Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1972(Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1972)Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1972 (Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1972). - The need for the constitution of a Labour Welfare Fund to promote the welfare of employees and their dependents has been felt for a long time.2. The Committee of Labour Welfare set up by the Government of India has recommended the constitution of Labour Welfare Funds in all States. The National Commission on Labour has also supported the constitution of statutory Labour Welfare Funds. The Government have decided to constitute a Labour Welfare Fund for this State. The fund will consist of the contributions from employers, employees and the State Government, etc. It is also proposed to establish a Board for the administration of the Labour Welfare Fund.3. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above objects.4. The provisions of the Bill are explained in detail in the notes on clauses.Published in Part IV-Section 3, pages 26-27 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, Extraordinary, dated the 2nd February 1972.Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Tamil Nadu Act 13 of 1994). - Section 40 of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1972 (Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1972) empowers the Government to exempt, by notification, any establishment or class of establishments from all or any of the provisions of the Act. It has been decided that provision should also be made in the said Act to empower the Government to exempt any establishment or class of establishments from the provision of the rules made under the Act as well.2. Further, it is proposed by the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board which is constituted under section 4 of the said Act to give retrospective effect to the service regulations of the employees of the Board from the date on which the Board has actually started functioning. Sub-section (1) of section 42 of the said Act empowers the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board to make regulations by notification, not inconsistent with the Act, and the rules made thereunder for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act. The said section does not empower the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board to make regulations with retrospective effect. It has been decided to amend sub-section (1) of section 42 of the said Act to empower the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board to make regulations under the said section 42, retrospectively, also.3. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decisions.Published in Part IV-Section 1, page 181 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 31st December 1993.Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment Act), 1995. - Under sub-section (1) of section 15 of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1972 (Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1972), every employee shall contribute two rupees per year to the Fund and every employer shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute four rupees per year to the Fund and the Government shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute two rupees per year to the Fund.² The Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board resolved to enhance the rate of contribution of workers from Rs. 2 to Rs. 3 and of the employers from Rs. 4 to Rs. 6 and also requested the Government to enhance the contribution to Rs. 3 per worker per annum. The Government have accepted the proposal. The question of enhancement of the said rates is likely to arise now and then and the said Act, will have to be amended every time. Instead of amending the Act frequently, the Government have decided to make provisions in the said Act to the effect that every employee shall contribute to the Fund at the rate prescribed by the Government, from time to time, which shall not exceed rupees ten and the employer shall contribute to the Fund at the rate prescribed by the Government which shall not exceed rupees twenty in respect of each such employee and that the Government shall also in respect of each of such employee, contribute to the Fund at the rate prescribed which shall not exceed rupees ten. Accordingly, the Government have decided to amend the said section 15(1) of the said Act suitably.³ The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision. Published in Part IV-Section 1, page 199 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 3rd November 1995. Received the assent of the President on the 2nd December 1972 and first published in Part IV-Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 6th December 1972. 4. Establishment of Board.

(1)With effect from such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint in this behalf, there shall be established a Board by the name "Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board".(2)The Board shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall, by the said name, sue and be sued.

5. Constitution of the Board.

- The Board shall consist of a Chairman who shall be the Minister-in-charge of Labour and of the following members appointed by the Government, namely:-(a)such number of representatives of employers and employees as may be prescribed: Provided that both employers and employees shall have equal representation of the Board; (b) such number of members of the State Legislature as may be prescribed; and (c) such number of officials and non-officials as may be prescribed.

6. Appointment of the Chairman and the members to be notified.

- The appointment of the Chairman and the members shall be notified in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.

7. Term of office of the members.

- The term of office of the members of the Board other than the official members shall be three years from the date of their appointment and they shall be eligible for re-appointment. They shall continue as such members until the appointment of the successors: Provided that a Member of the State Legislature shall cease to be a member of the Board from the date on which he ceases to be a member of the State Legislature.

8. Disqualifications and removal.

(1) No person shall be chosen as, or continue to be, a member of the Board, if he—(a) is an officer or servant under the Board; or (b) is an undischarged insolvent; or (c) is of unsound mind; or (d) has been convicted by a Criminal Court for an offence involving moral turpitude, unless such conviction has been set aside; or (e) is in arrears of any sum due to the Board. (2) The Government may remove from office any member who—(a) is or has become subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (1); or (b) is absent without leave of the Board more than three consecutive meetings of the Board.

