The local authority shall grant the approval unless other measures are taken to execute the said work. While granting the approval, the local authority shall specify the nature of the work and the estimated cost thereof which shall for all purposes be binding on the landlord. Upon such approval being granted, the tenants shall be entitled to execute the said work and to deduct the amount of the expenses thereof from the rent which from time to time becomes due by them to the landlord or otherwise recover such amount from him: Provided that where such work is jointly executed by the tenants the amount to be deducted or recovered by each tenant shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of his premises bear to the total amount of the expenses incurred for such work: Provided that the total amount so deducted or recoverable shall not exceed the estimated cost specified by the local authority. (5) In respect of any work executed by the tenants under sub-section (4) the landlord shall not be entitled to make the increase permitted under sub-section (1). [Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, the expression "local authority" shall include the Municipal Commissioner.]

10E. [Increase in rent on account of payment of increased ground-rent etc.
[Section 10-E was inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 10.]

(1)Where a landlord is liable to pay in respect of any premises, any levy of, or increase in the ground-rent,-non-agricultural assessment or any other tax on land imposed by the State Government, he shall be entitled to make an increase in the rent of the premises by an amount not exceeding the increase paid by him by way of such ground-rent, non-agricultural assessment or tax, as the case may be. The amount of such increase in rent to be recovered from tenant shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of his premises bears to the total amount of the rent recoverable for the whole of the premises if let.(2)Any increase under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purpose of Section 7.]

11. Court may fix standard rent and permitted increase in certain cases.

(1)In any of the following cases the Court may, upon an application made to it for that purpose, or in any suit or proceeding, fix the standard rent at such amount, as, having regard to the provisions of this Act and the circumstances of the case, the Court deems just-(a)where any premises are first let after the [specified date] [These words were substituted for the words and figures 'first day of September, 1940', Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 11(1).] and the rent at which, they are so let is in the opinion of the Court excess; or(b)where the Court is satisfied that there is no sufficient evidence to ascertain the rent at which the premises were let in any one of the cases mentioned in sub-clauses (i) to (iii) of clause (b) of the sub-section (10) of Section 5; or(c)where by reason of the premises having been let at one time as a whole or in parts and at another time in parts or as a whole, or for any other reasons, any difficulty arises in giving effect to this part; or(d)where any premises have been or are let rent-free or at a nominal rent or for some consideration in addition to rent; or(e)where there is any dispute between the landlord and the tenant regarding the amount of standard rent.(2)If there is any dispute between the landlord and the tenant regarding the amount of permitted increase the Courts may determine such amount.(3)[If any application for fixing the standard rent or for determining the permitted increase is made by a tenant who has received a notice from his landlord under subsection (2) of Section 12, the Court shall make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court forthwith, and thereafter monthly or periodically, such amount of rent or permitted increases as the Court considers to be reasonably due to the landlord pending the final decision of the application, and a copy of such order shall be served upon the landlord. Out of the amount so deposited, the Court may make order for the payment of such reasonable sum to the landlord towards payment of rent or increase due to him, as it thinks fit. If the tenant fails to deposit such amount, this application shall be dismissed.(4)Where at any stage of suit for recovery of rent, whether with or without a claim for possession of the premises, the Court is satisfied that the tenant is withholding the rent on the ground that the rent is excessive and standard rent should be fixed, the Court shall, and in any other case if it appears to the Court that it is just and proper to make such an order the Court may, make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court forthwith such amount of rent as the Court considers to be reasonably due to the landlord. The Court may further make an order directing the tenant to deposit in Court, monthly or periodically, such amount as it considers proper as interim standard rent during the pendency of the suit. The Court may also direct that if the tenant fails to comply with any such order within such time as may be allowed by it, he shall not be entitled to appear in or defend the suit except with leave of the Court which leave may be granted subject to such terms and conditions as the Court may specify.(5)No appeal shall lie from any order of the Court made under sub-section (3) or (4).(6)An application under this section may be made jointly by all or any of the tenants interested in respect of the premises situated in the same building.] [These sub-sections were substituted for sub-section (3) by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 11(2).]

11A. [Right of tenant in view building in disturbed areas. [Section 11-A was inserted by Gujarat 12 of 1991, section 13.]

- Where by reason of any riot or violence of a mob any material part of the premises in a disturbed area is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let,-(a)the landlord shall erect the new building at the original site, subject to the provisions of any rules, by-laws or regulations, made by an local authority, not later than fifteen months from the commencement of this Act; andProvided that the State Government may for sufficient reasons extend the said period of nine months to such further period not exceeding twelve months as it thinks fit.(b)the tenant shall have the right to occupy a tenement in the new building erected at the original site by the landlord ;andthe provisions of Sections 17-B and 17-C shall, so far as may be, apply.Explanation. - In this section and in sub-section (1-A) of Section 12, the expression "disturbed area" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in the Gujarat Prohibition of Transfer of Immovable Property and Provision for Protection of Tenants from Eviction from Premises in Disturbed Areas Act, 1986, (Gujarat 30 of 1986).]

11B. [Right of tenants in new building when premises damaged or destroyed due to natural calamity. [Section 11-B was inserted by Gujarat 26 of 2001, section 3.]

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where by reason of earthquake or any other natural calamity, any material part of the premises is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let,-(a)the landlord shall erect the new building at the original site, subject to the provisions of any rules, bye-laws or regulations, made by local authority, not later than twelve months from the date on which material part of premises of the building is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit:Provided that the State Government may for sufficient reasons extend the said period of twelve months to such further period not exceeding twelve months as it thinks fit.(b)the tenant shall have the right to occupy a tenement in the new building erected at the original site of by the landlord; and the provisions of Sections 17-B and 17-C shall, so far as may be, apply.]

12. No ejectment ordinarily to be made if tenant pays or is ready and willing to pay standard rent and permitted increases.

(1)A landlord shall not be entitled to the recovery of possession of any premises so long as the tenant pays, or is ready and willing to pay, the amount of the standard rent and permitted increases, if any,

and observes and performs the other conditions of the tenancy, in so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act. [(1-A) Where by reason of riot or violence of a mob any material part of the premises in a disturbed area is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let, the landlord shall not be entitled to, - (a) the standard rent and permitted increases due for the premises, (b) recover possession of such premises merely on the ground of non-payment of standard rent and permitted increases due, during the period in which such premises remain so destroyed, or unfit.] [(1-B) Notwithstanding any thing contained in this Act, where by reason of earthquake or any other natural calamity any material part of premises is wholly destroyed or rendered substantially and permanently unfit for the purpose for which it was let, the landlord shall not be entitled to, - (a) standard rent and permitted increases due for the premises. (b) recover possession of such premises merely on the ground of non-payment of standard rent and permitted increases due, during the period in which such premises remained so destroyed or unfit.] (2) No suit for recovery of possession shall be instituted by a landlord against a tenant on the ground of non-payment of the standard rent or permitted increases due, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing of the demand of the standard rent or permitted increases has been served upon the tenant in the manner provided in Section 106 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882). (3) [(a) Where the rent is payable by the month and there is no dispute regarding the amount of standard rent or permitted increases, if such rent or increases are in arrears for a period of six months or more and the tenant neglects to make payment thereof until the expiration of the period of one month after notice referred to in sub-section (2), the Court may pass a decree for eviction in any suit for recovery of possession.] [This sub-section of Section 12 was substituted for the original by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 8(1).] (b) In any other case, no decree for eviction shall be passed in any such suit if, on the first day of hearing of the suit or on or before such other date as the Court may fix, the tenant pays or tenders in Court the standard rent and permitted increases then due and [thereafter, - (i) continues to pay or tender in Court such rent and permitted increases till the suit is finally decided; and (ii) pays costs of the suit] [[This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with the words 'and thereafter continues' and ending with the words 'also pays costs of the suit as directed by the Court' by Gujarat 7 of

, section 2.]], as directed by the Court. (4) [Pending the disposal of any such suit, the Court may out of any amount paid or tendered by the tenant pay to the landlord such amount towards payment of rent or permitted increases due to him as the Court thinks fit.] [Sub-section (4) of Section 12 was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1963, section 8 (2).] Explanation. - In any case where there is a dispute as to the amount of standard rent or permitted increases recoverable under this Act the tenant shall be deemed to be ready and willing to pay such amount if, before the expiry of the period of one month after notice referred to in sub-section (2), he makes an application to the Court under subsection (3) of Section 11 and thereafter pays or tenders the amount of rent or permitted increases specified in the order made by the Court.

