The Industrial Employment (Standing Order) (Uttar Pradesh Amendment) Act, 2017(U.P. Act 16 of 2018)Statement of Objects and Reasons. - The Industrial Employment (Standing Order) Act, 1946 has been enacted by the Central Government to provide for requiring employers in industrial establishments formally to define conditions of employment under them and to make the said conditions known to workmen employed by them.Form the last decade there has been a growing demand for introduction of provision for compounding of small offences in order to avoid unnecessary litigation and to reduce the number of cases pending in courts. After due consideration and consultation with association of employers and trade unions, it has been decided to amend the said Act to provide for compounding the first offence on payment of fifty per cent of the fine as compounding fee along with prescribed fine for the offence under the aforesaid Act. The Industrial Employment (Standing Order) (Uttar Pradesh Amendment) Bill, 2017 is introduced accordingly.(As passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature)Received the assent of the President on January 9, 2018 and published in the U.P. Gazette, Extra., Part I, Section (Ka), dated 31st January, 2018, p. 3.An Act further to amend the Industrial Employment (Standing Order) Act, 1946 in its application to Uttar PradeshIt is hereby enacted in the Sixty-eight Year of the Republic of India as follows -
