declarations, the Chairman is satisfied that the village is not qualified to be declared a Gramdan Village, he shall pass orders as such in Form X which shall be published in the Official Gazette as soon as possible.

7. Mode of Service of notice or order.

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the Act, any notice or order required to be served under the provisions of the Act, shall be served by delivering or tendering a copy thereof duly signed and sealed, to the person on whom it is to be served or to his duly authorised agent. (2) Where the person on whom the notice or order is to be served cannot be found and where such person has no agent empowered to accept service of notice or order on his behalf, service may be made on any adult member of the family of such person residing with him. (3) Where the serving officer delivers or tenders a copy of the notice or order to the person to be served with such notice or order personally or to an agent or other person on his behalf, he shall require the signature of the person to whom the copy is so delivered or tendered to an acknowledgement of service to be endorsed on the original notice or order. (4) Where the person to be served with notice or order or his agent or such other person as aforesaid refuses to sign the acknowledgement, or where the serving officer after using all due and reasonable diligence cannot find the person to be served with the notice or order and there is no agent empowered to accept service of notice or order on his behalf, or any other person on whom service can be made, service may be made by affixing a copy of the notice or order on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the person to be served with the notice or order ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works. (5) The Serving Officer shall in all cases in which the notice or order has been served under this sub-rule, endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed or annexed, on or to the original notice or order return stating the date on which and the manner in which the notice or order was served and the names and address of two persons witnessing the service. (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-rules, the authority issuing the notice or order may, if it thinks fit, order that the notice or order shall be served by sending a copy thereof, duly signed and sealed by registered post with acknowledgement due to the person on whom such notice or order is to be served and the posting of the notice or order shall be sufficient proof of the service of such notice or order on the person concerned. (7) Where the person to be served with a notice or order under the Act is a minor or a person of unsound mind, the service shall be made in the aforesaid manner on the guardian of such minor or person of unsound mind, as the case may be. (8) Unless otherwise provided in the Act or the Rules any general or public notice or order required to be served under the provisions of the Act or the Rules shall be served by affixing a copy of it in the presence of not less than two persons at some conspicuous public place where the property concerned is situated. The publication of the notice shall be announced by the beat of drum in the place where it is published. The serving officer shall in such case endorse or annex, or cause to be endorsed or annexed or to the original notice a return stating the date on which, and the manner in which the notice was published and the names and addresses of the two persons witnessing the publication.

8. Manner of enquiry by the Chairman.

- On the date fixed for hearing, or on any adjourned date, the Chairman shall, after hearing the declarant and the objector, and after taking into consideration such evidence as may be adduced and after making such further enquiry as may be deemed necessary, either confirm or refuse to confirm the declaration.

9. Order confirming the declaration.

- The Order confirming the declaration shall clearly specify the survey plot number of the land and the area and boundary of part of the plot if any, the name of the village and thana number.

10. Registration of part of a village as a separate revenue village.

(1)Where a part of revenue village has been declared to be a Gramdan Village, the Gram Sabha of the Gramdan Village shall file an application before the Collector of the district in Form XI.(2)On receipt of such application, the Collector shall make an enquiry in the matter through any other person or himself.(3)If after such enquiry the Collector is satisfied that the part of the revenue village should be separated from the rest of the revenue village, he shall by notification in the Official Gazette, declare that part as a separate revenue village and register it accordingly.(4)The common lands of the original revenue village shall be apportioned as far as possible, proportionately according to ares of the two parts of the divided villages in such a manner as to provide for their continuity to the particular part of the village.

11. The rate of collection charges for the recovery of land revenue.

- The rate of collection charges for the recovery of land revenue and the time and manner of remitting the same shall be fixed by State Government in consultation with the Chirman, Bhoodan Yagna Committee and shall generally be on the line allowed to a Gram Panchayat.

