Chapter X

Caveat

(1) Any person claiming a right to be heard by the Court in any matter before any stay or any interim relief of any nature is granted by the Court may at any time file a Caveat giving full and complete particulars, in the prescribed format, as far as possible, including particulars relating to the cause title, case number, date of judgment etc. (2) Every caveat shall be presented by the party in person or by his Advocate in the concerned Filing Section. Where the caveator is represented by an Advocate his Vakalatnama shall accompany the caveat. Where the caveat has been lodged under these rules, the person by whom the caveat has been lodged shall serve a notice of caveat by Registered Post or by approved Courier Service, acknowledgement due, on the person by whom the application has been, or is expected to be made. If the caveat is filed in person, his full address, telephone number(s), Fax number with S.T.D. Code and E-mail address shall be furnished.

(1) The caveat Section of the Registry shall maintain a list of all caveats and immediately on receipt of a Caveat enter the same in the Computer or make a record of the same. Whenever a matter is filed where Caveat-clearance is required, the Caveat Section shall endorse thereupon by way of Caveat-clearance through Computer Section either that no Caveat has been filed or if a Caveat has been filed, the particulars of the Caveat and the Caveator. (2) Every application for any interim relief or stay in a proceeding shall be supported by a statement of the applicant stating that no notice of lodging a caveat by the opposite party is received by him or if notice of caveat is received whether the applicant has furnished the copies of the application together with copies of the annexure which have been filed or may be filed in support of the application to the caveator.

143.

(1) At the time the matter is listed in the Court and if the Caveat has been Filed, the name of the counsel for the Caveator shall be shown in the cause list. (2) Where a caveat has been lodged under these rules, such caveat shall remain in force for a period of 90 days.

144.

(1) Save as otherwise provided application for interim relief or stay in any petition or appeal of any kind whatsoever shall not be considered by the Court unless the same is accompanied by a Caveat-clearance certificate issued by the Registry of the Court or, if a Caveat has been filed by a party, after notice upon the Caveator supplied with a copy of the petition/application or the memo of appeal, as the case may be. (2) Where it appears to the Court that the object of granting ad-interim relief on the application would be defeated by delay, it may record reasons for such opinion and grant ad-interim relief on the application till the next date of hearing, to be made absolute after giving caveator an opportunity of being heard.

Chapter XI

Roster and Listing

A : Roster, cause list and Misc. Instructions

145.

The Judges shall sit singly or in Benches of two or more and dispose of Civil or Criminal work in accordance with a roster approved by the Chief Justice. The roster shall be prepared by the Registrar (Judicial) in accordance with instructions given by the Chief Justice. On approval a copy of the roster shall be supplied to all Judges, Advocate General and to the Bar Association. B : List of Ready Matters for Final Hearing 146.

(1) List of final hearing matters as well as the daily list of matters shall be prepared, category-wise, as per the roster and orders/directions given by the Chief Justice from time to time. (2) Two weeks before re-opening of the Court after summer vacation, the Registry shall prepare and publish a category-wise quarterly list of ready matters (civil and criminal) for final hearing in chronological order i.e. in order of date and year of registration, and a separate register for all these ready matters shall be prepared, and the same shall be entered in the Computer. Out of this quarterly list of ready matters; the Registry shall prepare and publish a weekly list of matters on Saturday in chronological order which are to be listed before, different Benches during the commencing week and the same shall be distributed amongst the Bar and Advocate General's office, and shall also be displayed on the Notice Board of the Court. If any matter is disposed out of this weekly list in a particular week, then other matters shall be included in place of the disposed of matters from the quarterly list.

147. Criminal appeals in which accused persons are in Jail.

- A separate list of ready matters of D.B. criminal appeals as well as Single Bench criminal appeals shall be prepared in descending order of period of the detention of accused persons i.e. the appeal of those accused persons shall be listed on higher side who are in jail for longer period under the heading 'Appeals in which accused persons are in jail.'

Two weeks before the end of every quarter i.e. by 15th September/15th December/15th March, subsequent quarterly list of regular hearing matters shall be prepared and published by the Registry by deleting the disposed of matters and adjourned matters of the existing quarterly list, and in the next quarterly list such number of matters shall be added as directed by the Chief Justice or the other matters which are adjourned for that quarter.

149. Daily list.

- The daily list shall be prepared in the following manner : -Two days in advance of the date of hearing, daily list of motion hearing matters, category-wise, as per the category list annexed with these Rules shall be prepared by the Registry out of the fresh registered matters up to that date, and those matters shall be listed according to the rosier. Note. - (i) A matter shall be treated as fresh matter till the matter is admitted or notice is directed. (ii) If a matter is admitted then same shall be treated as final hearing matter.

The daily list shall be issued in the following order : - (i) Fresh cases. (ii) Cases for orders on Interlocutory applications. (iii) Overnight part heard cases. (iv) After notice cases. (v) Final disposal cases. (vi) Final hearing cases.

151. Supplementary Inst.

- If after issuance of daily list two days in advance, any matter requires hearing and directed to be listed on urgent basis as per the directions of the Chief Justice or the concerned Bench, as the case may be, a supplementary list of such matters shall be prepared and issued on the previous day of hearing.

152.

Part heard matters shall be included in the daily list just after the matters for orders on interlocutory applications, unless otherwise directed by the Court.

153. Early hearing of Regular matters.

- If any party desires for early hearing of a regular matter, then he shall be required to file an application for early hearing and that application shall be listed before the Chief Justice in Chamber for direction. The Chief Justice may assign the work of disposal of early hearing application to the concerned Bench as per the Roster.

(1)At the conclusion of a motion hearing the Court Reader shall send the case to the Registry. Provided that in case where the Court has ordered stay of execution or granted an order for bail, the Court Reader shall immediately after the hearing in which such order is passed and before sending the case to the Registry, prepare a copy of the order granting the stay of execution or bail and shall send the same to the concerned section for compliance.(2)The Court Reader shall record result of the day in two cause lists to be maintained by him; one for the Court's Record and other to be made over to the listing Branch. Further, at the end of the day, the Court Reader shall send the file to the concerned Branch for their compliance and in turn, the Section Officer of the concerned Branch shall send, by the next day, the files in which fixed date or where rule is made returnable, to the cause list branch for noting the same for the purpose of future listing and the listing branch shall update the Computer system accordingly.(3)A copy of an order granting stay or execution or bail shall be issued to the Subordinate Courts by the Registry and the envelope in which it is contained shall be marked "Immediale-Order for Bail or Immediate Order of stay of Execution," as the case may be, in red ink.

Same pattern shall also be followed in the matters of Division Bench.

156.

The matters which may be postponed by the Registrar (Judicial)(a)if two days before the date of hearing the record has not been received or the matter is otherwise incomplete.However, as soon as the record is received and the matter becomes ready for hearing then same shall be included in the list at its original number.On such adjournment the Registrar (Judicial) shall take necessary steps to get the matter ready for listing, and if within a period of one month the Registry is not able to get the matter ready for listing then the matter shall be listed before the Court with an office report for direction.(b)If before the date of hearing, death of a party is announced and thereby adjournment is necessitated; on such adjournment the Registry shall initiate appropriate action in the matter in order to get the matter ready for listing.(c)If before two days of hearing counsel for the parties agree for adjustment on account of some difficulty, then the adjustment be made and next date of hearing shall be given by the Registrar (Judicial) according to the convenience of the parties.However, at the time of adjournment if the Registrar (Judicial) finds that the matter is being adjourned time and again, or the adjournment is unnecessary then he will be entitled to refuse the same.

157. Case Flow Management Rules in the High Court.

- Division of Cases into different tracks :

1. Writ Petitions. - (a) The High Court shall, at the stage of admission or issuing notice before admission categorize the Writ Petitions other than Writ of Habeas Corpus, into three categories depending on the urgency with which the matter should be dealt with, the Fast Track the Normal Track and the Slow Track. The petitions in the Fast Track shall invariably be disposed of within a period not exceeding six months while the petitions in the Normal Track should not take longer than a year. The petitions in the Slow Track, subject to the pendency of other cases in the Court, should ordinarily be disposed of within a period of two years.

(b) Where an interim order of stay or injunction is granted in respect of liability to tax or demolition or eviction from public premises etc. shall be put on the fast track. Similarly all matters involving tenders would also be put on the Fast Track.

2. The Registrar (Judicial) or any other officer nominated by the Chief Justice, shall at intervals of every month monitor the stage of each case likely to come up for hearing before each Bench (Division Bench or Single Judge) during that month which have been allocated to the different tracks. The details shall be placed before, the Chief Justice or Committee nominated for that purpose as well as the concerned Judge dealing with cases.

3. The Chief Justice or the Committee may shift the case from one track to another, depending upon the complexity, (urgency) and other circumstances of the case.

4. Data will be fed into the computer in such a manner that the court or judge or judges referred to in sub-rule (2) above will be able to ascertain the position and stage of every case in every track from the computer screen.

5. Whenever the roster changes, the judge concerned who is dealing with final matters shall keep himself informed about the stage of the cases in various tracks listed before him during every week, with a view to see that the cases are taken up early.

6. Writ of Habeas Corpus. - Notices in respect of Writ of Habeas Corpus where the person is in custody under orders of a State Government or Central Government shall invariably be issued by the Court at the first listing and shall be made returnable within 48 hours. State Government or Central Government may file a brief return enclosing the relevant documents to justify the detention. The matter shall be listed after notice on the fourth working day after issuance of notice, and the Court shall consider whether a more detailed return to the Writ is necessary, and, if so required, shall give further time of a week and three days time for filing a rejoinder. A Writ of Habeas Corpus shall invariably be disposed of within a period of fifteen days. It shall have preference over and above fast-track cases.

