Ceiling on Existing Holding and Acquisition of Excess Land

4. Ceiling on existing land.

(1)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, custom or agreement, no person shall be entitled to hold, as owner , tenant or mortgagee in possession , land which exceeds the limit of 50 bighas in the aggregate, and this limit of 50 bighas shall be applicable to the aggregate of lands held individually by the members of a family or jointly by some or all the members of such a family :Provided that where such person holds " orchard" land the aforementioned limit shall be increased by the actual area of orchard subject to a maximum of 4 bighas over the limit of 50 bighas mentioned above.(2)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, custom or agreement no person shall be entitled to hold as owner, tenant, or mortgagee in possession lands for special cultivation of tea in excess of such land as has been used for special cultivation of tea and purposes ancillary thereto on the day on which the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970 came into force :Provided that the State Government may allow more lands to be held for ancillary purposes and for increase in area under special cultivation of tea in accordance with the rules as may be prescribed.Explanation. - "Purposes ancillary to special cultivation" shall mean the following:(i)land used for factory buildings ;(ii)land used for staff building including labour line ;(iii)land used for roads, bridges and drains within the tea estate ;(iv)land used for nurseries including shade trees ;(v)land used for hospitals, dispensaries, creches, recreation centres and playgrounds ;(vi)land used for religious institution, burial or cremation grounds ;(vii)land used for any other building built by management as a statutory requirement under any law for the time being in force ;(viii)land used for seed bari;(ix)lands used as may be needed for rotational plantation to maintain the planted areas as on the commencement of this Act but not exceeding 7-1/2 per cent of the planted area ;(x)lands lying within the boundaries of the actual planted areas excluding tenanted khet lands ;(xi)land used bamboos baris but not exceeding 50 bighas.(3)The ceiling of a Co-operative Farming Society shall be the aggregate of the ceilings of its individual members or their families under subs-section (1) above:Provided that lands held outside the society by a member of a co- operative society or any member of his family shall also be taken into account for determining his ceiling.(4)No benami transfer made after the twelfth day of November, 1955, shall be taken into account in determining the limit up to which the transferor shall be entitled to hold lands under sub-section (1) above, and in such case the limit and the excess land of the transferor shall be determined as if the transfer has not taken place.(5)No person who holds land in excess of the limit fixed under sub-section (4) shall, on or after the commencement of the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970 transfer or partition of any land until the land in excess of such limit is determined and possession taken over by the Collector under the Act: Provided that for special reasons to be recorded in writing, the Collector may permit transfer or partition of the land or any portion thereof. Explanation. - In this section the expression transfer shall have the same meaning as defined in Section 5 of the Transfer of Property Act (Central Act 4 of 1882) and 'partition, means any division of land by act of parties made inter vivos. (6) If any person transfers or partitions in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (5), or transfer or partitions any land after the first day of April, 1970, i.e., the day on which this amending Bill was introduced in the Assam Legislative Assembly, but before the commencement of the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970, in anticipation of, or in order to avoid or defeat the objects of the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970, then the area so transferred or partitioned shall be taken into account in calculating the area which that person is entitled to hold, and land exceeding area so calculated shall be deemed to be in excess of the limit fixed under Section 4 notwithstanding that the land remaining with him not in fact be in excess of such limit. If by reason of such transfer or partition the holding of that person is less than the area so calculated to be in excess of such limit, then all his land shall be deemed to be surplus land ; and out of the land so transferred or partitioned and in possession of this transferred land to the extent of such deficiency shall subject to rules made in that behalf also be deemed to be surplus land notwithstanding that the holding of the transferer may not in fact be in excess of limits fixed under Section 4. All transfers and partitions made after the first day of April, 1970, i.e., the day on which this amending Bill was introduced in the Assam Legislative Assembly, but before the commencement of the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970, shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to have been made in anticipation of, or in order to avoid or defeat the objects of the Assam Fixation Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970.

5. Submission of returns by person holding lands in excess of ceiling.

- Any person who, on the date of commencement of this Act, holds as owner or tenant lands which in the aggregate exceed the limit fixed under Section 4 above, shall within the prescribed period, submit to the Collector a return giving the particulars of all his lands in the prescribed form and stating therein his selection of plot of lands (not exceeding in the aggregate the limit fixed under Section 4 above) which he desires to retain under the provisions of this Act.

