(1)Every assessee (not being an officer of the State Government or the Central Government) liable to pay tax under section 5 shall obtain a certificate of registration from the assessing authority in the prescribed manner.(2)Every assessee (other than a person earning salary or wages, in respect of whom the tax is payable by his employer), liable to pay tax under this Act, shall obtain a certificate of enrollment from the assessing authority in the prescribed manner.(3)Every assessee required to obtain a certificate of registration or enrollment under this section shall,-(a)within thirty days from the date of commencement of this Act; or(b)if he was not engaged in any profession, trade, calling or employment on the date of such commencement, within thirty days of his becoming liable to pay tax; apply for a certificate of registration or enrollment or a revised certificate of enrollment, as the case may be, to the assessing authority in the prescribed form and, the assessing authority shall after making such enquiry as may be necessary within thirty days of the receipt of the application (which period in the first year from the commencement of this Act, shall be extended to ninety days) if the application is in order, grant him such certificate of registration or enrollment.(4)[xxx] Omitted by Act No.14 of 2012.Where an assessee liable to registration or enrollment has willfully failed to apply for such certificate within the time specified in sub-section (3), the assessing authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a penalty which shall not be less than rupees ten but which shall not exceed rupees twenty for each day of delay in case of an employer and not exceeding rupees five for each day of delay in case of others.(6)Where an assessee liable to registration or enrollment has deliberately given false information in any application submitted under this section, the assessing authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a penalty which shall not be less than rupees one hundred but which shall not exceed rupees one thousand.

7. Returns.

(1)Every assessee registered under this Act, shall submit to the assessing authority a return in such form, for such period or periods and by such dates as may be prescribed showing therein the salaries and wages paid by him and the amount of tax deducted by him in respect thereof.(2)Every such return shall be accompanied by a treasury challan in proof of payment of full amount of tax due according to the return, and return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly submitted.(3)Where an assessee has without reasonable cause failed to submit such return within the specified period, the assessing authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of making representation impose upon him a penalty which shall not be less than rupees five but which shall not exceed rupees one hundred for each day of delay.

8. Assessment of an assessee.

(1)If the assessing authority is satisfied that the return submitted by an assessee is correct and complete, it may accept the return. If the return appears to it to be incorrect or incomplete it shall, after giving the assessee a reasonable opportunity of proving the correctness or completeness of the return submitted by him and making such enquiry as it deemed necessary, assess to the best of its judgment, the amount of tax due from the assessee.(2)The amount of tax due from any assessee shall be assessed separately for each year within a period of four years from the expiry of the year to which the assessment relates.(3)If any assessee has failed to get himself registered or having been registered, has failed to submit any return, the assessing authority shall, after giving the assessee a reasonable opportunity of making representation and after making such inquiry as he deems necessary pass an order assessing the amount of tax due, to the best of its judgment.(4)The amount of tax so assessed shall be paid within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of demand from the assessing authority.(5)In making an assessment under sub-section (1), the assessing authority if it is satisfied that the escaped assessment was due to wilful non-disclosure of information or attempt to evade the tax by the assessee, the assessing authority may also direct to pay in addition to the tax assessed, a penalty which shall not be less than one and half times the tax so assessed but which shall not exceed three times the tax so assessed:Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed unless the assessee affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the imposition of such penalty.

9. Assessment of escaped or under assessed tax.

- If for any reason any tax payable under this Act, has escaped assessment or has been under assessed or assessed at a lower rate than the rate at which it is assessable, the assessing authority may at any time within four years from the expiry of the year to which the tax relates, proceed to assess or reassess the tax, as the case may be, to the best of its judgment after issuing a notice to the assessee concerned and after making such enquiry as it considers necessary:Provided that the tax shall be charged at the rate at which it would have been charged if such tax had not escaped assessment or, as the case may be, had not been under assessed or assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it was assessable.

10. Payment of tax by certain assesses.

- The amount of tax due from the assesseees for each year as specified in their enrollment certificate shall be paid,-(a)before 30th June, in respect of an assessee who stands enrolled before the commencement of a year or is enrolled on or before the 31st May of a year; and(b)within one month of the date of enrollment in respect of an assessee who is enrolled after the 31st May of a year; in the prescribed manner.(c)[Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (a) and (b), the amendment made to the First Schedule except serial No.1 relating to salary and wage earners in the First Schedule, shall be deemed to have come into force from 1st April, 1996 and the tax paid by any assessee for the year 1996-97 as per the pre-amended Schedule shall be deducted from the amount due from the assessee as per the rates under the amended Schedule and the balance amount shall be paid on or before 30th September, 1996.] Inserted by Act No.29 of 1996.[in the case of licenced horse owners, trainers, jockeys, book-makers shall be paid within a week of the commencement of the racing at the turf-clubs in the prescribed manner.] [Inserted by Act No. 17 of 2003.]

11. Consequences of failure to deduct or to pay tax.

(1)if an assessee (not being an officer of the State Government or the Central Government) does not deduct the tax at the time of payment of salary or wages or after deducting, fails to pay the tax as required by or under this Act, he shall-(a)be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of the tax; and(b)be liable to pay such interest as may be prescribed on the amount of tax due for each month or part thereof for the period for which the tax remains unpaid.(2)If an enrolled person fails to pay the tax as required by or under this Act, he shall be liable to pay interest at the rate and in the manner laid down in sub-section (1).

