The Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948 Bombay Act No. 67 of 1948 Last Updated 15th June, 2019 Statement of objects and Reasons. - The period specified in Sections 32-M, 32-PP, 32-PPP and 32-QQ of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948, for payment of purchase price by a tenant who holds land not exceeding four hectares (specified tenants) and for making an application by such specified tenant to the Agricultural Lands tribunal for a declaration that the purchase of lands has not become ineffective was last extended upto the end of December, 1986 by the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1986, (Gujarat 8 of 1986), As a considerable number of such specified tenants has still not been able to avail of the benefit of such extended period for one or the other reason it is considered necessary to extend the aforesaid period further upto the date to be specified by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette in this regard. This Bill seeks to amend Sections 32-M, 32-PP, 32-PPP and 32-QQ of the said Act to achieve the aforesaid object. Memorandum Regarding delegated legislation The Bill involves delegation of legislative power in following respect:- Clause 2. - Clause (b) of sub-section (5) of Section 32-M, proposed to be amended by this clause empowers the State Government to specify the date from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette, upto which the specified tenant who hold lands not exceeding four hectares may make payment of the purchase price and may make an application for a declaration that the purchase of the lands has not become ineffective. The delegation of legislative power, as aforesaid, is necessary and is of a normal character.] 1. Published in Gujarat Government Gazette, Extraordinary, Part V, No. 7, dated 18.2.2011 P. 73 [Dated 28th December, 1948] For the Statement of Objects and Reasons See Bombay Government Gazette, 1948, Part V, Page 295. Section 17 of Bombay 15 of 1957 reads as follows:- "Certain amendments to have retrospective effect" 17. The amendments made to the said Act, by sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, and 14 and by sub-clause (a) of clause (1) and clause (2) of section 15 of this Act shall be deemed to have been made and to have come into force on the date on which the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Amendment) Act, 1955, (Bombay XIII of 1956), came into force." Section 34 of Bombay 38 of 1957 reads as follows:- "Certain amendments to have retrospective effect" 34. The amendments made to the said Act, by sub-section (2) of section 2, sections 3, 4, 5, 11, 12 and 13, sub-section (1) of section 14 and sections 18, 20 and 28 shall be deemed to have been made and to have come into force on the date on which the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Amendment) Act, 1955 (Bombay XIII of 1956), came into force."Section 21 of Bombay 63 of 1958 read as follows:-Certain amendments to have retrospective effect and refund of penalty"21. (1). The amendment made to the principal Act by sections 3, 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 20 of this Act shall be deemed to have been made and to have come into force on the date on which the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Amendment) Act, 1955 (Bombay XIII of 1956), came into force."(2) The amount of penalty, if any, paid by a transferee under section 84-A of the principal Act before the coming into force of this Act shall to the extent to which it is in excess of the amount payable under the said section as amended by this Act be refunded.(3) If any transfer in favour of the tenant is declared invalid under section 84B or 84C of the principal Act, before the coming into force of this Act, and if the tenant pays to the State Government a penalty as prescribed in the said section 84B or 84C as amended by section 13 or 14 of this Act, such transfer shall be revalidated by the Mamlatdar".An Act to amend the law relating to tenancies of agricultural lands and to make certain other provisions in regard to those lands. Whereas it is necessary to amend the law which governs the relations of landlords and tenants of agricultural lands. And Whereas on account of the neglect of a landholder or disputes between a landholder and his tenants, the cultivation of his estate has seriously suffered, or for the purpose of improving the economic and social conditions of peasants or ensuring the full efficient use of land for agriculture, it is expedient to assume management of estates held by landholder and to regulate and impose restrictions on the transfer of agricultural lands, dwelling houses, sites and lands appurtenant thereto belonging to or occupied by agriculturists, agricultural labourers and artisans in the Province of Bombay and to make provisions for certain other purposes hereinafter appearing: It is hereby enacted as follows:-

Chapter II

General Provisions Regarding Tenancies

3. Application of chapter V of Transfer of Property Act.

- The provisions of Chapter V of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882), shall in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to the tenancies and leases of land to which this Act applies.

4. Persons to be deemed tenants.

- A person lawfully cultivating any land belonging to another person shall be deemed to be a tenant if such land is not cultivated personally by the owner and if such person is not-(a)a member of the owner's family; or(b)a servant on wages payable in cash or kind but not in crop share or a hired labourer cultivating the land under the personal supervision of the owner or any member of the owner's family, or(c)a mortgagee in possession.Explanation [I] [The existing Explanation was renumbered as Explanation I by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 3.]: - A person shall not be deemed to be a tenant under this section if such person has been on an application made by the owner of the land as provided under section 2A of the Bombay Tenancy Act, 1939 (Bombay XXIX of 1939), declared by a competent authority not to be a tenant.[Explanation II: - Where any land is cultivated by a widow or a minor or a person who is subject to physical or mental disability or a serving member of the armed forces through a tenant then notwithstanding anything contained in Explanation I to clause (6) of section 2, such tenant shall be deemed to be a tenant within the meaning of this section.] [Explanation II was inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 3.]

4A. [Protected tenants. [Sections 4A and 4B were inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 3.]

- For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be recognised to be a protected tenant, if such person has been deemed to be a protected tenant under sections 3, 3A and 4 of the Bombay Tenancy Act, 1939 (Bombay XXIX of 1939), referred to in Schedule I to this Act.]

4B. Tenancy not to be terminated by efflux of time.

- No tenancy of any land [(other than tenancy created with the previous sanction of the Collector under section 73AA of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879)] [These brackets, words figures and letters were inserted by Gujarat 37 of 1980, section 5, Schedule, Sr. No. 1(1).] shall be terminated merely on the ground that the period fixed by agreement or usage for its duration has expired.]

5. [Ceiling area. [These sections were substituted for the sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 4.]

(1)For the purposes of this Act, the ceiling area of lands shall be-(a)48 acres of jirayat land, or(b)24 acres of seasonally irrigated land of paddy or rice land, or(c)12 acres of perennially irrigated land.(2)Where the land held by a person consists of two or more kinds of land specified in sub-section (1), the ceiling area of such holding shall be determined on the basis of one acre of perennially irrigated land being equal of two acres of seasonally irrigated land or paddy or rice land, or four acres of jirayat land.(3)[Where in any case of ceiling are as determined under the provisions of the Gujarat Agricultural Lands Ceiling Act, 1960 (Gujarat XXVII of 1961), as in force for the time being is less than the ceiling area specified in this section, then notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the ceiling area of land as determined under the said Act shall be the ceiling area for the purposes of this Act.][Explanation. [This Explanation was added, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 3.] - In calculating the ceiling area, warkas land shall be excluded.]

6. Economic holding.

(1)For the purposes of this Act, an economic holding shall be-(a)16 acres of jirayat land, or(b)8 acres of seasonally irrigated land, or paddy or rice land, or(c)4 acres of perennially irrigated land.(2)Where the land held by a person consists of two or more kinds of land specified in sub-section (1), an economic holding shall be determined on the basis applicable to the ceiling area under sub-section (2) of section 5.[Explanation. - In calculating an economic holding, warkas land shall be excluded.] [This Explanation was added, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 4.]

6A. Irrigated land.

- For the purposes of this Act,-(a)irrigated land, whether perennially or seasonally irrigated, shall not include land irrigated by sources other than canals or bandharas within the meaning of the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879 (Bombay VII of 1879), or any lift irrigation system constructed or maintained by the State Government;(b)seasonally irrigated land shall include alluvial land and land situated in the bed of a river and seasonally flooded by the water of such river.

7. Power of Government to vary ceiling area and economic holding.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 5 and 6, it shall be lawful for the State Government, if it is satisfied that it is expedient so to do in the public interest, to vary, by notification in the Official Gazette, the acreage of the ceiling area or economic holding, or the basis of determination of such ceiling area or economic holding under sub-section (2) of section 5, regard being had to -(a)the situation of the land,(b)its productive capacity,(c)the fact that the land is located in a backward area, and(d)any other factors which may be prescribed:[Provided that the extent of ceiling area shall not be varied so as to increase if it is already in excess of the ceiling area as determined for the time being under the Gujarat Agricultural Lands Ceiling Act, 1960 (Gujarat XXVII of 1961), or so as to exceed the extent of ceiling area as so determined if it is less than such extent.] [This proviso was added by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 4.]

8. Rent and its maximum and minimum.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, - (a) but notwithstanding any law, custom, usage, agreement of the decree or order of a Court, the rent payable shall be paid annually, and in cash; (b) such rent shall not exceed five times the assessment payable in respect of the land or twenty rupees per acre, whichever is less, and shall not be less than twice such assessment: Provided that where the amount equal to twice the assessment exceeds the sum of twenty rupees per acre, the rent shall be twice the assessment. (2) For the purpose of this section "assessment" means - (i) in areas in which a settlement has been made under Chapter VIIIA of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), or in which the assessment has been fixed under section 52 of the said Code the assessment so settled or fixed; (ii) in areas to which rule 19N of the Land Revenue Rules, (1921) applies such assessment as may be leviable under that rule; (iii) in areas to which the Bombay Merged Territories and Areas (Jagirs Abolition) Act, 1953 (Bombay XXXIX of 1954), applies the assessment fixed under section 7 of that Act; (iv) in areas in which the assessment is payable in crop share or produce, such assessment as may be fixed by the State Government in accordance with the principles laid down in rule 19-O of the Land Revenue Rules 1921; (3) If by custom, usage, agreement or the decree or order of a Court, the amount of rent payable is less than the maximum or minimum specified in sub-section (1), the amount so payable shall be the rent in respect of the land. Explanation: - In respect of any land which is partially or wholly exempt from the payment of land revenue, the full amount of assessment leviable in respect of such land shall be deemed to be the assessment in respect thereof for the purpose of sub-section (1) as if the land was not exempt from the payment of the land revenue either partially or wholly.

9. Rate of rent payable by tenant to his landlord.

(1) Subject to the maximum and minimum limits of rent fixed under section 8, the Mamlatdar shall for each village, or group of villages or for any area in such village or group, within his jurisdiction, fix the rate of rent payable by a tenant for the lease of different classes of land situate in such village, or group of villages or areas, as the case may be: [Provided that this sub-section shall not apply to rent payable in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 8 where it is lower than the rent at the rate fixed by the Mamlatdar under this section.] [This proviso was added by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 5.] (2) In arriving at such rate the Mamlatdar shall have regard to the rents prevalent in the locality, the productivity of the lands, the prices of commodities and such other factors as may be prescribed. (3) The rate of rent so fixed shall continue for a period of five years and shall be liable to be revised by the Mamlatdar thereafter at the end of each successive period of five years: Provided that the rate of rent so fixed, if not revised at the end of any such period, shall continue until it is so revised. (4) The rent payable by a tenant to his landlord in respect of any land in a village or group of villages, or areas, shall be at the rate fixed under sub-section (1): Provided that the Mamlatdar or the Collector, subject to the provisions of section 8, may at any time during any such period of five years, on an application made to him in this behalf, - (i) reduce the rent, if he is satisfied that on account of the deterioration of the land by flood, or other cause beyond the control of the tenant, the land has been wholly or partially rendered unfit for cultivation, or (ii) enhance the rent, if he is satisfied that on account of any improvement made in the land, at the expense of the landlord, there has been an increase in the agricultural produce thereof.

9A. Quantum of rent payable by tenant to landlord.

(1)The rent payable by a tenant shall, subject to the maximum and minimum fixed under section 8, be the rent at the rate fixed under section 9 in respect of the class of land to which the land held by the tenant belongs [or where rent payable under the operation of sub-section (3) of section 8 is lower than the rent at the rate fixed under section 9, such lower rent] [This portion was substituted for the original, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 5.]:[Provided that where any land held by a tenant is wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land revenue, and the rent payable in respect of such land is at the rate fixed under section 9, then the amount of rent shall be increased by a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, that is to say:-(i)the amount of full assessment leviable in respect of such land,(ii)the amount of the cesses mentioned in clauses (b), (c), and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10A levied or leviable in respect of such land under the relevant law, and the tenant shall be liable to pay rent as so increased:Provided further that if the amount of rent payable by the tenant for any year exceeds the value of 1/6th of the produce of the land in that year, the tenant shall be entitled to deduct from the rent for that year the amount so in excess, and the quantum of rent payable by the tenant to his landlord for that year shall be deemed to have been reduced to the extent of such deduction.] These provisos were added by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 3.If there is a dispute regarding the class to which any land belongs, either of the parties to the dispute may apply to the Mamlatdar who shall, after making an inquiry, decide the dispute.

9B. Landlord not liable to make contribution towards cost of cultivation.

- Notwithstanding any law, usage or agreement or the decree or order of a Court in the case of land in respect of which the rent has been fixed under section 9, a landlord shall not be liable to make any contribution towards the cultivation of the land in the possession of his tenants.

9C. Liability of tenant to payment until rent is fixed under preceding sections.

- Until the rent is fixed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections, a tenant shall, subject to the maximum provided under section 8, be liable to pay to the landlord the rent at the rate of which it was payable immediately before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955; and if such rent was payable in crop share or produce, either partly or wholly, the value of such crop share or produce shall be determined in the prescribed manner.]

