20. Meeting of the Board.

(1) The Board shall meet at the headquarters of its office which shall be located at Lucknow or at such other place and at such time and the meeting shall be convened in such manner as may be provided by regulations made by the Board. (2) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board unless five members are present : Provided that when it is necessary to postpone any business at a meeting for want of quorum, the Chairman shall adjourn the meeting to another date and the business postponed for want of quorum shall be transacted on such date or in the event of a further adjournment of the meeting to a subsequent date, on such subsequent date notwithstanding any deficiency in the number of members present.

21. Chairman of meeting.

- If at a meeting neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman is present, the members present shall elect one of their members to be the Chairman of the meeting and such Chairman shall perform all the duties and may exercise all the powers of the Chairman of the Board when presiding at the meeting.

22.

[* * *] [Omitted by U. P. Act No. 1 of 1975, Section 5 (w.e.f. 17-1-1975).]

23. Power of Chairman of meeting to maintain order.

- Where, at a meeting of the Board, any member or other person refuses to comply with any direction of the Chairman ruling any business, discussion or matter out of order or otherwise regulating the conduct of members or of business, or where any member or person wilfully disturbs the meeting, the Chairman may require that member or person to withdraw from the meeting and, in the event of his omitting to do so, may employ against him such force as is necessary, or as in good faith he believes to be necessary, for the purpose of removing or excluding him from the meeting.

24. Decision by vote.

(1)All questions which may come before a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.(2)In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

25. The minute book and resolutions.

(1)The names of the members present, and all the proceedings held and resolutions passed at a meeting of the Board shall be entered in a book to be called the minute book.(2)The minutes shall be read out at the meeting, or the next ensuing meeting, and, after being passed as correct by the members (or a majority of them) present at the reading shall be certified as passed by the signature of the Chairman of the meeting at which they are passed.(3)Every resolution passed by the Board at a meeting shall be given due publicity.(4)A copy of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board shall, within 15 days from the date of the meeting, be forwarded to the State Government or any other authority appointed by the Government in this behalf.

26. Establishment of Advisory Committee.

(1)Subject to the rules made by the State Government for this purpose, the Board may, by a resolution in that behalf, appoint an advisory committee which may consist of as many members or outsiders co-opted for that purpose, or both, as it may decide, for any purpose provided for in this Act, and may appoint a convener who shall preside over the meetings of such committee. In the absence of the convener, the committee may elect any of its members for this purpose.(2)All questions at a meeting of the committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting at the meeting. In case of equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.(3)No business shall be transacted at any meeting of a committee when either less than two members or less than one-fourth of the members constituting the committee, whichever is more, are present.(4)Proceedings of every committee shall be laid before the Board which may take any action on them, it deems necessary and such committee shall comply with directions of the Board.

27. Validity of proceedings.

(1)No vacancy in the Board or in a committee of the Board shall vitiate any act or proceeding of the Board or such committee.(2)No disqualification of, or defect in the election or nomination of, any person acting as a member of the Board or as the Chairman or presiding authority of a meeting shall be deemed to vitiate any act or proceedings of the Board in which such person has taken part, if the majority of persons who took part in such act or proceedings were duly qualified.

Chapter IV

Staff and Medical Registration

28. Registrar and other officers and servants of the Board.

(1)The Board shall, with the previous approval of Government, appoint a Registrar who shall be the Secretary to the Board. The Registrar shall receive such salary and allowances as may be prescribed. The Chairman may from time to time grant him leave and may temporarily appoint a person to act in his place. Any person duly appointed to act as Registrar shall be deemed to be the Registrar for all purposes of this Act.(2)Any order of the Board appointing, punishing or removing the Registrar from his office shall be subject to the approval of the State Government.(3)The Board may appoint such other officers and servants as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act :Provided that the number, designations, pay and allowances of such officers and servants shall be fixed with the previous approval of the State Government :Provided also that the powers of the Board to punish, dismiss, discharge and remove any officer or servant of the Board shall be subject to rules and regulation.(4)All questions of recruitment, promotions, leave, provident fund and other conditions of service relating to staff shall be governed by rules.(5)The registrar or any other officer or servant appointed under this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

29. Orders by Board for maintenance of register.

(1)The Board shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the commencement of this Act, and from time to time as occasion may require, make orders regulating the maintenance of a register of homoeopaths.(2)The register shall be kept in such form as may be prescribed.

30. Duties of Registrar.

(1)Subject to the provisions of this Act and subject to any general and special orders of the Board, it shall be the duty of the Registrar to keep the register and discharge such other functions as are required to be discharged by him under this Act or by any rules framed by the State Government.(2)The Registrar shall, so far as practicable, keep the register correct and up to date and may, from time to time, enter therein any material alteration in the addresses or qualifications of the practitioners, he shall also remove from the register the names of the registered practitioners who die or who cease to be qualified as such.(3)The State Government may direct that no alteration in the entries in respect of additional qualifications shall be made unless such fee as may be prescribed, is paid.(4)For the purpose of this section, the Registrar may write to any registered practitioner at the address which it entered in the register to inquire whether he has ceased to practise or has changed his residence and if no answer is received to the said letter within three months, the Registrar may issue a registered reminder and in case no reply is received to the reminder within one month from the date of its issue, he may remove the name of the said practitioner from the register :Provided that the Board may, if it thinks fit direct that the name of the practitioner be re-entered in the register.

