The U.P. Stamp Act, 2008(U.P. Act No. 17 of 2010)Last Updated 10th October, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons. - The Indian Stamp Act, 1899 which is presently in vogue does not cope with the modern developments and advancement in information technology. As such, documents which are not covered under this said Act, go without paying proper stamp duty. With a view to keeping in pace with new technology and development, it has been decided to make a new enactment by the name of The Uttar Pradesh Stamp Act, 2008 to consolidate and amend the law relating to stamp duties in the State of Uttar Pradesh.The Uttar Pradesh Stamp Bill, 2008 is introduced accordingly.Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 10 of 2019). - The Uttar Pradesh Stamp Act, 2008 (Uttar Pradesh Act 17 of 2010) has been enacted but could not be commenced for want of a notification by the administrative department under sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the said Act to appoint a date on which the said Act shall come into force. The administrative department could not issue the notification as aforesaid due to too many errors in Hindi and English version of the said Act.It has, therefore, been decided to repeal the said Act by introducing a Bill in the State Legislature.The Uttar Pradesh Stamp (Repeal) Bill, 2019 is introduced accordingly.(As passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature)Received the assent of the President on 27.03.2010 and published in the U.P. Gazette, Extraordinary, Part I, Section (Ka), dated 07.04.2010.An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to stamp duties in the State of Uttar PradeshIt is hereby enacted in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows-

Chapter III

Adjudication As To Stamps

36. Adjudication as to proper stamp. -

(1) When any instrument, whether executed or not, and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any), with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee for. Rupees One hundred (subject to such other amount as may be fixed by the State Government by notification in the Gazette), the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable. (2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence, as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly: Provided that - (a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an enquiry as to the duty with which the instrument, to which it relates, is chargeable; and (b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished, shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates, is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

37. Certificate by Collector. -

(1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under Section 36 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and (a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or (b) the duty determined by the Collector under Section 36 or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid. (2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable. (3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped, or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be, and if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped: Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse - (a) any instrument, other than an instrument chargeable with a duty under clause (b) of the first proviso to Section 3, executed or first executed in Uttar Pradesh and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be; (b) any instrument chargeable with duty under clause (b) of the first proviso to Section 3, and brought to him, after the expiration of three months from the date on which it is first received in Uttar Pradesh.

Chapter IV

Instrument Not Duly Stamped

38. Examination and impounding of instruments. -

(1) Every person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every person in-charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his duties, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same. (2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in India, when such instrument was executed, or first executed: Provided that - (a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate, or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Sections 125 to 128 and Sections 145 to 148 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974). (b) in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf. (3) For the purposes of this section, the State Government may, in cases of doubt, determine what officers shall be deemed to be public offices and who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public officers. (4) Where deficiency in stamp duty is noticed from the copy of an instrument, the Collector may suo motu or on a reference from any Court, or from the Commissioner of Stamps, or an Additional Commissioner of Stamps, or a Deputy Commissioner of Stamps, or an Assistant Commissioner of Stamps call for the original instrument for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the adequacy of the duty paid thereon, and the instrument so produced before the Collector shall be deemed to have been produced, or come before him in the performance of his functions. (5) In case the instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require payment of deficit stamp duty, if any, together with penalty under Section 45 on the copy of the instrument: Provided that no action under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) shall be taken after a period of four years from the date of execution of the instrument: Provided further that with the prior permission of the State Government an action under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) may be taken after a period of four years but before a period of eight years from the date of execution of the instrument.

39. Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc. -

No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person, having by law, or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped: Provided that - (a) any such instrument shall be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or, in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of an amount not less than one time but not exceeding four times of the amount of proper duty or of the deficient portions thereof; (b) Where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters, and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;(c)Nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding under Sections 125 to 128 and Sections 145 to 148 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974);(d)Nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any Court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of the Government or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by Section 37 or any other provision of this Act.

