Chapter V

Finance, Accounts and Audit.

19. Budget.

(1)The Council shall prepare in such form and at such time each year as may be prescribed a budget estimate in respect of the financial year next following showing the estimated receipts and expenditure, and the copies thereof shall be forwarded to the State Government after its confirmation by the Council at its annual meeting.(2)(a)The State Government shall, within two months of the receipt of the budget estimate, either accord its approval to the same or return it to the Council with such comments and suggestions as it deems necessary, if, in its opinion, such budget estimate -(i)is not reasonably accurate with reference to ascertainable facts or shows a deficit in the closing balance;(ii)includes new items of recurring expenditure which are likely to impose upon the Council in the future financial liabilities which the Council is not likely to be able to meet from its income; or(iii)includes provisions for expenditure which are not in accordance with the provisions of this Act.(b)If the budget estimate is returned under clause (a), the Council shall consider the comments and suggestions made by the State Government and may, if it thinks fit, revise the said budget estimate. The Council shall, then, either resubmit the budget estimate as so revised to the State Government or, if it does not think fit to revise the budget estimate, resubmit it in its original form to the State Government within one month of receiving it together with its replies on the comments and suggestions made by the State Government.(c)If the State Government does not approve of the budget estimate as revised by the Council or if the budget estimate is returned by the Council without revision, the State Government may amend the budget estimate by making -(i)such modification as are, in its opinion, necessary to render the budget estimate reasonably accurate with, reference to ascertainable facts or to balance the receipts and expenditure,(ii)additions, alternations or modifications in any provision relating to new items of expenditure of a recurring nature,(iii)any alteration or modification in any provision for expenditure which, in its opinion, is not in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and shall, then, forward the budget estimate as so amended to the Council.(3)If the State Government does not accord its approval to the budget estimate under clause (a) of sub-section (2) within two months of the receipt thereof, or if the State Government does not communicate its approval of the budget estimate to the Council under clause (c) of sub-section (2) within the 31st March of the financial year immediately preceding the financial year to which the budget estimate relates, the budget estimate as forwarded to the State Government by the Council shall be deemed to have been approved by the State Government and shall be the budget estimate of the Council for the financial year to which it relates.

20. Payment to Council by State Government.

- The State Government may, after considering the budget estimate, the accounts of the Council and such other reports as it may call for, make such annual or periodical grants to the Council as it may think fit. Provided that on the establishment of the Council and before the first budget estimate is forwarded to the State Government, that Government may, after considering such report as it may call for from the Council, make such initial grant to the Council as may be considered necessary.

21. Council Fund.

(1)The Council shall have a Fund to be called the West Bengal State Council of Technical Education Fund to which shall be credited -(a)all sums which may be paid by the State Government under section 19;(b)all fees realised under any of the provisions of this Act;(c)all sums representing income from endowments or from property owned or managed by the Council; and(d)all other sums received by or on behalf of the Council from any other source whatsoever.(2)The Fund shall vest in the Council and shall be under its control and shall be held by it in trust for the purposes of this Act.(3)All moneys payable to the credit of the Fund shall forthwith be paid into the Reserve Bank of India, or the State Bank of India or any branch thereof, or the United Bank of India or any branch thereof, to the credit of the Fund, and all cheques drawn on the Fund shall be signed by the Vice-Chairman or by such other person as he may authorise in writing in this behalf.

22. Application of Fund.

- No expenditure shall be incurred from, the Fund except for the purposes of this Act and unless such expenditure is provided for in the budget estimate as approved under this Act or may be met by reappropriation sanctioned in the prescribed manner.

23. Annual report.

- The Council shall prepare once in every year, in such form and at such time as may be prescribed, an annual report giving a true and full account of its activities during the previous year, and copies thereof shall be forwarded to the State Government.

24. Accounts.

- The Council shall keep an account of all its receipts and expenditure in the manner prescribed,

25. Audit.

(1)The accounts of the Council shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, be examined and audited annually by an auditor or auditors appointed by the State Government.(2)For the purpose of examination and audit under sub-section (1), an auditor appointed under that sub-section may - (a)require in writing the production before him of any document relating to the Council or the assets thereof which he considers to be necessary for the proper conduct of the audit;(b)require in writing the personal appearance before him of any person accountable for, or having the custody or control of, any such document to answer any question relating thereto; and(c)require any person so appearing before him to submit a statement in writing in respect of any such document.(3)It shall be the duty of the Council and of every member thereof, and of the Secretary and the members of the staff in the service of the Council, to afford to the auditor every facility for the examination and audit of the accounts of the Council and to comply with any requisition made by the auditor under sub-section (2) or with the requirement of any rule made in this behalf.(4)Any person who wilfully neglects or refuse to comply with a requisition made under sub-section (2) or with the requirement of any rule made in this behalf shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.(5)No complaint in respect of any offence punishable under sub-section (4) shall be made except with the previous sanction of the State Government.(6)No Magistrate other than a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class.shall try an offence punishable under sub-section (4).

26. Audit report.

(1)Not more than fourteen days after completion of the audit, the auditor shall submit to the State Government a report on the accounts audited, and shall send a copy thereof to the Council which shall forward it to the State Government together with its observations thereon.(2)The State Government may take such action on the audit report as it thinks fit.

Chapter VI Supplementary Provisions.

27. Council to furnish information.

- The Council shall furnish to the Government such reports, returns and statements as may be prescribed, and such further information on any matter relating to the Council as the State Government may require.

