Part II – Recruitment to service

3. Number and character of posts.

- The Service shall comprise the posts with designation, scales of pay and other allowances shown in Appendix A to these rules: Provided that nothing in these rules shall affect the inherent right of the Government to make additions to, or reduction in the number of such posts or to create new posts with different designation or scales of pay either permanently or temporarily.

4. Nationality, domicile and character of candidates appointed to the Service.

(1) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service, unless he is : (a) a citizen of India, or (b) a subject of Nepal, or (c) a subject of Bhutan, or (d) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or (e) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Sri Lanka (Formerly Ceylon) or any of the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda and United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar), Zambia, Malawi, Zaire and Ethiopia with the intention of permanently settling in India; Provided that a person belonging to any of the categories (b), (c), (d) and (e) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been issued by the Government. (2) A person whose in case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to an examination or interview conducted by the Commission or any other recruiting authority, but the offer of appointment may be given only after the necessary eligibility certificate has been issued to him by the Government. (3) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment, unless he produces a certificate of character from the principal academic officer of the university, college, school or institution last attended, if any and similar certificates from two other responsible persons, not being his relatives, who are well acquainted with him in his private life and are unconnected with his university, college, school or institution.

5.

No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment who, -(a)in the case of a Director or Medical Superintendent, is less than forty years, or more than fifty years of age.(b)in any other case, is less than twenty-five years or more than fifty years of age;on or before the first day of the month next preceding the last date of submission of applications to the Commission or any other recruiting authority :Provided that the Government may in the case of persons with outstanding qualifications and experience relax the age limit.

6. Appointing Authority.

- Appointment to the posts in the Service shall be made by the Government.

7. Qualification.

- No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service unless he is in possession of the qualification and experience specified in column 3 of Appendix B to these rules in the case of direct recruitment or appointment by transfer or deputation and those specified in column 4 in the case of appointment by promotion. The qualification and experience in the case of Reader/Associate Professor for their redesignation as such shall be as specified in column 5 of the said Appendix B.

8. Disqualification.

- No person -(a)Who has entered into or contracted a marriage with a person having a spouse living, or(b)Who having a spouse living, has entered into or contracted a marriage with any person, shall be eligible for appointment to any post in the Service :Provided that the Government may if satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person and the other party to the marriage and there are other grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

9. Method of recruitment.

(1)Recruitment to any post in the Service shall be made as under :-(a)in the case of Director and Medical Superintendent :-(i)by direct recruitment; or(ii)by transfer or deputation of an official already in the service of any State Government or the Government of India or any institution;(b)in the case of Dean (Medical), by promotion from amongst Professors (Medical);(c)in the case of Dean (Dental), by promotion from amongst Professors (Dental);(d)in the case of Deputy Dean (Medical) by promotion from amongst Associate Professors (Medical);(e)in the case of Head of Pharmacy Department, by direct recruitment, and if no suitable person is available then by transfer or deputation from any State Government or the Government of India or any institution;(f)in the case of Professors (Medical/Non-Medical) and Professors (Dental):- (i) 50 per cent by promotion from amongst the teachers, and (ii) 50 per cent by direct recruitment, or by transfer or deputation of any officer/official already in the service of any State Government or the Government of India : Provided that the first post or vacancy of a Professor in each Department shall be filled in by direct recruitment and the second by promotion and so on. [Provided further that if the last appointment in the Service relating to the post of Professor in any speciality immediately before the commencement of these rules was made by direct recruitment, the first vacancy or post of Professor in that speciality after the commencement of these rules shall be filled in by promotion and second by direct recruitment and so on.] [Added by Haryana Gazette No. GSR9/HA21/86/Section 3/91 dated 13.2.1991 page 132.] (g) in the case of Teachers (Medical/Non-Medical) and Teachers (Dental) :- (i) appointment shall be made on the post of Lecturer only by direct recruitment, and if no suitable person is available for appointment as Lecturer then by transfer or deputation from any State Government or Government of India or any institution; (ii) a Lecturer shall be re-designated as Reader if he has been allowed to cross 1st efficiency bar and fulfils the qualifications and experience for the post of Reader as laid down in column 5 of Appendix B; (iii) a Reader shall be re-designated as associate Professor if he has been allowed to cross the 2nd efficiency bar and fulfils the qualifications and experience for the post of Associate Professor as laid down in column 5 of Appendix B : Provided that the persons holding the posts of Lecturer or Reader on the commencement of these rules shall be redesignated as Reader or Associate Professor as the case may be if he fulfils the qualifications and experience as laid down in column 5 of Appendix B and is otherwise suitable for re-designation on the basis of record irrespective of the fact whether he has crossed the 1st and 2nd efficiency bar, as the case may be; (h) in the case of Lecturer (Pharmacy), by direct recruitment and if no suitable person is available, then by transfer or deputation from any State Government or Government of India or any Institution; (3) Appointment by promotion shall be made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and seniority alone shall not confer any right to such promotion.

10. Appointment as Floating Professors.

(1) The posts of Floating Professor under this scheme shall be created subject to the maximum of 5 posts. (2) Only those Associate Professors who are working for the last 10 years as Associate Professors shall be considered for the post of Floating Professor. (3) Promotion to the post of Floating Professor under this scheme shall mean an upgradation of the post which a promotee is holding. Hence the post will remain in abeyance till the incumbent is adjusted against the permanent post or retires. (4) The person shall have to appear before the Selection Committee constituted for deciding his suitability for Floating Professorship. (5) If the regular post of Professor falls vacant, the Floating Professor shall be required to compete for the regular post. (6) On the retirement, adjustment, selection against permanent post, the post thus falling vacant shall be filled in as per procedures laid down above. (7) As it is an upgradation of the post that a promotee is holding incumbent shall continue to perform the duties as heretofore.