9. Resignation of office by member and filling up of casual vacancies.

(1) Any representative of employer or employee or Member of the State Legislature, or non-official member may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing to the Government, and on such resignation being accepted, shall be deemed to have vacated his office. (2) A casual vacancy in the office of a member may be filled up as soon as may be and a member so appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term.

10. Power appoint committees.

- For the purpose of advising the Board in the discharge of its functions and in particular for carrying into effect any of the matters specified in sub-section (2) of section 17, the Board may constitute one or more committees consisting of at least one member of the Board and equal number of representative of employees and employers.

11. Acts of the Board or committee not to be invalidated by informality, vacancy, etc..

- No act done or proceeding taken under this Act by the Board or any committee shall be invalidated merely on the ground-(a)of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the Board or the committee; or(b)of any defect or irregularity in the appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or(c)of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding not affecting the merits of the case.

12. Functions of the Board.

- The functions of the Board shall be the administration of the Fund and such other functions as may be assigned by or under this Act.

13. Unpaid accumulations and claims thereto.

(1)All unpaid accumulations shall be deemed to be a abandoned property.(2)Any unpaid accumulation paid to the Board in accordance with the provisions of sections 3 shall, on such payment, discharge an employer of his liability to make payment to an employee in respect thereof, but to the extent only of the amount paid to the Board, and the liability to make payment to the employee to the extent aforesaid shall, subject to the succeeding provisions of this section, be deemed to be transferred to the Board.(3)[As soon as possible after the payment of any unpaid accumulation is made to the Board, the Board shall-(a)exhibit on the notice board of the establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned; and(b)publish in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, and in such other manner as may be prescribed, a notice inviting claims by employees, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns for any payment due to them. Sub-section (3) was substituted by section 4(i) of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982.)(4)If any question arises whether the notice referred to in sub-section (3) was given as required by that sub-section, a certificate of the Board that it was so given, shall be conclusive.(5)[If a claim is received whether in response to the notice or otherwise, within a period of six months from the date of the publication of the notice in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette in respect of such claim] [Substituted for the 'If a claim is received whether in response to the notices or otherwise, within a period of four years from the date of first publication of the notice in respect of such claim' by section 4(ii) of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).], the Board shall transfer such claim to the Authority appointed under section 15 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936), having jurisdiction over the area in which the establishment is situate, and that Authority shall proceed to adjudicate upon and decide such claim. In hearing such claim such Authority shall have the powers conferred by that Act and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable), specified therein.(6)If the Authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulation in relation to which the claim is made shall cause to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the Authority decides are properly due, to the employee; and the Board shall make payment accordingly:Provided that the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the Board as unpaid accumulations, in respect of the claim.(7)If a claim for payment is refused, the employee or his heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as the case may be, may, within sixty days from the date of receipt of the order of the Authority, prefer an appeal in the City of [Chennai] [Substituted for the word 'Madras' by the City of Madras (Alteration of Name) Act, 1996 (Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 1996).] to the [Chennai] [Substituted for the word 'Madras' by the City of Madras (Alteration of Name) Act, 1996 (Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 1996).] City Civil Court, and elsewhere to the District Court.(8)The decision of the Authority, subject to appeal aforesaid, and the decision in appeal of the [Chennai] [Substituted for the word 'Madras' by the City of Madras (Alteration of Name) Act, 1996 (Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 1996).] City Civil Court, or as the case may be, the District Court, shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount, if any.(9)If no claim is received within the period specified in sub-section (5), or a claim has been refused by the Authority, or on appeal by the [Chennai] [Substituted for the word 'Madras' by the City of Madras (Alteration of Name) Act, 1996 (Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 1996).] City Civil Court or the District Court, then, the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall, thereafter be deemed to have been transferred to, and form part of, the Fund.

