objects specified in its Memorandum; or(iv)that it is carrying on any unlawful activity or allowing unlawful activity to be carried on in the premises under its control, order an inquiry to be conducted by the District Registrar or any other officer authorized by him.(2)On receipt of inquiry report, the Registrar may, give a show cause notice to the Society specifying briefly the grounds of the proposed cancellation. A public notice inviting objections shall also be published after giving an opportunity to the Society and after issuing public notice inviting objections why the registration of the Society be not cancelled. After considering the objections filed by Society and public, the Registrar may cancel the registration.Explanation. - For purposes of this section, an activity shall be deemed to be unlawful if such activity is an offence punishable under any provision of law, for the time being in force.

60. Effect of cancellation.

- When the registration of a Society is cancelled, the Society shall forthwith cease to carry on its business, except in so far as it may be required for the beneficial winding-up of its affairs, for which purpose it shall pass a special resolution and dissolve itself in the manner as provided in the Act:Provided that the liability of office bearer shall continue and may be enforced as if the registration of Society has not been cancelled.

61. Dissolution on directions by Registrar.

(1)Where the registration of a Society is cancelled, the District Registrar shall,-(i)direct the Society to complete the process of its dissolution i.e. pass a special resolution, collect all its receivables, and settle all its liabilities, provide the details of any of its assets left over after settlement of the liabilities, and submit a proposal for transfer of its left over assets to any other Society in existence with identical aims and objects;(ii)assess the credentials of a Society to whom any such assets are proposed to be transferred by the Society under clause (i) above and may either approve such proposal or direct the Society to place such assets at the disposal of the District Collector;(iii)constitute a committee of members of such Society to carry out the process of dissolution of the Society where there is no Governing Body or General Body to carry out the directions under (i) above;(iv)be competent to complete the dissolution of the affairs of the Society of his own or by appointing any of his subordinates to do the needful where it is not found feasible to constitute a committee of members of such Society. He shall associate any two members from any other Society in existence for the purpose.(2)If on dissolution and after settlement of all the liabilities, a Society is left with any moveable or immovable assets, the District Registrar shall, in the first instance, make efforts to transfer all such assets to any other Society in existence with identical aims and objects in operation against a proper receipt, failing which, all such assets shall vest in the custody of the District Collector.(3)Where any assets are placed at the disposal of the District Collector, he may either direct the transfer thereof to a Society in operation with identical aims and objects or use such assets preferably for the same purpose or for any other public purpose.

62. Dissolution by special resolution.

(1)A Society may resolve to dissolve itself by passing a special resolution in a meeting of the General Body or the Collegium, as the case may be, convened for the purpose.(2)On the passing of the special resolution under sub-section (1) above, the Governing Body shall take all necessary steps for settlement of all claims and liabilities, as it may consider appropriate in accordance with its Bye-laws and if there are no Bye-laws, in accordance with the provisions of the Act.(3)If any dispute arises amongst the members of the Society, the Governing Body, or the special committee, as the case may be, regarding the winding up of the affairs of the Society, it shall be referred to the District Registrar for such directions, as he may consider appropriate:Provided that the special resolution for dissolution of the Society shall not be deemed to be a matter in dispute.(4)If the Central Government or Government or any of its instrumentalities is a member of or a contributory to or otherwise interested in any Society, such Society shall not be dissolved without the consent of the Central Government or Government, as the case may be.(5)After all necessary steps have been completed, the Governing Body shall send a report to the District Registrar, mentioning about the surplus assets, if any.(6)The District Registrar shall thereupon cause a public notice issued at the expense of the Society inviting objections from any person interested in the affairs of such Society within the period specified in the notice, which shall in no case be less than three months.(7)If no objection is received from any claimant, creditor or member of the Society within three months from the date of issue of such public notice, and after the surplus assets, if any, have been disposed of as provided in the Act, the District Registrar shall make an order confirming the dissolution and thereupon the Society shall stand dissolved. The District Registrar shall record the order of dissolution in the register maintained in his office and strike off the name of the Society from the register of Society.(8)If any objection is received from any claimant or creditor or member or any other interested person within the period as aforesaid, the Registrar shall not make an order confirming the dissolution of the Society unless he is satisfied that the relevant claim or liability have been duly settled and the surplus assets, if any, have been disposed of as provided in the Act.

63. Dissolution by Registrar.

(1)Where the registration of a Society is cancelled and it is found to be meriting dissolution under section 57 or where the Government decides to dissolve a Society under section 62, the Registrar General or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order dissolution of such Society in accordance with the procedure specified under the relevant sections.(2)Upon dissolution of a Society under sub-section (1) above, the Registrar General or the Registrar or the District Registrar, as the case may be, shall take action for winding-up the affairs of the dissolved Society in accordance with the provisions contained in the Act.