13. When landlord may recover possession.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act [but subject to the provisions of Section 15] [These words and figures were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, section 3.] a landlord shall be entitled to recover possession of any premises if the Court is satisfied.-(a) that, the tenant has committed any act contrary to the provisions of clause (o) of Section 108 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882); or -(b) [that, save as otherwise provided in Section 23-A] [These words, figures and letter was substituted for the words 'that the tenant' by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 12(1)(a).], the tenant has, without the landlord's consent given in writing, erected on the premises any permanent structure; or (c) that the tenant or any person residing with the tenant has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or annoyance to the adjoining or neighbouring occupiers, or has been convicted of using the premises or allowing the premises to be used for immoral or illegal purposes; or (d) that the tenant has given notice to quit and in consequence of that notice the landlord has contracted to sell or let the premises or has taken any other steps, as a result of which he would, in the opinion of the Court, be seriously prejudiced if he could not obtain possession of the premises; or (e) that the tenant has, since the coming into operation of this Act lawfully [sub-let] [These words were substituted for the word 'sub-let' by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 5(1).] the whole or part of the premises or assigned or transferred in any other manner his interest therein; or (ee) [that the tenant has, after the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963, (Gujarat LVII of 1963) given the whole or any part of the premises on licence for monetary consideration to any person, without the previous permission of the landlord] [Clause (ee) was inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 12(1)(b).]; or (f) that the premises were let to the tenant for use as a residence by reason of his being in the service or employment of the landlord, and that the tenant has ceased, whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act, to be in such service or employment; or (g) that the premises are reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord for occupation by himself or by any person for whose benefit the premises are held [where the landlord is a trustee of a public charitable trust that the premises are required for occupation for the purpose of the trust] [These words were inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(1)(a).]; or (h) that the premises are reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord for carrying out repairs which cannot be carried out without the premises being vacated; or (hh) [that the premises consist of not more than two floors and are reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord for the immediate purpose of demolishing them and such demolition is to be made for the purpose of erecting new building on the premises sought to be demolished] [Clause (hh) was inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, section 6(1).]; or (i) that where the premises are land, such land is reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord for the erection of a new [] [The word 'residential' was deleted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(1)(c).] building; or (ii) [that where the premises are land in the nature of garden or grounds appurtenant to a building or part of a building, such land is required by the landlord for the erection of a new residential building which a local authority has approved or permitted him to build thereon;] [These clause was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(1)(d).] (hhh) [that the premises are required for the immediate purpose of demolition ordered by any local authority or other competent authority] [This clause was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(1)(b).]; or (j) that the rent charged by the tenant for the premises or any part thereof which are sub-let [before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959] [This portion was substituted for the words 'before the coming into operation of this Act' by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 5(2).] (Bombay Ordinance No. III of 1959) is in excess of the standard rent and permitted increases in respect of such premises or part or that the tenant has received any fine, premium, other like sum or consideration in respect of such premises or part: or(k)that the premises have not been used without reasonable cause for the purpose for which they were let for a continuous period of six months immediately preceding the date of the suit; or(l)that the tenant after the coming into operation of this Act has built,acquired vacant possession of or been allotted a suitable residence.[Explanation. - For the purposes of clause (b), no permanent structure shall be deemed to be erected on any premises merely by reason of the construction of a partition wall, door or lattice work or the filling of Kitchen-stand or such other alteration made in the premises as can be removed without serious damage to the premises.] This explanation was added by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 12(1)(c).No decree for eviction shall be passed on the ground specified in clause (g) of subsection (1) if the Court is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the question whether other reasonable accommodation is available for the landlord or the tenant greater hardship would be caused by passing the decree than by refusing to pass it.Where the Court is satisfied that no hardship would be caused either to the tenant or to the landlord by passing the decree in respect of a part of the premises, the Court shall pass the decree in respect of such part only.Explanation. - For the purposes of clause (g) of sub-section (1)-(a)a person shall not be deemed to be a landlord unless he has acquired his interest in the premises at a date prior to the beginning of the tenancy or the first day of January, 1964, whichever is later, or if the interest has devolved on him by inheritance or succession, his predecessor in title had acquired the interest at a date prior to the beginning of t&e tenancy or the first day of January, 1964, whichever is later;(b)the expression "landlord" shall not include a rent-farmer or rent-collector.The Court may pass the decree on the ground specified in clause (h) or (i) of subsection (1) only in respect of a part of the premises which in its opinion it is necessary to vacate for carrying out the work or repairs or erection.[(3-A) No decree for eviction shall be passed on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1), unless landlord produces at the time of the institution of the suit a certificate granted by the Tribunal under sub-section (3-B) and gives an undertaking-] Sub-sections (3-A) and (3-B) were inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, section 6(3).that the new building to be erected by him shall [subject to the provisions of any rule, bye-laws or regulations, made by a local authority,] [These words were inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(3)(i).] contain not less than [two] [This word was substituted for the word 'three' Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(3)(ii).] times the number of residential tenements, and not less than [two] [This word was substituted for the word 'three' Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(3)(ii).] times the floor area, contained in the premises sought to be demolished;(b)that the work of demolishing the premises shall be commenced by him not later than one month, and shall be completed not later than three months, from the date he recovers possession of the entire premises; and(c)that the work of erection of the new building shall be completed by him not later than fifteen months from the said date:[Provided that, where the Court is satisfied that the work of demolishing the premises could not be commenced or completed, or the work of erection of the new building could not be completed, within time for reasons beyond the control of the landlord, the Court may by order extend the period by such further periods, not exceeding three months at a time, as may, from time to time, be specified.] This proviso was added by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 12(3). (a) For the purposes of sub-section (3-A), the State Government may from time to time constitute a Tribunal consisting of such persons and for such local area as it thinks fit.(b)The Tribunal constituted under clause (a) may grant a certificate after being satisfied that-(i)the plans and estimates for the new building have been properly prepared;(ii)[] Sub-clause (ii) was deleted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 9(4).the necessary funds for the purpose of the erection of the new building are available with the landlord; and(iv)such other conditions as the State Government may by general or special order specify, have been satisfied.(c)The proceedings before the Tribunal shall be in the manner as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government in this behalf.(4)For the purposes of clause (j) of sub-section (1) the standard rent or permitted increases in respect of the part sub-let shall be the amounts bearing such proportion to the standard rent or permitted increases in respect of the premises as may be reasonable having regard to the extent of the part sub-let and other relevant considerations.