7. Other matters. - Civil Appeals and other matters in the High Court shall also be divided into different tracks on the lines indicated in sub-rules (2) to (5) above and the said provisions shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the civil appeals filed in the High Court. The High Court shall make a subject-wise division of the appeals/revision application for allocation into different tracks.

8. Mode of Advance Service. - The mode of advance service provided in these rules shall apply, mutatis mutandis, together with directions contained in the practice directions issued by the Chief Justice for case flow management.

9. First Appeals to High Court:

(a)Service of Notice of Appeal. - In addition to the process for normal service as per the Code of Civil Procedure, advance notice should simultaneously be given by the counsel for the party who is proposing to file the appeal, to the counsel for the opposite party in the Trial Court itself so as to enable them to inform the parties to appear if they so choose even at the first hearing stage.(b)Filing of Documents. - The Appellant shall, on the appeal being admitted, file all the essential papers within such period as may be fixed by the High Court for the purpose the High Court understanding the scope of the dispute and for the purpose of passing interlocutory orders.(c)Printing or typing of Paper Book. - Subject to the order passed by the Court, printing and preparation of paper-books shall normally be done by the parties. After service of notice is effected, counsel for both sides should agree on the list of documents and evidence to be printed or typed and the same shall be made ready by the parties within the time to be fixed by the Court. Thereafter the paper book shall be got read'. It must be assured that the paper books are ready at least three months in advance before the appeal is taken up for arguments. Cause lists must specify if paper books have been filed or not.(d)Filing of Written Submissions and time for oral arguments. -(i)Both the appellants and the respondent shall be required to submit their written submissions with all the relevant pages as per the Court paper-book marked therein within a month of preparation of such paper-books, referred to in para (c) above.(ii)Cause list may indicate if written submissions have been filed. If not, the Court must direct that they be filed immediately.(iii)After the written submissions are filed, (with due service of copy to the other side) the matter should be listed before the Registrar (Judicial) of the parties to indicate the time that will be taken for arguments in the appeal. Alternatively, such matters may be listed in the Court for deciding the time duration and thereafter to fix a date of hearing on a clear date when the requisite extent of time will be available.(iv)In the event that the matter is likely to take a day or more, the High Court may consider having a Caution List/ Alternative List to meet eventualities where a case gets adjourned due to unavoidable reasons or does not go on before a court, and those cases may be listed before a court where, for one reason or another the scheduled cases are not taken up for hearing.(e)Court may explore possibility of settlement : (i)At the first hearing of a First Appeal when both parties appear, the Court shall find out if there is a possibility of a settlement. If the parties are agreeable even at that stage for mediation or conciliation, the High Court could make a reference to mediation or conciliation for the said purpose.(ii)If necessary, the process contemplated by Section 89 of CPC may be resorted to by the Appellate Court so that the hearing of the appeal is not unnecessarily delayed. Whichever is the ADR process adopted, the Court should fix a date for a report on the ADR two months from the date of reference.

10. Writ Appeals. - An appeal to a Division Bench from judgment of a Single Judge may lie in the following cases :

(a)(1) Appeals from interlocutory orders of the Single Judge in original jurisdiction matters including writs ; (2) appeals from final judgments of a Single Judge in original jurisdiction ; (3) other appeals permitted by any law' to a Division Bench.(b)Appeals against interlocutory orders falling under category (1) above should be invariably filed after advance notice to the opposite counsel (who has appeared before the Single Judge) so that both the sides will be represented at the very first hearing of the appeals. If both parties appear at the first hearing, there is no need to serve the opposite side by normal process and at least in some cases, the appeals against interlocutory orders can be disposed of even at the first hearing. If for any reason, this is not practicable, such appeals against interim orders should be disposed of within a period of a month.(c)In cases referred to above, necessary documents should be kept ready by the counsel to enable the Court to dispose of the appeal against interlocutory matter at the first hearing itself.(d)In all Appeals against interim orders in the High Court, in writs or civil matters, the Court should endeavor to set down and observe a strict time limit in regard to oral arguments. In case of Original Side appeals arising out of final orders in a Writ Petition or arising out of civil suits filed in the High Court, a flexible time schedule may be followed.(e)The practice direction in regard to First Appeal should mutatis mutandis apply in respect of Original Side appeals against final judgments of the Single Judge.(f)Writ Appeals arising from orders of the Single Judge in a Writ Petition should be filed with simultaneous service on the counsel for the opposite party who had appeared before the Single Judge or on service of the opposite party.(g)Writ Appeals against interim orders of the Single Judge should invariably be disposed of early and at any rate, within a period of thirty days from the first hearing. Before Writ Appeals against final orders in Writ Petitions are heard, brief written submissions must be filed by both parties within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

11. Second Appeals. - Even at the stage of admission, the questions of law with a brief synopsis and written submissions on each of the propositions should be filed so as to enable the Court to consider whether there is a substantial question of law. Wherever the Court is inclined to entertain the appeal, apart from normal procedure for service as per rules, advance notice shall be given to the counsel who had appeared in the first appeal letter Court. The notice should require the respondents to file their written submissions within a period of eight weeks from service of notice. Efforts should be made to complete the hearing of the Second Appeals within a period of six months.

12. Civil Revision. - A revision petition may be filed under Section 115 of the Code or under any special statute. The provisions of case flow management rules in regard to Writ Appeals and First Appeals to the High Court, shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of revision petitions.

(1) The Chief Justice shall nominate an Officer in the rank of Registrar or Additional Registrar or Deputy Registrar to be designated as In-charge Copying Section. It shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-charge of the Copying Section, to over-see, supervise, and monitor all functions and activities in the Copying Section, all Officials working in the Copying Section shall be accountable and responsible to the Officer-in-charge Copying Section. (2) One or more Officials shall be designated as Copying Officers in terms of Section 76 of the Evidence Act. It shall be their duty to issue, under their signature, certified copies in accordance with these Rules and their digital signatures shall also be preserved for issuance of soft copies of the order/judgment digitally signed through Computer. (3) Invariably, all certified copies shall be prepared through Photo Copiers. Only in such cases where technically it is not feasible or for any other reason it is either not feasible or not practicable or not desirable, copies shall be prepared through means other than Photo Copier, either by typewritten method or otherwise, but only with the prior written permission of the Officer-in-charge Copying Section. Certified Copies

202.

(1) A party to a proceeding in the High Court shall be entitled to apply for and receive certified copies of all pleadings, judgments, decrees or orders and all original documents and deposition of witnesses made or exhibited in the said proceeding. (2) A person who is not a party to a proceeding may be granted certified copy of such a document only if the Registrar (Judicial) or any other officer so authorized in that behalf on being satisfied about the sufficiency and bona fides of the grounds or reasons on which the applicant requires the copy, directs that such copy be furnished. Every application made by such person shall be accompanied by the affidavit of such person specifying the grounds or reasons on which the copy is required.(3)For issue of copies of judgments and orders to representatives of law reports and news magazines, a general order may be made by the Registrar (Judicial).

Application for copies may be presented in person or by a duly engaged Advocate or may be sent by post to the In-charge of the Copying Section. High Court of Chhattisgarh, Bilaspur.

204.

Copies of more than one document in the same record of the case may be applied for in one application.

205.

Application for copy shall be made in prescribed form giving details of the cause title, case number, name of the Judge who has passed the order, date of order/judgment or decree, etc., and shall be signed by the applicant or his counsel.

206.

Every application shall be accompanied by an advance amount towards copying fee, as specified from time to time, in the form of copying stamp affixed on the application and/or in such other manner as may be specified from time to time, which would be sufficient to cover the estimated cost of the copy applied for and the amount of the Court fee stamps, if any, required under the Rules, or any other law for the time being in force. Where the copy applied for requires a non judicial stamp under the Stamp Act, 1899, the application shall be accompanied by the requisite non judicial stamp. In the case of an application sent by post, the advance shall be remitted by money order.

An application received by post before the arrival of the connected advance shall not be registered or acted upon until receipt of the advance. Should an advance be received before the connected application, it shall forthwith be deposited as copying advance in abeyance. If no connected application is received within thirty days, the In charge of the Copying Section shall cause it to be remitted back to the sender at his expense.

(1)Charges for preparation of copies (otherwise than by photocopying) shall be calculated per folio. A folio means a group of 175 words. If the entire text or the remainder after folios of 175 words each, to be copied is of less than 175 words, the said text or remainder as the case may be, shall be treated as one folio. In case of photocopy a folio shall be equal to one page of the text to be copied.(2)For counting the words each initial prefixed to any name or used as abbreviation, shall be counted as one word. 219.

Every certified copy issued by the High Court shall be certified by the examiner/Assistant Registrar (In-charge Copying Section) to be true and Accurate copy of the original and shall be sealed with the seal of the High Court.

The copy when ready, after entry in the register, shall be given at the counter only to the concerned counsel or his registered clerk or a person authorized by him. It may also be given to the applicant in person, but only after verifying his signatures from the application. The receipt given earlier shall also be collected before the delivery of the copy. Note. - The signatures of the person or Advocate to whom copy is so given shall also be obtained in the register in which the application was registered, as acknowledgement.

No certified copy shall be given of any document which is a document registered under law for the time being in force or of a document which is itself a copy of the original document. However, if a document which itself is a copy is annexed with any petition/appeal/application/reply or any other pleading presented in High Court then a simple plain copy (photocopy), i.e. office copy of the same may be given.

