Bombay 1 of 1865 (except Sections 37 and 38), and Bombay Reg. 17 of 1827 are repealed by the Bombay Land- Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879) in areas in which the latter Act is in force Sections 37 and 38 of Bombay 1 of 1865 are repealed so far as they apply to any village in the Ratnagiri or the Kolaba District to which the Khoti Settlement Act, 1880 (Bombay 1 of 1880), extends or is extended.] Chapter X, or under [Act No. XI of 1852] [Bombay Rent-free Estates Act, 1852.] [or any other law for the time being in force] [These words were inserted by Bombay 48 1959, Section 4(iv).], which declares the particular property in dispute to be exempt,such claim shall be cognizable in the Civil Courts.Illustrations to (h)(1)It is enacted that, in the event of the proprietary right in lands, the property Government being transferred to individuals, they shall be permitted to hold the lands forever at the assessment at which they are transferred. The proprietary right in certain lands is transferred to A at an assessment of Rs. 100. An exemption from higher assessment not before existing is expressly created in favour of A by enactment, and he may seek relief in the Civil Court against over-assessment.(2)It is enacted that, when a specific limit to assessment has been established and preserved, the assessment shall not exceed such specific limit. A is the owner of land worth Rs. 100 for assessment. He claims to be assessed at Rs. 50 only on the strength of a course of dealing with him and his predecessors under which his land has not been more highly assessed. There is no exemption not before existing created by enactment, and A's claim is not cognizable in a Civil Court.(3)It is enacted that land-revenue shall not be leviable from any land held and entered in the land-registers as exempt. A claims to hold certain land as exempt on the ground that it has been so held by him, and is so entered in the land-register. This is an exemption expressly confirmed by enactment on the ground of its being shown in a public record, and A's claim is cognizable in a Civil Court.(4)It is enacted that the Collector shall confirm existing exemptions of all lands shown in certain maps to be exempt. A claims exemption, alleging that his land is shown in the maps to be exempt. As claim is cognizable in Civil Court.(5)It is enacted that assessment shall be fixed with reference to certain considerations and not with reference to others. This is not an enactment creating an exemption in favour of any individual or class, and no objection to an assessment under such an enactment is cognizable in a Civil Court.

5. Saving of certain suits.

- Nothing in section 4 shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts from entertaining the following suits:(a)suits [against the [Government] [The words 'against the Crown' were substituted for the words 'against Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.]] to contest the amount claimed, or paid under protest, or recovered, as land-revenue, on the ground that such amount is in excess of the amount authorized in that behalf [by the [State] [The words 'by the Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'by Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] or that such amount had, previous to such claim, payment or recovery, been satisfied, in whole or in part or that the plaintiff, or the person whom he represents is not the person liable for such amount;(b)suits between private parties for the purpose of establishing any private right, although it may be affected by any entry in any record of revenue-survey or settlement or in any village-papers;(c)suits between superior holders or occupants and inferior holder or tenants, regarding the dues claimed or recovered from the latter;and nothing in section 4, clause (g), shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts from entertaining suits, other than suits [against the [Government] [The words 'against the Crown' were substituted for the words 'against Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.]] for possession of any land being a whole survey-number or a recognized share of a survey-number;[and nothing in section 4 shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts in the districts mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto annexed from exercising such jurisdictions as, according to the terms of any law in force on the twenty-eighth day of March, 1876, they could have exercised over claims [against the [Government] [This paragraph was added by the Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction (Amendment) Act, 1877 (16 of 1877).]]-(a)relating to any property appertaining to the office of any hereditary officer appointed or recognized under [Bombay Act No. III of 1874] [The Bombay Hereditary Offices Act.] or any other law for the time being in force, or of any other village-officer or servant;(b)to hold land wholly or partially free from payment of land-revenue;(c)to receive payments charged on, or payable out of, the land-revenue.]

6. Bar of certain suits against Revenue officers.

- Revenue-officers shall not be liable to be sued for damages in any Civil Court for any act bona-fide done or ordered to be done by them as such in pursuance of the provisions of any law for the time being in force.In any Revenue-officer absconds or does not attend when called on by his official superior, and if the Collector of the district proceeds against him or his sureties for public money, papers for property according to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, such Collector shall not be liable to pay damages or costs in any suit brought against him by such officer or sureties although it appears that a part only, or no part whatever, of the sum demanded was due from the officer so absconding or failing to attend, or that he was not in possession of the papers or property demanded of him.

7. Punishment or prosecution of Revenue-officers no bar to civil remedies.

- Nothing in any law for the time being in force which authorizes the punishment departmentally of any Revenue-officer for any offence or breach of duty, or which sanctions his prosecution criminally for such offence or breach, shall be held to bar any remedy which may be had in the Civil Court against such officers.

