Tamil Nadu Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning Act, 1949 (Tamil Nadu Act 29 of 1949) Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning Act, 1949 (Tamil Nadu Act XXIX of 1949). - For Statement of Objects and Reasons, please see in Part IV-A, page 417 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 31st October 1949. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1951 (Madras Act XIII of 1952). - The Government consider that the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Madras Act XXIX of 1949), which expires on the 30th September 1951, should have its life extended for a further period of fifteen months, that is, up to and inclusive of the 31st December 1952. The Central Act on the same subject, namely, the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Central Act XXIV of 1946), has had its life extended up to the same date by Central Act LII of 1950. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 21st August 1951. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act, 1958 (Tamil Nadu Act III of 1958). - The Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Madras Act XXIX of 1949), as re-enacted by Madras Act VI of 1956 was due to expire on the 25th January 1958. As the Legislature was not in session, the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Ordinance, 1958 (Madras Ordinance II of 1958), was promulgated to extend the life of the Act for a further period of five years, that is, up to and inclusive of the 25th January 1963. The Bill is intended to replace the above Ordinance. 2. The Government have also decided to extend Madras Act XXIX of 1949 to the Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district and to repeal the corresponding law including the Travancore-Cochin Electricity Supply Surcharge Act, 1955 (Travancore-Cochin Act XIV of 1955), in force in those areas. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision also. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 10th March 1958. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 2 of 1963). - The orders relating to the supply of electrical energy and the levy of charges for the supply of electrical energy in this State are enforced under the provisions of the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Madras Act XXIX of 1949). The life of the Act has been extended, from time to time, and it was due to expire on the 25th January 1963. As the Legislature was not in session, the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Ordinance, 1963 (Madras Ordinance 1 of 1963), was promulgated to extend the life of the Act for a further period of three years, that is, up to and inclusive of the 25th January 1966. The Bill is intended to replace the above Ordinance. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 29th January 1963. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act, 1967. - The Government consider that the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Madras Act XXIX of 1949), which expires on the 31st December 1952 should have its life extended for a further period up to and inclusive of the 25th January 1955. The Central Act on the same subject, namely, the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Central Act XXIV of 1946), has had its life extended up to the same date by Central Act LXV of 1952. The opportunity has been taken to amend the Act so as to exclude from its scope control over the production of essential articles and also to delete from the Schedule to the Act certain articles whose supply, distribution, transport, prices, etc., are or may be regulated by Central enactments. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 24th November 1967. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act, 1969 (Tamil Nadu Act 1 of 1969). - The orders relating to the supply and consumption of electrical energy and the levy of charges for the supply of electrical energy in this State are enforced under the provisions of the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Madras Act XXIX of 1949). The life of the Act has been extended, from time to time, and it was due to expire on the 25th January 1969. As the Legislature was not in session, the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Ordinance, 1969 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 1 of 1969), was promulgated to extend the life of the Act for a further period of five years, that is, up to and inclusive of the 25th January 1974. The Bill is intended to replace the above Ordinance. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 28th January 1969. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act, 1979 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1979). - The orders relating to the supply and consumption of electrical energy and the levy of charges for the supply of electrical energy in this State are enforced under the provisions of the Tamil Nadu Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1949 (Tamil Nadu Act XXIX of 1949). The life of the Act has been extended, from time to time, and it was due to expire on the 25th January 1979. It was considered necessary to make the Act as a permanent measure. Accordingly, it was decided to amend Tamil Nadu Act XXIX of 1949 suitably for the above purpose and the Tamil Nadu Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Amendment Ordinance, 1979 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 4 of 1979), was promulgated. The Bill seeks to replace the above Ordinance. Published in the Part IV-section 1 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 22nd February 1979. Received the assent of the President on the 13th December 1949 and first published in the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary dated the 15th December 1949. An Act to provide for [*]

6. Release from requisition.

(1)Where any property requisitioned under this Act is to be released from such requisition, the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government or any person generally or specially authorised by them in this behalf; may, after such inquiry if any, as they or he may in any case consider it necessary to make or cause to be made, specify by order in writing the person to whom possession of the property shall be given.(2)The delivery of possession of the property to the person specified in an order under sub-section (1) shall be a full discharge of the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government from all liabilities in respect of the property, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the property which any other person may be entitled by a due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the property is given.