222.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter no party or person shall be entitled as a right to apply for and receive copies of or extracts from any minute, letter or document of any confidential file or any paper produced before the Court, which the Court considers to be of a confidential nature or the publication of which the Court considers to be not in the interest of the public, except under and in accordance with an order specially made by the Chief Justice or by the Court.

223.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter where the Union or a State Government is a party to any proceeding the Assistant Solicitor General or the Advocate General or a law officer shall on application, be entitled to a free certified plain paper copy of the order passed or judgment pronounced.

224.

The fees to be paid for supply of copies shall be as prescribed from time to time by the Officer-in-charge Copying Section with previous approval of the Chief Justice. For this and other incidental and ancillary purposes, the Officer-in-charge Copying Section may issue necessary administrative instructions which shall be binding on all concerned.

(1) On payment of ordinary copying fee, endeavour shall be made that copy applied for is issued within 48 hours from the date of receipt of the application. (2) On payment of double copying fee, the copies applied any time during court hours shall be issued on the same day or latest within 24 hours from the time of receiving the application.

226.

A stranger to a suit or proceeding in the High Court may also be issued copies of pleadings in the suit or in the proceedings, or other documents, but with the prior approval of the Officer-in-charge Copying Section. In so far as issuance of copies of private documents in these proceedings are concerned, ordinarily the Officer-in-charge shall not grant approval except with the consent of the parties in the suit.

227.

Copies of judgments convicting Government Officers of criminal offences as well as copies of judgments of acquittal and orders of discharge will be supplied free of charge on the application of the head of the department concerned.

228.

In addition to whatever is contained in these Rules or the administrative instructions issued pursuant hereto by the Officer-in-charge Copying Section, Civil Court Rules and all other enabling rules in this behalf shall mutatis mutandis apply to this Chapter.

229.

No record of any case shall be removed from the Court building by any one except in connection with the discharge and performance of official duties and upon permission in writing by the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose except in the case of the Judges of the High Court and Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose himself or the Registrar/Additional Registrars/Deputy Registrars.

An inspection of documents undertaken by any applicant shall be carried out under the supervision of an official of the High Court and strict vigil is kept at the time of inspection so as to ensure that neither any document is removed nor tampered with during the course of inspection. The Officer-in-charge Copying Section, under whose authority, supervision, and control, inspection shall be carried out, shall ensure that an Officer not below the rank of Section Officer is made responsible for every individual inspection to be undertaken by any applicant.

Chapter XVI

Deposit and Repayment of money

231.

When money is required to be paid or deposited in the office of the Court it shall be accompanied by triplicate Challans which shall be delivered to the Accountant of the Court. If the Challans are in order the Accountant shall sign and return the three Challans to the person making the payment or deposit for presentation with the money to the Cashier of the Court. The Cashier shall thereupon receive the money, enter the receipt in the register of receipts, sign each Challan and send the Challans to the Accountant. The Accountant shall then enter the amount in his register of receipts, issue one copy of the Challan to the person making the payment or deposit as a receipt for the money, send the second copy to the office to be filed with record concerned, and keep the third copy serially in a guard file. When the amount exceeds Rs. 500/- the copy of the Challan intended as a receipt for the money shall be signed by the Deputy Registrar before it is issued. The Cashier shall remit the money he has received to the Treasury with the Treasury Pass Book, after verification by the Deputy Registrar or in his absence, by the Assistant Registrar, on the next day on which the Treasury is open following the day of payment.

No money paid into Court by way of deposit or otherwise shall be paid out of Court except under an order of Court or of the Registrar (Judicial) or in the absence of the Registrar (Judicial), the concerned Registrar, upon an application for the payment of money.

233.

Every application for the payment of money out of Court shall be in writing and signed by the party claiming in his own right or in his capacity as personal legal representative or as guardian to be entitled to the money or by his recognized agent for the purpose : Provided that where the application is for payment of sum exceeding Rs. 50/- (Rs. Fifty only) the application may be signed by an Advocate duly authorized in that behalf.

(1) The application shall state -(a) the name, description and address of the applicant claiming to be entitled to the money; (b) the capacity in which such applicant claims to be entitled to the money; (c) the cause, appeal, matter or proceeding in which, or the date of the order under which, the money to which the application relates was paid into the Court and the date and number of the deposit; and(d)the precise amount for the payment of which an order is applied for.(2)When the applicant desires that the money shall be paid out of Court on his behalf to any other person, the application shall state in clear language that the applicant desires that the money may be paid out on his behalf to such other person and shall state the name, description and address of such other person.

The application shall be presented in person by the applicant claiming to be entitled to receive such money, or by an Advocate acting on behalf of the applicant and in the latter case, the application shall be signed by the Advocate immediately below the signature of the applicant in authentication of the signature of the applicant:Provided that when the sum to be refunded does not exceed Rs. 100/-, the applicant may -(a)add to the application a request that the amount due less postal commission may be forwarded to his address by postal money order;(b)obtain on the application the counter signature of a Magistrate as to his identity; and(c)forward his application countersigned as aforesaid to the Registrar (Judicial) or the Officer authorized for the purpose and, if the identity seems to be sufficiently established, the amount, less postal commission may, under order of a Judge or of the Registrar (Judicial), or in the absence of Registrar General or the Additional Registrar, be sent to him by money order.

The Judge, or the Registrar (Judicial) or in the absence of the Registrar (Judicial) the concerned Registrar, may pass an order on the application allowing or refusing payment of the amount, or may before passing an order issue notice to show' cause to any person or persons :Provided that no order for payment shall be passed unless the application has been examined by the Accountant and bears his certificate in writing that there is no order in force stopping the payment of such money or any part thereof and stating the precise amount for the payment of which out of Court an order may be made.

When an order for payment is passed a payment order shall be prepared by the Accountant and signed by the Deputy Registrar and when it is ready the fact shall be notified in a register to be kept for public inspection outside the Accountant's Office. The applicant or his Advocate may then take delivery of the payment order from the Accountant after putting his signature on the counter-foil as receipt. Pay orders shall remain in force for two weeks from the date they are made over to the applicant or his agent, and no payment after the period shall be made until the order is renewed. The date of delivery of the pay orders shall be noted on it.

The Cashier is authorized to make payment in cash of a sum not exceeding Rs. 200/- (Rs. Two Hundred only). Before making payment the Cashier shall satisfy himself as to the identity of the payee and if the payee is not personally known to him he shall note in the register of pay orders the name, description and address of the person by whom the payee has been identified to his satisfaction. Before making payment the Cashier shall take from the payee a receipt for the money, duly stamped when a stamp is necessary. The Cashier shall enter all such payments in the register of pay orders.

When any money has remained in Court for more than twelve calendar months after the time when an application for the payment thereof might have been made, the accountant shall report the fact to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose who shall issue such notice as may be necessary that the money is ready to be paid out of Court. The expense, if any, of issuing such notice shall be charged to and defrayed out of the fund in Court.

240.

The account registers to be kept are as follows : -(1)By the Accountant -(a)Register of deposits received;(b)Register of receipts;(c)Register of payment orders issued;(d)Register of repayments of deposits;(e)Ledger of security deposits; and(2)By the Cashier -(a)General Cash-book;(b)Pass-book;(c)Register of payments made in Court;(d)Register of money orders received.

241.

All the Registers of the Cashier and of the Accountant shall be examined daily by the Deputy Registrar. The daily examination shall consist in comparing -(a)the guard file of Challans, the registers of deposits and receipts, the register of payment orders issued and the register of payments made in Court with the Cashier's general cash-book ;(b)the Treasury pass-book with the above; and(c)the balance shown in the pre-emptory cash book with those in the general cash book.

242.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing Rules of this Chapter, the Chief Justice may by an administrative order or the High Court in any proceedings, direct that an Account in the name of the High Court may be opened in a Bank which shall be operated by the Registrar General or by such other Officer jointly with the Registrar General or otherwise as the Chief Justice may nominate for this purpose.

If and when such an Account is opened, transactions relating to the deposit of money in the Court by anyone or withdrawal of money from the Court by anyone, as are mentioned in the foregoing Rules in this Chapter may be carried out and operated through the aforesaid Bank Account.

To facilitate the deposit of money in the Bank in the name of the Court or the withdrawal of the money from the Bank by order of the Court, the Chief Justice may issue such administrative instructions as would be conducive to the object sought to be achieved under these Rules.

245.

The Chief Justice may issue an administrative order directing that the accounts of the High Court may be maintained through a Computer system in accordance with the software developed on the basis of the requirements of the High Court. The maintenance of the account of the High Court through the Computer system may be in addition to the accounts maintained manually as per the foregoing Rules of this Chapter or alternatively as the Chief Justice may direct.

246.

The Chief Justice, may by an administrative order direct that the functions to be performed by Deputy Registrar under this Chapter may be performed by some other officer of the same or higher rank.

Chapter XX

A: Rules under section 34(1) of the Advocates Act, 1961

263.

In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context the word "advocate" shall include a partnership or a firm of advocates.

Save as otherwise provided for in the any law for the time being in force, no advocate shall be entitled to appear, plead or act for any person in any court in any proceeding unless the advocate files an appointment in writing signed by such persons or his recognized agent or by some other person duly authorized by or under a power of attorney to make such appointment and signed by the advocate in token of its acceptance or the advocate filed a memorandum of appearance in the form prescribed by the High Court: Provided that where an advocate has already filed an appointment in any proceeding, it shall be sufficient for another advocate, who is engaged to appear in the proceedings merely for the purposes of pleading, to file a memorandum of appearance or to declare before the court that he appears on instructions from the advocate who has already filed his appointment in the proceedings : Provided further that nothing herein contained shall apply to an advocate who has been requested by the court to assist the court amicus curie in any case or a proceeding or who has been appointed at the expense of State to defend an accused person in a Criminal Proceeding. Explanation. - A separate appointment or a memorandum of appearance shall be filed in each of the several connected proceedings, notwithstanding that the same advocate is retained for the party in all the connected proceedings.