6. Collection of information through other agency.

- If any person holding lands in excess of limit fixed under Section 4 above fails to submit the return and intimate his selection within the prescribed period as required under Section 5 above, then the Collector may obtain the information required to be shown in the return through such agency as may be prescribed and select the plot or plots of lands which such person is entitled to retain under the provisions of this Act as also the plot or plots which are in excess.

7. Submission of statement to Government.

(1) On the basis of the information given in the return under Section 5 above which shall be duly verified through such agency as may be decided by the Government or the information obtained by the Collector under Section 6 above, the Collector shall prepare a draft statement showing, among other particulars, the total area of lands also held by such persons, the specific plots selected for retention with them, and also the lands in excess of the limit fixed under Section 4 remaining after such selection. (2) The draft statement shall be published in the offices of the Deputy Commissioner, the Sub-divisional Officer, the Circle Deputy Collector and the Mouzadar, and a copy thereof shall be served on the person or persons concerned in the manner prescribed. Any objection received within 15 days of the service shall be duly considered by the Collector and after giving the objector an opportunity for hearing, order shall be passed on these objections. The person making any such objection shall ascertain the date on which the objection will be considered and if on the day fixed or on any other date to which the consideration may be postponed, the objector is absent, the Collector shall consider the objections in the absence of the objector and pass such orders as he may think necessary making the statement final. (3) The draft statement shall then be made final in terms of the final orders passed under the preceding sub-section and the Collector shall sign it and affix the date. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the next sub-section, with effect from the date on which the final statement is signed by the Collector under the preceding sub-section, all rights, title and interest of the person or persons whose lands are shown as excess in such statement shall stand transferred to and vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances created by such person or persons and no person shall then be entitled to question it in any Court. (5) The final statement prepared under sub-section (3) above shall be published in the same manner in which a draft statement is to be published under sub-section (2) above. (6) Without prejudice to any action under other provision of this Act, the State Government may, on its own motion or on application, if filed within a period of 1 (one) year from the date of publication of the final statement under sub-section (4) or from the date on which the Assam Fixation of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1993 shall come into force whichever is later, call for any record relating to any final statement and may pass such order or orders as it deems fit after giving the person or persons concerned an opportunity of being heard. An order passed under this section, the basis of draft statement prepared under Section 6 of the Act, whereby an area covered by deep forests and soil plantation was acquired as excess land, this order was quashed in Barduar Tea & Timber Co. v. S.D.O. Gauhati. IA1R 1973 Gauhati. 1311. on the ground that the object of the Act will be not be achieved in case the land is covered by deep forests and soil plantation.

11. Taking possession.

- The Collector may, at any time after the lands are transferred to the State Government under sub-section (4) of Section 7, proceed to take possession thereof and may, for that purpose, use such force as may be necessary.

11A. Taking possession in advance.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force : (1) when it appears from a return submitted by a person under Section 5 or Section 22 of this Act that there is any land in excess of the ceiling limit, the Collector may by an order in writing take possession of such excess lands. In doing so the Collector shall take possession of that land which has not been selected to be retained and in case when no such selection has been indicated in the return the Collector shall himself select the lands to be taken possession of ; (2) when it appears from a return submitted by a person under Section 5 or Section 22, that the particulars shown therein are not correct and the Collector finds from information received by him that there are land in excess of the ceiling limit, the Collector may, by an order in writing, take over possession of such excess lands. While doing so the Collector shall himself select the lands to be taken possession of ; (3) when no return has been submitted under this Act by any person in respect of his lands by the Collector finds from information received by him that the person holds lands in excess of the ceiling limit, the Collector may, at any time by an order in writing, take over possession of such excess lands. While doing so the Collector shall himself select the lands to be taken possession of ; (4) when the Collector has passed an order under sub-section (2) of Section 7 showing therein any land to be in excess of the ceiling limit applicable to the person concerned, he shall, by an order in writing, take possession of such excess land ; (5) no order for taking possession shall be passed under any of the previous sub-sections, unless it appears to the Collector to be necessary to do so in public interest or for securing proper management of land in question ; (6) when possession is taken of any land under any of the preceding sub-sections, the person whose lands are taken possession of , shall be paid for each year of such possession an amount equal to the annual land revenue and local rate payable for such land ; (7) where the excess land of any person determined finally under Section 7 is found to be less than the land of that person which the Collector has taken possession under this section, the land which is in excess of the area so determined shall be returned by the Collector.

12.

