28. Criteria, Eligibility and Procedure for Promotion.

(1) As soon as the Appointing Authority determines the number of vacancies under Rule 13 of these Rules and decides that a certain number of posts are required to be filled by promotion, it shall subject to the provisions of sub-rule (6), prepare a correct and complete list of the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified under these Rules for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, to the class of posts concerned. (2) The persons enumerated in column No. 6 of the Schedules I & II shall be eligible for promotion to posts specified against them in Column 2 thereof to the extent indicated in Column 4 subject to their possessing minimum qualifications and experience on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection as specified in Column 7.(3)No person shall be considered for first promotion in the service unless he/she is substantively appointed and confirmed on the lowest post in the Service. After first promotion in the service, for subsequent promotions to higher posts in the service a person shall be eligible if he/she has been appointed to such post from which promotion is to be made after selection in accordance with one of the method of recruitment prescribed under these Rules:Provided that for first promotion in the Service if number of persons substantively appointed and confirmed on the lowest post, equal to the number of vacancies, are not available then persons who have been appointed to the lowest post in the service after selection in accordance with one of the method of recruitment prescribed under these Rules, shall also be eligible if they fulfil other conditions of eligibility.Explanation. - In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection by promotion in a particular year, such of the persons who are/or were eligible for appointment to that post by both methods of recruitment and have been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall also be considered for promotion.(4)Selection for promotions in regular line of promotion from the post/posts not included in the State Service to the lowest post or category of post in the State Service shall be made strictly on the basis of merit and on the basis of seniority-cum-merit in the proportion of 50 : 50 :Provided that if the Committee is satisfied that suitable persons are not available for promotion strictly on the basis of a merit in a particular year, selection by promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit may be made in the same manner as specified in these Rules.(5)Selection for promotion from the lowest post or category of posts in the State Service to the next higher post or category of the posts in the State Service and for all post in subordinate Service shall be made strictly on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.Explanation. - If in the service, in any category of post, number of posts available for promotion is an odd number then for purpose of determining the vacancies for selection by promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and merit in the proportion of 50:50, the following cyclic order shall be followed:The first vacancy by seniority-cum-merit;The subsequent vacancy by merit;The cycle to be repeated.(6)The zone of consideration of persons eligible for promotion shall be as under:-

|--------------------------------|---|
| (i) Number of vacancies | Number of eligible person to be considered. |
| (a) for one vacancy | five eligible persons. |
| (b) for two vacancies | eight eligible persons. |
| (c) for three vacancies | ten eligible persons. |
| (d) for four or more vacancies | three times the number of vacancies. |

(ii)Where, the number of eligible persons for promotion to higher post is less than the number specified above, all the persons so eligible shall be considered.(iii)Where, adequate number of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, are not available within the zone of consideration specified above, the zone of consideration may be extended to five times the number of vacancies and the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, (and not any other) coming within the extended zone of consideration shall also be considered against the vacancies reserved for them.(7)(a)The Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of posts concerned under these Rules and shall prepare a list containing names of the persons found suitable on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these Rules, equal to the number of vacancies determined under rule relating to "Determination of vacancies" of these Rules. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, shall be arranged in the order of seniority in the category of posts from which selection is made.(b)The Committee may also prepare a separate list on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in the Rules, containing names of persons equal to the number of persons selected in the list prepared under (a) above to fill temporary or permanent vacancies which may occur subsequently. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or on the basis of merit shall be arranged in the order of seniority in the category of posts from which selection shall be made. Such a list shall be reviewed and revised by the Departmental Promotion Committee that meets in the subsequent year and that such list shall remain in force till the end of the last day of the next year or till the Departmental Promotion Committee meets, whichever is earlier.(c)Such lists shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with Annual Performance Appraisal Reports and other service Record of all the Candidates included in the lists as also of those not selected, if any.Explanation. - For the purpose of selection for promotion on the basis of merit no person shall be selected if he/she does not have "outstanding" or "very good" record in at least five out of the seven years preceding the year for which Departmental Promotion Committee is held.(8)If in any subsequent year, after promulgation of these Rules, vacancies relating to any earlier year are determined under sub-rule (2) of Rule 13 which were required to be filled by promotion, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall consider the cases of all such persons who would have been eligible in the year to which the vacancies relate irrespective of the year in which the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee is held and such promotions shall be governed by the criteria and procedure for promotion as was applicable in that particular year to which the vacancies relate and the service/experience of an incumbent who has been so promoted for promotion to higher post for any period during which he has not actually performed the duties of post to which he would have been promoted, shall be counted.The pay of a person who has been so promoted shall be refixed at the pay which he would have drawn, at the time of his promotion but no arrears of pay shall be allowed to him.(9)The Government or the Appointing Authority may order for the review of the proceedings of the D.P.C. held earlier on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of record, or on account of a factual error substantially affecting the decision of the DPC or for any other sufficient reasons e.g. change in seniority, wrong determination of vacancies, judgment/direction of any Court or Tribunal, or where adverse entries in the Confidential Reports of an individual are expunged or toned down or a punishment inflicted on him is set aside or reduced. The concurrence of the Department of Personnel and the Commission (where Commission is associated) shall always be obtained before holding the meeting of the review D.P.C.(10)Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along with the personal files and Annual Confidential Rolls (APAR) of all the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.(11)The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority, and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission consider it necessary to make any change in the list received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority the changes proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modification, as may in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.(12)Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (11) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised, as the case may be.(13)The Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension, or against whom departmental proceeding is under progress, at the time of promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.