An advocate who is not on the roll of Advocates of the Bar Council of the State in which the court is situated, shall not appear, act or plead in such court, unless he files an appointment along with an advocate who is on the roll of such State Bar Council and who is ordinarily practising in such court.

266.

In cases in which a party is represented by more than one advocate, it shall be necessary for all of them to file a joint or separate appointment.

267.

The acceptance of the appointment on behalf of a firm or partnership of advocates shall be indicated by a partner affixing his own signature as a partner on behalf of the firm or partnership of advocates.

268.

An advocate at the time of acceptance of his appointment shall also endorse on it his address which address shall be regarded as one for service within the meaning of rule 5 of Order 111 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 : Provided that where more than one advocate accepts the appointment, it shall be sufficient for one of them to endorse his address.

269.

Where an advocate appointed by a party in any of the proceedings is prevented by reasonable cause from appearing and conducting the proceedings at any hearing, he may instruct another advocate to appear for him at that hearing.

270.

(1) Except when specially authorized by the Court or by consent of the party, an advocate, who has advised in connection with the institution of a suit, appeal or other proceeding or has drawn up pleadings in connection with such matter, or has during the progress of any suit, appeal or other proceeding appeared, acted or pleaded for a party, shall not, unless he first gives the party whom he has advised or for whom he has drawn up pleadings, appeared, acted or pleaded, an opportunity of engaging his services, appear or act or plead in such suit, appeal or other proceeding or in an appeal or application for revision arising therefrom or in any matter connected therewith for any person whose interest is in any manner in conflict with that of such party : Provided that the consent of the party may be presumed if he engages another advocate to appear, act or plead for him in such suit, appeal or other proceeding without offering an engagement to the advocate whose services were originally engaged by him or on his behalf. (2) Where it appears on the face of the record that the appearance of an advocate in any proceeding for any party is prejudicial to the interest of the other party on account of the reasons mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, the Court may refuse to permit the appearance to be filed or cancel such appearance if it has already been filed, after giving the said advocate an opportunity of being heard. (3) An advocate who discloses to any party information confided to him in his capacity as an advocate by another party without the latter's consent shall not be protected merely by reason of his being permitted to appear, act or plead for the said party.

(1) The appointment of a firm or partnership of advocates may be accepted by any partner on behalf of the firm. (2) No such firm or partnership shall be entitled to appear, act or plead in any Court unless all the partners thereof are entitled to appear, act or plead in such Court. (3) The name of the firm or partnership may contain the names of the persons who were or are members of the partnership but of no others. (4) The words 'and Company' shall not be affixed to the name of any such partnership or firm. (5) The names of all the members of the firm shall be recorded with the Registrar of the High Court and/or the District Judge, as the case may be, and the State Bar Council, and the names of all the partners shall also be set out in all professional communications issued by the partners or the firm. (6) The firm of advocates shall notify to the Registrar of the High Court/or the District Judge, as the case may be, and the State Bar Council, any change in the composition of the firm or the fact of its dissolution as soon as may be from the date on which such change occurs or its dissolution takes place. (7) Every partner of the firm of advocates shall be bound to disclose the names of all the partners of the firm whenever called upon to do so by the Registrar of the High Court, the District Judge, the State Bar Council, any Court or any party for or against whom the firm or any partner thereof has filed the appointment or memorandum of appearance. (8) In every case where a partner of a firm of advocates signs any document or writing on behalf of the firm he shall do so in the name of the partnership and shall authenticate the same by affixing his own signatures as partner.(9)Neither the firm of advocates nor any partner thereof shall advise a party or appear, act or plead on behalf of a party in any matter or proceeding where the opposite party is represented by any other partner of the firm or by the firm itself.

No advocate shall be permitted to file an appointment or memorandum of appearance in any proceeding in which another advocate is already on record for the same party save with the written consent of the former advocate on record or the leave of the Court, unless the former advocate has ceased to practice or has by reason of infirmity of mind or body or otherwise become unable to continue to act.

273.

An advocate may correct any clerical error in any proceedings with the previous permission of the Registrar or any officer of the Court specially empowered in this behalf by the Court obtained on a memorandum stating the correction desired.

274.

(2)If the proposal for designation of an Advocate as Senior Advocate is made under clause (i) of Rule 2, by the High Court, the particulars mentioned in clause 5 (1) shall, as far as possible, be obtained by the Registry.

282.

The proposal for designation shall be considered at a Full Court Meeting of the High Court.

283.

An application once rejected shall not be renewed for another two years.

284.

The designation of Senior Advocate shall be liable to be cancelled after due notice in the event of it being found that he has violated any or all of the provisions of the Rules prescribed by the Bar Council of India under Sections 16 (3) and 49 (1) (g) of the Act.

285.

On designation of an Advocate as a Senior Advocate or on cancellation of such designation, the Registrar General, shall notify the fact to the Registrar General, Supreme Court, the Bar Council of Chhattisgarh, the Bar Council of India, the Bar Council of other States in India and to all the District and Sessions Judges subordinate to the High Court.

286.

A record of all such decisions shall be maintained in the office of the High Court.

287.

Nothing in these Rules shall be construed to curtail the powers of the High Court to relax any requirement under the Rules.

288.

On the date of coming into force of these Rules, any existing Rules framed by the High Court under Section 16 (2) of the Advocates Act, 1961 shall stand repealed. These Rules shall come into force with immediate effect.

289.

In these rules the expression 'authorised clerk' means a clerk employed by an Advocate ordinarily practicing in the High Court, and the Courts subordinate thereto, in accordance with the rules and practice of the Court and such instructions as may, from time to time, be issued by the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose by the High Court.

290.

(1) An advocate ordinarily practising in the High Court may make an application to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose in pursuance of these rules, for the registration of a Clerk, who, on such registration, shall be known as an 'authorised clerk', for the purpose of transacting business in accordance with these Rules. (2) No advocate may make an application for registration of more than one authorized clerk save with the express recommendation of the High Court Bar Association certifying that the Advocate's practice is such that the number of clerks recommended is essential.

A register of all authorized clerks shall be maintained in the Registry of the Court, in such manner or as prescribed and to each authorized clerk shall be given an identity card in the prescribed form. Every authorized clerk while on duty shall be properly dressed and wear plastic badge measuring 1" x 3" of black colour containing the name of the clerk concerned in white and below the name, description as Advocate's Clerk.

292.

An advocate shall at once report to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose the termination of employment of any authorized clerk, and on termination of his employment a clerk shall immediately return his card, failure to do so would render him liable to such penalty as may be prescribed.

293.

No clerk employed by an Advocate shall be allowed to transact any business with, or have access to any of the offices of the Court or the Courts subordinate thereto, unless he is an authorized clerk, and properly dressed as such.

294.

It shall be the duty of an Advocate at once to inform the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose of any serious misconduct which comes to his knowledge on the part of his authorized clerk. When it is alleged that an authorized clerk is guilty of misconduct, the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, and after hearing the clerk in his defence if the latter so desires, order his suspension, or the removal of his name from the register and the cancellation of his card, and on the passing of such order the clerk shall cease to be authorized clerk.

295.

If a person who has been suspended or whose name has been removed from the register is thereafter recommended for registration by any Advocate, the fact of such suspension or removal shall be mentioned in the recommendation.

296.

When submitting an application under the foregoing rule, and when it is desired to renew registration, the Advocate shall furnish a certificate to the effect that he knows personally, or has satisfied himself by proper enquiry, that the clerk in question is a person of good character and antecedents that he is fit to be employed as authorized clerk, and will be employed bona fide and solely in the Advocate's own service and for the purpose of his legal business in accordance with these rules that his employment is necessary for the Advocate's professional practice and that the advocate will make it a condition of his accepting a brief that remuneration shall be paid to the authorized clerk or clerks in an amount not less than Rs. 100/- per case. In the case of a first application he shall further furnish an undertaking that if it comes to his notice that the clerk is or has been working as a tout lie shall at once report the fact to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose.

An authorized clerk shall transact business in the offices of the High Court or Court's subordinate thereto only on behalf of the Advocate whose clerk he is or of the clients of the said Advocate : Provided that whenever the sole authorized clerk of an Advocate is unavoidably absent from the Court the authorized clerk of any other advocate may work in his place, with the previous consent in each case of the Advocates concerned.

The Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose may for reasons to be recorded in writing, reject any application for the registration or renewal of registration of an authorized clerk.

An authorized clerk may act in all matters of a routine nature which do not require the personal attendance of the Advocate and shall be allowed to do the following acts on behalf of his master :

- (i) To receive notices, and to obtain forms of notices from the office. (ii) To obtain reports by the Stamp Reporter on civil appeals and application, and by the concerned Clerk on criminal appeals, before their presentation in Court. (iii) To obtain office reports upon applications. (iv) To present to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose or Deputy Registrar or in the absence of the Deputy Registrar to the Assistant Registrar applications signed by his master for
- (a) Inspection of records and registers. (b) Return of documents. (c) Refund of surplus balances at credit, (d) Inclusion of documents in a paper-book, (v) To make application for copy under his signature, stating the name of the Advocate and description of the party represented by such Advocate stamps, (vi) To take notes from deficiency reports of the Stamp Reporter and file necessary stamps. (vii) To inspect records with his master, or with another Advocate if his master permits it and is himself empowered to inspect, (viii) To deposit money and file Court-fees : (ix) To receive paper-book, copies and the like. (x) To file Vakalatnamas, retainer slips, certificates of fees, written forms of processes, and copies of papers and briefs. (xi) To identify, if required and in a position to do so, persons making inspection of records or swearing affidavits. (xii) To apply for copies in his own name, stating that the application is being made on behalf of his master to be named.

