The Bengal Tanks Improvement Act, 1939. Bengal Act 15 of 1939 [12th October, 1939] An Act to provide for the improvement of tanks in Bengal for purposes of irrigation. Whereas it is expedient to provide for the improvement of tanks in Bengal for purposes of irrigation; It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. Short title, extent and commencement.

(1) This Act may be called the Bengal Tanks Improvement Act, 1939. (2) It extends to the whole of [West Bengal] [Words substituted for the word 'Bengal' by the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Bengal and Punjab Acts) Order, 1948.]. (3) It shall come into force in such areas on such dates as the [State] [Words substituted for the word 'Provincial' by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct.

2. Definitions.

- In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, -(a1) ["agricultural land" includes land used for the growing of vegetables and the like and also waste land which is capable of cultivation but does not include a fruit garden, an orchard, any temple, mosque or homestead land;] Clause (a1) inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948. "authorised person" means the Collector, a local authority, co-operative society, or any other person who takes possession of a tank under the provisions of this Act and includes the successors in interest of such a person; (2) "Collector" includes a magistrate in charge sub-division of a district and any officer appointed by the [State] [Words substituted for the word 'Provincial' by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government to exercise all or any of the functions of a Collector under this Act ; (3) "co-operative society" means a society registered under [the Bengal Co-operative Societies Act, 1940] [Words and figures substituted by W.B. Act 19 of 1949.]; (4) "derelict tank" means a tank which has been declared to be derelict irrigation work under section 4 ; (5) "period of possession" means the period from the time when possession is first taken of a tank under section 5 or section 6 until the time when possession thereof is restored under section 21 ;(5a)["person having control over a tank" does not include a person by whom the tank is held for a limited time and whose interest in the tank is not transferable ;] Clause (5a) inserted by W.B. Act 2 of 1944."prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act ;(7)"tank" means a reservoir, or place which has been used as a reservoir, for the storage of water whether formed by excavation or by the construction of one or more embankments or place where water naturally accumulates, and includes any part of a tank and the banks thereof except such portions of the banks as are homestead garden or orchard land.

3. Requisition by Collector to carry out improvements in certain tanks.

- If the Collector is of opinion that any tank has fallen into dis-repair or dis-use, he may serve a notice in the prescribed form and manner on the person having control over the tank [requiring such person to intimate to him within a period specified in the notice if such person is willing to carry out and in case such person is so willing then,] [Words substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] to carry out within a period specified in the notice such Improvements of the tank as the Collector considers necessary for the proper utilisation of the tank for purposes of irrigation.

4. Declaration of a tank to be a derelict irrigation work.

(1)[If the person having control over the tank does not send any intimation or sends any intimation to the Collector within the period fixed under section 3 that he is not willing to carry out the improvements referred to in that section or if such person sends any intimation to the Collector within such period that he is willing to carry out the improvements but fails to carry out the improvements] [Words substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] to the satisfaction of the Collector within the period specified in the notice issued under that section or within such further period as the Collector may, on application made to him in this behalf, think fit to allow, the Collector may, [by a notice served in the proscribed manner on] [Words substituted by W.B Act 24 of 1948.] the person having control over the tank and otherwise Published in the prescribed form and manner, declare the tank to be a derelict irrigation work.(2)Every notice issued under sub-section (1) shall state the boundaries of the tank which is declared to be a derelict irrigation work [or the number entered in the record-of-rights finally published under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, of the survey plot comprising such tank.] Words & figures added by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.A copy of every notice published under sub-section (1) shall be posted up in a conspicuous place near the tank, together with an intimation that any objections to the [confirmation] [Words substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] of the notice received by the Collector within one month from the date when it is so posted up, will be taken into consideration.(4)On the expiry of the said period of one month, the Collector, after considering the objections, if any, shall confirm or withdraw the notice.(5)A notice published under this section shall, unless and until it is withdrawn, be conclusive evidence of the fact that the tank to which it relates is a derelict irrigation work within the meaning of this section.

