6. Appellate Authorities.

- The Government may, by notification, appoint such officers as they think fit to be the appellate authorities for the purposes of this Act and may assign to them such local area or areas as the Government may think fit.

Chapter IV

Returns, Assessment, Payment, Recovery and Refund of Tax

7. Return.

(1)Every person liable to pay tax under this Act, shall furnish returns in such form, for such period, by such dates, and to such authority, as may be prescribed.(2)If any person liable to pay tax under this Act, having furnished return under sub-section (1), discovers any omission or incorrect statement therein he may furnish a revised return before the expiry of three months from the last date prescribed for furnishing the return under sub-section (1).

7A. Powers to order production of accounts and powers of entry, inspection etc.

(1)Any officer empowered by the Government in his behalf may require any person liable to pay tax under this Act, to produce before him the accounts, registers, records and other documents and to furnish any other information relating to the entry of motor vehicles into the local areas effected by him as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.(2)All accounts registers, records and other documents maintained by a person liable to pay tax under this Act relating to the entry of motor vehicles into the local area effected by him and his officers, shops, godowns, vessels or vehicles shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by such officer:Provided that no residential accommodation (not being a place of business - cum residence) shall be entered into and searched by such officer except on the authority of a search warrant issued by the Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area and all searches under this sub-section shall, so far as may be, made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act No. 2 of 1974)(3) If any such officer has reason to believe that any person liable to pay tax under this Act had evaded, or is attempting to evade the payment of any tax or other amount due from him under this Act, he may, for reasons to be recorded in Writing, seize such accounts, registers, records or other documents of such person as he may consider necessary, and shall give such person a receipt for the same. The accounts, registers, records and documents so seized shall be retained by such officer only for so long as may be necessary for their examination and any inquiry or proceeding under this Act; Provided that such accounts, registers, records, and documents shall not be retained for more than thirty days at a time except with the permission of the next higher authority, in which case they could be retained up to a period of ninety days at a time.(4) Any such Officer shall, for the purpose of sub-section(2) or sub-section(3), also have power to enter and search any office, shop, godown, vessel, vehicle, building or place belonging to any other person, if such officer has reason to believe that a person liable to pay tax keeps, or is keeping any of his motor vehicles, accounts, registers, records or other documents in such office, shop, godown, vessel, vehicle, building or place. Explanation. - It shall be open to the Government to empower different classes of officers for the purpose of taking action under sub-section (1), (2) and (3)

8. Assessment.

(1) The amount of tax due from a person liable to pay tax under this Act shall be assessed separately for such period as may be prescribed.(2) If the assessing authority is satisfied that the return furnished by a person liable to pay tax, is correct and complete, he shall assess the amount of tax due from the person on the basis of such return.(3) If the assessing authority is not satisfied that the return furnished by a person liable to pay tax, is correct and complete, and he thinks it necessary to require the presence of the person or production of further evidence, he shall serve on such person in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him on a date and at a place specified therein, either to attend and produce or cause to be produced all evidences on which the said person relies in support of his return, or to produce such evidence as, is specified in the notice. On the date specified in the notice, or as soon as may be, thereafter, the assessing authority shall, after considering all the evidences which may be produced, assess the amount of tax due from the person.(4) If a person fails to comply with the requirements of any notice issued under sub-section (3), the assessing authority shall determine the purchase value of the motor vehicle under the proviso to clause (k) of Section 2 to the best of his judgment and assess the amount of tax due from him.(5) No order of assessment under sub-section (3) or (4) shall be made after the expiry of three years from the last date prescribed for filing of returns of the particular period. If for any reason such order is not made within the period aforesaid then the return so filed shall be deemed to have been accepted as correct and complete for assessing the tax due from such person.

9. Reassessment.

- If, after a person, liable to pay tax has been assessed under Section 8, for any period, the assessing authority has reason to believe that any purchase value or part thereof, has, in respect of that period, escaped assessment, or has been under assessed or assessed at a lower rate, then the assessing authority may, within five years from the date of the order of assessment of the particular period, after giving the person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, reassess, to the best of his judgment, the tax due from him.