Where any land is transferred to and vested in the State Government under sub-section (4) of Section 7 of the Act, there shall be paid compensation which shall be determined by the Collector or any other officer authorised by the State Government in the manner and in accordance with the principles laid down below, namely: (a) (1) Where the person from whom the excess land has been acquired held it as the owner thereof, the compensation (inclusive of the value of any tenancy right) shall be-(i)in case of fallow land, an amount equal to 25 times the full rate of annual land revenue payable for such land; and(ii)in case of other land, inclusive of the value of tress, an amount equal to 50 times such annual land revenue :Provided that if the land is under occupation of tenant, then the compensation, shall be apportioned between the owner and the tenant, and the share of the owner shall be, if the tenant has acquired occupancy right 15 times, and in other cases 20 times, such annual land revenue.(2)Where the person from whom the excess land has been acquired held it as a tenant thereon, the compensation for his tenancy right shall be-(i)if he is an occupancy tenant, 10 times the full rate of annual land revenue payable for the land when the. land is fallow, and 35 times such annual land revenue in all other cases ;(ii)if he is not an occupancy tenant, 5 times such annual land revenue payable for the land, when the land is fallow, and 30 times such annual land revenue in all other cases.(3)(a)Where there is a sub-tenant in the excess land acquired, amount equal to 50 per cent of the compensation payable under (1) or (2) above to the tenant under whom he holds shall be paid out of it to the sub-tenant.Explanation. - Land which is not cultivated for 3 consecutive years immediately preceding the date of acquisition or which does not contain any tree, bamboo, or thatch, shall be regarded as fallows :Provided that where the land is revenue-free, or assessed to land revenue at a concessional rate, or where it is not assessed to and revenue under the provisions of the Assam land and Revenue Regulations, 1886 or of the Assam Land Revenue Re- assessment Act, 1936, the compensation shall be determined on the basis of annual land revenue assessable under the provisions of the afore-mentioned Acts on similar, full revenue-paying land situated nearest to it.(b)Where there is any building or structure or crop on the land, the owner thereof shall be given the option of removing it within the prescribed period and if the fails to do so within the said period, it shall be sold in public auction, and the sale proceeds, after deduction of the cost of auction, if any, shall be paid to him.(c)For any improvement made on the land, an additional amount not exceeding twice the amount of compensation payable under Clause (a) above for the land benefited by such improvement shall be payable to the owner or the tenant, as the case may be, at whose expense the improvement was made. In determining this amount, the following factors shall be taken into consideration namely :(i)enhancement of the value of the land due to tire improvement ;(ii)probable duration of the effects of the improvement; and(iii)labour and capital spent on the improvement.

13. The manner of payment of compensation.

(a)The compensation may be paid in cash in one or more equal annual instalments within 5 years from the date of acquisition :Provided that where the full amount of compensation is not paid within six months of the date of acquisition, interest at the rate of 2-1/2 per cent per annum shall be payable on the unpaid balance of the compensation.(b)(i)Where the land acquired is subject to a mortgage or charge the creditor shall be paid out of the compensation money to the extent of the claim proved before the Collector or any other officer empowered in this behalf :Provided that where the amount of total claim exceeds the compensation money, the creditors shall be paid proportionately in order of priority determined by him.(ii)The creditors whose debts are secured by mortgage Or charge on the land acquired shall, within 60 days from the date of notification under Section 8, prefer claim in writing before the Collector who shall thereupon proceed with and dispose of the claim.(iii)In case of dispute as to the person or persons who are entitled to be paid out of the compensation money, the amount shall be kept in deposit in a Government Treasury and the dispute shall be referred to the Civil Court of competent jurisdiction and the amount shall then be paid in terms of the final decision of the Court.

14. Ad interim payment of compensation.

(1)When the person to whom compensation is payable prays for payment of compensation pending investigation and final determination of the amount of compensation, an ad interim payment of compensation not exceeding 25 per cent of the probable compensation, may be made after a preliminary enquiry on the execution by the claimant of an indemnity bond with one surety.(2)Such ad interim compensation shall be deemed to be part of the compensation payable under this Act, and shall be deducted from and adjusted against it.

Chapter III

Disposal of Excess Land

15. Disposal of excess land.

- Subject to the provisions of this Act and of this Chapter in particular the excess land transferred to and vested in the State Government under sub-section (4) of Section 7 of this Act shall be at the disposal of the State Government.