5. Power to Collector in respect of a derelict irrigation work.

- After the notice declaring a tank to be a derelict irrigation work has been confirmed under section 4 the Collector, if he thinks fit, may at any time -(a)take possession of the tank and carry out the improvements specified in the notice under section 3, or(b)authorise under section 6 a local authority, co-operative society, or any other person interested to take such action.

6. Order for possession of, and improvements in, a derelict tank.

(1)Any local authority or co-operative society, or any other person who, in the opinion of the Collector, has an interest in a derelict tank, may, if authorised by the Collector by an order in writing in this behalf, take possession of such tank and carry out the improvements specified in the notice under section 3.(2)In making an order under sub-section (1) the Collector shall, except for sufficient reason to be recorded in writing, give preference to [the sole owner or] [Words inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] any co-sharer owner of the tank who has submitted an application stating that he is willing to carry out the said improvements or he may make an Order in favour of more than one such co-sharer owner jointly.(3)An order under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars and conditions as may be prescribed.

6A. [Order for possession of lands adjoining a derelict tank for carrying out Improvements in such tank. [Section 6A inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

(1)If any authorised person considers it necessary for the purpose of carrying out the improvements in a derelict tank to take possession of any land adjoining such tank,he may, -(a)if he is the Collector, take possession of such land by order in writing, and(b)if he is not the Collector, apply in the prescribed manner to the Collector to be empowered to take possession of such land and the Collector may, if he is satisfied after considering the application that such land is required for carrying out the improvements, empower the authorised person by order in writing to take possession of such land :Provided that the Collector, shall not take possession or empower any authorised person to take possession of such land without giving in the prescribed manner the person in possession of such land reasonable opportunity of making any representation he may like to make and without considering any representation so made.(2)Every Order made under sub-section (1) shall specify the boundaries of the land to which it relates or the number entered in the record-of-rights finally published under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, of the survey plot comprising such land and shall be in such form as may be prescribed.]

7. Cancellation of order under section 6.

(1)[If any authorised person other than the Collector -] Words and clause (a) substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.[fails to carry out the improvements to the satisfaction of the Collector in accordance with the conditions referred to in sub-section (3) of section 6, [or] [Words and clause (a) substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]](b)fails, in the opinion of the Collector, to proceed with the improvements with due diligence or to maintain the tank in proper condition, or(c)with or without the permission of the Collector gives up possession of the tank or abandons the work of improvement, or(d)is in the opinion of the Collector, guilty of any serious negligence or misconduct in relation to the tank or to persons having any right or interest in the tank or in the use of water thereof, or(e)fails to comply with any order passed under section 26 or section 27,the Collector may cancel the order made under section 6, [as well as any order made under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 6A] [Words, figures, letters and brackets inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] and thereupon all rights and powers of the said authorised person in respect of the tank [and in respect of any land of which possession is taken as a result of an order made under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 6A] [Words, figures, letters and brackets inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] shall cease and determine, and the Collector shall take possession of the tank [and such land] [Words, figures, letters and brackets inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.],(2)After taking possession of the tank [and such land] [Words, figures, letters and brackets inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] under sub-section (1) the Collector shall either appoint another authorised person to carry out the improvements or carry them out himself.

8. [Authorised person to retain possession of a derelict tank for a period not exceeding twenty-five years. [Section 8 substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

- Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Collector or an authorised person shall be entitled to remain in possession of a derelict tank of which possession has been taken under the provision of this Act for such period not exceeding twenty-five years from the date on which possession of the derelict tank was taken under section 5 or section 6 as may, in the opinion of the Collector, be necessary to recover the amount referred to in sub-section (4) of section 17 :Provided that the Collector may, after considering the views of the authorised person, if any, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, vary such period from time to time subject to the maximum limit of twenty-five years.]