10. Refund of rent recovered in contravention of the provisions of the Act and other penalties.

- If any landlord recovers rent from any tenant in contravention of the provisions of sections [8, 8, 9A or 9C] [These figures, letters, and words were substituted for the figures and word '6, 7, 8 or 9' by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 5.] he shall forthwith refund the excess amount recovered to the tenant and shall be liable to pay such compensation to the tenant as may be determined by the Mamlatdar in this behalf and shall also be liable to such penalty as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

10A. [Liability of tenant to pay land revenue and certain other cesses. [This section was inserted, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 6]

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), every tenant shall be liable to pay in respect of the land held by him as a tenant—(a) the land revenue in accordance with the provisions of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879). (b) the irrigation cess in accordance with the provisions of the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879 (Bombay VII of 1879), [*] (c) the cess levied under section 93 of the Bombay Local Boards Act 1923 (Bombay VI of 1923), as amended in Schedule II to this Act, [and] [This word was inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 6(1)(ii).] (d) [the cess levied under section 89B of the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933 (Bombay VI of 1933)] [This clause was inserted, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 6(1) (iii).] (2) If the aggregate amount of—(i) the land revenue payable by a tenant under clause (a) of sub-section (1) (ii) the cess payable by him under [clauses (c) and (d)] [These words, brackets and letters were substituted for the word, brackets and letter 'clause (c)', by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 6(2).] of sub-section (1) and (iii) the rent payable by him to the landlord under section 9 or 9C, as the case may be, for any year exceeds the value of one-sixth of the produce of such land in that year, the tenant shall be entitled to deduct from the rent for that year the amount so in excess, and the quantum of rent payable by the tenant to his landlord for that year shall be deemed to have been reduced to the extent of such deduction. (3) Nothing in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply to any land held by—(a) a tenant in a Scheduled area; (b) a tenant who is paying to the landlord the rent [] [The words 'agreed upon between him and the landlord' were deleted, by Bombay 15 of 1957, 6. (3).] under sub-section (3) of section 8 [until such tenant is deemed to have purchased the land under section 32 or purchases the land under section 32F or 32O and the purchase price is determined under section 32H] [This portion was inserted by Bombay 63 of 1958, section 3.]; (c) [a tenant, where such land is wholly or partly exempt from the payment of land revenue] [This clause was inserted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 4.]].

11. Abolition of all cesses etc.

(1) Notwithstanding any agreement, usage or law, it shall not be lawful for any landlord to levy any cess, rate, veto, huk, or tax or service of any land held by him as a tenant other than the rent lawfully due in respect of such land. (2) [Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect the liability of a tenant to pay any of the cesses under section 10A.] [Sub-section (2) was inserted, by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 4.]

12. [Enquiries as regards reasonable rent.]

- Deleted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 8.

13. Suspensions or remissions of rent.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 84A of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), whenever from any cause the payment of the whole land revenue payable to Government [] [The words 'by a landlord' were deleted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 9(1).] in respect of any land is suspended or remitted, the landlord shall suspend or remit, as the case may be, the payment to him of the rent of such land by his tenant. If in the case of such land the land revenue is partially suspended or remitted, the landlord shall suspend or remit the rent payable by the tenant of such land in the same proportion.(2)If no land revenue is payable to Government in respect of such land and if from any cause, the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable to Government in respect of any other land in the neighbourhood of such land has been suspended or remitted, the Collector shall, subject to the general or special orders of Government, in the manner provided in sub-section (1) suspend or remit, as the case may be, the payment to the landlord of the rent or part of it due in respect of such land.(3)No application for assistance under sections 86 and 87 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), shall be entertained, no suit shall lie and no decree of a Civil Court shall be executed for recovery by a landlord of any rent, the payment of which has been remitted, or during the period for which the payment of such rent has been suspended under this section. The period during which the payment of rent is suspended under this section shall be excluded in computing the period or limitation prescribed for any suit or proceeding for the recovery of such rent.(4)Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 86 and 87 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), the Collector shall in passing an order under sub-section (2) of section 87 of the said Code, for rendering assistance to the landlord allow to the tenant, a set-off for the sum, if any, paid by such tenant to the landlord, in excess of the amount of rent due from him after deducting the amount required to be remitted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of his section or under section 84A of the said Code. The set-off under this sub-section shall be allowed only in respect of the sums paid by such tenant to such landlord during a period of three years immediately preceding the date of the application made under section 86 of the said Code.(5)If the landlord fails to suspend or remit the payment of rent as provided in this section, he shall be liable to refund to the tenant the amount recovered by him in contravention of this section. The tenant may apply to the Mamlatdar for the recovery of the amount and the Mamlatdar may after making an inquiry make an order for the refund [and for inflicting such penalty on the landlord as may be prescribed.] [These words were added, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 9(2).]

14. [Termination of tenancy for default of tenant. [This section was substituted for the original, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 10.]

(1)Notwithstanding any law, agreement or usage or the decree or order of a Court, the tenancy of any land shall not be terminated-(a)unless the tenant--(i)has failed to pay the rent for any revenue year before the 31st day of May thereof;(ii)has done any act which is destructive or permanently injurious to the land;(iii)has sub-divided, sub-let or assigned, the land in contravention of section 27;(iv)has failed to cultivate it personally; or(v)has used such land for a purpose other than agriculture or allied pursuits; and(b)unless the landlord has given three months' notice in writing informing the tenant of his decision to terminate the tenancy and the ground for such termination, and within that period the tenant has failed to remedy the breach for which the tenancy is liable to be terminated.(2)Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to the tenancy of any land held by a permanent tenant unless by the conditions of such tenancy the tenancy is liable to be terminated on any of the grounds mentioned in the said sub-section.]

15. [Surrender by tenant. [This section was substituted by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 4.]

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in any other law for the time being in force, no tenant shall at any time terminate the tenancy in respect of any land by surrendering his interest therein in favour of the landlord.(2)If a tenant intends to terminate tenancy in respect of any land by surrendering his interest therein, he shall intimate in writing to the landlord and to the Collector to that effect. On receipt of such intimation the Collector shall, after giving an opportunity to the landlord, the tenant and any other person interested in the land to be heard and after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, call upon the tenant to tender to the landlord, the rent in arrears within the period specified in the order and pass an order directing that the tenancy shall be terminated and that the land shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances as if, on termination of such tenancy, the State Government had acquired the land from the landlord, and such land shall be liable to be disposed of in the manner provided under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 32P.(3)Where any land vests in the State Government under the provisions of sub-section (2), the landlord shall be entitled to be paid by the State Government an amount which shall be equal to the price of such land and such price shall be determined and payable in the manner provided in sub-section (5) of section 32P as if the land had been sold under sub-section (2) of that section.(4)If the tenant fails to pay to the landlord the rent in arrears within the period specified under sub-section (2), the same shall be recovered from him as arrears of land revenue and paid to the landlord.]

16. Bar to eviction from dwelling house.

(1)If in any village a tenant, is in occupation of a dwelling house built at the expenses of such tenant or his predecessor-in-title on a site belonging to his landlord, such tenant shall not be evicted from such dwelling house (with the materials and the site thereof and the land immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for its enjoyment) unless-(a)the landlord proves that the dwelling house was not built at the expense of such tenant or his predecessor-in-title; and(b)such tenant makes [any three defaults] [These words were substituted for the words 'a default' by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 12(1).] in the payment of rent, if any, which he has been paying for the use and occupation of such site.(2)The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to a dwelling house which is situated on any land used for the purposes of agriculture from which he has been evicted under [section 31] [These words and figures were substituted for the words, brackets and figures 'sub-section (1) of section 4' by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 12(2).].

17. Tenant to be given first option of purchasing site on which he has built dwelling house.

(1) If a landlord to whom the site referred to in section 16 belongs, intends to sell such site, the tenant at the expense of whom or whose predecessor-in-title, a dwelling house is built thereon shall be given in the manner provided in sub-section (2) of the First option of purchasing the site at a value determined by the Tribunal. (2) The landlord intending to sell such site shall give notice in writing to the tenant requiring him to state within three months from the date of service of such notice whether he is willing to purchase the site. (3) If within the period of three months so specified the tenant intimates in writing to the landlord that he is willing to purchase the site, the landlord shall make an application to the Tribunal for the determination of the value of the site. On receipt of such application the Tribunal after giving notice to the tenant and after holding an inquiry shall determine the value of the site [which shall not exceed 20 times the annual rent thereof] [These words and figures were inserted, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 13.]. The Tribunal may, by an order in writing require the tenant to deposit the amount of value of such site [within one year] [These words were substituted for the words, 'within three months', by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 13.] from the date of such order. On the deposit of such amount the site shall be deemed to have been transferred to the tenant and the amount deposited shall be paid to the landlord. The Tribunal shall on payment of the prescribed fees grant a certificate in the prescribed form to such tenant specifying therein the site so transferred and the name of such tenant. (4) If the tenant fails to intimate his willingness to purchase the site within the time specified in sub-section (2) or fails to deposit the amount of the value within the time specified in sub-section (3) the tenant shall be deemed to have relinquished his right of first option to purchase the site and the landlord shall then be entitled to evict the tenant either on payment of such compensation for the value of the structure of such dwelling house as may be determined by the Tribunal or allow the tenant at his option to remove the materials of the structure. (5) Any sale of a site held in contravention of this section shall be null and void.

17A. [Tenant's right to purchase site referred to in section 16. [Sections 17A and 17B were inserted, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 14.]

(1) If a tenant referred to in section 16 intends to purchase the site on which a dwelling house is built, he shall give notice in writing to the landlord to that effect. (2) If the landlord refuses, or fails, to accept the offer and to execute the sale deed within three months from the date thereof, the tenant may apply to the Tribunal for the determination of the reasonable price of the land which shall not exceed 20 times the annual rent thereof; and thereupon the provisions for the determination and payment of the price and the issue of a certificate of purchase contained in the next succeeding section shall apply thereto.]

17B. Tenant to be deemed to have purchased sites referred to in section 16 from specified date.

- [(1) On and with effect from such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, every tenant referred to in section 16 shall be deemed to have purchased from his landlord the site on which the dwelling house occupied by such tenant, was built, and the land immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for enjoyment of the dwelling house free from all encumbrances at the price to be fixed by the Tribunal, being a price not exceeding twenty times the annual rent for the site.] [Sub-section (1) was substituted for sub-section (1) and (2) by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 5]As soon as may be thereafter, the Tribunal shall publish or cause to be published a notice in such village within its jurisdiction in which all such sites are situate and shall, as far as practicable, issue notice to each such landlord and tenant and to any other person interested in such site to appear before it on the date specified in the notice. The notice published in a village shall be affixed in the Chavdi or at such public place as the Tribunal may direct.(4)The Tribunal shall, after giving an opportunity to such landlord, tenant and other person interested to be heard and after holding an inquiry determine the price of the site.(5)On the determination of the price of the site under sub-section (4), the tenant shall deposit the amount of such price with Tribunal-(a)either in lump sum within one year from such date, or(b)in such instalments not exceeding three with simple interest at the rate of 4½ per cent per annum, and at such intervals during the period not exceeding three years and on or before such dates.as may be fixed by the Tribunal and the Tribunal shall direct that the amount deposited in lump sum or the amount of the instalments deposited at each interval shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 32Q so far as they are applicable.(6)On the deposit the amount of the price in lump sum or of the last instalment of such price, the Tribunal shall, on payment of a prescribed fee, grant a certificate in the prescribed form to the tenant declaring him to be the purchaser to the site. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the sale.(7)If the tenant fails to pay any instalment on or before the date fixed by the Tribunal under sub-section (5), the amount of such instalment and the interest thereon shall be recovered as an arrear of land revenue.(8)If after holding an inquiry under sub-section (4), the Tribunal is satisfied that the tenant is not willing to purchase the site, the Tribunal shall issue a certificate to the landlord to that effect. On the issue of such certificate the landlord shall be entitled to evict the tenant and dispose of the site in such manner as he may think fit either on payment of such compensation for the value of the structure of such dwelling house as may be determined by the Tribunal, or after allowing the tenant, at his option, to remove the materials of the structure;][Provided that the landlord shall not dispose of the site in any manner except by first giving option of purchasing the same for the price determined by the Tribunal, to an agricultural labourer, landless person, small holder or a village artisan, who owns no house site, in the said order of priority and where any site is disposed of without giving such option such disposal shall be void:Provided further that the provisions of section 63 shall apply to the disposal of the site in any manner in a case where the option of purchase is not exercised by any of the persons mentioned in the first proviso.] [These provisos were added by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 5(ii).]

18. [Dwelling houses of agricultural labourers, etc. [Section 18 was substituted for the original by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 15]

- The provisions of sections 16, 17, 17A and 17B shall apply-(a)to the dwelling houses and sites thereof occupied by agricultural labourers and artisans in any village; and(b)to the lands held on lease in any village by persons carrying on an allied pursuit for the purpose of such pursuit.]

