Andhra Pradesh Rural Development Act, 1996(Act No. 11 of 1996)Last Updated 26th October, 2019Statement and Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 22 of 2000). - According to Section 7 of the Andhra Pradesh Rural Development Cess Act, 1996 a miller has to pay Rural Development Cess at the rate of 5% on the value of paddy purchased within the State. Food Corporation of India reimburses all the taxes and the cesses paid to Government by the Miller for the supplies of rice made to it. The Present Procedure of collection of Rural Development Cess from large number of Millers who supply rice under levy to Food Corporation of India is found to be cumbersome and causing undue delay and administrative difficulties. In order to over-come the difficulty, Government have decided to amend said Act, so as to enable the Food Corporation of India and other agencies to deduct the amount of Rural Development Cess from the amounts payable to the Miller and remit the same to Government directly.This Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision.Appended to L.A. Bill No. 20 of 2000.The following act of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 24th August, 1996 and the said assent is hereby first published on the 26th August, 1996 in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette for general information:-An Act to provide for the levy and collection of cess for the Rural Development in the State and to provide for the matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Andhra Pradesh in the Forty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows : -It is observed that the development in the rural areas in the State has not been accelerated due to paucity of funds. The Government are of the view that there is an imperative need to provide financial assistance for the development of rural areas in the State by creating infrastructure facilities, so that the economic activities in the rural areas will increase and thereby contribute for the growth of economy.With a view to generating funds for the purpose of development of the rural areas, it is considered desirable to levy a cess at the rate of 5 percentum on the advaloram basis on the quantum of purchase of goods specified in the Schedule appended to the Bill.To achieve the object in view it is necessary to enact a law by undertaking legislation, and the Government have accordingly decided to enact a law for the purpose.As the Legislative Assembly of the State was not then in session and as it has been decided to give effect to the above decision immediately, the Andhra Pradesh Rural Development Act, 1995 (Andhra Pradesh Act 21 of 1995) was promulgated by the Governor on the 29th December, 1995.