13A. [Permission to construct additional Structure. [Section 13-A was inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 13]

- Where the landlord proposes to make any improvement in, or construct any additional structure on, any building which (or part of which) has been let to a tenant, and the tenant refuses to allow the landlord to make the improvement or construct such additional structure, if the Court, on an application made to it in this behalf by the landlord, is satisfied that such work will not cause undue hardship to the tenant, the Court may permit the landlord to do such work, and may make such other order as it thinks fit in the circumstances of the case.] [This explanation was substituted for the original, by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 12(2).]

13AA. [Right of members of Armed Forces of Union and their widows and heirs to recover possession of premises required for their occupation. [Section 13-AA was inserted by Gujarat 7 of 1985, section 3.]

(1)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any contract,-(a)A specified landlord shall be entitled to recover from his tenant the possession of any premises owned by him or by any members of his family, on the ground that such premises are bona fide, required by him for occupation by himself or by any member of his family and on receipt of an application made by the specified landlord for the purpose of recovery of possession of the premises, the competent authority shall make an order of eviction on that ground if the specified landlord produces a certificate granted by the Authorised Officer to the effect that,-(i)he is a member of the Armed Forces of the Union, or that he was such a member and has retired as such, and(ii)he does not possess any other premises suitable for residence in the local area where the premises are situated;(b)a successor-in-interest who becomes the landlord of the premises owned by such member of the armed forces of the Union, as a result of death of such member while in service or within five years of his retirement, shall be entitled to recover possession of such premises on the ground that the premises are bona fide required for occupation by the successor-in-interest himself or by any member of the family of the deceased member and on receipt of an application made by the successor-in-interest for the purpose of recovery of possession of the premises, the competent authority shall make an order of eviction on that ground if the successor-in-interest produces a certificate granted by the Authorised Officer to the effect that,-(i)the successor-in-interest is a widow or any other member of the family of the deceased member of the armed forces of the Union; and(ii)such successor-in-interest, does not possess any other premises suitable for residence in the local area where such premises are situated.(2)Any certificate granted under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be conclusive evidence of the facts and stated therein.(3)(a)No order for eviction shall be made under this section if the competent authority is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the question whether other reasonable accommodation is available for the specified landlord or, as the case may be, the successor-in-interest or the tenant, greater hardship would be caused by making the order than by refusing to make it.(b)Where the competent authority is satisfied that no hardship would be caused either to the tenant or to the specified landlord or, as the case may be, the successor-in-interest by making the order in respect of a part of the premises, the competent authority shall make the order in respect of such part only.Explanation. - For the purpose of this section,-(1)"authorised officer", in relation to a member of the armed forces of the Union, means his commanding officer or head of service including-(i)in the case of an officer retired from Army, the Area Commander,(ii)in the case of an officer retired from the Navy, the Flag Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Naval Command, and(iii)in the case of an officer retired from the Air Force, the Station Commander;(2)"Competent authority" means the authority appointed under Section 31-A;(3)"Member of the family" in relation to a member of the armed forces of the Union, means any of the following members of his family who is ordinarily residing with him and who is dependent on him and where such member has retired or died, any member of his family who is so resident or dependent at the time of his retirement, or as the case may be, death, namely:-Spouse, father, mother, son, daughter, grandson, gran-daughter, son's wife, grandson's wife, widow of a predeceased son or grandson;(4)"specified landlord" means a person who is a member of the armed forces of the Union or who was such member and has duly retired prematurely or otherwise and who or a member of whose family owns any premises;(5)"successor-in-interest" in relation to a deceased member of the armed forces of the Union means,-(i)if the deceased member has a spouse living at the time of his death, such spouse, and(ii)in any other case, any other member of his family.]

14. Sub-tenant to become tenant on determination of tenancy.

- Where the interest of a tenant of any premises is determined for any reason, any sub-tenant to whom the premises or any part thereof have been lawfully sub-let [before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959 (Bombay Ordinance No. III of 1959) shall, subject to the provisions of this Act] [This portion was substituted for the words 'before the coming into operation of this Act' by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 6.], be deemed to become the tenant of the landlord on the same terms and conditions as he would have held from the tenant if the tenancy had continued.

15. [in absence of contract to the contrary tenant not; to sublet or transfer. [This marginal note was substituted and shall be deemed always to have been substituted for the original by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 8(3).]

- [(1)] [Sub-section (1-B) of Section 12 was inserted by Gujarat 26 of 2001, section 4.]

Notwithstanding anything contained in any law [but subject to any contract to the contrary] [These words were inserted and shall be deemed always to have been inserted Bombay 49 of 1959, section 7.], it shall not be lawful after the coming into operation of this Act for any tenant to sublet the whole or any part of the premises let to him or to assign or transfer in any other manner his interest therein:[Provided that the [State] [This proviso was substituted for the original by Bombay 36 of 1948, section 4.] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, permit in any area the transfer of interest in premises held under such leases or class of leases and to such extent as may be specified in the notification.] Sub-section (1-A) of Section 12 was inserted by Gujarat 12 of 1991, section 14.[The bar against sub-letting, assigning or transferring premises contained in subsection (1) shall be deemed not to have had any effect before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959, (Bombay Ordinance No. III of 1959.) in any area in which this Act was in operation before such commencement; and accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in any contract or in the judgement, decree or order of a Court any sub-lease, assignment or transfer in favour of such persons as have entered into possession despite the bar as sub-lessees, assignees or transferees; and have continued in possession at the commencement of the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to be valid and effectual.] [Sub-section (2) was substituted for the original by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 14.]

15A. [Landlord's permission necessary for giving on licence. [Section 15-A was inserted, by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 15.]

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, it shall not be lawful after the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1963 (Guj LVII of 1963) for any tenant to give premises or any part thereof on licence for monetary consideration without the previous permission of the landlord.]

16. Recovery of possession for repairs and re-entry.

(1)The Court shall when passing a decree on the ground specified in clause (h) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 ascertain from the tenant whether he elects to be placed in occupation of the premises or part thereof from which he is to be evicted and, if the tenant so elects, shall record the fact of the election in the decree and specify in the decree the date on or before which he shall deliver possession so as to enable the landlord to commence the work of repairs.(2)[If the tenant delivers possession on or before the date specified in the decree the landlord shall, two months before the date on which the work of repairs is likely to be completed, give notice to the tenant of the date on which the said work shall be completed. Within fifteen days from the date of such notice, the tenant shall intimate to the landlord his acceptance of the accommodation offered and deposit with the landlord rent for one month. If the tenant gives such intimation and makes the deposit, the landlord shall, on completion of the work of repairs, place the tenant in occupation of the premises or part thereof on the original terms and conditions. If the tenant fails to give such intimation and to make the deposit, the tenant's right to occupy the premises shall terminate.] Sub-section (2) was substituted for the original by Bombay 61 of 1963, section 10.If, after the tenant has delivered possession on or before the date specified in the decree, the landlord fails to commence the work of repairs within one month of the specified date or fails to complete the work within a reasonable time or having completed the work fails to place the tenant in occupation of the premises in accordance with subsection (2) the Court may, on the application of the tenant made within one year of the specified date, order the landlord to place him in occupation of the premises or part thereof on the original terms and conditions; and on such order being made the landlord and any person who may be in occupation shall give vacant possession to the tenant of the premises or part thereof.(4)Any landlord who, when the tenant has vacated by the date specified in the decree, without reasonable excuse fails to commence the work or repairs and any landlord or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order made by the Court under sub-section (3), shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

17. Recovery of possession for occupation, etc and re-entry.

(1)Where a decree for eviction has been passed by the Court on the ground specified in clause (g) or (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 and the premises are not occupied or the work of erection is not commenced within a period of one month from the date the landlord recovers possession or the premises are re-let within one year of the said date to any person other than the original tenant, the Court may, on the application of the original tenant made within thirteen months of such date, order the landlord to place in occupation of the premises on the original terms and conditions, and, on such order being made, the landlord and any person who may be in occupation of the premises shall give vacant possession to the original tenant.(2)Any landlord who recovers possession on the ground specified in clause (g) or (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 and keeps the premises unoccupied or does not commence the work of erection without reasonable excuse within the period of one month from the date he recovered possession and any landlord or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order of the Court under sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

17A. [Recovery of possession for demolishing building. [Section 17-A was inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, section 7.]

