Chapter II

Procedure for Application and its Disposal

3.

To get information under the Right to information Act, a self-signed application in Form-A shall be produced before the Public Information Officer affixing court fees of Rs. 12/- (Rupees Twelve only) on the said application. If the applicant desires to get the information by post, he shall send a self addressed registered envelope, bearing necessary postal stamps, along with the application. Procedure to be Adopted after Presentation of Application

4.

The application submitted before the Public Information Officer shall be registered in the register available in the office, the records regarding the information, desired in the application shall be requisitioned in his office and the applicant shall be instructed to appear on the 5th day from the date of submission of application. After receipt of record from the concerning section and after having confirmed that the desired information can/cannot be given to the applicant, the Public Information Officer shall accordingly inform.

5.

If the information desired by the applicant can be provided or the inspection of record can be carried out as per rules, the Public Information Officer shall inform the applicant in Form-B about the fee prescribed for supplying of such information before providing the desired information. In case the application is received by post, the Public Information Officer shall inform the applicant about the prescribed fee in Form-B through the envelope received along with the application and the desired information or record shall be supplied for inspection only after the deposit of requisite fees as per Rule 14 (To get the information by post, applicant shall submit self-addressed Registered envelope with necessary postal stamps along with the requisite fees). If the said fee is not deposited within 15 days, the application shall stand rejected.

6.

After receipt of fee, a date not exceeding seven days shall be fixed for the preparation and providing information to the applicant. So far as possible, arrangement shall be made to provide the desired information by the said date. If, for any reason the information could not be provided on the prescribed date, next date shall be given to the applicant, and the intervening period of above two dates shall not exceed 7 days. If, even on the said date, due to any reason, the information could not be supplied to the applicant. Public Information Officer shall fix another date, but the total extended period shall not be more than 30 days. The information shall necessarily be provided within 30 days from the date of receipt of fees. With respect to application received by post, the information shall necessarily be sent within 30 days of receipt of fee. If, in respect of furnishing information, the Public Information Officer finds that it is not possible to give information under Sections 8 and 9 of the Act, he shall inform the applicant about rejection of said application, in form C. But, if the information is to be sent by post, the applicant shall bear the postal expenses.

7.

If the applicant is illiterate and is unable to present the application in writing, the Public Information Officer shall help him to the extent and shall get the application produced in writing.