40. Admission of instrument where not be questioned. -

Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in Section 63, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

41. Admission of improperly stamped instruments. -

The State Government may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified, shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

42. Instruments impounded, how dealt with. -

(1)When the person impounding an instrument under Section 38 has by law, or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by Section 39, or of duty as provided by Section 41, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such other person as he may appoint in this behalf.(2)In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

43. Collector's power to stamp instruments impounded. -

(1)When the Collector impounds any instrument under Section 38, or receives any instrument sent to him under sub-section (2) of Section 42, not being a receipt, or a bill of exchange or a promissory note, he shall adopt the following procedure: -(a)if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped, or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;(b)if he is of the opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the amount required to make up the deficiency together with a penalty of an amount not exceeding four times the amount of deficient portion of the proper duty:Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of Section 18 or Section 19, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section:Provided further that no penalty shall be levied unless the party concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(2)The Collector shall also require, along with the amount of deficit stamp duty or penalty required to be paid under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the payment of a simple interest at the rate of one per cent per mensem on the amount of deficit stamp duty calculated from the date of execution of the instrument till the date of actual payment:Provided that the amount of interest under this sub-section shall be recalculated if the amount of deficit stamp duty is varied on appeal or revision or by any order of a competent Court or Authority.(3)The amount of interest payable under sub-section (2) shall be added to the amount due and be also deemed for all purposes to be part of the amount required to be paid.(4)Where realization of the deficit stamp duty remained stayed by any order of any Court or Authority and such order of stay is subsequently vacated, the interest referred to in sub-section (2) shall be payable also for any period during which such order of stay remained in operation.(5)Any amount paid or deposited by, or recovered from or refundable to any person under the provisions of this Act, shall first be adjusted towards the deficit stamp duty or penalty outstanding against him and the excess, if any, shall then be adjusted towards the interest, if any, due from him.(6)Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matter stated therein.(7)Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector, under sub-section (2) of Section 42, the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by the section, return it to the impounding officer.

44. Instruments unduly stamped by accident. -

If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty not exceeding twenty paise only, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year, from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under Sections 38 and 43, receive such amount and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

45. Endorsement of instruments on which duty has been paid under Sections 39, 43, 44 or 49. -

(1)When the duty and penalty (if any), leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under Section 39, Section 43 or Section 44 or Section 49, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.(2)Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct:Provided that -(a)no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under Section 39, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;(b)nothing in this section shall affect Schedule I of Order XXIII of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. 5 of 1908) Section 144, Clause 3.

46. Prosecution for offence against Stamp law. -

The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the stamp-law in respect of such instrument:Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appear to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

47. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases. -

(1)When any duty or penalty has been paid under Section 39, Section 41, Section 43 or Section 44, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of Section 35 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.(2)For the purpose of such recovery, any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.(3)Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which' such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

48. Non-liability for loss of instruments sent under Section 42. -

(1)If any instrument sent to the Collector under sub-section (2) of Section 42, is lost, destroyed, or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.(2)When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