19. Tenant's rights to trees planted by him.

- If a tenant has planted or plants any trees on any land leased to him he shall be entitled to the produce and the wood of such trees during the continuance of his tenancy and shall on the termination of his tenancy be entitled to such compensation for the said trees as may be determined by the Mamlatdar: Provided that the landlord shall during the continuance of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated by surrender on the part of the tenant; Provided further that the landlord shall during the continuance of the tenancy, be entitled to the rent of the land as if the trees had not been planted.

20. Right to produce of naturally growing trees.

(1) A tenant shall during the continuance of his tenancy be entitled to two-thirds of the total produce of trees naturally growing on the land, the landlord being entitled to one-third of the produce of such trees. (2) If there is any dispute regarding the right to the produce of such trees or the apportionment of such produce as provided under sub-section (1) the tenant or the landlord may apply to the Mamlatdar. Such applications shall be made in such form as may be prescribed. (3) On receipt of such application, the Mamlatdar shall, after holding a inquiry, pass such order thereon as he deems fit.

21. [Sub-letting of land by or on behalf of person in military, naval, or air service, of the Union not to terminate tenancy.]

- Deleted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 16.

22. Tenants responsible for maintenance of boundary marks.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 123 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), the responsibility for the maintenance and good repair of the boundary marks of the land held by the tenant and any charges reasonably incurred on account of service by revenue officers in case of alteration, removal or disrepair of such boundary marks shall be upon the tenant.

23. Repairs of protective bunds.

(1) Notwithstanding any agreement, usage or custom to the contrary, if it appears to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by Adaptation of Laws, Order, 1950.] Government that the construction, maintenance or repairs of any bunds protecting any land held by a tenant is neglected, due to a dispute between the landlord and the tenant or for any other reason, it may by an order in writing direct that the construction, maintenance or repairs shall be carried out by such persons as may be specified in the order and the cost thereof shall be recoverable from the person in actual possession of the land as arrears of land revenue. (2) The person from whom the costs are recovered under sub-section (1) shall be entitled to recover the same or any part thereof from any person who under any agreement, usage or custom is wholly or partially liable to construct, maintain or repair the bunds.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the tenant of any land, the protective bunds of which are neglected, to construct, maintain or repair such bunds at his costs and the costs so incurred by him shall on application made by him to the Mamlatdar be recoverable by him from the landlord according to his liability under the agreement, usage or custom. The costs of the proceedings of the tenant's application shall also be recoverable from the landlord in case the landlord is held wholly or partially liable to pay the costs incurred by the tenant for construction, maintenance or repairs to the bunds.

24. Relief against termination of tenancy in certain cases.

- Where any tenancy of any land held by any tenant is terminated on the ground that the tenant has done any act which is destructive or permanently injurious to the land, no proceeding for ejectment against such tenant shall lie unless and until the landlord has served on the tenant a notice in writing specifying the act of destruction or injury complained of and the tenant fails within a period of one year from the service of notice to restore the land to the condition in which it was before such destruction or injury.

25. Relief against termination of tenancy for non-payment of rent.

- [(1) Where any tenancy of any land held by any tenant is terminated for payment of rent and the landlord files any proceeding to eject the tenant the Mamlatdar shall call upon the tenant to tender to the landlord the rent in arrears together with the cost of the proceeding, within [three months] [Section 25 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 5.] from the date of order, and if the tenant complies with such order, the Mamlatdar shall, in lieu of making an order for ejectment, pass an order directing that the tenancy had not been terminated and thereupon the tenant shall hold the land as if the tenancy had not been terminated:[Provided that if the Mamlatdar is satisfied that in consequence of total or partial failure of crops or similar calamity the tenant has been unable to pay the rent due, the Mamlatdar may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct that the arrears of rent together with the costs of the proceedings if awarded shall be paid within one year from the date of the order and that if before the expiry of the said period the tenant fails to pay the said arrears of rent and costs, the tenancy shall be deemed to be terminated and the tenant shall be liable to be evicted.] This proviso was added by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 5(1).[Nothing in this section] [These brackets, figure and words were substituted for the words 'Provided that nothing in this section' by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 5(2).] shall apply to any tenant whose tenancy is terminated for non-payment of rent if he has failed for any three years to pay rent [and landlord has given intimation to the tenant to that effect within a period of three months on each default.] [These words were substituted for the words and figures 'within the period specified in section 14' by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 17(2).]

25A. [Tenancy to be in abeyance during usufructuary mortgage in favour of tenant. [Section 25A was inserted by Bombay 34 of 1951, section 2.]

- If any land is mortgaged by a landlord by way of a usufructuary mortgage to a tenant cultivating such land, the tenancy of such land shall be in abeyance during the period the mortgage subsists. After the expiry of the said period it shall, notwithstanding any other law for the time being in force, be lawful to the tenant to continue to hold the land on the terms and conditions on which he held it before the mortgage was created.]

26. Receipts for rent.

(1) In the absence of an express intimation in writing to the contrary by a tenant, every payment made by a tenant to the landlord shall be presumed to be a payment on account of rent due by such tenant for the year in which the payment is made. (2) [When any amount of rent is received in respect of any land by a landlord or by a person on behalf of such landlord, the landlord or, as the case may be, the person shall at the time, when such amount is received by him, give a written receipt therefor in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.] [Sub-section (2) was substituted for the original by Bombay 63 of 1958, section 4.]

27. [Sub-division, sub-letting and assignment prohibited. [Section 27 was substituted for the original by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 18.]

(1) [Save as otherwise provided in section 32F no sub-division] or sub-letting of the land held by a tenant or assignment of any interest therein shall be valid: Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prejudicially affect the rights of a permanent tenant: Provided further that if the tenant dies, - (i) if he is a member of a joint family, the surviving members of the said family, and (ii) if he is not a member of a joint family, his heirs, shall be entitled to partition and sub-divide the land leased subject to the following conditions: - (a) each sharer shall hold his share as a separate tenant, (b) the rent payable in respect of the land leased shall be apportioned among the sharers, as the case may be, according to the share allotted to them. (c) the area allotted to each sharer shall not be less than the unit which the State Government may, by general or special order, specify in this behalf having regard to the productive capacity and other circumstances relevant to the full and efficient use of the land for agriculture. (d) if such area is less than the unit referred to in clause (c), the sharers shall be entitled to enjoy the income jointly, but the land shall not be divided by metes and bounds. (e) if any question arises regarding the apportionment of the rent payable by the sharers, it shall be decided by the Mamlatdar, whose decision shall be final. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for a tenant, - (a) who is a widow, minor or a person subject to any physical or mental disability, or a serving member of the armed forces, to sub-let such land held by her or him as a tenant; or (b) who is a member of a co-operative farming society and as such member to sub-let, assign, mortgage or to create a charge on his interest in the land in favour of such society, or in consideration of a loan advanced by any person authorised under section 54 of the Bombay Agricultural Debtors Relief Act, 1947 (Bombay XXVIII of 1947), (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), it shall also be lawful for a tenant to mortgage or create a charge on his interest in the land in favour of the state Government in consideration of a loan advanced to him by the State-Government under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), the Agriculturists Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884), or the Bombay Non-Agriculturists Loans Act, 1928 (Bombay III of 1928), or in favour of a co-operative society in consideration of a loan advanced to him by such cooperative society, and without prejudice to any other remedy, open to the State

Government or the co-operative society, as the case may be, in the event of his making default in payment of such loan in accordance with the terms on which such loan was granted, it shall be lawful for the State Government or the co-operative society, as the case may be, to cause his interest in the land to be attached and sold and the proceeds to be applied in payment of such loan.]

28. Bar to attachment, seizure or sale by process of Court.

- Save as expressly provided in this Act or as provided in the Bombay Co-operative Societies Act, 1925 (Bombay VII of 1925), or the Bombay Agricultural Debtors Relief Act, 1947 (Bombay XXVIII of 1947), of, for the recovery of loans permitted under section 27, any interest in the land held by him as a tenant shall not be liable to be attached, seized or sold in execution of a decree or order of a Civil Court.

29. [Procedure of taking possession. [Pending applications, appeals, revision applications not to be dismissed if filed, within period of two years:-Section 4 of Bombay XLV of 1951 reads as under:-4. If at the date when this Act comes into force an application under section 29 of the said Act is pending before the Mamlatdar or the Tribunal, or an appeal or an application for revision arising out of such application is pending before the Collector or the Bombay Revenue Tribunal as the case may be, on such date, such application, appeal or application for revision shall not be dismissed only on the ground that the said application under section 29 of the said Act was not made within the period of limitation, if it was made within the period prescribed by section 29 of the said Act as amended by this Act.]

(1)A tenant or an agricultural labourer or artisan entitled to possession of any land or dwelling house under any of the provisions of this Act may apply in writing for such possession to the Mamlatdar. The application shall be made in such form as may be prescribed and within a period of two years from the date on which the right to obtain possession of the land or dwelling house is deemed to have accrued to the tenant, agricultural labourer or artisan, as the case may be.[Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (3-A), no landlord] [These words, brackets, figures and letter were substituted for the words 'No landlord' by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 2(1).] shall obtain possession of any land or dwelling house held by a tenant except under the order of the Mamlatdar. For obtaining such order he shall make an application in the prescribed form [and within a period of two years from the date on which the right to obtain possession of the land or dwelling house, as the case may be, is deemed to have accrued to him.] These words were added by Bombay 45 of 1951, section 2(ii).On receipt of application under sub-section (1) or (2) the Mamlatdar shall, after holding an inquiry, pass such order thereon as he deems fit:[Provided that where an application under sub-section (2) is made by a landlord in pursuance of the right conferred on him under section 31, the Mamlatdar shall first decide, as preliminary issues, whether the conditions specified in clause (c) and (d) of section 31A and sub-section (2) and (3) of section 31 B are satisfied. If the Mamlatdar finds that any of the said conditions is not satisfied, he shall reject the application, forthwith.] This proviso was inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957 section 9[Where a landlord proceeds for termination of the tenancy under sub-section (1) of section 43-IB, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the application for possession of the land shall be made to the collector, who shall, after holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner, pass such order thereon as he deems fit.] Sub-section (3A) was inserted by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 2(2)Any person taking possession of any land or dwelling house except in (accordance with the provisions of [sub-section (1), (2) or as the case may be, (3A)] [These words, brackets, figures and letter were substituted for the words, brackets and figures 'sub-section (1) or (2), as the case may be' by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 2(3).] shall be liable to forfeiture of crops, if any, grown in the land in addition to payment of costs as may be directed by the Mamlatdar or by the Collector and also to the penalty prescribed in section 81.]

29A. [Provisions of section 29 to apply to sites used for allied pursuits.
[Section 29A was inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 19.]

- The provisions of section 29 shall apply to the sites used for allied pursuits as they apply to the sites of dwelling house of an agricultural labourer or artisan in regard to taking possession of any land or dwelling house under the provisions of this Act.]

30. [Rights and privileges of tenants not to be affected. [This section was substituted for the original by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 10.]

- Save as provided in this Act, the rights or privileges of any tenant under usage or law for the time being in force or arising out of any contract, grant, decree or order of a Court or otherwise howsoever shall not be limited or abridged.]

Chapter III

[Special Rights and Privileges of Tenants and Provisions for Distribution of land for Personal Cultivation] [This heading was substituted for the original by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 21.]

(I)[Termination of Tenancy for Personal Cultivation and Non-Agricultural Use] [These sections were substituted for the original sections 31 and 32, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 22.].

31. Landlord's rights to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation and non-agricultural purpose.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 14 and 30 but subject to sections 31A to 31 (both inclusive), a [landlord (not being a landlord within the meaning of Chapter III-AA) may] [These words, brackets, figures and letters were substituted for the words 'landlord, may' by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 3(1).] after giving notice and making an application for possession as provided in sub-section (2), terminate the tenancy of any land (except a permanent tenancy), if the landlord bona fide requires the land for any of the following purposes:-(a)for cultivating personally, or(b)for any non-agricultural purposes.(2)The notice required to be given under sub-section (1) shall be in writing, shall state the purpose for which the landlord requires the land and shall be served on the tenant on or before the 31st day of December, 1956. A copy of such notice shall, at the same time, be sent to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1957.(3)Where a landlord is a minor, or a widow, or a person subject to mental or physical disability [] [The words 'or a serving member of the armed forces' were deleted, Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 3(i).] then such notice may be given [and an application for possession under section 29 may be made] [These words were inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 11(1).],-(i)by the minor within one year from the date on which he attains majority;(ii)by the successor-in-title of a widow within one year from the date on which her interest in the land ceases to exist;(iii)with one year from the date on which mental or physical disability ceases to exist; and[] [Clause (iv) was deleted by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 8(2) (ii).][Provided that where a person of such category is a member of a joint family, the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply if at least one member of the joint family is outside the categories mentioned in this sub-section unless before the 31st day of March 1958 the share of such person in the joint family has been separated by metes and bounds and the Mamlatdar on inquiry is satisfied that the share of such person in the land is separated, having regard to the area, assessment, classification and value of the land, in the same proportion as the share of that person in the entire joint family property, and not in a larger proportion.] This proviso was inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 11 (2).[Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3),-(a)the right conferred under the said sub-section (3) on a landlord who is a minor or a person subject to mental or physical disability shall, after the specified date, be exercisable.(i)by such landlord, in a case where the period of one year within which such right may be exercised under sub-section (3) has commenced, within such period of one year or within a period of six months from the specified date, whichever period expires earlier;(ii)by the guardian or other legal representative, of such landlord, in a case where the period of one year within which such right may be exercised under sub-section (3) has not commenced, within a period of six months from the specified date;(b)the right conferred under the said sub-section (3) on a landlord who was a widow on the first day of April, 1957 shall, after the specified date,-(i)be exercisable by the widow within a period of six months from the specified date;(ii)be exercisable, in a case where the interest of the widow in the land has ceased to exist, by reason of her death or otherwise, before the specified date but the period of one year within which her successor-in-title is entitled to exercise the right under section 31 has not expired, by the successor-in-title of the widow within a period of one year from the date on which her interest in the land ceased or, within a period of three months from the specified date, whichever period expires earlier;(iii)in a case where the interest of the widow in the land ceases to exist on or after the specified date, expire on the date on which her interest so ceases to exist.]

