Notification NO. F.7(1) DOP/A-II/96 dated 1.4.1997 shall be deemed to have been repealed w.e.f. 1.4.1997. Explanation: - Adequate representation means 16% representation of the Scheduled Castes and 12% representation of the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the roster point.

16. Probation.

- All persons appointed to the lowest post in the service by promotion shall be on probation for a period of one year. Provided that such of them as have previous to their appointment by promotion officiated temporarily on the post which is followed by regular selection may be permitted by the Commission to count such officiating, or temporary service towards the period of probation. This shall, however not amount to involve suppression, of any senior person or disturb the order of their preference: Provided further that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

17. Unsatisfactory progress during probation.

(1) If it appears to the Commission at any time during or at the end of the period of probation that a member of the service has not made sufficient use of his opportunities or that he has failed to give satisfaction, the Commission with the approval of the Governor may revert him to the post held substantively by him immediately preceding his appointment provided he holds a lien thereon or in other cases may discharge him from Service: Provided that the Commission may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases, extend the period of probation of any member of the service by a specified period not exceeding one year: Provided further that the Commission may, if it so thinks fit in case of person belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding one year at a time and total extension not exceeding two years. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the above proviso during the period of probation, if a probationer is placed under suspension or disciplinary proceedings are contemplated or started against him, the period of his probation may be extended till such period as the Commission thinks fit in the circumstances.

18. Declaration of satisfactory completion of probation etc.

- At the end of the prescribed or extended period of probation, as the case may be, the Commission shall consider the suitability of the probationer to hold the post to which he was appointed and:- (a) If it decides that the probationer is suitable to hold the post to which he was appointed and has passed the examination or tests, if any required to be passed during the period of probation, it shall, as soon as possible, issue an order declaring the probationer to have satisfactorily completed his probation and such an order shall have effect from the date of the expiry of the prescribed, or extended period of probation. (b) A probationer shall not be considered to have satisfactorily completed the probation unless a specific order to that effect is passed.

19. Confirmation.

- A person placed on probation, shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of his period of probation, if the Commission is satisfied that his integrity is unquestionable and that he is otherwise fit for confirmation. Part-VI Pay

20. Scale of Pay.

- The scales of pay attached to the posts in the service shall be such as may be sanctioned by the Government from time to time for corresponding posts in the Secretariat as may be admissible under the rules referred to in rule 22 or as may be ordered by the Governor from time to time.

21. Increments during probation.

- A person placed on probation shall draw increments in the scale of pay admissible to him in accordance with the provisions of the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951.

22. Regulations of Pay, Leave, Allowances, Pension etc.

- Except as provided in these, rules the pay allowances, pension, leave and other conditions of service of a member of the Service shall be regulated by:-