12. Terminating the interest of Gramdan Kisan under Section 18 (1).

(1)If any Gramdan Kisan violates any of the conditions laid down in sub-section (1) of Section 18 the Gram Sabha concerned may file an application in Form XII before the Anchal Adhikari of the Anchal for terminating the interest of the Gramdan Kisan over the land and if he is in possession thereof, for his eviction therefrom.(2)On receipt of the application, the Anchal Adhikari shall issue notices to the Gramdan Kisan and the Gram Sabha and after hearing them and after making such enquiry as he deems fit, pass necessary order on the application.(3)If the Anchal Adhikari pass an order of eviction, he shall give possession of such lands to the Gram Sabha after ejecting the Gramdan Kisan or any other person found to be in unlawful possession thereof by use of such force for the purpose as he may consider necessary.(4)The Anchal Adhikari may, instead of terminating the interest of the Gramdan Kisan or ordering his eviction order the Gram Sabha to take over management of such land for a period to be specified in the order.(5)Details of all such temporarily manged lands shall be entered in a register maintained in Form No. XIII.(6)The Anchal Adhikari may also fix a date by which the Gramdan Kisan or the person in possession of the land shall hand over management to Gram Sabha. If, the Gramdan Kisan or the person in possession of the land does not hand over management of the land by the date, the Anchal Adhikari may eject the Gramdan Kisan or the person in possession by use of such force for that purpose as he may consider necessary. The Gram Sabha shall restore the possession of the land to the Gramdan Kisan or his heir or successor-in-interest after the said period.(7)The Gram Sabha shall cultivate the lands made over to it for management, either through its own men or through any other person. The Gram Sabha shall maintain complete accounts of the expenditure incurred and incomes derived from such lands for each quarter of the agricultural year, if the lands are cultivated by its own men; in any other case, the person entrusted with the actual cultivation of land shall maintain an account of all expenditure incurred over the cultivation of such lands and income derive therefrom, and render complete accounts to the Gram Sabha for each quarter of the agricultural year, within a month of the preceding quarter to which the accounts relates.(8)The surplus income, if any after making deductions as mentioned in subsection (4) of Section 18, shall be paid to the Gramdan Kisan, in cash or kind, soon after the accounts as finally prepared by the Gram Sabha or rendered by the person to whom the cultivation had been entrusted.

13. Landless person under Section 20.

- For the purposes of Section 20, the expression "landless person" shall have the same meaning as defined in clause (gha) or Rule 2 of the Bihar Bhoodan Yagna Regulations, framed under Section 24 of the Bihar Bhoodan Yagna Act, 1954 (Bihar Act XXII of 1954).

14. Eviction of allottees.

(1)If any allottee of land contravenes the provision of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 20, or fails to pay any dues in respect of any land allotted to him the Gram Sabha may make an application under Section 24 before the Anchal Adhikari of the Anchal in Form XIV for cancelling the allotment.(2)On receipt of the application, the Anchal Adhikari shall issue notice to the allottee and the Gram Sabha and after hearing them and after making such enquiry as he deems fit, pass necessary orders on the application.(3)If the Anchal Adhikari passes an order cancelling the allotment and restoring possession of the land to the Gram Sabha, he shall give possession of such land to the Gram Sabha after ejecting the allottee or any other person found in possession thereof by use of such force, for the purpose, as he may consider necessary.(4)The Anchal Adhikari may, instead of cancelling the allotment and restoring the possession of the land to the Gram Sabha, order the Gram Sabha to take over management of such land for a period to be specified in the order and also fix a date by which the Gram Sabha shall assume the management of the land. If the allottee or any other person in possession of the land does not hand over management of the land by the specified date, the Anchal Adhikari may eject the allottee or any other person in possession by use of such force for the purpose as he may consider necessary. The Gram Sabha shall restore the possession of the land to the allottee after the said period.(5)Details of all such temporarily managed lands shall be entered in Register maintained in Form XIII.(6)The Gram Sabha shall manage the land and pay the allottee the surplus income, if any, derived from the land in accordance with the provisions of sub-rules (7) and (8) of Rule 12.

(1) From an order passed under the Act, an appeal shall lie, when the order was made, - (a) by the person, to whom the powers and functions of the Chairman, have been delegated under the Act to the Collector if the order was passed under the provisions of Section 4, 5, 23 and 6; (b) by the Chairman, to the Gramdan Commissioner notified as such by the State Government, if the order was passed under the provisions of the Act, as mentioned in clause (a) of sub-rule (a); (c) by the Anchal Adhikari, to the Collector or any officer not below the rank of a Deputy Collector, specially empowered in this behalf, if the order was passed under Sections 18 and 24 of the Act. (2) Subject to the order of the Board of Revenue in Revision, the appellate order of the Collector and the Gramdan Commissioner shall be final. (3) No appeal shall lie if preferred after 30 days of the date of the order applied against. (4) A register of appeals shall be maintained in Form XV.

16. Procedure for hearing appeal.

- The procedure to be followed by the Appellate Authority in disposing of appeals shall as far as possible, be the same as provided for Civil Appeals under Order XLI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908).
