(2)The roster shall be maintained as a running account from year to year and will start at the commencement of a year at the point following the point which was utilized at the end of the previous year:Provided that where the last point utilized in the preceding year was a reserved point and was treated as un-reserved for want of a suitable candidate from the reserved class, the first point to be started as aforesaid shall be the reserved point:Provided further that where, on any occasion of selection in any year, a reserved vacancy is treated as un-reserved for want of a suitable candidate from the reserved category, the succeeding un-reserved vacancy shall on the next occasion of selection in that year be treated as reserved.(3)The roster register shall be maintained as per the details given in Annexure-E.

6. Custody and Maintenance of roster.

- The responsibility for custody, maintenance and updating the roster shall be as under: -(a)For State Cadre posts, the roster shall be maintained by the cadre controlling authority, which shall ordinarily be the administrative Department in the Government:Provided that the Administrative Department concerned may, with prior concurrence of the Social Welfare Department, authorize Head of the Department concerned to maintain roster;(b)For 'Divisional Cadre' the roster shall be maintained by the Head of the Department concerned or the appointing authority separately for each Division;(c)For District Cadre posts, the roster shall be maintained by the Head of the Department and a copy thereof shall be kept with the District Officer concerned at the District level. It shall be the duty of the Head of the Department to ensure that both the roster and its copy are verified and countersigned by himself and the Concerned District Officer, at least once in each year whether or not a recruitment process takes place during this period;(d)For services to which direct recruitment takes place through Combined Competitive Examination, the General Administration Department shall maintain a separate roster for each service and the Cadre Controlling Authority of each such service shall also maintain and update the roster for the service. Such Departments shall furnish to the General Administration Department break-up of the vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment at a selection.(2)While the roster shall be maintained in accordance with rule 5, it shall be the responsibility of every selection agency to send a return as per the Annexure-F to the Social Welfare Department on the day it notifies the recommendation for appointment:Provided that the rosters for appointment by direct recruitment existing as on commencement of these rules shall continue to be operated in the manner prescribed.(3)[It shall be the duty of the Liaison Officer of the department (as provided in the Rule 26 sub-rule (3) to maintain the roster for services for which the department is the cadre controlling authority and non- maintenance of roster by the Liaison Officer shall be considered as "misconduct" as provided in Rule 3 (1) of the Jammu and Kashmir Government Employees (Conduct) Rules and for such misconduct he shall be liable for any of the penalties from (I) to (VI) as provided under rule 30 of the Jammu and Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1956.] [Sub-rule(3) inserted by SRO 144, dated 28.5.2008.]

7. Preparation of the Select List.

(1)The selection authority shall draw up, in order of merit, a consolidated list of all the eligible candidates irrespective of class to which they belong. The list shall show classification of the candidates category wise.(2)The selection authority shall then prepare from out of the first list, a second list containing the names of candidates equal in number to the total number of un-reserved vacancies to be filled up, arranging them in order of merit, commencing with the first name in the first list (hereinafter called second list). If there are no reserved vacancies, then the second list shall constitute the select list subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (6) and (7).(3)If there are reserved vacancies as well, the selection authority shall next prepare from out of the portion of the first list remaining after excluding the portion corresponding to the second list, a third list containing the names separately of as many candidates, from each of the categories, as the number of vacancies respectively reserved for them arranging the candidates from each category in order of their inter se merit (hereinafter called third list). The said third list added to the said second list shall in such case constitute the select list, subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (6) and sub-rule (7).(4)[If in the case of any of the aforesaid categories, the number of candidates belonging to such category in the third list falls short of the number of vacancies reserved for it, the remaining reserved vacancies for such category shall be treated as backlog and the procedure as provided under section 5 of the reservation Act shall be followed.] Recast by SRO 144, dated 28.5.2008.If, there are reserved vacancies alone against which selection is to be made, the selection authority shall invite applications from the members belonging only to that class for whom the said vacancies are meant. It shall then draw up a list of the candidates in order of merit, out of which shall be prepared another list containing names of the candidates equal in number to the number of the reserved vacancies arranged in order of merit commencing from the first name in the initial list mentioned above. The list so prepared shall constitute the select list for these reserved vacancies subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (6) and sub-rule (7).(6)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-rules (1) to (5), the selection authority shall provide horizontal reservation to the extent specified under rule 4 to the candidates falling under the categories ex-servicemen and, physically challenged persons while preparing the roster under the said sub-rules.(7)The list as finally settled by conforming to sub-rule (1) to (5) above shall constitute the list of candidates finally selected for appointment to any particular service, class, category or grade, as the case maybe, for which such selection is made at a time.(8)For purposes of services to which Combined Competitive Examination is conducted, the reserved category candidates if selected against open merit vacancies may also be considered for allotment of services allocable to their respective category as per their inter-se-merit/own preference and the resultant left over vacancies in the services in open merit shall be allotted to, those reserved category candidates only, as per merit-aim-preference, against whose vacancies the reserved category candidates qualifying in the open merit are considered: Provided that physically challenged candidates shall be considered for selection in the services and against the posts identified for their respective categories in terms of Government Order No. 62-SW of 2001 dated 13.03.2001 and in accordance with their merit-cum-preference, if otherwise found suitable for selection.