16. The manner of disposal of excess land.

(1)If there is any cultivating tenant in occupation of the land acquired from an owner then he shall be given settlement of such land within a prescribed period on the following conditions, namely-(a)that the area of land so settled, together with any other land held by him or any member of his family either as tenant or as owner shall not exceed in the aggregate the limit fixed under Section 4 of this Act ; and(b)that he shall pay to the State Government in one or more equal annual instalments not exceeding five, an amount fixed by it, but not exceeding the compensation payable by the State Government for acquisition thereof:Provided that any amount which he is entitled to receive as compensation under the provisions of this Act shall be adjusted against an equal amount which is liable to pay under Clause (b) above.(2)On payment of full amount under sub-section (1) above the land shall be settled with him with status of a land holder as defined in the Assam Land and Revenue Regulations, 1886, or an occupancy tenant as defined in the Goalpara Tenancy Act, 1929 or the Sylhet Tenancy Act, 1936, as the case may be, on the same rate of revenue or rent for such classes of land in the neighbourhood.(3)Where the excess land is acquired from a tenant as such and not from the owner thereof, the State Government shall be entitled to settle it, on such terms as it may fix, with the sub-tenant, if any, who is in occupation of such land, subject to the limit under Section 4, or if there be no sub-tenant so entitled, with any person coming within the purview of sub-section (1) of Section 17 below, with the same status as was held by the tenant from whom the land has been acquired.

17. Manner of disposal of land which is not settled under Section 16.

(1)The State Government or any officer empowered by it in this behalf shall be entitled to settle any land which has not been disposed of under Section 16 in the same manner as any other land which is at the disposal of the Government under Section 12 of the Assam Land and Revenue Regulations, 1886.(2)The State Government or the officer empowered in this behalf may, for the purpose of settling any land under sub-section (1) above, eject, if necessary, any person in unauthorised possession.

18. Tenant who does not agree to take settlement.

- A tenant who is in occupation of any land transferred to and vested in the State Government under sub-section (4) of Section 7 but who does not take settlement of such land in the manner described in Section 15 above, shall acquire no right, title and interest in such land and shall be liable to ejectment, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under the relevant provisions of the Assam Land and Revenue Regulations, 1886 or any other law of the time being in force.

Chapter IV

Excess Land Under Annual Lease

19. Taking over of excess land which is under annual lease.

(1)If, from the final statement prepared under Section 7, it appears that any person, either holds any land under an annual lease granted by the State Government, which, with or without the lands already held by him, exceeds in the aggregate of the limit fixed under Section 4 of this Act, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or agreement, the Collector shall, after issue of three months' notice ending the 31st day of March following, take over the excess land under annual lease and may eject any person who may be in possession of such land, and may thereupon dispose of it in the manner of Section 17.(2)No compensation for the land itself shall be payable for taking it over under sub-section (1) above.(3)Where there is any building or structure or crop on the land, the owner thereof shall be given the option of removing it within the prescribed period, and if he does not do so, then the building, structure, or crop, as the case may be, shall be sold in public auction, and the sale proceeds, after deduction of the cost of auction, if any, shall be paid to him.(4)If there are any fruit-trees on the land then an amount fixed by the Collector after considering the value, nature, condition and number of such trees shall be payable as compensation thereof but such amount shall not exceed 25 times the annual land revenue payable for the land.

Chapter V

Ceiling On Future Acquisition

20. Ceiling on future acquisition by transfer, etc.

(1)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, usage, contract or agreement, from and after the commencement of this Act, no person as owner, tenant or mortgagee in possession shall acquire or possess by transfer, exchange, lease, agreement or settlement any land which, with or without the lands already held by him shall in the aggregate exceed the limit fixed under Section 4 of this Act.Explanation. - Transfer does not include-(i)inheritance; and(ii)bequest or gift to an heir.(2)From and after the commencement of this Act, no document evidencing any transaction for acquisition or possession of any land by way of transfer, exchange, lease, agreement or settlement shall be registered, unless a declaration in writing and duly verified is made and filed by the transferee before the competent registering authority under the Indian Registration Act, 1908 about the total area of land held or possessed by him or any member of his family as owner or tenant:Provided in case of any transaction which does not require registration the aforesaid declaration shall be filed before the Collector or any officer authorised by him in his behalf.(3)No registering authority shall register the Indian Registration Act any document evidencing any transaction if, from the declaration made under sub-section (2) above, it appears that the transaction has been effected in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1).

21. Penalty for contravention of Section 20.

- No right, title and interest shall accrue in favour of the transferee in any land in excess of the limit fixed under Section 4 of this Act by virtue of any transaction made in contravention of Section 20 above, and as a penalty for such transaction the rights and interest of the transferor in such excess land purported to be transferred by such transaction to the transferee shall be deemed to be transferred to the Government; and the transferee, his assignee or any other person in occupation of the land on his behalf or through him shall be liable to be rejected in the manner prescribed by the Collector or any other officer authorised in this behalf :Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liability, if any, of the transferee for payment of consideration for any such transaction.