28. Power of State Government to suspend proceedings.

- The State Government may, by order in writing, specifying the reasons thereof, suspend the execution of any resolution or order of the Council or any committee constituted under this Act and prohibit the doing of any act which purports to be done or is intended to be done under this Act, if the State Government is of opinion that such resolution, order or act is in excess of the powers conferred by or under this Act upon the Council or the committee, as the case may be.

29. Certain persons to be deemed to be public servants.

- The members of the Council and of every committee constituted under this Act, persons in the service of the Council and any person appointed under this Act to audit the accounts of the Council shall be deemed to be servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

30. Indemnity.

- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

31. Transitory Provision.

(1)The Chairman shall make the first regulations for the purposes of this Act.(2)The first regulations shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of their commencement or until new regulations are made by the Council under the provisions of this Act, whichever is earlier.

32. Power to make rules.

(1)The State Government may, after previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2)In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :-(a)the acquisition, possession and disposal of property by the Council, the conditions of such acquisition, possession and disposal, and performance by the Council of the functions referred to in sub-section (2) of section 3;(b)the composition, powers and functions of Governing Bodies of polytechnics and technical institutions;(c)the method of recruitment, the terms and conditions of service including the scales of pay and the rules of discipline relating to the Secretary of the Council;(d)the rates at which the Council shall pay travelling allowance to the persons referred to in section 13;(e)the Provident Fund referred to in clause (xxi) of sub-section (1) of section 14;(f)the form in which the budget estimate of the Council, as referred to in sub-section (1) of section 18, shall be prepared;(g)the manner in which all payments to and from the Fund shall be made;(h)the manner of reappropriation under section 21;(i)the manner and form in which accounts of receipts and expenditure shall be kept under section 23;(j)the manner in which examination and audit of the accounts of the Council shall be made;(k)the reports, returns and statements to be furnished by the Council under section 26 and the forms of, such reports, returns and statements;(l)any other matter required to be prescribed or to be provided for by rules.

33. Repeal, saving and validation.

(1)The resolution No. 3801-Edn., dated 3rd August, 1949, made by the State Government constituting the Provisional Council for Engineering and Technical Education (hereinafter referred to as the former Council) and all subsequent resolutions reconstituting the former Council are hereby repealed.(2)Upon such repeal, -(a)all properties and assets under the control of the former Council and all rights, liabilities and obligations acquired or by the former Council before the commencement of this Act shall vest in the Council in accordance with such order as the State Government may make in this behalf;(b)all legal proceedings or remedies instituted or enforceable by or against the former Council before the commencement of this Act may be continued or enforced, as the case may be, by or against the Council as established under this Act, or, until the Council is so established, by or against such officer or authority as the State Government may by order specify;(c)all officers and other persons in the employ of the former Council immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, until other provision is made, continue in the service of the Council;(d)all recognised polytechnics and technical institutions, if any, shall be deemed to have been recognised under this Act until the expiration of the period of recognition, subject, however, to the power of the Council to withdraw such recognition in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and (e) all syllabi, courses of studies and text-books in force shall, until other provision is made under this Act, continue to be followed.

34. Council to be guided by directions of State Government.

- The Council shall, in exercising its powers and performing its functions under this Act, be guided by such directions as the State Government may, by notification, give from time to time regarding the scope and content of technical education.

35. Supersession of Council.

(1)If, in the opinion of the State Government, the Council -(a)has persistently made default in the performance of its functions under this Act, or(b)has exceed or abused its powers, the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette and stating the reasons therefor, supersede the Council for such period, not exceeding two years, as may be specified in the order, and take such steps as may be necessary to re-establish the Council immediately on the expiry of the period of supersession.(2)The State Government may, if it considers necessary so to do, by order extend or modify from time to time the period of supersession which shall in no case in aggregate exceed three years.

36. Consequences of supersession.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or, in any other law for the time being in force, with effect from the date of the order of supersession under section 34, -(a)all the members of the Council and the committees constituted under this Act shall vacate their offices;(b)all the powers, duties and functions which, under the provisions of . this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder or of any other law for the time being in force, may be exercised or performed by the Council or any of the committees of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman of the Council, shall be exercised or performed by an Administrator to be appointed by the State Government in this behalf:Provided that an Administrator appointed under this clause may delegate any of his powers, duties or functions to such person as he may think fit or to such body as may be constituted by him;(c)the representatives of the Council on every body, statutory or otherwise, shall vacate their respective offices as such representatives, and the Administrator may nominate such person or persons to represent the Council or that body as he may think fit.(2)The State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, cancel any order made under section 34 and re-establish the Council.(3)On the re-establishment of the Council under sub-section (2), the Administrator shall cease to exercise his powers and perform his duties.(4)The terms and conditions of service of the Administrator shall be such as may be fixed by the State Government by order made in this behalf.

37. Council to continue as body corporate.

- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that an order of supersession made under section 34 shall not effect or imply in any way the dissolution of the Council as a body corporate.

38. Re-establishment of Council.

(1)The State Government shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, specify the date on which the Council is re-established in accordance with the provisions of section 4.(2)The State Government shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, specify the dates by which the authorities (other than the State Government) shall nominate members referred to in section 4. If such member or members are not nominated by the specified dates, the State Government shall appoint such member or members from amongst the persons qualified for such nomination.(3)Until the nomination of members referred to in section 4 is made, the State Government shall appoint such member or members from amongst the persons qualified for nomination under sub-clause (iii) of clause (c) of section 4.(4)(a)The members appointed under sub-section (2), shall hold office until the nomination of members under section 4 is made.(b)The members appointed under sub-section (3) shall hold office until the nomination of members referred to in section 4 is made and the names of the members so nominated are published in the Official Gazette in this behalf.

39. Power to remove difficulties.

- If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may make such order or do such thing, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette.