31. Persons entitled to be registered.

(1)Every person possessing the qualification mentioned in the Schedule shall, subject to the provisions contained in the Act, and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed in this behalf, be entitled to have his name entered in the register subject to such conditions as the Board may prescribe :Provided that an application for entry in the register made by a person whose case is not clearly governed by the provisions of the Act or by the rules and regulations made thereunder, shall be referred to the Board for such decision as it may deem fit.(2)Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar regarding the registration of any person or the making or removal of any entry in the register may, within ninety days of such registration or entry, appeal to the Board.(3)Such appeal shall be heard and decided by the Board in the prescribed manner.(4)The Board may on its own motion or on the application of any person and after calling for an explanation from the person concerned and considering the same, cancel or alter any entry in the register if in the opinion of the Board, such entry was fraudulently or incorrectly made or obtained.

32. Amendment of Schedule.

- If the Board is satisfied-(a)that title or degree, granted or qualification certified by a University, Medical Corporation, examining body or other institution in or outside India, is sufficient guarantee that persons holding such title, degree or qualification possess the knowledge and skill requisite for efficient practice or homoeopathy, or(b)that such a title, degree or qualification is not a sufficient guarantee as aforesaid, it may direct-(i)in case (a) that the possession of such title, degree or qualification shall, subject to the provisions contained in the Act, and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, entitle a person to have his name entered in the register of homoeopaths, or(ii)in case (b) that the possession of such title, degree or qualification shall not entitle a person to have his name entered in the said register; and the Schedule attached hereto shall thereupon be deemed to be altered accordingly.

33. Power of Board to call for information from medical institution.

- The Board shall have power to call upon the governing body or authorities, of a Medical Corporation, examining body or other institution included or desirous of being included in the Schedule-(a)to furnish such reports, returns or other information as the Board may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the instructions given therein in homoeopathy; and(b)to provide facilities to enable a member of the Board deputed by the Board in this behalf to be present at the examinations held by such Medical Corporation, examining body or other institutions.

34. Information required from applicants for registration.

- Every person who applies to have his name entered in the register of homoeopaths, must satisfy the Board that he is possessed of some degree, title or qualification, specified in the Schedule; and he must inform the Registrar of the date on which he obtained the degree, title or qualification which entitles him to claim registration under this Act and shall furnish any other information required by the Registrar in order to enable him to discharge his duties under the Act.

35. Entry of new titles and qualifications in register.

- If a person whose name is entered in the register of homoeopaths obtains any title, degree or qualification other than the title, degree or qualification in respect of which he has been registered, he shall, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, be entitled to have an entry stating such other title, degree or qualification made against his name in the register, either in substitution for, or in addition to, any entry previously made.

36. Powers of Board to prohibit entry in, or to direct removal from the register, etc.

(1)The Board may prohibit the entry in, or order the removal from, the register of the name of any homoeopath-(a)who has been sentenced by a Court in India to imprisonment for an offence declared by the State Government to involve such moral turpitude as would render the entry or continuance of his name in the register undesirable, or(b)whom the Board or a Committee specially authorized for the purpose after enquiry (at which opportunity has been given to him to be heard in his defence and to appear either in person or by counsel, vakil, pleader or attorney, and which may in the discretion of the Board, be held in camera) has found guilty of professional misconduct or other infamous conduct by a majority of at least two-thirds of the members present and voting at the meeting.(2)The Board may direct that the name of any person against whom an order has been made under sub-section (1) shall be entered or re-entered, as the case may be, after having satisfied itself that due to lapse of time or otherwise disability mentioned in sub-section (1) above has ceased to have any force.

37. Notice of deaths, and erasure of names from register.

- (i) Every Registrar of Deaths who receives notice of the death of a person whose name he knows to be entered in the register of homoeopaths shall forthwith transmit by post to the Registrar of the Board a certificate of such death, signed by him and stating particulars of the time and place of death.(ii)On receipt of such certificate or other reliable information regarding such death the Board shall erase the name of the deceased person from the register.

38. Penalty on unregistered person representing that he is registered.

- If a person whose name is not entered in the register of homoeopaths, falsely pretends that it is so entered or uses in connection with his name or title any word or letters representing that his name is so entered, he shall, whether any person is actually deceived by such representation or not, be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

39. Procedure in inquiries and appeals.

- For the purpose of any enquiry held under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 36, the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, shall exercise the powers of a Commissioner appointed under the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850, and the provisions of Sections 5, 8 to 10, 14 to 16, 19 and 20 of the said Act shall, so far as may be, apply to every such inquiry and appeal.

40. Publication of names entered in the register of Homoeopaths.

(1)The Registrar shall, in every year and from time as occasions may require, on or before a date to be fixed in this behalf by the Board, cause to be published in the Official Gazette and in such other manner as the Board may prescribe, a full or supplementary list of the names for the time being entered in the register and setting forth-(a)all names entered in the register arranged in alphabetical order;(b)the registered address and appointment held by, or actual employment of, each person whose name is entered in the register; and(c)the registered titles, degree and qualifications of each such person and the date on which each such title or degree was granted or qualifications certified :Provided that the Registrar shall from time to time get published in the Official Gazette the names of such practitioners whose name have been duly removed under any of the provisions of this Act.(2)In any proceeding it shall be presumed that every person entered in such list is a registered practitioner and that any person not so entered is not a registered practitioner :Provided that in the case of a person whose name has been entered in the register after the last publication of the list, a certified copy signed by the Registrar, of the entry of the name of such person in the register shall be evidence that such person is registered under this Act. Such certificate shall be issued free of charge.
