3. Financial arrangement. -

(1)With effect from the commencement of this Act the State Government shall assume the charge of full payment of salary to the employees, teaching and non-teaching, of colleges governed by this Act. The State Government shall make periodic advances to college authorities for payment of salary regularly to the employees of such colleges.(2)The salary of the teaching and non-teaching employees of a college shall be paid according to scales approved by the State Government with respect to different posts:Provided that such scales for the employees shall not be lower than the scales adopted by the State Government and in operation on the date of coming into force of this Act:Provided further that if there is any dispute about the nature of any post, the State Government shall determine the same and the decision thereon shall be final:[Provided also that the teaching and non-teaching employees of a college governed by this Act shall be entitled to such allowances and at such rates as are admissible to the employees (teaching and non-teaching) of Government-sponsored colleges.] [Proviso substituted by West Bengal Act 15 of 1981.]

4. Restriction on colleges. -

(1)No college shall incur any expenditure on capital account or transfer any movable or immovable property without the previous approval of the State Government.(2)A college authority shall not allow free-studentship beyond such limit as the State Government may, by order from time to time, fix in respect of that college.(3)No college shall, without the previous approval of the State Government, revise the rates of tuition fees and other fees and charges.(4)A college authority shall not allow, without the previous approval of the Director of Public Instruction, West Bengal, or any officer authorised by him in this behalf, any reduction or remission of fees:Provided that the Principal of a college shall be competent to remit fines fixed for late payment of tuition and other fees.(5)It shall be the duty of a college authority to collect tuition fees, fines and other charges from each and every student on the roll of such college, except those who are granted free-studentship, and such fees as may have been fixed for students enjoying such benefit and to pay the State Government [such percentage of the assumed income as the State Government may, from time to time, determine.] Words substituted by West Bengal Act 21 of 1982.A college authority shall, upon instructions by the State Government in this behalf, strike off the name of a student from the roll of such college if such student defaults in payment of tuition and other fees for such period as the State Government may determine.

5. Deposits by colleges. -

A college authority shall within fifteen days of the expiry of a month deposit with the State Government under appropriate head of account as may be specified by the State Government [such percentage of the actual income of that month as the State Government may, from time to time, determine] [Words substituted by West Bengal Act 21 of 1982.] and may retain the balance for being spent on non-salary items of a recurring nature according to schedule of expenditure approved by the State Government.

6. Accounts and reimbursement. -

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding section, a college authority shall at the end of each quarter submit an account of the assumed and actual income during the preceding quarter and deposit with the State Government under the head of account as provided under section 5 such amount by which the actual amount deposited by the college authority under section 5 falls short of [the percentage of the assumed income determined under sub-section (5) of section 4] [Words, figures and brackets substituted by ibid.] during the quarter within the following quarter.(2)The State Government shall on examination of the accounts have the right to fix the amounts that may be payable by the college under subsection (1) and direct further deposit on that account within such time as it thinks proper.

7. Power of State Government to relax, and liability of colleges in such case. -

Omitted by West Bengal Act 21 of 1982, w.e.f. 1.2.1982.

8. Appointment of Administrator. -

(1)If any college authority fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) or the direction under subsection (2) of section 6 the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, supersede the college authority for a period, not exceeding one year at a time, and appoint an Administrator to discharge the functions of the college authority.(2)The State Government may, if it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to retain the Administrator, cancel the appointment of the Administrator before the expiry of the period of supersession and make over the administration of the college to the college authority.

9. Submission of budget estimates. -

Every college shall submit to the Director of Public Instruction, West Bengal, budget estimates for a year in advance by such date as may be specified by him.

10. Overriding effect. -

The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law or in any instrument or in any custom or usage.

11. Power to give direction. -

The State Government may from time to time give such directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to a college as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

12. Removal of difficulty. -

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, remove that difficulty.

13. Repeal and savings. -

(1)The West Bengal Colleges (Payment of Salaries) Ordinance, 1978, is hereby repealed.(2)Anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been validly done or taken under this Act.