(1)Where a decree for eviction has been passed by the Court on the ground specified in clause (hh) of subsection (1) of Section 13 and the work of demolishing the premises has not been commenced by the landlord within the period specified in clause (d) of sub-section (3-A) of the said section [or extended under the proviso to the said sub-section] the tenant may give the landlord a notice of his intention to occupy the premises from which he has been evicted and if the landlord does not forthwith deliver to him the vacant possession of the premises on the same terms and conditions on which he occupied them immediately before the eviction, the tenant may make an application to the Court within six weeks of the date on which he delivered vacant possession of the premises to the landlord.(2)If the Court is satisfied that the landlord has not substantially commenced the work of demolishing the premises within the period of one month in accordance with his undertaking, the Court shall order the landlord to deliver to the tenant vacant possession of the premises on the terms and conditions on which he occupied them immediately before the eviction. On such order being made the landlord shall forthwith deliver vacant possession of the premises to the tenant.

Such order shall be deemed to an order within the meaning of clause (14) of Section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908). (3) Any landlord who recovers possession on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1) of Section 13, and fails to carry out any undertaking referred to in clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (3-A) of the said section without any reasonable excuse or fails to comply with the order of the Court under sub-section (1) shall, without prejudice to his liability in execution of the order under sub-section (2), on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.]

17B. [Tenant's right to give notice to landlord of his intention to occupy tenement in new building. [Inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, Section 7.]

- Where a decree for eviction has been passed by the Court on the ground specified in clause (hh) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 and the work of demolishing the premises and of the erection of a new building has been commenced by the landlord, the tenant may, within six months from the date on which he delivered vacant possession of the premises to the landlord, give notice to the landlord of his intention to occupy a tenement in the new building on its completion on the following conditions, namely. (a) that he shall pay to the landlord the standard rent in respect of the tenement: Provided that, in respect of a residential tenement, the tenant concerned shall not be required to pay rent in relation to the area at more than double the rate at which he paid rent for his former premises, immediately before his eviction under the decree, [unless the landlord obtains an order of the Court fixing the standard rent in respect of the tenement at a higher rate.] (b) that his occupation of the tenement shall, save as provided in condition (a) above, be on the same terms and conditions as the terms and conditions on which he occupied the premises immediately before the eviction.]

17C. [Landlord to intimate to tenant date of completion and tenant's right to occupy tenement in new building. [Section 17-C was inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, section 7.]

(1) On receipt of notice from the tenant under Section 17-B, the landlord shall, not less than three months before the date on which the erection of the new building is likely to be completed, intimate to the tenant the date on which the said erection shall be completed. On the said date the tenant shall be entitled to occupy the tenement. (2) (a) If the tenant fails to occupy the tenement within a period of one month from the date on which he is entitled to occupy it under sub-section (1) the tenant's right to occupy the said tenement under the said sub-section shall terminate and the landlord shall be entitled to recover from the tenant a sum equal to three times the amount of the monthly standard rent in respect of the tenement. (b) If the landlord fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) or to place the tenant in occupation of the tenement he shall, without prejudice to his liability to place the tenant in vacant possession of the tenement, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.]

17D. [Vesting of original site in State Government. [This section 17-D inserted by Gujarat 12 of 1991, section 15.]

(1)(a)Where a landlord fails to erect a new building within the period specified in clause (a) or as the case may be in [clause (a) of Section 11-B] the original site, irrespective of [whether the premises thereon referred to in Section 11 -A or Section 11-B exist or not] [This portion was inserted by Gujarat 26 of 2001, section 5(1)(2).] shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances for the purpose of erection of new building to provide accommodation to tenants, and there shall be paid to the landlord such compensation for such site as may, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, under Section 49, by an order be determined by the Collector.(B)[] [This Sub-Section Was Inserted By Gujarat 26 Of 2001, Section 5(2).] The terms and conditions for Providing Accommodation to tenants after erection of new building shall be such as may be prescribed.](2)An appeal shall lie to the State Government from an order made by the Collector under sub-section (1) determining the amount of compensation to be paid to the landlord, within 30 days from the date of communication of the order and the State Government may pass such order as it deems fit.]

18. Unlawful charges by landlord.

(1)If any landlord either himself or through any person acting or purporting to act on his behalf or if any person acting or purporting to act on behalf of the landlord receives any fine, premium or other like sum or deposit or any consideration other than the standard rent or the permitted increase, in respect of the grant, renewal or continuance of a lease of any premises, or for giving his consent to the transfer of a lease by sub-lease or otherwise, such landlord or person shall, on conviction, be punished within imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be punished with fine which shall not be less than the amount of the fine, premium or sum or deposit or the value of the consideration received by him, and further where the offence is committed by a landlord in respect of premises which were of his ownership on the date of the offence such premises shall be liable to confiscation.(2)Where any fine, premium or other like sum or deposit or any consideration referred to in sub-section (1) is paid by any person, the amount or value thereof shall be recoverable by him from the landlord to whom it was paid or on whose behalf it was received or from his legal representative at any time within a period of six months from the date of payment and may, if such person is a tenant, without prejudice to any other remedy for recovery, be deducted by him from any rent payable by him to such landlord.(3)Nothing in this section shall apply to any payment made under any agreement entered into before the [specified date] [The words were substituted for the words and figures 'first day of September, 1940' by Gujarat 57 of 1963, section 17.] or to any payment made by any person to landlord by way of a loan, for the purpose of financing the erection of the whole or part of a residential building or a residential section of a building on the land [held by him as an owner] [This portion was added by Bombay 42 of 1951, section 2(1).], a lessee or in any other capacity, entitling him to build on such land, under an agreement which shall be in writing and shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1908, (XVI of 1908) be registered. Such agreement shall inter alia include the following conditions, namely, -(i)that the landlord is to let to such person the whole or part of the building when completed for the use of such person or any member of his family;(ii)that the rate of interest on such loan shall not be less than four per cent per annum;(iii)that such loan shall be repayable by the landlord within a period of ten years from the date of the execution of the agreement or within a period of six months from the date of the termination of the tenancy by the landlord, whichever period expires earlier;(iv)that the amount of the loan shall be charge on the entire building and the entire interest of the landlord in the land on which such building is erected:Provided that if the loan has been advanced by more than one person, all such person shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, be entitled to a charge on the entire building and the entire interest of the landlord in such land rateably according to the amount of the loan advanced by each of such persons;(v)that the landlord shall use the amount of the loan for the purpose of erecting the whole or part, as the case may be, of the residential building and for no other purpose; and(vi)(a)that the erection of the building shall be completed within a period of two years from the date of the execution of the agreement or if the agreements executed are more than one, from the date of the execution of the first of such agreements:Provided that the said period of two years may be extended to a further period not exceeding one year with the sanction of the Collector;(b)that if the erection of the building is not completed within the period of two years or within the extended period specified in the proviso to clause (a), the loan shall be repayable forthwith to the person advancing the same with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum.(4)[If any landlord who has received a loan under an agreement in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3), contravenes, without any reasonable excuse any of the conditions specified in the said sub-section (3), such landlord shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.] [This sub-section was inserted by Bombay 42 of 1951, section 2(2).][Explanation I. - For the purposes of sub-section (1),-(a)[except as provided in sub-section (3)] receipt of rent in advance for more than three months in respect of premises let for the purposes of residence, or(b)where any furniture or other article is sold by landlord to the tenant either before or after the creation of tenancy of any premises, the excess of the price received over the reasonable price of the furniture or article, shall be deemed to be a fine or premium or consideration.][Explanation II. - For the purposes of sub-section (3), "member of the family" means in the case of an undivided Hindu family any member of such family and in the case of any other family the husband/wife, son, daughter, father, mother, brother, sister or any other relative of the person permanently residing and boarding with him.] [This Explanation II was added, Bombay 42 of 1951, section 2(4).]