Should it come to the notice of any Advocate or of any officer or assistant of the High Court that any person other than an authorized clerk as hereinbefore defined, is transacting or attempting to transact any business of an authorized clerk within the precincts of the High Court, he shall at once report the fact to the Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose who shall take such action as he may deem fit, and may remove such person from the precincts of the Court.

301.

By an administrative order, the Chief Justice may prescribe other conditions relating to the grant of registration to Advocates' Clerk, including the duration or period of such registration, or renewal thereof, and the levy of fees for such registration, if any, as also conditions attached thereto. D: Prevention of Toutary

302.

(1) The Registrar General or the Officer authorized for the purpose may, if necessary in consultation with the President High Court Bar Association shall publish list of persons proved to his satisfaction, by evidence of general repute or otherwise, habitually to act as touts to be known as 'list of touts' and may, from time to time, alter and amend such list. A copy of every list of touts shall be displayed on the notice board of the Court. Explanation. - In this Order -(a) 'tout' means a person who procures, in consideration of any remuneration moving from any advocate or from any person acting on his behalf, the employment of such advocate in any legal business, or who proposes to or procures any advocate, in consideration of any remuneration moving from such advocate or from any person acting on his behalf, the employment of the advocate in such business, or who, for purposes of such procurement, frequents the precincts of the Court. (b) the passing of a resolution by the Supreme Court Bar Association or by a High Court Bar Association declaring any person to be tout shall be evidence of general repute of such person for the purpose of this rule. (2) No person shall be included in the list of touts unless he has been given an opportunity to show cause against the inclusion of his name in such list. Any person may appeal to the Judge (in Chamber) nominated in this behalf against the order of the Registrar including his name in such list. (3) The Registrar may, by general or special order, exclude from the precincts of the Court all such persons whose names are included in the list of touts. (1)As soon as may be, after an Election Petition has been presented and registered, it shall be placed before the Judge for such orders as may be required to be passed under Section 86 of the Act.(2)If the petition is not dismissed under Section 86 (1) of the Act, a summons, on the direction of the Judge, shall be issued to the respondents to appear before the Judge on a day not earlier than three weeks from the date of the issue of the summons, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge.(3)The summons shall be for filing written statement and settlement of issues and shall be served on the respondents through the District Judge of the district to which the respondent belongs or in the district in which he ordinarily resides, in the manner provided for the service of summons in the Code of Civil Procedure and the concerned District Judge will make his best endeavour to get the summons duly served and make a return of the service of summons before the date fixed.

In addition to the service of summons to be effected as aforesaid, summons shall also be sent to the respondents at the address given by the petitioner by registered post acknowledgement due and/or in such other means as is directed by the Judge. The petitioner shall file extra copies of the petition along with copies of annexures, if any, duly attested as required by the Act and these Rules to be served along with the summons by registered post.-

Those of the respondents who file written statements or recriminatory statements as provided under Section 97 (2) of the Act, shall also furnish copies of such written statements and recriminatory statement and copies of annexures, if any, duly attested by such respondents under their own signature, for the use of the petitioner and the other respondents, as the case may be, and where a recriminatory statement under Section 97 (2) alleges any corrupt practice, such a statement shall be accompanied by an affidavit in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof as required under the Act/Rules.

After the pleadings in the election petition are received, a date shall be fixed, at the direction of the Judge, for (1) discovery of documents, (2) inspection of the documents disclosed, and (3) the production of documents which are in the possession and power of the parties and issues will then be settled.

320.

(1) Within seven days of the settlement of issues, parties shall file a list of witnesses and pay the process fees along with the travelling allowance, the diet allowance and local conveyance allowance as may be required. (2) If no such list is filed or the required payment is not made within the period mentioned in sub-rule (1), the petition shall be placed before the Judge for necessary orders.

321.

Witnesses may also be produced by the parties on the date of hearing without a summons provided the parties have filed a list of the same as required under these Rules.

322.