31A. Conditions of termination of tenancy.

- The right of a landlord to terminate a tenancy for cultivating the land personally under section 31 shall be subject to the following conditions :-(a)If the landlord at the date on which the notice is given and on the date on which it expires has no other land of his own or has not been cultivating personally any other land, he shall be entitled to take possession of the land leased to the extent of a ceiling area.(b)If the land cultivated by him personally is less than a ceiling area, the landlord shall be entitled to take possession of so much area of the land leased as will be sufficient to make up the area in his possession to the extent of a ceiling area.(c)The income by the cultivation of the land of which he is entitled to take possession is the principal source of income for his maintenance.(d)[The land leased stands in the record of rights or in any public record or similar revenue record on the 1st day of January 1952 and thereafter during the period between the said date and the appointed day in the name of the landlord himself, or of any of his ancestors [but not of any other predecessor-in-title from whom title is derived, whether by assignment or Court sale or otherwise] [This clause was substituted by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 7.] or if the landlord is a member of a joint family, in the name of a member of such family.](e)If more tenancies than one are held under the same landlord, then the landlord shall be competent to terminate only the tenancy or tenancies which are the shortest in point of duration.

31B. No termination of tenancy in contravention of Bombay LXII of 1947 or if tenant is member of co-operative farming society.

- In no case a tenancy shall be terminated under section 31-(1)in such manner as will result in leaving with a tenant, after termination less than half the area of the land leased to him, or(2)in such a manner as will result in a contravention of the provisions of the Bombay Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947 (Bombay LXII of 1947), or in making any part of the land leased a fragment within the meaning of that Act, or(3)if the tenant has become a member of a co-operative farming society and so long as he continues to be such member, [or] The word 'or' was added by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 7(i).[If the tenant is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe.] [Clause (4) was added, by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 7 (ii).]

31C. Landlord not entitled to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation of land left with tenant.

- The tenancy of any land left with the tenant after the termination of the tenancy under section 31 [or before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, under any other law then in force on the ground that the landlord required the land to cultivate personally or for any non-agricultural purpose] [These words and figures were inserted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 6.] shall not at any time afterwards be liable to termination again on the ground that the landlord bona fide requires that land for personal cultivation.

31D. Apportionment of rent after termination of tenancy for land left with tenant.

- If, in consequence of the termination of the tenancy under section 31, any part of the land leased is left with the tenant, the rent shall be apportioned in the prescribed manner in proportion to the area of the land left with the tenant.(II)Purchase of Land by Tenants

32. Tenants deemed to have purchased land on tillers' day.

- [(1)] [This section was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 8.] On the first day of April 1957 (hereinafter referred to as "the tillers' day") every tenant shall, [subject to the other provisions of] [These words were substituted for the words 'subject to the provisions figures were of' by Bombay 63 of 1958, section 5(1).] the next succeeding sections, be deemed to have purchased from his landlord, free of all encumbrances subsisting thereon on the said day, the land held by him as tenant, if-(a)such tenant is a permanent tenant thereof and cultivates land personally;(b)such tenant is not a permanent tenant but cultivates the land leased personally; and(i)the landlord has not given notice of termination of his tenancy under section 31; or(ii)notice has been given under section 31, but the landlord has not applied to the Mamlatdar, on or before the 31st day of March 1957 under section 29 for obtaining possession of the land ; [or] The word 'or' was added by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 12(1).[the landlord has not terminated his tenancy on any of the grounds specified in section 14, or has so terminated the tenancy but has not applied to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March, 1957 under section 29 for obtaining possession of the land:] [This sub-clause was inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, 5. 12(2).]Provided that if an application made by the landlord under section 29 for obtaining possession of the land has been rejected by the Mamlatdar or by the Collector in appeal or in revision by the [Gujarat Revenue Tribunal] [These words were substituted for the words 'Bombay Revenue Tribunal' by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] under the provision of this Act, the tenant shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order of rejection is passed. The date on which the final order of rejection is passed is hereinafter referred to as "the postponed date":[Provided further that the tenant of a landlord who is entitled to the benefit of the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 31 shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the 1st day of April, 1958, if no separation of his share has been effected before the date mentioned in that proviso.] This proviso was added by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 12(3).[(a) Where a tenant, on account of his eviction from the land by the landlord, before the 1st April, 1957, is not in possession of the land on the said date but has made or makes an application for possession of the land under sub-section (1) of section 29 within the period specified in that sub-section, then if the application is allowed by the Mamlatdar, or as the case may be, in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the [Gujarat Revenue Tribunal] [Sub-section (1A) was inserted by Bombay 63 of 1958, s 5(2).], he shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order allowing the application is passed.(b)Where such tenant has not made an application for possession within the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 29 or the application made by him is finally rejected under this Act, and the land is held by any other person as tenant on the expiry of the said period or on the date of the final rejection of the application, such other person shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date of the expiry of the said period or as the case may be, on the date of the final rejection of the application.](1B)[Where a tenant who was in possession of land on the appointed day and who, on account of his being dispossessed of such land or any part thereof by the landlord at any time before the specified date otherwise than in the manner provided in section 29 or any other provision of this Act, is not in possession of such and or any part thereof and such land or part thereof is in the possession of the landlord or his successor-in-interest on the said date and such land or part thereof is not put to a non-agricultural use on or before the said date, then the Mamlatdar shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the said section 29 or any other provision of this Act either suo motu or on an application of the tenant made within the prescribed period hold an inquiry and direct that such land or as the case may be, part thereof shall be taken from the possession of the landlord or, as the case may be, his successor in interest, and shall be restored, to the tenant; and thereafter, the provisions of this section and sections 32A to 32R (both inclusive) shall, so far as they may be applicable, apply thereto, subject to the modification that the tenant shall be deemed to have purchased such land or part thereof on the date on which such land or, as the case may be, part thereof is restored to him: Provided that the tenant shall be entitled to restoration of land or part thereof, as the case may be, under this sub-section only [if he gives an undertaking in writing within such period as may be prescribed] [Sub-section (IB) was inserted by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 8.] to cultivate it personally and of so much thereof as together with the other land held by him as owner or tenant shall not exceed the ceiling area: [Provided further that - (i) if the tenant fails to give such undertaking within such prescribed period, or if the tenant, after giving such undertaking, refuses to accept the tenancy or possession of the lands, the land the possession of which the landlord or as the case may be, his successor-in-interests is not entitled to retain under this sub-section; or (ii) if the tenant gives such undertaking and accepts such tenancy or possession of the land, such portion of the land referred to in clause (i) to the restoration of which the tenant would not be entitled under the first proviso, shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances, and shall be disposed of in the manner provided in sub-section (2) of section 32 P.] Explanation. - In this sub-section "successor in interest" means a person who acquires the interest by testamentary disposition or devolution on death.] [This proviso was inserted, by Gujarat 30 of 1977, section 3(2).] (2) [Where by custom, usage or agreement or order of a Court, any warkas land belonging to the landlord is used by the tenant for the purpose of rab manure in connection with rice cultivation in the land held by him as tenant - (a) the whole of such warkas land, or (b) as the case may be, such part thereof as the Tribunal may determine in cases where such warkas land, is jointly used by more persons than one for the purposes of rab manure, shall be included in the land to be deemed to have been purchased by the tenant under sub-section (1): Provided that in cases referred to in clause (b) the Tribunal may determine that such warkas land shall be jointly held by persons entitled to use the same, if in the opinion of the Tribunal, the partition of such warkas land by metes and bounds is neither practicable nor expedient in the interest of such persons.] [This sub-section was inserted by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 8.] (3) [In respect of the land deemed to have been purchased by a tenant under subsection (1), - (a) the tenant shall continue to be liable to pay to the landlord the rent of such land, and (b) the landlord shall continue to be liable to pay to the State Government the dues, if any, referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10A, where the tenant is not liable to pay such dues under subsection (3) of that section. until the amount of the purchase price payable by the tenant to the landlord is determined under section 32H.] [Sub-section (3) was inserted by Bombay 63 of 1958, section 5(3).] (4) [On the date of the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1960 (Gujarat XVI of 1960), every tenant in the areas within the limits of Municipal Boroughs Act, 1925 (Bombay XVIII of 1925), or within the limits of municipal districts constituted under the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901 (Bombay III of 1901), shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be deemed to have purchased from a landlord free from all encumbrances subsisting thereon on the said date the land held by him as tenant, as if the said date were the tillers' day: Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to land leased by a landlord and situated within the limits of, any such Municipal borough or municipal district, if such land does not exceed an economic holding and the total annual income of the landlord including the rent of such land does not exceed Rs. 1,500 and such land is not held under a permanent tenancy.(5)A person eligible to the exemption as provided in the proviso to sub-section (4),shall make an application before the 1st day of July 1961 to the Mamlatdar for a certificate as provided in section 88C, and the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) of that section shall apply thereto as if the application had been made under section 88C.(6)The provisions of sections 32S, 32T and 32U shall mutatis mutandis apply to the termination of tenancy of such land by a landlord holding a certificate under sub-section (5) and purchase of such land by the tenant thereof as if such landlord were a certified landlord and such tenant were an excluded tenant within the meaning of those sections.] [Sub-section (4),(5) and (6) were inserted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 7]

32A. Tenants deemed to have purchased up to ceiling area.

- A tenant shall be deemed to have purchased land under section 32-(1)in the case of a tenant who does not hold any land as owner but holds land as tenant in excess of the ceiling area, up to the ceiling area;(2)in the case of a tenant who holds land as owner below the ceiling area, such part of the land only as will raise will raise his holding to the extent of the ceiling area.

32B. When tenants not deemed to have purchased lands.

32L. Purchase price recoverable as arrear of land revenue.

(1) If a permanent tenant or on his behalf, a sub-tenant fails to deposit the amount of the purchase price as required under section 32K such amount shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue. (2) If a tenant or sub-tenant of a permanent tenant fails to make payment of any instalment in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing sections and the default in payment of which does not render the purchase ineffective under section 32M, the amount of such instalment shall also be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue. (3) The amount recovered under sub-section (1) or (2) shall be deposited with the Tribunal.

32M. Purchase to be ineffective on tenant's failure to pay purchase price in lump sum or in instalments, within given period.

(1) On the deposit of the price in lump sum or of the last instalment of such price, the Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase in the prescribed form, to the tenant in respect of the land. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of purchase. If tenant fails to pay lump sum within the period fixed under clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 32K, or is at any time in arrears of four instalments the purchase shall be ineffective and the land shall be at disposal of the Collector under section 32P and any amount deposited by such tenant towards the price of the land shall be refunded to him. (2) [In the case of the purchase of any land by a tenant, which before the date of the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1956 (Gujarat 36 of 1956), has become ineffective by reason of the failure of the tenant to pay the lump sum within the period fixed under clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 32K or the tenant remaining in arrears of four instalments, if the tenant deposits with the Tribunal within a period of three years from the date of such commencement the entire amount of the price of the land as fixed under section 32K or, as the case may be, such portion of the price so fixed as may have remained unpaid, together with the interest, if any, payable under section 32K, the purchase of the land shall be deemed not to have become so ineffective and the Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase to the tenant under sub-section (1)] [Sub-section (2) was inserted by Gujarat 36 of 1965, section 3 (w.e.f. 01-02-1966).] (3) [Notwithstanding the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (2), if the tenant of land to which sub-section (2) applies deposits with the Tribunal within a period of two years after the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (2) the entire amount of the price of the land or, as the case may be, the portion of the price, together with interest, as specified in the said sub-section (2), the purchase of the lands shall be deemed not to have become ineffective and the Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase to the tenant under sub-section (1).] (4) In the case of the purchase of any land by a tenant which at any time after the date of the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1965 (Gujarat 36 of 1956), has become ineffective by reason of the failure of the tenant to pay the lump sum within the period fixed under clause (ii), of sub-section (1) of section 32K or the tenant remaining in arrears of four instalments, if such land has not been disposed of by the Collector in the manner provided in sub-section (2) of section 32P, then, if the tenant deposits with the Tribunal within the period of two years after the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (2) the entire amount of the price of the land as fixed under section 32K, or, as the case may be, such portion of the price so fixed as may have remained unpaid, together with the interest, if any, payable under section 32K, the purchase of the land shall be deemed not to have become so ineffective and the Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase to the tenant under sub-section (1).] Sub-section (3) and (4) were inserted by Gujarat 15 of 1969, section 2.[Notwithstanding the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (3) or (4)-(a)if the tenant of land to which sub-section (3) or, as the case may be, sub-section (4) applies and which has not been disposed of by the Collector in the manner provided in sub-section (7) of section 32P, deposits with the Tribunal at any time before two months after the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1981 (Gujarat 13 of 1981), or(b)if the specified tenant of land to which sub-section (3) or, as the case may be, sub-section (4) applies and which has not been disposed of by the Collector in the manner provided in sub-section (2) of section 32P, deposits with the Tribunal at any time [before the date specified from time to time by notification in the official Gazette, by the State Government in this regard].the entire amount of the price of the land or, as the case may be, the unpaid portion of the price, together with interest, as specified in the said sub-section (3) and (4), as the case may be, the purchase of the land shall be deemed not to have become ineffective and the Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase to the tenant or the specified tenant under sub-section (1).Explanation. - For the purposes of this section and sections [32PP, 32PPP and 32-QQ] [Substituted '32PP and 32PPP' by Gujarat Act No. 24 of 2011, dated 25.7.2011.], the expression "specified tenant" means a tenant who holds land (whether as a tenant or owner or otherwise) not exceeding four hectares.] [Sub-section (5) was substituted by Gujarat 13 of 1981, section 2.]