29. Restriction on promotion of persons foregoing promotions.

- In case of a person on his promotion to the next higher post either on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis, on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, foregoes such an appointment, he shall be considered against for appointment by promotion only after a period of one year (both on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis), on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee.

30. Special Section through Screening of persons belonging to other Services/cadres and working on any post in the Department.

- A Screening Committee consisting of Chairman of the Commission or a member thereof nominated by him as Chairman Secretary to the Government in the Department of Personnel or his nominee not below the rank of Deputy Secretary in the Department of Personnel as Member, Secretary to the Government Department of Women & Child Development as Member Secretary, shall be constituted for screening the cases of the officers of the following cadres:(1)Officers and Officials of the Social Welfare Department, who were substantive in the Social Welfare service and are working in the Department of Women & Child Development against the post(s) now included in the schedules, and have put in atleast 3 years continuous Service on the existing post(s) on the date of commencement of these Rules.(2)Persons transferred from State Social Welfare Advisory Board to this Department and working on any of the post(s), included in the schedules, for a continuous period of 3 years, at the time of commencement of these Rules.(3)Lady Nutrition Extension Officers transferred from Rural Development & Panchayat Raj Department or appointed on ad-hoc basis by the Department without adhering to the provision of the Rules promulgated under proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India;(4)Lady Supervisor transferred from Rural Development & Panchayat Raj Department and who are still working on any of the posts included in the schedules and whose posts have been abolished in the Rural Development & Panchayati Raj Department. The Screening Committee shall screen and consider the cases of such persons who are still working in the Department against any post included in the Service/Schedule and who opt for such post.After considering their Annual Performance Appraisal Reports for the last 5 years and special performance report for the financial year preceding the year in which these Rules are promulgated and also go through other relevant record to adjudge their suitability/usefulness in the Department and shall recommend to the Government the names of such persons who are found suitable for the State Service posts included in the Schedule-1. Another list of persons who are found suitable for the Subordinate Service posts included in Schedule-II shall be drawn by the screening committee which shall be forwarded to the Appointing Authority for issuance of orders for final absorption on the post shown in the Schedule-II. The above mentioned lists shall be prepared by the Screening Committee on the basis of merit alone and shall recommend for their substantive appointment in the service against a post for which the officer is adjudged suitable/useful. (5) The provisions of the above rule shall be subject to the following conditions:-(a) That a person appointed on ad hoc basis without following the procedure laid down in these Rules for direct recruitment shall not be entitled for screening for a post higher than that he was holding in this parent department before his transfer on the post included in the service; and (b) That the Screening Committee shall recommend names and such officers for integration purposes as one of the method of initial constitution of the service. If any employee with more than 3 years of service on a post is not adjudged suitable by the Screening Committee, such person shall have no right to be appointed against any post in the service. Such person shall, therefore, be declared as surplus by the Appointing Authority and he/she shall be reverted back to his parent cadre for his/her further placement and if it is not feasible on account of any reasons, he/she shall be declared surplus under the provisions of the Rajasthan Civil Service (Absorption of Surplus Personnel) Rules, 1969 and such employee may be absorbed on any lower post under the provisions of above mentioned rules applicable in case of surplus personnel. The Government shall consider the recommendations of the Screening Committee and shall issue appropriate directions to the Director for making substantive appointment against the vacancies of posts included in Schedule-II and the Government shall issue orders for appointment of persons found suitable against any of the posts mentioned in Schedule-I, which have been categorised as State Service Posts. Part-VI Appointment, Probation and Confirmation

31. Appointment to the Service.

- Appointment to the posts in the service by direct recruitment or by promotion or by special selection, as the case may be, shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of vacancies from the candidates selected under Rules 24, 28 and by special selection through screening process from the persons adjudged suitable under Rule 30 of these Rules.