(1) A party applying for a summon(s) to a witness(es) shall be required to deposit with the cashier of the Court at the time of applying for summons a sum sufficient to cover the travelling allowance, the diet allowance and the local conveyance allowance of the witness(es) according to the scale given below : Provided that in cases not fully or clearly covered by this Scale or in cases where the Judge thinks special considerations should prevail, the Judge shall award such amounts as he deems proper: Provided further that the local conveyance allowance shall be payable only if the party calling the witness does not provide conveyance to him. Should the explanation be unsatisfactory, the Registrar may require such further proof of the alleged cause of delay as he may deem fit.(11)Proof of identity. - The Court may, in cases where it deems it necessary, require proof, in addition to the usual statement required to be made in the petition, of the identity of the deceased or of the party applying for the grant.(12)Inter lineations, alterations etc., in the Will should be sworn to by the attesting witness. - When inter lineations, alterations, erasures or obliterations appear in the Will (unless duly executed as required by the Indian Succession Act or recited in or otherwise identified by the attestation clause), a statement shall be made in the affidavit of the attesting witness whether they existed in the Will before its execution or not.(13)In absence of attesting witness what other evidence must be produced. - If no affidavit by any of the attesting witnesses is procurable, an affidavit shall be procured, (if possible) from some other person (if any) who may have been present at the execution of the Will, but if no affidavit of any such person can be obtained, evidence on affidavit must be produced of that fact and of the hand writing of deceased and one attesting witness and also of any circumstances which may raise a presumption in favour of due execution.(14)Attempted cancellation must be accounted for. - Any appearance of an attempted cancellation of testamentary writing by burning, tearing, obliteration or otherwise, and every circumstances leading to a presumption of abandonment or revocation of such writing or part thereof, shall be accounted for.(15)Unsigned or unattested Will. - In cases in which it is not necessary that a Will should be signed by the testator or attested by witnesses to constitute a valid testamentary disposition of the testator's property the testator's intention that it should operate as his testamentary disposition must clearly be proved by an affidavit.(16)Renunciation. - No person who renounces probate of a Will or letter of administration of the property of a deceased person in one character shall without a leave of the Court, take out representation to the same deceased in another character.(17)Application for administration by a creditor. - In all applications by a creditor for letters of administration, it shall be stated particularly how the debt or debts arose, the amount due on the date of the application, and whether the application has any and what security therefor.(18)Production of deed paper, etc. referred to in Will. - If a Will contains a reference to any paper memorandum or other document of such a nature as to raise a question whether it ought not to form a constituent part of the Will, such paper, memorandum or other document should be produced with a view to ascertaining whether it is entitled to probate, and where not produced, its non-production must be accounted for.(19)Persons consenting to an application for letter of administration must do so on affidavit. - Persons desiring to give their consent to an application for a grant of probate or for letters of administration or for succession certificate must do so on affidavit, stating their relationship to the deceased and that they consent to such a grant.(20)Citation to rightful parties. - On an application for probate or for letters of administration, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge or Registrar a citation shall issue to all persons having a right to take the grant prior or equal to that of the applicant, unless such persons have signified their consent to the application.(21)Citation on application by creditor. - Where letters of administration are applied for by a creditor, a special citation shall be issued to the widow, if any and the next of kin, provided they shall be resident within the jurisdiction or have any known agent or agents resident within the jurisdiction, and to the Administrator General of Chhattisgarh, and a general citation shall be issued to all persons claiming to have any interest in the estate of the deceased.(22)Citation. - All citations shall unless otherwise ordered, direct the persons cited to show cause on such day certain as the Court shall direct, and shall be in the prescribed format and where they cannot be served in the manner provided for service of process, may be served by the insertion as an advertisement in such newspapers as may be directed, of a notice in the prescribed format.(23)Proof of Publication. - Proof of due publication of a citation by advertisement shall be by affidavit, unless the Court has directed that such citation be published once only in a single newspaper in which case a copy of the issue of the newspaper containing the said advertisement may be filed in lieu of an affidavit.(24)Proof of power of attorney. - Unless a power of attorney constituting such attorney or the attorney of an executor absent from the State of Chhattisgarh can, under Section 85 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, be presumed to have been executed and authenticated as in the said section mentioned; the Court may require further proof of its due execution.(25)Grant when to have effect in Chhattisgarh. - All grants of probate or Letters of Administration (with or without the Will annexed) other than grants under the administrator-General's Act, shall unless otherwise ordered, be drawn up by the Court to have effect within the Chhattisgarh.(26)Grants when to have effect throughout India. - In all cases in which it is sought to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration (with or without the Will annexed) to have effect throughout the territory of India, or under the Administrator-General's Act to have effect throughout one or more of the other Divisions as defined in that Act, such grant must be expressly asked for and it must be shown where the assets are situated.(27)Two common sureties to the bond required. - In all cases of letters of administration save and except under section 241, Indian Succession Act, 1925, unless the deceased is a Hindu, Mohammadan, Buddhist, Sikh or Jain and in case of succession certificates which in the opinion of the Court fall under sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 373, two common sureties are required to the administration bond in each case shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, be given in double the amount of the property for which the grant is to be made. The bond shall be given to and in the name of the Chief Justice, and shall be, as nearly as possible, in the prescribed format.(28)Justifying surety. - When any person takes out letters of administration in default of the appearance of any person, cited, and when any person takes out letters of administration or succession certificates for the use and benefit of a lunatic, or person of unsound mind (unless he be a committee of the estate of such lunatic, appointed by the Court), or for the use and benefit of a minor (unless he be a guardian of the property of such minor appointed by the Court), surety or sureties to the bond must justify for the whole amount of the estate. And when any person entitled to a portion only of the estate takes out letters of administration, or succession certificate the sureties to the bond must justify for the whole estate less the share of petitioner and such shares as shall contest by writing thereto. The Court hearing testamentary matters may, however in a proper case and for reasons to be recorded in writing, dispense with the Jurisdiction of surety.(29)When such a bond has been filed the Court shall direct the surety to be tested, either by the Registrar or by the District Judge within whose Jurisdiction the immovable property is situate.(30)Insurance Companies as Sureties. - An approved Insurance Company may be accepted in place of two common sureties under rule 27, and as justifying surety under rule 28, and in such cases, the bond shall be given only for the amount of the property for which the grant is to be made. The bond given by the Company shall be as nearly as possible, in the prescribed format.(31)Consequences of neglect to proceed with petition or to furnish security. - If a petitioner for a grant of probate, letters of administration, or succession certificate, for three months from the admission of the petition neglects to proceed with the petition, or for three months of the date of the order for grant neglects to give the required security or otherwise to proceed with the application or to take out the grant, the Registrar shall give notice in writing of his default to the Administrator-General, who may then apply to the Court for an order that the petition be dismissed and that he may be at liberty to apply for a grant of letters of administration.If no further steps are taken in the matter, the petition may be posted before the Court for dismissal, and the Court may thereupon make such order as it thinks fit.(32)Schedule of property to accompany certificate under Section 274 of the Indian Succession Act or section 24 of the Administrator General's Act. - With every certificate to be sent to a High Court, under the provisions of section 274 of the Act, or section 24 of the Administrator General's Act, 1913, the Registrar shall send a copy of so much of schedule of the property and, credits of the deceased as relates to the estate within the jurisdiction of such Court.(33)Amendment of grant extend to India. - A grant under the Indian Succession Act, 1925, limited to the State of Chhattisgarh, may be amended on the Court's order so as to extend its effect throughout India. The application shall be by affidavit stating where the additional property and credits are suitable, and on payment of the probate duly payable in respect thereof, and in case of grant of letters of administration with or without the Will annexed, on the petitioner giving a further bond, the grant may be amended accordingly.(34)Application for extension of Succession Certificate. - The Court may extend a succession certificate to any debt or security not originally specified therein. Application for such extension shall be by a petition with all accompaniments mentioned in rule 8, stating the particulars of the debt or security and on the payment of duty payable in respect thereof and on the petitioner giving a further bond, if required, the certificate may be extended.(35)Inventory and account. - The inventory and account to be furnished by an executor or administrator under section 317 of the Act shall be in the prescribed formats and shall be verified in the following manner:'I.....the executor (or administrator), named in the above inventory, do hereby declare that the said inventory is in every respect true, perfect and correct to the best of my knowledge, by information received from..... and believed to be true, and that the same contains a full, true and perfect inventory of all the property in the possession of the deceased at the date of his death and of all credits owing to him, and of all debts owing by him; or'I.....the executor (or administrator), named in the above account, do hereby declare that the said account is true, perfect and correct to the best of my knowledge, by information received from and believed to be true and that it gives a full, true and perfect account of all the estate and effects of the deceased which has or have come into my hands, possession power, control, custody or knowledge and of the deposition of the same.'(36)Probate of Will of married woman or letter of administration etc. - In grant of probate of the Will of a married woman, or of the Will of widow made during coverture, or letters of administration with such Will annexed, it shall not be necessary to recite, in the grant or in the oath to lead same the separate movable property of the testatrix or the power or authority under which the Will has been or purports to have been made. The probates or letter cases shall take the form of ordinary grant of probate or letters of administration with the Will annexed without and exception or limitation, and issue to an executor or other person authorized in usual course of representation to take the same.(37)In case of doubt or difficulty in any non-contentious matters, the Registrar may obtain the direction of the Court or call upon the petitioner to move the Court for direction, when an application is on file.Contentious Business(38)Caveats. - Any person intending to oppose the issuing of a grant of probate, or letters of administration must, either personally or by his advocate, file a caveat in the office of the Additional Registrar or Deputy Registrar in the prescribed format. No caveat shall effect any grant made on the day on which the caveat is filed. Notice of the filing of the caveat shall be given by the Registrar to the petitioner or his advocate in the prescribed format.(39)Affidavit in support of Caveat. - Where a caveat is entered after an application has been made for a grant of probate or letters of administration with or without the Will annexed the affidavit or affidavits in support shall be filed within fourteen days of the caveat being lodged. Such affidavit shall state the right and interest of the caveat, and the grounds of the objection to the application.(40)When caveat is entered before application for grant is filed. - Where an application for grant of probate or letters of administration with or without the Will annexed is presented after a caveat has been filed, the Registrar shall forthwith issue notice to the caveator, calling upon him to file his affidavit or affidavits in support of his caveat within fourteen days from the service of such notice.(41)Consequence of non-compliance. - Where the caveator fails to file any affidavit in support of his caveat in compliance with rule 40 or in compliance with the notice issued under rule 41, the caveat may be discharged by an order to be obtained on application to the Court.(42)Conversion of application into suit. - Upon the affidavit in support of the caveat being filed (notice whereof shall immediately be given by the caveator to the petitioner), the proceedings shall be numbered at a suit in which the petitioner for probate or letters of administration shall be the plaintiff, and the caveator shall be the defendants, the petition for probate or letters of administration being registered as and deemed a plaint filed against the caveator, and the affidavit filed by the caveator being treated as his written statement in the suit. The procedure in such suit shall as nearly as may be, according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.(43)Proof in solemn form. - The party opposing a will may, with his affidavit give notice to the party setting up the Will that he merely insists upon the Will being proved in solemn force of law, and only intends to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will, and he shall thereupon be at liberty to do so, and shall not, in any event be liable to pay the cost of the other side, unless the Court shall be of opinion that there was no reasonable ground for opposing the Will.(44)Trial on preliminary issue. - The Court may, on the application of the petitioner before directing that the proceedings be numbered as a suit direct the trial, of an issue as to the caveator's interest, upon the trial of such issue it appears that the caveator has no interest, the Court shall order the caveat to be discharged, and may order to the issue to probate or letters of administration, as the case may be.(45)Notice of application to whom to be given. - The Registrar shall give notice of grants of certification for probate or letters of administration to the Chief Revenue Controlling Authority, and the Collector of the district within one week after the admission of the application.(46)Disposal of petitions for non-prosecution. - All Testamentary petitions in which grants or certificates are not issued, owing to non-prosecution of the petitions for two years after the petitions have been filed, shall be treated as disposed of, and no action shall be taken in such petitions, unless a fresh petition is filed or an order obtained from the Testamentary Judge (in Chambers), giving permission to the petitioner to proceed with the petition already filed.(47)Administrator General's Act. - Nothing in the rules in this Chapter shall apply to application or acts to be done by the Administrator-General, in so far as they conflict with the provisions of the Administrator-General's Act.H. Rules under Section 50 (1) except clauses (a) & (i) of the Guardian and Wards Act, 1890 (Act No. VIII of 1890)Chhattisgarh Guardians and Wards Rules, 1963