8. to 10. [Suits against Revenue-officers; appeals from their proceedings; power for Local Government to call for record.]

- Repealed XV of 1880.

11. Suits not to be entertained unless plaintiff has exhausted right of appeal.

- [Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966, no Civil Court shall entertain] [These words were substituted for the words 'No Civil shall entertain' by Maharashtra 41 of 1966, Section 334 (Schedule K).] any suit [against the [Government] [The words 'against the Crown' were substituted for the words 'against Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.]] on account of any act or omission of any Revenue-officer unless the plaintiff first proves that previously to bringing his suits, he has presented all such appeals allowed by the law for the time being in force as, within the period of limitation allowed for bringing such suit, it was possible to present.

12. Power of [State] [This word was substituted for the words 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Order, 1950.] Government to refer questions for decision of High Court.

- If, in the total or investigation of any suit, claim or objection which, but for the passing of this Act, might have been tried or investigated by Civil Court, there arises any question on which [* * * ] [The words 'the Governor General in Council or' were omitted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Local Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] desires to have the decision of the High Court [ * * ] [The words 'the Governor General in Council or' were omitted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Local Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] [ * ] [This words 'as the case may be' were omitted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] may cause a statement of the question to be prepared, and may refer such question of the decision of the High Court [ * *] [The words 'of Judicature at Bombay' were omitted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956.]. The said High Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the question referred, and cause notice of such day to be placed in the court-house. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the High Court in person or by their advocates or pleaders. The High Court when it has heard and considered the case, shall send a copy of its decision, with the reasons therefor, under the seal of the Court to the Government by which the reference was made, and, subject to any appeal which may be presented to [the Supreme Court] [These words were substituted for the words 'Her Majesty In Council' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.], the case shall be disposed of conformably to such decision. If the High Court considers that any such statement is imperfectly framed, the High Court may return it for amendment. The costs (if any) consequent on any such reference shall be dealt with as the High Court in each case directs.

13. Power of Civil Judge to refer question of jurisdiction to High Court.

- If in any suit instituted, or in any appeal presented, in a Civil Court, the Judge doubts whether he is precluded by this Act from taking cognizance of the suit or appeal, he may refer the matter to the High Court. The High Court may order the Judge making the reference either to proceed with the case or to return the plaint. The order of the High Court on any such reference shall be subject to appeal to [the Supreme Court] [These words were substituted for the words 'Her Majesty In Council' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.], and, save as aforesaid, shall be final.

14. Composition of Bench.

- Every reference under section 12 or section 13 shall be heard by a Bench consisting of such number of Judges, not less than three, as the Chief Justice from time to time directs.

15. [Amendment of Section 32 of Act XIV of 1869.]

- Repealed Act I of 1938.

16. [Privileges the [Government] [Section 16 was substituted for the original by section 2 of Bombay 21 of 1929.] [* * * *] [The words 'or the Federal Railway Authority' were omitted by the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Central Acts and Ordinances) Order, 1948.] in suits defended by it.

- Where any suit is brought in any Court of a subordinate judge of the first class [against the [Government] [The words 'against the Crown or the Federal Railway Authority' were substituted for the words, 'against Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.]] [* * * ] [The words 'or the Federal Railway Authority' were omitted by the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Central Acts and Ordinances) Order, 1948.] or against any Revenue Officer, [and the [Government] [The words 'and the Crown or the Federal Railway Authority' were substituted for the words 'against Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.]] [ * * *] [The words 'or the Federal Railway Authority' were omitted by the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Central Acts and Ordinances) Order, 1948.] undertakes] the defence thereof, it shall be lawful [for the [State] [The words 'for the Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'for the Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government], by certificate signed by a Secretary thereto, require that the trial of any such suit shall have precedence over the trial of any other suit or other civil proceeding then pending in the Court of the first class subordinate judge, or, if the suit is transferred, in the Court of the District Judge; and the Court shall give effect to every such requirement. The privilege conferred [on the Provincial Government] [The words 'on the Provincial Government' were substituted of the words 'on Government', by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] by this section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any appeal or special appeal against any decree in any such suit as is described in this section.]

[Revival of section 13 of Bombay Reg. XVII of 1837.] Repealed by Act XV of 1880; but the repeal does not operate in any scheduled district unless and until the Bombay Land-revenue Code (Bombay V of 1879) has been extended to such district. [Operations of Bombay Reg. XVII of 1827 in sites of villages and towns.] Repealed Act IV of 1880. [Recovery of certain advances made by Local Government.] Repealed Act XV of 1880.