7. Control of agriculture fee.

(1)The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government so far as it appears to be necessary or expedient for maintaining, increasing or securing the supply of essential articles, may, by notified order, provide -(a)for prohibiting, restricting or otherwise controlling the cultivation of specified crops;(b)for bringing under cultivation any waste or arable land, whether appurtenant to a building or not, and for the growing therein of specified crops.(2)If, in the opinion of the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government, the person in possession or having effective control of any land to which an order made under sub-section (1) applies has failed to comply with the order, the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against that person (hereinafter referred to as "defaulter") in respect of the contravention, by order direct that the land shall be placed in the exclusive possession of such person and for such period as may be specified in the order and during the period of continuance of the last mentioned, order the person specified therein shall have all the rights of the defaulter to manage the land and to realise the profits arising therefrom and shall only be liable to pay on behalf of the defaulter the Government revenue, all other charges, of a public nature and the rent, if any, accruing due in respect of the land during that period.

8. Delegation of powers.

(1)The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, by notified order, authorize any officer or authority subordinate to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government, to exercise any one or more of the powers vested in them by or under this Act except the power mentioned in section 19, in relation to such matters and subject to such restrictions and conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order.(2)The exercise of the powers delegated under sub-section (1) shall be subject to control and revision by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government or by such persons as may be empowered by them in that behalf. The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government shall also have power to control and revise the acts or proceedings of any persons so empowered.

9. Continuance in force of existing orders.

(1)Every order made by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government or the Central Government or any other competent authority -(a)under any of the provisions of the Defence of India Rules in respect of any of the matters specified in sections 3,4 and 7 which having been notified in the Official Gazette was in force immediately before the commencement of this Act; or(b)under any of the provisions of sections 3,4 and 7 of (i) the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Tamil Nadu Act XIV of 1946), or (ii) that Act as applied to [the Pudukkottai State] [Substituted for 'the Pudukkottai and Banganapalle States', by clause 3 of, and the Schedule to, the Madras Adaptation of Laws Order, 1954.] under the [Foreign Jurisdiction Act] [Substituted for 'Extra-Provincial Jurisdiction Act', by section 4 of, and the Third Schedule to, the Tamil Nadu Repealing and Amending Act, 1957 (Tamil Nadu Act XXV of 1957).] 1947 (Central Act XLVII of 1947), on the footing that the first mentioned Act was in force at the relevant time, or (iii) the Madras Essential Articles Control and Requisitioning (Temporary Powers) Ordinance, 1949 (Madras Ordinance VI of 1949), if the order was in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall, in so far as it could validly have been made by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government under this Act, continue in force as if it has been made by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government under the provisions of this Act and remain until it is superseded or modified by the competent authority under the provisions of this Act; and all appointments made, licences or permits issued, regulations made and directions given under any such order shall also continue in force until superseded or modified by the competent authority. Explanation. - In this sub-section, "Official Gazette" means, and shall be deemed always to have meant, the Gazette of India, the [Fort St. George Gazette] [Now the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.] or any District Gazette published in the State of Tamil Nadu. (2) The [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government may, if they consider it expedient so to do from time to time, modify or annul any order, appointment, licence, permit, regulation or direction specified in sub-section (1).

10. Effect of orders inconsistent with other enactments.

- Any order made under section 3, section 4 or section 7 or continued under section 9 shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any enactment other than this Act or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any enactment other than this Act.

11. Mode of publication.

(1) Every authority or officer who makes any order in writing in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act shall, in the case of an order of a general nature affecting a class of persons, publish such order by a notification in the manner prescribed by rules made under this Act and in such manner as may, in the opinion of such authority or officer, be best suited for informing the persons whom the order concerns. Where the order is not of a general nature, the authority or officer may serve the order or cause it to be served on the person concerned -(a) personally by delivering or tendering him the order; (b) by sending him an authenticated copy of the order by post; or (c) where the person cannot be found, by leaving an authenticated copy of the order with some adult male member of his family or by affixing it to any part of the premises in which he is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain. (2) Where any provision of this Act empowers an authority or officer to take action by notified order, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply in relation to such order.

