Reserved Forest

4. Power to constitute reserved forest.

- The State Government may constitute any land at the disposal of the Government a reserved forest in the manner hereinafter provided.

5. Notification by State Government of proposal to constitute a reserved forest.

(1)Whenever it is proposed to constitute any land a reserved forest, the State Government shall publish a notification in the official Gazette-(a)specifying as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of such land ;(b)declaring that it is proposed to constitute such land a reserved forest; and(c)appointing an officer (hereinafter called the Forest Settlement Officer), to enquire into and determine the existence, nature and extent of any rights claimed by, or alleged to exist in favour of, any person in or over any land comprised within such limits, and any claims relating to the practice with such limits, of jhum cultivation, and to deal with the same as provided in this Chapter.(2)The Forest Settlement Officer shall ordinarily be a person other than a Forest Officer, but a Forest Officer may be appointed by the State Government to assist the Forest Settlement Officer in the inquiry prescribed in this Chapter.

6. Proclamation by Forest Settlement Officer.

- when a notification has been published under Section 5, the Forest Settlement Officer shall publish in the language of the country, at the headquarters of each district and sub-division in which any portion of the land comprised in such notification is situate, and in every town and village in the neighbourhood of such land, a proclamation-(a)specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of the proposed forest;(b)setting forth the substance of the provisions of the next following section;(c)explaining the consequence which, as hereinafter provided, will ensue on the reservation of such forest; and(d)fixing a period of not less than three months from the date of the publication of such proclamation and requiring every person claiming any right or making any claim referred to or mentioned in Section 5 either to present to such officer within such period a written notice specifying or to appear before him within such period and state the nature of such right or claim.

7. Bar of accrual of forest rights after proclamation.

(1)During the interval between the publication of such proclamation and the date fixed by the notification declaring the forest to be reserved as hereinafter provided, no right shall be acquired in or over the land comprised in such notification, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into, by or on behalf of, the Government or some person in whom such right or power to create such right was vested when the proclamation was published; and on such land no new house shall be built or plantation formed, no fresh clearings for cultivation or for any other purpose of trade or manufacture except as hereinafter provided.(2)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the Forest Settlement Officer, or any clearings lawfully made for jhum cultivation by persons in the habit of practising such cultivation on such land.

8. Inquiry by Forest Settlement Officer.

(1)The Forest Settlement Officer shall take down in writing all statements made under S.6, and shall inquire into all claims made under the section and the existence of any right or practice mentioned in Section 5 in respect of which no claim is made.(2)The Forest Settlement Officer shall at the time consider and record any objection which the Forest Officer, if any, appointed under Section 5 to assist him, may make to any such claim or with respect to the existence of any such right or practice.

9. Powers of Forest Settlement Officer.

- For the purposes of such inquiry the Settlement Officer may exercise-(a)power to enter, by himself or any officer authorised by him for the purpose, upon any land, and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same ; and(b)the powers of a Civil Court in the trial of suits.

10. Treatment of claims relating to practice of jhum cultivation.

(1)In the case of a claim relating to the practice of jhum-cultivation, the Forest Settlement Officer shall record a statement setting forth the particulars of the claim and of any local rule or order under which the practice is allowed or regulated, and submit the statement to the State Government together with his opinion as to whether the practice should be permitted or prohibited wholly or in part.(2)On receipt of the statement and opinion, the State Government may make an order permitting or prohibiting the practice wholly or in part.(3)If such practice is permitted wholly or in part, the Forest Settlement Officer may arrange for its exercise-(a)by altering the limits of the land under settlement so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality' reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimants, or(b)by causing certain portions of the land under settlement to be separately demarcated and giving permission to the claimants to practice jhum cultivation therein under such conditions as he may prescribe.All arrangements made under this sub-section shall be subject to the previous sanction of the State Government.(4)The Practice of jhum cultivation shall in all cases be deemed to be a privilege subject to control, restriction and abolition by the State Government and not to be right.