49. Under-valuation of the instrument. -

(1)(a)If the market value of any property which is the subject of any instrument, on which duty is chargeable on the market value of the property as set forth in such instrument, is less than even the minimum value in accordance with the rules made under this Act, the Registering Officer appointed under the Registration Act, 1908 (Act No. 16 of 1908), notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, immediately after presentation of such instrument and before accepting it for registration and taking any action under Section 52 of the said Act, require the person liable to pay stamp duty under Section 35, to pay the deficit stamp duty as computed on the basis of the minimum value determined in accordance with the said rules and return the instrument for presenting again in accordance with Section 23 of the Registration Act, 1908 (Act No. 16 of 1908). (b) When the deficit stamp duty required to be paid under clause (a) is paid in respect of any instrument and the instrument is presented again for registration, the Registering Officer shall certify by endorsement thereon, that the deficit stamp duty has been paid in respect thereof and the name and the residence of the person paying them and register the same. (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, the deficit stamp duty may be paid under clause (a) in the form of impressed stamps or otherwise, containing such declaration as may be prescribed. (d) If any person does not make the payment of deficit stamp duty after receiving the order referred to in clause (a) and presents the instrument again for registration, the Registering Officer shall, before registering the instrument, refer the same to the Collector, for determination of the market value of the property and the proper duty payable thereon. (2) On receipt of a reference under such-section (1), the Collector shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding an enquiry in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, determine the market value of the property which is the subject of such instrument and the proper duty payable thereon. (3) The Collector may, suo motu, or on a reference from any Court or from the Commissioner of Stamps or an Additional Commissioner of Stamps or from a Deputy Commissioner of Stamps or from an Assistant Commissioner of Stamps or any officer authorized by the State Government in that behalf, within four years from the date of registration of any instrument on which duty is chargeable on the market value of the property, not already referred to him under sub-section (1), call for and examine the instrument for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the market value, of the property which is the subject of such instrument and the duty payable thereon, and if, after such examination, he has reason to believe that market value of such property has not been truly set forth in such instrument, he may determine the market value of such property and the duty payable thereon: Provided that, with the prior permission of the State Government, an action under this sub-section may be taken after a period of four years but before a period of eight years from the date of registration of the instrument on which duty is chargeable on the market value of the property. Explanation. - The payment of deficit stamp duty by any person under any order of the Registering Officer under sub-section (1) shall not prevent the Collector from initiating proceedings on any instrument under subsection (3). (4) If on enquiry under sub-section (2) and examination under subsection (3) the Collector finds the market value of the property - (i) truly set forth and the instrument duly stamped, he shall certify by endorsement that it is duly stamped and return it to the person who made the reference; (ii) Not truly set forth and the instrument not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the amount required to make up the deficiency in the same, together with a penalty of an amount not exceeding four times the amount of deficient portion of the proper duty. (5) The Collector shall also require along with the deficit stamp duty or penalty required to be paid under clause (ii) of sub-section (4), the payment of a simple interest at the rate of one per cent per mensem on the amount of deficit stamp duty calculated from the date of the execution of the instrument till the date of actual payment: Provided that the amount of interest under the sub-section shall be recalculated if the amount of deficit stamp duty is varied on appeal or revision or by any order of a competent Court or Authority. (6) The amount of interest payable under sub-section (5) shall be added to the amount due and be also deemed for all purposes to be part of the amount required to be paid.(7)Where realization of the deficit stamp duty remained stayed by any order of any Court or Authority and such order of stay is subsequently vacated, the interest referred to in sub-section (5) shall be payable also for any period during which such order of stay remained in operation.(8)Any amount paid or deposited by or recovered from, or refundable to, a person under the provisions of this Act, shall first be adjusted towards the deficit stamp duty or penalty outstanding against him and the excess, if any, shall then be adjusted towards the interest, if any, due from him.(9)The instrument produced before the Collector under sub-section (2) or under sub-section (3) shall be deemed to have come before him in the performance of his functions.(10)In case the instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require payment of deficit stamp duty, if any, together with penalty on the copy of the instrument in accordance with the procedure as laid down in sub-sections (2) and (4).

50. Recovery of duties and penalties. -

All duties, penalties, and other sums required to be paid under this Act may be recovered by the Collector by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom the same are due, or by any other process for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

51. Validity of certificate or endorsement in respect of instruments for which higher rate of duty is payable in Uttar Pradesh. -

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no certificate or endorsement under this Act, in respect of an instrument chargeable in Uttar Pradesh with a higher rate of duty in accordance with this Act, shall be received in evidence or be in any way valid in respect of the payment of duty on such instrument unless the duty chargeable at the rates provided in this Act, has been paid on such instrument.

Chapter V

Allowances For Stamps In Certain Cases

52. Allowance for spoiled stamps. -

Subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government as to the evidence to be required, or the enquiry to be made, the Collector may, on application made within the period prescribed in Section 53, and if he is satisfied as to the facts, make allowance for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely, -(a)the stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated or by error in writing or any other means rendered unfit for the purpose intended before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person.(b)the stamp on any document which is written out wholly or in part, but which is not signed or executed by any party thereto;(c)the stamp used for an instrument executed by any party thereto which -(i)has been afterwards found to be absolutely void in law from the very beginning;(ii)has been afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended;(iii)by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed;(iv)for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is a fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended;(v)by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any officer thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose;(vi)becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;(vii)is deficient in value and the transaction intended to be thereby effected has been effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;(viii)is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped:Provided that, in the case of an executed instrument, no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled.Explanation. - The Certificate of the Collector under Section 37 that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of this section.

53. Application for relief under Section 52 when to be made. -

The application for relief under Section 52 shall be made within the following periods, that is to say -(a)in the cases mentioned in sub-clause (v) of clause (c), within two months of the date of the instrument;(b)in the case of a stamped paper on which no instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the stamp has been spoiled;(c)in the case of a stamped paper in which an instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed:Provided that -(a)when the spoiled instrument has been for sufficient reasons sent out of India, the application may be made within six months after it has been received back in India;(b)when, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted, cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, the application may be made within six months after the date of execution of the substituted instrument.