8. Outstanding Sports Persons.

- Nothing contained in these rules shall bar the appointment of outstanding sports persons against the direct quota in terms of the Jammu and Kashmir (Appointment of Outstanding Sports Persons) Rules 1998, forming Annexure "G" to these rules. Part -III Reservation in Appointment by Promotion

9. Reservation in Promotion.

- The available vacancies to the extent specified hereinafter shall be reserved in any service, class, category or grade carrying a pay scale the maximum of which does not exceed the pay scale of the post of Deputy Secretary to Government, for promotion from amongst the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other socially and educationally backward classes:(a)[

(2)The manner and procedure for preparation and maintenance of the roster and updating thereof shall be the same as prescribed in rule 6 and rule 7 of these rules.

11. Preparation of select list for promotion.

(1)The selection authority shall draw up in order of seniority/merit, as the case may be, a consolidated list of all the eligible candidates irrespective of category to which they belong. The list shall show classification of the candidates category-wise.(2)The selection authority shall then prepare from out of the first list, a second list containing the names of candidates equal in number to the total number of un-reserved vacancies to be filled up by promotion arranging them in order of merit/seniority in the feeding Cadre commencing with the first name in the first list (hereinafter called second list). If there are no reserved vacancies, then the second list shall constitute the select list subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (5).(3)If there are reserved vacancies as well, the selection authority shall next prepare from out of the portion of the first list remaining after excluding the portion corresponding to the second list, a third list containing the names separately of as many candidates, from each of the categories, as the number of vacancies, respectively reserved for them, arranging the candidates from each category in order of their inter se merit/seniority in the feeding cadre (hereinafter called third list). The said third list added to the second list shall in such case constitute the select list, subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (5). (4) If in the case of any of the aforesaid categories the number of eligible candidates belonging to such category in the third list fall short of the number of vacancies reserved for it, the remaining vacancies reserved for such category shall be treated as un-reserved and the selection authority shall prepare a fourth list containing the names of the candidates equal in number of remaining vacancies arranged in order of merit/seniority in the feeding cadre from out of the portion of the first list remaining after excluding the portion of the first list corresponding to the second and the third (hereinafter called fourth list). The fourth list added up to the second and the third lists shall in that event constitute the select List subject only to the provisions of sub-rule (5). (5) The list as finally settled by conforming to sub-rules (1) to (4) above shall constitute the list of candidates finally selected for appointment by promotion to any particular service, category, class or grade, as the case may be, for which such promotion is made at a time. (6) The placement of an officer in selection grade does not result in a vacancy and roster will not apply in such cases: Provided that the category candidates in the zone of consideration may be considered for selection grade by relaxed standards.

12. Assessment of the members of the reserved categories.

- In filling vacancies by promotion carrying the pay scale the maximum of which exceeds the pay scale specified under rule 9, the concerned selection authority shall assess the officers who are members of any reserved category by relaxed standards: Provided that no such relaxed standard shall be applied in case of officers whose integrity is doubtful. Part -IV

13. Reservation in Professional Institutions.