11. Power to acquire land over which right is claimed.

(1)In the case of claim to a right in or over any land other the following rights, namely :(a)a right-of-way,(b)a right to water-course or to use of water,(c)a right of pasture or to forest-produce,the Forest Settlement Officer shall pass an order specifying in the particulars of such claim and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.(2)If such claim is admitted wholly or in part, the Forest Settlement Officer may-(x)come to an agreement with the claimant for surrender of the right, or(y)exclude the land from the limits of proposed forest, or(z)proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.(3)For the purpose of acquiring such land-(i)the Forest Settlement Officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870 ;(ii)the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under Section 9 of that Act;(iii)the provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with ; and(iv)the Collector, with the consent of the claimant, may award compensation in land, or in money, or partly in land and partly in money. J

12. Order on claim to right-of way, water-course or pasture, or to forest produce.

(1)In the case of a claim to a right of a kind specified in Cl. (a), Cl. (b) or Clause (c) of Section 11, sub-section (1) the Forest Settlement Officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.(2)When a claim to any such right is admitted, if the right is for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building the Forest Settlement Officer shall record the designation, position and area of such land or the designation and position of such building.(3)Where the right is a right to forest-produce, the Forest Settlement Officer shall record whether the forest produce obtained by the exercise of such right may be leased, sold or bartered, and such other particulars as may be necessary in order to define the existence, nature, incidents.and extent of the right.

13. Provisions for right of pasture or to forest produce admitted.

(1)When the Forest Settlement Officer has admitted wholly or in part and recorded under the last foregoing section a claim to a right of pasture or to forest produce,he shall, as far as possible, provide for the exercise of such right-(a)by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent of a suitable kind and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purpose of the claimant; or(b)by recording an order containing of the claimant a right of pasture or to forest produce, as the case may be, subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the State Government.(2)An order passed under Cl. (b) of sub-section (1) shall record, as far as practicable-(i)where the right is a right of pasture, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is, from time to time, entitled to graze, and the local limits within which, and the seasons during which such pasture is permitted ; and(ii)where the right is a right to forest produce, the quantity of such produce which the claimant is authorised to take or receive, and the local limits within which, the seasons during which, and the mode in which, the taking or receiving of such produce is permitted ; and(iii)whether the right is a right of pasture, or to forest produce, such other particulars as may be required in order to define the extent of the right which is contained, the mode in which it may be exercised and the extent to which the benefit thereof may be leased, sold or bartered.

14. Commutation of such rights.

- Whenever any right of pasture or to forest produce admitted under Section 12 is not provided for in one of the ways prescribed in Section 13, the Forest Settlement Officer shall, subject to such rules as the Stale Government may prescribe in this behalf, commute such right by paying a sum of money in lieu thereof, or with the consent of the claimant, by the erant of land or in such manner as such officer thinks fit.

15. Appeal from order passed under foregoing sections.

- Any person who has made a claim under this Chapter (or any Forest Officer or other person generally or specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf) may, within three months from the date of any order passed on such claim by the Forest Settlement Officer under Section 11, 12, 13 or 14, present an appeal from such order to such officer of the Revenue Department, of rank not lower than that of a Deputy Commissioner as the State Government may by notification in the official Gazette appoint by name, or as holding an office, to hear appeals from such orders.

16. Appeals under the last foregoing section.

(1)Every appeal under the last foregoing section shall be made by petition in writing and may be delivered to the Forest Settlement Officer, who shall forward it without delay to the officer competent to hear the same.(2)Every such appeal shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in the matters relating to revenue, and except as hereinafter provided, the order passed on the appeal shall be final.

17. Notification declaring forest reserve.

(1)When the following events have occurred, namely:(a)the period fixed under Section 6 for preferring claims has elapsed, and all claims, if any, made within such period has been disposed of by the Forest Settlement Officer ; and(b)if such claims have been made, the period fixed by Section 15 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals, if any, presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer ; and(c)all lands, if any, to be included in the proposed reserved forest which the Forest Settlement Officer has under Section 11, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, have become vested in the Government under Land Acquisition Act, 1870 (10 of 1870);the State Government may publish a notification in the official Gazette, specifying the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve, and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by "such notification.(2)From the date so fixed such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

18. Extinction of rights not claimed.

- Right in respect of which no claim has been preferred under Section 6 and of the existence of which no knowledge has been acquired by inquiry under Section 8 shall thereupon extinguish, unless before the publication of such notification, the person claiming them has satisfied the Forest Settlement Officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under Section 6.

19. Publication of translation of such notification on neighbourhood of forest.

- The Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the forest is situate, shall before the date fixed by such notification cause a translation thereof in the language of the country to be published in the manner prescribed for the proclamation under Section 6.

20. Power to revise arrangement made under Section 13 or 16.

- The State Government may within five years from the publication of any notification under Section 17 revise any arrangement made under Section 13 or 16 and may rescind or modify any order made under this Chapter and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in Section 13 be taken in lieu of the other of such proceedings, or that a right admitted under Section 12 be commuted in the manner mentioned in Section 14.

21. Acquisition of right over reserved forests.

- No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest, except by succession or under grant or contract in writing made by, or with the previous sanction of the State Government or some person on whom such right, or the power to create such right, vested when the notification under Section 17 was published.

22. Alienation of right in reserved forests.

(1)Notwithstanding any thing herein contained no right contained under Section 13 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease, mortgage or otherwise without the previous sanction of the State Government :Provided that, when any such right is continued for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or building without such sanction.(2)The benefit of any right continued under Section 13 shall not be leased, sold or bartered, except to the extent defined by the order recorded under that sanction.

23. Power to stop ways and water courses in reserved forests.

- Any Forest Officer may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the State Government or of a Forest Officer or other officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf, stop any public or private way or water course in a reserved forest:Provided that for the way or water course so stopped another way or water course, which, in the opinion of the State Government equally convenient already exists or has been provided or constructed by the Forest Officer stopping the way or water- course.

35. Penalties.

(1)If any person infringes the provision of Section 33, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which is not less than one year but may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both.(2)The State Government may, by a rule made under Section 34, attach to the breach of any rule under that section any punishment not exceeding that mentioned in sub-section (1).

36. Nothing in this Chapter to prohibit acts done in certain cases.

- Nothing in this Chapter, or in any rule under this Chapter, shall be deemed to prohibit any act done in the exercise of any right or with the permission in writing of a Forest Officer specially empowered to grant such permission.

Chapter IV

A Of The Control over Forests and Waste land not being The Property of Government

36A. Protection of forests for special purposes.

(1)The State Government may by notification in the official Gazette, regulate or prohibit in any forest or waste land-(a)the breaking up or clearing of land ;(b)the pasturing of cattle ; or(c)the firing or clearing of the vegetation ;when such regulation or prohibition appears necessary in the public interest for any of the following purposes :(i)for protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods and avalanches;(ii)for the preservation of the soil on the ridges and slopes and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of landslips or of the formation of ravines and torrents, deposit thereon of sand, stones or gravel;(iii)for the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers and tanks ;(iv)for the protection of public roads, public bridges, railways and other lines of communication;(v)for the preservation of the public health.(2)The State Government may, for any such purpose construct at its own expense, in or upon any forest or waste land, such work as it thinks fit.(3)No notification shall be made under sub-section (1) nor shall any work be begun under sub-section (2), until after the issue of a notice to the owner of such forest or land calling on such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed, as the case may be, and until his objections, if any and any evidence he may produce in support of the same, have been heard by an officer not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner duly appointed in that behalf.(4)All objections filed under the preceding sub-section, together with the proceedings of the Special Officer relating thereto shall be referred to the State Government for orders. On receipt of such reference, and after hearing such further cause as the objector may have to show, the State Government shall pass such orders as it thinks fit.In any case in which an order under sub-section (1) or action under sub-section (2) is, in the opinion of the State Government, likely to disturb substantially the owner's right in the land to which such order to action relates, the State Government may award to such owner such compensation as it may deem equitable :Provided that any compensation so paid shall be deducted from the amount payable to the owner under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, in the event of action being taken under the provisions of Section 36-C.

36B. Power to assume management of forest.

(1)In case of neglect of, or wilful disobedience to, any regulation or prohibition under Section 36-A, or if the purposes of any work to be constructed under that section so required, the State Government may, after notice in writing to the owner of such forest or land after considering his objections, if any, place the same under the control and management of a Forest Officer and may declare that all or any of the provisions of this Regulation shall apply to such forest or land.(2)The net profits, if any, arising from the management of such forest or land shall be paid to the same owner.

36C. Expropriation of forests in certain cases.

(1)In any case under this Chapter in which the State Government considers that in lieu of placing the forest or land under the control and management of a Forest Officer the same should be acquired for public purposes, the State Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.(2)The owner of any forest or land comprised in any notification under Section 36-A, or if there be more than one owner thereof, the owners of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof, may, at any time not less than three or more than twelve years from the date thereof, require that such forest or land shall be acquired for public purposes and the State Government shall acquire such forest or land accordingly.

36D. Protection of forests at the request of owners.

- The owner of any land or if there be more than one owners thereof, the owners of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof may, with a view to the formation or conservation of forests thereon, represent in writing to the Deputy Commissioner their desire-(a)that such land be managed on their behalf by the Forest Officer on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon ; or(b)that all or any of the provisions of this Regulation be applied to such land.(2)In either case, the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, apply to such land such provisions of this Regulation as it thinks suitable to the circumstances thereof and as may be desired by the applicants.

Chapter V

Duty on Imported Forest Produce

37. Power to impose duty on forest produce.

(1)The Central Government may levy a duty in such manner, at such places and at such rates as it may prescribe by notification in the official Gazette, on all forest produce which is brought into the territories to which this Regulation extends from any place beyond those territories.(2)In every case in which such duty directed to levied ad valorem, the Central Government may, by like notification, determine the manner in which the value is to be ascertained.(3)Until provision to the contrary' is made by the Parliament the State Government may continue to levy on forest produce brought into the territories to which this Regulation extends from any place in the State beyond those territories any duty which it was levying immediately before the commencement of the Constitution :Provided that nothing in this sub-section authorises the levy of any duty which as between forest produce of the State and similar produce of a locality outside the State discriminates in favour of the farmer, or which, in the case of forest produce of localities outside the State discriminates between forest produce of one locality and similar forest produce of another locality.

38. Power to exempt forest produce from duty.

- The Central, or as the case may be, the State Government may exempt any forest produce from the duty to which it is liable under the last foregoing section, and revoke such exemption.

39. Provisions of Chapter not to limit purchase money or royalty.

- Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount, if any, chargeable as purchase money or royalty in respect of any forest produce.

Chapter VI

Control of Forest Produce in Transit

40. Power to make rules to regulate transit of forest produce.

(1)The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber, as well as the control of all forest produce in transit by land or water, is vested in the State Government, and the Government may make rules to regulate the transit of any forest produce.(2)Such rules may, among other matters-(a)prescribe the routes by which alone forest produce may be imported into, exported from or moved within the territories to which this Regulation extends ;(b)prohibit the import, export, collection or moving of forest produce without a pass from an officer authorised to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass ;(c)provide for the issue, production and return of such passes ;(d)fix, or authorise any Forest Officer, subject to control of the State Government, to fix the fees payable for such passes ;(e)in the case of timber formed into a raft or fastened to the shore, prohibit the loosening of the setting a drift of such timber by any person not the owner thereof or not acting on behalf of such owner of the Government;(f)provide for the stoppage, reporting examination and making of forest produce in transit in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to the Government or which is desirable for the purposes of this Regulation, to affix a mark ;(g)establish revenue-stations to which forest produce is to be taken by the persons in charge of it for examination, or for the realisation of such money, or in order that such mark may be affixed to it, and prescribe, or authorise, a Forest Officer, subject to such control as aforesaid, to prescribe the conditions under which forest produce is to be brought to, stored at and removed from such revenue-station ;(h)provide for the management and control of such revenue stations, and for regulating the appointment and duties of persons employed thereat ;(i)authorise the transport of timber across any land, and provide for the award and payment of compensation for any damage done by the transport of such timber ;(j)prohibit the closing up or obstruction of the channel or banks or any river used for the transit of forest produce and the throwing of grass, brushwood branches or leaves into any such river, or any other act which tends to cause the obstruction of such channel;(k)provide for the prevention and removal of any obstruction in the channel or on the banks of any such river and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person causing such obstruction ;(l)prohibit absolutely or subject to conditions and rules, within specified local limits, the establishment of saw mills, saw pits, veneer mills, plywood factories and any kind of forest based industries for the purpose of conversion, manufacturing, peeling, slicing, cutting, burning, concealing, marking or supermaking the timber, altering or effecting any of the marks on the same and possession or carrying of marking hammers or other implements, used for making timber ; and(m)regulate the use of property-marks for timber and the registration of such marks, authorise the refusal of cancellation of the registration of any property-marks, prescribe the time for which the registration of property-marks hold good, limit the number of such marks which may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.(3)The State Government may direct that any rule made under this section may not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest produce or to any specified local area.

40A. Powers of Central Government as to movement of timber across customs frontiers.

- Notwithstanding anything in Section 40, the Central Government may make rules to prescribe the route by which alone timber or other forest produce may be imported, exported, or moved into or from (Assam) across any customs frontier as defined by the Central Government, and any rules made under Section 40 shall have effect subject to the rules made under this section.

41. Penalties for breach of rules under last foregoing section.

(1)The State Government may, by a rule under the last foregoing section, attach to the breach of any rule under that section any punishment not exceeding imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or both.(2)In case where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise or after preparation for resistance to the execution of any law or any legal process or where the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence, the convicting court may inflict double the penalty prescribed for such offences.

42. All persons bound to aid in case of accident at revenue station.

- In case of any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at a revenue-station established under a rule made under Section 40, every person employed at such revenue station, whether by the Government or by any private person, shall render assistance to any Forest Officer or Police Officer demanding his aid in averting such danger and securing such property from damage or loss.

Chapter VII

Collection of Drift Stranded and other Timber

43. Certain kinds of timber to be deemed to be the property of the State Government until title thereto proved.

(1) Timber falling under any of the following description, namely: (a) timber found a drift, breached, stranded or sunk, (b) timber bearing marks which have not been registered under rules made under Section 40, (c) timber which has been supermarked, or on which marks have been obliterated, altered or defaced by fire or otherwise, and (d) in such area as the State Government directs, all unmarked timber, shall be deemed to be the property of the State Government unless and until any person establishes his right thereto as provided in this Chapter. (2) Such timber may be collected by a Forest Officer or other person entitled to collect the same, and may be brought to such stations as Forest Officer specially empowered in this behalf may, from time to time, notify as stations for the reception of drift timber. (3) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section and withdraw such exemption.

44. Notice to claimants of timber of those kinds.

(1) Public notice shall, from time to time as occasion may require, be given by a Forest Officer specially empowered in this behalf of timber collected under the last foregoing section. (2) Such notice shall contain a description of the timber and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer, within a period of not less than one month from the date on which such notice is given, a written statement of such claim.

45. Procedure on claim preferred to such timber.

(1) When any such statement is presented as aforesaid, the Forest Officer may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after recording his reasons for so doing or deliver the timber to the claimant. (2) If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the Forest Officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons whom he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Court and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from such Court for its disposal. (3) Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, within three months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him, but no person shall recover any compensation against the Government or against any Forest Officer on account of such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber or the delivery thereof to any person under this section.(4)No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil Court until it has been delivered, or a suit brought under this section has been decided.

46. Disposal of unclaimed timber.

- When no statement is presented in the manner and within the period prescribed by notice issued under Section 44 or, where such statement having been so presented and the claim rejected, the claimant omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber, it shall vest in the State Government free from all incumbrances, or when such timber has been delivered to another person under Section 45, in such other person free from all incumbrances not created by him.

47. Payment to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.

- No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected or delivered as aforesaid until such sum as may be due for salving, collecting, moving, storing and disposing of the timber has been paid by him to the Forest Officer or other person entitled to receive the sum.

48. Power to make rules and prescribe penalties.

(1)The State Government may make rules to regulate the following matters, namely :(a)the salving, collection and disposal of all timber mentioned in Section 43;(b)the use and registration of boats used in salving and collecting timber;(c)the amount to be paid for salving, collecting, moving, storing and disposing of such timber; and(d)the use and registration of hammers and other implements to be used for making such timber.(2)The State Government may, by a rule made under this section, attach to the breach of any rule under this section any punishment not exceeding imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or both.

Chapter VIII

Penalties and Procedure

49. Seizure of property liable to confiscation.

(1)When there is reason to believe that a forest offence has been committed in respect of any forest produce, such produce together with all tools, boats, motorised boats, vessels, cattle, carts, rafts, machineries, vehicles, trucks, ropes, chains or any other implements, articles or materials used in the commission of such offence may be seized by any Forest Officer not below the rank of a Forester or any Police Officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector of Police.(2)Every Officer, seizing any property under sub-section (1), shall place on such property or the receptacle, if any, in which it is contained, a mark indicating that the same has been so seized and shall, as soon as may be, either produce the property seized before an officer not below the rank of Assistant Conservator of Forests authorised by the State Government in this behalf by the notification in the official Gazette (hereinafter referred to as the 'Authorised Officer') or where it is, having regard to the quantity or the bulk or any other genuine difficulty, not practicable to produce the property seized before the Authorised Officer, or where it is intended to launch prosecution against the offender, immediately make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence of account of which the seizure has been made :Provided that where the forest produce within respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of the Government and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the Officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superiors.(3)Any Forest Officer or Police Officer may, if he has reason to believe that a vehicle has been or is being used for the transport of any forest produce in respect of which any forest offence has been committed, require the driver or any other person or persons in-charge of such vehicle to stop the vehicle and cause it to remain stationary as long as may reasonably be necessary to examine the contents in the vehicle and inspect all records relating to the goods carried, which are in possession of such driver or other person in charge of the vehicle.(4)Subject to the provisions of sub-Sections (5) and (6), where the authorised Officer upon production before him of the property seized or upon receipt of a report about seizure as the case may be, and after such personal inspection or verification as he may deem fit and necessary, is satisfied that a forest offence has been committed in respect thereof, he may, by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein, confiscate the forest produce so seized together with all tools, vehicles, cattle, trucks, motorised boats, carts, machineries, rafts, vessels, ropes, chains or any other implements or articles used in committing such offence. A copy of the order of confiscation shall, without any undue delay, be forwarded to the Circle Conservator of Forests of the Circle in which the forest produce has been seized and the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made.(5)No order confiscating any property shall be made under the preceding provisions unless the authorised officer-(a)sends an intimation in the prescribed form about the initiation of the proceeding for confiscation of property to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made;(b)issue a notice in writing to the person from whom the property is seized, and to any other person who may appear to the authorised officer to have some interest in such property and in cases of motorised boats, vessels, vehicles, trucks, etc., having a registered number to the registered owner thereof;(c)affords to the persons referred to in Clause (b) above a reasonable opportunity of making a representation within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice, against the proposed confiscation; and(d)gives to the officer effecting the seizure and the person or persons referred to in Clause (b) or (c) above, a reasonable opportunity of being heard on a date or dates to be fixed for the purpose.(6)Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions, no order of confiscation under sub-section (4) of any tools, boats, motorised boats, vessels, cattle, carts, rafts, machineries, vehicles, trucks, ropes, chains, or any other implements, articles (other than timber or forest produce) shall be made if any person referred to in Cl. (b) of sub-section (5) proves to the satisfaction of tire authorised officer that such tools, vehicles, machineries, trucks, vessels, boats, motorised boats, rafts, carts, cattle ropes, chain or any other implements, or articles were used without his knowledge or connivance or abetment, or as the case may be, without his knowledge or connivance or abetment of his servant or agent and that all reasonable and due precautions had been taken against the use of the object aforesaid for the commission of forest offence.

49A. Power to release property seized under Section 49.

- Any Forest Officer not below the rank of a Forest Ranger, whose subordinate has seized any tools, vehicles, trucks, vessels, rafts, machineries, boats, motorised boats, cattle, ropes chains Or any other implements, articles, etc. under Section 49, may release the same on the execution by the owner or the person-in-charge thereof of a bond for the production of the property so released if and when so required before the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence or before any authorised officer whenever required for the purpose as mentioned under Section 49 to proceed ahead with the offence on account of which the seizure has been made: Provided that whenever such release is made the officer releasing the property shall immediately make a report to the authorised officer describing the circumstances and the reasons for the release of the property to the claimant or the owner or the person in charge of the property.

49B. Review.

- Any Forest Officer not below the rank of a Conservator of Forests, specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf by notification in the official Gazette may, suo motu or on application by the aggrieved person, call for and examine any record or any order under Section 49 (4) and may make such enquiry or cause such enquiry to be made and may pass such order as he deems fit: Provided that no order under this section shall be made if in the meantime an appeal has been preferred under Section 49-C : Provided further that no order prejudicial to any person shall be passed without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

49C. Appeals.