19. Unlawful charges by tenant.

(1)[Save in cases provided for under the proviso to Section 15] [These words and figures were inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 12(1).], it shall not be lawful for the tenant or any person acting or purporting to act on behalf of the tenant to claim or receive any sum, or any consideration as a condition of the [relinquishment, transfer or assignment] [These words were inserted, Bombay 61 of 1953, section 12(1).] of his tenancy of any premises.(2)Any tenant or person who in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) receives any sum or consideration shall, on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be punished with fine which shall not be less than the sum of the value of the consideration received by him.

20. Recovery of amounts paid not in accordance with Act.

- Any amount paid on account of rent after the date of the coming into operation of this Act shall, except in so far as payment thereof is in accordance with the provisions of this Act, be recoverable by the tenant from the landlord to whom it was paid or on whose behalf it was received or from his legal representative at any time within a period of six months from the date of payment and may, without prejudice to any other remedy for recovery, be deducted by such tenant from any rent payable by him to such landlord.

21. Landlord to furnish particulars or rent, etc., to tenant.

(1) Every landlord shall, upon a notice served upon him by the tenant by post or in any other manner, furnish to such tenant within one month of the receipt such notice a statement giving full particulars of the amount of standard rent of the premises or part thereof let to such tenant and of the permitted increases. (2) Any landlord who fails to furnish such statement or any landlord or his agent who intentionally furnishes a statement which is false in any material particulars shall, [on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.] [These words were substituted for the words 'shall be punishable' by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 13.]

22. Particulars to be furnished by tenant of tenancy sub-let or transferred before the [Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959] [This portion was substituted for the words 'this Act' by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 8(2).]

(1) [Every tenant who, before the commencement of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control (Amendment) Ordinance 1959] [This portion was substituted for the words 'before the date of the coming into operation of this Act' by Bombay 49 of 1959, section 8(1).], (Bombay Ordinance No. III of 1959) has, without the consent of the landlord given in writing, sublet the whole or any part of the premises let to him or assigned or transferred in any other manner his interest therein, and every sub-tenant to whom the premises are so sub-let or the assignment or transfer is so made, shall furnish to the landlord, within a month of the receipt of a notice served upon him by the landlord by post or in any other manner a statement in writing signed by him giving full particulars of such sub-letting, assignment or transfer including the rent charged or paid by him. (2) Any tenant or sub-tenant who fails to furnish such statement or intentionally furnishes a statement which is false in any material particulars [shall, on conviction, be punished] [These words were substituted for the words 'shall be punishable' by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 14.] with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.]

23. Landlord's duty to keep premises in good repair.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force and in the absence of an agreement to the contrary by the tenant, every landlord shall be bound to keep the premises in good and tenantable repair. (2) [If the landlord neglects to make any repairs, which he is bound to make under sub-section (1), within a reasonable time after a notice is served upon him by post or in any other manner by a tenant or jointly by tenants interested in such repairs, such tenant or tenants may themselves make the same and deduct the expenses of such repairs from the rent or otherwise recover them from the landlord: Provided that where the repairs are jointly made by the tenants the amount to be deducted or recovered by each tenant shall bear the same proportion as the rent payable by him in respect of his premises bears to the total amount of the expenses incurred for such repairs: [Provided further that the amount so deducted or recoverable in any year shall not exceed one-fourth of the rent payable by the tenant for that year, excluding therefrom one-fourth of the proportionate taxes in respect of his premises payable to a local authority for that year.] [This portion was substituted for the original sub-section (2), by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 15.] (3) For the purpose of calculating the expenses of the repairs made under sub-section (2), the accounts together with the vouchers maintained by the tenants shall be conclusive evidence of such expenditure and shall be binding on the landlord.] [This Explanation was numbered as Explanation I by Bombay 42 of 1951, section 2 (1).]

23A. Tenant entitled to supply of electricity at his cost.

- [(1) When a tenant desires to get supply of electricity at his own cost from a licensee within the meaning of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910) and the owner of the premises does not give his consent therefor, the tenant may apply to the Collector setting out the scheme for such supply. (2) On receipt of such application the Collector may, after giving the landlord and the owner of the premises if he be not the landlord, opportunity of being heard, permit the tenant to get the supply in accordance with the scheme set-out in the tenant's application or in accordance with any modified scheme. (3) On such permission being given, notwithstanding any thing contained in any contract or in any other law for the time being in force, the owner shall be deemed to have given the requisite consent under sub-section (2) of Section 12 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910) and the licensee shall not be liable to the owner for trespass for steps taken for supply of electricity according to the said permission.] [Section 23-A was inserted by section 19.]

24. Landlord not to cut off or withhold essential supply or service.

(1) No landlord either himself or through any person acting or purporting to act on his behalf shall without just or sufficient cause cut off or withhold any essential supply or service enjoyed by the tenant in respect of the premises let to him. (2) A tenant in occupation of the premises may, if the landlord has contravened the provisions of sub-section (1), make an application to the Court for a direction to restore such supply or service. (3) If the Court on inquiry finds that the tenant has been in enjoyment of the essential supply or service and that it was cut off or withheld by the landlord without just or sufficient cause, the Court shall make an order directing the landlord to restore such supply or service before a date to be specified in the order. Any landlord who fails to restore the supply or service before the date so specified shall for each day during which the default continues thereafter be liable [upon a further direction by the Court to that effect] [These words were inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 16(1).] to fine which may extend to one hundred rupees. (4) Any landlord, who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both. Explanation

[I] [This Explanation was renumbered as Explanation I, Bombay 61 of 1953, section 16(2).] - In this section essential supply or service includes supply of water, electricity, lights in passages and on staircases, lifts and conservancy or sanitary service.[Explanation II. [Explanation II was added, Bombay 61 of 1953, section 16(2).] - For the purposes of this section, withholding any essential supply or service shall include acts or omissions attributable to the landlord on account of which the essential supply or service is cut off by the local authority or any other competent authority.]