9. Owner to be restored to possession on certain conditions.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 8, the Collector in his discretion may, at any time within the period determined under the said section, restore to possession of the tank the person recorded as entitled to possession thereof in the record-of-rights referred to in section 22 or his successors-in-interest, provided that -(a)[such person pays to the Collector so much of the costs incurred up to that time both by the authorised person in carrying out the required improvements in the tank and by the Collector in carrying out the purposes of this Act in respect of the tank as remains unrecovered after realisation by the authorised person under this Act of the fees referred to in section 17 or of any sum under any lease referred to in section 18, together with interest on the costs so remaining unrecovered at a rate not exceeding six and a quarter per centum per annum, and] Clause (a) substituted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.he undertakes to the satisfaction of the Collector to carry out any remaining improvements specified in the notice under section 3 within such period as the Collector may determine.

9A. [Authorised person to retain possession of land adjoining a tank during the period of possession of such tank. [Sections 9A to 9C inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

- An authorised person shall be entitled to remain in possession of any land adjoining a derelict tank of which possession is taken under section 6A as long as such person remains in possession of such derelict tank under section 8.

9B. Restoration of possession of land adjoining a derelict tank and the retaking of possession of such land.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 9A, if the person recorded as entitled to possession of any land adjoining a derelict tank in the record-of-rights referred to in section 22 or his successor-in-interest is not the person recorded as entitled to possession of such derelict tank in the record-of-rights referred to in the said section or his successor-in-interest, then the Collector may, at the request of the person so recorded as entitled to possession of such land or his successor-in-interest or of the authorised person at any time after the required improvements in the tank have been completed, by an order in writing, restore the possession of such land to the person so recorded as entitled to possession of such land or to his successor-in-interest, although the possession of the tank by the authorised person has not terminated, and when the possession of such land is so restored all rights in the land which existed prior to the time when possession was taken of the land under section 6A, shall be revived :Provided that before the Collector takes any action under this sub-section at the request of any person other than the authorised person the Collector shall give the authorised person a reasonable opportunity of making any representation he may like to make and the Collector shall consider any representation so made.(2)The person to whom the possession of such land has been restored under sub-section (1) shall not use it in such manner as may cause damage to the banks of the derelict tank or may affect the use of the tank for the purposes of irrigation.(3)If the person referred to in sub-section (2) fails, in the opinion of the Collector, to comply with the provisions of that sub-section, the Collector may, -(a)again empower the authorised person by an order in writing to take possession of such land whereupon the authorised person shall forthwith take possession thereof, or(b)if he is the authorised person, himself again take possession of such land by order in writing, and the authorised person so taking possession of such land again shall retain such possession as long as he remains in possession of the tank.(4)Every order made under sub-section (3) shall specify the boundaries of the land to which it relates or the number entered in the record-of-rights finally published under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, of the survey plot comprising such land and shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

9C. Restoration of possession of land adjoining a derelict tank on the restoration of possession of such tank under section 9.

- When the possession of a derelict tank is restored by the Collector under section 9, the Collector shall at the same time restore the possession of any land adjoining such tank of which possession was taken under section 6A and has not already been restored under sub-section (1) of section 9B or of which possession was retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B to the person recorded as entitled to possession of such land in the record-of-rights referred to in section 22 or to his successor in interest :Provided that where the person to whom the possession of the tank is restored under section 9 is not the person recorded as entitled to possession of such land in the said record-of-rights or his successor-in-interest, the possession of such land shall not be so restored until the improvements, if any, required to be carried out in the tank under clause (b) of the proviso to section 9 have been completed if the person to whom the possession of the tank is so restored agrees to pay the person so recorded as entitled to possession of such land the compensation which would have been payable by the authorised person under sub-section (1) of section 14A if such authorised person had continued to be in possession of such land.]

10. Authorised person not liable to pay rent or compensation.

- An authorised person shall not be liable to pay any rent or compensation in respect of his possession, of a derelict tank [or any land of which possession is taken under section 6A or is retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B] [Words, figure, letter and brackets inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] except as expressly provided in this Act.

11. Possession by an authorised person not to affect the rights or liabilities of other person.

- Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the possession of a derelict tank [or of any land adjoining a derelict tank under this Act] [Words inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] by an authorised person shall not affect the right or liability of any other person to receive or pay rent in respect of the said tank [or land] [Words inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] or in respect of any right or interest therein :Provided that at where rent [in respect of the tank] [Words inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.] was, at the time when possession was first taken of the tank under this Act, payable by any person solely in respect of a right to use the water of the tank for irrigation purposes the liability to pay such rent shall cease and determine from the date on which such possession was taken.

