1. Short title and Commencement.

(1)These regulations may be called the R.L.D.C., Regulations, 1978.

2. Definitions.

(1)In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:(a)'Act' means the R.L.D.C., Act, 1975;(b)'Section' means a Section of the Act;(c)'Corporation' means the Rajasthan Land Development Corporation.(2)Words and expressions not defined in these Regulation shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Act.Chapter-II Shares of the Corporation

3. Control over shares.

- Subject to the provisions of the Act and these regulations, the shares of the Corporation shall be under the control of the Board. Each share shall be distinguished by its appropriate number.

4. First allotment of shares.

- First allotment of shares shall be made by the Board of Directors as directed by the State Government. The subsequent shares will also be allotted as per directions of the State/Central Government by the Board.

5. Share Register.

- The Corporation may maintain at its Head Office a register of share holders and shall enter therein the following particulars:- (a) the name of each share holder and statement of the share held by him, distinguishing each share by its number; (b) the postal address of each holder; (c) the date on which each share holder is entered as a shareholder, the manner in which he acquired his shares and the date on which he ceases to be a share-holder.

6. Inspection of share register.

- Except when closed under the provision of these regulations the share register shall be open to the inspection of the share holders, free of charge, at the Head Office of the Corporation during business hours, subject to such reasonable restrictions as the Corporation may impose.

7. Closing of share register.

- The Board may, by giving notice to the share holders, close the share register for such period (not exceeding 6 weeks in all during any year) as shall, in its opinion, be necessary.

8. Issue of share certificates free of charge.

- The share holders shall be entitled free of charge to one certificate for all the shares registered in their names at each allotment.

9. Share certificates.

- Each share certificate shall be issued under the common seal of the Corporation. The share certificate shall be signed by at least two directors, one of them will be the Chairman and the other, the Managing Director of the Corporation.

10. Renewal of share certificates.

- (i) If any share certificate is worn out or defaced or tendered for sub-division, then upon production thereof to the head office of the Corporation it may order the same to be cancelled and have a new certificate or certificates issued in lieu thereof. (ii) If any share certificate is alleged to be lost or destroyed then upon production of such evidence of the loss or destruction thereof as the Managing Director may consider satisfactory and upon such indemnity with or without security as the Managing Director may require, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificates.

11. Transfer of shares.

- The shares of the Corporation shall not be transferable except as between the State Government and the Central Government.

12. Execution of transfer.

- The instrument of transfer of any share in the Corporation shall be executed both by the transferor and the transferee in the form prescribed in that behalf and the transferor shall be deemed to remain holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of share holders in respect thereof.

13. Instrument of transfer to be left at the Office.

- Every instrument of transfer in the prescribed form shall be delivered to the Corporation within a period of one month from the date of execution for registration in the share register of the Corporation, accompanied by the certificates of the share to be transferred. Chapter-III Meetings of the Board, Executive Committee and other Committees

14. Meeting of the Board.

(1) A meeting of the Board shall be held at least once during each quarter and shall be convened by the Managing Director. (2) Any three Directors may require the Managing Director to convene meeting of the Board at any time and the Managing Director, shall on receipt of the requisition, convene a meeting of the Board giving sufficient notice, provided that the date of the meeting so convened shall not be later than 21 days from the date of the receipt of the requisition. (3) In the event of there being a vacancy in the office of the Managing Director, the references in Sub-Regulations (1) and (2) of Regulation 14 to the Managing Director shall be construed as references to the Chairman of the Board. (4) Meetings of the Board shall be held at the place where the Head Office of the Corporation is situated or at such other place as the Chairman may decide. (5) Ordinarily not less than 15 clear (excluding the date of issuing of meeting notice and meeting day) days notice shall be given of each meeting of the Board and such notice shall be sent to every Director at his registered address. Should it be found necessary to convene an emergency meeting, a notice shall be sent to every Director at the address registered with the Corporation sufficiently in advance to enable him to attend. (6) No business other than for which the meeting was convened shall be discussed at a meeting of the Board except with the consent of the Chairman and a majority of the Directors present unless one clear week's notice has been given of the same in writing to the Chairman.