25. Conversion of residential into non-residential premises prohibited.

(1)A landlord shall not use or permit to be used for a non-residential purpose any premises which on the date of the coming into operation of this Act were used for a residential purpose.(2)Any landlord who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

26. Giving receipt for [any amount] [These words were substituted for the word 'rent', by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 16(2).] received compulsory.

(1)Every landlord shall give a written receipt for any amount These [at the time when such amount is received] [words were inserted by Bombay 53 of 1949, section 3, Second Schedule.] by him in respect of any premises in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.(2)Any landlord or person who fails to give a written receipt for any amount received by him in respect of any premises shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

27. Recovery of rent according to British Calendar.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force or any contract, custom or local usage to the contrary, rent payable by the month or year or portion of a year shall be recovered according to the British Calendar.(2)The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may prescribe the manner in which rent recoverable according to any other calendar before the coming into operation of this Act shall be calculated and charged in terms of the British Calendar.

28. Jurisdiction of Courts.

- [(1)] [Section 28 except the Explanation to the said section was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section by Bombay 15 of 1952, section 2(1).] Notwithstanding anything contained in any law and notwithstanding that by reason of the amount of the claim or for any other reason, the suit or proceeding would not, but for this provision, be within its jurisdiction,-[] [Clause (a) was omitted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.][[(a) in the City of Ahmedabad, the Court of Small Causes of Ahmedabad.] Clause (a) was inserted by Gujarat 19 of 1961, Schedule, item 1.[in any area for which a Court of Small Causes is established under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, (IX of 1887) such Court, and] This clause was inserted by Bombay 58 of 1949, section 4 (2).elsewhere, the Court, of the Civil Judge (Junior Division)

29. Appeal.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, an appeal shall lie,-(a)[in the City of Ahmedabad, from a decree or order made by the Court of Small Causes, Ahmedabad, exercising jurisdiction under Section 28 to a Bench of two Judges of the said Court which shall not include the Judge who made such decree or order;] Clause (a) was inserted by Gujarat 19 of 1961, Section 19, Schedule, Item 2 (1) (a).[elsewhere from a decree] [These words were substituted for the words 'from a decree' Gujarat 19 of 1961, Schedule, item 2 (1) (b).] or order made by a Judge of the Court of Small Causes established under the [Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, (IX of 1887) or] [These words and figures were inserted by Bombay 58 of 1949, Section 5.] [By the Court of the Civil Judge deemed to be the Court of Small Causes under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of Section 28] [This portion was inserted by Bombay 15 of 1952, Section 3.] or by a Civil Judge exercising such jurisdiction, to the District Court:Provided that no such appeal shall lie from-(I)a decree or order made in any suit or proceeding in respect of which no appeal lies under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; (V of 1908);(II)a decree or order made in any suit or proceeding (other than a suit or proceeding relating to possession) in which the plaintiff seeks to recover rent and the amount or value of the subject-matter of which does not exceed-[where such suit or proceeding is instituted in the City of Ahmedabad, two thousand rupees; and] Sub-clause (i) was inserted by Gujarat 19 of 1961, Section 18, Schedule, Item 2 (1) (c) A.[* * ] [The words 'where such suit or proceeding is instituted elsewhere' were omitted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] [where such suit or proceeding is instituted elsewhere] [These words were substituted for the words 'the amount upto' by Gujarat 19 of 1961, Section 19, Schedule, Item 2 (1) (c) B.] the amount upto which the Judge or Court specified in clause (b) is invested with jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, under any law for the time being in force;(iii)an order made upon an application for fixing the standard rent or for determining the permitted increases in respect of any premises except in a suit or proceeding in which an appeal lies;(iv)an order made upon an application by a tenant for a direction to restore any essential supply or service in respect of the premises let to him.[(1-A) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be made within thirty days from the date of the decree or order, as the case may be:Provided that in computing the period of limitation prescribed by this sub-section the provisions contained in Sections 4, 5 and 12 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908) shall, so far as may be, apply.] This sub-section was inserted by Bombay 36 of 1948, Section 5. This amendment shall not apply to appeals from decrees or orders made before the coming into operation of the said Act, vide Section 8.[No further appeal shall lie against any decision in appeal under sub-section (1) but the High Court may, for the purpose of satisfying itself that any such decision in appeal was according to law, call for the case in which such decision was taken and pass such order with respect thereto as it thinks fit.] Sub-section (2) was substituted for the original by Gujarat 18 of 1965, Section 5.[Where no appeal lies under this section from a decree or order in any suit or proceeding [ * *] [This sub-section was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 17 (2).] [in the city of Ahmedabad the Bench of two Judges, specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) and elsewhere] [These words were inserted by Gujarat 19 of 1961, Section 18, Schedule, Item 2 (2).] the District Court, may for the purpose of satisfying itself that the decree or order made was according to law, call for the case in which such decree or order was made and pass such order with respect thereto as it thinks fit.] [This proviso was added by Bombay 61 of 1953, section 17 (1).]

29A. Saving of suits involving title.

- [Nothing contained in Section 28 or 29 shall be deemed to bar a party to a suit, proceeding or appeal mentioned therein in which a question of title to premises arises and is determined, from suing in a competent Court to establish his title to such premises.] [This section was inserted by Bombay 36 of 1948, Section 6.]

30. Compensation in respect of proceedings which are not bona fide or are false, frivolous or vexatious.

- If the Court finds that any suit, proceeding or application instituted or made before it is not instituted or made bona fide or is false, frivolous or vexatious, the Court may, after hearing the plaintiff or applicant and for reasons to be recorded, order that compensation, not exceeding one thousand rupees, be paid by such plaintiff or applicant to the defendant or opponent, as the case may be.

31. Procedure of Courts.

- The Courts specified in Sections 28 and 29 shall allow the prescribed procedure in trying and hearing suits, proceeding, applications and appeals and in executing order made by them.

31A. [Special procedure for disposal of certain applications. [Section 31-A was inserted by Gujarat 7 of 1985, Section 4.]