12. Authorised person to pay rent to owner and compensation to person other than the owner dispossessed by him.

- [(1) Where a derelict tank is, at the time of the taking of possession thereof by an authorised person, in the actual possession of the owner of the tank the authorised person shall pay, during the period he remains in possession, to such owner at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, such rent as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine :Provided that were the authorised person is the owner of the tank in actual possession thereof, no such payment of the rent determined by the rent shall be included in and form part of the costs incurred or likely to be incurred by the authorised person in carrying out the required improvements in the tank.] Original section 12 renumbered as sub-section (2) and new sub-section (1) inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.[Where a derelict tank is at the time of the taking of possession thereof by an authorised person, in the actual possession of any person other than the owner of the tank, the authorised person shall, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, pay to the person dispossessed by him such compensation as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine. Such compensation shall not be less than the amount of the rent which the person so dispossessed is liable to pay in respect of the tank, and shall be deemed to be a full and complete satisfaction for all loss suffered by such person as a result of the interference with his possession.] [Original section 12 renumbered as sub-section (2) and new sub-section (1) inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

13. Authorised person to pay compensation to persons who have right to fish in the tank, etc., on payment.

- Where, at the time of the taking of possession of a derelict tank by an authorised person, any person has a right, on payment of any rent or charge, to catch fish in the tank or to take fruits from trees on, or other produce from the banks of the tank the authorised person shall, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, pay to the said person such compensation as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine. Such compensation shall not be less than the amount of the rent or charge which the said person continues to be liable to pay to the owner or any tenant of the tank and shall be deemed to be a full and complete satisfaction for all loss suffered by such person as a result of the interference with the exercise of his right.

14. Authorised person to pay compensation to cultivators who hold a lease of the bed of a tank.

(1)Where the bed or any part of the bed of a tank has been leased out to cultivators for agricultural purposes the authorised person shall pay compensation to such cultivators, and thereupon such shall be terminated. The amount of compensation payable to each cultivator shall be such amount as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, deems fair and equitable [* * *] [Words omitted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]:[Provided that the compensation payable to such cultivators shall not be less than an amount which bears to the total amount of salami, as determined by the Collector to have been paid for obtaining the lease, the same ratio as the unexpired period of lease bears to the total period of such lease :] [Provisos added by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.][Provided further that where no period of lease is expressly mentioned or agreed to between the parties concerned the total period of lease shall be taken as twelve years.] Provisos added by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.The amount of compensation determined by the Collector under sub-section (1) shall be paid in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time to the authorised person by the landlord who granted the lease. If the landlord makes default in such payment the same shall be recoverable from the landlord by the Collector as a public demand and paid by him to the authorised person.

14A. [Payment of compensation to persons having rights in lands adjoining a tank of which possession is taken under this Act. [Section 14A inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

- Where the owner of a derelict tank is not the owner of any land adjoining such tank of which possession is taken under section 6A, or retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B, the authorised person shall, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, pay to the person in possession of such land at the time of taking or retaking possession thereof such compensation as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine. Such compensation shall not be less than amount of the rent which the person so dispossessed is liable to pay in respect of the land and shall be deemed to be a full and, complete satisfaction for all loss suffered by such person as a result of interference with his possession.(2)Where the owner of a derelict tank is also the owner of any land adjoining such tank of which possession is taken under section 6A, or taken under sub-section (3) of section 9B, the authorised person shall -(a)in the case where such land is in the actual possession of the owner thereof, pay at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed to such owner such rent as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine :Provided that where the authorised person is the owner of such land in actual possession thereof, no such payment of the rent determined by the Collector under this clause shall be necessary; but the amount of such rent shall be included in and form part of the costs incurred or likely to be incurred by the authorised person in carrying out the required improvements in the tank; and(b)in other cases pay at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed to any person to whom such land has been leased out and who hold such land as lessee at the time such possession is taken or retaken and to every other person having at that time, on payment of any rent or charge, any right in such land, such, such compensation as the Collector, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, may determine, and such compensation shall not be less than the amount of the rent or charge which the person to whom the compensation is paid continues to be liable to pay to the owner or the tenant of such land and shall be deemed to be a full and complete satisfaction for all loss suffered by every such person as a result of the interference with the exercise of his right.]

