The Opium And Revenue Laws (Extension Of Application) Act, 1950 ACT NO. 33 OF 1950

1400.

The main laws relating to income-tax and duties of customs and central excise are being extended to the rest of India and a provision therefor has been made in the Finance Bill as the extension of these laws formed part of the Budget proposals. The object of the Bill is to extend other ancillary law to the rest of India excluding the State of Jammu and Kashmir." - Gazette of India., 1950, Pt. II, Section 2, page 198.[18th April, 1950]An Act to provide for the extension of certain opium and revenue laws to certain parts of India.Be it enacted by Parliament as follows:-

1. Short title.

This Act may be called the Opium and Revenue Laws (Extension of Application) Act, 1950.

2. Extension of certain opium and revenue laws to certain parts of India.

(1)The following Acts, namely,--(i)the Opium Act, 1857 (13 of 1857), (ii) the Opium Act, 1878 (1 of 1878),(iii)the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890 (1 of 1890),(iv)the Government Trading Taxation Act, 1926 (3 of 1926),(v)the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 (2 of 1930),(vi)the Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1947 (30 of 1947), and(vii)the Payment of Taxes (Transfer of Property) Act, 1949 (22 of 1949), and all rules and orders made thereunder, which are in force immediately before the commencement of this Act in certain parts of India, are hereby extended to and shall be in force in, the rest of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.(2)The amendments specified in the Schedule shall be made in the aforesaid Acts.

3. Modifications in State laws relating to income-tax investigation.

If immediately before the commencement of this Act there is in force in any Part B State other than Jammu and Kashmir any law (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the State law") corresponding to the Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1947 (30 of 1947), that law shall continue to remain in force with the following modifications, namely:--(a)all cases referred to or pending before the State Commission (by whatever name called) in respect of matters relating to taxation on income other than agricultural income shall stand transferred to the Central Commission for disposal:Provided that the Central Commission shall not, by reason merely of the transfer of any case under the provisions of this section, be bound to recall or rehear any witness who has given evidence in the case, and may act on the evidence already recorded by or produced before the Commission which was originally investigating into the case;(b)in the disposal of cases transferred to the Central Commission under clause (a), it shall have and exercise the same powers as it has and exercises in the investigation of cases referred to it under the Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1947 (30 of 1947), and shall be entitled to act for the same term as under sub-section (3) of section 4 of that Act; [Substituted by Act 44 of 1951, Section 2 (retrospectively)any decision given, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, by the Chief Revenue Authority of Travancore or of Travancore-Cochin in the exercise or purported exercise of any powers conferred on it by any law for the time being in force in the State shall be deemed to be a decision given by the Income-tax authority for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 8 of the Travancore Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1124;] (Travancore Act XIV of 1124)(c)any reference in the State Law, by whatever form of words, to the State Government or the State Commission shall, in relation to income other than agricultural income, be construed as a reference to the Central Government or the Central Commission, as the case may be;(d)the report of the Central Commission shall be submitted to the Central Government, and the Central Government may, by order in writing, direct that such proceedings as it thinks fit under the law in force in the State relating to income-tax, super-tax or excess profits tax or any other law, shall be taken against the person to whose case the report relates in respect of his income other than agricultural income, and upon such a direction being given, all such proceedings may be taken and completed under the appropriate law applicable in the State, as if the direction had been given and the proceedings had been instituted thereunder;(e)where under any law in force in the State the agricultural income of an assessee is to be included in his total income for the purpose of determining the tax payable by him, the tax payable in respect of his income other than agricultural income shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of tax which would have been payable under the appropriate law in force in the State if a combined assessment had been made, the same proportion as such income bears to the total income including the agricultural income:Provided that for this purpose any reduction of tax allowed on the agricultural income by the appropriate law in force in the State shall not be taken into account.Explanation.--In this section, "Central Commission" means the Income-tax Investigation Commission constituted under the Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1947 (30 of 1947).

Additional Information6

Immediately before 1-11-1956 the following were Part B States, namely, Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travacore-Cochin. Of these

Part B States Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore, Rajasthan and Travancore-Cochin (Kerala) are full-fledged States now and the rest have been merged with adjoining State or States - See States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956)(1-11-1956).

4. Repeals and savings.

If immediately before the commencement of this Act there is in force in any Part B State, other than Jammu and Kashmir, or in the merged territory of Cooch Behar any law corresponding to any of the Acts specified in section 2, other than the Taxation on Income (Investigation Commission) Act, 1947 (30 of 1947), that law shall, upon the commencement of this Act, stand repealed: Provided that such repeal shall not affect--(a) the previous operation of that law, or (b) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against that law, or (c) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed: Provided further that anything done or any action taken under any provision of that law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of the Central Act as now extended to the State and shall continue in force accordingly.

5. Removal of difficulties.

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any of the Acts, rules or orders now extended to any part of India in which they were not in force before the commencement of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provision or give such direction as appears to it to be necessary for removing the difficulty.