64. Disposal of assets.

(1)Where any surplus assets are left after the settlement of its claims and liabilities, such assets shall not be paid to or distributed amongst the members of the Society but shall be taken over and vest in the custody of Government: Provided that in case a Society is registered for the purposes of the Haryana Apartment Ownership Act, 1983 (Act 10 of 1983), a housing Society or a resident welfare association registered as a Society for the operation, management and maintenance of facilities for the residents or civic amenities of any defined area, the successor-in-interest shall step in the shoes of original member subject to fulfillment of qualifications as laid down in the Bye-laws of the Society and the provisions of the Act. (2) The Government shall place such assets at the disposal of the District Collector, who may, - (i) in the first instance identify any other Society in operation with identical aims and objects and transfer such assets to such Society; or (ii) use such assets, preferably for the purpose for which such assets were created, or for any other public purpose, as deemed appropriate.

65. District Registrar to make up account after winding up of Society.

(1) As soon as the affairs of a Society are completely wound-up, the District Registrar or his nominee, if any, shall make up an account of the winding-up showing how the winding up has been conducted and the property of the Society has been disposed and call a General Body meeting for the purpose of placing before it the account and giving any explanation in respect thereof. On conclusion, the Society shall stand dissolved and name removed from the register. (2) The records of accounts shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date of dissolution. In case any matter pertaining to any such Society is pending before any court, such records shall be maintained till the final disposal by the competent court.

66. Chapter to override other provisions of Act.

- The provisions of this Chapter shall be applicable to State Aided Society and shall have effect notwithstanding anything contrary contained in the Act or any other State law for the time being in force and any reference to the word Society in this Chapter shall mean a State Aided Society.

67. Powers of the Government to issue directions.

- The Government shall have the powers to issue such directions to a State Aided Society, as may be considered expedient from time to time, with regard to the management of its affairs, membership, elections, financial management, audit and submission of documents on their working to the District Registrar or the Registrar.

68. Supersession of Governing Body and appointment of Administrator.

(1) If, in the opinion of the Government, the Governing Body of any Society, - (i) makes default or is negligent in the performance of duties imposed on it; or (ii) commits acts which are prejudicial to the interests of the Society, its members or public at large; or (iii) fails to resolve disputes with regard to the eligibility of members; or (iv) fails to hold elections of the Governing Body; or (v) is otherwise not functioning properly, it may, after giving a show cause notice, direct the supersession of the Governing Body and appoint an Administrator, alongwith or without constitution of committee of persons to assist him for a period not exceeding two years in the first instance: Provided that the period may be extended and continued at the request of Administrator but it shall not exceed five years in continuity. (2) The Administrator shall, subject to the overall control of the Registrar General and such directions as may be received from him, have the powers to exercise all or any of the functions of the Governing Body of the Society and take action as may be required for proper management of the Society. (3) The Administrator so appointed shall, before the expiry of his term, make efforts to arrange for the constitution of the Collegium, if applicable and the Governing Body, as the case may be, in accordance with the Bye-laws, provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder. (4) The Registrar General may fix the honorarium or remuneration payable to the Administrator or the member of the committee with the approval of the Government and direct such expenditure to be defrayed out of the funds of the Society.

69. Dissolution.

(1) The Government may, after giving a show cause notice and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order dissolution of a Society with effect from such date, as may be specified in the order. (2) Where the Governing Body stands superseded under section 68 and the affairs are being managed by an Administrator appointed by the Government and the Administrator reports to the Government that it is not feasible to hold the elections of the Governing Body, for whatsoever reasons, it shall be competent for the Government, by an order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, to dissolve the Society with effect from such date as may be specified in the order.

70. Effect of dissolution.

(1) If the Government orders dissolution, it shall, after settling the liabilities, if any, of the dissolved Society, take over its assets and properties, whether movable or immovable and transfer the same to any other Society having identical or similar objects, and where there is no such Society, the property shall vest in the custody of District Collector, until a Society having identical or similar objects is formed, where after the properties shall be transferred to such Society. (2) On the dissolution of a Society, the registration of the Society shall stand cancelled and it shall cease to exist as a body corporate.

71. Powers to divide or amalgamate State Aided Societies.

(1) Where, in the opinion of the Government, it is necessary and in larger public interest to divide a Society or amalgamate two or more Societies, it may, by order and from a date fixed therein, direct the division or amalgamation of such Societies, as the case may be. (2) The Government shall, before issuing an order either dividing a Society or amalgamating two or more Societies under sub-section (1) above, communicate to the Governing Body or bodies concerned the proposal to divide or to amalgamate the Societies, as the case may be, fix a reasonable time for the Governing Body or bodies for making a representation against the proposal and consider the representations, if any, received from the body or bodies. (3) Where there is no duly elected Governing Body in place in respect of any one or more of such Societies and the affairs of any such Society are being managed by an Administrator or through any adhoc arrangement and there is a situation of deadlock or stalemate with regard to the elections of the Governing Body, the Government may, on the recommendations of the Administrator, take a decision in such cases for reasons to be recorded in writing.(4)The order referred to in sub-section (1) shall contain the particulars of constitution, authorities, property, rights and interests, liabilities, duties and obligations of the Societies or Society concerned.(5)Where a Society is divided or where two or more Societies are amalgamated, the registration of the Society or Societies divided or amalgamated, as the case may be, shall stand cancelled and the concerned Society or Societies shall cease to exist as corporate bodies. The Registrar shall issue the necessary certificate of registration wherever a new Society is formed under sub-section (1) above.

Chapter-XV Violations, Fines and Penalties