(1)In these rules, "the Act" means the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890.(2)An application for the appointment or declaration of a guardian of the person of the minor, or of his property, or of both as required by Section 10 of the Act, shall be in form A prescribed with such variations as the circumstances of each case may require.(3)Where the father of a minor is living, and is not proposed as guardian, the application shall state any facts relied on as showing that he is unfit to act as guardian of the minor or that he consents to the application.(4)Notice of the application as required by Section 11 of the Act shall be in Form B prescribed (11-190) and shall be issued and served in the manner prescribed for summons to a defendant.(5)When a guardian is appointed or declared under the Act, he shall be furnished with a certificate of guardianship in Form C prescribed (11-285) and his attention should be drawn to the provisions of Section 26, 27, 28, 29, 32, 33, 35, 36 39, 44 and 45 of the Act, which contains the following instructions and information : -(a)That he shall not remove the ward from the limits of the Court's jurisdiction (section 26 of the Act).(b)That he should take due care of the properties entrusted to him in the manner stated in Section 27.(c)That he is not authorized to make transfer or do any of the acts mentioned in Section 28 and 29 without the permission of the Court.(d)That in the case of a guardian, other than the Collector, his powers are liable to be restricted or extended by order of the Court (Section 32).(e)That he can, in the case of necessity, submit any question relating to the management of the property of his ward for the opinion or advice of the Court (Section 33).(f)That in cases mentioned in Section 35 and 36, the remedies provided therein are available against him.(g)That for reasons stated in Section 39, he is liable to be removed from his office.(h)That for reasons given in Section 44 and 45, he is liable to the penalties stated therein.(i)That he is in general bound by the provisions of the Act, the rules framed or to be framed thereunder and the order of the Court passed under the Act. His attention shall also be drawn to any special restrictions on the powers as guardian which may be imposed by the Court at the time of issuing the certificate.Note. - No ministerial officer employed in the Judicial Department shall be appointed or declared as such officer to be guardian of the person or the property of a minor nor shall any such official be appointed or declared as aforesaid in his private capacity, unless he has been appointed by will or other instrument or is by reason of relationship to the minor or other special circumstances unconnected with his official position suited to act as guardian.(6)Every guardian appointed or declared by the Court, except when he is the Collector of the district, shall ordinarily be required to give a bond, with or without a surety or sureties, as the Court may think fit to direct, for a sum not less than the total estimated value of the moveable property and three year's profits of the whole estate. Such bonds shall be in Form D prescribed, with such variations as the circumstances of each case may require.(7)At the time of appointing or declaring a guardian, the Court shall pass orders as to the allowances, if any, to be granted to, and the security to be required from, such guardian.(8)The statement showing the property of a ward, as required by clause (b) of Section 34 of the Act shall be in form E prescribed.(9)(i)Applications with respect to the guardianship of the person or property of a minor and applications under Section 31 of the Act for sanction for the sale of the property of a minor, and proceedings taken in connection with the accounts of each year shall be entered in the register of Miscellaneous Judicial Cases.(ii)For statistical purposes an application for an order of guardianship shall be treated as "disposed of" as soon as a guardian has been appointed and has furnished the requisite security or the application has been rejected or dismissed, as the case may be.(iii)An application under Section 31 shall be treated as "disposed of" as soon as the permission for sale etc. has been given or refused.(iv)Proceedings in connection with annual accounts shall be treated as "disposed of" as soon as the Court after an examination of the accounts by itself or by an officer appointed for the purpose has satisfied itself of the correctness thereof or proceedings taken in consequence of such examination have terminated.(10)In ordinary cases, a fly-sheet, and in large cases, a book, in Form F prescribed (11-162) shall be maintained for each estate and all miscellaneous judicial cases in connection with the estate from the appointment of the first guardian till the ward concerned attains majority shall be shown in it.(11)A register of estates of wards in Form G prescribed (11-23) shall also be maintained. As soon as an estate has passed out of the hands of the Court a line in red ink shall be drawn across the entry. When on account of a register having been completely filled another register has to be opened, all pending entries in the old register shall be copied in the new register. The register shall be preserved for 25 years from the date of the last entry therein.(12)In the case of estates of which the annual income is not over Rs. 500 accounts need not ordinarily be submitted by the guardian, but the Court may at any time call upon the guardian to submit such accounts as it thinks necessary. In other cases the Court shall direct the guardian, except when he is the Collector of the district, to submit an account of the income and expenditure of the ward's estate once a year. Account of agricultural estates should be submitted within three months after the close of the agricultural year of the revenue district in which the estate lies, and accounts of trading, money-lending and other estates by the 1st January.(13)Before disposing of an application made by a guardian for any of the purposes referred to in section 28 and 29 of the Act the Court shall ordinarily cause due notice of such application to be given to such persons, whether relatives of the ward or otherwise connected with him, as may be held by the Court to be effected by such application.(14)The ward, if a male, shall in the absence of sufficient reason to the contrary, be produced on each occasion when the accounts are submitted, and if the submission of annual accounts has been dispensed with, whenever the Court directs. The Court shall, as far as possible, examine his physical intellectual and moral condition, and ask him whether he has any remarks to make regarding the management of his estate and his own treatment and comfort.(15)All statements and accounts produced by the guardian shall be kept with the files of the case concerned and shall be open to inspection, with the permission of the Court by persons legitimately interested in the same. No fees shall be charged for this inspection.(16)When a guardian has been appointed by the Court, he shall be required, except in the case of estates of which the income is not over Rs. 500 to open an account, in its own name, on behalf of the ward at a Bank or with a firm to be approved by the Court. Any surplus moneys which may remain over after the current expenses of the estate and the ward's maintenance and education have been paid shall be invested by the guardian in Government Promissory Notes or other securities approved by the Court.(17)In cases in which the ward's estate is under the management of Government, District Judge, Collector, or other Government officer, surplus moneys may be invested in Government Promissory Notes which should be deposited in treasury for safe custody. The income of the estate, required for current expenditure in connection with the management of the estate and the maintenance and education of the ward, shall be deposited in the treasury.Note. - The deposit money in a private bank in the name of the District Judge or other Government Officer as guardian of a ward's estate, is prohibited.(18)(i)In cases in which the District Judge thinks that a complete audit of the account of any of the estates in his charge is necessary he may entertain special clerks or a Local Auditor. The clerks or Auditor shall be paid from the estate concerned; each estate being required to contribute in proportion to its gross income. Where there is Official Receiver and he is not the guardian he may be appointed to audit accounts, and in the case of big landed estates he may be asked to go to the spot and check the account by personal inquiry. The remuneration of the Official Receiver will be fixed by the State Government on a reference made to it direct by the district Judge as soon as he has disposed of the Receiver's report. Such detailed audit should not ordinarily be necessary where the annual income is not over Rs. 5,000 and in such cases it will ordinarily be sufficient for the Court to make a rough estimate of income and expenditure and to limit its supervision to enforcing the deposit of the annual surplus by the guardian. If necessary, the Court may, where funds of an estate permit, appoint some local pleader to check accounts and report and in case of large estates, a commission may be issued to an executive officer or pleader to make local enquiries and report. Too detailed accounts from the guardian should not be exacted.(ii)The Court shall certify that it has scrutinized the accounts or has had them audited, as the case may be, and shall record such remarks as may be necessary thereon. The Court shall thereafter, when duly satisfied with the accounts, countersign the same.(19)Without prejudice and in addition to foregoing rules, an application of a foreigner to be appointed guardian of the person of an Indian child with leave to remove the child out of India to his own country for the purpose of adopting it in accordance with the law of his country, should not be entertained directly by the Court. Such application should be sponsored by a Special or Child Welfare Agency recognized or licensed by the Government of the Country, in which the foreigner is resident. The application should be accompanied by home study report of the foreigner by such agency containing information to show whether he is fit and suitable person and has the capacity to parent a child coming from a different racial and cultural milieu. The sponsoring foreign agency must also certify that the foreigner seeking to adopt a child is permitted to do so according to the law of his country. In case the foreigner is not in a position to come to India, the application must be further accompanied by a power of attorney in favour of an officer of the Social or Child Welfare Agency in India which is to process the application.(20)Such an application should be processed in the Court only by a Social or Child Welfare Agency licensed or recognized by the Government of India or the Government of the State in which it is operating. Such agency shall annex a child study report giving all relevant information in regard to the child to assist the Court in coming to a decision whether it will be for the welfare of the child to be given in adoption to the foreigner wishing to adopt it.(21)Except where the child is an orphan, destitute or abandoned child whose biological parents are not known, in all other cases the agency processing such an application should take from the biological parents a document of surrender duly signed by the biological parents and attested by at least two respective persons. The Biological parents should not have surrendered the child before its birth or within a period of three months from the date of birth.(22)No notice under Section 11 of the Act shall be issued to the biological parents of the child, so that they shall not have any opportunity of knowing who are the adoptive persons taking the child in adoption. Such notice shall not also be published in a news paper. Rules under sub-section (1) (A) and (I) of Section 50

1. With the annual statements of civil business for the previous year which are required to be submitted by the 15th February each year the District Judges shall submit to the High Court a report of the working of the Guardians and Wards Act 1890, specially on the management of ward's estates.

2. When it appears to the Court at the time of passing an order of appointment or declaration of a guardian, or at the annual inspection of the ward or otherwise, that orders are required as to the education of the ward, the Court shall pass such orders as appear to suit the case, regard being had to the present position and future prospects of the ward's family and to the intellectual capabilities of the ward himself.

J: Rules under Section 45-G, Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act No. X of 1949)

In exercise of powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 45-B and Section 45-G of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act X of 1949), as amended by Act XX of 1950, and all other powers hereunto enabling, the High Court hereby makes the following rules : -Rules

1. Short title, commencement and application. - These rules shall be called the Chhattisgarh High Court Banking Companies Rules, 2005 and shall come into force from a date to be notified by the Chief Justice, and shall apply to all proceedings under the Banking Companies Act; 1949.

2. Definition. - To these rules, unless, the context or subject matter otherwise requires : -

(a)"Act" means the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act X of 1949), as amended by Act XX of 1950, or as may be amended from time to time.(b)"Banking Company" means a company to which the provisions of the Act apply.

3. Title to proceedings, advertisements, etc. - The following shall be used as the entitling (or heading) in every petition or notice of application, advertisement, proclamation, notice, or other matter to which these rules apply.

(a)In proceedings in Court: -"In the High Court of Chhattisgarh at Bilaspur""In the matter of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, and.....Bank Limited".(b)In advertisements, proclamations, notice and other proceedings not before the Court."In the matter of Banking Companies Act, 1949, and of.....Bank Limited."

4. Application of Indian Company Rules. - Save, as is expressly provided in these rules, the rules framed under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 shall apply to proceedings under Act, and all forms prescribed under the Indian Companies Act, where appropriate shall mutatis mutandis apply to proceedings under the Act.

5. Application of the Code of Civil Procedure. - The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, in so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules or with the Act, shall apply to all proceedings under the Act.

6. (a) Mode of proceedings. - An application under any of the sections of Part III or III-A of the Act shall be made by petition which shall be signed and verified in the same manner as a plaint. The petition shall be supported by an affidavit, and shall be presented to the Judge taking Company winding up matters or to such other Judge as the Chief Justice may direct. The Judge shall hear the said application and pass such orders and give such directions as he deems proper, including directions for notice of the petition being given to such person or persons as may seem to him likely to be effected by the proceedings.