32N. Landlord's right to recover rent when purchase becomes ineffective.

(1)Where any purchase of land becomes ineffective, the landlord shall be entitled to recover from the tenant the rent of the land as if the land had not been purchased. The amount of rent so recoverable shall be deducted from the amount, if any, to be refunded to the tenant:Provided that-(a)where the amount of rent exceeds the amount, if any, to be refunded to the tenant, the tenant shall, within three months from the date on which the purchase becomes ineffective, pay to the landlord the amount of rent so in excess, and(b)where the tenant fails to pay the amount in accordance with clause (a), it shall be recovered from him as an arrear of land revenue and paid to the landlord.If within three months from the date on which the purchase of any land has become ineffective the landlord fails to refund the tenant the amount paid after deducting any rent due to him it shall be recovered from him as an arrear of land revenue and paid to the tenant.

32T. Special right of certified landlord to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 31 to 31B (both inclusive) but subject to the provisions of this section a certified landlord may, after giving notice and making an application for possession as provided in sub-section (3), terminate the tenancy of any land leased by him to an excluded tenant, if he bona fide requires such land for cultivating it personally.(2)(a)The notice may be given and an application may be made by a certified landlord under sub-section (3), notwithstanding that in respect of the same tenancy any application made by him in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 31-(i)is pending before the Mamlatdar or in appeal before the Collector or in revision before the Gujarat Revenue Tribunal on the date of the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Land (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1960 (Gujarat XVI of 1960) (hereinafter referred to in section as "the commencement date") or(ii)has been rejected by the Mamlatdar or in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the Gujarat Revenue Tribunal before the commencement date.(b)Any such pending application shall be deemed to have abated on the commencement date.(3)The notice required to be given under sub-section (1) shall be in writing and shall be served on the tenant on or before the 31st day of December, 1961 and a copy thereof shall, at the same time be sent to the Mamlatdar. An application for possession of the land shall thereafter be made under section 29 to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1962:Provided that where a landlord has applied for a certificate under sub-section (1) of section 88C within the period prescribed or specified therefor but no certificate has been issued to him before the 31st day of December, 1961, he may give such notice and make an application for possession of the land before the expiry of three months from the date on which a certificate is issued to him under sub-section (4) of section 88C.(4)Where the certified landlord is of one of the following categories, namely:-(a)a minor,(b)a widow.[] [Clause (c) was deleted by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 7(a).] or(d)a person subject to any physical or mental disability.then if he has not given a notice and not made an application as required sub-sections (1) and (3), such notice may be given and such application may be made-(A)by the landlord within one year from the date on which-(i)in the case of category (a) he attains majority;[] Item (ii), was deleted by Gujarat 24 of 1965, section 7(b).in the case of category (d) he ceases to be subject to such physical or mental disability; and(B)in the case of a widow, by the successor-in-title within one year from the date on which the widow's interest in the land ceases to exist:Provided that where a person of such category is a member of a joint family, the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply if at least one member of the joint family is outside the categories mentioned in this sub-section unless the share of such person in the joint family has been separated by metes and bounds before, the 31st day of March, 1958 and the Mamlatdar on inquiry is satisfied that the share of such person in the land is separated, having regard to the area, assessment, classification and value of the land, in the same proportion as the share of that person in the entire joint family property, and not in a larger proportion.(5)The right of a certified landlord to terminate a tenancy under this section shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:-(a)that if before the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Land (Gujarat Amendment) Act, 1960 (Gujarat XVI of 1960), the landlord has already under section 31 or under any other law then in force terminated the tenancy of any land held by the same tenant on the ground that he required it for personal cultivation thereof or for non-agricultural use and taken possession, he shall not be entitled to terminate a tenancy under the provisions of sub-section (1)(b)that notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947 (Bombay LXII of 1947), the landlord shall be entitled to take possession of the land leased to the extent of half the area thereof; Provided that if at the date on which the application for possession is made by the landlord to the Mamlatdar in accordance with sub-section (3) or (4)-(i)the landlord has not been cultivating personally any other land or has been cultivating personally other land less than half an economic holding, and(ii)the tenant has been cultivating and is entitled to continue to cultivate personally other land exceeding half an economic holding the landlord shall be entitled to take possession of the whole of the land leased;(c)that the land leased stands in the Record of Rights or in any public record or similar revenue record on the 1st day of January, 1952 and thereafter until the commencement date in the name of the landlord himself, or of any of his ancestors but not of any other predecessor-in-title from whom title is derived by a assignment or court sale or otherwise, or of a joint family of which the landlord is a member;(d)that the landlord shall not be entitled to the possession of the land, if an application under clause (iv) of sub-section (1) of section 88D has been made and has not been rejected.(6)The tenancy of any land left with the tenant after the termination of the tenancy under this section shall not at any time afterwards be liable to termination again on the ground that the landlord bona fide requires that land for personal cultivation.(7)If, in consequence of the termination of the tenancy under this section any part of the land leased is left with the tenant, the rent shall be apportioned in the prescribed manner in proportion to the area of the land left with the tenant.

32U. Tenants of lands mentioned in section 88C to be deemed to have purchased land and other incidental provisions.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 88C, but subject to the provisions of this section every excluded tenant holding land from a certified landlord shall, except as otherwise provided in sub-section (3), be deemed to have purchased from the landlord on the first day of April 1962, free from all encumbrances subsisting thereon on the said day, the land held by him as tenant, if such land is cultivated by him personally; and(i)the landlord has not given notice of termination of tenancy in accordance with sub-section (3) of section 32T, or(ii)the landlord has given such notice but has not made an application thereafter under section 29 for possession as required by the said subsection (3), or(iii)the landlord not being a person of any of the categories specified in sub-section (4) of section 32T has not terminated the tenancy on any of the grounds specified in section 14 or has so terminated the tenancy but has not applied to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1962 under section 29 for possession of the land; Provided that where the landlord has made such application for possession but it is rejected by the Mamlatdar or in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the Gujarat Revenue Tribunal under the provisions of this Act the tenant shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order of rejection is passed.(2)(a)Where a tenant, on account of his eviction from the land by the landlord, before the 1st April, 1962, is not in possession of the land on the said date but has made or makes an application for possession of the land under sub-section (1) of section 29 within the period specified in that sub-section, then if the application is allowed by the Mamlatdar, or as the case may be, in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the Gujarat Revenue Tribunal, he shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order allowing the application is passed.(b)Where such tenant has not made an application for possession within the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 29 or the application made by him is finally rejected under this Act, and the land is held by any other person as tenant on the expiry of the said period or on the date of the final rejection of the application, such other person shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date of the expiry of the said period or, as the case may be, on the date of the final rejection of the application.](3)Where the certified landlord being a person of any of the categories specified in sub-section (4) of section 32T has not given notice of termination of the tenancy of an excluded tenant in accordance with sub-section (3) of that section or has given such notice but has not made an application thereafter under section 29 for possession as required by the said sub-section (3) such excluded tenant shall be deemed to have purchased the land held by him as tenant on the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (4) of section 32T:Provided that where the tenancy is terminated and application for possession is made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 32T but the application is rejected by the Mamlatdar or in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the Gujarat Revenue Tribunal, the tenant shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order of rejection is passed.(4)The provisions of section 32 to 32R shall so far as may be applicable apply to the purchase of land under this section by an excluded tenant.][This heading and sections 32S,32T and 32U were inserted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 14]

(1)The provisions of sections 4B, 8, 9, 9A, 9B, 9C, 10, 10A, 14, 16, 17, 17A, 17B, 18, 27, 31, TO 31D (both inclusive), 32 to 32R (both inclusive), [] [The figures '34, 35' were deleted by Gujarat 27 of 1961, section 54, Schedule III, Item 4.] 43, 63, 63A, 64 and 65 shall not apply to-(a)[land leased to or held by] [These words were substituted for the words 'leases of land grantee' or for the benefit of' by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 29(1).] any industrial or commercial undertaking (other than a Co-operative Society) which in the opinion of the State Government bona fide carries on any industrial or commercial operations and which is approved by the State Government;(b)leases of land granted to any bodies or persons other than those mentioned in clause (a) for the cultivation of sugarcane or the growing of fruits or flowers or for the breeding of livestock;(c)to lands held or leased by such co-operative societies as are approved in the prescribed manner by the State Government which have for their objects the improvement of the economic and social conditions of peasants or ensuring the full and efficient use of land for agriculture and allied pursuits.(2)The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette in this behalf direct that the provisions of the said sections shall not apply to a lease of land obtained by any person for growing any other class of agricultural produce to which it is satisfied that it will not be expedient in the public interest to apply the said provisions. Before the issue of such notification, the State Government shall direct an inquiry to be made by an officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government and shall give all persons who are likely to be affected by such notification, an opportunity to submit their objections.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and (2), it shall be lawful for the State Government to direct, by notification in the Official Gazette that the lease [or lands, as the case may be,] [These words were inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 20(2).] to which the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) apply, shall be subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, in respect of-(a)the duration of the lease;(b)the improvements to be made on the land and the formation of co-operative farming societies for that purpose and financial assistance to such societies;(c)the payment of land revenue, irrigation, cess, local fund cess and any other charges payable to the State Government or any local authority;(d)any other matter referred to in sections mentioned in sub-section (1).

43B. Reasonable rent of land to which section 43A applies.

- Notwithstanding any agreement, usage, decree or order of a Court or any other authority, in the case of any land to which section 43A applies, the rent payable shall be reasonable rent as determined under the following clauses:-(1)A landlord or a tenant of such land may make an application in writing to the Mamlatdar for the determination of the reasonable rent in respect of such land.(2)On receipt of such application, the Mamlatdar shall give notice thereof to the other party to the lease and after holding a inquiry shall determine the reasonable rent.(3)In determining the reasonable rent regard shall be had to the following factors:-(a)profits of agriculture of similar lands in the locality,(b)prices in the locality of the particular crop for the growing of which the land is leased,(c)the improvement made in the land by the lessee or the landlord,(d)the assessment payable in respect of land,(e)the profits realised by the lessee on account of the lease of the land.(f)profits earned by an industrial or commercial undertaking by the manufacture or sale of articles made out of the produce of the land leased,(g)such other factors as may be prescribed.(4)The reasonable rent determined by the Mamlatdar under clause (2) shall, with effect from [the date specified by the Mamlatdar] [These words were substituted for the words 'the date of the order of the Collector made' by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 21.] in that behalf, be deemed to be the rent fixed under the lease in lieu of the rent, if any, agreed between the parties.

Chapter III

B Special Provisions in Respect of Areas within the Limits of A Municipality or A Cantonment

43C. Certain provisions not to apply to municipal or cantonment areas.

- Nothing in sections 32 to 32R (both inclusive) and 43 shall apply to lands in the [areas which on the date of the coming into force of the Amending Act, 1955 are within the limits of] [These words shall be and shall be deemed always to have been substituted with effect on and from the 1st August, 1956 for the words 'areas within the limits of' by Gujarat 36 of 1965, section 7 (w.e.f.

01-02-1966).].- [] [Clause (a) was deleted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) (Third Amendment) Order 1960.] (b) a municipal Corporation constituted under Bombay Provincial Municipal Corporations Act, 1949 (Bombay LIX of 1949) (Bombay LIX of 1949). [] [Clause (c) and (d) were deleted by Gujarat 16 of 1966, section 17.] [] (e) a cantonment, or (f) any area included in Town Planning Scheme under the Bombay Town Planning Act, 1954 (Bombay XXVII of 1955): Provided that if any person has acquired any right as a tenant under this Act on or after the 28th December, 1948, the said right shall not be deemed to have been affected by the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Amendment) Act, 1952 (Bombay XXXIII of 1952), or (save as expressly provided in section 43D), by the Amending Act, 1955, notwithstanding the fact that either of the said Act has been made applicable to the area in which such land is situate.