32. Urgent Temporary Appointment.

(1) A vacancy in the service which can not be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under these Rules may be filled in by the Appointing Authority or by authority competent to make appointments, as the case may be, by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto an officer eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these Rules: Provided that such an appointment shall not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission for concurrence where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur: Provided further that in respect of a post in the Service for which both the above methods of recruitment have been prescribed, the Government or the authority competent to make appointment, as the case may be, shall not, save with the specific permission of the Government in the Department of Personnel, fill the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by a whole time appointment for a period exceeding three months otherwise than out of persons eligible for direct recruitment and after a short term advertisement.(2)In the event of non-availability of suitable persons fulfilling the requirements of eligibility for promotion, Government may, notwithstanding the conditions of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1) above lay down general instructions for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointment, shall however, be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under sub-rule (1) above.

33. Seniority.

- Seniority of persons appointed to the lowest post of the Service or lowest category of post in each of the Group/Section of the Service, as the case may be, shall be determined from the date of confirmation of such persons to the said post but in respect of persons appointed by promotion to other higher post in the service or other higher categories of posts in each of the Group/Section in the service as the case may be, shall be determined from the date of their regular selection to such posts:Provided that:(i)the seniority of the persons appointed to the service before the commencement, of these Rules shall be determined modified or altered by the Appointing Authority as deemed proper;(ii)the seniority inter se of persons appointed to a post in a particular category by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection except those who do not join service when a post is offered to them within a period of six weeks from the date of issue of order or longer if extended by the Appointing Authority, shall follow the order in which their names have been placed in the list prepared under Rule 24 of these Rules;(iii)the persons selected and appointed as a result of a selection, which is not subject to review and revision, shall rank senior to the persons who are selected and appointed as a result of subsequent selection.Seniority inter se of persons selected on the basis of Seniority-cum-merit and on the basis of merit in the same selection shall be the same as in the next below grade.(iv)the inter se seniority of persons who have been adjudged suitable under provisions of Rule 30 shall be determined on the recommendation of the Screening Committee.(v)inter se seniority of persons appointed by direct recruitment and by promotion in the same year, the persons appointed by promotion shall be senior to those appointed by direct recruitment.(vi)if a candidate belonging to the Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe is promoted to an immediate higher post/grade against a reserved vacancy earlier than his senior General/O.B.C. candidate who is promoted later to the said immediate higher post/grade, the General/O.B.C. candidate will regain his seniority over such earlier promoted candidate of the Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe in the immediate higher post/grade.(vii)[the inter se seniority of the persons screened under proviso (vi) to sub-rule (3) of Rule 6 shall be determined according to length of continuous service after their appointment on fixed pay in the year, 2002. These persons shall rank junior to the persons appointed regularly before the commencement of the Rajasthan Women & Child Development (State and Subordinate) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011.] [Added by Notification No. G.S.R. 19, dated 9.5.2011 (w.e.f. 16.7.1998).]

34. Period of probation.

(1) All persons appointed to the service by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of two years and those appointed to the Service by promotion/special selection against a substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of one year: Provided that:-(i) such of them as have, previous to their appointment by promotion/special selection or by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy officiated temporarily on the post which is followed by regular selection may be permitted by the Appointing Authority to count such officiating or temporary service towards the period of probation. This shall, however, not amount to involve supersession of any senior person or disturb the order of their preference in respective quota or reservation in recruitment. (ii) any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation. (2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1), each probationer may be required to pass such Departmental Examination/Tests and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify/decide. Explanation. - In case of a person who dies or is due to retire on attaining the age of superannuation the period of probation shall be reduced so as to end one day earlier on the date immediately preceding the date of his death or retirement from Government Service. The condition of passing the Departmental Examination in the rule regarding confirmation shall be deemed, to have been waived in case of death or retirement.