15. [Permission of the authorised person necessary to use or occupy the tank, etc. [Section 15 renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-section(2) added by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

(1)During the period of possession no person shall without the permission of the authorised person use or occupy the tank or use the water thereof except for drinking and other domestic purposes or catch fish in the tank or take fruits from trees on, or other produce from, the banks of the tank, except such portions of the banks as are homestead, garden or orchard lands.(2)During the period any land, of which possession is taken under section 6A, or retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B, remains in the possession of an authorised person, no person shall without the permission of the authorised person use or occupy such land or take fruits from trees on, or other produce from, such land.]

16. [Rights to use the water of the tank. [Section 16, 16A, 16B, 17 and 17A substituted for the original sections 16 and 17 by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

- During the period of possession all rights to use the water of the tank for irrigation purposes shall vest in the authorised person and no person shall use the water of the tank for such purposes except with the permission of the authorised person or in so far as he may be permitted to do so by or under the provisions of this Act.

16A. Maximum irrigation area.

(1)When the possession of any tank has been taken under section 5 or section 6, the Collector shall determine in the prescribed manner the maximum area of land to the limits of which irrigation from the said tank may practicably be extended (hereinafter referred to as the maximum irrigation area) and the system and alignment by which and the priority in accordance with which such irrigation can be so extended to the land in that area, and shall publish a notice in the prescribed form and manner defining the limits of the maximum irrigation area specifying the system, alignment and priority so determined.(2)Every person possessing agricultural land within the maximum irrigation area shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), be liable to pay a fee annually during the period of possession to the authorised person at the rate fixed and in the manner provided under section 17 and such liability shall not cease by reason of such person not using water for irrigation purposes from the tank to which the maximum irrigation area relates.(3)Any person concerned may, within thirty days of the date of the publishing of the notice referred to in sub-section (1) apply in the prescribed form and manner and on payment of the prescribed fee to the Collector for -
 (a)including any land within the maximum irrigation area,(b)excluding any land from the maximum irrigation area, and(c)exempting any land or part of any land from liability to pay the fees referred to in sub-section (2) on the ground that such land cannot practicably be irrigated from the tank to which the maximum irrigation area relates, or cannot be benefited by such irrigation or that such land is not agricultural land,and the Collector after giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard may pass an order as to such inclusion, exclusion or exemption as he thinks fit.(4)The Collector may, of his own motion at any time after the expiry of thirty days from the date of publishing of the notice referred to in sub-section (1), include within the maximum irrigation area any land which was not agricultural land at the time of publication of such notice but has subsequently been converted into agricultural land, or otherwise revise the limits of the maximum irrigation area or exempt any land or part of any land within such maximum irrigation area from liability to pay the fees referred to in sub-section (2) and the Collector shall modify the list referred to in sub-section (1) of section 16B accordingly:Provided that before any order for such inclusion, revision or exemption is passed all persons concerned shall, by notice served or published in the prescribed manner, be given a reasonable opportunity of making any representation which they may like to make and the Collector shall consider such representation,

16B. Preparation of list.

(1)As soon as may be after the Collector has disposed of any application made under sub-section (3) of section 16A, he shall prepare a list in the prescribed form and manner of the persons who are liable to pay the fee referred to in sub-section (2) of that section and such list shall specify the amount of agricultural land within the maximum irrigation area in respect of which each such person is to pay such fee and the amount of such fee which such person is to pay annually to the authorised person.(2)The collector shall publish the list referred to in sub-section (1) and every modification of such list in the manner prescribed and shall, where the authorised person is not the Collector, forward a copy of such list and every modification of such list to the authorised person who shall permit every person whose name is entered in the list or his successor-in-interest to use the water of the tank for the irrigation of the land of such person as long as the amount of the fee payable by such person is duly paid and not otherwise.(3)If any dispute arises between persons entered in the list prepared under sub-section (1), as to any matter in respect of the use of water by such persons from the tank for the irrigation of their lands the authorised person or a person authorised in this behalf by the Collector shall decide the dispute and his decision, subject to the provisions of section 26, shall be final.