22. Ceiling on future acquisition by inheritance.

(1)If, after the commencement of his Act, any person as owner or tenant or mortgagee in possession acquires by inheritance or by' bequest or gift from a person to whom he is an heir of any land which, with or without the land already held by him exceed in the aggregate of the limit fixed under Section 4 of this Act, then the shall within the prescribed period submit to the Collector a return in the manner of Section 5 giving the particulars of all lands and selecting the lands he desires to retain.(2)if he fails to submit the return and select his lands within the prescribed period mentioned in sub-section (1), then the Collector may obtain the information and select the lands in the manner laid down in Section 6.(3)The Collector shall then prepare a draft statement and make the same final in the manner laid down in Section 7 and thereupon all the provisions of this Act and apply mutatis mutandis.(4)The State Government shall in the manner laid down in Section 8 of this Act, acquire the excess land, and thereupon the provisions of Sections 11,12, 13, 14,15,16, 17, and 18 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Chapter VI

Ceiling for Resumption of Land From Tenants for Personal Cultivation by the Landlord

23. Ceiling for resumption of land from tenants for personal cultivation by the landlord.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, usage or agreement, no landlord shall be entitled to terminate the tenancy of any person on the ground of his requiring the land for this personal cultivation except under the following circumstances, namely : (a) if the aggregate area of lands in actual occupation of a tenant does not exceed 10 bighas, then he shall not be ejected therefrom until he has been provided with land of equivalent value in the locality ; (b) if the aggregate area of lands in actual occupation of a tenant exceeds 10 bighas, then the tenant shall not be ejected from a minimum area of 10 bighas as selected by him (tenant), until he has been provided with land of equivalent value in the locality, but the landlord shall be entitled to resume for personal cultivation any area in excess of these 10 bighas. In no case, however, taken together, along with any other land already held under personal cultivation by the landlord or any member of his family on the date of resumption, shall exceed an overall limit of 50 bighas ; (c) the right of resumption shall be exercisable by only those landlords whose income by cultivation of land is the principal source of income for their maintenance: Provided that no tenancy of tenant, who has acquired the right of occupancy under any law for the time being in force, shall be terminated except under the provisions of that law : Provided further that if the landlord is a minor, or a widow, or a person subject to any physical or mental disability, or a member of the Military, Naval or Air Forces of the Union, then it shall not be obligatory on him to leave a minimum area with the tenant under the provisions of Clause (a) or (b) above.

24. No ejection after the expiry of 5 years.

- No tenant shall after the expiry of a period of 5 years from the commencement of this Act, be ejected on the ground that the landlord requires the land for his personal cultivation under the provisions of Section 23 above : Provided that if the landlord is- (a) a minor, or (b) a widow, or (c) person subject to any physical or mental disability, or (d) a member of the Military, Naval or Air Forces of the Union, then the said period of 5 years shall commence- (a) on attainment of majority by the minor under the Indian Majority Act, 1875, or (b) on remarriage by the widow, or (c) on cessation of the disability of the landlord, or (d) on discharge or retirement of the landlord from the services of the Military, Naval or Air Forces of the Union.

25. Restoration of possession to tenants in certain circumstances.

(1) If a landlord, who has ejected a tenant from any land on the ground of his requiring such land for his personal cultivation, fails to cultivate the land personally within two years, from the date of his taking over possession, then the ejected tenant shall be entitled to restoration of possession in the manner prescribed.(2)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or agreement, any tenant who has been ejected within two years, next before the 12th day of November, 1955 on the ground of the landlords' requiring the land for his personal cultivation, but who would not have been liable to be so ejected, has the provisions of the sub-section (1) above been in force at the time, shall be entitled to restoration of possession as if the provisions aforementioned were then in force.

26. Ejected tenant to receive compensation for improvement done by him.

(1)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or contract, a tenant who is ejected under the provisions Section 23 of this Act, shall be entitled to receive compensation for any improvement made by him on the land from which he has been ejected.(2)In determining compensation the following matters shall be taken into consideration, namely:(a)the enhancement of the value of the land due to the improvement,(b)probable duration of the effect of the improvement,(c)labour and capital spent by the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement.

27. Landlord to select the area for resumption and tenants of lands not selected for resumption for personal cultivation not liable to ejection.
