When proposals and objections have been submitted, no development shall be undertaken until the Government has finally decided on that matter.(7)The Government on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the Authority shall, in consultation with the Chief Town Planner either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the concerned department or local authority, as the case may be, to make such modification in the proposals as they consider necessary in the circumstances.(8)The "Operational Constructions" of the departments of the Central or State Government or local authority, as may be notified by the Government from time to time, shall be exempted from the purview of the Authority.

46. Appeal against refusal or conditional grant of permission.

(1)Any applicant aggrieved by an order passed under sub-section (2) of section 45 may appeal, within one month of the communication of that order or if no order is passed, after the expiry of the period of three months from the date of submitting the application for permission, to the Government or an officer appointed by the Government, in this behalf in the manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.(2)The appellate authority, after receiving the appeal and after giving reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the concerned Authority to be heard, may pass an order dismissing the appeal or allowing the appeal by:-(a)Granting permission unconditionally; or(b)Granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit; or(c)Removing the conditions subject to which permission has been granted and imposing other conditions, if any, as it may consider fit.

47. Lapse of permission.

- Every permission for any development granted under this Act shall remain in force for a period of three years only from the date of such permission:Provided that the Authority may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the aforesaid period, extend such period, for such time as it may consider proper but such extended period shall in no case exceed one year:Provided further that such lapse shall not be a bar for any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

48. Obligation to acquire land on refusal of or on grant of permission certain cases.

(1)Where:-(a)Any land is designated by a plan as subject to compulsory acquisition; or(b)Any land is allotted by a plan for the purpose of any functions of a Government or a local authority or a statutory body, or land is designated in such plan as a site proposed to be developed for the purposes of any functions of any such Government, authority or body; or(c)Any land is indicated in any plan as land on which a highway is proposed to be constructed or included; or(d)Any land for the development of which permission is refused or is granted subject to conditions, and any owner of land referred to an clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d) claims:-(i)That the land has become incapable or reasonably beneficial use in its existing state; or(ii)Where planning permission is given subject to conditions that the land cannot be rendered capable or reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of the permitted development in accordance with the conditions; or(e)The owner of the land because of its designation or allocation in any plan claims that he is unable to sell it except at a lower price than that at which he might have reasonably expected to sell if it were not so designated or allocated;The owner or person affected may serve on the Government within such time and in such manner, as may be prescribed by regulations, a notice (hereinafter referred to as "the purchase notice") requiring the appropriate authority to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of this Act.(2)The purchase notice shall be accompanied by a copy of an application made by the applicant to the Authority, and of an order or decision of that Authority and of the Government, if any, in respect of which the notice is given.(3)On receipt of a purchase notice, the Government shall, forthwith, call from the Authority such report or records or both, as may be necessary, which those authorities shall forward to the Government as soon as possible but later than thirty days from the date of their requisition.(4)On receiving such reports or records, if the Government is satisfied that the conditions specified in sub-section (1) are fulfilled and that the order or decision for permission was not duly made on the ground that the applicant did not comply with any of the provisions of this Act or rules or regulations, it may confirm the purchase notice, or direct that planning permission be granted without condition or subject to such conditions as will make the land capable of reasonably beneficial use. In any other case, it may refuse to confirm the purchase notice, but in that case, it shall give the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(5)If within a period of six months from the date from which the purchase notice is served, the Government does not pass any final order hereon, the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiration of that period.(6)If within one year from the date of confirmation of the notice, the appropriate authority fails to make an application to acquire the land in respect of which the purchase notice has been confirmed, the reservation, designation, allotment, indication or restriction on development of the land shall be deemed to have lapsed; and thereupon the land shall be deemed to be released from the reservation, designation or, as the case may be, allotment, indication or restriction and shall become available to the owner for the purpose of development otherwise permissible in the case of adjacent lands under the relevant plan.