(1)The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons as it thinks fit as competent authority for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred, and performing the duties imposed on the competent authority under this section and shall define the local limits within which any competent authority so appointed shall exercise such powers and perform such duties.(2)A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a competent authority unless he had held a judicial office for at least five years or has been practising as an advocate or pleader for atleast seven years.(3)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, an application for eviction on the ground specified in Section 13-AA shall be made to the competent authority which shall deal with the application in accordance with the procedure laid down in this section.(4)The competent authority shall issue summons, in relation to every application referred to in sub-section (3), in the form specified in Schedule IV.(5)(a)The competent authority shall, in addition to, and simul-taneously with, the issue of summons for service on the tenant, also direct the summons to be served by registered post (acknowledgement due), addressed to the tenant or his agent empowered to accept the service at the place where the tenant or his agent actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain and may, if the circumstances of the case so require, also direct the publication of the summons in a news paper circulating in the locality in which the tenant is last known to have resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain.(b)When an acknowledgement purporting to have been signed by the tenant or his agent is received by the competent authority or the registered article containing the summons is received back with an endorsement, purporting to have been made by a postal employee to the effect that the tenant or his agent had refused to take delivery of the registered article, the competent authority may declare that there has been a valid service of summons.(6)The tenant, on whom the summons is duly served (whether in the ordinary way or by registered post) in the form specified in Schedule IV shall not contest the prayer for eviction from the premises unless he files an affidavit stating the grounds on which he seeks to contest the application for eviction and obtains leave from the competent authority as hereinafter provided and in default of his appearance in pursuance of the summons or his obtaining such leave the statement made by the landlord in the application for eviction shall be deemed to be admitted by the tenant and the applicant shall be entitled to an order for eviction on the ground aforesaid.(7)The competent authority shall give to the tenant leave to contest the application if the affidavit filed by the tenant discloses such facts as would disentitle the landlord from obtaining an order for the recovery of possession of the premises on the ground specified in Section 13-AA.(8)Where leave is granted to the tenant to contest the application, the competent authority shall commence the hearing of the application as early as practicable.(9)The competent authority shall, while holding an inquiry in a proceeding to which this section applies, follow the practice and procedure of a Court of Small Causes, including the recording of evidence.(10)No appeal shall lie against an order for the recovery of possession of any premises made by the competent authority in accordance with the procedure specified in this section:Provided that High Court may, for the purpose of satisfying itself that an order made in any case by the competent authority under this section is according to law, call for the record of that case and pass such order in respect thereto as it thinks fit.(11)Where no application has been made to the High Court for revision, the competent authority may exercise the powers of review in accordance with the provisions of Order XLVII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).(12)If any person refuses or fails to comply with the order of the eviction within thirty days of the date on which it has become final the competent authority or any other officer duly authorised by such competent authority in this behalf, may evict that person from and take possession of, the premises and deliver the same to the landlord and for that purpose, use such force as may be necessary.(13)In respect of an application for eviction on the ground specified in Section 13-AA made to the competent authority the provisions of Section 17 shall apply as if for subsections (1) and (2) the following sub-sections had been substituted, namely,-"(1) Where an order for eviction has been made by the competent authority under Section 13-AA and the, premises are not occupied or the premises are re-let within one year from the date the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest recovers possession, to any person other than the original tenant, the competent authority may on the application of the original tenant made within 13 months of such date order the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest to place the original tenant in occupation of the premises on the original terms and conditions, and on such order being made the specified landlord or the successor-in-interest or any person who may be in occupation of the premises shall give vacant possession to the original tenant.(2)Any specified landlord or the successor-in-interest who recovers possession under Section 13-AA and keeps the premises unoccupied and any specified landlord or successor-in-interest or other person in occupation of the premises who fails to comply with the order of the competent authority under sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both."(14)Save as otherwise provided in this section, the procedure for the disposal of an application for eviction on the ground specified in Section 13-AA shall be the same as the procedure laid down for the disposal of application by the Court.]

Part III – Hotels and Lodging Houses

32. Appointment of Controller.

- The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint any person to be a Controller for any area for the purposes of this Part.

33. Fixation of fair rates [percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 4 (3).] and number of Lodgers.

(1)The Controller may fix a fair rate to be charged for board, lodging or other service provided in a hotel or lodging house, at such amount as having regard to the circumstances of the case, he deems just. [The Controller may also fix the percentage of accommodation of daily and monthly lodgers respectively in a hotel or lodging house.] This portion was added by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 4 (1).The Controller may fix a fair rate separately for-(i)lodging with reference to the nature of the accommodation and the number of lodgers to be accommodated;(ii)board, partial or full;(iii)other service.(3)The Controller may fix fair rates separately for daily and monthly lodgers.(4)The Controller shall also fix the number of lodgers to be accommodated in each room or specified accommodation in the hotel or lodging house.[Explanation. [This Explanation was inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 4 (2).] - For the purposes of this part, a lodger who agree to reserve accommodation in a hotel or lodging house for a period of less than a month shall be deemed to be a daily lodger.]

34. Revision of fair rates, [percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 5.] and number of Lodgers.

- The Controller may, from time to time, revise the fair rates, [the percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 5.] or the number of lodgers fixed under Section 33.

35. Continuance of fair rates before coming into operation of this Part.

- Fair rates fixed under the Bombay Hotels and Lodging Houses Control Order, 1942, or the Bombay Rents, Hotel Rates and Lodging House Rates (Control) Act, 1944, (Bombay VII 1944), and which were in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Part shall be deemed to have been fixed under this Part, and the provisions of this Part shall apply in respect of such rates.

36. Notice of fair rate, [percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 6.] and number of lodgers to be displayed.

- Where under Section 33 or Section 34 the Controller has fixed or revised the fair rate, [the percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 6.] or the number of lodgers he shall direct the manager of the hotel or the owner of lodging house, as the case may be, to display a notice of the fair rate, [percentage of accommodation] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 6.], the number of lodgers and all the provisions of this Act relating thereto in a conspicuous manner in the hotel or lodging house and also in the room or accommodation in respect of which the fair rate and the number of lodgers are fixed or revised.

37. Charges not recoverable in excess of fair rate.

(1)Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, no manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall charge any amount in excess of the fair rate.(2)When the Controller has fixed the fair rate any agreement for the payment of any charges in excess of such fair rate shall be void in respect of such excess and shall be construed as if it were an agreement for payment of the said fair rate.(3)Any sum paid by a lodger in excess of the fair rate shall be recoverable by him at any time within a period of six months from the date of payment from the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house or his legal representative, and may, without prejudice to any other remedy for recovery, be deducted by such lodger from any amount payable by him to such manager or owner.

38. No ejectment ordinarily to be made if fair rate paid.

- No manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall evict or refuse board or other service to a lodger so long as he pays, or is ready and willing to pay, the fair rate and observes and performs the other conditions of his agreement in so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act:[Provided that where under Section 33 or Section 34 the Controller has fixed or revised the percentage of accommodation for daily and monthly lodgers respectively, the manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house may refuse accommodation to any daily or monthly lodger, as the case may be, if the accommodation in respect of such class of lodgers is fully occupied.] [This proviso was added, Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 7.]

39. When manager of a hotel or owner of lodging house may recover possession.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house shall be entitled to recover possession of the accommodation provided by him on obtaining a certificate from the Controller certifying that-(a)[the lodger has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to any adjoining or neighbouring lodger;] The word 'or' was deleted, ibid, Section 8.the accommodation is reasonably and bona fide required by the owner of the hotel or lodging house, as the case may be, either for his own occupation or for the occupation of any person for whose benefit the accommodation is held, or for any other cause which may be deemed satisfactory by the Controller; [] The word 'or' was deleted by Bombay 58 of 1949, Section 6 (1).[the lodger is habitually irregular in making payment of the charges for board, lodging or other service provided in the hotel or lodging house;] This clause was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 18.[the lodger has failed to vacate the accommodation on the termination of the period of the agreement in respect thereof: [This clause was added by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 8.]Provided that before issuing a certificate under this clause the Controller shall take into consideration the vacancies, if any, in the accommodation for daily and monthly lodgers the percentage of which has been fixed or revised under Section 33 or Section 34 and the circumstances under which the lodger did not vacate on the termination of the period of the agreement;] [or] The word 'or' was added by Bombay 58 of 1949, Section 6 (2).[the lodger has done any act which is inconsistent with the purpose for which the accommodation is provided to him or which is likely to affect adversely and substantially the owner's interest therein.] [Clause (d) was added, ibid, Section 6 (3).]

40. Penalties.

(1)If any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house either himself or through any person acting or purporting to act on his behalf or if any person acting or purporting to act on behalf of a manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house receives any fine, premium or other like sum or deposit or any consideration other than the fair rate, in respect of the grant or continuance of accommodation in the hotel or lodging house, such manager, owner or person shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be punished with fine which shall not be less than the amount of the fine, premium or sum or deposit or the value of the consideration received by him.(2)Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who charges any amount in excess of the fair rate in contravention of Section 37 shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.(3)Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who accommodates lodgers or permits lodgers to be accommodated in room or specified accommodation in excess of the number fixed by the Controller shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.(4)Any manager of a hotel or owner of a lodging house who fails to display a notice in contravention of the Controller's direction under Section 36 shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.[Explanation. - For the purposes of sub-section (1), receipt of charges in advance for more than one month shall be deemed to be a fine or premium or consideration.] [This Explanation was added by Bombay 36 of 1948, Section 7.]