12. Penalty for non-payment of tax.

- If any assessee fails, without, reasonable cause to make payment of any amount of tax within the time specified in the notice of demand, the assessing authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of making his representation, impose upon him a penalty which shall not be less than twenty-five per cent but not exceeding fifty percent of the amount of tax due. This penalty shall be in addition to the interest payable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 11.

13. Recovery of tax, etc.

- The arrears of tax, penalty, interest or any other amount due under this Act, shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

14. Appointment of collecting agents.

(1)The Government may, for carrying out the purposes of this Act, appoint any Government Department officer, or local authority as its agent (hereinafter called "the collecting agent") who shall be responsible for the collection of the tax under this Act, from such assessee or class of assessee as may be prescribed and thereupon it shall be the duty of such collecting agent to carry out the functions under this Act, in such manner as may be prescribed and to render full and complete account of the tax collected, to the Commissioner in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed.(2)The collecting agent and every Officer authorised by it in this behalf shall, for the purposes of collection of the tax, have all the powers of the assessing authority and also any other powers that may be prescribed.(3)A local authority appointed as a collecting agent under sub-section (1), shall be paid such collection charges as may be determined by the Government.(4)It shall be lawful for the Commissioner or any Officer duly authorised by him, to have access to and to require production and examination of books, registers, accounts or documents maintained or required to be maintained by the collecting agent for the purposes of this Act and the, collecting agent shall, whenever called upon so to do produce, such books, registers, accounts or documents for inspection.

15. Appeals.

(1)Any assessee [xxx] [Omitted by Act No.14 of 2012.] aggrieved by any order passed by [any assessing authority] [Substituted for the words 'any authority' by Act No.14 of 2012.] under the provisions of this Act, [xxx] [Omitted by Act No.16 of 2008.] may within thirty days from the date on which the order was served on him, appeal to the appellate authority:Provided that the appellate authority may for sufficient cause shown admit an appeal preferred after the expiry of the period of thirty days aforesaid.(2)[No appeal shall be entertained, unless 12.5% of the amount of disputed tax or penalty or interest besides the admitted tax, in full is paid.(3)The appeal shall be in such form and verified in such manner as may be prescribed.] Sub-section (2) and (3) substituted by Act No.16 of 2008.The appellate authority may after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard and subject to such rules of procedure as may be prescribed:-(a)confirm, reduce, enhance, or annul or otherwise modify the assessment, penalty or interest as the case may be;(b)set aside the assessment, penalty or interest as the case may be and direct the assessing authority to pass a fresh order after such further inquiry as may be directed; or(c)pass such other orders as it may think fit.(5)Before passing orders under sub-section (4), the appellate authority may make such inquiry as it deems fit or remand the case to any subordinate officer or authority for an inquiry and report on any specified point or points.(6)Every order passed in appeal under this section shall, subject to the provisions of section 16, be final.

16. Revision.

- [(1) The Commissioner may, call for and examine the record of the proceedings of any order made by the assessing authority, or, the appellate authority for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order and pass such order not prejudicial to the interests of revenue.] Substituted by Act No.16 of 2008.[[xxx] [Sub-section (2) Omitted by Act No.16 of 2008.]](3)The powers of revision shall be exercised within such period not exceeding four years from the date on which the order was served on the assessee.(4)No order which adversely affects any assessee shall be passed under this section, unless such assessee has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(5)[[xxx] [Sub-section (5) omitted by Act No.16 of 2008.]]

17. Accounts.

(1)If the assessing authority is satisfied that the books of account and other documents maintained by an assessee in the normal course of his business are not adequate for verification of the returns submitted by the employer under this Act, it shall be lawful for the assessing authority to direct the employer to maintain the books of account or other documents in such manner as he may in writing direct, and thereupon the assessee shall maintain such books or other documents accordingly.(2)Where an assessee willfully fails to maintain the books of accounts or other documents as directed under sub-section (1), the assessing authority may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a penalty not exceeding rupees five for each day of delay.

18. Special mode.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, [the Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner (CT) or the Commercial Tax Officer or the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer or the Profession Tax Officer may,] [Substituted by Act No.3 of 2003.] by notice in writing a copy of which shall be forwarded to the assessee at his last address known to the assessing authority, require,-(a)any person from whom any amount of money is due, or may become due to an assessee on whom notice of demand has been served under this Act; or(b)any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such assessee, to pay the assessing authority, either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (but not before the money becomes due or is held as aforesaid), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the assessee in respect of the arrears of tax, penalty or interest under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount. Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, the amount of money due to an assessee from, or money held for or on account of an assessee by any person shall be calculated after deducting therefrom such claims if any lawfully subsisting, as may have fallen due for payment by such assessee to such person.(2)[The Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner (CT) or the Commercial Tax Officer or the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer or the Profession Tax Officer may] [Substituted by Act No.3 of 2003.] amend or revoke any such notice, or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice.(3)Any person making any payment in compliance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the assessee and the receipt of the assessing authority shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such a person, to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.(4)Any person discharging any liability to the assessee after receipt of the notice referred to in this section, shall be personally liable to the assessing authority to the extent of the, liability discharged, or the extent or the liability of the assessee for the amount due under this Act, whichever is less.(5)Where any person to whom a notice under this section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the assessing authority that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due by him to the assessee or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the assessee then nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require, such person to pay any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, to the assessing authority.(6)Any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the assessing authority or for which he is personally liable to the assessing authority under this section, shall if it remains unpaid, be recoverable, as an arrear of land revenue.