(b)Jurisdiction. - Such petitions shall be heard and disposed of by a Judge sitting alone.

7. Notice. - (a) In addition to the advertisement and notice provided for in the rules framed by this Court under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, notice of application for winding up a Banking Company, made by persons other than the Reserve Bank shall be served on the Reserve Bank.

The notice shall also state that in default of an application from the Reserve Bank asking to be appointed the official liquidator, the Court may, if necessary proceed to appoint an official liquidator other than the Reserve Bank.(b)All notices directed to be given to any party or to the Reserve Bank shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition and affidavit, and shall be sent by registered post with acknowledgement due.

8. Transfer of proceedings. - Where an order has been made for the winding up of a Banking Company, the Judge shall have power to order the transfer to him of any action, cause or matter pending in any other Court subordinate to the High Court brought or continued by or against the Company. Any proceeding by or against the company pending in the High Court shall be dealt with by the Judge dealing with the proceedings for the winding up of the Company. Proceedings so transferred or pending in the High Court shall be dealt with in the same manner as claims and questions under Section 45-B of the Act.

9. Proof of claims. - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Indian Company Rules, every depositor whose name appears as a depositor in the books of the company shall be admitted as a creditor for the amount so appearing in the books of the company without proof, unless the official liquidator has reason for doubting any particular entry in which case he may call upon the depositor so admitted without proof of claim. The Official liquidator shall notify every depositor so admitted without proof of the amount for which he has been admitted as a creditor.

10. Set off. - In all claims for the money by or against a Banking Company, the opposite-party shall be entitled to plead by way of set-off or counter-claim any amount which he or it may claim against the claimant.

11. Cour-fees on claims. - The Court fee-payable on claims for money (whether secured or unsecured) on a claim to set-off made against such claims or counter-claims shall be as follows : -

17. Process in Criminal Cases. - All processes in criminal cases shall issue from the office of the Registrar.

K: Rules under Section 45-N and 45-U, Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act X of 1949)

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub - section (2) of Section 45-N and Section 45-U of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act X of 1949), as amended by Act XX of 1950 and Act LII of 1953 and all other powers hereunto enabling and in supersession of all previous rules on the subject, the High Court hereby makes the following rules.

1. Short title, commencement and application. - These rules shall be called the Chhattisgarh High Court Banking Companies Rules, 2005 and shall come into force from a date to be notified by the Chief Justice, and shall apply to all proceedings under the Banking Companies Act, 1949.

2. Definitions. - In these rules, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires : -

(a) "Act" means the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (X of 1949) as amended by Act XX of 1950 and Act LII of 1953, or as may be amended from time to time. (b) "Banking Company" means a company to which the provisions of the Act apply. (c) "Court" means the High Court of Chhattisgarh at Bilaspur.

3. Title to proceedings advertisements, etc. - The following shall be used as the entitling (or heading) in every petition or notice of application, advertisement, proclamation, notice or other matter to which these rules apply.

(a) In proceedings in Court : - "In the High Court of Chhattisgarh at Bilaspur!" "In the matter of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, and of.....Bank Limited." (b) In advertisement, proclamation, notices and other proceedings not before the Court. "In the matter of Banking Companies Act, 1949 and of.....Bank Limited."

4. Application of Indian Company Rules. - Save, as is expressly provided in these rules, the rules framed under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 shall apply to proceedings under Act, and all forms prescribed under the Indian Companies Act, where appropriate shall mutatis mutandis apply to proceedings under the Act.

5. Application of the Code of Civil Procedure. - The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, in so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules or with the Act, shall apply to all proceedings under the Act.

6. (a) Mode of proceedings. - An application under any of the sections of Part III or III-A of the Act shall be made by petition which shall be signed and verified in the same manner as a plaint. The petition shall be supported by an affidavit, and shall be presented to the Judge taking Company winding up matters or to such other Judge as the Chief Justice may direct. The Judge shall hear the said application and pass such orders and give such directions as he deems proper, including directions for notice of the petition being given to such person or persons as may seem to him likely to be effected by the proceedings.

(b)Jurisdiction. - All applications referred to in sub-rule (a) all matters and proceedings connected with such applications, and all proceedings transferred to the High Court under Section 45 (G(3) of the Act shall be heard and disposed of by a Judge sitting alone.

7. Notice. - (a) In addition to the advertisement and notice provided for in the rules framed by this Court under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, notice of application for winding up a Banking Company, made by persons other than the Reserve Bank shall be served on the Reserve Bank.

The notice shall also state that in default of an application from the Reserve Bank asking to be appointed the official liquidator, the Court may, if necessary proceed to appoint an official liquidator other than the Reserve Bank.(b)All notices directed to be given to any party or to the Reserve Bank shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition and affidavit, and shall be sent by registered post with acknowledgement due.

8. (a) When passing the winding up order, or at any time thereafter, the Court may direct the Publication of an advertisement in such manner as the Court considers necessary calling for information about losses caused to the banking company acts or omissions of any person to the promotion or formation of the banking company or of any director or auditor of the banking company to be sent by post or otherwise to the Official Liquidator within 14 days or within such time as the court may fix.

(b) In preparing his report under Section 45-G (1) of the Act, the Official Liquidator, shall take into consideration the information, if any, received in answer to an advertisement contemplated in the foregoing rule and all information available from the records of the banking company or from any other source. The report shall clearly state the source of information and the reasons for the conclusion arrived at. The Official Liquidator shall submit his report to the Court within two months from the date of the winding up order or within 12 days from the last date fixed in the advertisement, if any, for receipt of information, whichever is later.

9. Proof of claims. - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Indian Company Rules, every depositor whose name appears as a depositor in the books of the company shall be admitted as a creditor for the amount so appearing in the books of the company without proof, unless the official liquidator has reason for doubting any particular entry in which case he may call upon the depositor so admitted without proof of claim. The Official Liquidator shall notify every depositor so admitted without proof of the amount for which he has been admitted as a creditor.

10. Settlement of list of debtors. - (a) On receipt of a list of debtors from the Official Liquidator, the court shall issue notice to all persons affected giving details of the amount and nature of debt in each case and calling for objections to be filed within 30 days from the date of the receipt of the notice and shall fix a date for the settlement of the list of debtors.

(b) On the day fixed or on any day to which the matter may be adjourned, the Court shall consider the objections, if any, and settle the list of debtors to the extent possible and fix a date of enquiry into the debt not included in the settled list. (c) All enquiries under the Act shall be by affidavit evidence, unless the Court specifically permits also interrogatories, or orders in any particular case evidence viva voce or by commission.

11. Set off. - In all claims for the money by or against a Banking Company, the opposite party shall be entitled to plead by way of set-off or counter-claim any amount which he or it may claim against the claimant,

12. Court-fees on claims. - The Court-fee-payable on claims for money (whether secured or unsecured) on a claim to set-off made against such claims or counter-claims shall be as follows : -

Claims, counter claims or set-off. -

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| (a) Where the amount does not exceed Rs. 2,500/ | - Rs. 15/- |
| (b) Where the amount exceeds Rs. 2,500/- but does not exceed Rs. 10,000/ | - Rs. 30/- |
| (c) Where the amount exceeds Rs. 10,000/ | - Rs. 100/-. |

13. On every appeal from an order, decree or decision passed under the provisions of Part III or Part II - A of the Act, the Court-fee paid shall be as under : -

- | | |
|---|--------------|
| (a) Where the amount involved in appeal does not exceed Rs. 5,000/- but does not exceed Rs. 10,000/ | - Rs. 60/-. |
| (b) Where the amount exceeds Rs. 10,000/ | - Rs. 100/-. |

14. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Court shall have and exercise the same powers in respect of certificate issued under sub-section (6) of Section 45-D as it has and exercise in respect of decrees passed by it.

15. Appeal. - (a) An appeal under Section 45-N (I) of the Act shall be filed within 20 days from the date of the order or decision appealed against, and shall be heard by a bench of two judges other than the Judge from whose Judgment the appeal is preferred and shall be treated as a first appeal to the High Court.

(b) An Appeal shall lie to this Court, from the Judgment or order of one Judge passed in the exercise of original criminal jurisdiction where the Judge who passed the Judgment or order, declares at the time of passing Judgment or order that the case is a fit one for appeal. (c) An appeal as provided for in sub-rule (b) shall be filed within 15 days from the date of Judgment or order appealed against and shall ordinarily be heard by a Bench of two Judges.

16. Expediting. - All proceedings under the Act shall be treated as urgent.

17. Presentation and hearing of complaints. - (i) Proceedings under Section 45-1 of the Act shall commence with a complaint presented by the official liquidator to the Judge dealing with winding up proceedings or to such Judge as the Chief Justice may direct. On presentation of the complaint, the Judge may issue summons or a bailable or non-bailable warrant against the accused and shall fix a date for the trial or may dismiss the complaint as he may in his discretion think fit.

(ii) In the case of trial under Section 45-J (I), the procedure provided in the Criminal Procedure Code for the trial of summons cases shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, be applicable. (iii) In the case of trial under Section 45-J(4) the procedure provided in the Criminal Procedure Code for the trial of warrant cases shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, be applicable. (iv) Any offence punishable under this Act or under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 with imprisonment for a term which does not exceed two years or with fine which does not exceed one thousand rupees may be tried in a summary way either independently or along with any other offence with which the accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, be charged at the same trial. (v) Offences, cognizance of which is taken for summary trial, shall be tried by the Judge for the time being dealing with winding up proceedings. All other offences shall be tried by a Judge other than the Judge for the time being dealing with winding-up proceedings.