12. Penalties.

(1) If any person contravenes any order made under section 3 or section 4 or section 7 (1) (a) or continued under section 9, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both; and, if the order so provides, any Court trying such contravention may direct that any property in respect of which the Court is satisfied that the order, has been contravened, shall be forfeited to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government: Provided that where the contravention is of an order relating to an essential article which contains an express provision in this behalf, the Court shall make such direction, unless for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is of opinion that the direction should not be made in respect of the whole or, as the case may be, apart of the property.(2)Where any essential article is seized under the authority of an order made under this Act or continued under section 9 and such order provides for the forfeiture of the article in respect of which the order has been contravened, such forfeiture may, whether or not any prosecution is instituted for a contravention of the order, be adjudged by the Collector of the district or Presidency town in which the seizure was made, and any forfeiture so adjudged shall, subject only to an appeal which shall lie to the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government, be final:Provided that an adjudication of forfeiture under this sub-section shall be no bar to the prosecution or punishment of any person under sub-section(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 32 of the Code of [Criminal Procedure, 1898] [Now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974), section 29.] (Central Act V of 1898), it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of the first class specially empowered by the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government in this behalf and for any Presidency Magistrate to pass a sentence of fine exceeding one thousand rupees on any person convicted of contravening an order made under this Act or continued under section 9.Notes. - According to clauses (a) and (c) of sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974), which came into force on the 1st April 1974, any reference to a Magistrate of the first class shall be construed as a reference to a Judicial Magistrate of the first class and any reference to a Presidency Magistrate shall be construed as a reference to a Metropolitan Magistrate.(4)If any person to whom any provision of any order made under this Act or continued under section 9 relates, or to whom any such provision is addressed or who is in occupation, possession or control of any land, building, vehicle, vessel or other thing to which such provision relates -(a)fails, without lawful authority, or excuse himself, or in respect of any land, building, vehicle, vessel or other thing of which he is in occupation, possession or control to comply, or to secure compliance, with such provision, or(b)evades or attempts to evade, by any means, such provision, he shall be deemed to have contravened such provision and in this Act, the expression "contravention" with its grammatical variations shall include any such failure, evasion or attempt to evade.

13. Abetment and assistance of contraventions.

- Any person who attempts to contravene or abets or attempts to abets or does any act preparatory to a contravention of an order made under this Act or continued under section 9 shall be deemed to have contravened the order; and any person who knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that any other person is contravening any order made under this Act or continued under section 9, gives that other person any assistance with intent thereby to prevent, hinder or otherwise interfere with his arrest, trial or punishment for the said contravention, shall also be deemed to have contravened the order.

14. Offences by corporations.

- If the person who contravenes or is deemed to by contravene an order made under section 3, section 4 or section 7 or continued under section 9 is a company or other body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer or agent thereof shall, unless he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention, be deemed to be guilty of such contravention.

15. Cognizance of offences.

- No Court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence, made by a person who is a public servant as defined in section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860).

16. Burden of proof.

- Where any person is prosecuted for contravening any order made under this Act or continued under section 9 which prohibits him from doing an act or being in possession of a thing without lawful authority or excuse or without a permit, licence, certificate or permission, the burden of proof that he has such authority or excuse or, as the case may be, the requisite permit, licence, certificate or permission shall be on him.

17. Savings as to orders.

(1) No Court shall, in any suit in which the validity of an order issued or action taken under this Act is in question, have power to issue any injunction, whether permanent or temporary, so as to restrain the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of-Laws Order, 1950.] Government or any authority or officer empowered by or under this Act from executing or carrying out any order passed by them or by him under this Act, or in any way interfere with or affect such order. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prevent the Court from granting in the suit any relief by way of compensation to which the party may be entitled. (2) Where an order purports to have been made and signed by any authority in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act, a Court shall, within the meaning of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act I of 1872), presume that such order was so made by that authority.

18. Protection of action taken under the Act.
