Glanders and Farcy (Tamil Nadu Amendment) Act, 1965(Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1965)Statement of Objects and Reasons - Glanders and Farcy Tamil Nadu (Amendment) Act, 1965. - South African Horse Sickness is considered to be a dangerous epidemic among horses. Although no case of the disease has so far been reported in this State, it is feared that unless appropriate preventive and remedial measures are taken in advance, there might be an outbreak of the said disease among horses to this State through the bringing into the State from outside or the transport from one place to another within the State of infected horses. It is also considered necessary to have all horses in any specified area to which the Act is made applicable compulsorily vaccinated in order to prevent the spread of the disease. To enable them to take effective preventive and remedial measures in this regard, the Government have decided to introduce in the Act a provision similar to section 5 of the Madras Rinderpest Act, 1940 (Madras Act XIX of 1940). New section 3-A proposed to be inserted by clause 2 provides for this. Clause 3 seeks to amend section 13 to provide penalty for failure to comply with the terms of any notification issued under section 3-A. Clause 4 makes consequential amendment in section 14 of the Act.2. The Bill is intended to give effect to the above decision.Published in Part IV-Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 9th November 1965.Received the assent of the President on the 25th January, 1966 and published in Part IV, section 4, page 15, of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 2nd February 1966.An Act to amend the Glanders and Farcy Act, 1899, in the application to the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the words 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969 as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.].Be it enacted by the Legislature of the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the words 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969 as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.] in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:
