[See Statute 19(1)]The Terms and Conditions of Service of the Employees

1. Permanent Employees. - (1) Every appointment shall be subject to the condition that the appointee is certified as being in sound health and physically fit for the service, by a medical authority nominated by the Board : Provided that the Board may for sufficient reasons relax the medical requirements in any particular case or cases or dispense with such medical examination in any case or class of cases subject to such conditions, if any, as may be laid down by the Board.

(2)The age of superannuation of the employees shall be regulated and prescribed in accordance of the orders of the Government of India in this behalf from time to time and as adopted by the Board.(3)Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, all the appointments to permanent positions under the Institute shall ordinarily be made on probation for a period of one year after which period, the appointee, if confirmed, shall continue to hold office subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, till the end of the month in which attains the age of superannuation, as may be prescribed from time to time.(4)The appointing authority shall have the power to extend the period of probation of any appointee for such periods as may be found necessary but not exceeding two years, provided that if, after the extended period of probation, the appointee is neither confirmed nor his services terminated, he shall be deemed to have continued on temporary basis, and then his services may then be terminated on a month's notice or on a payment of a month's salary thereof.(5)The Appointing Authority shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff without notice and without any cause assigned during the period of probation.(6)Where the Board considers that in the interests of students and for the purposes of teaching and guiding the research scholars, any member of the academic staff should be re-employed after superannuation, it may re-employ such a member till the end of the semester or academic session as considered appropriate in the circumstances of each case. Provided that in no circumstances such member shall be re-employed for any purposes other than those of teaching and research.(7)Where it becomes necessary to re-employ any such member beyond the end of the academic session, the Board may, with the previous approval of the Visitor, re-employ any such member for a period upto three years in the first instance and up to two years thereafter and in no case exceeding the end of the academic session in which attains the age of 70 years. Provided that in no circumstances such member shall be re-employed for any purposes other than those of teaching and research.(8)A permanent employee of the Institute may resign or retire from services by giving to the Appointing Authority three months notice provided that the appointing authority may for sufficient reasons either reduce this period or call upon the employee concerned to continue till the end of the academic year or semester in which the notice is received. Retirement or other benefits shall be in accordance with the provisions of Government of India as applicable from time to time.

2. Temporary Employees. - (1) The service of a temporary employee shall be liable to termination at any time by notice in writing given either by the employee to the Appointing Authority or by the Appointing Authority to the employee. The period of such notice shall be one month, unless otherwise agreed to by the Institute and the employee.

(2)The other terms and conditions of service of such employees shall be such as may be specified by the Appointing Authority in the letter of appointment

3. Appointments on Contracts. - (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these schedule, the Board may in special circumstances, appoint an eminent person on contract for period not exceeding 5 years, with a provision of renewal for further period, provided that every such appointment and terms thereof subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

(2)Subject to the provisions contained in the Act, the Board may appoint any person on contract in the specified Scales of Pay and on terms and conditions applicable to the relevant post for a period not exceeding five years with a provision of renewal for further period. For making such appointments, the Chairman of the Board may, at his or her discretion, constitute such ad hoc Selection Committees as deemed fit and proper.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in these schedule, the Council may appoint an eminent person as the Director on contract for a period not exceeding five years, with a provision for renewal for further periods, provided that every such appointment and terms thereof shall be subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

(ii) No employee shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use influence in connection with or take part in any election to legislative body or local authority: Provided that an employee of the Institute qualified to vote at such election may exercise right to vote but where so does, shall give no indication of the manner in which proposes to vote or has voted.

6. Connection with Media. - (1) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, own wholly or in part, or conduct or participate in the editing or managing of any newspaper or other periodical publications.

(2) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority or any other authority empowered by it in this behalf, or in the bona fide discharge of duties, participate in any media activity or contribute any article or write any letter either anonymously or in own name or in the name of any other person to any newspaper or periodical : Provided that no such sanction shall be required if such media participation or when such contribution is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character. Note: - Subject to the restrictions noted below, members of the staff are at liberty, without any sanction as contemplated above, to publish their original scientific, literary or artistic works.

7. Criticism of the Institute. - No employee shall, in any media activity or in any document published anonymously or in own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the media or in any public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion-

(i) which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of the Institute; or (ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Institute and of the Central Government or any State Government or any other institute or organisation or members of the public. Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall apply to any statements made or views expressed by an employee in official capacity or in the due performance of the duties assigned.

8. Evidence before Committee or any other Authority. - (1) Save as provided in sub-paragraph (3) below, no employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, give evidence in connection with any inquiry conducted by any person, committee or authority.

(2) Where any sanction has been accorded under sub-paragraph (1), no employee giving such evidence shall criticise the policy or any action of the Institute or the Central Government or any State Government. (3) Nothing in this paragraph shall apply to—(a) evidence given at any inquiry before any authority appointed by the Institute, by Parliament or by a State Legislature; or (b) evidence given in any judicial inquiry; or (c) evidence given in any departmental inquiry ordered by the Institute authorities.

9. Unauthorised Communication of Information. - No employee shall except in accordance with any general or special order of the competent authority or in the performance in good faith of the duties assigned, communicate, directly or indirectly, any official document or information to any person.

10. Gifts. - No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, accept or permit spouse or any other member of family to accept from any person other than relations any gift of more than trifling value. The interpretation of the term trifling value shall be the same as laid down in Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules 1964 as amended from time to time.

11. Private Trade or Employment. - No employee shall, except with the previous permission of the competent authority, engage directly or indirectly in any trade or business or any private tuition or undertake any employment outside official assignments. Provided that the above restrictions shall not apply to academic and other related activities mentioned in clause 3 undertaken with the prior permission of the competent authority which may be given subject to guidelines framed by the Board.

12. Vindication of Acts and Character of Employees. - No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, have recourse to any Court of law or to the press for the vindication of any official act which has been the subject matter of adverse criticism or an attack of defamatory character: Provided nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit an employee from vindicating private character or any act done in private capacity.

13. Marriage. - No employee who has wife living shall contract another marriage without first obtaining the permission of the Board of Governors notwithstanding that a subsequent marriage is permissible under the personal and religious law for the time being applicable.

14. Representations. - (a) Whenever an employee wishes to put forth any claim, or seeks redressal of any grievance or of any wrong done, must forward case through proper channel, and shall not forward any advance copies of request or application to any higher authority, unless the lower authority has rejected the claim, or refused relief, or the disposal of the matter is delayed by more than three months.

(b) No employee shall be signatory to any joint representation addressed to the authorities for redress of any grievance or for any other matter.

15. Punishment, Appeals, etc. - An employee shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant rules regarding imposition of penalties for breach of any of these rules and preference of appeals against any such action taken.

16. Disciplinary action. - Suspension: The Director may place a member of the staff appointed at the Institute under suspension:

(a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him contemplated or is pending; or (b) where a case in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial.

17. During the period of suspension, the member of the staff shall be entitled to the payments as per the rules in Government of India in this regard.

18. Disciplinary proceedings. - All disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted following the Rules and Orders of the Government of India.

19. Penalties. - The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons and as hereinafter provided, be imposed on any member of the staff:

(i) Censure; (ii) Withholding of increment(s) or promotion; (iii) Recovery from the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute by negligence or breach of orders; (iv) Reduction to lower service, grade or post or to a lower time-scale, or to a lower stage in a time-scale; (v) Compulsory retirement; (vi) Removal from service which shall not be a disqualification for future employment under the Institute; (vii) Dismissal from service which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment under the Institute.

20. Imposition of penalty. - (a) An order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at paragraph 19 (i) to (iii) above shall be passed by the Appointing Authority after the member of the staff concerned has been given an opportunity to make a representation to the Appointing Authority.

(b) An order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at paragraph 19 (iv) to (vii) above shall be passed by the appointing authority after an enquiry has been held and the member of the staff has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken.

21. Notwithstanding the above provisions, it shall not be necessary to follow the procedure mentioned above in the following cases. - (a) where an employee is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his or her conviction on a criminal charge;

(b) where the appointing authority is satisfied that for some reason to be recorded by that authority in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give to that person an opportunity of showing cause; or (c) where the Visitor is satisfied that in the interests of the security of the State, it is not expedient to give to that person such an opportunity.

22. Appeal. - A member of the staff aggrieved by any order imposing penalty passed by the Director shall be entitled to prefer an Appeal to the Board against the order. A member of the staff aggrieved by any order passed by the Board against him inflicting a penalty on him shall be entitled to prefer an Appeal to the Visitor against the order.

23. Time limit for filing appeal. - No such appeal shall be entertained unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which appellant receives a copy of the order appealed against:

Provided that the Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant has sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

24. The authority with whom an appeal against an order imposing penalty lies may, of its own motion or otherwise call for the records of the case in a disciplinary proceeding, review any order passed in such a case and pass such orders as it deems fit as if the member of the staff concerned had preferred an appeal against such order :

Provided that no action shall be initiated more than six months after the date of the order to be reviewed.

25. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, the Visitor may, on own motion or otherwise after calling for the records of the case, review any order which is made under this Statute or is appealable thereunder, and-

(a)confirm, modify or set aside the order,(b)impose any penalty or set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty imposed by the order,(c)remit the case to the authority which made the order or to any other authority directing such further action or enquiry as considered proper in the circumstances of the case, or(d)pass such other order(s) as deemed fit.Provided that:(i)an order imposing or enhancing a penalty shall not be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of making any representation against such enhanced penalty;(ii)If the Visitor proposes to impose any of the penalties specified in clause (iv) to (vii) of paragraph 19 in a case where proper enquiry has not been held and thereafter on consideration of the proceedings of such enquiry and after giving the member of the staff concerned an opportunity of making against such penalty, may pass such order(s) as may be deemed fit.

26. The decision of the Appellate Authority under paragraph 22 or 24 shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 25, be final.

(1)When a member of the staff of the Institute who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, the appointing authority or the appellate authority that directed reinstatement shall consider and make a specific order -(a)regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the member of the staff of the Institute for the period of absence from duty; and(b)whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.(i)Where such authority holds that the member of the staff of the Institute has been fully exonerated or in the case of suspension, that it was wholly unjustified, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be entitled to full pay and allowances to which he or she would have been entitled had he or she not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be, and the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes :(ii)Provided that in case an employee had been placed under suspension due to pendency of disciplinary proceedings and has been imposed any of the penalties specified in clause (i) to (iii) of paragraph 19, the entire period of suspension shall be treated as wholly unjustified and shall be entitled to full pay and allowances and the entire period of suspension shall be treated as duty for all purposes.(iii)In other cases, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be given such proportion of such pay and allowances as the authority may prescribe : Provided that the payment of allowances under clause (i) or clause (ii) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.In cases falling under clause (iii), the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as a period spent on duty unless such competent authority specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose.

28. Interpretation. - The decision of the Board on all questions relating to the interpretation of these provisions of the schedule shall be final.

29. Wherever the Conduct Rules are silent, the relevant Government of India Rules shall be followed.

[Statute 20 (1)]Benefits and Facilities for the Employees of the Institutes

1. New Pension Scheme (NPS). - (1) All the eligible employees shall be under the New Pension Scheme (NPS) of the Central Government introduced throughout the country with effect from the 1st January, 2004 for its employees.

(2)The details of the Scheme shall be as notified by the Central Government from time to time.(3)In case Central Government decides to introduce any other scheme of retirement or death benefits that provides for pension, family pension, retirement or death gratuity, and other benefits, the benefits of liberal provisions may be extended to the employees of the Institute.

2. Insurance Facility. - The employees of the Institute shall be covered under such Insurance Policy as the Board may decide from time to time.

3. Medical Facility. - The Board has to lay down its own norms for medical benefits.

4. Leave Travel Concession (LTC). - The employees of the Institute shall be extended such Leave Travel Concessions as the Central Government may decide for its employees from time to time.

5. Vacation and Leave. - The Board may frame Rules relating to the Vacation and Leave in respect of the employees of the Institute. In case norms notified by Government of India are more liberal, the benefits of liberal provisions may be extended to the employees of the Institute.

6. Travelling and Daily Allowances. - The employees when they undertake travel for official purposes shall be eligible to the travelling and daily allowances as may be decided by the Board.

7. Residential Accommodation. - (1) Subject to availability, an employee of the Institute, eligible for residential accommodation in the campus may be allotted house or apartment for residential use subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the Board.

(2) The allotments of accommodation shall be in accordance with the Rules that the Board may frame from time to time. (3) (a) An employee of the Institute who has been allotted house or apartment, shall be charged license fee at the rate approved by the Board including such other charges as may be decided by it from time to time. (b) In addition to the license fee, charges for water, electricity and any other service rendered shall be recovered from the employee at such rates as may be determined by the Board from time to time. (4) The Board may allot furnished or unfurnished accommodation without levying any license fee or levying such fee at concessional rates to any category of staff, if it considers it necessary to do so in the interest of the Institute. Explanation: - For the purpose of this Statute, the expression "allot" means to grant a license to an employee of the Institute to occupy a house or a portion thereof, owned or leased by the Institute, for use as residence.

E

[See Statute 20 (2)] Leave Provisions

1. Applicability. - The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to all employees of the Institute.

2. Definitions. - In this Schedule unless the context otherwise require -

(a) 'Commuted Leave' means leave as provided under paragraph 18. (b) 'Completed years of service' means continuous service of the specified duration under the Institute and includes periods spent on duty as well as on deputation and extraordinary leave. (c) 'Earned leave' means leave earned in respect of periods spent on duty. (d) 'Half-pay Leave' means earned in respect of completed years of service calculated according to the provisions hereinafter contained. (e) 'Leave' includes earned leave, half-pay leave, commuted leave, leave not due and extraordinary leave. (f) 'Sabbatical Leave' means leave granted to any member of the Teaching Staff or Faculty members referred to in Clause (a) of Statute 16 for any of the objects mentioned in paragraph 27.

3. Right of Leave. - Leave cannot be claimed as of right and when the exigencies so demand, leave of any description may be refused or revoked by the authority empowered to sanction the leave.

4. Authority empowered to sanction leave. - (1) Applications for leave shall be addressed to the Board by the Director and to the Director or to a member of the staff designated by the Director by the other members of the staff.

(2) Leave may be sanctioned by the Director or by a member of the staff to whom the power has been delegated by the Director. (3) The Board may sanction leave to the Director, but the Director can avail himself of casual leave on his own authority.

5. Commencement and termination of leave. - (1) Leave ordinarily begins from the date on which leave as such is actually availed of and ends on the day preceding the one on which duty is resumed.

(2) Saturdays, Sundays and other holidays or the vacation may be prefixed as well as suffixed to leave subject to any limit of absence on leave prescribed under each category of leave.

6. Combination of leave. - Except as otherwise provided in this Schedule, any kind of leave under these provisions may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave, subject to any limit on the aggregated period of absence, as may be prescribed in such cases.

7. Grant of leave beyond the date of retirement and in the event of resignation. - (1) No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which a member of the staff must compulsorily retire.

Provided that the authority empowered to grant leave may allow any member of the staff who had been denied earned leave in whole or in part on account of exigencies of service, the whole or any portion of the earned leave so denied even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which such member of the staff must compulsorily retire : Provided further that a member of the staff whose service has been extended in the interest of public service beyond the date of his compulsory retirement, may be granted earned leave as under:- a. During the period of extension any earned leave due in respect of the period of such extension, and to the extent necessary, the earned leave which would have been granted to him under the preceding proviso had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement ; b. After the expiry of the period of extension : i. The earned leave which could have been granted to him under the preceding proviso, had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement, diminished by the amount of such leave as availed of during the period of extension; and ii. Any leave earned during the period of extension as has been formally applied for as preparatory to final cessation of his duties in sufficient time during the period of extension and refused to him on account of exigencies of public service; c. In determination the amount of earned leave due, during the period of extension, the earned leave, if any, admissible under the preceding proviso shall be taken into account. Note: For the purpose of this paragraph, a member of the staff may be deemed to have been denied leave only if a sufficient time before the date on which he must compulsorily retire or the date on which his duties finally cease he has either formally applied for leave and been refused it on the ground of exigencies of service or has ascertained in writing from the sanctioning authority that leave if applied for would not be granted on the aforesaid ground. (2) If any employee of the Institute resigns, he shall not be granted either prior or subsequent to his resignation, any leave due to his credit. Provided that the Director, may, in any case, grant leave to an employee prior to his resignation if in the opinion of the Director, the circumstances of the case justify such grant of leave.

8. Conversion of one kind of leave into another leave. - (1) At the request of a member of the staff the sanctioning authority may convert any kind of leave including extra ordinary leave, retrospectively into a leave of different kind which may be admissible as on the day on which the member of staff proceeded on leave, but the member of the staff cannot claim such conversion as a matter of right.

(2) If one kind of leave is converted into another the amount of leave salary and allowances admissible shall be recalculated and the arrears of leave salary and allowances paid or amounts overdrawn recovered, as the case may be.

9. Rejoining of duty on return from leave on medical grounds. - A member of the staff who has been granted leave on medical certificate shall be required to produce a medical certificate of fitness before resuming duty.

10. Rejoining of duty before the expiry of leave. - Except with the permission of the authority which granted the leave, no member of the staff on leave may return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him.

11. Absence after expiry of leave. - (1) Unless the authority competent to grant leave extends the leave, a member of staff who remains absent after the end of leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of such absence and that period shall be debited against his leave account as though it were half pay leave, to the extent such leave is due, the period in excess of such leave due being treated as extraordinary leave.

(2) Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave renders a member of staff liable to disciplinary action.

12. General. - (1) Leave should always be applied for and sanctioned before it is taken except in cases of emergency and for satisfactory reasons.

(2) Continuous temporary service followed by permanent service without any break shall be included in permanent service for the purpose of computation of leave.

13. Kinds of leave. - The following kinds of leave shall be admissible to members of the staff:

14. Casual Leave. - (1) Casual Leave is not earned by duty. A member of the staff on casual leave is not treated as absent from duty and his pay is not intermitted. Casual leave cannot be claimed as of right and its grant is always subject to the exigencies of service and subject to a maximum of eight in the aggregate in a Calendar year.

(2)Casual Leave may be granted at the discretion of the sanctioning authority, as and when occasion arises, provided that the total period of absence including Saturdays, Sundays and other holidays intervening, prefixed or suffixed shall not ordinarily exceed eight days at a time. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, whether intervening, prefixed or suffixed shall not be counted as casual leave.(3)Casual leave cannot be combined with any other kind of leave.

15. Special Casual Leave. - (1) Special Casual leave, not counting towards ordinary Casual Leave, may be granted to a member of the staff when he is a. Summoned to serve as Juror or Assessor or to give evidence before a court of law as a witness in a civil or a criminal case in which his private interests are not at issue;b. deputed to attend a reference Library of other Institute or Conferences and scientific gatherings of learned and professional societies in the interest of the Institution;c. required to be absent for any other purposes approved by the Board of Governors for categories of staff.(2)The period of such leave admissible in a year shall ordinarily not exceed fifteen days but should, however, be sufficient to cover the period of absence necessary. The conditions under which such leave will be granted, if necessary, be laid down by the Board.

16. Special Leave. - Members of the staff deputed for practical training in or out of country shall be entitled to special leave as may be determined by the Board in each case :

Provided that Sabbatical Leave shall be admissible to a Teaching Staff or Faculty Member -(i)After completion of six years' continuous service or more with the Institute,(ii)Where he avails of special leave, after the completion of six years' service or more with the Institute after his return from such special leave; but in any case such leave shall not exceed three times (inclusive of special leave in case such leave has been granted) during the entire service of such member.

17. Half-Pay Leave. - (1) The half-pay leave admissible to a member of the staff in respect of each completed year of service shall be 20 days and credited in advance at the rate of 10 days on 1st January and 10 days on 1st July.

The credit for the half-year in which an employee is appointed will be at the rate of 5/3 days for each completed calendar month of service he is likely to render in the half- year in which he is appointed.(2)Half-pay leave may be granted to a member of the staff on medical certificate or on private affairs. No half-pay leave may be granted to a member of the staff in temporary appointment except on medical certificate:Provided that in case of a temporary member of staff, no half-pay leave will be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave is ready to believe that the staff will return to duty on the expiry of the leave, except in the case of a staff who has been declared completely and permanently incapacitated for further service by medical authorities.

18. Commuted Leave. - (1) Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of the half-pay leave may be granted on medical certificate to a member of the staff subject to the following conditions.

a. When commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half-pay leave account.b. The total duration of earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed 240 days provided that no commuted leave maybe granted under this provision unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the staff will return to duty on its expiry.(2)Half-pay leave up to a maximum of 180 days may be allowed to be commuted during the entire service where such leave is utilised for an approved course of study such as a course which is certified to be in public interest by the leave sanctioning authority.

19. Earned Leave. - (1) Earned leave admissible to members of vacation staff:

a. During the period of one academic year, the period of vacation for an employee entitled to it will be 60 days.b. In case such a member of staff is required to remain on duty during the whole or any part of the vacation he shall be eligible to the following amount of earned leave on full pay :

Duration of dutyduring Vacation	Eligibility to Earned Leave on Full Pay
Entire Vacation	30 days
Part of Vacation	Number of days of vacation not availed of 30 x----- -----Number of days of the entire vacation

(2)Earned Leave admissible to members of the non-vacation staffa. The earned leave admissible to a member of the staff, other than vacation staff, shall be 30 days in a Calendar year.b. Leave account of every said employee shall be credited with earned leave in advance in two instalments of 15 days each on the first January and first July every year.c. The leave at the credit of an employee at the close of the previous half year shall be carried forward to the next half year, subject to the condition that the leave so carried forward plus the credit for the half-year do not exceed the maximum limit as laid down government from time to time.(3)Limits of accumulation and grant (applicable to all members of the staff)a. Earned leave can be accumulated up to days as specified by Government of India from time to time.b. The maximum amount of earned leave that can be granted to a member of the staff at a time shall be 180 days. Earned leave may be granted for a period exceeding 180 days if the entire leave so granted or any portion thereof is spent outside India, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Burma, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan, provided that when earned leave exceeding 180 days is so granted the period of such leave spent within India, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Burma, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan, shall not in the aggregate exceed 180 days.c. Accumulated earned leave may be availed at a time up to number of days as prescribed by Government of India from time to time in the case of leave preparatory to retirement.

20. Extraordinary Leave. - (1) Extraordinary leave shall always be without leave salary and may be granted when no other kind of leave is admissible or when other leave being admissible, the member of staff concerned specifically applied in writing for the grant of extraordinary leave.

(2)The period of extra-ordinary leave shall not count for increment except when such leave is granted due to sickness on medical certificate or for pursuing higher studies, provided that in case of any doubt whether the extraordinary leave taken was for pursuing higher studies or not, the decision of the Board shall be final.(3)(a)Except in the of case of a permanent employee, the duration of extra- ordinary leave on any one occasion shall not exceed the following limits :a. three monthsb. six months, in cases of employee who has completed one year's continuous service on the date of expiry of the leave admissible to him under the rules, and his request for such leave is supported by a medical certificate.c. Eighteen months where the employee is suffering from tuberculosis, leprosy or cancer and undergoing treatment in a recognised clinic or under a specialist.(b)Where an employee, other than a permanent employee, fails to resume duty on expiry of the maximum amount of extra-ordinary leave granted to him, or where such an employee who was granted a lesser amount of extra-ordinary leave than the maximum amount admissible to him, remains absent from duty for any period which, together with the period of extraordinary leave granted to him exceeds the limit up to which he could have been granted extra-ordinary leave under sub-rule (a), he shall, unless the Board in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case otherwise determine, be deemed to have resigned his appointment and shall cease to be in institute employ.(4)The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

21. Maternity Leave. - (1) (a) Maternity leave may be granted to a woman member of the staff with less than two surviving children on full pay for a period of 180 days from the date of its commencement.

The bond amount will be decided by the Board.(10)If the course falls short of the study leave, the official should resume duty on conclusion of the course; or the excess period may be treated as ordinary leave with the leave sanctioning authority's prior approval.(11)Leave Salary:a. Outside India: Pay last drawn plus Dearness Allowance, House Rent Allowances, and in addition, Study Allowance admissible;b. In India: Leave salary will be equal to pay last drawn plus Dearness Allowance, House Rent Allowances. No study allowance admissible.c. Stipend, scholarship or remuneration for any part-time employment during the period of study leave should be adjusted against the leave salary subject to the conditions that the leave salary will not be less than that admissible during half pay leave.

29. Child Care Leave (CCL). - Admissible to women employees as per Government of India rules

30. Salary during vacation and leave salary. - (1) An employee of the Institute entitled to vacation shall be eligible for pay and allowances at full rates during the period of vacation.

(2)A member of the staff who proceeds on earned leave shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the pay drawn immediately before proceeding on leave.(3)A member of staff on half pay leave or leave-not-due is entitled to leave salary equal to the half amount specified in sub-paragraph (2).(4)A member of the staff on commuted leave is entitled to leave salary equal to sub-paragraph (2).(5)A member of the staff on extraordinary leave is not entitled to any leave salary.

31. Limit of total Absence. - A member of staff ceases to be in service of the Institute if he is continuously absent from duty for five years, whether with or without leave, unless the Visitor, in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case otherwise determines.

32. Cash payment equivalent of leave salary in case of death in service. - In case an employee dies while he is in service, the cash equivalent of the leave salary that the deceased employee would have got had he gone on admissible earned leave on the date of death, shall be given to his family subject to a maximum of leave salary for 300 days (including the number of days for which encashment has been allowed along with Leave Travel Concession while in service).

33. Cash payment in lieu of unutilized earned leave on the date of retirement. - An employee may be paid cash equivalent of leave salary admissible in respect of the period of earned leave at his credit at the time of retirement on superannuation in one lump sum as a onetime settlement subject to a maximum of 300 days (including the number of days for which encashment has been allowed along with Leave Travel Concession while in service) and further subject to other conditions laid down by the government from time to time.

34. Leave preparatory to retirement. - A Government servant may be permitted by the authority competent to grant leave to take leave preparatory to retirement to the extent of earned leave due, not exceeding 300 days together with half pay leave due, subject to the condition that such leave extends up to and includes the date of retirement.

35. Persons re-employed after retirement. - In the case of a person re-employed after retirement, the provisions of these rules shall apply as if he had entered Institute service for the first time on the date of his re-employment.

36. Power to relax. - Where the Board is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, the Board may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent and subject to such exceptions and conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner:

Provided that no such order shall be made except with the concurrence of the Visitor.

37. Interpretation. - Wherever any conflict or doubt arises as to the interpretation of these Schedule, the Board's decision in such cases shall be considered as final and binding on all concerned.