10. Payment of tax.

(1)The tax shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.(2)A person liable to pay the tax, shall, before furnishing returns as required by sub-section (1) of Section 7, first pay into the Government treasury in the prescribed manner, or to the assessing authority in cash or by cheque or Demand Draft the whole of the amount of tax due from him according to such return.(3)If a person liable to pay the tax, furnishes a revised return in accordance with sub-section (2) of Section 7, and if such revised return shows that a larger amount of tax than already paid is payable, he shall first pay into the Government treasury in the prescribed manner or to the assessing authority in cash or by cheque or Demand Draft the additional amount of tax according to such revised return.(4)The amount of-(i)tax due where return has been furnished without full payment thereof,(ii)difference in the tax assessed under Section 8 or reassessed under Section 9 for any period and the sum already paid by the person in respect of such period, and(iii)penalty (if any) levied under Section 15, shall be paid by the person, into the Government Treasury, or to the assessing authority in cash or by cheque or Demand Draft by such date as may be specified in the notice issued by the assessing authority for this purpose, being a date not earlier than thirty days from the date of service of the notice.(5)Any tax or penalty which remains unpaid after the date specified in the notice for payment, shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

11. Refund of tax.

- The assessing authority shall refund to a person the amount of tax and penalty, if any, paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him. The refund may be either by cash payment or, at the option of the person, by deduction of such excess from the amount of tax and penalty, if any, due from that person in respect of any other period:Provided that, the assessing authority shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due in respect of which a notice under sub-section (4) of Section 10 has been issued, and shall then refund the balance, if any.

12. Exemptions.

- Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the Government may, if it is necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification, exempt any specified class of importers from payment of the whole or part of the tax payable under this Act.

Chapter V

Appeals and Revision

13. Appeals.

(1)An appeal from every original order under this Act shall lie to the appellate authority appointed under Section 6.(2)In the case of an order passed in appeal by the appellate authority, a second appeal shall lie to the Joint Commissioner of Commercial Taxes.(3)No appeal shall be entertained by the appellate authority or the Joint Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, unless it is filed within 30 days from the date of receipt of the order appealed against by the assessee, and unless the entire amount of tax and penalty, if any, has been credited by the assessee in the Government treasury.(4)Subject to such rules of procedure as may be prescribed, every appellate authority (both in the first appeal or the second appeal) shall have the following powers, namely:-(a)in an appeal against an order of assessment, it may confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment; or it may set aside the assessment and refer the case back to the assessing authority for making a fresh assessment in accordance with the direction given by it and after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, the assessing authority shall thereupon proceed to make such fresh assessment and determine, where necessary, the amount of tax payable on the basis of such fresh assessment; and(b)in any other case, the appellate authority or the Joint Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, as the case may be, may pass such orders in the appeal as it deems just and proper.

14. Revision.

(1)The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes may suo motu or on an application made in that behalf, call for and examine the record of the proceeding of any order made by the assessing authority or, as the case may be, the appellate authority and pass such order thereon as he thinks just and proper.(2)No application under sub-section (1) shall be entertained, if it is not made within a period of four months from the date of the order.(3)No order which adversely affects any person shall be passed under this section, unless such person has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard by the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes.(4)Where an appeal lies under Section 13 and no appeal is made, no proceedings in revision shall be entertained upon an application.(5)Where the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes rejects any application for revision under this section, he shall record the reasons for such rejection.CHPTER VI Penalty

15. Penalty.

(1)Where any person liable to pay tax under this Act falls to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, then the assessing authority may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing impose on him in addition to any tax payable, a sum by way of penalty not exceeding twice the amount of tax.(2)If the person does not, without reasonable cause, pay the tax within the time he is required, by or under the provisions of this Act to pay the assessing authority may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing,impose upon him by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax and penalty under sub-section (1) a sum equal to.-(a)one and one half per cent, of the amount of tax for each month for the first three months, after the last date by which the person should have paid that tax, and(b)two per cent, of the amount of tax for each month thereafter during the time the person continues to make default in the payment of tax.

15A. Impounding of motor vehicle. - If an importer liable to pay tax fails to pay the tax in the manner prescribed, then the competent authority shall forthwith impound the motor vehicle in respect of which tax has not been paid and keep -the-motor vehicle impounded till the amount of tax and penalty due and payable in respect of such motor vehicle is paid in full:

Provided that, if the amount of tax and penalty is not paid within one month of impounding of the motor vehicle, the competent authority shall have power to sell the motor vehicle by auction in such manner as may be prescribed and apply the sale proceeds towards recovery of the tax, penalty and costs if any, incurred in the sale of such motor vehicle. The remainder, if any, shall be refunded to such importer:Provided further that, if, at any time before the auction of the motor vehicle, the importer pays the tax, penalty and costs, if any, then, the competent authority may after satisfying that all the dues as aforesaid have been fully paid by the importer, cancel the auction and return the motor vehicle to the importer.Explanation. - For the purpose of this section competent authority' means the assessing authority and such other person or authority authorised by the Government by notification, to perform the functions of the competent authority under this section.