54. Allowance in case of printed forms no longer required by corporations. -

The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority or the Collector if empowered by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority in this behalf may, without limit of time, make allowance for stamped papers used for printed forms of instruments, by any banker or by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said banker, company or body corporate:Provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped paper has been duly paid.

55. Allowance for misused stamps. -

(a)When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or(b)When any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under Section 19, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of Section 18, the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or if it is riot dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

56. Allowance for spoiled or misused stamps-How to be made. -

In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof, -(a)other stamps of the same description and value; or(b)if required and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value; or(c)at his discretion, the same value in money, deducting ten paise for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

57. Allowance for stamps not required for use. -

When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting ten paise for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction -(a)that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bona fide intention to use them;(b)that he has paid the full price thereof; and(c)that they were so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:Provided that, where the person is a licensed vendor of stamps, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

Chapter VI

Reference, Revision And Appeal

58. Control of, and statement of case to, Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

(1)The power exercisable by a Collector under Section 12, clause (a) of the first proviso to Section 32, Chapter IV, Chapter V and Chapter VIII shall in all cases be subject to the control of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, any person including the Government aggrieved by an order of the Collector under Section 12, clause (a) of the first proviso to Section 32, Chapter IV, Chapter V and Chapter VIII may, within 60 days from the date of receipt of such order prefer an appeal against such order to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, who shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, consider the case and pass such order thereon as he thinks just and proper and the order so passed shall be final: Provided that no application for stay of recovery of any disputed amount of stamp duty including interest thereon or penalty shall be entertained unless the applicant has furnished satisfactory proof of the payment of not less than one-third of such disputed amount: Provided further that where the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority passes an order for the stay of the recovery of any stamp duty, interest thereon or penalty, or for the stay of the operation of any order appealed against and such order results in the stay of recovery of any stamp duty, interest thereon or penalty, such stay order shall not remain in force for more than thirty days unless the appellant furnishes adequate security to the satisfaction of the Collector concerned for the payment of the outstanding amount. (2) If any Collector, acting under Section 36, Section 43 or Section 44, feels doubt as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority. (3) The Authority referred to in sub-section (2) shall consider the case and send a copy of its decision to the Collector who shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision. (4) Where any order of Collector is partially altered or quashed by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, the Collector shall have the power to refund the excess amount of stamp duty, penalty or interest paid under the said order.

59. Statement of case by Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to High Court. -

(1) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may state any case referred to it under sub-section (2) of Section 58, or otherwise coming to its notice, and refer such case, with its own opinion thereon, if it arises in the State to the High Court of the State; (2) Every such case shall be decided by not less than three Judges of the High Court to which it is referred, and in case of difference, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

60. Power of High Court to call for further particulars as to case stated. -

If the High Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue Authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

61. Procedure in disposing of case stated. -

(1) The High Court upon the hearing of any such case, shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded. (2) The Court shall send to the Revenue Authority by which the case was stated, a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar; and the Revenue Authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

62. Statement of case by other Courts to High Court. -

(1) If any Court, other than a Court mentioned in Section 59, feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under proviso (a) to Section 39, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case and refer, it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court to which, if he were the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, he would, under Section 59, refer the same. (2) Such Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under Section 59, and send a copy of its judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and other like copy to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment. (3) References made under sub-section (1), when made by a Court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court, and, when made by any subordinate Revenue Court, shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

63. Revision of certain decisions of Courts regarding the sufficiency of stamps. -

(1) When any Court in the exercise of its civil or revenue jurisdiction of any Criminal Court in any proceeding under Sections 125 to 128 and Sections 145 to 148 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974) makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp, or upon payment of duty and a penalty under Section 39, the Court to which appeals lie from, or references are made by, such first-mentioned Court may, of its own motion or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration. (2) If such Court, after such consideration, is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under Section 40, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, it may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, and may require any person in whose possession or power such instrument then is, to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced. (3) When any declaration has been recorded under sub-section (2), the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument. (4) The Collector may thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under Section 45, or in Section 46, prosecute any person for any offence against the Stamp law which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument: Provided that - (a) no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount (including duty and penalty) which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under Section 39, is paid to the Collector, unless he thinks that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty; (b) except for the purposes of such prosecution, no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under Section 45.
