12. Consideration of application

.- (1) The Authority shall take into account for considering the grant of certificate, all matters relating to carrying on the business of insurance by the applicant. (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing without in any manner affecting its freedom, the Authority shall consider the following matters for grant of certificate to the applicant, namely:-(a) the record of performance of each of the promoters in the fields of business/profession they are engaged in; (b) the record of performance of the directors and persons in management of the promoters and the applicant; (c) the capital structure of the applicant company; (d) the extent of obligation to provide life insurance or general insurance policies to the persons residing in the rural sector, workers in the unorganised sector or informal sector or for economically vulnerable or backward classes of the society and other categories of persons specified by the Authority; (e) the nature of insurance products; (f) the planned infrastructure of the applicant company, including branches in rural areas, to effectively carry out the insurance business; (g) the level of actuarial and other professional expertise within the management of the applicant company; (h) the organisation structure of the applicant to meet the requirements of regulation 7(c); (i) other relevant matters for carrying out the provisions of the Act. (3) The Authority shall give preference in grant of certificate of registration to those applicants who propose to carry on the business of providing health covers to individuals or groups or individuals.

13. Rejection of application for registration

.- (1) Where an application for registration is not complete in all respects and does not conform to the regulations or instructions specified in Form IRDA/R2, and after considering matters referred to in regulations 12 and 16 and on being satisfied that it is not desirable to grant a certificate by the Authority, by an order, may reject the application. (2) The order rejecting the application under sub-regulation (1) shall be communicated by the Authority within thirty days of such rejection to the applicant in writing stating therein the ground on which the application has been rejected. (3) An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Authority under sub-regulation (2) may, within a period of thirty days from the date of such communication, appeal to the Central Government in accordance with sub-section (2-C) of section 3 of the Act, for reconsideration of such decision. (4) The decision of the Central Government on such appeal shall be final and shall not be questioned before any Court. (5) The fees, referred to in clause (j) of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 10, shall not be refunded.

14. Effect of rejection of application for registration

.- An applicant, whose application for registration has been rejected shall not be entitled to a certificate. An applicant may approach the Authority with a fresh request for registration after a period of two years from the date of rejection, with a new set of promoters and or for a class of insurance business other than the originally proposed one.

15. Manner of payment of fee for registration

.-The fee of rupees fifty thousand for each class of business for registration shall be remitted by a bank draft issued by any scheduled bank in favour of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority payable at New Delhi.

16. Grant of certificate of registration

.-The Authority, after making such inquiry as it deems fit and on being satisfied that-(a)the applicant is eligible, and in its opinion, is likely to meet effectively its obligations imposed under the Act;(b)the financial condition and the general character of management of the applicant are sound;(c)the volume of business likely to be available to, and the capital structure and earning prospects of, the applicant will be adequate;(d)the interests of the general public will be served if the certificate is granted to the applicant in respect of the class of insurance business specified in the application; and(e)the applicant has complied with the provisions of sections 2-C, 5, 31-A, 32 and 32-A and has fulfilled all the requirements of these sections applicable to him, may register the applicant as an insurer for the class of business for which the applicant is found suitable and grant him a certificate in Form IRDA/R3.

17.

An applicant granted a certificate of registration under the Regulations shall commence insurance business for which he had been authorised within 12 months of the date of registration:Provided, however, that if the company feels that it will not be able to commence the insurance business within the specified period of 12 months, it can before the time limit expires, seek an extension, by a proper written application, to the Authority.

18.

The Authority on receipt of the request referred to in regulation 17 will examine it and communicate its decision in writing either rejecting the request or granting it.

19.

No extension of time shall be granted by the Authority beyond 24 months from the date of grant of registration under regulation 16.

Chapter IV

20. Manner of renewal of certificate

.- [(1) An insurer, who has been granted a certificate under section 3 of the Act, shall make an application in Form IRDA/R5 for the renewal of the certificate in Form IRDA/R6 to the Authority before the 31st day of December each year, and such an application shall be accompanied by evidence of the payment of the fee which shall be the higher of,-] Substituted by Notification No. IRDA/Reg/26/2003, dated 26.2.2003 (w.e.f. 7.3.2003).fifty thousand rupees for each class of insurance business, and(b)[one-tenth] [Substituted by Notification No. IRDA/Reg/26/2003, dated 26.2.2003 (w.e.f. 7.3.2003).] of one per cent. of total gross premium written direct by an insurer in India during the financial year preceding the year in which the application for renewal of certificate is required to be made, or rupees five crore, whichever is less; (and in the case of an insurer carrying on solely reinsurance business, instead of the total gross premium written direct in India, the total premium in respect of facultative reinsurance accepted by him in India shall be taken into account).(2)If the insurer fails to apply for the renewal of registration before the date specified in sub-regulation (1), the Authority may accept an application for renewal of registration on receipt of the fee payable with the application alongwith an additional fee by way of penalty of ten per cent. of the fee payable with the application.

21. Manner of payment of fee for renewal of certificate

.-The fee for renewal of certificate shall be paid to the account of Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority with the Reserve Bank of India.

22. Issue of duplicate certificate

.-The Authority may, on receipt of the fee of rupees five thousand, issue a duplicate certificate to an insurer, if the insurer makes an application to the Authority in Form IRDA/R4.