35. Confirmation in certain cases.

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule a person appointed to a post in the Service temporarily or on officiating basis who, after regular recruitment by any one of the method of recruitment prescribed under these Rules, has not been confirmed, within a period of six months after satisfactory completion of the period of probation as prescribed above, shall be entitled to be treated as confirmed in accordance with his seniority, if:-(i) he has worked on the post or higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his deputation or training; (ii) he fulfils condition as prescribed under rule relating to confirmation subject to the quota prescribed under these Rules; and (iii) permanent vacancy is available in the Department. (2) If an employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above fails to fulfil the conditions mentioned in the said sub-rule (1), the period mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, may be extended as prescribed for a probationer or under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examination) Rules, 1959 and any other rules or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfil the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, he will be liable to be discharged or terminated from such post in the same manner as a probationer or reverted to his substantive or lower post, if any to which he may be entitled. (3) The employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall not be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him within the said period of service. (4) The reasons for not confirming of any employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall be recorded by the Appointing Authority in his Service Book and Annual Performance Appraisal Report. Explanation. - (i) Regular recruitment for the purpose of this rule shall mean:-(a) appointment by either method of recruitment or on initial constitution of service in accordance with the rules made under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India;(b)appointment to the posts for which no Service Rules exists, if the posts are within the purview of the Commission, recruitment in consultation with them;(c)persons who have been made eligible for substantive appointment to a post under the rules shall be treated as having been regularly recruited;Provided that it shall not included urgent temporary appointment or officiating promotion which is subject to review and revision.(ii)Persons who hold lien on another cadre shall be eligible to be confirmed under this rule and they will be eligible to exercise and option whether they do not elect to be confirmed on expiry of two years of their temporary appointments under this rule. In the absence of any option to the contrary they shall be deemed to have exercised option in favour of confirmation under this rule and their lien on the previous post shall cease.

36. Unsatisfactory progress during probation.

(1)If it appears to the Appointing Authority, at any time, during or at the end of the period of probation that a member of the service has not made sufficient use of the opportunities made available or that he has failed to give satisfactory performance, the Appointing Authority may revert him to the post held substantively by him immediately preceding his appointment provided he holds a lien thereon or in other cases may discharge or terminate him from service:Provided that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases, extend the period of probation of any member of Service, by a specified period not exceeding two years in case of a person appointed to a post in the Service by Direct recruitment and one year in the case of person appointed by promotion/special selection to such post:Provided further that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in case of persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, as the case may, be extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding one year at a time and a total extension not exceeding three years.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), if a probationer during the period of probation is placed under suspension, or disciplinary proceedings are contemplated or started against him, the period of his probation may be extended till such period as the Appointing Authority may think fit in the given circumstances.(3)A probationer reverted on his substantive or lower post or discharged from service during or at the end of the period of probation under sub-rule (1), shall not be entitled to any compensation.

37. Confirmation.

- A person placed on probation under Rule 34 shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of the period of probation if:-(a)he has passed the Departmental Examination and has successfully undergone such training as is referred to in sub-rule (2) of Rule 34;(b)he has passed a departmental test of proficiency in Hindi; and(c)the Appointing Authority is satisfied that his integrity is unquestionable and that he is otherwise fit for confirmation.Part-VII Pay

38. Scale of pay.

- The scale of monthly pay of a person appointed to a post in the Service, shall be such as may be prescribed under the Rules referred to in Rule 40 or as may be sanctioned by the Government from time to time.

39. Increments during probation.

- A probationer shall draw increments in the scale of pay admissible to him during the period of probation in accordance with the provisions of the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951.

40. Regulation of pay, allowance, leave, pension etc. of the persons appointed in the service.

- Except as provided under these Rules, the pay, allowances, pension including gratuity, leave and other conditions of service of the members of the Service shall be regulated by:-(1)The Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951 as amended from time to time.(2)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1958.(3)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1971.(4)The Rajasthan Travelling Allowances Rules, 1971 as amended from time to time.(5)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay Scales) Rules, 1998 as amended from time to time by Government in respect of the posts enumerated in the Schedule.(6)Any other rules prescribing general conditions of service made by the Government under the provisions of proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India and are in force.The conditions of service and pay scales can be revised or altered by the Government from time to time as it may deem proper and-the persons working against the posts in the service shall be regulated by such amended/revised or altered rules.

41. Removal of doubts.

- If any doubt arises relating to application, interpretation and scope of these Rules, it shall be referred to Government in the Department of Personnel whose decision thereon shall be final.

42. Repeal and Saving.

- All Rules and Orders in relation to matters covered by these Rules and in force immediately before the Commencement of these Rules are hereby repealed:Provided that any action taken under the Rules and Orders so superseded shall be deemed to have been taken under the provisions of these Rules.

43. Power to relax Rules.

- In exceptional cases where the Administrative Department is satisfied that operation of the rules relating to age or regarding requirement of experience for recruitment causes undue hardship in any particular case or where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to relax any of the provisions of these Rules with respect to age or experience of any person, it may with the concurrence of the Department of Personnel and in consultation with the Commission where necessary, by order, dispense with or relax the relevant provisions of these Rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner, provided that such relaxation shall not be less favourable than the provisions already contained in these Rules. Such cases of relaxation shall be referred to the Commission by the Administrative Department concerned: Provided that relaxation in the prescribed period of service or experience under this rule shall only be granted to the extent of 1/3 period of the service or experience prescribed for promotion to any post before holding the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee.