14. Interest on unpaid accumulations or fines after notice of demand.

(1)If an employer does not pay to the Board any amount of unpaid accumulations, or fines realised from the employees, within the time specified by or under this Act, the Secretary may serve or cause to be served a notice on such employer to pay the amount within the period specified therein which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice.(2)If the employer fails, without sufficient cause, to pay any such amount within the period specified in the notice, he shall, in addition to that amount, pay by way of penalty to the Board simple interest-(a)for the first three months at one per cent of the said amount for each complete month or part thereof after the last date by which he should have paid it according to the notice; and(b)for each complete month or part thereof thereafter at one and a half per cent of that amount during the time he continues to make default in the payment of that amount:Provided that, the Secretary may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the penalty in respect of any period.

15. [Contribution to the Fund by employee and employer. [Substituted by Tamil the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982) and again substituted by the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1995 (Tamil Nadu Act 44 of 1995).]

(1)Every employee shall contribute a sum not exceeding ten rupees, per year, as may be prescribed, from time to time, to the Fund and every employer shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute a sum not exceeding twenty rupees, per year, as may be prescribed, from time to time, to the Fund and the Government shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute a sum not exceeding ten rupees, per year, as may be prescribed, from time to time, to the Fund.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the employer shall be entitled to recover from the employees the employee's contribution by deduction from his wages in such manner as may be prescribed and such deduction shall be deemed to be a deduction authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936) [or the Tamil Nadu Shops and Establishment Act, 1947 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXVI of 1947)] [Substituted by the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).]].

16. Grants and advances by the Government.

17. Vesting and application of Fund.

(1)The Fund shall vest in, and be held applied by the Board as trustees subject to the provisions, and for the purposes, of this Act. The moneys therein shall be utilised by the Board to defray the cost of carrying out measures which may be specified by the Government, from time to time, to promote the welfare of employees and of their dependents.(2)Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the moneys in the Fund may be utilized by the Board to defray expenditure on the following, namely:-(a)community and social education centres;(b)vocational training;(c)community necessities;(d)entertainment and other forms of recreation;(e)convalescent homes for tuberculosis patients;(f)holiday homes in health resorts;(g)part-time employment for housewives of employees;(h)pre-schools;(i)nutritious food to children of employees;(j)employment opportunities to the disabled employees [or the widows of the deceased employees] [Added by section 6(7) of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).];(k)cost of administering this Act including the salaries and allowances of the staff appointed for the purposes of this Act; and(l)such other objects as would, in the opinion of the Board, improve the standard of living [and education] [Inserted by section 6(ii) of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).] and ameliorate the social conditions of labour:Provided that the Fund shall not be utilised in financing any measure which the employer is required under any law for the time being in force to carry out:Provided further that unpaid accumulations and fines shall be expended by the Board under this Act, notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936) or any other law or agreement for the time being in force.(3)The Board may, with the approval of the Government, make grants from the Fund to any local authority or any other body in aid of any activity for the welfare of employee.(4)If any question arises whether any particular expenditure is or is not deb-itable to the Fund, the matter shall be referred to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.(5)The Board may accept the transfer of any Labour Welfare Fund-of any establishment and may continue any activity financed from such Labour Welfare Fund if the said Fund is duly transferred to the Board.

18. Power of Board to borrow.

- The Board may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Government and subject to the provisions of this Act and to such conditions as may be prescribed in this behalf, borrow any sum required for the purposes of this Act.

19. Deposit of Fund and placing of accounts and audit report before the State Legislature.

(1)All moneys and receipts forming part of the Fund shall be deposited in the Reserve Bank of India constituted under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (Central Act II of 1934), or in the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955 (Central Act 23 of 1955) or any corresponding new Bank as defined in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertaking) Act, 1970 (Central Act 5 of 1970) [or in the State Cooperative Bank or in any Central Co-operative Bank as defined in section 73-A of the [Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act, 1961 (Tamil Nadu Act 53 of 1961)] [Inserted by section 7 of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).] or in any corporation owned or controlled by any State Government or the Central Government] and such account shall be operated upon by such officers of the Board as may be authorised by the Board and in such manner, as may be prescribed.(2)The accounts of the Board, as certified by the auditor, together with the audit report thereon, shall be forwarded yearly to the Government and the Government may issue such instructions to the Board in respect thereof as they deem fit and the Board shall comply with such instructions.(3)The Government shall-(a)cause the accounts of the Board together with the audit report thereon forwarded to them under sub-section (2) to be laid yearly before the State Legislature;(b)cause the accounts of the Board to be published in the prescribed manner and make available copies thereof on sale at a reasonable price.