43D. Termination of tenancy.

(1) In the areas [to which section 43C applies] [These words, figures and letter were substituted for the words, figures and letters 'specified in section 43C', by Gujarat 16 of 1966, section 18.] notwithstanding anything contained in sections 31 to 31D (both inclusive) a landlord may terminate the tenancy of a tenant (other than a permanent) in respect of any land with effect from the 31st day of May of any year by giving the tenant three months notice in writing, if the landlord bona fide requires the land for any non-agricultural purpose; Provided that the three months' period of such notice shall expire before the 31st day of May of such year. (2) The provisions of sections 29, 37 and 39 shall mutatis mutandis apply to the termination of the tenancy of a tenant in respect of any land under sub-section (1). (3) []. [Sub-section (3) was deleted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) (Third Amendment) Order, 1960.]

Chapter IV

Management of Estates held by Landholders

44. Power to assume management of land holder's estate.

- Notwithstanding any law for the time being in force, usage or custom or the terms of contract or grant, when the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government is satisfied that on account of the neglect of a landlord or disputes between him and his tenants the cultivation of his estate has seriously suffered, or when it appears to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government that it is necessary [for the said purpose or for the purpose of] [These words were substituted for the words 'for the purpose of improving the economic and social condition of peasants or' by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 11.] ensuring the full and efficient use of land for agriculture to assume management of any land holder's estate, a notification announcing such intention shall be published in the Official Gazette, and the Collector shall cause notice of the substance of such notification to be given at convenient places in the locality where the estate is situated. Such notification shall be conclusive.

45. Vesting of estate in management.

- [(1)] [Section 45 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section, by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 12.] On the publication of the notification under section 44, the estate in respect of which the notification has been published shall, so long as the management continues, vest in the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government. Such management shall be deemed to commence from the date on which the notification is published and the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government shall appoint a Manager to be in charge of such estate.(2)[Notwithstanding the vesting of the estate in the State Government under subsection (1), the tenant holding the lands on lease comprised in the estate shall, save as otherwise provided in this Chapter, continue to have the same right and shall be subject to the same obligations, as they have or are subject under the preceding Chapters in respect of the lands held by them on lease.] [Sub-section (2) was added, by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.]

46. Effect of declaration of management.

- On the publication of the notification under section 44, the following consequences shall ensue:-(1)All proceedings then pending in any Civil Court in respect to the debts and liabilities enforceable against the estate shall be stayed; and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments then in force for or in respect of such debts and liabilities shall be suspended;(2)So long as the management continues no fresh proceedings processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued, enforced or executed by any Civil Court in respect of such debts and liabilities;(3)So long as the management continues the holder of the estate shall be competent-(a)to enter into any contract involving the estate in pecuniary liability.(b)to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate the property under management or any part thereof, or(c)to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom;Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to preclude the Manager from letting and the holder from taking the whole or a part of such estate on such terms consistent with this Act as may be agreed upon between the parties;(4)So long as the management continues, no person other than the Manager shall be competent to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate such estate or any part thereof.

47. Manager's powers.

(1)The Manager shall during the management of the estate have all the powers which the holder thereof might as such have exercised and shall receive and recover all rents and profits due in respect of the property under management.(2)For the purposes of recovering such rents and profits the manager shall have, in condition to any powers possessed by the holder, all the powers possessed by the Collector under the law for the time being in force for securing and recovering land revenue due to Government,

48. Manager to pay costs of management etc.

(1)From the sums received or recovered under section 47, the Manager shall pay-(i)the costs of management including the costs of necessary repairs;(ii)the Government revenue and all debts and liabilities for the time being, due or incurred to the [Government] [This word was substituted for the word 'Crown' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] in respect of the property under management;(iii)the rent, if any, due to any superior holder in respect of the said estate;(iv)such periodical allowance as the Collector may from time to time fix for the maintenance and other expenses of the holder and of such members of his family as the Collector directs;(v)the costs of such improvements of the said estate as he thinks necessary and as approved by the Collector.(2)The residue shall be retained by the Manager for the liquidation, in the manner hereinafter provided, of the debts and liabilities other than those mentioned in subsection (1) and also for the repayment, either before or after the liquidation of such debts and liabilities, of any loan received from Government by the Manager under this Act. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the holder.

49. Notice to claimants.

- On the publication of the order of management, the Manager shall publish in the Official Gazette, a notice calling upon all persons having claims against the estate under management to notify the same in writing to such Manager within two months from the date of the publication. He shall also cause copies of such notice to be exhibited at such several places as he thinks fit.

50. Claim to contain full particulars.

(1)Every such claimant shall, alongwith his claim, present full particulars thereof,(2)Every document on which the claimant finds his claim, or on which he relies in support thereof, shall be delivered to the Manager alongwith the claim.(3)If the document be entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the Manager, together with copy of the entry on which he relies. The Manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and after examining and comparing the copy with the original shall return the books to the claimant.(4)If any document in possession or under the control of the claimant is not delivered or produced by him to the Manager alongwith the claim, the Manager may refuse to receive such document in evidence on the claimant's behalf at the investigation of the case.

51. Claim not duly notified to be bared.

- Every such claim other than the claim of the [Government] [This word was substituted for the word 'Crown' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] not informed to the Manager within the time and in the manner required by such notice shall, except as provided hereinafter, be deemed for all purposes and on all occasions, whether during the continuance of the management or afterwards, to have been duly discharged: Provided that, when proof is made to the Manager that the claimant was unable to comply with the provisions of section 49, the Manager may receive such claim within the further period of two months from the expiration of the original period of two months.

52. Determination of debts and liabilities.

- The Manager shall inquire into the history and merits of every claim received under preceding sections and shall in accordance with the rules to be made under this Act determine the amount of the debts and liabilities, if any, justifiably due to the several claimants.

53. Power to rank debts and fix interest.

- If such amount cannot be paid at once, the Manager shall then proceed to rank such debts and liabilities according to the order in which they shall be paid, and to fix the interest, if any, to be paid thereon, respectively from the date of the final decision thereon, to the date of the payment and discharge thereof.

54. Scheme for liquidation.

- When the total amount of the debts and liabilities including those due and incurred to the [Government] [This word was substituted for the word 'Crown' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] has been finally determined, the Manager shall prepare and submit to the Collector a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme (hereinafter called the liquidation scheme) showing the mode in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the same, whether from the income of the property under management, or with the aid of funds raised under the powers hereinafter conferred, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

55. Provisions of schemes.

- Every liquidation scheme shall further provide for the continuance of the payments to be made by the Manager and for the repayment of money, if any, which the Manager proposes to borrow from Government under this Act and may provide for the improvement of the estate under management either from the said income or with the aid of the funds raised as aforesaid or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

56. Effect of sanctioning scheme.

- When the Collector sanctions the liquidation scheme, he shall notify the fact of such sanction at such place and in such manner as the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may from time to time by rule direct; and thereupon:-(i)all proceedings, processes, executions, and attachments stayed or suspended under section 46 shall be for ever barred;(ii)every debt or liability due or owing to any person which was provable before the Manager shall be extinguished, and such person shall be entitled to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, finally awarded to him under the preceding sections in respect of such debt or liability.

57. Powers to remove mortgage in possession.

(1)If the estate under management or any part thereof be in the possession of a mortgagee, or a conditional vendee, the manager, at any time after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, may by an order in writing require such incumbrancer to deliver up possession of the same to him at the end of the then current revenue year.(2)If such incumbrancer refuses or neglects to obey such order, the Manager may without resorting to a Civil Court enter upon the property and summarily evict therefrom the said encumbrances or any other person obstructing or resisting on his behalf.(3)Nothing in this section shall be held to affect the right of any incumbrancer to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, awarded to him under this Act.

58. Power to sell or lease.

- Subject to the rules made under this Act, the Manager after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, shall have power to sell or grant on lease all or any part of the estate under the management:Provided that, the estate or any part thereof shall not be sold or leased for a period exceeding ten years without the previous permission of the Collector.Provided further that the Collector shall not give such permission unless he is satisfied that such sale or lease is necessary for the benefit of the estate [or unless such sale is in favour of [a tenant under section 32, 32F, 32-1, or 32-0] [These words and figures were inserted by Bombay 33 of 1952, section 13.]]. The decision of the Collector shall be final.

59. Manager's receipts a discharge.

- The Manager receipt for any moneys, rents or profits raised or received by him under this Act shall discharge the person paying the same therefrom or from being concerned to see to the application thereof.

60. Holder of estate dying.

(1)If the holder of the estate dies after the publication of the order of management, the management shall continue and proceed in all respects as if the holder were still living.(2)Any person succeeding to the whole or any part of the estate under management shall, while such management continues, be subject in respect of such estate to the disabilities imposed under this Act.(3)No Civil Court shall, during the continuance of the management, issue any attachment or other process against any portion of the estate under management for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by any such person either before or after his said succession.

61. Termination of management.

- The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government, when it is of opinion that it is not necessary to continue the management of the estate, by order published in the Official Gazette, direct that the said management shall be terminated. On the termination of the said management, the estate shall be delivered into the possession of the holder, or, if he is dead, of any person entitled to the said estate together with any balances which may be due to the credit of the said holder. All acts done or purporting to be done by the Manager during he continuance of the management of the estate shall be binding on the holder or to any person to whom the possession of the estate has been delivered.

62. Manager deemed to be public servant.

- The Manager appointed under this Chapter shall be deemed to be a public servant under section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

Chapter V

(1)Save as provided in this Act,-(a)no sale (including sales in execution of a decree of Civil Court of for recovery of arrears of land revenue or for sums recoverable as arrears of land revenue), gift, exchange or lease of any land or interest therein, or(b)no mortgage of any land or interest therein, in which the possession of the mortgaged property is delivered to the mortgagee, [or] This word was added by Gujarat 30 of 1977, section 5(1) (i).[no agreement made by an instrument in writing for the sale, gift, exchange, lease or mortgage of any land or interest therein.] [This clause was inserted, by Gujarat 30 of 1977, section 5(1) (ii).]shall be valid in favour of a person who is not an agriculturist [or who being an agriculturist cultivates personally land not less than the ceiling area whether as an owner or tenant or partly as owner and partly as tenant or who is not an agricultural labourer] [These words were inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 32(1).]:Provided that the Collector or an officer authorised by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government in this behalf may grant permission for such sale, gift, exchange, lease or mortgage, [or for such agreement] [These words were inserted by Gujarat 30 of 1977, section 5(1) (iii).] on such conditions as may be prescribed.[Provided further that, no such permission shall be granted, where land is being sold to a person who is not an agriculturist for agricultural purpose, if the annual income of such person from other sources exceeds five thousand rupees.] This proviso was inserted by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 16.Nothing in this section shall be deemed to [prohibit the sale, gift, exchange, or lease, or the agreement for the sale, gift, exchange or lease of] [These words were substituted for the words 'prohibit' the sale, gift, exchanges or lease of' by Gujarat 30 of 1977, section 5(2).] a dwelling house or the site thereof or any land appurtenant to it in favour of an agricultural labourer or an artisan [or a person carrying on any allied pursuit] These words were inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 32(2).[Nothing in this section shall apply or be deemed to have applied to a mortgage of any land or interest therein effected in favour of a co-operative society as security for the loan advanced by such society [or any transfer declared to be a mortgage by a court under section 24 of the Bombay Agricultural Debtors' Relief Act, 1947 (Bombay XXVIII of 1947),] [This sub-section was added by Bombay 12 of 1951, section 6.]](4)[Nothing in section 63A shall apply to any sale made under sub-section (1).] [This sub-section was added, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 32(4).]

63A. [Reasonable price of land for the purpose of its sale and purchase.
[This section was inserted, by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 33.]

(1)Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the price of any land sold, or purchased under the provisions of this Act shall consist of the following amounts, namely:-(a)an amount not being less than 20 times the assessment levied or leviable in respect of the land and not being more than 200 times such assessment excluding, however, for the purpose of calculation, the amount of water rate, if any, levied under section 55 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879), and included in such assessment;(b)the value of any structures, wells and embankments constructed, permanent fixtures made and trees planted on the land.(2)Where under the provisions of this Act any land is sold or purchased by mutual agreement, such agreement shall be registered before the Mamlatdar, and the price of the land shall, subject to the limits specified in sub-section (1), be such as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties. In the case of disagreement between the parties, the price shall be determined by the Tribunal having regard to the factors mentioned in think sections.(3)Where in the case of a sale or purchase of any land under this Act, the Tribunal or the Mamlatdar has to fix the price of such land under this Act, the Tribunal or the Mamlatdar, as the case may be, shall, subject to the quantum specified in sub-section (1), fix the price having regard to the following factors,(a)the rental values of lands used for similar purposes in the locality;(b)the structures and wells constructed and permanent fixtures made and trees planted, on the land by the landlord or tenant;(c)the profits of agriculture of similar lands in the locality;(d)the prices of crops and commodities in the locality;(e)the improvements made in the land by the landlord or he tenant;(f)the assessment payable, in respect of the land;(g)such other factors as may be prescribed.][Explanation. - For the purposes of this section the expression "assessment" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 8.] [This Explanation was added by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 12.]