49. Power of revocation or modification of permission to develop.

(1)If it appears to the Authority that it is expedient, having regard to development prepared or under preparation and to any other material consideration that any permission to develop land granted under this Act or any other law should be revoked or modified, the Authority after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard against such revocation or modification, may, by an order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary: (a) Where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations, no such order:—(i) Shall affect such of the operation as have been previously carried out; (ii) Shall be passed after these operations have substantially progressed or have been completed; (b) Where permission relates to a use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place. (2) When a permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1), if the owner claims from the Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission, which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Authority shall, after giving the owner reasonable opportunity of being heard by an officer appointed by it in this behalf, and after considering the officer's report assess and offer such compensation to the owner as it thinks fit. (3) If the owner does not accept compensation, and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the Court and the decision of the Court shall be final and binding on the owner and Authority.

50. Penalty for unauthorized development or for use otherwise than in conformity with the development plan or development scheme.

development has been obtained under the provisions of Chapter VII or this Act by the concerned local authority, body corporate or co-operative society, as the case may be, the department of the State or the Central Government.(4)No development scheme shall be framed by the Authority and no project shall be formulated by any other person or body including departments of Central and State Governments unless they are in conformity with the provisions of a plan approved under this Act.

59. Power of the Authority to engage consultants.

- The Authority may, for framing and executing a development scheme, engage any consultant on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between it and the consultant.

60. Publication of the development scheme and its approval.

(1)As soon as may be, after a development scheme has been formulated, the authority shall publish it in at least one local newspaper, a notice of preparation of the development scheme and the place or the places where copies of the same may be inspected, inviting objections and suggestion in writing form the public to be filed within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice in the newspaper. The notice shall also state the name of the place or places where a copy of the development scheme shall be available for inspection by the public during the office hours:Provided that no such notice under this sub-section shall be required where the development scheme is within the framework of the approved development plan of a development area.(2)After the expiry of the period allowed under sub-section (1) for filing objections and suggestions, the Authority shall consider all the objections and suggestions received and shall after allowing reasonable opportunity of being heard, to any person who has made a request of being so heard, make such modifications in the development scheme as it considers proper within a period of sixty days of the date of expiry of the notice period allowed under sub-section (1), and shall approve the development scheme.(3)Immediately after the approval of the development scheme by the Authority, it shall notify in Official Gazette and publish a notice, in at least one local newspaper, of the approval of the development scheme mentioning the place or places and the time at which the scheme shall be open to inspection by the public.

61. Power to the Authority to set-up functional agencies.

(1)The Authority may, with the prior approval of the Government, set-up functional agencies for performance of such specific functions, not inconsistent with the objects of this Act, in such cases where it considers appropriate that it would be in public interest and would effect economy and efficiency in the performance of the functions assigned to it.(2)The composition, management and the procedures of the aforesaid agencies to be set-up under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

62. Auction of Floor Area Ratio.

(1) If the Authority is satisfied that in a particular locality, augmentation of infrastructure, particularly relating to transportation, has occurred to such an extent that there is a scope for permitting additional built-up space by way of additional Floor Area Ratio (FAR) or Floor Space Index (FSI) over and above the permissible FAR or FSI in the area, it may prepare, with the approval of the Government, a scheme identifying the specific area where such additional built-up space can be permitted by way of auction and specifying the applicable development control norms. (2) The scheme prepared under sub-section (1) shall qualify the total additional built-up space to be permitted and maximum spot Floor Area Ratio or Floor Space Index to be allowed by auction. Thereupon, the Authority, shall auction the aforesaid additional built-up space in the manner prescribed: Provided that no auction shall take place unless augmentation of infrastructure and services mentioned in sub-section (1) has become fully operational. Chapter-IX Acquisition, Assembly and Disposal of Land

63. Power to acquire land under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

(1) Any land required, reserved or designated in a perspective plan, a development plan, or an annual plan, or a development scheme shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894) and may be acquired by the Government on request by the Authority. (2) Where any land has been acquired by the Government under sub-section (1), it may after it has taken possession of the land, transfer the land to the Authority for the purpose for which the land has been acquired on payment by the Authority of the compensation awarded under the Act and of the changes incurred by the Government in connection with the acquisition.

64. Special provision for invocation of section 4 of Land Acquisition Act, 1894 in certain cases.

(1) The notification for approval of: (a) The regional development plan under section 18; (b) The development plan of the development area under sub-section (10) of section 38; and (c) The development scheme under sub-section (3) of section 60 shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, be deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 4 of the said Act.