41. Provisions relating to inquiries by Controller.

(1)No order under this Act shall be made by the Controller except after holding an inquiry.(2)Every such inquiry shall be made summarily in the prescribed manner.(3)For the purposes of holding an inquiry under sub-section (1) the Controller shall have the same powers as are vested in Civil Courts in respect of-(a)proof of facts by affidavits;(b)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;(c)compelling the production of documents; and(d)issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.(4)The Controller may himself, enter or authorize any person subordinate to him to enter upon any premises, hotel or lodging house or any part thereof to which the inquiry relates.

42. Appeal.

- An appeal shall lie to the State Government from an order passed by the Controller under the provisions of this Part (including an order granting or refusing a certificate under Section 39) within fifteen days from the date of communication of the order and the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may pass such order as it deems fit.

43. Procedure of Court in suits.

- [(1) The provisions contained in Sections 28, 29, 30 and 31 shall, [subject to the provisions of sub-section (2)] [This section was renumbered as 43 (1) by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 9 (1).], apply to suits by a manager of a hotel or an owner of a lodging house against a lodger for recovery of charges for, or possession of, the accommodation provided in the hotel or lodging house.](2)[Pending the final decision of the suit for recovery of charges for the accommodation provided in hotel or lodging house, the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house may make an application to the Court requiring the lodger to deposit in Court the amount of such charges. On such application, the Court shall forthwith make an order directing the lodger to deposit in Court such amount of charges within [such period as it thinks fit and shall serve the order upon the lodger and a copy thereof upon the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house.] [This sub-section was inserted, Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 9 (2).] If the lodger fails to deposit such amount within the period specified in the order the Court may at any time thereafter pass an order for the eviction of the lodger.]

44. Controller to be deemed public servant.

- A Controller appointed under this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

45. All proceedings before a Controller to be judicial proceedings.

- All proceedings before a Controller shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings for the purposes of Sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

46. Protection of action taken under this Act.

- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against a Controller in respect of anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

Part IV – Miscellaneous

47. Certain offences to be cognizable.

(1) Offences under Sections 16, 17, [17-A, 17-C] [These figures and letters were inserted by Bombay 53 of 1950, Section 8.], 18 and 19, sub-section (4) of Section 24, Section 25 and sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 40 shall be cognizable and [] [The words 'a Presidency Magistrate or' were omitted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] shall not be triable by any Court inferior to that of Magistrate of the First Class. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (V of 1898), it shall be lawful for a Magistrate trying offences under this Act to pass sentences of fine or to award any punishment under this Act in excess of his powers.

48. Offence by companies, etc.

- Where a person committing an offence under this Act is a company, or other body corporate, or an association of persons (whether incorporated or not), or a firm, every director, manager, secretary, agent or other officer or person concerned with the management thereof and every partner of the firm shall, unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or consent, be deemed to be guilty of such offence.

49. Rules.

(1)The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.(2)In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers such rules may provide for-(ai)[the manner in which addition to the rent shall be made under sub-section (1) of Section 10-D;] This clause was inserted by Bombay 61 of 1953, Section 20.[the rules subject to which compensation may be determined by the Collector under sub-section (1) of Section 17-D] Clause (aai) was inserted by Gujarat 30 of 1986, Section 16 (1).[the terms and conditions for providing accommodation to tenants under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 17-D] [Clause (aaai) was inserted by Gujarat 26 of 2001, Section 6 (w.e.f. 30-3-2001).]:(i)the form and the manner in which a receipt is to be given under sub-section (1) of Section 26;(ii)the manner in which rent recoverable according to any calendar other than the British Calendar before the coming into operation of this Act shall be calculated and charged in terms of the British Calendar under sub-section (2) of Section 27;(iii)the procedure to be followed in trying or hearing suits, proceedings (including proceedings for execution of decrees and distress warrants), applications, appeals and execution of orders;(iv)the manner in which inquiries shall be made summarily under sub-section (2) of Section 41;(v)[levy of court-fees in suits, appeals, proceedings and applications instituted before the State Government, Court, Controller or Collector.] Clause (v) was substituted by Gujarat 30 of 1986, Section 16 (2).[The power to make rules conferred by this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.(4)All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature or to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid, or the session immediately following.(5)Any rescission or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect.] [These sub-sections were inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, Section 20.]

50. Repeal.

- The Bombay Rent Restriction Act, 1939, (Bombay XVI of 1939) and the Bombay Rents, Hotel Rates and Lodging House Rates (Control) Act, 1944, (Bombay VII of 1944), are hereby repealed:Provided that all suits and proceedings between a landlord and a tenant [] [The words '(other than execution proceedings and appeals)' were deleted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 10.] relating to the recovery or fixing of rent or possession of any premises to which the provisions of Part II apply and all suits and proceeding by a manager of a hotel or an owner of a lodging house against a lodger for the recovery of charges for, or possession of, the accommodation provided in a hotel or lodging house situate in an area to which Part III applies; which are pending in any Court, shall be transferred to and continued before the Courts which would have jurisdiction to try such suits or proceedings under this Act [or shall be continued in such Courts] [These words were inserted by Bombay 3 of 1949, Section 10.], as [x x x] [The word 'thereupon' was deleted, Bombay 3 of 1949.] the case may be, and all the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder shall apply to all such suits and proceedings.[Nothing in this proviso shall apply to execution proceedings and appeals arising out of decrees or orders passed before the coming into operation of this Act and such execution proceedings and appeals shall be decided and disposed of as if this Act had not been passed;] [This portion was inserted ibid.] Provided further that-(a) every order passed or act done by the Controllers under Part IV of the Bombay Rents, Hotel Rates and Lodging House Rates (Control) Act, 1944 (Bombay VII of 1944) and every order or act deemed to have been passed or done under that Part shall be deemed to have been passed or done under this Act; and (b) all proceedings pending before the Controllers under Part IV of that Act shall be transferred to and continued before the Controllers appointed under this Act as if they were proceedings instituted before the Controllers Under this Act.

51. Repeal of Saurashtra Act XXII of 1951 and of Bombay LVII of 1947 as extended to Kutch area and saving.

- [The Saurashtra Rent Control Act, 1951 (Saurashtra Act XXII of 1951) and the Bombay Rents, hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947 (Bombay LVII of 1947) as extended to the Kutch area of the State of Gujarat by the Government of India, Ministry of States, Notification No. 215-J, dated the 19th September, 1951 (Saurashtra Act XXII of 1951) are hereby repealed: Provided that-(1) such repeal shall not-(i) affect the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; (ii) affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; (iii) affect any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed; or (iv) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and (2) any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be continued, instituted or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture and punishment may be imposed, as if the aforesaid law had not been repealed: Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken under any such law, including any notification, order, notice or receipt issued or agreement made, shall be deemed to have been done, taken, issued or made under the corresponding provisions of this Act and shall continue in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by any thing done or any action taken under this Act.] [Section 51 was inserted by Gujarat 57 of 1963, Section 21.]