- Any person aggrieved by an order under Section 49 (4) or Section 49-B may, within thirty days from the date of communication to him of such order, prefer an appeal to the District Judge having jurisdiction over the area in which the property has been seized and the District Judge, shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the parties, pass such order either varying, confirming, modifying, annulling or setting aside the order appealed against and the order of the Court so passed shall be final. Explanation. - The time required for obtaining the certified copy of the order of confiscation or the order passed under Section 49-B shall be excluded while computing the period of thirty days referred to in this section.

50. Procedure on receipt by Magistrate of report of seizure.

- Upon the receipt of any such report, the Magistrate shall take such measures as may be necessary for the trial of the accused and the disposal of the property according to law : Provided that before passing any order for disposal of property, the Magistrate shall satisfy himself that no intimation under sub-section (5) of Section 49 has been received by his Court or by any other Court having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure of the property has been made.

51. Forest produce, tools, etc. when liable to confiscation.

(1)When any person is convicted of a forest offence all forest produce which is not the property of the Government and in respect of which such offence has been committed, and all tools, boats, carts and cattle used in the commission of such offence, shall be liable, by order of the convicting court, to confiscation.(2)Such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence.

52. Disposal on conclusion of trial for forest-offence of produce in respect of which it was committed.

- When the trial of any forest offence is concluded, any forest produce in respect of which such offence has been committed shall, if it is the property of Government or has been confiscated, be taken possession of by a Forest Officer specially empowered in this behalf, in any other case, shall be disposed of in such a manner as the Court may order.

53. Procedure when offender is not known or cannot be found.

(1)When the offender is not known or cannot be found, the Magistrate inquiring into the offence, if he finds that an offence has been committed, may, on application in this behalf, order the property in respect of which the offence has been committed to be confiscated and taken possession of by a Forest Officer specially empowered in this behalf, or to be made over to such Forest Officer or other person as the Magistrate may consider entitled to the same :Provided that no such order shall be made till the expiration one month from the date of the seizure of such property, or without hearing the person, if any, claiming any right thereto and the evidence, if any, which may produce in support of his claim.(2)The Magistrate shall either cause a notice of any application under sub-section (1) to be served upon any person whom he has reason to believe to be interested in the property seized, or publish such notice in any way which he may think fit.

54. Procedure as to perishable property seized under Section 49.

- TheMagistrate may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, direct the sale of any property seized under Section 49 and subject to speedy and natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he might have dealt with such property if it had not been sold.

55. Appeal from orders under Sections 51, 52 and 53.

- Any person claiming to be interested in property seized under Section 49 may, within one month from the date of any order passed by a Magistrate under Section 51, Section 52 or Section 53, present an appeal therefrom to the Court to which orders made by such Magistrate are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

56. Vesting of confiscated property in State Government.

- When an order for the confiscation of any property has been passed under Section 51 or Section 53, and the period limited by Section 55 for presenting an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal has been presented, or when on such an appeal being presented, the Appellate Court confirms such order in respect of the whole or portion of such property, as the case may be, shall vest in the State Government free from all incumbrances.

57. Saving of power to release properties seized.

- Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to prevent any Forest Officer or other officer empowered in this behalf by the State Government from directing, at any time, the immediate release of any property seized under Section 49, which is not the property of the Government and the withdrawal of any charge made in respect of such property.

58. Punishment for wrongful seizure.

(1) Any Forest Officer or Police Officer who vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Regulation, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both. (2) Any fine so imposed, or any portion thereof shall, if the convicting Court so directs, be given as compensation to the person aggrieved by such seizure.

59. Penalty for counterfeiting or defacing marks on tress and timber and for altering boundary marks.

- Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code-(a) knowingly counterfeits upon any tree or timber a mark used by Forest Officers to indicate that such tree or timber is the property of the Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be felled or removed by some person, or (b) unlawfully affixes to any tree or timber a mark used by Forest Officers, or (c) alters, defaces or obliterates any such mark placed on any tree or timber, by or under the authority of a Forest Officer, or (d) alters, moves, destroys or defaces any boundary marks of any forest or waste land to which any provisions of this Regulation apply, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which is not less than three years, and may extend to seven years or with fine which is not less than five thousand rupees or with both.