65. Acquisition of property by the Authority.

- The Authority may acquire any movable or immovable property by purchase, exchange, gift, lease, mortgage, or by any other means permissible under any law for the time being in force.

66. Transfer of Government land to the Authority.

- The Government may, by order and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Government and the Authority, place at the disposal of the Authority any developed or undeveloped Government land situated within the jurisdiction of such Authority for the purpose of development in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

67. Acquisition of land by way of negotiated settlement.

- The Authority may acquire land by agreement by paying such amount as may be arrived at through negotiated settlement in such manner as may be prescribed under regulations.

68. Disposal of land and other property by the Authority.

- The disposal of any land acquired by the Government and transferred to the Authority under section 63 or any land transferred to the Authority under section 63 or any land transferred to it under section 65, 66, or 67 or any other land with or without carrying out development thereon, or any other improvable property belonging to the Authority, shall be done in accordance with the rules made for the purpose in this behalf. Chapter-X Levy, Assessment and Recovery of Development Charge

69. Levy of development charge.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, and with the previous sanction of the Government, every Authority shall, by notification published in the Official Gazette, levy a charge (hereinafter called the development charge) on the carrying out of any development or the institution or change of use of land for which permission is required to be obtained under Chapter VII of this Act, in the whole or any part of the development area, at the rates specified in section 70: Provided that the rates may be different for different parts of the development area. (2) The development charge shall be leviable on any person who undertakes or carries out such development and institutes or changes any such use. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and (2), no development charge shall be levied on development or institution of, change of use of any land vested in, or under the control or possession of the Central Government, the State Government or any local authority. (4) The Government may, by rules, provided for exemption from the levy of development charge, any development, institution or change of any use of any land specified in the rules.

70. Rates of development charge.

(1) For the purpose of assessing the development charge, the use of land and building shall be classified under the following categories: (a) Agricultural, (b) Residential, (c) Industrial, (d) Commercial, and (e) Miscellaneous. (2) In classifying the use of land and building under any of the categories mentioned in sub-section (1), the predominant purpose for which such land and building is used shall be the main basis for such classification: Provided that where land appurtenant to a building is used for any purpose independent of the building, development charge may be levied separately for such use also. (3) The actual charges may vary from one town to another and within the town from one area to another depending on its development and institution or changed of use. (4) The development charge shall not exceed:-

(a) For the institution of use,-

- |                    |                  |

| (v) From residence to commerce     | Rs 190/- sq. mtr |
| (vi) From industry to residence    | Rs 40/- sq. mtr  |
| (viii) From industry to commerce   | Rs 150/- sq. mtr |

71. Assessment and recovery of development charge.

(1) Any person who intends to carry out any development, or to institute, or change any use of any land for which permission under Chapter VII is necessary whether he has applied for such permission or not or who has commenced the carrying out of any such development or has carried out such development or instituted or changed any use, shall apply to the Authority within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed for the assessment of development charge payable in respect thereof. (2) The Authority shall, on such application being made, or if no such application is made, after serving notice on the person liable for development charge, determine in the manner specified in sub-section (3) and (4), the development charge, if any, is leviable in respect of that development or use. (3) The Town Planning Member shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person who has made an application under sub-section (1) or who has been served with a notice under sub-section (2) make a report to the Authority. (4) After taking into consideration the report of the Town Planning Member made under sub-section (3), the Authority shall assess the amount of development charge by an order: Provided that (a) Where permission under Chapter VII has not been granted for carrying out the said development, the Authority may postpone the assessment of the development charge; (b) Where the application relates to the carrying out of any development in any land, the Authority may refuse to assess the development charge payable in respect thereof, unless it is satisfied that the applicant has an interest in the land sufficient to enable him to carry out such development, or that the applicant is able to obtain such interest and that the applicant will carry out the development within such period as the Authority considers appropriate; (c) Where the application relates to the institution or change of any use of land, the Authority may refuse to assess the amount of development charge payable in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the use will be instituted within such period as the Authority considers appropriate.(5)The Authority shall deliver or serve copy of such order on the applicant or the person liable for the development charge.(6)Such order of assessment subject to the provisions of section 72, shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.