63AA. [Sale of land for bonafide industrial purpose permitted in certain cases. [Section 63AA inserted by Gujarat 7 of 1997, dated 6th March, 1997 (w.r.e.f. 24-12-1996).]

(1) Nothing in section 63 shall prohibit the sale or the agreement for the sale of land for which no permission is required under sub-section (1) of section 65B of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879) in favour of any person for use of such land by such person for a bonafide industrial purpose: Provided that—(a) the land is not situated within the urban agglomeration as defined in clause (n) of section 2 of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976 (33 of 1976), (b) where the area of the land proposed to be sold exceeds ten hectares, the person to whom the land is proposed to be sold in pursuance of this subsection shall obtain previous permission of the Industries Commissioner, Gujarat State or such other officer, as the State Government may, by an order in writing, authorise in this behalf, (c) the area of the land proposed to be sold shall not exceed four times the area on which construction for a bonafide industrial purpose is proposed to be made by the purchaser: Provided that any additional land, which may be required for pollution control measures or required under any relevant law for the time being in force and certified as such by the relevant authority under that law shall not be taken into account for the purpose of computing four times the area, (d) where the land proposed to be sold is owned by a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribe, the sale shall be subject to the provisions of section 73AA of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay V of 1879). (2) Nothing in section 63A shall apply to any sale made in pursuance of sub-section (1). (3) (a) Where the land is sold to a person in pursuance of sub-section (1) (hereinafter referred to as "the purchaser"), he shall within thirty days from the date of the purchase of the land for a bonafide industrial purpose, send a notice of such purchase in such form along with such other particulars as may be prescribed, to the Collector and endorse a copy thereof to the Mamlatdar. (b) Where the purchaser fails to send the notice and other particulars to the Collector under clause (a) within the period specified therein, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to the non-agricultural assessment leviable under this Act, such fine not exceeding two thousand rupees as the Collector may, subject to rules made under this Act, direct. (c) Where, on receipt of the notice of the date of purchase for the use of land for a bonafide industrial purpose and other particulars sent by the purchaser under clause (a), the Collector, after making such inquiry as he deems fit—(i) is satisfied that the purchaser of such lands has validly purchased the land for a bonafide industrial purpose in conformity with the provisions of sub-section (1), he shall issue a certificate to that effect to the purchaser in such form and within such time as may be prescribed, (ii) is not so satisfied, he shall, after giving the purchaser an opportunity of being heard, refuse to issue such certificate and on such refusal, the sale of land to the purchaser shall be deemed to be in contravention of section 63. (d) (i) The purchaser aggrieved by the refusal to issue a certificate by the Collector under sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) may file an appeal to the State Government or such officer, as it may, by an order in writing, authorise in this behalf. (ii) The State Government or the authorised officer shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, pass such order on the appeal as it or he deems fit. (4) (a) The purchaser shall comply with the provisions of any law for the time being in force or any order or direction of the Central Government or State Government or any Corporation owned or controlled by such Government, Government company, local authority or statutory authority in relation to use of land for industrial purpose before the land is put to use for such purpose. (b) The purchaser to whom a certificate is issued under sub-clause (i) of clause (c)

of sub-section (3) shall commence industrial activity on such land within three years from the date of such certificate and commence production of goods or providing of services within five years from such date: Provided that the period of three years or, as the case may be, five years may, on an application made by the purchaser in that behalf, be extended from time to time, by the State Government or such officer, as it may, by an order in writing, authorise in this behalf, in such circumstances, as may be prescribed. (5) Where the Collector, after making such inquiry as he deems fit and giving the purchaser an opportunity of being heard, comes to a conclusion that the purchaser has failed to commence industrial activity or production of goods or providing of services within the period specified in clause (b) of sub-section (4), or the period extended under the proviso to that clause, the land shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances on payment to the purchaser of such compensation as the Collector may determine, having regard to the price paid by the purchaser and such land shall be disposed of by the State Government, having regard to the use of land.]

64. [Sale of agricultural land to particular person. [Section 64 was substituted for the original by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 34.]

(1) Where a landlord intends to sell any land, he shall apply to the Tribunal for determining the reasonable price thereof. The Tribunal shall thereupon determine reasonable price of the land in accordance with the provisions of section 63A. The Tribunal shall also direct that the price shall be payable either in lump sum, or in annual instalments not exceeding six carrying simple interest at 4½ per cent per annum: Provided that in the case of sale of the land in favour of a permanent tenant when he is in possession thereof, the price shall be at six times the annual rent. (2) After the Tribunal has determined the reasonable price, the landlord shall simultaneously in the prescribed manner make a offer:- (a) in the case of agricultural land- (i) to the tenant in actual possession thereof, notwithstanding the fact that such land is a fragment, and (ii) to all persons and bodies mentioned in the propriety list; (b) in the case of a dwelling house, or a site of a dwelling house or land appurtenant to such house when such dwelling house, side or land is not used or is not necessary to carry on agricultural operations in the adjoining lands- (i) to the tenant thereof; (ii) to the person residing in the village who is not in possession of any dwelling house; Provided that if there are more than one such person the offer shall be made to such person or persons and in such order of priority as the Collector may determine in this behalf having regard to the needs of the following persons, namely:- (i) an agricultural labourer, (ii) an artisan, (iii) a person carrying on an allied pursuit, (iv) any other person in the village. (3) The persons to whom such offers are made shall intimate to the landlord within one month from the date of receipt of the offer whether they are willing to purchase the land at the price fixed by the Tribunal. (4) (a) If only one person intimates to the landlord under sub-section (3) his willingness to accept the offer made to him by the landlord under sub-section (2), the landlord shall call upon such person by a notice in writing in the prescribed form to pay him the amount of the reasonable price determined by the Tribunal or to deposit the same with Tribunal within one month or such further period as the landlord may consider reasonable from the date of receipt of the notice by such person. (b) If more than one person intimates to the landlord under sub-section (3) their willingness to accept the offers made to them by the landlord under sub-section (2), the landlord shall call upon by a notice in writing in the prescribed form and the person having the highest priority in the order of priority given in sub-section (2) to pay him the amount of the reasonable price determined by the Tribunal or to deposit the same with Tribunal within one month or such further period as the landlord may consider reasonable from the date of receipt of the notice by such person.(5)If the person to whom a notice is given by the landlord under sub-section (4) fails to pay the amount of the reasonable price to the landlord or to deposit the same with the Tribunal within the period referred to in sub-section (4) such person shall be deemed to be not willing to purchase the land and the landlord shall call upon in the manner provided in sub-section (4) the person who stands next highest in the order of priority and who has intimated his willingness to the landlord under sub-section (3).(6)If any dispute arises under this section regarding-(a)the offer made by the landlord under sub-section (2), or(b)the notice given by the landlord under sub-section (4) or (5), or(c)the payment or deposit of the reasonable price, or(d)the execution of the sale deed, such dispute shall be decided by the Tribunal.(7)(a)Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section a landlord may after obtaining the previous permission of the Tribunal as provided in the next succeeding clause (b) sell any land notwithstanding the fact that such land is a fragment to the tenant in actual possession thereof at a price mutually agreed upon between him and the tenant subject to the provisions of section 63A.(b)The landlord shall make an application in writing to the Tribunal for permission to sell the land at such price. On receipt of the application, the Tribunal shall grant the permission if, on holding an inquiry, it is satisfied that the price has been agreed to voluntarily by the tenant.(8)Any sale made in contravention of this section shall be invalid.(9)If a tenant refuses or fails to purchase the land or a dwelling house offered to him under this section, and the land or the dwelling house, as the case may be, is sold to any other person under this section, the landlord shall be entitled to evict such tenant and put the purchaser in possession.]

64A. [Exemption to sales by or in favour of co-operative societies.]

Deleted by Gujarat 21 of 1987, Section 3.

65. Assumption of management of lands which remained uncultivated.

(1)If it appears to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government that for any two consecutive years, any land has remained uncultivated [or the full and efficient use of the land has not been made for the purpose of agriculture, through the default of the holder or any other cause whatsoever not beyond his control] [These words were substituted for the words 'through default of either the landlord or tenant or any other cause whatsoever' by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 35(1)] the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, declare that the management of such land shall be assumed. The declaration so made shall be conclusive.(1A)[The assumption of management of land under sub-section (1) on the ground that the full and efficient use of the land has not been made for the purpose of agriculture shall be for such period as the State Government may from time to time fix, so, however, that such period shall not exceed ten years in the aggregate.] Sub-section (A) was added by Gujarat 2 of 1971, section 3.On the assumption of the management, such land shall vest in the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government during the continuance of the management and the provisions of Chapter

IV shall mutatis mutandis apply to the said[Provided that the manager may in suitable cases give such land on lease at rent even equal to the amount of its assessment:Provided further that, if the management of the land has been assumed under subsection (1) on account of the default of the tenant, such tenant shall cease to have any right or privilege under Chapter II or III, as the case may be, in respect of such land, with effect from the date on and from which such management has been assumed.] [These provisos were substituted for the original proviso by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 35(2).]

65A. [Power of State Government to declare that mere raising of grass shall not be deemed full and efficient use for agriculture. [Section 65A was inserted by Gujarat 2 of 1971, section 4.]

- For the purpose of this Act, in respect of any land which is used the holder for raising grass or which abounds in natural growth of grass but which, in the opinion of the State Government may, is suitable for growing food-crops, the State Government, having regard to the extent of the land held by such holder and after determining the requirements of grass for his cattle, declare by notification in the Official Gazette, that the mere raising of grass therein or allowing its natural growth thereon, or in or on any part of such land shall not be deemed to be the full and efficient use of such land for agriculture.]

66. Application of estate or land under management or interest therein.

(1)If at any time it appears to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government that any estate or land, the management of which has been assumed under the provisions of this Act or the interest of any other person in such estate or land should in the public interest, be compulsorily acquired, it shall be lawful for the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government to publish a notification to that effect in the Official Gazette. The notification so published shall be conclusive that the estate, land or interest is needed to be acquired in public interest.(2)On the publication of the notification, the Collector shall cause publicity to be given to it at convenient places in the locality and also give notices to the holder of the estate, land or interest and to all persons known or believed to be interested therein.(3)The Collector shall then make an inquiry in the prescribed manner to determine the value of the estate, land or interest which has been acquired. For the said purpose the Collector shall have the same powers as are vested in courts in respect of the following matters under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), in trying a suit:-(a)proof of facts by affidavits,(b)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath, and(c)compelling the production of documents.(4)In determining the value the Collector shall take into consideration-(a)the assessment payable in respect of the estate or land,(b)the profits of agriculture and cultivation of the estate or land and of similar estates and lands in the locality,(c)the prices of crops and commodities in the locality,(d)exemption from assessment and other privileges enjoyed by the holder and other persons interested in respect of the land, estate and interest,(e)any other matter which may be prescribed.(5)After determining the value of the estate, land or interest the Collector shall make an award which shall contain-(a)the particulars of the estate, land or interest, (b) the compensation which in his opinion, should be allowed for the land, (c) the apportionment of the compensation among all persons known, or believed to be interested. (6) Such award shall be filed in the Collector's office and shall, except as hereinafter provided, be final and conclusive evidence as between the Collector and persons interested whether they have respectively appeared before the Collector or not of all the particulars including areas and value of the estate, land or interest and the apportionment of compensation. (7) When the Collector has made an award, the estate, land or interest therein shall vest in [Government] [This word was substituted for the word 'Crown' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] free from all incumbrances. [Chapter V-A] [Chapter V-A was inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 36.] Construction of Water Course through Land of Another

66A. Construction of water course through land belonging to other persons.

(1) If any person (hereinafter called the applicant) desires to construct a water course to take water for the purpose of agriculture from a source of water to which he is entitled, but such water course is to be constructed through any land which belongs to, or is in possession of, another person (hereinafter called the neighbouring holder), and if no private agreement is arrived at for such construction between the applicant and the neighbouring holder, the person desiring to construct the water course may make an application in the prescribed form to the Mamlatdar. Explanation. - For the purposes, of this Chapter the neighbouring holder shall include the person to whom the land belongs and all persons holding through or under him. (2) On receipt of the application, if the Mamlatdar, after making an inquiry and after giving to the neighbouring holder and all other persons interested in the land a opportunity of stating any objection to the application, is satisfied that for ensuring the full and efficient use for agriculture of the land belonging to the applicant it is necessary to construct the water course, he may by order in writing direct the neighbouring holder to permit the applicant to construct the water course on the following conditions:-(i) the water course shall be constructed through such land in such direction and manner as is agreed upon by the parties, or failing agreement as directed by the Mamlatdar so as to cause as little damage to the land through which it is constructed, as may be possible; (ii) where the water course consists of pipes, the pipes shall be laid at a depth not less than one foot and a half from the surface of the land; (iii) where the water course consists of a water channel, the channel shall not exceed five feet in breadth; (iv) the applicant shall pay to the neighbouring holder -(a) such compensation for any damage caused to such land by reason of the construction of the water course injuriously affecting such land; (b) such annual rent as the Mamlatdar may decide to be reasonable; (v) the applicant shall maintain the water course in a fit state of repairs; (vi) the applicant shall within the prescribed period execute an agreement in the prescribed form in favour of the neighbouring holder; (vii) such other conditions as the Mamlatdar may think fit to impose. (3) An order made under sub-section (2) shall direct how the amount of compensation shall be apportioned among the neighbouring holder and all persons interested in the land. (4) Any order made under sub-section (2) shall after the applicant executes an agreement as required under clause (vi) of sub-section (2) be a complete authority to him or to any agent or other person employed by him for the purpose to enter upon the land specified in the order with assistants or workmen and to do all such work as may be necessary for the construction of the water course and for renewing or repairing the same.