20. Power of Government to give directions to be Board.

- The Government may give the Board such directions as, in their opinion, are necessary or expedient in connection with expenditure from the Fund or for carrying out the purposes of the Act and it shall be the duty of the Board to comply with such directions.

21. Appointment and powers of Secretary.

(1)The Board may, with the previous approval of the Government, appoint a Secretary who shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Board.(2)It shall be the duty of the Secretary to ensure that the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder are duly carried out and, for this purpose, he shall have the powers to issue such orders not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder as he deems fit including any order implementing the decisions taken by the Board under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

22. Inspectors.

(1)An Inspector of Factories appointed under sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Factories Act, 1948 (Central Act LXIII of 1948) shall be an Inspector for the proposes of this Act in respect of all factories within the local limits assigned to him.(2)The Government may, by notification, appoint such other persons as they think fit to be Inspectors for the purposes of this Act, and may define the local limits within which and the class of establishment in respect of which they shall exercise their function.(3)Subject to any rules made in this behalf, an Inspector shall have power to do all or any of the following matters within the local limits for which he is appointed-(a)to make such examination and hold such inquiry as may be necessary for ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act have been and are being complied with;(b)require the production of any prescribed register and any other document in possession of the employer in connection with the sums payable to the Fund;(c)to enter, at all reasonable times, any premises with such assistance as he may think fit;(d)to exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.

23. Allotment of certain officers and staff to the Board.

(1)As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Government may, after consulting the Board, direct, by general or special order, that such of the officers and other servants serving immediately before the notified date in connection with the affairs of the State as are specified in such order shall be allotted to serve in connection with the affairs of the Board with effect on and from such date as may be specified in such order:Provided that no such direction shall be issued in respect of such officer or other servant without his consent for such allotment:Provided further that the conditions of service applicable immediately before the notified date to any such person shall not be varied to his disadvantage except with the previous approval of the Government.(2)With effect on and from the notified date, the officers and other servants specified in such order shall become employees of the Board and shall cease to be officers or servants of the Government.Explanation. - In this section, "notified date" means such date as is notified by the Government.

24. Transfer of Provident Fund to the Board.

(1)The moneys standing to the credit under the Provident Fund Account of any officer or servant allotted from the service of the Government to the Board's service on the date specified in the order under sub-section (1) of section 23 shall stand transferred to, and vest in, the Board with effect on and from such date.(2)The Board shall, as soon as may be, after such date constitute in respect of the moneys and other assets which are transferred to, and vested in, it under sub-section (1), a similar fund and may invest the accumulations under the fund in such securities and subject to such conditions, as may be specified by the Board with the approval of the Government.

25. Government to credit the leave salary and pensionary contributions in respect of the officers and servants allotted to Board's service.

- The Government shall credit to the account of the Board to leave salary and pensionary contributions in respect of the officers and servants allotted to the service of the Board in proportion to the leave at the credit of such officers and servants or in proportion to the length of their service under the Government, as the case may be, according to the terms and conditions as are applicable to them under the Government on the date specified in the order under sub-section (1) of section 23.

26. Appointment of clerical and other staff by Board.

- The Board may, subject to the provisions of section 23, appoint such other officers and servants as it considers necessary for the efficient performance of its functions: Provided that the expenses of the staff so appointed and other administrative expenses shall not exceed such percentage of the annual income of the Fund as may be prescribed.

27. Powers of Government to call for records.

- The Government or any officer authorised by the Government may call for the records of the Board, inspect the same and may supervise the working of the Board.

28. Mode of recovery of sums payable to Board.

- Any sum payable to the Board or into the Fund under this Act shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable on behalf of the Board as an arrear of land revenue.

29. Penalty for obstructing inspection or for failure to produce documents, etc.

- Any person who wilfully obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of his powers or discharge of his duties under this Act or fails to produce for inspection on demand by an Inspector any register, record or the documents maintained in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or to supply to him on demand true copies of any such documents shall, on conviction, be punished-(a) for the first offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both; and (b) for a second or subsequent offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both: Provided that, in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgement of the Court, in any case where the offender is sentenced to fine only, the amount of fine shall not be less than fifty rupees.

30. Cognizance of offences.