11. Power of Director to require a person to perform duties of Lecturer or Reader.

- The conferment of higher designation of Reader or Associate Professor on a teacher shall not prevent the Director to require such person to perform the duties of a Lecturer or a Reader, as the case may be if the circumstances so require: Provided that no senior person shall be required to perform the duties of Reader or Lecturer if a junior person is available for the purpose.

12. Probation.

(1) Persons appointed to any post in the Service shall remain on probation for a period of two years, if appointed by direct recruitment and one year, if appointed otherwise : Provided that -(a) any period after such appointment spent on deputation or a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation; (b) any period of work in equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to the Service may, in the case of an appointment by transfer, at the discretion of the appointing authority, be allowed to count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule; and (c) any period of officiating appointment shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no person who has so officiated shall, on the completion of the prescribed period of probation, be entitled to be confirmed, unless he is appointed against a permanent vacancy. (2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority the work or conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory, it may -(a) if such person is appointed by direct recruitment, dispense with his services; and (b) if such person is appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment -(i) revert him to his former post; or (ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of the previous appointment permit. (3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may -(a) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory -(i) confirm such person from the date of his appointment, if appointed against a permanent vacancy; or (ii) confirm such person from the date from which a permanent vacancy occurs, if appointed against a temporary vacancy; or (iii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily, if there is no permanent vacancy; or (b) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been not satisfactory -(i) dispense with his service, if appointed by direct recruitment or revert him to his former post or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of previous appointment permit, if appointed otherwise; or (ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such orders, as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation : Provided that the total period of probation, including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

13. Seniority.

- Seniority inter se of members of the Service, shall be determined by the length of continuous service on any post in the service : Provided that there are different categories of posts in the Service, the seniority shall be determined separately for each category. Provided further that in the case of two or more members appointed by direct recruitment, the order of merit determined by the Commission or Selection Committee shall not be disturbed in fixing the seniority : Provided further that in the case of two or more members appointed on the same date, the seniority shall be determined as follows :-(a)a member appointed by direct recruitment shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer;(b)a member appointed by promotion shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer;(c)in the case of members appointed by promotion or by transfer, seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such members in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred; and(d)in the case of members appointed by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment; and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then by the length of their service in the appointments, and if the length of such service is also the same, older member shall be senior to the younger member.

14. Liability to serve.

(1)A member of the Service shall be liable to serve at any place whether within or outside the State of Haryana, on being ordered so to do by the appointing authority.(2)A member of the Service may also be deputed to serve under :-(i)a company, an association or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the State Government, a municipal corporation or a local authority within the State of Haryana,(ii)the Central Government or a company, an association or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Central Government, or(iii)any other State Government, an international organisation, an autonomous body not controlled by the Government or a private body :Provided that no member of the Service shall be deputed to serve the Central or any other State Government or any organisation or body referred to in clause (ii) or clause (iii) except with his consent.

15. Pay, leave, pension and other matters.

- In respect of pay, leave, pension and all other matters not expressly provided for in these rules the members of the Service shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may have been, or may hereafter be adopted or made by the competent authority under the Constitution of India or under any law for the time being in force made by the State Legislature in respect of the Haryana Government employees.

16. Discipline, penalties and appeals.

(1)In the matters relating to discipline, penalties and appeals, members of the Service shall be governed by the Haryana Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1987, as amended from time to time :Provided that the nature of penalties which may be imposed, the authority empowered to impose such penalties and appellate authority shall, subject to the provisions of any law or rules made under Article 309 of the Constitution of India, be such as are specified in Appendix C to these rules.(2)The authority competent to pass an order under clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-rule (i) of Rule 10 of the Haryana Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1987 and appellate authority shall also be as specified in Appendix D to these rules.

17. Vaccination.

- Every member of the Service, shall get himself vaccinated and re-vaccinated if and when the Government so directs by a special or general order.

18. Oath of allegiance.

- Every member of the service, unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established.

19. Allowances and other facilities.

(1)the members of Service shall not be allowed to engage in private practice in any form.(2)The members of Service shall be given non-practising allowance at such rates, and on such terms and conditions, as may be specified by the Government from time to time.

20. Age of Superannuation.

- The age of superannuation of the members of the Service shall be governed according to the provisions of the Punjab Civil Service Rules as applicable to the Haryana Government employees :Provided that in the case of members of the Service who were in service during the period when the Medical College and Hospital was under Maharshi Dayanand University and are still continuing in service, notwithstanding their promotion/selection in the service, the age of superannuation shall be sixty years.

21. Special provision.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules the appointing authority may impose special terms and conditions in the order of appointment if it is deemed expedient to do so.

22. Reservation.

- Nothing contained in these rules shall affect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes, Ex-servicemen, Physically handicapped persons or any other class or category of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the State Government in this regard, from time to time :Provided that the total percentage of reservations so made shall not exceed fifty per cent, at any time.

23. Power of relaxation.

- Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

24. Repeal and saving.

- The Haryana Medical Education Service Rules, 1986, are hereby repealed :Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules. Appendix-A (See Rule 3)