66B. Failure to payment and to keep water course in good repair.

- If the applicant in whose favour an order under sub-section (2) of section 66A was made-(a)fails to pay the amount of compensation or the amount of the rent, it shall be recovered as an arrear of land revenue on an application being made, to the Mamlatdar by the person entitled thereto;(b)fails to maintain the water course in a fit state of repair, he shall be liable to pay such compensation as may be determined by the Mamlatdar for any damage caused on account of such failure.

66C. Removal or discontinuance of water course.

(1)If a person intends to remove or discontinue the water course constructed under the authority conferred on him under section 66A, he may do so after giving notice to the Mamlatdar and the neighbouring holder.(2)In the event of removal or discontinuance of such water course, the person taking the water shall fill in and reinstate the land at his own cost with the least practicable delay. If he fails to do so, the neighbouring holder may apply to the Mamlatdar who shall require such person to fill in and reinstate the land.

66D. Neighbouring holder entitled to use surplus water on payment of rate.

- The neighbouring holder or any person on his behalf shall have the right to the use of any surplus water from the water course on payment of such rates as may be agreed upon between the parties, and on failure of agreement, as may determined by the Mamlatdar. If a dispute arises whether there is or is no surplus water in the water course, it shall be determined by the Mamlatdar, and his decision shall be final.]

83. Delegation of [powers, functions and duties].

- The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provisional' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, subject to such restrictions and conditions as it may impose, by notification in the Official Gazette, delegate to any of its officers, not below the rank of an Assistant or Deputy Collector, all or any of the [powers conferred or functions or duties imposed] [These words were substituted for the words 'powers conferred' by Gujarat 36 of 1965, section 11 (w.e.f. 01-02-1966).] on it by this Act.

83A. [Restriction on acquiring land by transfer which is invalid. [This section was inserted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 24.]

(1)No person shall acquire land by transfer where such transfer or acquisition is invalid under any of the provisions of this Act.(2)Any person who acquires land in contravention of sub-section (1) shall in the event of the transfer or acquisition being decided or declared invalid, be liable to suffer, the consequences under section 84 or 84C as the case may be.]

84. Summary eviction.

- Any person unauthorisedly occupying or wrongfully in possession of any land-(a)the transfer [or acquisition] [These words were inserted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 44.] of which either by the act of parties or by the operation of law is invalid under the provisions of this Act.(b)the management of which has been assumed under the said provisions or(c)to the use and occupation of which he is not entitled under the said provisions and the said provisions do not provide for the eviction of such persons, may be summarily evicted by the Collector.

84A. [Validation of transfer made before appointed day. [These sections were substituted by Bombay 13 of 1956, section 45.]

(1)A transfer of any land in contravention of section 63 or 64 as it stood before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, made after the 28th day of December 1948 (when the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948 (Bombay LXV of 1948), came into force) and before the 15th day of June 1955 shall not be declared to be invalid merely on the ground that such transfer was made in contravention of the said sections if the transferee pays to the State Government a penalty equal to [one per cent.] of the consideration or Rs. 100, whichever is less:Provided that, if such transfer is made by the landlord, in favour of the tenant in actual possession, the penalty leviable in respect thereof shall be one rupees;Provided further that if any such transfer is made by the landlord in favour of any person other than the tenant in actual possession, and such transfer is made either after the unlawful eviction of such tenant, or results in the eviction of the tenant in actual possession, then such transfer shall not be deemed to be validated [unless such tenant has failed to apply for the possession of the land under sub-section (1) of section 29 within two years from the date of his eviction from the land.] These words, brackets and figures were added by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 14(1).On payment of such penalty, the Mamlatdar shall issue a certificate to the transferee that such transfer is not invalid.(3)[Where the transferee fails to pay the penalty referred to in sub-section (1) within such period as may be prescribed, the transfer shall be declared by the Mamlatdar to be invalid and thereupon the provisions of sub-section (3) to (5) of section 84C shall apply:] [This sub-section was added, by Bombay 15 of 1957, section 14 (2).][Provided that where the transfer was made in favour of the tenant nothing in this sub-section shall apply to such transfer, if the tenant pays the penalty even after the expiry of the period prescribed for such payment but before the end of the 31st March 1966.] [This proviso was added by Gujarat 36 of 1965, section 16 (w.e.f. 01-02-1966).]

84B. Certain transfers made between appointed day and commencement of Amending Act, 1955 invalid.

(1) Where in respect of a transfer or acquisition of any land made on or after the 15th day of June and before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, the Mamlatdar, suo motu or on the application of any person interested in such land, has reason to believe that such transfer or acquisition (a) was in contravention of section 63 or 64 as it stood before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, or (b) is inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act as amended by the Amending Act, 1955, the Mamlatdar shall issue a notice in the prescribed form to the transferor, the transferee or the person acquiring such land, as the case may be, to show cause as to why the transfer or acquisition should not be declared to be invalid and shall hold an inquiry and decide whether the transfer or acquisition is or is not invalid: [Provided that where the transfer or acquisition was in favour of the tenant in possession of the land and the area of the land so transferred together with the area of other land, if any, cultivated personally by the tenant did not exceed the ceiling area, such transfer or acquisition shall not be declared to be invalid if the tenant pays to the State Government a penalty of one rupee within such period not exceeding three months as the Mamlatdar may fix.] [This proviso was substituted by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 25.] (2) If after holding such inquiry the Mamlatdar declares the transfer or acquisition to be invalid, he shall direct that the land shall be restored to the person from whom it was acquired, and that the amount of consideration paid, if any, shall be recovered as an arrear of land revenue from the transferor and paid to the transferee and until the amount is so fully paid, the said amount shall be a charge on the land. (3) [If the person to whom the land is directed to be restored refuses to take possession of the land, the Mamlatdar shall, subject to the provisions of section 63A, dispose of the land by sale in the prescribed manner in the following order of priority:—(i) the tenant in actual possession of the land if he is not the transferee, (ii) the persons or bodies in the order given in the priority list.] (4) The amount of price realised under sub-section (3) shall subject to the payment of any encumbrances subsisting on the land, be paid to the [transfer or] [These sub-sections were inserted by Bombay 38 of 1957 section 28.]. (5) If the transferee refuses to accept the amount paid to him under sub-section (2) [or the transferor refuses to accept the amount paid to him under sub-section (4)] [This portion was substituted for the word, brackets and figures 'or (4)', by Bombay 63 of 1958, section 13(3).] the amount shall be forfeited to the State Government.]

84C. Disposal of land, transfer or acquisition of which is invalid.

(1) Where in respect of the transfer or acquisition of any land made on or after the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, the Mamlatdar suo motu or on the application of any person interested in such land has reason to believe that such transfer or acquisition is or becomes invalid under any of the provisions of the Act, the Mamlatdar shall issue a notice and hold an inquiry as provided for in section 84B and decide whether the transfer or acquisition is or is not valid. (2) If after holding such inquiry, the Mamlatdar comes to a conclusion that the transfer or acquisition of land to be invalid, he shall make an order declaring the transfer or acquisition to be invalid, [unless the parties to such transfer or acquisition give an undertaking in writing a period of three months from such date as the Mamlatdar may fix, they shall restore the land alongwith the rights and interest therein to the position in which it was immediately before the transfer or acquisition, and the land is so restored within that period] [This portion was added by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 26(1) (a).];Provided that, where the transfer of land was made by the landlord to the tenant of the land and the area of the land so transferred together with the area of other land, if any cultivated personally by the tenant did not exceed the ceiling area, the Mamlatdar shall not declare such transfer to be invalid-(i)if the amount received by the landlord as the price of the land is equal to or less than the reasonable price determined under section 63A and the transferee pays to the State Government a penalty equal to Re. 1 within such period not exceeding three months as the Mamlatdar may fix;(ii)if the amount received by the landlord as the price of the land is in excess of the reasonable price determined under section 63A and the transferor as well as the transferee pays to the State Government each a penalty equal to one-tenth of the reasonable price within such period as may be fixed by the Mamlatdar.On the declaration made by the Mamlatdar under sub-section (2),-(a)the land shall be deemed to vest in the State Government, free from all encumbrances lawfully subsisting thereon on the date of such vesting and shall be disposed of in the manner provided in sub-section (4); the encumbrances shall be paid out of the occupancy price in the manner provided in section 32Q for the payment of encumbrances out of the purchase price of the sale of land but the right of the holder of such encumbrances to proceed against the person liable, for the enforcement of his right in any other manner, shall not be affected;(b)the amount which was received by the transferor as the price of the land shall be deemed to have been forfeited to the State Government and it shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue; and(c)the Mamlatdar shall, in accordance with the provisions of section 63A determine the reasonable price of the land.(4)After determining the reasonable price, the Mamlatdar shall grant the land on new and impartible tenure and on payment of occupancy price equal to the reasonable price determined under sub-section (3) in the prescribed manner in the following order of priority:-(i)the tenant in actual possession of the land;(ii)the persons or bodies in the order given in the priority list:[Provided that where the transfer of land was made by the landlord to the tenant of the land and the area of the land so transferred together with the area of the land, if any, cultivated personally by the tenant did not exceed the ceiling area then-] [This proviso was added by Bombay 38 of 1957, section 29.] This proviso was substituted, by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 26 (1) (b).[if the amount] [These words were substituted for the words 'where the amount', by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 26(2)(b)] received by the transferor as the price of the land is equal to or less than the reasonable price, the amount forfeited under forfeited under sub-section (3), shall be returned to the transferor and the land restored to the transferee on payment of a penalty of rupee one in each case; and(ii)[if the amount] [These words were substituted for the words 'where the amount', by Gujarat 16 of 1960, section 26(2)(b).] received by the transferor as the price of the land is in excess of the reasonable price, the Mamlatdar shall grant the land to the transferee on new and impartible tenure and on payment of occupancy price equal to one-tenth of the reasonable price and out of the amount forfeited under sub-section (3), the transferor shall be paid back an amount equal to nine-tenths of the reasonable price.](5)The amount of the occupancy price realised under sub-section (4) shall, subject to the payment as aforesaid of any encumbrances subsisting on the land, be credited to the State Government:Provided that where the acquisition of any excess land was on account of a gift or bequest, the amount of the occupancy price realised under sub-section (4) in respect of such land shall, subject to the payment of any encumbrances subsisting thereon, be paid to the donee or legatee in whose possession the land had passed on account of such acquisition.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section "new and impartible tenure" means the tenure of occupancy which is non-transferable and non-partible without the previous sanction of the Collector.]

84CC. [Dispossession of land in certain circumstances to be ineffective.
[Section 84CC was inserted by Gujarat 5 of 1973, section 20.]

(1)Where any person who had surrendered his tenancy in respect of any land or part thereof at any time after 31st March 1957 but before 5th December, 1972, the date of the publication in the Official Gazette of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Gujarat Amendment) Bill, 1972 (L.A. Bill No. 43 of 1972) (hereinafter referred to as the latter date) and had continued to remain in actual possession, with or without the consent of the landlord, of such land or, as the case may be, part thereof till the latter date had been dispossessed of such land or part thereof by the landlord at any time during the period between the latter date and the specified date, and the Mamlatdar suo motu or on the application of the person so dispossessed or of any other person interested in such land or part thereof has reason to believe that such dispossession was effected in anticipation in order to defeat the object of section 32FF, the Mamlatdar shall issue a notice in the prescribed form to the landlord to show cause as to why such dispossession should not be declared to have been effected in anticipation in order to defeat the object of section 32FF.(2)If after hearing the landlord and holding such inquiry as the Mamlatdar thinks fit, the Mamlatdar declares that the dispossession was effected in anticipation in order to defeat the object of section 32FF, he shall direct that the land or, as the case may be, part thereof, shall be restored to the person who has been dispossessed.(3)If the person to whom the land, or, as the case may be, part thereof, if directed to be restored refuses to take possession thereof, the land shall be deemed to vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances lawfully subsisting thereon on the date of such vesting and shall be disposed of in the manner provided in sub-section (4) of section 84C.(4)If the person to whom the land, or as the case may be, part thereof, is directed to be restored takes possession thereof, such person shall be deemed to have continued to remain in actual possession thereof during the period of dispossession as if he had not been dispossessed of such land, or, as the case may be, part thereof.]
