Tamil Nadu Gramdan Villages (Repayment of Debts) Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 6 of 1959) Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Gramdan Villages (Repayment of Debts) Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 6 of 1959). - The landholders in Gramdan villages, who have surrendered their rights over their lands in favour of the village community, are subjected to more than the usual pressure for the repayment of debts as their creditors are afraid that their loans will become insecure and prove irrecoverable. The question was, therefore, considered whether any special legislation should be undertaken for imposing a moratorium for a specified period on repayment of loans outstanding from persons residing in those villages where Gramdan has made considerable progress. The Government have decided that the moratorium should be in the form of staying execution of a decree in respect of debts due from persons residing in any of the villages specified in the Schedule to the Bill for a period of one year against their persons and property-movable or immovable. The debtors in the scheduled villages are permitted to pay the debts in three equal annual instalments after the expiry of the period of one year. The Bill when enacted will be applicable to the villages specified in the Schedule to the Bill, but the State Government may include any other village in the Schedule. Debts due to the Central Government and the State Government or co-operative societies will, however, be exempted from the proposed moratorium.<sup>2</sup> The Bill seeks to give effect to the above objects. Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 9th March 1959. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Gramdan Villages (Repayment of Debts) Act, 1960 (Tamil Nadu Act 5 of 1960). - The landholders in Gramdan Villages, who have surrendered their rights over their lands in favour of the Village community, are subject to more than the usual pressure for the repayment of debts as their creditors, are afraid that their loans will become insecure and prove irrecoverable. The question was, therefore, considered whether any special legislation should be undertaken for imposing a moratorium for a specified period on repayment of loans outstanding from persons residing in those villages where Gramdan has made considerable progress and accordingly the Madras Gramdan Villages (Repayment of Debts) Act, 1959 (Madras Act 6 of 1959), was enacted. The moratorium under that Act was in the form of staying execution of decrees in respect of debts due from persons residing in any of the villages specified in the Schedule to the Act for a period of one year against their persons and property-movable or immovable, and the debtors in the Scheduled villages permitted to pay the debts in three equal annual instalments after the expiry of the period of one year. The Act is applicable to the villages specified in the Schedule to the Act, but the State Government may include any other village in the Schedule. Debts due to the Central Government and the State Government or cooperative societies are, however, exempted from the moratorium. The period of moratorium is due to expire by 6th May 1960. It has been represented that the seasonal conditions in Gramdan villages during 1959-60 were not favourable to the Gramdanis due to want of timely rains for dry crops, that the agricultural produce were hardly sufficient to meet their domestic needs after repayment of the instalments due to Government loans and that in some places the Gramdanis were not able even to repay the Government loans. It has also been represented that the Gramdanis have not enjoyed the fruit of the Gramdan movement fully. Hence, it is proposed to extend the period of moratorium for a further period of one year by suitably amending the Act for the purpose. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above object. Published in Part IV-Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th April 1960. Received the assent of the Governor on the 7th May 1959 and first published in the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated 7th May 1959. An Act to provide for temporary relief to indebted persons residing in Gramdan villages in the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the expression 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.]. Whereas many persons have donated lands for Gramdan in certain villages and hamlets in the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the expression 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.]; And Whereas the steps necessary to provide agricultural credit in those villages and hamlets and for discharging already existing debts of persons residing in those villages and hamlets are not yet complete; And Whereas if creditors are allowed to resort to Court for realisation of the debts, the Gramdan movement will be harmed; And Whereas it is expedient to provide temporary relief to the indebted persons residing in those villages and hamlets; Be it enacted in the Tenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-