17. Payment and rate of fees.

(1)Every person whose name is included in the list referred to in sub-section (1) of section 16B or his successor-in-interest shall pay annually and in the prescribed manner and on the dates prescribed to the authorised person or to such person as may be authorised by the Collector in his behalf the fees fixed according to the provisions of this section.(2)If the fees payable under sub-section (1) are not paid within thirty days from the due date fixed for such payment, interest on the amount of the fees so outstanding shall be payable at the rate of six and one quarter per centum per annum calculated from the day on which such payment became due until the date on which the amount of the fees so outstanding is paid or recovered, as the case may be.(3)The Collector shall fix, in respect of any tank of which possession is taken under this Act and for which the maximum irrigation area has been determined by the Collector, the rate or rates at which fees to be paid to the authorised person under sub-section (1) shall be calculated and different rates may be so fixed for classes of agricultural lands of different descriptions or having different advantages or for lands for the irrigation of which any person had at the time when possession was taken of the tank under this Act the prescriptive right to use water for irrigation.(4)The rate to be fixed under sub-section (3) shall be such that all costs incurred or likely to be incurred -(i)by the authorised person in carrying out the required improvements in the tank ; and(ii)by the Collector in carrying out the purposes of this Act in respect of the tank;may be recovered together with interest thereon at a rate, fixed by the [State] [Words substituted for the word 'Provincial' by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government,not exceeding six and one quarter per centum per annum and together with an amount estimated by the Collector as is likely to be necessary for maintaining the tank in proper condition during the period of possession determined by the Collector under section 8.(5)The Collector may revise the rate or rates of fees fixed under this section in respect of any tank.(6)Any sum due to the authorised person under this section shall be recoverable as a public demand.

17A. Passage of water.

- No person shall obstruct the passage of any water taken for irrigation purposes from any tank in accordance with the system, alignment and priority for taking water as determined by the Collector under sub-section (1) of section 16A.]

18. Power of authorised persons to lease out the tank, etc.

- [(1) During the period of possession the authorised person may, subject to the provisions of this Act and the previous permission of the Collector lease to any person for a period not extending beyond the period of possession any part of the banks of the tank or any right to take fruit from trees on, or other produce from, such banks or any right to rear and catch fish in the tank.(2)During the period any land of which possession is taken under section 6A or retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B remains in the possession of an authorised person, such authorised person may, subject to the provisions of this Act and the previous permission of the Collector, lease to any person for a period not extending beyond the said period of possession any part of the said land or any right to take fruits from trees on, or other produce from, such land.(3)Any sum due to the authorised person under any lease granted under this section shall be recoverable as a public demand.(4)All sums realised or estimated to be realised by the Collector or by the authorised person under any lease granted under this section and any other income derived from the tank including banks thereof and from adjoining lands taken possession of under section 6A and by the sale of silt or otherwise, shall be applied in payment of the costs recoverable under sub-section (4) of section 17.] [Section 18 renumbered as sub-section (1) & sub-sections (2), (3) & (4) added by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]

19. Bar to transfer of tank except as provided in this Act.

- Except as provided in this Act, no transfer by sale, gift, will, mortgage, lease or any contract or agreement of any right acquired by an authorised person under the provisions of this Act in respect of a derelict tank, [or in respect of any land of which possession is taken under section 6A or retaken under sub-section (3) of section 9B] [Words, figures, letter and brackets ins by W.B. Act 24 of 19 & 48.] shall be valid.

19A. [Bar to acquisition of occupancy rights in lands leased out under section 18. [Section 19A inserted by W.B. Act 24 of 1948.]