Chapter V

Procedure For Action In Case Of Default

23. Suspension of certificate

.-Without prejudice to any penalty which may be imposed or any action taken under the provisions of the Act, the registration of an Indian insurance company or insurer who-(a)conducts its business in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the policyholders;(b)fails to furnish any information as required by the Authority relating to its insurance business;(c)does not submit periodical returns as required under the Act or by the Authority;(d)does not cooperate in any inquiry conducted by the Authority;(e)indulges in manipulating the insurance business;(f)indulges in unfair trade practices;(g)fails to make investment in the infrastructure or social sector specified under sub-section (1-A) of section 27-D of the Act, may be suspended for a class or classes of insurance business for such period as may be specified by the Authority by an order:Provided that the Authority for reasons to be recorded in writing may, in case of repeated defaults of the type mentioned above, impose a penalty of cancellation of certificate.

24. Manner of making order of suspension or cancellation of certificate

.-No order of suspension or cancellation shall be imposed except after holding an enquiry in accordance with the procedure specified in these regulations.

25. Manner of holding enquiry before suspension or cancellation

.- (1) For the purpose of holding an enquiry under regulation 24, the Authority may appoint an enquiry officer. (2) The enquiry officer shall issue to the insurer a notice at the registered office or the principal place of business of the insurer. (3) The insurer may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of such notice, furnish to the enquiry officer a reply, together with copies of documentary or other evidence relied on by it or sought by the Authority from the insurer. (4) The enquiry officer shall give a reasonable opportunity of hearing to the insurer to enable it to make submissions in support of its reply made under sub-regulation (3). (5) Before the enquiry officer, the insurer may either appear in person or through any person duly authorised by the insurer: Provided that no advocate shall be permitted to represent the insurer at the enquiry: Provided further that where an advocate has been appointed by the Authority as the presenting officer under sub-regulation (6), it shall be lawful for the insurer to present its case through an advocate. (6) If it is considered necessary, the enquiry officer may ask the Authority to appoint a presenting officer to present its case. (7) The enquiry officer shall, after taking into account all relevant facts and submissions made by the insurer, submit a report to the Authority and recommend the penalty to be awarded as also the justification of the penalty proposed.

26. Show-cause notice and order

.- (1) On receipt of the report from the enquiry officer, the Authority shall consider the same and if considered necessary by it, issue a show-cause notice as to why a penalty as it considers appropriate should not be imposed. (2) The insurer shall, within twenty-one days of the date of receipt of the show-cause notice, send a reply to the Authority. (3) The Authority after considering the reply to the show-cause notice, if received, shall as soon as possible but not later than thirty days from the receipt of the reply, if any, pass such orders as it deems fit. If no reply is furnished to the Authority by the insurer within 90 days of the service of the notice, the Authority can proceed to decide the issue ex parte. (4) An order passed under sub-regulation (3) shall give reasons therefor including justification of the penalty imposed by that order. (5) The Authority shall send a copy of the order made under sub-regulation (3) to the insurer.

27. Effect of suspension or cancellation of certificate

.-On and from the date of suspension or cancellation of the certificate, the insurer shall cease to transact new insurance business.

28. Publication of order

.-The order of the Authority passed under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 26, shall be published in at least two daily newspapers in the area where the insurer has his principal place of business.

Chapter VI

Provisions Applicable To Existing Insurers

29. Registration of existing insurers

.- (1) Every insurer carrying on insurance business in India before the commencement of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority Act, 1999 (41 of 1999) and requiring registration under the Act, shall make an application, in Form IRDA/R2 for grant of certificate of registration, within three months from the commencement of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority Act, 1999 (41 of 1999). (2) Every application shall be accompanied by- (a) original certificate of registration; (b) a confirmation that the requirements of section 7 of the Act have been met; (c) evidence of having rupees one hundred crore or more paid up share capital, in case the application for grant of certificate of registration is for life insurance business or general insurance business; (d) evidence of having rupees two hundred crore or more paid-up share capital, in case of an application for grant of certificate of registration for reinsurance business; (e) an affidavit by the principal officer of the applicant certifying that the requirements of section 6 of the Act have been complied with; (f) a certified copy of the standard forms of the insurer and statements of the assured rates, advantages, terms and conditions to be offered in connection with insurance policies together with a certificate in case of life insurance business by an actuary that such rates, advantages, terms and conditions are workable and sound; (g) the original receipt showing payment of fee of rupees fifty thousand for each class of business; (h) any other information required by the Authority during the processing of the application for registration. (3) The Authority shall register every applicant, who submits an application in accordance with sub-regulation (2), and grant a certificate in Form IRDA/R3.

30. Transitory provisions

.- Every existing insurer shall be required to comply with all the regulations made by the Authority from the date of their notification: Provided that the regulations made by the Authority on the following subjects, viz :- (i) Accounts; (ii) Assets, liabilities and solvency margin; (iii) Reinsurance, may, at the choice of an existing insurer, be complied with within a period of twelve months from the commencement of those regulations: Provided however, the Authority may, on an application made to it by an existing insurer, for valid reasons, grant a further period of time to comply with the above regulations so, however, that the total time taken by an existing insurer to comply with regulations in the areas mentioned above does not extend beyond twenty-four months from the date(s) of commencement of those regulations: Provided further that where an existing insurer does not conform to the regulations in the areas mentioned above within the time allowed to him under this regulation, the Authority shall proceed against him for failure to comply with its directions. Notwithstanding the above, nothing prevents the Authority from seeking information from an existing insurer on the subjects mentioned in the first proviso to this regulation and issue directions to an insurer, wherever necessary.
